Preface

This version of the Bible has been prepared to meet the special needs of the deaf. Whether it is published as the English Version for the Deaf or the Easy-to-Read Version, the text is the same. People who can hear are not usually aware of the particular problems that the deaf face in reading standard English. Hearing persons learn English largely through oral conversation. The deaf do not have this advantage, so their experience with the language is severely limited. It is this limited experience with the spoken language that causes most of the problems the deaf face in learning to read. But the deaf are not the only ones with limited language experience. Children, people who learn English as a foreign language, and many others face similar difficulties in reading. This specialized English version is designed to help such people overcome or avoid the most common obstacles to reading with understanding.

One of the basic ideas that guided the work on this version of the Scriptures was that good translation is good communication. The main concern of the translators was always to communicate to the reader the message of the Biblical writers as effectively and as naturally as the original writings did to people in that time. Faithful translation is not just matching words in a dictionary. It is a process of expressing the original message in a form that will not only have the same meaning, but will sound as relevant, attract the same interest, and have the same impact today as it did thousands of years ago.

Effective communication, then, was very important to the translators of this text. This desire to communicate did not make accuracy any less important, but "accuracy" was understood to be the faithful representation of ideas, not the exact correspondence of formal linguistic features.

The writers of Scripture, especially those who produced the New Testament writings, showed by the language style they used that they were interested in good communication. The translators of this English version considered this an important example to follow. So they worked to convey to their special audience the meaning of the Biblical text in a form that would be simple and natural. They used language that, instead of working as a barrier to understanding, would provide a key to unlock the truths of the Scriptures to a large segment of the English-speaking world.

Several special features are used in this translation to aid understanding. Brief explanations or synonyms sometimes follow difficult or ambiguous words in the text. These explanatory words are italicized within parentheses. Words or phrases that need fuller explanation are followed by an asterisk (*) and explained in footnotes at the bottom of the page. In addition, Scripture quotations are identified and variant readings are frequently given in the footnotes. Occasionally, words or statements that are implied by the context are supplied in the text to make the meaning clear. Such explanatory words or phrases are marked by half-brackets LJ.

Introduction

The word Bible comes from a Greek word meaning “books.” The Bible is actually two collections of books, often referred to as the “Old Testament” and the “New Testament.” The word translated “testament” was used to mean a “covenant” or “agreement.” It refers to God’s promise to bless his people. The Old Testament is the collection of writings that relate to the agreement God made with the Jewish people (Israel) in the time of Moses. The New Testament is the collection of writings that relate to the agreement God made with all people who believe in Jesus Christ.

The Old Testament writings give an account of God’s great acts in dealing with the Jewish people and reveal God’s plan for using those people to bring his blessings to the whole world. Those writings look forward to the coming of a Savior (or “Messiah”) that God would send to accomplish his plan. The New Testament writings are a sequel to the Old Testament story. They describe the coming of that Savior (Jesus Christ) and the meaning of his coming for all mankind. The Old Testament is important for understanding the New Testament, since it provides the necessary background. And the New Testament completes the story of salvation that began in the Old Testament.

THE OLD TESTAMENT

The Old Testament writings are a collection of thirty-nine different books produced by many different authors. They were written mainly in Hebrew, the language of ancient Israel. There are a few sections in Aramaic, the official language of the Babylonian empire. Portions of the Old Testament were written over 3,500 years ago, and more than 1,000 years passed between the writing of the first book and the last. In this collection there are books of law, history, prose, songs, poetry, and teachings from wise men.

The Old Testament is often divided into three main sections: the Law, the Prophets, and the Holy Writings. The Law contains five books called “The Five Books of Moses.” The first book is Genesis. It tells about the beginning of the world as we know it, the first man and woman, and their first sin against God. It tells about the Great Flood and the family God saved through that flood, and it tells about the beginnings of the nation of Israel, the people God chose to use for a special purpose.

THE STORY OF ABRAHAM

God made an agreement with Abraham, a great man of faith. In that agreement God promised to make Abraham the father of a great nation and to give him and his descendants the land of Canaan. Abraham was circumcised to show that he accepted the agreement, and circumcision became the proof of the agreement between God and his people. Abraham did not know how God would do the things he had promised, but Abraham trusted God. This pleased God very much.

God told Abraham to leave his home among the Hebrews of Mesopotamia and led him to the promised land, Canaan (also called Palestine). In his old age Abraham had a son named Isaac. Isaac had a son named Jacob. Jacob (also called Israel) had twelve sons and a daughter. This family became the nation of Israel, but it never forgot its tribal origin. It continued to refer to itself as the twelve tribes (or “family groups”) of Israel—descendants of the twelve sons of Jacob: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph, and Benjamin. The three main ancestors—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Israel)—are known as the “fathers” or “patriarchs” of Israel.

Abraham was also a “father” of another kind. Many times in ancient Israel, God called certain people to be his spokesmen. These spokesmen, or prophets, were God’s representatives to the people. Through the prophets God gave the people of Israel promises, warnings, laws, teachings, lessons drawn from past experiences, and lessons based on future events. Abraham “the Hebrew” is the first prophet mentioned in the Scriptures.

ISRAEL FREED FROM SLAVERY

The family of Jacob (Israel) grew to include about 70 of his direct descendants. One of his sons, Joseph, became a high official in Egypt. Times were hard, so Jacob and his family moved to Egypt, where food was plentiful and life was easier. This tribe of Hebrews grew to a small nation, and the Pharaoh (the king of Egypt) made slaves of these people. The book of Exodus tells about how finally, after 400 years, God used the prophet Moses to free the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt and take them back to Palestine. The price for freedom was high; but it was the Egyptians who had to pay. The Pharaoh and all the families of Egypt lost their firstborn sons before the Pharaoh finally agreed to let the people go free. The firstborn had to die so that the people could be freed—and the people of Israel later remembered this in many ways in their worship and sacrifices.

The people of Israel were ready for their trip to freedom. They had dressed for the escape from Egypt. Each family killed and roasted a lamb. They put the blood from the lamb on their doorposts as a special sign to God. They hurriedly baked bread without yeast and ate their meal. That night the Angel of the Lord went through the land. If the blood of the lamb was not on the doorposts, the firstborn of that family died. The people of Israel were freed. But as the slaves were about to leave Egypt, the Pharaoh changed his mind. He sent his army to catch the Israelite slaves and bring them back, but God saved his people. God split the Red Sea, led his people through to freedom on the other side, and destroyed the pursuing army of Egypt. Then, somewhere on the Arabian peninsula, at a mountain in the Sinai desert, God made a special agreement with those people.

THE LAW OF MOSES

God's rescue of the people of Israel and his agreement with them at Sinai set this nation apart from all others. This agreement contained promises and laws for the people of Israel. A part of this agreement, known as the Ten Commandments, was written by God on two stone tablets and given to the people. These commands contain the basic principles for the kind of life God expected the people of Israel to live. They cover an Israelite's duty to his God, his family, and his fellow-man.

The Ten Commandments and the rest of the rules and teachings given at Mount Sinai became known as "the Law of Moses" or simply "the Law." Many times these terms are used to refer to the first five books of the Scriptures and often to the entire Old Testament.

Besides the Ten Commandments and other rules of conduct, the Law of Moses contains rules about priests, sacrifices, worship, and holy days. These rules are found in the book of Leviticus. According to the Law of Moses, all priests and their helpers came from the tribe of Levi. These helpers were called "Levites." The most important priest was called the High Priest.

The Law includes instructions for building the Holy Tent ("tabernacle"), or Meeting Tent, the place the people of Israel went to worship God. It also has instructions for making all the things to be used in their worship. This prepared the Israelites for the building of the temple, the holy building in Jerusalem on Mount Zion, where the people would later go to worship God. The rules about sacrifices and worship forced the people to see that they sinned against each other and against God. But they also gave the people a way to be forgiven and re-united with one another and with God. These sacrifices prepared the way for a better understanding of the sacrifice God was preparing to give for all mankind.

The Law contained instructions for celebrating a number of holy days or festivals. Each festival had its own special meaning. Some festivals were happy occasions to celebrate special times of the year, such as the harvest festivals of First Fruits, Shabuoth (Pentecost or the Festival of Weeks), and Succoth (the Festival of Shelters).

Some festivals were for remembering the wonderful things God had done for his people. Passover was such a festival. Each family relived the escape from Egypt. The people sang songs of praise to God. A lamb was slaughtered and the meal prepared. Each cup of wine and morsel of food reminded the people of the things God had done to save them from a life of pain and sadness.

Other festivals were very serious. Every year, on the Day of Atonement, the people had to remember the many bad things they had done to others and to God. This was a day of sadness, and the people did not eat. But on that day the High Priest offered special sacrifices to cover over, or atone for, their sins.

The agreement between God and Israel was very important to the writers of the Old Testament. Almost all of the books of the Prophets and Holy Writings are based on the fact that the nation of Israel, and every citizen of Israel, had made a very special agreement with their God. They called it the "Agreement of the Lord" or simply "the Agreement." Their books of history interpret events in light of the Agreement: If the individual or nation was faithful to God and the Agreement, then God rewarded them. If the people abandoned the Agreement, then God punished them. God sent his prophets to remind the people of their agreement with God. The poets of Israel sang of the wonderful things God did for his obedient people, and they mourned over the pain and punishments that came to those who disobeyed God. These writers based their concepts of right and wrong on the teaching of the Agreement. And when innocent people suffered, the poets struggled to understand why.

THE KINGDOM OF ISRAEL

The story of ancient Israel is the story of the people abandoning God, God rescuing the people, the people turning back to God and eventually abandoning God again. This cycle began immediately after the people accepted God's Agreement, and it was repeated again and again. At Mount Sinai the people of Israel agreed to follow God, and then they rebelled and were forced to wander 40 years in the desert. Finally, Moses' helper, Joshua, led the people into the promised land. There was an initial conquest and a partial settling of the land of Israel. For the first few centuries after this settlement, the people were governed by local leaders called judges.

Eventually, the people wanted a king. The first king was Saul. Saul did not obey God, so God chose a shepherd boy named David to be the new king. The prophet Samuel came and poured oil on his head, anointing him king of Israel. God promised David that the future kings of Israel would be his descendants from the tribe of Judah. David conquered the city of Jerusalem and made it his capital and the future site of the temple. He organized the priests, prophets, song writers, musicians, and singers for the temple worship. David even wrote many of the songs (or psalms) himself, but God did not let him build the temple.

When David was old and about to die, he made his son Solomon king of Israel. David warned his son to always follow God and obey the Agreement. As king, Solomon built the temple and expanded Israel's borders. At this time Israel was at the height of its glory. Solomon became famous. Israel became strong.

JUDAH AND ISRAEL—THE DIVIDED KINGDOM

At Solomon's death there was civil strife, and the nation was divided. The northern ten tribes called themselves Israel. The southern tribes called themselves Judah. (The modern term "Jew" comes from this name.) Judah remained loyal to the Agreement, and David's dynasty (family of kings) continued ruling in Jerusalem until Judah was finally conquered and its people led away into exile by the Babylonians.

In the northern kingdom (Israel) several dynasties came and went, because the people did not follow the Agreement. The kings of Israel had several capital cities at various times, the last of which was Samaria. In order to strengthen their hold on the people, the kings of Israel changed the way to worship God. They chose new priests and they built two new temples: one at Dan (on the northern border of Israel) and the other at Bethel (along Israel's border with Judah). There were many wars between Israel and Judah.

During this time of civil war and troubles, God sent many prophets to Judah and Israel. Some of the prophets were priests; others were farmers. Some were advisors to kings; others lived a much simpler life. Some of the prophets wrote their teachings or prophecies; many others did not. But all the prophets came preaching of justice, fairness, and the need to depend on God for help.

Many prophets warned that the people would be defeated and scattered if they did not turn back to God. Some of these prophets saw visions of future glories as well as future punishments. Many of them looked forward to the time when a new king would come to rule the kingdom. Some saw this king as a descendant of David who would lead the people of God into a new Golden Age. Some spoke of this king as ruling forever over an eternal kingdom. Others saw him as a servant who would suffer many things in order to bring his people back to God. But all of them saw him as the Messiah, the one anointed (chosen) by God to bring in the new age.

THE DESTRUCTION OF ISRAEL AND JUDAH

The people of Israel did not listen to God's warnings, so in 722/721 B.C. Samaria fell to the invading Assyrians. The people of Israel were taken from their homes and scattered throughout the Assyrian empire, lost forever to their brothers and sisters in Judah. The Assyrians then brought in foreigners to re-settle the land of Israel. These people were taught about the religion of Judah and Israel, and many of them tried to follow the Agreement. These people came to be known as the Samaritans. The Assyrians tried to invade Judah. Many cities fell to the invaders, but God saved Jerusalem. The defeated king of Assyria returned to his homeland, and there he was assassinated by two of his sons. So Judah was saved.

For a short time the people of Judah changed. They began to obey God for a short time, but they too were finally defeated and scattered. The nation of Babylon rose to power and invaded Judah. At first they took only a few important people away as captives. But a few years later, in 587/586 B.C., they returned to destroy Jerusalem and the temple. Some of the people escaped to Egypt, but most of them were taken as slaves to Babylon. Again God sent prophets to the people, and they began to listen. It seems that the destruction of the temple and Jerusalem and the exile in Babylon brought about a real change in the people. The prophets spoke more and more about the new king and his kingdom. One of the prophets, Jeremiah, even spoke of a New Agreement. This New Agreement would not be written on tablets of stone, but would be in the hearts of God's people.

THE JEWS RETURN TO PALESTINE

Meanwhile, Cyrus came to power over the Medo-Persian empire and conquered Babylon. Cyrus allowed people to return to their homelands. So after 70 years of exile, many of the people of Judah went back home. The people tried to rebuild their nation, but Judah remained small and weak. The people built the temple again, although it was not as beautiful as the one Solomon had built. Many of the people truly turned to God and began studying the Law, the writings of the prophets, and the other holy writings. Many men became scribes (special scholars), who made copies of the Scriptures. Eventually, these men organized schools for studying the Scriptures. The people began meeting together on the Sabbath (Saturday) to study, pray, and worship God together. In their synagogues (meetings) they studied the Scriptures, and many people began looking for the Messiah to come.

In the West, Alexander the Great gained control of Greece and soon conquered the world. He spread the Greek language and the customs and culture of Greece to many parts of the world. When he died, his kingdom was divided, and soon another empire grew and gained control of a large part of the known world, including Palestine, where the people of Judah lived.

The new rulers, the Romans, were often cruel and harsh, and the Jews were proud and defiant. In these troubled times there were many Jews who were looking for the Messiah to come in their own lifetime. The Jews wanted to be ruled only by God and the Messiah that God promised to send them. They did not understand that God planned to save the world through the Messiah. They thought that God's plan was to save the Jews from the world! Some Jews were content to wait for God to send his Messiah. But others decided to "help" God establish his new kingdom. These Jews were called "Zealots." The Zealots tried to fight against the Romans and often killed other Jews that cooperated with the Romans.

THE JEWISH RELIGIOUS GROUPS

By the first century B.C., the Law of Moses had become extremely important to the Jews. The people had studied and argued over the Law. The people understood the Law in different ways, but many Jews were ready to die for that Law. There were three major religious groups among the Jews, and there were scribes (lawyers or scholars) in each group.

The Sadducees

One of the groups was called the Sadducees. This name probably comes from the name Zadok, the High Priest in King David's time. Many of the priests and the people in authority were Sadducees. These men accepted only the Law (the five books of Moses) as their authority in religious matters. The Law taught many things about the priests and sacrifices, but it did not teach about life after death. So the Sadducees did not believe in people being raised from death.

The Pharisees

Another group was called the Pharisees. This name comes from a Hebrew word meaning "to interpret (explain)" or "to separate." These men tried to teach or interpret the Law of Moses to the common people. The Pharisees believed that there was an oral tradition going back to Moses' time. They believed that men of each generation could interpret the Law in a way that would allow it to meet the needs of that generation. This meant that the Pharisees could accept not only the Law of Moses as their authority, but also the Prophets, the Holy Writings, and even their own traditions. These men tried very hard to follow the Law and their traditions. So they were very careful about what they ate and what they touched. They were careful about washing their hands and bathing. They also believed that people would be raised from death, because they understood many of the prophets to say that would happen.

The Essenes

The third major group was the Essenes. Many of the priests in Jerusalem did not live the way God wanted them to. Also, the Romans had appointed many of the High Priests, and some of these men were not qualified according to the Law of Moses. Because of this, the Essenes did not think the worship and sacrifices were being done properly in Jerusalem. So the Essenes moved out into the Judean desert to live. They formed their own community, where only other Essenes could come and live. The Essenes fasted and prayed and waited for God to send the Messiah and purify the temple and the priesthood.

THE NEW TESTAMENT

God had begun his plan. He had chosen a special nation. He had made an Agreement with those people that would prepare them to understand his justice and his goodness. Through prophets and poets he had revealed his plan to bless the world by establishing a perfect spiritual “kingdom” based on a new and better Agreement. This plan would begin with the coming of the promised Messiah. The prophets had spoken of his coming in great detail. They had told where the Messiah would be born, the type of person he would be, and the work he would have to do. It was now time for the Messiah to come and begin the New Agreement.

The writings of the New Testament describe how God’s New Agreement was revealed and put into effect by Jesus, who was the Christ (meaning “the Anointed One,” the Messiah). They teach that this New Agreement was to be for all people. And they tell how people in the first century responded to God’s gracious offer of love and became a part of the New Agreement. These writings give instructions to God’s people about how to live in this world. They also describe the blessings that God promises his people for a full and meaningful life here and for life with him after death.

The New Testament writings include twenty-seven different “books” by at least eight different writers. All of them wrote in Greek, which was widely spoken in the first-century world. More than half of the total writing was done by four “apostles,” men chosen by Jesus to be his special representatives or helpers. Three of these, Matthew, John, and Peter, were among the twelve closest followers of Jesus during his life on earth. The other writer, Paul, was chosen as an apostle later by Jesus through a miraculous appearance.

The first four books, called “Gospels,” are separate accounts of the life and death of Jesus Christ. Generally, these books emphasize Jesus’ teaching, the purpose of his appearance on earth, and the crucial significance of his death, rather than just the historical facts of his life. This is especially true of the fourth book, the Gospel of John. The first three Gospels are very similar in content. In fact, much of the material in one is found in one or both of the others. Each writer, however, is writing to a different audience and seems to have a slightly different goal in view.

The four Gospels are followed by Acts, a history of the events following the death of Jesus. It describes how God's offer of love to all people was announced throughout the world by Jesus' followers. It tells how the proclaiming of this "gospel" or "Good News" resulted in the widespread acceptance of Christian faith throughout Palestine and the Roman world. The book of Acts was written by Luke, an eyewitness of much that he recorded. Luke was also the author of the third Gospel. His two books make a logical unit, Acts being the natural sequel to his account of the life of Jesus.

Following Acts, there is a collection of letters written to individuals or groups of Christians. These letters were sent from Christian leaders such as Paul and Peter, two of Jesus' apostles. These letters were written to help the people of that time deal with problems they were facing. They serve to inform, correct, teach, and encourage not only those people but all Christians in regard to their faith, their life together, and their life in the world.

The final book of the New Testament, Revelation, is different from all the other books. It uses highly figurative language and tells of visions seen by the author, the apostle John. Many of the figures and images are from the Old Testament and can best be understood by comparing them to the Old Testament writings. This last book assures Christians of ultimate victory over the forces of evil through the power of God and Jesus Christ, their leader and helper.

THE NEW TESTAMENT AND THE MODERN READER

Today's reader of the Bible should keep in mind that these books were written thousands of years ago for people who lived in a culture very different from our own. Generally, the writings focus on principles that are universally true, though many of the historical accounts, illustrations they use and references they make can only be understood with some knowledge of the time and culture in which they lived. For example, Jesus told a story about a man sowing grain in a field that had different types of soil conditions. Those exact conditions may be unfamiliar to a person today, but the lesson Jesus draws from the example fits people in any time or place.

The modern reader may find the world of the Bible somewhat strange. The customs, the attitudes, the way people talk may be quite unfamiliar. It is only reasonable to evaluate these things by the standards of that time and place, not by modern standards. It is also important to note that the Bible was not written as a book of science. It was written mainly to describe historical events and present the significance of those events for mankind. It's teachings involve universal truths that are beyond the realm of science. It remains relevant even in this modern age, because it deals with people's basic spiritual needs, which never change.

Any person who reads the Bible objectively can expect to gain many benefits. He will acquire knowledge about the history and culture of the ancient world. He will learn about the life and teachings of Jesus Christ and what it means to be his follower. He will gain basic spiritual insights and learn practical lessons for living a dynamic and joy-filled life. He will find answers to life's most difficult questions. There are, therefore, many good reasons for reading this book, and the person who reads it with an open and inquisitive mind will likely discover God's purpose for his life.

THE BEGINNING OF THE WORLD

The First Day—Light

1 God made the sky and earth. At first, <sup>2</sup>the earth was completely empty; nothing was on the earth. Darkness covered the ocean, and God's Spirit moved over* the water. <sup>3</sup>Then God said, "Let there be light!"* And light began to shine. <sup>4</sup>God saw the light, and he knew it was good. Then God separated the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup>God named the light "day," and he named the darkness "night."

There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the first day.

The Second Day—Sky

<sup>6</sup>Then God said, "Let there be air* to separate the water into two parts!" <sup>7</sup>So God made the air and separated the water. Some of the water was above the air, and some of the water was below the air. <sup>8</sup>God named the air "sky."

There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the second day.

moved over The Hebrew word means "to fly over" or "to swoop down," like a bird flying over its nest to protect its babies.

God made ... light Or, "God made the heavens and the earth. While <sup>2</sup>the earth had no special shape, and darkness covered the ocean, and God's Spirit hovered over the water, <sup>3</sup>God said, 'Let there be light!'" Or, "When God began to create the sky and the earth, <sup>2</sup>while the earth was completely empty, and darkness covered the ocean, and a powerful wind blew over the water, <sup>3</sup>God said, 'Let there be light.'"

air This Hebrew word means "bowl," or "dome."

The Third Day—Dry Land and Plants

<sup>9</sup>Then God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered together so the dry land will appear." And it happened. <sup>10</sup>God named the dry land "earth." And God named the water that was gathered together "seas." God saw this was good.

<sup>11</sup>Then God said, "Let the earth grow many plants. There will be plants with seeds on them. And there will be trees with fruit that has seeds in it. Every plant will make its own kind of seed." And it happened. <sup>12</sup>Plants grew on the earth. There were plants with seeds on them. And there were trees with fruit that had seeds in it. Every plant made its own kind of seeds. And God saw this was good.

<sup>13</sup>There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the third day.

The Fourth Day—Sun, Moon, and Stars

<sup>14</sup>Then God said, "Let there be lights in the sky. These lights will separate the days from the nights. These lights will be used for special signs and to show when seasons,* days, and years begin. <sup>15</sup>These lights will be in the sky to shine light on the earth." And it happened.

<sup>16</sup>So God made the two large lights. God made the larger light to rule during the day. He made the smaller light to rule during the night. God also made the stars. <sup>17</sup>God put these lights in the sky to shine on the earth. <sup>18</sup>God put these seasons Or, "special meetings." Many Jewish holidays and special meetings began at the time of a new moon and a full moon.

lights in the sky to rule over the day and over the night. These lights separated the light from the darkness. And God saw this was good.

<sup>19</sup>There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the fourth day.

The Fifth Day—Fish and Birds

<sup>20</sup>Then God said, “Let there be many living things in the water. And let there be birds to fly in the air above the earth.” <sup>21</sup>So God made the large sea animals.* God made every living thing that moves in the sea. There are many different kinds of sea animals—and God made them all! God also made every kind of bird that flies in the sky. And God saw this was good.

<sup>22</sup>God blessed the animals. God said, “Grow and make many more animals. Spread, and fill the seas. And let the birds make many more birds and spread across the earth.”

<sup>23</sup>There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the fifth day.

The Sixth Day—Land Animals and People

<sup>24</sup>Then God said, “Let the animals spread across the earth. Let there be many different kinds of animals. Let there be large animals and small crawling animals of every kind. And let all these animals make more of their kind.” And all these things happened.

<sup>25</sup>So God made every kind of animal. God made the wild animals, the tame animals, and all the small crawling animals. And God saw this was good.

<sup>26</sup>Then God said, “Now we will make man.* We will make man as a copy of ourselves. Man will be like us. Man will rule over all the fish in the sea and the birds in the air. We will make man to rule over all the large animals and all the small animals crawling on the earth.”

<sup>27</sup>So God made people in his Image. God made people as a copy of himself.* God made them male and female. <sup>28</sup>God gave them a blessing. God said to them, “Have many children and spread across the earth. Fill the earth and control it. Rule over the fish in the sea and over the birds in the air. Rule over every living thing that moves on the earth.”

<sup>29</sup>God said, “I have given you all the plants that have seeds and all the trees that have fruit with seeds in it. These plants will be food for you. <sup>30</sup>I have given the green plants to the animals for their food. Every animal on earth, every bird in the air, and everything that crawls on the earth will eat that food.” And all these things happened.

<sup>31</sup>God looked at everything he had made, and God saw that everything was very good.

There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the sixth day.

The Seventh Day—Rest

2 So the earth, the sky, and everything in them were finished. <sup>2</sup>God finished the work he was doing. So on the seventh day, God rested from his work. <sup>3</sup>God blessed the seventh day and made it a holy day. God made that day special because on that day he rested from all the work he did while making the world.

The Beginning of Mankind, Earth's Ruler

This story is about the things that happened at the time God made the earth and the sky. <sup>5</sup>There were no plants on the earth; nothing was growing in the fields. No plants had grown anywhere yet. The Lord had not yet caused rain to fall on earth. And there was no man to care for the plants. <sup>6</sup>A mist rose from the earth and the water spread over the ground.

<sup>7</sup>Then the Lord God took dust from the ground and made a man.* The Lord breathed the breath of life into the man's nose, and the man became a living thing. <sup>8</sup>Then the Lord God planted a garden in the East, in a place named Eden. The Lord God put the man he made in that garden. <sup>9</sup>The Lord God made every beautiful tree and every tree that was good for food to grow in the garden. In the middle of the garden, the Lord God put the tree of life and also the tree that gives knowledge about good and evil.

man The Hebrew word means “man,” “human beings,” or the name “Adam.” It is like the Hebrew word meaning “earth,” or “red clay.”

So God made people ... himself Compare Gen. 5:1,3.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord God put the man in the garden of Eden. The man had the work of planting and caring for the garden. <sup>16</sup>The Lord God gave the man this command. The Lord God said, "You may eat from any tree in the garden. <sup>17</sup>But you must not eat from the tree that gives knowledge about good and evil. You will die if you eat from that tree!"

The First Woman

<sup>18</sup>Then the Lord God said, "I see that it is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper for him. That helper will be right for him.*

<sup>19</sup>From the ground, the Lord God made every animal in the fields and every bird in the air. The Lord God brought all these animals to the man, and the man gave everything a name. <sup>20</sup>The man gave names to all the tame animals, to all the birds in the air, and to all the wild animals of the forest. The man saw many, many animals and birds, but the man could not find a helper that was right for him. <sup>21</sup>So the Lord God caused the man to sleep very deeply.

Havilah The land along the west coast of the Arabian peninsula and, possibly, the part of Africa south of Ethiopia.

Bdelium An expensive, sweet-smelling gum.

Onyx A precious stone with many layers of blue or gray.

Ethiopia Or, "Cush," a country in Africa by the Red Sea.

Tigris, Euphrates The two largest rivers flowing through the countries of Babylonia and Assyria.

helper for him ... right for him Or, "a person like him to help him."

While the man was asleep, the Lord God took one of the ribs from the man's body. Then, the Lord God closed the man's skin at the place where he took the rib. <sup>22</sup>The Lord God used the rib from the man to make a woman. Then the Lord God brought the woman to the man.

<sup>23</sup>And the man said,

"Now, this is a person like me.

Her bones came from my bones.

Her body came from my body.

I will name her woman, because she was taken out of man."

<sup>24</sup>So a man will leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife. And the two people will become one.

<sup>25</sup>In the garden, the man and his wife were naked, but they were not ashamed.

The Beginning of Sin

3 At that time, the snake spoke to the woman. (The snake was the most clever of all the animals the Lord God had made, and the snake wanted to trick the woman.) The snake said, "Woman, did God really tell you that you must not eat from any tree in the garden?"

<sup>2</sup>The woman answered the snake, "No! God did not say that! We can eat fruit from the trees in the garden. <sup>3</sup>But there is one tree we must not eat from. God told us, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden. You must not even touch that tree or you will die.'"

<sup>4</sup>But the snake said to the woman, "You will not die. <sup>5</sup>God knows that if you eat the fruit from that tree, you will learn about good and evil. And then you will be the same as God!"

<sup>6</sup>The woman saw the tree was beautiful. She saw the fruit was good to eat. And she saw the tree would make her wise. So the woman took fruit from the tree and ate it. Her husband was there with her, so she gave some of the fruit to him and he ate it.

fig leaves and sewed them together and wore the fig leaves for clothes.

<sup>9</sup>During the cool part of the day, the Lord God was walking in the garden. The man and the woman heard him, and they hid among the trees in the garden. <sup>9</sup>But the Lord God called to the man. The Lord God said, "Where are you?"

<sup>10</sup>The man said, "I heard you walking in the garden, and I was afraid. I was naked, so I hid."

<sup>11</sup>God said to the man, "Who told you that you were naked? What caused you to be ashamed? Did you eat fruit from that special tree? I commanded you not to eat from that tree!"

<sup>12</sup>The man said, "You made this woman for me. She gave me fruit from that tree, so I ate it."

<sup>13</sup>Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What have you done?"

The woman said, "The snake tricked me. He fooled me and I ate the fruit."

<sup>14</sup>So the Lord God said to the snake,

"You did this very bad thing.
So bad things will happen to you.*

It will be worse for you than for any other animal.

You will be forced to crawl on your stomach, and you will be forced to eat dust all the days of your life.

<sup>15</sup> I will make you and the woman enemies to each other.

Your children and her children will be enemies.

You will bite her child's foot.
But he will crush your head."

<sup>16</sup>Then God said to the woman,

"I will cause you to have much trouble when you are pregnant.

And when you give birth to children, you will have much pain.

You will want your husband very much,

but he will rule over you."*

<sup>17</sup>Then God said to the man,

"I commanded you not to eat from that special tree.

But you listened to the things your wife said, and you ate from that tree.

So I will put a curse on the ground because of you.

You will have to work very hard all the days of your life for the food that the ground gives.

<sup>18</sup> You will want to eat the plants that grow in the field.

But the ground will cause thorns and weeds to grow for you.

You will work until your face is covered with sweat.

You will work hard until the day you die. And then you will become dust again.

I used dust to make you, and when you die you will become dust again."

<sup>22</sup>The Lord God said, "Look, the man has become like us—he knows about good and evil. And now the man might take the fruit from the tree of life. If the man eats that fruit, he will live forever."

<sup>23</sup>So the Lord God forced the man to leave the garden of Eden. Adam* was forced to go and work the ground he was made from. <sup>24</sup>God forced the man to leave the garden. Then God

You will want ... over you Or, "You will want (to rule, your husband, but he will rule over you." The Hebrew is like Gen. 4:7.

Eve This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "life."

Adam This name means, "man" or "human beings." It is like the Hebrew word meaning "earth" or "red clay."

bad things will happen to you Literally, "You are cursed!"

put Cherub angels* at the entrance to the garden to protect it. God also put a sword of fire there. This sword flashed around and around guarding the way to the tree of life.

The First Family

4 Adam and his wife Eve had sexual relations. And Eve gave birth to a baby. The baby was named Cain.* Eve said, "With the Lord's help, I have made a man!"

The First Murder

<sup>3</sup>At harvest time,* Cain brought a gift to show honor to God. Cain brought some of the food that he grew from the ground. Abel brought some animals from his flock. Abel brought the best parts of his best sheep.* The Lord accepted Abel's gift. <sup>3</sup>But God did not accept Cain's offering. Cain was sad because of this, and he became very angry. <sup>6</sup>The Lord asked Cain, "Why are you angry? Why does your face look sad? <sup>7</sup>If you do good things, you will be right with me. Then I will accept you. But if you do wrong things, then that sin is in your life. Your sin will want to control you, but you must control that sin."*

<sup>8</sup>Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field." So Cain and Abel went to the field. Then Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

<sup>9</sup>Later, the Lord said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?"

Cain answered, "I don't know. Is it my job to watch and care for my brother?"

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

Cain This is like the Hebrew word meaning "to make" or "to get."

At harvest time Literally, "at the end of days."

Abel brought ... best sheep Literally, "Abel brought some of his firstborn sheep, especially their fat."

But if you ... control that sin Or, "But if you don't do right, then sin is crouching at your door. It wants you, but you must rule over it."

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord said, "What have you done? You killed your brother! His blood is like a voice shouting to me from the ground. <sup>11</sup>You killed your brother, and the ground opened up to take his blood from your hands. So now, I will cause bad things to happen to that ground. <sup>12</sup>In the past, you planted, and your plants grew well. But now, you will plant, and the ground will not help your plants grow. You will not have a home on the earth. You will wander from place to place."

<sup>13</sup>Then Cain said, "This punishment is more than I can bear! <sup>14</sup>Look at me! You are sending me away from my land. I won't be able to see you or be near you! I won't have a home! I will be forced to wander from place to place on the earth. And if anyone finds me, he will kill me."

<sup>15</sup>Then the Lord said to Cain, "I will not let that happen! If anyone kills you, Cain, then I will punish that person much, much more." Then the Lord put a mark on Cain. This mark showed that no person should kill him.

Cain's Family

<sup>18</sup>Enoch had a son named Irad. Irad had a son named Mehujael. Mehujael had a son named Methushael. And Methushael had a son named Lamech.

<sup>19</sup>Lamech married two women. One wife was named Adah, and the other wife was named Zillah. <sup>20</sup>Adah gave birth to Jabal. Jabal was the father* of people that live in tents and earn their living by keeping cattle. <sup>21</sup>Adah also had another son Jubal. (Jubal was Jabal's brother.) Jubal was the father of people that play the harp and flute. <sup>22</sup>Zillah gave birth to Tubal-Cain. Tubal-Cain was the father of people that work with bronze and iron. The sister of Tubal-Cain was named Naamah.

father This probably means that this man invented these things, or was the first person to use them.

You wives of Lamech, listen to the things I say.

A man hurt me, so I killed him.

A child hit me, so I killed him.

* The punishment for killing Cain was very great!

So the punishment for killing me will be much, much greater!”

Adam and Eve Have a New Son

<sup>2</sup>Adam had sexual relations with Eve. And Eve gave birth to another son. They named this son Seth.* Eve said, “God has given me another son. Cain killed Abel, but now I have Seth.” <sup>3</sup>Seth also had a son. He named him Enosh. At that time, the people began to worship the Lord.*

Adam’s Family History

5 This is the book about the family of Adam.* God made people a copy of himself.* <sup>2</sup>God made them male and female. And on the same day he made them, God blessed them and named them “Adam.”*

<sup>3</sup>After Adam was 130 years old, he had another son. This son looked just like Adam.* Adam named his son Seth. <sup>4</sup>After Seth was born, Adam lived 800 years. During that time, Adam had other sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>So Adam lived a total of 930 years; then he died.

<sup>6</sup>After Seth was 105 years old, he had a son named Enosh. <sup>7</sup>After Enosh was born, Seth lived 807 years. During that time, Seth had other sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup>So Seth lived a total of 912 years; then he died.

Seth This is like a Hebrew word meaning “to give.”
people began to worship the Lord Literally, “people began calling on the name Yahweh.”

Adam This name means “man” or “human beings.” It is like the Hebrew word meaning “earth” or “red clay.”

God made people ... himself Literally, “He made him in the image of God.” See Gen. 1:27; 5:3.

he had another ... just like Adam Or, “he fathered a son in his image and likeness.” In Hebrew, this is like Gen. 1:27; 5:1.

<sup>9</sup>After Enosh was 90 years old, he had a son named Kenan. <sup>10</sup>After Kenan was born, Enosh lived 815 years. During that time, he had other sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup>So Enosh lived a total of 905 years; then he died.

<sup>12</sup>After Kenan was 70 years old, he had a son named Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup>After Mahalalel was born, Kenan lived 840 years. During that time, Kenan had other sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup>So Kenan lived a total of 910 years; then he died.

<sup>15</sup>When Mahalalel was 65 years old, he had a son named Jared. <sup>16</sup>After Jared was born, Mahalalel lived 830 years. During that time, he had other sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup>So Mahalalel lived a total of 895 years; then he died.

<sup>18</sup>After Jared was 162 years old, he had a son named Enoch. <sup>19</sup>After Enoch was born, Jared lived 800 years. During that time, he had other sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup>So Jared lived a total of 962 years; then he died.

<sup>25</sup>After Methuselah was 187 years old, he had a son named Lamech. <sup>26</sup>After Lamech was born, Methuselah lived 782 years. During that time, he had other sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup>So Methuselah lived a total of 969 years; then he died.

<sup>28</sup>When Lamech was 182 years old, he became the father of a son. <sup>29</sup>Lamech named his son Noah.* Lamech said, “We work very hard as farmers because God cursed the ground. But Noah will bring us rest.”

<sup>30</sup>After Noah was born, Lamech lived 595 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters. <sup>31</sup>So Lamech lived a total of 777 years; then he died.

<sup>32</sup>After Noah was 500 years old, he had sons named Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

One day ... God took him Or, “Enoch lived the way God wanted. One day, Enoch disappeared because God took him.”

People Become Evil

6 The number of people on earth continued to increase. There were girls born to these people. <sup>24</sup>The sons of God saw that these girls were beautiful. So the sons of God married any of the girls they chose.

These women gave birth to children. During that time, and later, the Nephilim* people lived in the land. They were famous people. They were heroes from ancient times.*

Then the Lord said, "People are human; I will not let my Spirit be troubled by them forever. I will let them live 120 years."*

<sup>5</sup>The Lord saw that the people on the earth were very evil. The Lord saw that people thought only about evil things all the time. <sup>6</sup>The Lord was sorry that he had made people on the earth. It made the Lord very sad in his heart. <sup>7</sup>So the Lord said, "I will destroy all people that I made on the earth. I will destroy every man and every animal and everything that crawls on the earth. I will also destroy the birds of the air. Why? Because I am sorry that I have made all these things."

Noah and the Great Flood

<sup>11-12</sup>God looked at the earth, and he saw that people had ruined it. Violence was everywhere—people had become evil and cruel, and had ruined their life on earth.

Nephilim This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "People that have fallen." Later, the Nephilim were a famous family of large fighting men. See Num. 13:32-33.

These women ... ancient times. Or, "The Nephilim people lived in the land in those days. They also lived there later, when the sons of God married the daughters of men, and these women had given birth to children. These children were famous. They were heroes from ancient times."

People are human ... 120 years Or, "My Spirit will not live with people forever, because they are flesh. They will live only 120 years." Or, "My Spirit will not judge people forever because they will all die in 120 years."

Noah This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "to be sorry," "to comfort," or "to rest."

<sup>13</sup>So God said to Noah, "All people have filled the earth with anger and violence. So I will destroy all living things. I will remove them from the earth. <sup>14</sup>Use cypress wood* and build a boat for yourself. Make rooms in the boat,* and cover the boat with tar.*

<sup>17</sup>Understand what I am telling you. I will bring a great flood of water on the earth. I will destroy all living things that live under heaven. Everything on the earth will die. <sup>18</sup>I will make a special agreement with you, your sons, your wife, and your son's wives will all go into the boat. <sup>19</sup>Also, you must find two of every living thing on the earth. Find male and female and bring them on the boat. Keep them alive with you. <sup>20</sup>Find two of every kind of bird on the earth. And find two of every kind of animal on the earth. And find two of every kind of thing that crawls on the ground. Male and female of every kind of animal on the earth will be with you. Keep them alive on the boat. <sup>21</sup>Also bring every kind of food on earth into the boat. The food will be for you and for the animals."

The Flood Begins

7 Then the Lord said to Noah, "I have seen that you are a good man, even among the cypress wood Literally, "gopher-wood." We do not know exactly what kind of wood this is. It might be a kind of tree or squared timbers.

Make rooms in the boat Or, "Make caulking for the boat." This could be small plants that were stuffed into the cracks and covered with tar.

tar Or, "pitch," a very thick oil that must be heated to become liquid.

450 feet Literally, "300 cubits."

75 feet Literally, "50 cubits."

45 feet Literally, "30 cubits."

18 inches Literally, "one cubit."

evil people of this time. So gather your family and all of you go into the boat. <sup>2</sup>Get seven pairs (seven males and seven females) of every kind of clean animal.* And get one pair (one male and one female) of every other animal on the earth. Lead all these animals into the boat with you. <sup>3</sup>Get seven pairs (seven males and seven females) of all the birds. This will allow all these animals to continue living on the earth after the other animals are destroyed. <sup>4</sup>Seven days from now I will send much rain on the earth. It will rain for 40 days and 40 nights. Every living thing on the earth will be destroyed. All the things I made will be gone.” <sup>5</sup>Noah obeyed all these things that the Lord commanded him.

<sup>11-12</sup>On the 17th day of the second month all the springs under the ground split open, and water began flowing from the ground,. That same day all the rains began falling hard on the earth. It was like windows in the sky were opened. The rain fell on the earth for 40 days and 40 nights. That very same day Noah and his wife, his sons—Shem, Ham, and Japheth—and their wives went into the boat. At this time, Noah was 600 years old.

<sup>13</sup>Those people and every kind of animal on the earth were in the boat. Every kind of cattle, every kind of animal that crawls on the earth, and every kind of bird were in the boat. <sup>14</sup>All these animals went into the boat with Noah. They came in groups of two from every kind of animal that had the breath of life. <sup>15</sup>All these animals entered the boat just like God had commanded. Then the Lord closed the door behind them.

<sup>20-22</sup>Every living thing on earth was killed. Every man and woman died. And all the birds, cattle, animals, and every kind of thing that flies were killed. <sup>23</sup>So God destroyed every living thing that was on the earth—every man, every animal, everything that crawls, and every bird. All these things were destroyed from the earth. The only life that was left was Noah and those people and animals that were with him in the boat. <sup>24</sup>And the water continued to cover the earth for 150 days.

The Flood Ends

8 But God did not forget about Noah. God remembered Noah and all the animals that were with him in the boat. God made a wind blow over the earth. And all the water began to disappear.

<sup>5</sup>Forty days later, Noah opened the window he had made in the boat. <sup>6</sup>Noah sent out a raven.* The raven flew from place to place until the ground was dry and the water was gone. <sup>7</sup>Noah also sent out a dove. Noah wanted clean animal(s) Birds and animals that God said could be used for sacrifices.

20 feet Literally, “15 cubits.”

Ararat Or, “Urartu,” an area in Eastern Turkey.

the dove to find dry ground. He wanted to know if water still covered the earth.

<sup>9</sup>Water still covered the earth, so the dove came back to the boat. Noah reached out his hand and caught the dove. Noah brought the dove back into the boat.

<sup>10</sup>After seven days, Noah again sent out the dove. <sup>11</sup>And that afternoon the dove came back to Noah. The dove had a fresh olive leaf in its mouth. This was a sign to show Noah that there was dry ground on the earth. <sup>12</sup>Seven days later, Noah sent the dove out again. But this time the dove never came back.

<sup>21</sup>The Lord smelled these sacrifices, and it pleased him. The Lord said to himself, “I will never again curse the ground as a way to punish people. People are evil from the time that they are young. So I will never again destroy everything living on the earth. No! I will not do this again. <sup>22</sup>As long as the earth continues, there will always be a time for planting and a time for harvest. There will always be cold and hot, summer and winter, day and night on earth.”

The New Beginning

9 God blessed Noah and his sons. God said to him, “Have many children and fill the earth with your people. <sup>2</sup>Every animal on the earth will respect you and fear you. And every bird in the air will respect you and fear you. And every animal that crawls on the ground and every fish in the sea will respect you and fear you. You will be the ruler over all of them.

<sup>3</sup>“In the past, I gave you the green plants to eat. Now, every animal will also be food for you. I give you everything on earth—it is yours. <sup>4</sup>But I give you one command. You must not eat meat that still has its life (blood) in it. <sup>5</sup>I will demand your blood for your lives. That is, I will demand the life of any animal that kills a person. And I will demand the life of any person that takes another person’s life.

<sup>8</sup>Then God said to Noah and his sons, <sup>9</sup>“I now make my promise to you and to your people that will live after you. <sup>10</sup>I make my promise to all the birds, and to all the cattle, and to all the animals that came out of the boat with you. I make my promise to every living thing on earth. <sup>11</sup>This is my promise to you: All life on the earth was destroyed by the flood. But that will never happen again. A flood will never again destroy all the life on the earth.”

<sup>12</sup>And God said, “And I will give you something to prove that I made this promise to you. This proof will show that I have made an agreement with you and every living thing on earth. This agreement will continue for all times to come. This is the proof: <sup>13</sup>I have made a rainbow in the clouds. That rainbow is proof of the agreement between me and the earth. <sup>14</sup>When I bring clouds over the earth, you will see the rainbow in the clouds. <sup>15</sup>When I see this

clean birds ... animals Birds and animals that God said could be used for sacrifices.

rainbow, I will remember the agreement between me and you and every living thing on the earth. That agreement says that a flood will never again destroy all life on the earth. <sup>16</sup>When I look and see the rainbow in the clouds, I will remember the agreement that continues forever. I will remember the agreement between me and every living thing on the earth."

<sup>17</sup>So God said to Noah, "That rainbow is proof of the agreement that I made with all living things on earth."

Problems Begin Again

<sup>19</sup>Those three men were Noah's sons. And all the people on earth came from those three sons.

<sup>24</sup>Later, Noah woke up. (He was sleeping because of the wine.) Then he learned what his youngest son, Ham, had done to him. <sup>25</sup>So Noah said,

"May there be a curse on Canaan*!

May Canaan be the lowest slave to his brothers."

*Noah also said,

"Bless the Lord, God of Shem!

May Canaan be Shem's slave.

<sup>7</sup> May God give more land to Japheth.

May God live in Shem's tents.

And may Canaan be their slave."

<sup>26</sup>After the flood Noah lived 350 years. <sup>27</sup>Noah lived a total of 950 years; then he died.

Nations Grow and Spread

10 Noah's sons were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. After the flood, these three men became the fathers of many more sons. Here is a list of the sons that came from Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Japheth's Descendants

<sup>4</sup>All the people that lived in the lands around the Mediterranean Sea came from these sons of Japheth. Each son had his own land. All the families grew and became different nations. Each nation had its own language.

Ham's Descendants

<sup>7</sup>Cush also had a son named Nimrod. Nimrod became a very powerful man on earth. <sup>8</sup>Nimrod was a great hunter before the Lord. That is why people compare other men to Nimrod and say, "That man is like Nimrod, a great hunter before the Lord."

<sup>9</sup>Nimrod's kingdom began in Babylon, Erech, and Akkad in the land of Shinar. <sup>10</sup>Nimrod also went into Assyria. In Assyria, Nimrod built the cities of Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah, and <sup>12</sup>Resen. (Resen is the city between Nineveh and Calah, the big city.)

Dodanim Or, "Rodanim." This could mean "the people of Rhodes."

Cush This is also another name for Ethiopia.

Mizraim This is also another name for Egypt.

Canaan Ham's son. The people of Canaan lived along the coast of Palestine, Lebanon, and Syria. Later, God gave this land to the people of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>All those people were descendants* of Ham. All those families had their own languages and their own lands. They became separate nations.

Shem's Descendants

<sup>24</sup>Arphaxad was the father of Shelah. Shelah was the father of Eber. <sup>25</sup>Eber was the father of two sons. One son was named Peleg.* He was given this name because the earth was divided during his life. The other brother was named Joktan.

Mesha was toward the land of Sephar. <sup>31</sup>Those are the people from the family of Shem. They are arranged by families, languages, countries, and nations.

<sup>32</sup>That is the list of the families from Noah's sons. They are arranged according to their nations. From those families came all the people that spread across the earth after the flood.

The World Divided

11 After the flood, the whole world spoke one language. All people used the same words. <sup>2</sup>People moved from the East. They found a plain in the land of Shinar. The people stayed there to live.

<sup>3</sup>The people said, "We should make bricks and put them in fire so that they will become very hard." So the people used bricks, not stones, to build their houses. And the people used tar,* not mortar.*

<sup>4</sup>Then the people said, "We should build a city for ourselves. And we should build a very tall building that will go high into the sky. We will become famous. If we do this, we will not be scattered all over the earth—we will stay together in one place."

<sup>5</sup>The Lord came down to see the city and the very tall building. The Lord saw the people building these things. <sup>6</sup>The Lord said, "These people all speak the same language. And I see that they are joined together to do this work. This is only the beginning of what they can do. Soon they will be able to do anything they want. <sup>7</sup>So let's go down and confuse their language. Then they will not understand each other."

<sup>8</sup>So the Lord caused the people to spread all over the earth. So the people did not finish building the city. <sup>9</sup>That is the place where the Lord confused the language of the whole world. So that place is called Babel.* So the Lord caused the people to spread out from that descendant(s) A person's children and all their future families.

One ... Hebrew people Literally, "To Shem was born the father of Eber's sons."

Peleg This name means, "division."

tar Or, "pitch," a very thick oil that must be heated to become liquid.

mortar Cement used when building with bricks.

Babel Or, "Babylon." This name is like the Hebrew word that means "confuse."

place to all the other places on earth.

The Story of Shem's Family

<sup>10</sup>This is the story of Shem's family. Two years after the flood, when Shem was 100 years old, his son Arphaxad was born. <sup>11</sup>After that Shem lived 500 years. He had other sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup>When Arphaxad was 35 years old, his son Shelah was born. <sup>13</sup>After Shelah was born, Arphaxad lived 403 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>14</sup>After Shelah was 30 years old, his son Eber was born. <sup>15</sup>After Eber was born, Shelah lived 403 years. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>16</sup>After Eber was 34 years old, his son Peleg was born. <sup>17</sup>After Peleg was born, Eber lived 430 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>18</sup>After Peleg was 30 years old, his son Reu was born. <sup>19</sup>After Reu was born, Peleg lived 209 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup>After Reu was 32 years old, his son Serug was born. <sup>21</sup>After Serug was born, Reu lived 207 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>22</sup>After Serug was 30 years old, his son Nahor was born. <sup>23</sup>After Nahor was born, Serug lived 200 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>24</sup>After Nahor was 29 years old, his son Terah was born. <sup>25</sup>After Terah was born, Nahor lived 119 years more. During that time he had other sons and daughters.

The Story of Terah's Family

<sup>27</sup>This is the story of Terah's family. Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran was the father of Lot. <sup>28</sup>Haran died in his home town, Ur of Babylonia.* Haran died while his father Terah was still alive. <sup>29</sup>Abram and Nahor both married. Abram's wife was named Sarai. Nahor's wife was named Milcah. Milcah was the daughter of Haran. Haran was the father of Milcah and Iscah. <sup>30</sup>Sarai did not have any children because she was not able to have children.

God Calls Abram

12 The Lord said to Abram, "Leave your country and your people. Leave your father's family and go to the land I will show you.

- <sup>2</sup> "I will bless you.
I will cause you to become a great nation.
I will make your name famous.
People will use your name to bless other people.
- <sup>3</sup> I will bless people that do good to you, and I will punish people that do bad to you.
All people on earth will be blessed because of you."

Abram Goes to Canaan

"So Abram obeyed the Lord. He left Haran, and Lot went with him. At this time Abram was 75 years old. <sup>1</sup>Abram was not alone when he left Haran. Abram took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, and everything that they owned in Haran. Also, all the slaves that Abram got in Haran went with them. Abram and his group left Haran and traveled to the land of Canaan.

<sup>2</sup>Abram traveled through the land of Canaan. Abram traveled to the town of Shechem and to the big trees at Moreh. The Canaanite people lived in that land at this time.

Ur of Babylonia Literally, "Ur of the Chaldeans." This might be the city Ur in southern Babylonia, or it might be a city closer to the city called Haran.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord appeared* to Abram. The Lord said, "I will give this land to your descendants.*"

The Lord appeared to Abram at that place. So Abram built an altar* for worshiping the Lord there. <sup>8</sup>Then Abram left that place and traveled to the mountains east of Bethel. Abram set up his tent there. The city of Bethel was to the west. The city of Ai was to the east. At that place Abram built another altar to the Lord. And Abram worshiped the Lord there. <sup>9</sup>After this, Abram began traveling again. He traveled toward the Negev.*

Abram in Egypt

<sup>10</sup>During this time, the land was very dry. There was no rain, and no food was able to grow. So Abram went down to Egypt to live. <sup>11</sup>Abram saw how beautiful his wife Sarai was. So just before they arrived in Egypt, Abram told Sarai, "I know that you are a very beautiful woman. <sup>12</sup>The Egyptian men will see you. They will say, 'This woman is his wife.' Then they will kill me because they want you. <sup>13</sup>So tell people that you are my sister. Then they will not kill me. They will be kind to me because they will think I am your brother. In this way, you will save my life."

<sup>14</sup>So Abram went into Egypt. The men of Egypt saw that Sarai was a very beautiful woman. <sup>15</sup>Some of the Egyptian leaders saw her also. They told Pharaoh that she was a very beautiful woman. Those leaders took Sarai to Pharaoh's home. <sup>16</sup>Pharaoh was kind to Abram because he thought Abram was Sarai's brother. Pharaoh gave Abram sheep, cattle, and donkeys. Abram also got men servants, women servants, and camels.

to have very bad diseases. <sup>18</sup>So Pharaoh called Abram. Pharaoh said, "You have done a very bad thing to me! You didn't tell me Sarai was your wife! Why? <sup>19</sup>You said, 'She is my sister.' Why did you say that? I took her so she could be my wife. But now I give your wife back to you. Take her and go!" <sup>20</sup>Then Pharaoh commanded his men to lead Abram out of Egypt. So Abram and his wife left that place. And they carried everything they had with them.

Abram Returns to Canaan

13 So Abram left Egypt. Abram traveled through the Negev* with his wife and everything he owned. Lot was also with them. <sup>2</sup>At this time, Abram was very rich. He had many animals and much silver and gold.

<sup>3</sup>Abram continued traveling around. He left the Negev* and went back to Bethel. He went to the place between the city of Bethel and the city of Ai. This was the same place Abram and his family had camped before. <sup>4</sup>This was the place Abram had built an altar.* So Abram worshiped the Lord at this place.

Abram and Lot Separate

<sup>5</sup>During this time, Lot was also traveling with Abram. Lot had many animals and tents. <sup>6</sup>Abram and Lot had so many animals that the land could not support both of them together. <sup>7</sup>Abram's workers and Lot's workers began to argue. The Canaanite people and the Perizzite people were also living in this land at the same time.

<sup>8</sup>So Abram said to Lot, "There should be no arguing between you and me. Your people and my people should not argue. We are all brothers. <sup>9</sup>We should separate. You can choose any place you want. If you go to the left, I will go to the right. If you go to the right, I will go to the left."

<sup>10</sup>Lot looked and saw the Jordan Valley. Lot saw that there was much water there. (This was before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. At that time the Jordan Valley all the way to Zoar was like the Lord's Garden.

The Lord appeared God often used special shapes so people could see him. Sometimes he was like a man, an angel, a fire, or a bright light.

descendant(s) A person's children and all their future families.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices that were offered as gifts to God.

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

This was good land, like the land of Egypt.)
<sup>11</sup>So Lot chose to live in the Jordan Valley. The two men separated, and Lot began traveling east. <sup>12</sup>Abram stayed in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived among the cities in the valley. Lot moved far south to Sodom and made his camp there. <sup>13</sup>The people of Sodom were very evil. They were always sinning against the Lord.

<sup>14</sup>After Lot left, the Lord said to Abram, "Look around you. Look north and south and east and west. <sup>15</sup>All this land that you see I will give to you and your people that live after you. This will be your land forever. <sup>16</sup>I will make your people as many as the dust of the earth. If any person could count the dust on the earth, that would be the number of your people. <sup>17</sup>So go. Walk through your land. I now give it to you."

<sup>18</sup>So Abram moved his tents. He went to live near Mamre's big trees. This was near the city of Hebron. At that place Abram built an altar* for worshipping the Lord.

Lot Is Captured

14 Amraphel was the king of Shinar. Arioch was the king of Ellasar. Kedorlaomer was the king of Elam. And Tidal was the king of Goiim. <sup>2</sup>All these kings fought a war against Bera the king of Sodom, Birsha the king of Gomorrah, Shinab the king of Admah, Shemeber the king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela. (Bela is also called Zoar.)

Horite people from the hill-country of Seir* to El Paran.* (El Paran is near the desert.) <sup>7</sup>Then King Kedorlaomer turned north and went to En Mishpat (that is Kadesh) and defeated all the Amalekite people. He also defeated the Amorite people. These people lived in Hazezon-Tamar.

<sup>10</sup>There were very many holes filled with tar* in the Valley of Siddim.* The kings of Sodom and Gomorrah and their armies, ran away. Many of the soldiers fell into those holes. But the others ran away to the mountains.

Seir Or, "Edom."

El Paran Probably the town Elath, at the southern tip of Israel near the Red Sea.

Valley of Siddim The valley or plain along the eastern or southeastern side of the Dead Sea.

tar Or, "pitch," a very thick oil that must be heated to become liquid.

Mamre, Eshcol, and Aner ... agreement

Literally, "Mamre ... was a brother of Eshcol and a brother of Aner."

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices that were offered as gifts to God.

Abram Rescues Lot

<sup>14</sup>Abram learned that Lot was captured. So Abram called all of his family together. There were 318 trained soldiers. Abram led the men and chased the enemy all the way to the town of Dan. <sup>15</sup>That night, he and his men made a surprise attack against the enemy. They defeated the enemy and chased them to Hobah, north of Damascus. <sup>16</sup>Then Abram brought back all the things that the enemy had stolen. Abram brought back the women and servants, and also Lot and everything Lot owned.

<sup>17</sup>Then Abram went home after he defeated Kedorlaomer and the kings with Kedorlaomer. When he came home, the king of Sodom went out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh. (This is now called King's Valley.)

Melchizedek

<sup>18</sup>Melchizedek, the king of Salem, also went to meet Abram. Melchizedek was a priest of God Most High. Melchizedek brought bread and wine. <sup>19</sup>Melchizedek blessed Abram and said, “Abram, may God Most High give you blessings.

God is the One who made heaven and earth.

<sup>20</sup> And we praise God Most High.

He has helped you to defeat your enemies.”

Abram gave Melchizedek one-tenth of everything he had taken during the battle. <sup>21</sup>Then the king of Sodom told Abram, “You can keep all these things for yourself. Just give me my people that the enemy took away.”

<sup>22</sup>But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I promise to the Lord, the God Most High, the One who made heaven and earth—<sup>23</sup>I promise that I will not keep anything that is yours. I promise that I will keep nothing. I don't want you to say, ‘I made Abram rich.’ <sup>24</sup>The only thing I will accept is the food that my young men have eaten. But you should give the other men their share. Take the things we won in battle and give some to Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. These men helped me in the battle.”

God's Agreement With Abram

15 After all these things happened, the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision.* God said, “Abram, don't be afraid. I will defend you. And I will give you a great reward.”

<sup>2</sup>But Abram said, “Lord God, there is nothing you can give me that will make me happy. Why? Because I have no son. So my slave Eliezer from Damascus will get all the things I own after I die.” <sup>3</sup>Abram said, “You have given me no son. So a slave born in my house will get everything I have.”

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord spoke to Abram. God said, “That slave will not be the one to get the things you have. You will have a son. And your son will get the things you have.”

<sup>5</sup>Then God led Abram outside. God said, “Look at the sky. See the many stars. There are so many you can't count them. In the future, your family will be like that.”

<sup>7</sup>God said to Abram, “I am the Lord who led you from Ur of Babylonia.* I did this so I could give you this land—you will own this land.”

<sup>8</sup>But Abram said, “Lord, my Master, how can I be sure that I will get this land?”

<sup>9</sup>God said to Abram, “We will make an agreement. Bring me a three-year-old cow, a three-year-old goat, and a three-year-old ram.* Also, bring me a dove and a young pigeon.”

<sup>10</sup>Abram brought all these things to God. Abram killed these animals and cut each of them into two pieces. Then Abram laid each half across from the other half. Abram did not cut the birds into two pieces. <sup>11</sup>Later, large birds flew down to eat the animals. But Abram chased them away.

vision Like a dream. God gave messages to his special people by letting them see and hear things in visions.

very good work The Hebrew word can mean “goodness,” “righteousness,” or “a good work.”

ram A male sheep.

<sup>11</sup>Later in the day, the sun was going down. Abram became very sleepy and fell asleep. While he was asleep a very terrible darkness came. <sup>12</sup>Then the Lord said to Abram, "You should know these things: Your descendants* will be foreigners and travel in a land they don't own. They will be slaves there. And they will be treated badly for 400 years. <sup>14</sup>But after 400 years I will punish the nation that is their master. And your people will leave that land. When your people leave, they will take many good things with them.

<sup>15</sup>"You yourself will live to be very old. You will die in peace. And you will be buried with your family. <sup>16</sup>After four generations your people will come to this land again. At that time, your people will defeat the Amorite people. I will use your people to punish the Amorites living here. (This will be in the future, because the Amorite people are not yet evil enough to punish)."

<sup>17</sup>After the sun went down, it was very dark. The dead animals still lay on the ground—each animal cut in two pieces. At that time, a column of smoke and fire* passed between the halves of the dead animals.*

<sup>18</sup>So on that day, the Lord made a promise and an agreement with Abram. The Lord said, "I will give this land to your descendants.* I will give them the land between the river of Egypt and the great river Euphrates. <sup>19</sup>This is the land of the Kenite people, the Kenizzite people, the Kadmonite people, <sup>20</sup>the Hittite people, the Perizzite people, the Rephaim people, <sup>21</sup>the Amorite people, the Canaanite people, the Girgashite people, and the Jebusite people."

column ... fire A sign that God used to show that he was with his people.

passed ... animals This showed that God "signed" or "sealed" the agreement he made with Abraham. In those days, a person making an agreement showed he was sincere by walking between the cut animals and saying something like, "May this same thing happen to me if I don't keep the agreement."

Hagar the Servant Girl

16 Sarai was Abram's wife. She and Abram had no children. Sarai had a servant from Egypt. Her name was Hagar. <sup>2</sup>Sarai said to Abram, "The Lord has not allowed me to have children. So go with my servant Hagar. I will accept the child that is born from her like it is my own."

Abram obeyed his wife Sarai. <sup>3</sup>This was after Abram lived ten years in the land of Canaan. And Sarai gave Hagar to her husband Abram. (Hagar was her servant from Egypt.)

<sup>4</sup>Hagar became pregnant from Abram. When Hagar saw this, she became very proud and began to feel that she was better than Sarai her master. <sup>5</sup>But Sarai said to Abram, "My servant now hates me. And I blame you for this. I gave her to you. She became pregnant. And then she began to feel that she is better than I am. I want the Lord to judge what is right."

<sup>6</sup>But Abram said to Sarai, "You are Hagar's master. You can do anything you want to her." So Sarai punished her servant Hagar. And Hagar ran away.

Hagar's Son Ishmael

<sup>7</sup>The Angel of the Lord found Hagar near a pool of water in the desert. The pool was by the road to Shur. <sup>8</sup>The Angel said, "Hagar, you are Sarai's servant. Why are you here? Where are you going?"

Hagar said, "I am running from my master, Sarai."

<sup>9</sup>The Angel of the Lord said to Hagar, "Sarai is your master. Go home to her and obey her." <sup>10</sup>The Angel of the Lord also said to Hagar, "From you will come many people. There will be so many people that they cannot be counted."

<sup>11</sup>The Angel also said,

"Hagar, you are now pregnant, and you will have a son.

You will name him Ishmael.*

Ishmael This name means "God hears."

because the Lord has heard about your troubles, and he will help you.

- <sup>12</sup> "Ishmael will be wild and free, like a wild donkey.
He will be against everyone.
And everyone will be against him.
He will move from place to place and camp near his brothers, but he will be against them."

<sup>13</sup>The Lord talked to Hagar. Hagar began to use a new name for God. She said to him, "You are 'God Who Sees Me.'" She said this because she thought, "I see that even in this place God sees me and cares for me!" <sup>14</sup>So the well there was called Beer Lahai Roi.* That well is between Kadesh and Bered.

Circumcision—Proof of the Agreement

17 When Abram was 99 years old, the Lord spoke to him. The Lord said, "I am God All-Powerful.* Do these things for me: Obey me and live the right way. <sup>2</sup>If you do this, I will prepare an agreement between us. I will promise to make your people a great nation."

<sup>3</sup>Then Abram bowed down before God. God said to him, "This is my part of our agreement: I will make you the father of many nations. <sup>4</sup>I will change your name. Your name will not be Abram*—your name will be Abraham.* I give you this name because you will be the father of many nations. <sup>5</sup>I will give you a great reward. New nations will be born from you. Kings will come from you. <sup>6</sup>And I will prepare an agreement between you and me. This agreement will also be for all your descendants.* This agreement will continue forever. I will be your God and the God of all your descendants. <sup>8</sup>And I will give this land to you and to all your descendants. I will give you the land you are traveling through—the land of Canaan. I will give you this land forever. And I will be your God."

<sup>9</sup>And God said to Abraham, "Now, this is your part of the agreement. You and all your descendants* will obey my agreement. <sup>10</sup>This is the agreement that you will obey. This is the agreement between you and me. This is for all your descendants: Every boy that is born must be circumcised.* <sup>11</sup>You will cut the skin to show that you follow the agreement between me and you. <sup>12</sup>When the baby boy is eight days old, you will circumcise him. Every boy born among your people and every boy that is a slave of your people must be circumcised. <sup>13</sup>So every baby boy in your nation will be circumcised. Every boy that is born from your family or bought as a slave will be circumcised. <sup>14</sup>Abraham, this is the agreement between you and me: Any male that is not circumcised will be cut off from his people.* Why? Because that person has broken my agreement."

Isaac—The Promised Son

<sup>15</sup>God said to Abraham, "I will give Sarai,* your wife, a new name. Her new name will be Sarah.* <sup>16</sup>I will bless her. I will give her a son, and you will be the father. She will be the mother of many new nations. Kings of nations will come from her."

<sup>17</sup>Abraham bowed his face to the ground (to show he respected God). But he laughed and said to himself, "I am 100 years old. I can't have a son. And Sarah is 90 years old. She can't have a child." <sup>18</sup>Then Abraham said to God, "I hope Ishmael will live and serve you."

Beer Lahai Roi This means "The well of the Living One who sees me."

God All-Powerful Literally, "El Shaddai."

Abram This name means "honored father."

Abraham This name means "great father" or "father of many."

descendant(s) A person's children and all their future families.

circumcise(d) Cutting the foreskin from a man. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God's laws and teachings.

cut ... people This means a person must be separated from his family and lose his share of the inheritance.

Sarai Possibly, an Aramaic name meaning "princess."

Sarah A Hebrew name meaning "princess."

<sup>1</sup>God said, “No! I said that Sarah your wife will have a son. You will name him Isaac.* I will make my agreement with him. That agreement will be an agreement that continues forever with all his descendants.*

<sup>2</sup>“You asked me about Ishmael, and I heard you. I will bless him. He will have many children. He will be the father of twelve great leaders. His family will become a great nation.

<sup>3</sup>But I will make my agreement with Isaac. Isaac will be the son that Sarah will have. This son will be born at this same time next year.”

<sup>8</sup>Abraham was 99 years old when he was circumcised. <sup>9</sup>And Ishmael, his son, was 13 years old when he was circumcised. <sup>10</sup>Abraham and his son were circumcised on that same day. <sup>11</sup>Also, on that day all the men in Abraham’s house were circumcised. All the slaves born in his house and all the slaves that he had bought were circumcised.

The Three Visitors

18 Later, the Lord again appeared to Abraham. Abraham was living near the oak trees of Mamre. One day, at the hottest part of the day, Abraham was sitting at the door of his tent. <sup>2</sup>Abraham looked up and saw three men standing in front of him. When Abraham saw the men, he went to them and bowed before them. <sup>3</sup>Abraham said, “Sirs,* please stay awhile with me, your servant. <sup>4</sup>I will bring some water to wash your feet. You can rest under the trees. <sup>5</sup>I will get some food for you, and you can eat as much as you want. Then you can continue your journey.”

The three men said, “That is fine. We will do as you said.”

Abraham said, “She is there in the tent.”

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord said, “I will come again in the spring time. At that time, your wife Sarah will have a son.”

Sarah was listening in the tent, and she heard these things. <sup>11</sup>Abraham and Sarah were very old. Sarah was past the right age for women to have children. <sup>12</sup>So Sarah did not believe what she heard. She said to herself, “Now I am old and my husband is old. I am too old to have a baby.”

<sup>13</sup>Then the Lord said to Abraham, “Sarah does not believe what I say.<sup>14</sup> She laughed and said, ‘I am too old to have a baby.’ <sup>15</sup>Is anything too hard for the Lord? No! I will come again in the spring, at the time I said, and your wife Sarah will have a son.”

But the Lord said, “No. I know that is not true. You did laugh!”

<sup>17</sup>Then the men got up to leave. They looked toward Sodom and began walking in that direction.<sup>18</sup> Abraham walked with them a short time to say good-bye to them.

Isaac This name means “he laughs.”
descendant(s) A person’s children and all their future families.

circumcise(d) Cutting the foreskin from a man. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God’s laws and teachings.

Sirs This Hebrew word can mean “sirs” or “Lord.” This might show that these were not ordinary men.

Abraham's Bargain With God

<sup>20</sup>Then the Lord said, "I have heard many times that the people of Sodom and Gomorrah are very evil. <sup>21</sup>So I will go and see if things are as bad as I have heard. Then I will know for sure."

<sup>22</sup>So the men turned and started walking toward Sodom. But Abraham stood there before the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Then Abraham approached the Lord and asked, "Lord, do you plan to destroy the good people while you are destroying the evil people? <sup>24</sup>What if there are 50 good people in that city? Will you still destroy the city? Surely you will save the city for the 50 good people living there. <sup>25</sup>Surely you would not destroy the city. You would not destroy 50 good people to kill the evil people. If that happened, then good people and evil people would be the same—they would both be punished. You are the judge of all the earth. I know you will do the right thing."

<sup>27</sup>Then Abraham said, "Compared to you, Lord, I am only dust and ashes. But let me bother you again and ask you this question: <sup>28</sup>What if five good people are missing? What if there are only 45 good people in the city? Will you destroy a whole city for just five people?"

The Lord said, "If I find 45 good people here, I will not destroy the city."

<sup>29</sup>Again Abraham said to God, "And if you find only 40 good people there, will you destroy the city?"

The Lord said, "If I find 40 good people, I will not destroy the city."

<sup>30</sup>Then Abraham said, "Lord, please don't be angry with me. Let me ask you this: If only 30 good people are in the city, will you destroy the city?"

The Lord said, "If I find 30 good people there, I will not destroy the city."

<sup>31</sup>Then Abraham said, "May I bother my Lord again and ask, what if there are 20 good people?"

The Lord answered, "If I find 20 good people, I will not destroy the city."

<sup>32</sup>Then Abraham said, "Lord, please don't be angry with me, but let me bother you this one last time. If you find ten good people there, what will you do?"

The Lord said, "If I find ten good people in the city, I will not destroy it."

Lot's Visitors

19 That evening the two angels came to the city of Sodom. Lot was sitting near the city gates and saw the angels. Lot thought they were men traveling through town., Lot got up and went to them and bowed down on the ground. <sup>2</sup>Lot said, "Sirs, please come to my house, and I will serve you. There you can wash your feet and stay the night. Then tomorrow you can continue your journey."

The angels answered, "No, we will stay the night in the square."*

<sup>3</sup>But Lot continued to ask them to come to his house. So the angels agreed to go to Lot's house. They went to Lot's house. Lot gave them something to drink. Lot cooked some bread for the angels, and they ate it.

<sup>4</sup>That evening, just before bedtime, men from every part of town came to Lot's house. The men from Sodom stood around the house and called to Lot. They said, <sup>5</sup>"Where are the two men (angels) that came to you tonight?

descendant(s) A person's children and all their future families.

square An open area in a city near the city gates. Travelers often camped there when they came to town.

Bring those men out to us. We want to have sex with them.”

<sup>6</sup>Lot went outside, and closed the door behind him. <sup>7</sup>Lot said to the men, “No! My brothers, I beg you, please don’t do this evil thing! <sup>8</sup>Look! I have two daughters. They have never slept with a man before. I will give my daughters to you. You can do anything you want with them. But please don’t do anything to these men. These men have come to my house, and I must protect them.”

<sup>9</sup>The men around the house answered, “Move out of the way!” Then the men said to themselves, “This man Lot came to our city as a visitor. Now he wants to tell us what we should do!” Then the men said to Lot, “We will do worse things to you than to them.” So the men started moving closer and closer to Lot. They were ready to break the door open.

<sup>10</sup>But the two men staying with Lot opened the door and pulled Lot back inside the house. Then the men closed the door. <sup>11</sup>The two men caused the men outside the door to become blind. So the men trying to enter the house, young and old, were blind and could not find the door.

The Escape From Sodom

<sup>12</sup>The two men said to Lot, “Are there any other people in this city that are in your family? Do you have any sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or any other people in your family? If there is anyone in this city that is from your family, then you should tell them to leave now. <sup>13</sup>We will destroy this city. The Lord has heard of all the evil that is in this city. So the Lord has sent us to destroy it.”

<sup>14</sup>So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, the men who had married his other daughters. Lot said, “Hurry and leave this city! The Lord will soon destroy it!” But those men thought Lot was joking.

<sup>15</sup>The next morning at dawn, the angels were trying to make Lot hurry. They said, “This city will be punished. So take your wife and your two daughters who are still with you and leave this place. Then you will not be destroyed with the city.”

<sup>16</sup>But Lot was confused, and did not hurry to leave. So the two men (angels) held the hands of Lot and his wife and his two daughters. The two men led Lot and his family out of the city safely. The Lord was kind to Lot and his family. <sup>17</sup>So the two men brought Lot and his family out of the city. After they were out, one of the men said, “Now run to save your life! Don’t look back at the city. And don’t stop any place in the valley. Run until you are in the mountains. If you stop, then you will be destroyed with the city!”

<sup>18</sup>But Lot said to the two men, “Sirs, please don’t force me to run so far! <sup>19</sup>I am like a servant to you. But you have shown great kindness to me. You have been very kind to save me. But I can’t run to the mountains. If I am too slow, then something bad will happen and I will be killed. <sup>20</sup>But look, there is a very small town near here. Let me run to that town. I can run to that town and be safe.”

<sup>21</sup>The angel said to Lot, “Fine. I will allow you to do this also. I will not destroy that town. <sup>22</sup>But run there fast. I can’t destroy Sodom until you are safely in that town.” (That town is named Zoar,* because it is a small town.)

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

<sup>23</sup>Lot was entering Zoar when the morning sun began to shine. <sup>24</sup>And the Lord began to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah. The Lord sent a rain of burning sulfur down from the sky. <sup>25</sup>So the Lord destroyed those cities, and he also destroyed the whole valley—all the people living in the cities and all the plants.

<sup>27</sup>Early that same morning, Abraham got up and went to the place where he stood before the Lord. <sup>28</sup>Abraham looked down toward the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. Abraham looked at all the land in the valley. Abraham saw much smoke rising from the land. It looked like smoke from a very big fire.

Zoar This name means “small.”

<sup>20</sup>God destroyed the cities in the valley. But when God did this, he remembered the thing that Abraham asked. God saved Lot's life, but God destroyed the city where Lot had lived.

Lot and His Daughters

<sup>30</sup>Lot was afraid to continue living in Zoar. So he and his two daughters went and lived in the mountains. They lived in a cave there. <sup>31</sup>One day the older daughter said to the younger, "Everywhere on the earth, women and men marry. But there are no men around here for us to marry. Our father is old. <sup>32</sup>But we should use our father to have children so that we can continue our family. We will go to our father and drink wine with him and make him drunk. Then we can sleep with him."

<sup>33</sup>That night the two girls went to their father and drank wine with him. Then the older daughter went into her father's bed and slept with him. [Lot was drunk,] so Lot did not know that she had slept with him.

<sup>34</sup>The next day, the older daughter said to the younger daughter, "Last night I slept with my father. Let's drink wine with him again tonight. Then you can go into his bed and sleep with him. In this way we can use our father to have children to continue our family." <sup>35</sup>So that night the two girls drank wine with their father until he was drunk. Then the younger daughter went into his bed and slept with him. Again, Lot did not know that his daughter had slept with him.

<sup>36</sup>So both of Lot's daughters became pregnant. Their father was the father of their babies. <sup>37</sup>The older daughter gave birth to a son. She named the son Moab. Moab is the father of all the Moabite people who are still living today. <sup>38</sup>The younger daughter also gave birth to a son. She named her son Ben-Ammi. Ben-Ammi is the father of all the Ammonite people who are still living today.

Abraham Goes to Gerar

20 Abraham left that place and traveled to the Negev.* Abraham settled in the city of Gerar, between Kadesh and Shur. While in Gerar, <sup>2</sup>Abraham told people that Sarah was his sister. Abimelech, king of Gerar, heard this. Abimelech wanted Sarah, so he sent some servants to take her. <sup>3</sup>But one night, God spoke to Abimelech in a dream. God said, "You will die. That woman you took is married."

<sup>4</sup>But Abimelech had not yet slept with Sarah. So Abimelech said, "Lord, I am not guilty. Would you kill an innocent person? <sup>5</sup>Abraham himself told me, 'This woman is my sister.' And the woman also said, 'This man is my brother.' I am innocent. I did not know what I was doing."

<sup>6</sup>Then God said to Abimelech in a dream, "Yes, I know that you are innocent. And I know that you did not know what you were doing. I saved you. I did not allow you to sin against me. I was the One who did not allow you to sleep with her. <sup>7</sup>So give Abraham his wife again. Abraham is a prophet.* He will pray for you, and you will live. But if you do not give Sarah back to Abraham, then I promise that you will die. And all your family will die with you."

<sup>8</sup>So very early the next morning, Abimelech called all his servants. Abimelech told them all these things that happened in the dream. The servants were very afraid. <sup>9</sup>Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "Why have you done this to us? What wrong did I do against you? Why did you lie and say that she was your sister? You brought much trouble to my kingdom. You should not have done these things to me. <sup>10</sup>What were you afraid of? Why did you do these things to me?"

<sup>11</sup>Then Abraham said, "I was afraid., I thought no one in this place respected God. I thought someone would kill me to get Sarah. <sup>12</sup>She is my wife, but she is also my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother. <sup>13</sup>God led me away from my father's house. God led me to wander to many different places. When that happened, I told Sarah, 'Do something for me; tell people you are my sister.'"

<sup>14</sup>Then Abimelech understood what had happened. So Abimelech gave Sarah back to Abraham. Abimelech also gave Abraham some sheep, cattle, and slaves. <sup>15</sup>And Abimelech said, "Look all around you. This is my land. You may live any place you want."

<sup>16</sup>Abimelech said to Sarah, "I gave your brother Abraham 1,000 pieces of silver. I did this to show that I am sorry for all these things. I want everyone to see that I did the right thing."

<sup>17,18</sup>The Lord made all the women in Abimelech's family not able to have children. God did this because Abimelech had taken Sarah, Abraham's wife. But Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his servant girls.

Finally, a Baby for Sarah

21 The Lord kept the promise he had made to Sarah. The Lord did for Sarah what he had promised. <sup>2</sup>Sarah became pregnant and gave birth to a son for Abraham in his old age. All these things happened exactly like God promised. <sup>3</sup>Sarah gave birth to a son, and Abraham named him Isaac. <sup>4</sup>Abraham circumcised* Isaac when Isaac was eight days old like God had commanded.

<sup>5</sup>Abraham was 100 years old when his son Isaac* was born. <sup>6</sup>And Sarah said, "God has made me happy. Every person who hears about this will be happy with me. <sup>7</sup>No one thought that I, Sarah, would be able to have Abraham's child. But I have given Abraham a son even though he is old."

Trouble at Home

<sup>1</sup>Isaac continued to grow. Soon he was old enough to begin eating food. At that time, Abraham gave a great feast. <sup>2</sup>In the past, Hagar, the slave woman from Egypt, had given birth to a son. Abraham was the father of that son also. But now Sarah saw that this son was making trouble for Isaac. <sup>10</sup>So Sarah said to Abraham, "Force that slave woman and her son to leave. When we die, our son Isaac will get everything we have. I don't want her son to share in those things with Isaac."

<sup>11</sup>All this worried Abraham very much. He was worried about his son, Ishmael. <sup>12</sup>But God said to Abraham, "Don't be worried about the boy. And don't be worried about the slave woman. Do the thing that Sarah wants. Isaac will be your only heir.* <sup>13</sup>But I will also bless the son of your slave woman. He is your son, so I will make a great nation from his family also.

<sup>15</sup>After some time, all the water was gone. There was none left to drink. So Hagar put her son under a bush. <sup>16</sup>Hagar walked a short distance away. Then she stopped and sat down. Hagar thought her son would die because there was no water. She did not want to watch him die. She sat there and began to cry.

<sup>17</sup>God heard the boy crying. And God's angel called to Hagar from heaven. He said, "What is wrong, Hagar? Don't be afraid! The Lord has heard the boy crying there. <sup>18</sup>Go help the boy. Hold his hand and lead him. I will make him the father of many, many people."

<sup>19</sup>Then God allowed Hagar to see a well of water. So Hagar went to the well and filled her bag. Then she gave water to the boy to drink.

Abraham's Bargain With Abimelech

<sup>22</sup>Then Abimelech and Phicol spoke with Abraham. Phicol was the commander of

circumcise(d) Cutting the foreskin from a man. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God's laws and teachings.

Isaac This name means "he laughs" or "he is happy."

heir A person that receives his parents' property when they die.

Abimelech's army. They said to Abraham, "God is with you in everything you do." <sup>23</sup>So make a promise to me here before God. Promise that you will be fair with me and with my children. Promise that you will be kind to me and the land here where you have lived. Promise you will be as kind to me as I have been to you."

<sup>24</sup>And Abraham said, "I promise I will treat you the same way you have treated me." <sup>25</sup>Then Abraham complained to Abimelech. Abraham complained because Abimelech's servants had captured a well of water.

<sup>26</sup>But Abimelech said, "I don't know who has done this thing. You never told me about this before today!"

<sup>31</sup>So after that, the well was called Beersheba.* They gave the well this name because it was the place where they made a promise to each other.

<sup>32</sup>So Abraham and Abimelech made an agreement at Beersheba. Then Abimelech and his military commander went back to the land of the Philistines.

<sup>33</sup>Abraham planted a special tree at Beersheba. At that place, Abraham prayed to the Lord, the God who lives forever. <sup>34</sup>And Abraham stayed a long time in the land of the Philistines.

Abraham, Kill Your Son!

22 After those things, God decided to test Abraham's faith. God said to him, "Abraham!"

And Abraham said, "Yes!"

<sup>2</sup>Then God said, "Take your son to the land of Moriah. At Moriah kill your son as a sacrifice* for me. This must be Isaac, your only son—the son you love. Use him as a burnt offering on one of the mountains there. I will tell you which mountain."

<sup>3</sup>In the morning Abraham got up and prepared his donkey. Abraham took Isaac and two servants with him. Abraham cut the wood for the sacrifice.* Then they went to the place God told them to go. <sup>4</sup>After they traveled three days, Abraham looked up and in the distance, he saw the place they were going to. <sup>5</sup>Then Abraham said to his servants, "Stay here with the donkey. I will take my son and go to that place and worship. Then we will come back to you later."

<sup>6</sup>Abraham took the wood for the sacrifice* and put it on his son's shoulder. Abraham took the special knife and fire. Then both Abraham and his son went together to the place for worship.

Abraham answered, "Yes, son."

Isaac said, "I see the wood and the fire. But where is the lamb we will burn as a sacrifice*?"

<sup>8</sup>Abraham answered, "God will give us the lamb for the sacrifice* at the right time, my son."

Isaac Is Saved

So both Abraham and his son went together to that place. <sup>9</sup>They came to the place where God told them to go. There, Abraham built an altar.* Abraham laid the wood on the altar. Then Abraham tied his son Isaac. Abraham laid Isaac on the altar on the wood. <sup>10</sup>Then Abraham took his knife and prepared to kill his son.

seven The Hebrew word for "seven" is like the Hebrew word for "oath" or "promise." The seven animals were proof of this promise. This Hebrew word is like the last part of the name Beersheba.

Beersheba A town in Judah. This name means "well of the oath."

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices that were offered as gifts to God.

<sup>11</sup>But then the Angel of the Lord stopped Abraham. The angel called from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!"

Abraham answered, "Yes."

<sup>12</sup>The angel said, "Don't kill your son or hurt him in any way. Now I can see that you do respect and obey God. I see that you are ready to kill your son, your only son, for me."

<sup>13</sup>And Abraham looked away and saw a ram. The ram's horns were caught in a bush. So Abraham went and took the ram and killed it. Abraham used the ram as a sacrifice* to God. Abraham's son was saved. <sup>14</sup>So Abraham gave that place a name, "Yahweh Yireh."* Even today people say, "On this mountain, the Lord can be seen."

<sup>15</sup>The Angel of the Lord called to Abraham from heaven a second time. <sup>16</sup>The angel said, "You were ready to kill your son for me. This was your only son. Because you did this for me, I make you this promise: I, the Lord, promise that <sup>17</sup>I will truly bless you. I will give you many, many descendants,* as many as the stars in the sky. There will be as many people as sand on the seashore. And your people will defeat all their enemies. <sup>18</sup>Every nation on the earth will be blessed through your descendants. I will do this because you obeyed me."

<sup>20</sup>After all these things happened, a message was sent to Abraham. The message said, "Your brother Nahor and his wife Milcah have children now. <sup>21</sup>The first son is Uz. The second son is Buz. The third son is Kemuel, the father of Aram. <sup>22</sup>Then there are Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel." <sup>23</sup>Bethuel was the father of Rebekah. Milcah was the mother of these eight sons, and Nahor was the father. Nahor was Abraham's brother. <sup>24</sup>Also Nahor had four other sons from his woman servant* Reumah. The sons were Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.

Sarah Dies

23 Sarah lived to be 127 years old. <sup>2</sup>She died in the city of Kiriath Arba (that is: Hebron) in the land of Canaan. Abraham was very sad and cried for her there. <sup>3</sup>Then Abraham left his dead wife and went to talk to the Hittite people. He said, "I do not live in this land. I am only a traveler here. So I have no place to bury my wife. I need some land so that I can bury my wife."

<sup>4</sup>The Hittite people answered Abraham, "Sir, you are one of God's great leaders among us. You can have the best place we have to bury your dead. You can have any of our burying places that you want. None of us will stop you from burying your wife there."

<sup>5</sup>Abraham rose and bowed to the people. <sup>6</sup>Abraham said to them, "If you truly want to help me bury my dead wife, then speak to Ephron the son of Zohar for me. <sup>7</sup>I would like to buy the cave of Machpelah. Ephron owns this. It is at the end of his field. I will pay him the full price—all that it is worth. I want all of you to be witnesses that I am buying it as a burial place."

<sup>8</sup>Ephron was sitting there among the people. Ephron answered Abraham, "No, sir. I will give you the land. I will give you that cave. I give it to you so that you can bury your wife."

<sup>9</sup>Then Abraham bowed before the Hittite people. <sup>10</sup>Abraham said to Ephron before all the people, "But I want to pay you the full price for the field. Accept my money, and I will bury my dead."

<sup>11</sup>Ephron answered Abraham, "Sir, listen to me. The land is worth 10 pounds* of silver. But what does 10 pounds of silver mean to you and me? Take the land, and bury your dead wife."

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

Yahweh Yireh Or, "Jehovah Jireh." This means "the Lord sees" or "the Lord gives."

descendant(s) A person's children and all their future families.

woman servant Literally, "concubine." A slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

10 pounds Literally, "400 shekels."

<sup>16</sup>Abraham understood that Ephron was telling him and the Hittite people the price of the land. So Abraham paid him for the land. Abraham weighed 10 pounds* of silver for Ephron and gave it to the merchant.*

<sup>17-18</sup>So the field of Ephron changed owners. This field was in Machpelah, east of Mamre. Abraham became the owner of the field, the cave on the field, and all the trees that were on that field. All the people in the city saw the agreement between Ephron and Abraham. <sup>19</sup>After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of that field near Mamre (that is Hebron in the land of Canaan). <sup>20</sup>Abraham bought the field and the cave on it from the Hittite people. This became his property, and he used it as a burying place.

A Wife for Isaac

24 Abraham lived to be a very old man. The Lord blessed Abraham and everything that he did. <sup>2</sup>Abraham had a servant who was in charge of everything Abraham owned. Abraham called that servant to him and said, “Put your hand under my leg.* <sup>3</sup>Now I want you to make a promise to me. Promise to me before the Lord, the God of heaven and earth, that you will not allow my son to marry a girl from Canaan. We live among those people but don’t let him marry a Canaanite girl. <sup>4</sup>Go back to my country to my own people. There find a wife for my son Isaac. Then bring her here to him.”

<sup>5</sup>The servant said to him, “Maybe this woman will not want to come back with me to this land. Then, should I take your son with me to your homeland?”

<sup>6</sup>Abraham said to him, “No! Don’t take my son to that land. <sup>7</sup>The Lord, the God of heaven, brought me from my homeland to this place. That land was the home of my father and the home of my family. But the Lord promised that this new land here would belong to my family. May the Lord send his angel before you so you can choose a wife for my son. <sup>8</sup>But if the girl refuses to come with you, then you will be free from this promise. But you must not take my son back to that land.”

<sup>9</sup>So the servant put his hand under his master’s leg and made the promise.

The Search Begins

<sup>12</sup>The servant said, “Lord, you are the God of my master Abraham. Allow me to find a wife for his son today. Please show this kindness to my master Abraham. <sup>13</sup>Here I am, standing by this well of water, and the young women from the city are coming out to get water. <sup>14</sup>I am waiting for a special sign to know which is the right young woman for Isaac. This is the special sign: I will say to the girl, ‘Please put your jar down so I can drink.’ I will know if she is the right young woman if she says, ‘Drink, and I will also give water to your camels.’ If that happens, then you will have proved that she is the right young woman for Isaac. And I will know you have shown kindness to my master.”

A Wife Is Found

<sup>15</sup>Then, before the servant finished praying, a young woman named Rebekah came to the well. Rebekah was the daughter of Bethuel. Bethuel was the son of Milcah and Nahor, Abraham’s brother. Rebekah came to the well with her water jar on her shoulder. <sup>16</sup>She was very pretty. She was a virgin; she had never slept with a man. She went down to the well and filled her jar. <sup>17</sup>Then the servant ran to her and said, “Please give me a little water to drink from your jar.”

merchant A person who earns his living buying and selling things. This might be Ephron or another person.

Put ... leg This showed that this was a very important promise and that Abraham trusted his servant to do what he promised.

<sup>18</sup>Rebekah quickly lowered the jar from her shoulder and gave him a drink. Rebekah said, "Drink this, sir." <sup>19</sup>As soon as she finished giving him something to drink, Rebekah said, "I will also pour some water for your camels."

<sup>20</sup>So Rebekah quickly poured all the water from her jar into the drinking trough for the camels. Then she ran to the well to get more water. And she gave water to all the camels.

<sup>21</sup>The servant quietly watched her. He wanted to be sure that the Lord had given him an answer and had made his trip successful. <sup>22</sup>After the camels finished drinking, he gave Rebekah a gold ring that weighed 1/4 ounce.* He also gave her two gold arm bracelets that weighed 5 ounces* each. <sup>23</sup>The servant asked, "Who is your father? And is there a place in your father's house for my group to sleep?"

<sup>24</sup>Rebekah answered, "My father is Bethuel, the son of Milcah and Nahor." <sup>25</sup>Then she said, "And yes, we have straw for your camels and a place for you to sleep."

<sup>26</sup>The servant bowed and worshiped the Lord. <sup>27</sup>The servant said, "Blessed is the Lord, the God of my master Abraham. The Lord has been kind and loyal to my master. The Lord has led me to the right girl for my master's son."

<sup>28</sup>Then Rebekah ran and told her family about all these things. <sup>29,30</sup>Rebekah had a brother. His name was Laban. Rebekah told about the things the man had said to her. Laban was listening to her. And when Laban saw the ring and the bracelets on his sister's arms, he ran out to the well. And there the man was—standing by the camels at the well. <sup>31</sup>Laban said, "Sir, you are welcome to come in!* You don't have to stand outside here. I have prepared a room for you to sleep in and a place for your camels."

<sup>32</sup>So Abraham's servant went into the house. Laban helped him with the camels and gave him straw for the camels to eat. Then Laban gave him water so he and the other men with him could wash their feet. <sup>33</sup>Then Laban gave him food to eat. But the servant refused to eat.

He said, "I will not eat until I have told you why I came."

So Laban said, "Then tell us."

Bargaining for Rebekah

<sup>34</sup>The servant said, "I am Abraham's servant. <sup>35</sup>The Lord has greatly blessed my master in everything. My master has become a great man. The Lord has given Abraham many flocks of sheep and herds of cattle. Abraham has much silver and gold and many servants. Abraham has many camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup>Sarah was my master's wife. When she was very old, she gave birth to a son. And my master has given everything he owns to that son. <sup>37</sup>My master forced me to make a promise to him. My master said to me, 'You must not allow my son to marry a girl from Canaan. We live among those people, but I don't want him to marry one of the Canaanite girls. <sup>38</sup>So you must promise to go to the land of my father. Go to my family and choose a wife for my son.' <sup>39</sup>I said to my master, 'Maybe the woman will not come back to this land with me.' <sup>40</sup>But my master said to me, 'I serve the Lord, and the Lord will send his angel with you and help you. You will find a wife for my son among my people there. <sup>41</sup>But if you go to the land of my father, and they refuse to give you a wife for my son, then you will be free from this promise.'

<sup>42</sup>"Today I came to this well and said, 'Lord, God of my master Abraham, please make my trip successful. <sup>43</sup>I will stand by this well and wait for a young woman to come to get water. Then I will say; Please give me water from your jar to drink. <sup>44</sup>The right young woman will answer in a special way. She will say; Drink this water, and I will also get water for your camels. That way I will know that she is the woman the Lord has chosen for my master's son.'

<sup>45</sup>"Before I finished praying, Rebekah came out to the well to get water. She had her water jar on her shoulder. She went down to the well and got water. I said to her, 'Please give me some water.' <sup>46</sup>She quickly lowered the jar from her shoulder and poured water for me and said,

1/4 ounce Literally, "one beka."

5 ounces Literally, "five measures."

Sir ... in Literally, "Come in, blessed of the Lord!"

'Drink this and I will also get water for your camels.' So I drank the water, and she gave water to my camels also. <sup>47</sup>Then I asked her, 'Who is your father?' She answered, 'My father is Bethuel the son of Milcah and Nahor.' Then I gave her the ring and bracelets for her arms. <sup>48</sup>'At that time I bowed my head and thanked the Lord. I blessed the Lord the God of my master Abraham. I thanked him because he led me straight to the granddaughter of my master's brother. <sup>49</sup>Now, tell me what you will do. Will you be kind and loyal to my master and give your daughter to him? Or will you refuse to give your daughter? Tell me so that I will know what I should do.'

<sup>52</sup>Abraham's servant heard these words, and he bowed to the ground before the Lord. <sup>53</sup>Then the servant gave Rebekah the gifts he had brought. He gave Rebekah gold and silver jewelry and many beautiful clothes. He also gave expensive gifts to her brother and her mother. <sup>54</sup>The servant and the men with him stayed there and ate and drank. They stayed there for the night. They rose the next morning and said, "Now we will go back to my master."

<sup>55</sup>Rebekah's mother and her brother said, "Let Rebekah stay with us for a short time. Let her stay with us ten days. After that she can go."

<sup>56</sup>But the servant said to them, "Do not make me wait. The Lord has made my trip successful. Now let me go back to my master."

Rebekah said, "Yes, I will go."

<sup>59</sup>So they allowed Rebekah to go with Abraham's servant and his men. Rebekah's nurse also went with them. <sup>60</sup>When they were leaving, they said to Rebekah,

"Our sister, may you be the mother of millions of people.

And may your descendants* defeat their enemies and take their cities."

<sup>64</sup>Rebekah looked and saw Isaac. Then she jumped down from the camel. <sup>65</sup>She said to the servant, "Who is that young man walking in the field to meet us?"

The servant said, "That is my master's son." So Rebekah covered her face with her veil.

<sup>66</sup>The servant told Isaac about all the things that had happened. <sup>67</sup>Then Isaac brought the girl into his mother's tent. Rebekah became Isaac's wife that day. Isaac loved her very much. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Abraham's Family

25 Abraham married again. His new wife was named Keturah. <sup>2</sup>Keturah gave birth to Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. <sup>3</sup>Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. Dedan's descendants were the people of Asshur* and Leum. <sup>4</sup>The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these sons came from the marriage of Abraham and Keturah. <sup>5</sup>Before Abraham died, he gave some gifts to the sons of his women servants.* Abraham sent the sons to the East. He sent them away from Isaac. Then Abraham gave everything he owned to Isaac.

<sup>7</sup>Abraham lived to be 175 years old. <sup>8</sup>Then Abraham grew weak and died. He had lived a think Or, "to go for a stroll." It might also be a polite way of saying "to go to the restroom."

Asshur Or, "Assyria."

long and satisfying life. He died and was gathered to his people. <sup>9</sup>His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah. This cave is in the field of Ephron, the son of Zohar. It was east of Mamre. <sup>10</sup>This is the same cave that Abraham bought from the Hittite people. Abraham was buried there with his wife Sarah. <sup>11</sup>After Abraham died, God blessed Isaac. And Isaac continued to live at Beer Lahai Roi.

Isaac's Family

<sup>19</sup>This is the story of Isaac. Abraham had a son named Isaac. <sup>20</sup>When Isaac was 40 years old he married Rebekah. Rebekah was from Paddan Aram. She was Bethuel's daughter and the sister of Laban the Aramean. <sup>21</sup>Isaac's wife could not have children. So Isaac prayed to the Lord for his wife. The Lord heard Isaac's prayer. And the Lord allowed Rebekah to become pregnant.

<sup>22</sup>While Rebekah was pregnant, she had much trouble with the baby inside her. Rebekah prayed to the Lord and said, "Why is this happening to me?" <sup>23</sup>The Lord said to her, "Two nations are in your body. The rulers of two families will be born from you. And they will be divided. One son will be stronger than the other. The older son will serve the younger." <sup>24</sup>And when the right time came, Rebekah gave birth to twins. <sup>25</sup>The first baby was red. His skin was like a hairy robe. So he was named Esau.* <sup>26</sup>When the second baby was born, he was holding tightly to Esau's heel. So that baby was named Jacob.* Isaac was 60 years old when Jacob and Esau were born.

<sup>27</sup>The boys grew up. Esau became a skilled hunter. He loved to be out in the fields. But Jacob was a quiet man. He stayed in his tent. <sup>28</sup>Isaac loved Esau. He liked to eat the animals Esau killed. But Rebekah loved Jacob.

<sup>29</sup>One time Esau came back from hunting. He was tired and weak from hunger. Jacob was boiling a pot of beans.* <sup>30</sup>So Esau said to Jacob, "I am weak with hunger. Let me have some of those red beans." (That is why people call him Edom.*)

<sup>32</sup>Esau said, "I am almost dead with hunger. If I die, all of my father's wealth will not help me. So I will give you my share."

<sup>33</sup>But Jacob said, "First, promise me that you will give it to me." So Esau made a promise to Jacob. Esau sold his part of their father's wealth to Jacob. <sup>34</sup>Then Jacob gave Esau bread and food. Esau ate and drank and then left. So Esau showed that he did not care about his rights as the firstborn son.*

Isaac Lies to Abimelech

26 Once there was a time of famine.* This was like the famine that happened during Abraham's life. So Isaac went to the town of Gerar, to Abimelech the king of the Philistine people. <sup>2</sup>The Lord spoke to Isaac:

Esau This name is like the word meaning "hairy."

Jacob This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "heel." It also means "the one who follows" or "tricky."

beans Or, "lentils."

Edom This name means "red."

rights as the firstborn son Usually, after the father died, the firstborn son got half of the father's property and became the new head of the family.

famine A time when there is no rain and no crops can grow. People and animals often die because there is not enough food or water.

attacked ... people See Genesis 16:12.

The Lord said, “Don’t go down to Egypt. Live in the land that I commanded you to live in. <sup>3</sup>Stay in that land, and I will be with you. I will bless you. I will give you and your family all these lands. I will do what I promised to Abraham your father. ‘I will make your family as many as the stars of heaven. And I will give all these lands to your family. All the nations of the earth will be blessed because of your family. <sup>5</sup>I will do this because your father Abraham obeyed my words and did the things I said. Abraham obeyed my commands, my laws, and my rules.”

<sup>6</sup>So Isaac stayed and lived in Gerar. <sup>7</sup>Isaac’s wife Rebekah was very beautiful. The men of that place asked Isaac about Rebekah. Isaac said, “She is my sister.” Isaac was afraid to tell them Rebekah was his wife. Isaac was afraid the men would kill him so that they could have her.

<sup>8</sup>After Isaac had lived there a long time, Abimelech looked out his window and saw Isaac and his wife playing. <sup>9</sup>Abimelech called for Isaac and said, “This woman is your wife. Why did you tell us that she was your sister?”

Isaac said to him, “I was afraid that you would kill me so you could have her.”

<sup>10</sup>Abimelech said, “You have done a bad thing to us. One of our men might have slept with your wife. Then he would be guilty of a great sin.”

<sup>11</sup>So Abimelech gave a warning to all the people. He said, “No person must hurt this man or this woman. If any person hurts them, then that person will be killed.”

Isaac Becomes Rich

<sup>12</sup>Isaac planted fields in that land. And that year he gathered a great harvest. The Lord blessed him very much. <sup>13</sup>Isaac became rich. He gathered more and more wealth until he became a very rich man. <sup>14</sup>He had many flocks and herds of animals. He also had many slaves. All the Philistine people were jealous of him. <sup>15</sup>So the Philistine people destroyed all the wells that Isaac’s father Abraham and his servants had dug many years before. The Philistines filled those wells with dirt. <sup>16</sup>And Abimelech said to Isaac, “Leave our country. You have become much more powerful than we are.”

<sup>17</sup>So Isaac left that place and camped near the little river of Gerar. Isaac stayed there and lived. <sup>18</sup>Long before this time, Abraham had dug many wells. After Abraham died, the Philistines filled the wells with dirt. So Isaac went back and dug those wells again. Isaac gave them the same names his father had given them. <sup>19</sup>Isaac’s servants dug a well near the little river. A spring of water flowed from that well. <sup>20</sup>But the men who herded sheep in the Valley of Gerar argued with Isaac’s servants. They said, “This water is ours.” So Isaac named that well Esek.* He gave it that name because that was the place where those people argued with him.

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaac’s servants dug another well. The people of that place also argued because of that well. So Isaac named that well Sitnah.*

<sup>22</sup>Isaac moved from there and dug another well. No men came to argue about that well. So Isaac named that well Rehoboth.* Isaac said, “Now the Lord has found a place for us. We will grow and be successful in this land.”

<sup>23</sup>From that place Isaac went to Beersheba. <sup>24</sup>The Lord spoke to Isaac that night. The Lord said, “I am the God of your father Abraham. Don’t be afraid. I am with you, and I will bless you. I will make your family great. I will do this because of my servant Abraham.” <sup>25</sup>So Isaac built and worshiped the Lord in that place. Isaac made a camp there and his servants dug a well.

<sup>27</sup>Isaac asked, “Why have you come to see me? You were not friendly with me before. You even forced me to leave your country.”

<sup>28</sup>They answered, “Now we know that the Lord is with you. We think that we should make an agreement. We want you to make a promise to us. <sup>9</sup>We did not hurt you, now you should promise not to hurt us. We sent you away, but we sent you away in peace. Now it is clear that the Lord has blessed you.”

Esek This means “argument” or “fight.”

Sitnah This means “hated” or “being an enemy.”

Rehoboth This means “open place” or “crossroads.”

<sup>12</sup>On that day, Isaac’s servants came and told them about the well they had dug. The servants said, “We found water in that well.”

<sup>13</sup>So Isaac named that well Shibah.* And that city is called Beersheba* even now.

Esau's Wives

<sup>14</sup>When Esau was 40 years old, he married two Hittite women. One was Judith the daughter of Beeri. The other was Basemath the daughter of Elon. <sup>15</sup>These marriages made Isaac and Rebekah very upset.

Inheritance Problems

27 When Isaac was old, his eyes were not good. Isaac could not see clearly. One day he called his older son Esau to him. Isaac said, “Son!”

Esau answered, “Here I am.”

<sup>1</sup>Isaac said, “I am old. Maybe I will die soon! <sup>2</sup>So take your bow and arrows and go hunting. Kill an animal for me to eat. <sup>3</sup>Prepare the food that I love. Bring it to me, and I will eat. Then I will bless you before I die.” <sup>4</sup>So Esau went hunting.

Jacob Tricks Isaac

Rebekah was listening when Isaac told those things to his son Esau. <sup>5</sup>Rebekah said to her son Jacob, “Listen, I heard your father talking to your brother Esau. <sup>6</sup>Your father said, ‘Kill an animal for me to eat. Prepare the food for me, and I will eat. Then I will bless you before I die.’ <sup>7</sup>So listen son, and do what I tell you. <sup>8</sup>Go out to our goats and bring me two young goats. I will prepare them the way your father loves them. <sup>9</sup>Then you will carry the food to your father. And he will bless you before he dies.”

<sup>10</sup>But Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, “But my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I am not hairy like him. <sup>11</sup>If my father feels me, he will know that I am not Esau. Then he will not bless me. He will curse* me because I tried to trick him.”

<sup>12</sup>So Rebekah said to him, “I will accept the blame if there is trouble. Do the things I said. Go and get the goats for me.”

And his father said, “Yes, son. Who are you?”

<sup>18</sup>Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau, your first son. I have done the things you told me. Now sit up and eat the animals that I hunted for you. Then you can bless me.”

<sup>19</sup>But Isaac said to his son, “How have you hunted and killed the animals so quickly?”

Jacob answered, “Because the Lord your God allowed me to find the animals quickly.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Come near to me so that I can feel you, my son. If I can feel you, then I will know if you are really my son Esau.”

vow A special promise to God.

Shibah A Hebrew word meaning “seven” or “oath.”

Beersheba A town in Judah. This name means “well of the oath.”

curse To ask for bad things to happen to someone.

<sup>24</sup>Isaac said, "Are you really my son Esau?"
Jacob answered, "Yes, I am."

The Blessing for Jacob

<sup>25</sup>Then Isaac said, "Bring me the food. I will eat it and bless you." So Jacob gave him the food, and he ate. Jacob gave him wine, and he drank.

<sup>26</sup>Then Isaac said to him. "Son, come near and kiss me." <sup>27</sup>So Jacob went to his father and kissed him. Isaac smelled Esau's clothes and blessed him. Isaac said,

My son smells like the fields that the Lord has blessed.

<sup>28</sup> May the Lord give you plenty of rain so that you will have great harvests and wine.

<sup>29</sup> May all people serve you.
May nations bow down to you.
You will be the ruler over your brothers.
Your mother's sons will bow down and obey you.

Every person who curses* you will be cursed.

And every person who blesses you will be blessed."

Esau's "Blessing"

<sup>30</sup>Isaac finished blessing Jacob. Then, just as Jacob left his father Isaac, Esau came in from hunting. <sup>31</sup>Esau prepared the food in the special way his father loved. Esau brought it to his father. He said to his father, "Father, rise and eat the food that your son killed for you. Then you can bless me."

<sup>32</sup>But Isaac said to him, "Who are you?"

He answered, "I am your son—your first son—Esau."

<sup>33</sup>Then Isaac became very worried and said, "Then who was it that cooked and brought me food before you came? I ate it all and I blessed him. Now it is too late to take back my blessing."

<sup>34</sup>Esau heard his father's words. He became very angry and bitter. He cried out. He said to his father, "Then bless me also, father!"

curse To ask for bad things to happen to someone.

<sup>36</sup>Esau said, "His name is Jacob ('Tricky'). That is the right name for him. He has tricked me twice. He took away my rights as the firstborn son.* And now he has taken away my blessing." Then Esau said, "Have you saved any blessing for me?"

<sup>37</sup>Isaac answered, "No, it's too late. I gave Jacob the power to rule over you. And I said all his brothers will be his servants. And I have given him the blessing for much grain and wine. There is nothing left to give you son."

<sup>38</sup>But Esau continued to beg with his father. "Do you have only one blessing, father? Bless me also, father!" Esau began to cry.

<sup>39</sup>Then Isaac said to him,

"You will not live on good land.
And you will not have much rain.

<sup>40</sup> You will have to fight to live.
And you will be a slave to your brother.
But you will fight to be free.

And you will break away from his control."

<sup>41</sup>After that Esau hated Jacob because of this blessing. Esau thought to himself, "My father will soon die, and I will be sad for him. But after that I will kill Jacob."

<sup>42</sup>Rebekah heard about Esau's plan to kill Jacob. She sent for Jacob and said to him, "Listen, your brother Esau is planning to kill you. <sup>43</sup>So, son, do what I say. My brother Laban is living in Haran. Go to him and hide. <sup>44</sup>Stay with him for a short time. Stay with him until your brother stops being angry. <sup>45</sup>After a short time; your brother will forget what you did to him. Then I will send a servant to bring you back. I don't want to lose both of my sons in the same day."

<sup>46</sup>Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "Your son Esau has married Hittite women. I am tired of these women, because they are not our people. If Jacob also marries one of these women, then I want to die."

rights as the firstborn son Usually, after the father died, the firstborn son got half of the father's property and became the new head of the family.

Jacob Searches for a Wife

28 Isaac called Jacob and blessed him. Then Isaac gave him a command. Isaac said, "You must not marry a Canaanite woman. <sup>2</sup>So leave this place and go to Paddan Aram. Go to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father. Laban, your mother's brother, lives there. Marry one of his daughters. <sup>3</sup>I pray that God All-Powerful* will bless you and give you many children. I pray that you will become the father of a great nation. <sup>4</sup>I pray that God will bless you and your children the same way he blessed Abraham. And I pray that you will own the land where you live. This is the land God gave to Abraham."

<sup>5</sup>So Isaac sent Jacob to the land of Paddan Aram. Jacob went to Laban, the brother of Rebekah. Bethuel was the father of Laban and Rebekah. And Rebekah was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

<sup>6</sup>Esau learned that his father Isaac blessed Jacob. And Esau learned that Isaac sent Jacob away to Paddan Aram to find a wife there. Esau learned that Isaac commanded Jacob not to marry a Canaanite woman. <sup>7</sup>And Esau learned that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother and went to Paddan Aram. <sup>8</sup>Esau saw from this that his father did not want his sons to marry Canaanite women. <sup>9</sup>Esau already had two wives. But he went to Ishmael and married another woman. He married Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael. Ishmael was Abraham's son. Mahalath was Nebaioth's sister.

God's House—Bethel

<sup>10</sup>Jacob left Beersheba and went to Haran. <sup>11</sup>While Jacob was traveling, the sun set. So Jacob went to a place to stay the night. Jacob found a rock at that place and laid his head on it to sleep. <sup>12</sup>Jacob had a dream. He dreamed there was a ladder that was on the ground and reached up into heaven. Jacob saw the angels of God going up and down the ladder. <sup>13</sup>And then Jacob saw the Lord standing by the ladder. The Lord said, "I am the Lord, the God of your grandfather Abraham. I am the God of Isaac. I will give you the land that you are lying on now. I will give this land to you and to your children. <sup>14</sup>You will have many, many descendants,* like the many pieces of dust on earth. They will spread east and west, north and south. All the families on earth will be blessed because of you and your descendants.

<sup>15</sup>"I am with you, and I will protect you every place you go. And I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I promised."

<sup>16</sup>Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, "I know that the Lord is in this place. But I did not know he was here until I slept."

<sup>17</sup>Jacob was afraid. He said, "This is a very great place. This is the house of God. This is the gate to heaven."

<sup>18</sup>Jacob rose very early in the morning. Jacob took the rock he had slept on and set it up on its edge. Then he poured oil on the rock. In this way, he made this rock a memorial to God.

<sup>20</sup>Then Jacob made a promise. He said, "If God will be with me, and if God will protect me wherever I go, and if God gives me food to eat and clothes to wear, <sup>21</sup>and if I return in peace to my father's house—if God does all these things—then the Lord will be my God. <sup>22</sup>I will stand this stone in this place. This will show it is a holy place for God. And I will give God one tenth of all he gives me."

Jacob Meets His Uncle

29 Then Jacob continued his trip. He went to the land in the East. <sup>2</sup>Jacob looked, and he saw a well in the field. There were three flocks of sheep lying near the well. This well was the place where these sheep drank water. There was a large rock covering the mouth of the well. <sup>3</sup>When all the flocks gathered there, the shepherds rolled the rock away from the well. Then all the sheep could drink from the

descendant(s) A person's children and all their future families.

Bethel This name means "God's house."

water. After the sheep were full, the shepherds put the rock back in its place.

<sup>4</sup>Jacob said to the shepherds there, "Brothers, where are you from?"

They answered, "We are from Haran."

The shepherds answered, "We know him."

They answered, "He is well. Everything is fine. Look, that is his daughter Rachel coming now with his sheep."

<sup>7</sup>Jacob said, "Look, it is still day and long before the sun sets. It is not yet time for the animals to be gathered together for the night. So give them water and let them go back into the field."

<sup>8</sup>But this shepherd said, "We can't do that until all the flocks are gathered together. Then we will move the rock from the well, and all the sheep will drink."

<sup>13</sup>Laban heard the news about his sister's son Jacob. So Laban ran to meet him. Laban hugged him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban everything that had happened.

<sup>14</sup>Then Laban said, "This is wonderful! You are from my own family." So Jacob stayed with Laban for a month.

Jacob Is Tricked

<sup>15</sup>One day Laban said to Jacob, "It is not right for you to continue working for me without pay. You are a relative, not a slave. What should I pay you?"

<sup>17</sup>Rachel was beautiful. And Leah's eyes were gentle.* <sup>18</sup>Jacob loved Rachel. Jacob said to Laban, "I will work seven years for you if you will allow me to marry your daughter Rachel."

<sup>19</sup>Laban said, "It would be better for her to marry you than someone else. So stay with me."

<sup>20</sup>So Jacob stayed and worked for Laban for seven years. But it seemed like a very short time because he loved Rachel very much.

<sup>21</sup>After seven years Jacob said to Laban, "Give me Rachel so that I can marry her. My time of work for you is finished."

<sup>26</sup>Laban said, "In our country we do not allow the younger daughter to marry before the older daughter. <sup>27</sup>But continue for the full week of the marriage ceremony, and I will also give you Rachel to marry. But you must serve me another seven years."

<sup>28</sup>So Jacob did this and finished the week. Then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife. <sup>29</sup>(Laban gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel to be her maid.) <sup>30</sup>So Jacob had sexual relations with Rachel also. And Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah. Jacob worked for Laban for another seven years.

Jacob's Family Grows

<sup>31</sup>The Lord saw that Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah. So the Lord made it possible for Leah to have children. But Rachel did not have any children.

Leah's ... gentle This might be a polite way of saying Leah was not very pretty.

Reuben This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "Look, a son."

Reuben.* Leah named him this because she said, "The Lord has seen my troubles. My husband doesn't love me. So now maybe my husband will love me."

<sup>3</sup>Leah became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. She named this son Simeon.* Leah said, "The Lord has heard that I am not loved, so he gave me this son."

<sup>4</sup>Leah became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. She named the son Levi.* Leah said, "Now, surely my husband will love me. I have given him three sons."

<sup>5</sup>Then Leah gave birth to another son. She named this son Judah.* Leah named him this because she said, "Now I will praise the Lord." Then Leah stopped having children.

30 Rachel saw that she was giving Jacob no children. Rachel became jealous of her sister Leah. So Rachel said to Jacob, "Give me children or I will die!"

<sup>2</sup>Jacob became angry with Rachel. He said, "I am not God. God is the One who has caused you to not have children."

<sup>3</sup>Then Rachel said, "You can have my maid Bilhah. Sleep with her and she will have a child for me.* Then I can become a mother because of her."

<sup>6</sup>Rachel said, "God has listened to my prayer. He decided to give me a son." So Rachel named this son Dan.*

<sup>7</sup>Bilhah became pregnant again and gave Jacob a second son. <sup>8</sup>Rachel said, "I have fought hard to compete with my sister. And I have won." So she named that son Naphtali.*

<sup>9</sup>Leah saw that she could have no more children. So she gave her slave girl Zilpah to Jacob. <sup>10</sup>Then Zilpah had a son. <sup>11</sup>Leah said, "I am lucky." So she named the son Gad.* <sup>12</sup>Zilpah gave birth to another son. <sup>13</sup>Leah said, "I am very happy! Now women will call me happy." So she named that son Asher.*

<sup>15</sup>Leah answered, "You have already taken away my husband. Now you are trying to take away my son's flowers."

But Rachel answered, "If you will give me your son's flowers, then you can sleep with Jacob tonight."

<sup>16</sup>Jacob came in from the fields that night. Leah saw him and went out to meet him. She said, "You will sleep with me tonight. I have paid for you with my son's flowers." So Jacob slept with Leah that night.

<sup>18</sup>Leah said, "God has given me a reward because I gave my slave to my husband." So Leah named her son Issachar.*

<sup>19</sup>Leah became pregnant again and gave birth to a sixth son. <sup>20</sup>Leah said, "God has given me a fine gift. Now surely Jacob will accept me, because I have given him six sons." So Leah named the son Zebulun.*

Zebulun This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "praise" or "honor."

<sup>23-24</sup>Rachel became pregnant and gave birth to a son. Rachel said, "God has taken away my shame and given me a son." So Rachel named the son Joseph.*

Jacob Tricks Laban

<sup>26</sup>Give me my wives and my children. I have earned them by working for you 14 years. You know that I served you well."

<sup>27</sup>Laban said to him, "Let me say something!<sup>1</sup>* I know* that the Lord has blessed me because of you. <sup>28</sup>Tell me what I should pay you, and I will give it to you."

<sup>29</sup>Jacob answered, "You know that I have worked hard for you. Your flocks have grown and been well while I cared for them. <sup>30</sup>When I came, you had little. Now you have much, much more. Every time I did something for you, the Lord blessed you. Now it is time for me to work for myself—it is time to build my own house.

Jacob answered, "I don't want you to give me anything. I only want you to pay me for the work I have done. Just do this one thing: I will go back and take care of your sheep. <sup>32</sup>But let me go through all your flocks today and take every lamb with spots or stripes. And let me take every black young goat. And let me take every female goat with stripes or spots. That will be my pay. <sup>33</sup>In the future, you can easily see if I am honest. You can come to look at my flocks. If I have any goat that isn't spotted or any sheep that isn't black, then you will know that I stole it."

<sup>34</sup>Laban answered, "I agree to that. We will do what you ask." <sup>35</sup>But that day Laban hid all the male goats that had spots. And Laban hid all the female goats that had spots on them. Laban also hid all the black sheep. Laban told his sons to watch these sheep. <sup>36</sup>So the sons took all the spotted animals and led them to another place. They traveled for three days. Jacob stayed and took care of all the animals that were left. But there were no animals there that were spotted or black.

Time To Leave—Jacob Runs Away

31 One day, Jacob heard Laban's sons talking. They said, "Jacob has taken everything that our father owned. Jacob has become rich—and he has taken all this wealth from our father." <sup>2</sup>Then Jacob noticed that Laban was not as friendly as he had been in the past. <sup>3</sup>The Lord said to Jacob, "Go back to your own land where your ancestors* lived. I will be with you."

<sup>4</sup>So Jacob told Rachel and Leah to meet him in the field where he kept his flocks of sheep and goats. <sup>5</sup>Jacob said to Rachel and Leah, "I

Joseph This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "to add," "collect," or "gather."

Let me say something Literally, "If I find favor in your sight." This is a polite way to ask permission to speak.

know Or, "guessed," "divined," or "concluded."

have seen that your father is angry with me. He was always friendly with me in the past, but now he is not. <sup>6</sup>You both know that I have worked as hard as I can for your father. <sup>7</sup>But your father cheated me. Your father has changed my pay ten times. But during all this time, God protected me from all of Laban's tricks.

<sup>8</sup>“At one time Laban said, ‘You can keep all the goats with spots. This will be your pay.’ After he said this, all the animals gave birth to spotted babies. So they were all mine. But then Laban said, ‘I will keep the spotted goats. You can have all the striped goats. That will be your pay.’ After he said this, then all the animals gave birth to striped babies. <sup>9</sup>So God has taken the animals away from your father and has given them to me.

<sup>10</sup>“I had a dream during the time when the animals were mating. I saw that the only male goats who were mating were the ones with stripes and spots. <sup>11</sup>The angel of God spoke to me in that dream. The angel said, ‘Jacob!’

<sup>12</sup>“The angel said, ‘Look, only the striped and spotted goats are mating. I am causing this to happen. I have seen all the wrong things Laban is doing to you. I am doing this so that you can have all the new baby goats. <sup>13</sup>I am the God who came to you at Bethel. At that place, you made an altar. You poured olive oil on the altar. And you made a promise to me. Now I want you to be ready to go back to the land where you were born.’”

<sup>14</sup>“Rachel and Leah answered Jacob, “Our father has nothing to give us when he dies. He treated us like strangers. He sold us to you, and then he spent all of our money. <sup>15</sup>God took all this wealth from our father, and now it belongs to us. So you should do whatever God told you to do!”

<sup>16</sup>So Jacob prepared for his trip. He put his sons and his wives on camels. <sup>17</sup>Then they began traveling back to the land of Canaan where his father lived. All the flocks of animals that Jacob owned walked ahead of them. He carried everything that he had gotten while he lived in Paddan Aram.

<sup>19</sup>At this time, Laban was gone to cut the wool from his sheep. While he was gone, Rachel went into his house and stole the false gods that belonged to her father.

<sup>22</sup>Three days later, Laban learned that Jacob had run away. <sup>23</sup>So Laban gathered his men together and began to chase Jacob. After seven days, Laban found Jacob near the hill country in Gilead. <sup>24</sup>That night God went to Laban in a dream. God said, “Be careful! Be careful of every word you say to Jacob.”

The Search for the Stolen Gods

<sup>25</sup>The next morning Laban caught Jacob. Jacob had set his camp on the mountain. So Laban and all his men set their camp in the hill country of Gilead.

<sup>26</sup>Laban said to Jacob, “Why did you trick me? Why did you take my daughters like they were women you captured during war? <sup>27</sup>Why did you run away without telling me? If you had told me, I would have given you a party. There would have been singing and dancing with music. <sup>28</sup>You didn't even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters good-bye. You were very foolish to do this! <sup>29</sup>I have the power to really hurt you. But last night your father's God came to me in a dream. He warned me not to hurt you in any way. <sup>30</sup>I know that you want to go back to your home. That is why you left. But why did you steal the gods from my house?”

<sup>31</sup>Jacob answered, “I left without telling you because I was afraid! I thought you would take your daughters away from me. <sup>32</sup>But I did not steal your gods. If you find any one here with me that has taken your gods, then that person will be killed. Your men will be my witnesses. You can look for anything that belongs to you. Take anything that is yours.” (Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen Laban's gods.)

Leah's tent. Then he looked in the tent where the two slave women stayed. But he did not find the gods from his house. Then Laban went into Rachel's tent. <sup>34</sup>Rachel had hidden the gods inside her camel's saddle, and she was sitting on them. Laban looked through the whole tent, but he did not find the gods.

<sup>35</sup>And Rachel said to her father, "Father, don't be angry with me. I am not able to stand up before you. I am having my monthly time of bleeding." So Laban looked through the camp, but he did not find the gods from his house.

<sup>36</sup>Then Jacob became very angry. Jacob said, "What wrong have I done? What law have I broken? Why do you have the right to chase me and stop me?" <sup>37</sup>You have looked through everything I own. You have found nothing that belongs to you. If you have found anything, then show it to me. Put it here where our men can see it. Let our men decide which one of us is right. <sup>38</sup>I have worked 20 years for you. During all that time, none of the baby sheep and goats died during birth. And I have not eaten any of the rams* from your flocks. <sup>39</sup>Any time a sheep was killed by wild animals, I always paid for that myself. I did not take the dead animal to you and say that it was not my fault. But I was robbed day and night. <sup>40</sup>In the daytime, the sun took away my strength, and at night sleep was taken from my eyes by the cold. <sup>41</sup>I worked 20 years like a slave for you. For the first 14 years I worked to win your two daughters. The last six years I worked to earn your animals. And during that time you changed my pay ten times. <sup>42</sup>But the God of my fathers, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac,* was with me. If God had not been with me, then you would have sent me away with nothing. But God saw the trouble that I had. God saw the work that I did. And last night God proved that I am right."

Jacob and Laban's Treaty

<sup>43</sup>Laban said to Jacob, "These girls are my daughters. Their children belong to me. And these animals are mine. Everything you see here belongs to me. But I can do nothing to keep my daughters and their children. <sup>44</sup>So I am ready to make an agreement with you. We will set up a pile of stones to show that we have an agreement."

<sup>45</sup>So Jacob found a large rock and put it there to show that he had made an agreement. <sup>46</sup>He told his men to find some more rocks and make a pile of rocks. Then they ate beside the pile of rocks. <sup>47</sup>Laban named that place Jegar Sahadutha.* But Jacob named that place Galeed.*

<sup>48</sup>Laban said to Jacob, "This pile of rocks will help us both remember our agreement." That is why Jacob called the place Galeed.

<sup>49</sup>Then Laban said, "Let the Lord watch over us while we are separated from each other." So that place was also named Mizpah.*

<sup>50</sup>Then Laban said, "If you hurt my daughters, remember that God will punish you. If you marry other women, remember that God is watching. <sup>51</sup>Here are the rocks that I have put between us. And here is the special rock to show that we made an agreement. <sup>52</sup>This pile of rocks and this one special rock both help us remember our agreement. I will never go past these rocks to fight against you. And you must never go on my side of these rocks to fight against me. <sup>53</sup>May the God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, and the God of their fathers judge us guilty if we break this agreement."

Jacob's father, Isaac, called God "Fear." So Jacob used that name to make the promise. <sup>54</sup>Then Jacob killed an animal and offered it as a sacrifice* on the mountain. And he invited his men to come and share a meal. After they finished eating, they spent the night on the mountain. <sup>55</sup>Early the next morning, Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters good-bye. He blessed them and went back home.

Jegar Sahadutha Aramaic words meaning "rock pile of the agreement."

Galeed Another name for Gilead. This Hebrew name means "rock pile of the agreement."

Mizpah This means "a place to watch from."

rams Male sheep.

Fear of Isaac A name for God.

Reunlon With Esau

32 Jacob also left that place. While he was traveling, he saw God's angels. <sup>1</sup>When Jacob saw them he said, "This is God's camp!" So Jacob named that place Mahanaim.*

<sup>2</sup>Jacob's brother Esau was living in the area called Seir. This area was the hill-country of Edom.* Jacob sent messengers to Esau. <sup>3</sup>Jacob told the messengers, "Tell these things to my master Esau: 'Your servant Jacob says, I have lived with Laban all these years. <sup>4</sup>I have many cows, donkeys, flocks, and men and women servants. Sir, I am sending you this message to ask you to accept us.'"

<sup>5</sup>The messengers came back to Jacob and said, "We went to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you. He has 400 men with him."

<sup>6</sup>That message scared Jacob. He divided the people that were with him into two groups. He divided all the flocks and the herds and the camels into two groups. <sup>7</sup>Jacob thought, "If Esau comes and destroys one group, then the other group can run away and be saved."

<sup>8</sup>Jacob said, "God of my father Abraham! God of my father Isaac! Lord, you told me to come back to my country and to my family. You said that you would do good to me. <sup>9</sup>You have been very kind to me. You did many good things for me. The first time I traveled across the Jordan River, I owned nothing—only my walking stick. But now I own enough things to have two full groups. <sup>10</sup>I ask you to please save me from my brother. Save me from Esau. I am afraid of him. I am afraid that he will come and kill all of us, even the mothers with the children. <sup>11</sup>Lord, you said to me, 'I will be good to you. I will increase your family and make your children as many as the sands of the sea. There will be too many to count.'"

and 10 bulls, 20 female donkeys and 10 male donkeys. <sup>15</sup>Jacob gave each flock of animals to his servants. Then Jacob said to the servants, "Separate each group of animals. Go ahead of me and keep some space between each herd." <sup>16</sup>Jacob gave them their orders. To the servant with the first group of animals Jacob said, "When Esau my brother comes to you and asks you, 'Whose animals are these? Where are you going? Whose servant are you?' <sup>17</sup>Then you should answer, 'These animals belong to your servant Jacob. Jacob sent them as a gift to you my master, Esau. And Jacob is also coming behind us.'"

<sup>18</sup>Jacob also ordered the second servant, the third servant, and all the other servants to do the same thing. He said, "You will do the same thing to Esau when you meet him. <sup>19</sup>You will say, 'This is a gift to you, and your servant Jacob is behind us.'"

Jacob thought, "If I send these men ahead with gifts, then maybe Esau will forgive me and accept me." <sup>20</sup>So Jacob sent the gifts to Esau. But Jacob stayed that night in the camp.

The Fight With God

<sup>23</sup>Jacob was the last person to cross the river. But before he could cross, while he was still alone, a man came and wrestled with him. The man fought with him until the sun came up. <sup>24</sup>The man saw that he could not defeat Jacob. So he touched Jacob's leg. At that time, Jacob's leg was put out of joint.

But Jacob said, "I will not let you go. You must bless me."

<sup>26</sup>And the man said to him, "What is your name?"

And Jacob said, "My name is Jacob."

<sup>27</sup>Then the man said, "Your name will not be

Mahanaim This name means "two camps."

Edom A country east of Judah.

Jacob. Your name will now be Israel.* I give you this name because you have fought with God and with men, and you have not been defeated.”

But the man said, “Why must you ask my name?” At that time, the man blessed Jacob.

<sup>3</sup>So Jacob named that place Peniel.* Jacob said, “At this place I have seen God face to face. But my life was saved.” <sup>3</sup>Then the sun rose as he passed Peniel.* Jacob was walking crippled because of his leg. <sup>3</sup>So even today, the people of Israel don’t eat the muscle that is on the hip joint, because this is the muscle where Jacob was hurt.

Jacob Shows His Bravery

33 Jacob looked and saw Esau coming. Esau was coming and 400 men were with him. Jacob divided his family into four groups. Leah and her children were in one group, Rachel and Joseph were in one group, and the two maids and their children were in two groups. <sup>2</sup>Jacob put the maids with their children first. Then Jacob put Leah and her children behind them. And Jacob put Rachel and Joseph in the last place.

<sup>3</sup>Jacob himself went out toward Esau. So he was the first person Esau came to. Jacob bowed on the ground seven times while he was walking toward his brother.

<sup>4</sup>When Esau saw Jacob, he ran to meet him. Esau put his arms around Jacob and hugged him. Then Esau kissed him on his neck, and they both cried. <sup>5</sup>Esau looked and saw the women and children. He said, “Who are these people with you?”

Jacob answered, “These are the children that God gave me. God has been good to me.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the two maids and the children with them went to Esau. They bowed down before him. <sup>7</sup>Then Leah and the children with her went to Esau and bowed down. And then, Rachel and Joseph went to Esau and bowed down.

<sup>8</sup>Esau said, “Who were all those people I saw while I was coming here? And what were all those animals for?”

Jacob answered, “Those are my gifts to you so that you might accept me.”

<sup>9</sup>But Esau said, “You don’t have to give me gifts, brother. I have enough for myself.”

<sup>10</sup>Jacob said, “No! I beg you! If you truly accept me, then please accept the gifts I give you. I am very happy to see your face again. It is like seeing the face of God. I am very happy to see that you accept me. <sup>11</sup>So I beg that you also accept the gifts I give you. God has been very good to me. I have more than I need.” In this way Jacob begged Esau to take the gifts. So Esau accepted the gifts.

<sup>13</sup>But Jacob said to him, “You know that my children are weak. And I must be careful with my flocks and their young animals. If I force them to walk too far in one day, all the animals will die. <sup>14</sup>So you go on ahead. I will follow you slowly. I will go slow enough for the cattle and other animals to be safe. And I will go slow enough so that my children will not become too tired. I will meet you in Seir.”

But Jacob said, “That is very kind of you. But there is no need to do that.” <sup>16</sup>So that day Esau started on his trip back to Seir. <sup>17</sup>But Jacob went to Succoth. In that place he built a house for himself and small barns for his cattle. That is why the place was named Succoth.*

<sup>18</sup>Later, Jacob moved all he owned to the city of Shechem in the land of Canaan. Jacob made his camp in a field near the city. <sup>19</sup>Jacob bought that field from the family of Hamor, father of Shechem. Jacob paid 100 pieces of silver. <sup>20</sup>Jacob built an altar there to worship God. Jacob named the place “El, the God of Israel.”

Israel This name might mean “he fights for God,” “he fights with God,” or “God fights.”

Peniel, Penuel Two forms of the same name which means “the face of God.”

Succoth A town east of the Jordan River. This name means “temporary shelters.”

The Rape of Dinah

34 Dinah was the daughter of Leah and Jacob. One day, Dinah went out to see the women of that land. <sup>2</sup>Shechem, the son of Hamor the king of that land, saw Dinah. He captured her and forced her to have sexual relations with him. <sup>3</sup>Shechem fell in love with Dinah and wanted to marry her. <sup>4</sup>Shechem told his father, "Please get this girl for me so that I can marry her."

<sup>5</sup>Jacob learned that the boy had done this very bad thing to his daughter. But all Jacob's sons were out in the field with the cattle. So Jacob did nothing until they came home. <sup>6</sup>At that time, Shechem's father, Hamor, went to talk with Jacob.

<sup>7</sup>In the fields, Jacob's sons heard the news about what happened. They were very angry when they heard this. They were mad because Shechem had brought shame to Israel by sleeping with Jacob's daughter. Shechem had done a very bad thing. So the brothers came in from the fields.

<sup>8</sup>But Hamor talked to the brothers. He said, "My son Shechem wants Dinah very much. Please let him marry her. <sup>9</sup>This marriage will show we have a special agreement. Then our men can marry your women, and your men can marry our women. <sup>10</sup>You can live in the same land with us. You will be free to own the land and to trade here."

<sup>11</sup>Shechem also talked to Jacob and the brothers. Shechem said, "Please accept me. I will do anything you ask me to do. <sup>12</sup>I will give you any gift* you want if you only allow me to marry Dinah. I will give you anything you ask, but let me marry Dinah."

<sup>13</sup>Jacob's sons decided to lie to Shechem and his father. The brothers were still mad because Shechem had done such a bad thing to their sister Dinah. <sup>14</sup>So the brothers said to him, "We cannot allow you to marry our sister because you are not yet circumcised.* It would be wrong for our sister to marry you. <sup>15</sup>But we will allow you to marry her if you do this one thing: Every man in your town must become circumcised like us. <sup>16</sup>Then your men can marry our women, and our men can marry your women. Then we will become one people. <sup>17</sup>If you refuse to be circumcised, then we will take Dinah away."

Revenge

Shechem was the most honored man in his family. <sup>20</sup>Hamor and Shechem went to the meeting place of their city. They spoke to the men of the city and said, <sup>21</sup>"These people of Israel want to be friends with us. We want to let them live in our land and be at peace with us. We have enough land for all of us. We are free to marry their women. And we are happy to give them our women for marriage. <sup>22</sup>But there is one thing that all our men must agree to do. All our men must agree to become circumcised* the same as the people of Israel. <sup>23</sup>If we do this, then we will become rich from all their cattle and animals. So we should make this agreement with them, and they will stay here with us." <sup>24</sup>All the men who heard this in the meeting place agreed with Hamor and Shechem. And every man was circumcised at that time.

<sup>25</sup>Three days later, the men who were circumcised were still sore. Two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, knew that the men would be weak at this time. So they went to the city and killed all the men there. <sup>26</sup>Dinah's brothers, Simeon and Levi, killed Hamor and his son Shechem. Then they took Dinah out of Shechem's house and left. <sup>27</sup>Jacob's sons went to the city and stole everything that was there. They were still angry because of what Shechem did to their sister. <sup>28</sup>So the brothers took all their animals. They took all their donkeys and everything else in the city and in the fields. <sup>29</sup>The brothers took everything those people owned. The brothers even took the wives and children.

circumcise(d) Cutting the foreskin from a man. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God's laws and teachings.

<sup>30</sup>But Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, “You have given me much trouble. All the people in this land will hate me. All the Canaanite people and the Perizzite people will turn against me. There are only a few of us. If the people in this land gather together to fight against us, then I will be destroyed. And all our people will be destroyed with me.”

<sup>31</sup>But the brothers said, “Should we let those people treat our sister like a prostitute? No! Those people were wrong to do that to our sister!”

Jacob in Bethel

35 God said to Jacob, “Go to the town of Bethel.* Live there and make an altar* for worship. Remember El,* the God who appeared* to you there when you were running away from your brother Esau. Make your altar to worship that God there.”

<sup>2</sup>So Jacob said to his family and to all his servants, “Destroy all those foreign gods made of wood and metal that you have. Make yourselves pure. Put on clean clothes. <sup>3</sup>We will leave here and go to Bethel. In that place, I will build an altar to the God who helped me during my time of trouble. And that God has been with me everywhere I went.”

<sup>4</sup>So the people gave Jacob all the foreign gods that they had. And they gave Jacob all the rings they were wearing in their ears. Jacob buried all these things under an oak tree near the town called Shechem.

<sup>5</sup>Jacob and his sons left that place. The people in that area wanted to follow and kill them. But they became very afraid and did not follow Jacob. <sup>6</sup>So Jacob and his people went to Luz. Luz is now called Bethel.* It is in the land of Canaan. <sup>7</sup>Jacob built an altar* there. Jacob named the place “El Bethel.” Jacob chose this name because that is the place God first appeared to him when he was running from his brother.

<sup>8</sup>Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died there. They buried her under the oak tree at Bethel. They named that place Allon Bacuth.*

Jacob’s New Name

<sup>9</sup>When Jacob came back from Paddan Aram, God appeared to him again. And God blessed Jacob. <sup>10</sup>God said to Jacob, “Your name is Jacob. But I will change that name. You will not be called Jacob now. Your new name will be Israel.*” So God named him Israel.

<sup>11</sup>God said to him, “I am God All-Powerful. And I give you this blessing: Have many children and grow into a great nation. Other nations and other kings will come out of you. <sup>12</sup>I gave Abraham and Isaac some special land. Now I give that land to you. And I also give that land to all your people who live after you.” <sup>13</sup>Then God left that place. <sup>14,15</sup>Jacob set up a memorial stone* in this place. Jacob made the rock holy by pouring wine and oil on it. This was a special place because God spoke to Jacob there. And Jacob named the place Bethel.*

Rachel Dies Giving Birth

Allon Bacuth This name means “the oak tree of sadness.”

Israel This name might mean “he fights for God” or “he fights with God.”

memorial stone A stone that was set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.

Benoni This name means “son of my suffering.”

Benjamin This name means “right-hand son” or “favorite son.”

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.

El A Hebrew name for God.

God who appeared God often used special shapes so people could see him. Sometimes he was like a man, an angel, a fire, or a bright light.

<sup>22</sup>Israel stayed there for a short time. While he was there, Reuben slept with Israel's woman servant* Bilhah. Israel heard about this and was very angry.

The Family of Israel

Jacob (Israel) had twelve sons.

- <sup>23</sup> Leah's sons were:
Jacob's firstborn son Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.
- <sup>24</sup> Rachel's sons were:
Joseph and Benjamin.
- <sup>25</sup> Bilhah was Rachel's maid. Bilhah's sons were:
Dan and Naphtali.
- <sup>26</sup> Zilpah was Leah's maid. Zilpah's sons were:
Gad and Asher.

Those are Jacob's (Israel's) sons who were born in Paddan Aram.

<sup>27</sup>Jacob went to his father Isaac at Mamre in Kiriath Arba (Hebron). This is where Abraham and Isaac had lived. <sup>28</sup>Isaac lived 180 years. <sup>29</sup>Then Isaac became weak and died. Isaac lived a long and full life. His sons Esau and Jacob buried him in the same place as his father.

Esau's Family

36 The family history of Esau (Edom). <sup>2</sup>Esau married women from the land of Canaan. Esau's wives were: Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite, Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the son of Zibeon the Hivite, and <sup>3</sup>Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, the sister of Nebaioth. <sup>4</sup>Esau and Adah had a son named Eliphaz. Basemath had a son named Reuel. <sup>5</sup>And Oholibamah had three sons: Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. Those were Esau's sons that were born in the land of Canaan.

<sup>6-8</sup>Jacob and Esau's families became too big for the land in Canaan to support them all. So Esau moved away from his brother Jacob. Esau took his wives, sons, daughters, all his slaves, cows and other animals, and everything else that he got in Canaan and moved to the hill country of Seir.* (Esau is also named Edom—and this is another name for the country Seir.)

<sup>9</sup>Esau is the father of the people of Edom.* These are the names of Esau's family living in the hill country of Seir (Edom):

- <sup>10</sup> Esau's sons were:
Eliphaz, the son of Adah and Esau and Reuel, the son of Basemath and Esau.
- <sup>11</sup> Eliphaz had five sons:
Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.
- <sup>12</sup> Eliphaz also had a woman servant*
named Timna.
Timna and Eliphaz had a son named Amalek.
- <sup>13</sup> Reuel had four sons:
Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

Those were Esau's grandsons from his wife Basemath.

<sup>14</sup>Esau's third wife was Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah. (Anah was the son of Zibeon.) Esau and Oholibamah's children were: Jeush, Jalam, Korah.

- <sup>15</sup> These are the family groups* that came from Esau:

Esau's first son was Eliphaz.
From Eliphaz came:

Seir A mountain range in Edom.

Edom A country east of Judah.

family groups Or, "family leaders." These families include large tribes and nations.

Eder tower Or, "Migdal Eder."

woman servant Or, "concubine," a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, <sup>16</sup>Korah, Gatam, and Amalek.

All those family groups* came from Esau's wife Adah.

- <sup>17</sup> Esau's son Reuel was the father of these families:
Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

All those families came from Esau's wife Basemath.

- <sup>22</sup> Lotan was the father of:
Hori and Heman.
(Timna was Lotan's sister.)
- <sup>23</sup> Shobal was the father of:
Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.
- <sup>24</sup> Zibeon had two sons:
Aiah and Anah.
(Anah is the man who found the hot spring in the mountains while he was caring for his father's donkeys.)
- <sup>25</sup> Anah was the father of:
Dishon and Oholibamah.
- <sup>26</sup> Dishon had four sons:
Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran.
- <sup>27</sup> Ezer had three sons:
Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.
- <sup>28</sup> Dishan had two sons:
Uz and Aran.

<sup>29</sup>These are the names of the leaders of the Horite families: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, family groups Or, "family leaders." These families became large tribes and nations.

Edom A country east of Judah.

<sup>30</sup>Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. Those men were the leaders of the families that lived in the land of Seir (Edom.*). <sup>31</sup>At that time, there were kings in Edom. Edom had kings a long time before Israel did.

<sup>32</sup>Bela son of Beor was a king who ruled in Edom.* He ruled over the city of Dinhabah. <sup>33</sup>When Bela died, Jobab became king. Jobab was the son of Zerah from Bozrah. <sup>34</sup>When Jobab died, Husham ruled. Husham was from the land of the Temanite people. <sup>35</sup>When Husham died, Hadad ruled that area. Hadad was the son of Bedad. (Hadad was the man who defeated Midian in the country of Moab.) Hadad was from the city of Avith. <sup>36</sup>When Hadad died, Samlah ruled that land. Samlah was from Masrekah. <sup>37</sup>When Samlah died, Shaul ruled that area. Shaul was from Rehoboth on the Euphrates River. <sup>38</sup>When Shaul died, Baal Hanan ruled that country. Baal Hanan was the son of Acbor. <sup>39</sup>When Baal Hanan died, Hadad* ruled that country. Hadad was from the city of Pau. Hadad's wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred. (Mezahab was Matred's father.)

<sup>40</sup>Esau was the father of the Edomite families: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, Magdiel, and Iram. Each of these families lived in an area that was called by the same name as their family.

Joseph the Dreamer

37 Jacob stayed and lived in the land of Canaan. This is the same land where his father had lived. <sup>2</sup>This is the story of Jacob's family.

Joseph was a young man, 17 years old. His job was to care for the sheep and the goats. Joseph did this work with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah. (Bilhah and Zilpah were his father's wives.) Joseph told his father about the bad things that his brothers did. <sup>3</sup>Joseph was born at a time when his father Israel (Jacob) was very old. So Israel (Jacob) loved Joseph more than he loved his other sons. Jacob gave his son a special coat. This coat was long and was very beautiful. 'Joseph's brothers saw that their father loved Joseph more than he loved them. They hated their brother because of this. They refused to say nice things to Joseph.

<sup>5</sup>One time Joseph had a special dream. Later, Joseph told his brothers about this dream. After this, his brothers hated him even more.

<sup>6</sup>Joseph said, "I had a dream. <sup>7</sup>We were all working in the field. We were tying sheaves* of wheat together. My sheaf stood, and all of your sheaves made a circle around my sheaf. Then all of your sheaves bowed down to mine."

<sup>8</sup>His brothers said, "Do you think this means you will be a king and rule over us?" His brothers hated Joseph more now because of the dreams he had about them.

<sup>9</sup>Then Joseph had another dream. Joseph told his brothers about this dream. Joseph said, "I had another dream. I saw the sun, the moon, and eleven stars bowing down to me."

<sup>10</sup>Joseph also told his father about this dream. But his father criticized him. His father said, "What kind of dream is this? Do you believe that your mother, your brothers, and I will bow down to you?" <sup>11</sup>Joseph's brothers continued to be jealous of him. But Joseph's father thought much about all these things and wondered what they could mean.

<sup>12</sup>One day, Joseph's brothers went to Shechem to care for their father's sheep. <sup>13</sup>Jacob said to Joseph, "Go to Shechem. Your brothers are there with my sheep."

Joseph answered, "I will go."

<sup>14</sup>Joseph's father said, "Go and see if your brothers are safe. Come back and tell me if my sheep are all fine." So Joseph's father sent him from the Valley of Hebron to Shechem.

<sup>16</sup>Joseph answered, "I am looking for my brothers. Can you tell me where they are with their sheep?"

<sup>17</sup>The man said, "They have already gone away. I heard them say that they were going to Dothan." So Joseph followed his brothers and found them in Dothan.

Joseph Sold into Slavery

<sup>18</sup>Joseph's brothers saw him coming from far away. They decided to make a plan to kill him. <sup>19</sup>The brothers said to each other, "Here comes Joseph, the one who dreams. <sup>20</sup>We should kill him now while we can. We can throw his body into one of the empty wells. We can tell our father that a wild animal killed him. Then we will show him that his dreams are useless."

<sup>25</sup>While Joseph was in the well, the brothers sat down to eat. Then they looked and saw a group of traders* traveling from Gilead to Egypt. Their camels were carrying many different spices and riches. <sup>26</sup>So Judah said to his brothers, "What profit will we get if we kill our brother and hide his death? <sup>27</sup>We will profit more if we sell him to these traders. Then we will not be guilty of killing our own brother." The other brothers agreed. <sup>28</sup>When the Midianite traders came by, the brothers took Joseph out of the well. They sold him to the traders for 20 pieces of silver. The traders took him to Egypt.

<sup>29</sup>During all this time, Reuben was not there with the brothers. He did not know they had sold Joseph. When Reuben came back to the well, he saw that Joseph was not there. Reuben tore his clothes to show his sadness. <sup>30</sup>Reuben went to the brothers and said, "The boy is not in the well! What will I do?" <sup>31</sup>The brothers killed a goat and put the goat's blood on Joseph's beautiful coat. <sup>32</sup>Then the brothers

showed the coat to their father. And the brothers said, "We found this coat. Is this Joseph's coat?"

<sup>33</sup>The father saw the coat and knew that it was Joseph's. The father said, "Yes, that is his! Maybe some wild animal has killed him. My son Joseph has been eaten by a wild animal!"

<sup>34</sup>Jacob was so sorry about his son that he tore his clothes. Then Jacob put on special clothes to show that he was sad. Jacob continued to be sad about his son for a long time. <sup>35</sup>All of Jacob's sons and daughters tried to comfort him. But Jacob was never comforted. Jacob said, "I will be sorry for my son until the day I die."* So Jacob continued to be sad for his son Joseph.

Judah and Tamar

38 About that time, Judah left his brothers and went to stay with a man named Hirah. Hirah was from the town of Adullam. <sup>2</sup>Judah met a Canaanite girl there and married her. The girl's father was named Shua. <sup>3</sup>The Canaanite girl gave birth to a son. They named him Er. <sup>4</sup>Later, she gave birth to another son. They named the son Onan. <sup>5</sup>Later she had another son named Shelah. Judah lived in Kezib when his third son was born.

the Lord angry. So the Lord killed Onan also. <sup>11</sup>Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Go back to your father's house. Stay there and don't marry until my young son Shelah grows up." Judah was afraid that Shelah would also be killed like his brothers. Tamar went back to her father's home.

<sup>12</sup>Later, Judah's wife, the daughter of Shua, died. After Judah's time of sadness, he went to Timnah with his friend Hirah from Adullam. Judah went to Timnah to have the wool cut from his sheep. <sup>13</sup>Tamar learned that Judah, her father-in-law, was going to Timnah to cut the wool from his sheep. <sup>14</sup>Tamar always wore clothes that showed that she was a widow. So she put on some different clothes and covered her face with a veil. Then she sat down near the road going to Enaim, a town near Timnah. Tamar knew that Judah's younger son Shelah was now grown up. But Judah would not make plans for her to marry him.

<sup>15</sup>Judah traveled on that road. He saw her but thought that she was a prostitute.* (Her face was covered with a veil like a prostitute.) <sup>16</sup>So Judah went to her and said, "Let me have sexual relations with you" (Judah did not know that she was Tamar, his daughter-in-law.)

She said, "How much will you give me?"

<sup>17</sup>Judah answered, "I will send you a young goat from my flock."

She answered, "I agree to that. But first you must give me something to keep until you send me the goat."

<sup>18</sup>Judah asked, "What do you want me to give you as proof that I will send you the goat?"

Tamar answered, "Give me your seal and its string* that you use on your letters. And give me your walking stick." Judah gave these things to her. Then Judah and Tamar had sexual relations, and Tamar became pregnant. <sup>19</sup>Tamar went home and took off the veil that covered her face. Then she again wore the special clothes that showed she was a widow.

I will be sorry ... die Literally, "I will go down to my son in Sheol (the place of death) in sadness."

Go and sleep ... wife In Israel if a man died without children, one of his brothers would take the widow. If a child was born, it would be considered the dead man's child.

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sins.

seal ... string People wrote a contract, folded it, tied it with string, put wax or clay on the string, and pressed the seal onto it as a signature.

The men answered, "There has never been a prostitute here."

<sup>22</sup>So Judah's friend went back to Judah and said, "I could not find the woman. The men that lived in that place said that there was never a prostitute there."

<sup>23</sup>So Judah said, "Let her keep the things. I don't want people to laugh at us. I tried to give her the goat, but we could not find her. That is enough."

Tamar Is Pregnant

<sup>4</sup>About three months later, someone told Judah, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar sinned like a prostitute,* and now she is pregnant."

Then Judah said, "Take her out and burn her."

<sup>5</sup>The men went to Tamar to kill her. But she sent a message to her father-in-law. Tamar said, "The man who made me pregnant is the man who owns these things. Look at these things. Whose are they? Whose special seal and string* is this? Whose walking stick is this?"

<sup>6</sup>Judah recognized those things and said, "She is right. I was wrong. I did not give her my son Shelah like I promised." And Judah did not sleep with her again.

<sup>7</sup>The time came for Tamar to give birth. They saw she was going to have twins. <sup>28</sup>While she was giving birth, one baby put his hand out. The nurse tied a red string on the hand and said, "This baby was born first." <sup>29</sup>But that baby pulled his hand back in. Then the other baby was born first. So the nurse said, "So you were able to break out first!" So they named him Perez.* <sup>30</sup>After this, the other baby was born. This was the baby with the red string on his hand. They named him Zerah*

Joseph Is Sold to Potiphar In Egypt

39 The traders* who bought Joseph took him down to Egypt. They sold him to the captain of Pharaoh's guard, Potiphar. <sup>2</sup>But the Lord helped Joseph. Joseph became a successful man. Joseph lived in the house of his master, Potiphar the Egyptian.

<sup>3</sup>Potiphar saw that the Lord was with Joseph. Potiphar saw that the Lord helped Joseph be successful in everything he did. <sup>4</sup>So Potiphar was very happy for Joseph. Potiphar allowed Joseph to work for him and help him to rule the house. Joseph was the ruler over everything Potiphar owned. <sup>5</sup>After Joseph was made the ruler over the house, the Lord blessed the house and everything that Potiphar owned. The Lord did this because of Joseph. And the Lord blessed everything that grew in the fields of Potiphar. <sup>6</sup>So Potiphar allowed Joseph to take responsibility for everything in the house. Potiphar worried about nothing, only the food he ate.

Joseph Refuses Potiphar's Wife

Joseph was a very handsome, good-looking man. <sup>2</sup>After some time, the wife of Joseph's master began to like Joseph. One day she said to him, "Sleep with me."

<sup>3</sup>But Joseph refused. He said, "My master trusts me with everything in his house. He has given me responsibility for everything here. <sup>4</sup>My master has made me almost equal to him in his house. I must not sleep with his wife! That is wrong! It is a sin against God."

prostitute A woman that sells her body for sex. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

seal and string People wrote a contract, folded it, tied it with a string, put wax or clay on the string, and pressed the seal onto it as a signature.

Perez This name is like the Hebrew word meaning, "to break out."

Zerah This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "bright."
traders Literally, "Ishmaelites."

<sup>13</sup>The woman saw Joseph had left his coat in her hands and had run out of the house. So she decided to lie about what had happened. <sup>14</sup>And she called to the men outside. She said, "Look! This Hebrew slave was brought here to make fun of us. He came in and tried to sleep with me. But I cried out with a loud voice. <sup>15</sup>My cry scared him and he ran away. But he left his coat with me." <sup>16</sup>Then she kept his coat until her husband, Joseph's master, came home. <sup>17</sup>And she told her husband the same story. She said, "This Hebrew slave you brought here tried to attack me! <sup>18</sup>But when he came near me I cried out. He ran away, but he left his coat."

Joseph Put in Prison

<sup>19</sup>Joseph's master heard what his wife said. And he became very angry. <sup>20</sup>There was a prison where the king's enemies were put. So Potiphar put Joseph into that prison. And Joseph stayed there.

<sup>21</sup>But the Lord was with Joseph. The Lord continued to show his kindness to Joseph. After some time, the leader of the prison guards began to like Joseph. <sup>22</sup>The leader of the guards put Joseph in charge of all the prisoners. Joseph was their leader, but he still did the same work they did. <sup>23</sup>The ruler of the guards trusted Joseph with everything that was in the prison. This happened because the Lord was with Joseph. The Lord helped Joseph be successful in everything he did.

Joseph Interprets Two Dreams

40 Later, two of Pharaoh's servants did something wrong to Pharaoh. These servants were the baker and the man who served wine to Pharaoh. <sup>2</sup>Pharaoh became angry with his baker and wine server. <sup>3</sup>So Pharaoh put them in the same prison as Joseph. Potiphar, the commander of Pharaoh's guards, was in charge of this prison. "The commander put the two prisoners under Joseph's care. The two men continued to stay in prison for some time. <sup>4</sup>One night, both of the prisoners had a dream. (The two prisoners were the servants of the king of Egypt—the baker and the wine server.) Each prisoner had his own dream. And each dream had its own meaning. <sup>5</sup>Joseph went to them the next morning. Joseph saw that the two men were worried. <sup>7</sup>Joseph asked them, "Why do you look so worried today?"

<sup>8</sup>The two men answered, "We dreamed last night, but we don't understand what we dreamed. There is no one to interpret or explain the dreams to us."

Joseph said to them, "God is the One who can understand and interpret dreams. So I beg you, tell me your dreams."

The Wine Server's Dream

<sup>9</sup>So the wine server told Joseph his dream. The server said, "I dreamed I saw a vine. <sup>10</sup>On the vine there were three branches. I watched the branches grow flowers and then become grapes. <sup>11</sup>I was holding Pharaoh's cup. So I took the grapes and squeezed the juice into the cup. Then I gave the cup to Pharaoh."

<sup>12</sup>Then Joseph said, "I will explain the dream to you. The three branches mean three days. <sup>13</sup>Before the end of three days, Pharaoh will forgive you and allow you to go back to your work. You will do the same work for Pharaoh as you did before. <sup>14</sup>But when you are free, remember me. Be good to me and help me. Tell Pharaoh about me so that I can get out of this prison. <sup>15</sup>I was taken from my own home, the land of my people, the Hebrews. I have done nothing wrong. So I should not be in prison."

The Baker's Dream

<sup>16</sup>The baker saw that the other servant's dream was good. So the baker said to Joseph, "I also had a dream. I dreamed there were three bread baskets on my head. <sup>17</sup>In the top basket there were all kinds of baked food. This food was for the king. But birds were eating this food."

<sup>11</sup>Joseph answered, "I will tell you what the dream means. The three baskets mean three days. <sup>12</sup>Before the end of three days, the king will take you out of this prison. Then the king will cut your head off! He will hang your body on a pole. And birds will eat your body."

Joseph Is Forgotten

Pharaoh's Dreams

41 Two years later, Pharaoh had a dream. Pharaoh dreamed he was standing beside the Nile River. <sup>2</sup>Then Pharaoh saw seven cows come out of the river. The cows were fat and beautiful. The cows stood there and ate the grass. <sup>3</sup>Then seven more cows came out of the river, but these cows were thin and ugly. These seven cows stood beside the seven beautiful cows. <sup>4</sup>The seven ugly cows ate the seven beautiful fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up. <sup>5</sup>Pharaoh slept again and dreamed a second time. He dreamed he saw seven heads of grain growing on one plant. The heads of grain were fat and good. <sup>6</sup>Then he saw seven more heads of grain grow on that same plant. But these heads of grain were thin and ruined by the hot wind. <sup>7</sup>Then the thin heads of grain ate the seven fat and good heads of grain. Pharaoh woke up again. And he realized it was only a dream. <sup>8</sup>The next morning Pharaoh was worried about these dreams. So he sent for all the men of Egypt who do magic. And he sent for all the wise men. Pharaoh told them the dreams. But none of the men could explain or interpret the dreams.

The Servant Tells Pharaoh About Joseph

<sup>9</sup>Then the wine servant remembered Joseph. The servant said to Pharaoh, "I remember something that happened to me. <sup>10</sup>You were angry with me and the baker. And you put us in prison. <sup>11</sup>In prison we both had a dream on the same night. Each dream had a different meaning. <sup>12</sup>A young Hebrew man was in the prison with us. He was a servant of the commander of the guards. We told him our dreams, and he explained the dreams to us. He gave us the meaning of each dream. <sup>13</sup>And the meanings he told were true. He said I would be free and have my old job back. And that was true. And he said the baker would die, and that was true."

Joseph Is Called to Interpret the Dreams

<sup>14</sup>So Pharaoh called Joseph from the prison. The guards brought Joseph quickly out of the prison. Joseph shaved and put on clean clothes. Then he went and stood before Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have had a dream. But there is no one who can explain the dream to me. I heard that you can interpret and explain dreams when someone tells you about them."

<sup>16</sup>Joseph answered, "It is not my skill that is able to understand dreams. God is the One who has that power. And God will do this for Pharaoh."

<sup>17</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "In my dream, I was standing beside the Nile River. <sup>18</sup>I saw seven cows come up out of the river and eat the grass. These cows were fat and beautiful.

<sup>19</sup>"Then I saw seven more cows come out of the river. These cows were thin and ugly. They were the worst cows I have seen in all the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>And these ugly and thin cows ate the first seven beautiful cows. <sup>21</sup>But after they ate seven cows, they were still thin and ugly. You could look at them and could not see that they had eaten seven other cows. They looked as thin and ugly as they did in the beginning. Then I woke up.

<sup>22</sup>“Then, in my [next] dream, I saw seven heads of grain growing on one grain plant. Those heads of grain were full and good and beautiful. <sup>23</sup>Then seven more heads of grain grew after them. But those heads of grain were thin and ugly and ruined by the hot wind. <sup>24</sup>Then the thin heads of grain ate the seven good heads. I told these dreams to my men who do magic and to my wise men. But no one can explain the dreams to me. What do they mean?”

Joseph Tells the Dreams' Meaning

<sup>25</sup>Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, “Both of these dreams mean the same thing. God is telling you what will soon happen. <sup>26</sup>The seven good cows are seven years. And the seven good heads of grain are seven years. Both dreams are the same thing. <sup>27</sup>The seven thin and ugly cows and the seven bad heads of grain mean seven years of hunger in the land. These seven years will come after seven good years.

<sup>28</sup>“God has shown you what will soon happen. This will happen like I told you. <sup>29</sup>You will have seven years of good crops and plenty to eat in all the land of Egypt. <sup>30</sup>But after those seven years, there will come seven years of hunger in all the land. All the food that grew in Egypt will be forgotten. This famine* will destroy the land. <sup>31</sup>People will forget what it is like to have plenty of food.

<sup>32</sup>“Pharaoh, you had two dreams about the same thing. This happened to show that God really will make this happen. And it shows that God will make it happen soon.

<sup>33</sup>“So Pharaoh, you should choose a man that is very smart and wise. You should make that man ruler over the land of Egypt. <sup>34</sup>Then you should choose other men to collect food from the people. Every person should give one-fifth of all the food he grows during the seven good years. <sup>35</sup>Order these men to collect all the food during the good years that are coming. Tell the men they have the authority to store the grain in the cities. Then they should guard the grain until it is needed. <sup>36</sup>That grain will help during the seven years of hunger that will come to the land of Egypt. Then the people in Egypt will not die during the seven years with no food.”

<sup>39</sup>So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “God has shown all these things to you. So you must be the most wise. <sup>40</sup>So I will make you governor over the land. The people will obey all your commands. I will be the only ruler in the land greater than you.”

<sup>41</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I now make you governor over all the land of Egypt.” <sup>42</sup>Then Pharaoh gave Joseph his ring with the royal seal on it. And he gave Joseph a fine linen robe to wear. Pharaoh put a gold chain around Joseph’s neck. <sup>43</sup>Pharaoh told Joseph to ride in the second royal chariot. Special guards walked ahead of his chariot. They told the people, “People, bow down to Joseph.” So Joseph was made governor of all of Egypt. <sup>44</sup>Pharaoh said to him, “I am Pharaoh, the king, so I will do what I want to do. But no other person in Egypt can lift a hand or move a foot unless you say he can.”

<sup>45</sup>Pharaoh gave Joseph another name Zaphenath Paneah.* Pharaoh also gave Joseph a wife named Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, a priest in the city of On. So Joseph became governor over all the land of Egypt.

famine A time when there is no rain and no crops can grow. People and animals often die because there is not enough food or water.

Zaphenath Paneah This Egyptian name probably means “sustainer of life,” but it is like Hebrew words meaning “a person who explains secret things.”

sea. He stored so much grain that it could not be measured.

<sup>30</sup>Joseph's wife was Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, the priest in the city of On. Before the first year of hunger came, Joseph and Asenath had two sons. <sup>31</sup>The first son was named Manasseh.* Joseph named him this because Joseph said, "God made me forget all of the troubles I have had, and everything about my home." <sup>32</sup>Joseph named the second son Ephraim.* Joseph gave him this name because Joseph said, "I had great troubles, but God has made me successful in everything."

The Time of Hunger Begins

<sup>33</sup>For seven years, people had all the food they needed to eat. And everything grew that was needed. <sup>34</sup>But after seven years, the time of hunger began. This happened just like Joseph said. In all the lands everywhere, no food grew. People had nothing to eat. But in Egypt, people had enough to eat because of the grain Joseph had stored. <sup>35</sup>The time of hunger began, and the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Pharaoh said to the Egyptian people, "Ask Joseph. Do what he says to do."

<sup>36</sup>So after the hunger was everywhere in the land, Joseph gave the people grain from the storehouses. Joseph sold the stored grain to the people of Egypt. The famine* was very bad in Egypt. <sup>37</sup>All the people in the lands around Egypt came to Egypt to buy grain. They came to Joseph, because there was hunger everywhere in that part of the world.

The Dreams Come True

42 In Jacob's land, there was hunger during this time. But Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt. So Jacob said to his sons, "Why are we sitting here doing nothing? <sup>2</sup>I have heard that there is grain in Egypt to buy. So we should go there and buy grain for us to eat. Then we will live and not die."

<sup>5</sup>The time of hunger was very bad in Canaan. So many people from Canaan went to Egypt to buy grain. Among those people were the sons of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>At this time, Joseph was the governor over Egypt. Joseph was the one who permitted the sale of grain to people who came to Egypt. Joseph's brothers came to him and bowed before him. <sup>7</sup>Joseph saw his brothers, and he knew who they were. But Joseph talked to them like he did not know them. He spoke mean to them. He said, "Where do you come from?"

The brothers answered, "We come from the land of Canaan. We come to buy food."

<sup>8</sup>Joseph knew that these men were his brothers. But they did not know who he was. <sup>9</sup>And Joseph remembered the dreams that he had dreamed about his brothers.

Joseph Calls His Brothers Spies

Joseph said to his brothers, "You have not come to buy food! You are spies. You came to learn where we are weak."

<sup>10</sup>But the brothers said to him, "No, sir! We come as your servants. We have come only to buy food. <sup>11</sup>We are all brothers—we all have the same father. We are honest men. We have come only to buy food."

<sup>12</sup>Then Joseph said them, "No! You have come to learn where we are weak."

<sup>13</sup>And the brothers said, "No! We are all brothers. There are twelve brothers in our family. We all have the same father. Our youngest brother is still at home with our father. And the other brother died a long time ago. We are like servants before you. We are from the land of Canaan."

Manasseh This name is like the word meaning "to forget."

Ephraim This name is like the Hebrew word "twice fruitful."

full brother Literally, "brother." Joseph and Benjamin had the same mother.

<sup>14</sup>But Joseph said to them, “No! I can see I was right. You are spies. <sup>15</sup>But I will let you prove that you are telling the truth. You will not leave this place until your youngest brother comes here. <sup>16</sup>So one of you should go back and bring your youngest brother here. During that time, the others will stay here in prison. We will see if you are telling the truth. But I believe you are spies.” <sup>17</sup>Then Joseph put them all in prison for three days.

Simeon Kept as a Hostage

<sup>18</sup>After three days, Joseph said to them, “I am a good man. I worship God, the same as you do—I will let you prove you are telling the truth. Do this thing, and I will let you live: <sup>19</sup>If you are honest men, then let one of your brothers stay here in prison. And the others can go and carry grain to your people. <sup>20</sup>Then bring your youngest brother back here to me. In this way, I will know if you are telling the truth.”

The brothers agreed to this. <sup>21</sup>They said to each other, “We are being punished for the bad thing we did to our younger brother Joseph. We saw the trouble he was in. He begged us to save him. But we refused to listen. So now we are in trouble.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Reuben said to them, “I told you not to do anything bad to the boy. But you refused to listen to me. So now we are being punished for his death.”

<sup>23</sup>Joseph was using an interpreter to talk to his brothers. So the brothers did not know that Joseph understood their language. But Joseph heard and understood everything they said. <sup>24</sup>Their words made Joseph very sad. So Joseph left them and cried. After a short time, Joseph went back to them. He took Simeon, one of the brothers, and tied him while the other brothers watched. <sup>25</sup>Joseph told some servants to fill their bags with grain. The brothers paid Joseph money for this grain. But Joseph didn’t keep the money. He put the money in their bags of grain. Then Joseph gave them things they would need for their trip back home.

night. And one of the brothers opened his sack to get some grain. And he saw his money in the sack. <sup>28</sup>He said to the other brothers, “Look! Here is the money I paid for the grain. Someone put the money back in my sack!” The brothers were very scared. They said to one another, “What is God doing to us?”

The Brothers Report to Jacob

<sup>29</sup>The brothers went to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. They told Jacob all the things that happened. <sup>30</sup>They said, “The governor of that land spoke rudely to us. He thought that we were spies. <sup>31</sup>But we told him that we were honest men. We were not spies. <sup>32</sup>We told him that we were twelve brothers. We told him about our father, and we told him our youngest brother was still at home in the land of Canaan.

<sup>33</sup>“Then the governor of the land said this to us, ‘Here is a way to prove that you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers here with me. Take your grain back to your families. <sup>34</sup>Then bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know if you are honest men, or if you were sent from an army to destroy us. If you are telling the truth, I will give your brother back to you. I will give him to you, and you will be free to buy grain in our land.’”

<sup>35</sup>Then the brothers went to take the grain out of their sacks. And every brother found his bag of money in his sack of grain. The brothers and their father saw the money, and they became very scared.

<sup>36</sup>Jacob said to them, “Do you want me to lose all of my children? Joseph is gone. Simeon is gone. And now you want to take Benjamin away too.”

<sup>37</sup>Then Reuben said to his father, “Father, you may kill my two sons if I don’t bring Benjamin back to you. Trust me. I will bring Benjamin back to you.”

<sup>38</sup>But Jacob said, “I will not let Benjamin go with you. His brother is dead, and he is the only son left from my wife Rachel. It would kill me if anything happened to him during the trip to Egypt. You would send me to the grave a very sad, old man.”

Jacob Agrees for Benjamin to go to Egypt

43 The time of hunger was very bad in the land. <sup>1</sup>The people ate all the grain they had brought from Egypt. When the grain was gone, Jacob said to his sons, "Go to Egypt again. Buy some more grain for us to eat."

<sup>2</sup>But Judah said to Jacob, "The governor of that country warned us. He said, 'If you don't bring your brother back to me, then I will refuse to talk to you.' 'If you will send Benjamin with us, then we will go down and buy grain. <sup>3</sup>But if you refuse to send Benjamin, then we will not go. The man warned us to not come back without him."

<sup>5</sup>The brothers answered, "The man questioned us carefully. He wanted to know about us and about our family. He asked us, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother at home?' We only answered his questions. We didn't know he would ask us to bring our other brother to him!"

<sup>6</sup>Then Judah said to his father Israel, "Send Benjamin with me. I will care for him. We must go to Egypt and get food. If we don't go, then we will all die, even our children. <sup>7</sup>I will make sure that he is safe. I will be responsible for him. If I don't bring him back to you, then you can blame me forever. <sup>8</sup>If you had let us go before, we could already have made two trips for food."

<sup>9</sup>Then their father Israel said, "If this is really true, then take Benjamin with you. But take some gifts to the governor. Take some of the things we have been able to gather in our land. Take him some honey, pistachio nuts, almonds, gum, and myrrh.* <sup>10</sup>Take twice as much money with you this time. Take the money that was given back to you after you paid last time. Maybe the governor made a mistake. <sup>11</sup>Take Benjamin, and go back to the man. <sup>12</sup>I pray that God All-Powerful will help you when you stand before the governor. I pray that he will let Benjamin, and also Simeon, come back safely. If not, I will again be sad from losing my son."

<sup>13</sup>So the brothers took the gifts to give to the governor. And the brothers took twice as much money with them as they took the first time. Benjamin went with the brothers to Egypt.

The Brothers Are Invited to Joseph's House

<sup>14</sup>In Egypt, Joseph saw Benjamin with them. Joseph said to his servant, "Bring those men into my house. Kill an animal and cook it. Those men will eat with me today at noon." <sup>15</sup>The servant did as he was told. He brought the men into Joseph's house.

<sup>16</sup>The brothers were scared when they were brought into Joseph's house. They said, "We have been brought here because of the money that was put back in our sacks the last time. They will use that to judge us guilty. Then they will steal our donkeys and make us slaves."

<sup>17</sup>So the brothers went to the servant in charge of Joseph's house. <sup>18</sup>They said, "Sir, I promise this is the truth: The last time we came, we came to buy food. <sup>19</sup>On the way home, we opened our sacks and found our money in every sack. We don't know how that money got there. But we brought that money with us to give it back to you. And we have brought more money to pay for the food that we want to buy this time."

<sup>20</sup>But the servant answered, "Don't be afraid; believe me. Your God, the God of your father, must have put the money in your sack as a gift. I remember that you paid me for the grain last time."

Then the servant brought Simeon out of the prison. <sup>21</sup>The servant led the men into Joseph's house. He gave them water, and they washed their feet. Then he gave their donkeys food to eat.

<sup>22</sup>The brothers heard that they were going to eat with Joseph. So they worked until noon preparing their gifts for him.

<sup>23</sup>Joseph came home, and the brothers gave him the gifts that they had brought with them. Then they bowed down on the ground.

gum and myrrh The sap from certain plants. This was used to make expensive perfumes and incense.

<sup>7</sup>Joseph asked them how they were doing. Joseph said, “Your father, the old man you told me about, is he well? Is he still alive?”

<sup>8</sup>The brothers answered, “Sir, our father is well. He is still alive.” And they again bowed before Joseph.

Joseph Sees His Brother Benjamin

<sup>9</sup>Then Joseph saw his brother, Benjamin. (Benjamin had the same mother as Joseph.) Joseph said, “Is this your youngest brother that you told me about?” Then Joseph said to Benjamin, “God be good to you, son!”

<sup>10</sup>Then Joseph ran from the room. Joseph wanted very much to show his brother Benjamin that he loved him. He felt like crying, but he didn’t want his brothers to see him crying. So Joseph ran to his room and cried there. <sup>11</sup>Then Joseph washed his face and came out. He controlled himself and said, “Now it is time to eat.”

Joseph Sets a Trap

44 Then Joseph gave a command to his servant. Joseph said, “Fill the men’s sacks with as much grain as they can carry. And put each man’s money into the sack with the grain. <sup>2</sup>Put the money in the youngest brother’s sack. But also put my special silver cup in his sack.” The servant obeyed Joseph.

and say to them, ‘We were good to you! So why have you done bad to us? Why did you steal my master’s silver cup?’ <sup>5</sup>This is the cup that my master drinks from. This is the cup he uses to ask God questions. You have done wrong to steal his cup.”

<sup>6</sup>So the servant obeyed. He rode out to the brothers and stopped them. The servant said the things to them that Joseph told him to say.

<sup>7</sup>But the brothers said to the servant, “Why does the governor say these things? We would not do anything like that! <sup>8</sup>We brought back the money that we found in our sacks before. So surely we would not steal silver or gold from your master’s house. <sup>9</sup>If you find that silver cup in any of our sacks, then let that man die. You can kill him, and we will be your slaves.”

<sup>10</sup>The servant said, “We will do like you say. But I will not kill the man. If I find the silver cup, then that man will be my slave. The others will be free.”

The Trap Is Sprung; Benjamin Is Caught

<sup>14</sup>Judah and his brothers went back to Joseph’s house. Joseph was still there. The brothers fell on the ground and bowed down. <sup>15</sup>Joseph said to them, “Why have you done this? Didn’t you know that I have a special way of learning secrets. No person can do this better than me!”

<sup>16</sup>Judah said, “Sir, there is nothing we can say. There is no way to explain. There is no way to show that we are not guilty. God has judged us guilty for something else we did. So all of us, even Benjamin, will be your slaves.”

<sup>17</sup>But Joseph said, “I will not make you all slaves! Only the man who stole the cup will be my slave. You others can go in peace to your father.”

Judah Pleads for Benjamin

<sup>19</sup>Then Judah went to Joseph and said, “Sir, please let me speak plainly with you. Please don’t be angry with me. I know that you are like Pharaoh himself. <sup>19</sup>When we were here before, you asked us, ‘Do you have a father or a brother?’ <sup>20</sup>And we answered you, ‘We have a father—he is an old man. And we have a young brother. Our father loves that son because he was born while our father was old. And that young son’s brother is dead. So this is the only son that is left born from that mother. Our father loves him very much.’ <sup>21</sup>Then you said to us, ‘Then bring that brother to me. I want to see him.’ <sup>22</sup>And we said to you, ‘That young boy can’t come. He can’t leave his father. If his father loses him, then his father would be so sad that he would die.’ <sup>23</sup>But you said to us, ‘You must bring your youngest brother or I will not sell you grain again.’ <sup>24</sup>So we went back to our father and told him what you said.

<sup>25</sup>“Later, our father said, ‘Go again and buy us some more food.’ <sup>26</sup>And we said to our father, ‘We can’t go without our youngest brother. The governor said he will not sell us grain again until he sees our youngest brother.’ <sup>27</sup>Then my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife Rachel gave me two sons. <sup>28</sup>I let one son go away, and he was killed by a wild animal. And I haven’t seen him since. <sup>29</sup>If you take my other son away from me, and something happens to him, then I will be sad enough to die.’ <sup>30</sup>So now if we go home without our youngest brother, then our father will see this. This young boy is the most important thing in our father’s life. <sup>31</sup>When he sees that the young boy is not with us, he will die. And it will be our fault. We will cause our father to die with great sorrow.

<sup>32</sup>“I took responsibility for the young boy. I told my father, ‘If I don’t bring him back to you, then you can blame me all my life.’ <sup>33</sup>So now I ask you, I beg you, please let the boy go back with his brothers. And I will stay and be your slave. <sup>34</sup>I can’t go back to my father if the boy is not with me. I am very afraid of what would happen to my father.”

Joseph Tells Who He Is

45 Joseph could not control himself any longer. He cried before all the people that were there. Joseph said, “Tell everyone to leave here.” So all the people left. Only the brothers were left with Joseph. Then Joseph told them who he was. <sup>2</sup>Joseph continued to cry, and all the Egyptian people in Pharaoh’s house heard it. <sup>3</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, “I am your brother Joseph. Is my father doing well?” But the brothers did not answer him. They were scared and confused.

“So Joseph said to his brothers again, “Come here to me. I beg you to come close.” So the brothers went close to Joseph. And Joseph said to them, “I am your brother Joseph. I am the one you sold as a slave to Egypt. <sup>5</sup>Now, don’t be worried. Don’t be angry with yourselves for what you did. It was God’s plan for me to come here. I have come here to save your life. <sup>6</sup>This terrible time of hunger has continued for two years now. And there will be five more years without planting or harvest. <sup>7</sup>So God sent me here ahead of you so that I can save your people in this land. <sup>8</sup>It was not your fault that I was sent here. It was God’s plan. God made me like a father to Pharaoh. I am the governor over all his house and over all of Egypt.”

Israel Invited to Egypt

<sup>9</sup>Joseph said, “So leave quickly and go to my father. Tell my father that his son Joseph sends this message”:

God has made me governor over all of Egypt. Come here to me. Don’t wait. Come now. <sup>10</sup>You will live near me, in the land of Goshen. You, your children, your grandchildren, and all your animals and herds are welcome here. <sup>11</sup>I will care for you during the next five years of hunger. So you and your family will not lose everything you own.

<sup>12</sup>Joseph continued talking to his brothers. He said, “Now you see that it is really me. And your brother Benjamin knows it is me. I am your brother who is talking to you. <sup>13</sup>So tell my father about my great wealth here in Egypt. Tell my father about everything you have seen here. Now hurry and bring my father back to me.” <sup>14</sup>Then Joseph hugged his brother Benjamin and cried. And Benjamin cried also. <sup>15</sup>Then Joseph kissed all his brothers and cried on them. After this, the brothers began talking with him.

Their father was amazed. He did not believe them. <sup>27</sup>But the brothers told their father everything Joseph had said. Then Jacob saw the wagons that Joseph had sent for him to bring him back to Egypt. Then Jacob became excited and very happy. <sup>28</sup>Israel said, “Now I believe you. My son Joseph is still alive! I am going to see him before I die!”

God Assures Israel

46 So Israel began his trip to Egypt. First Israel went to Beersheba. There, Israel worshiped God, the God of his father Isaac. He offered sacrifices.* <sup>2</sup>During the night, God spoke to Israel in a dream. God said, “Jacob, Jacob.”

And Israel answered, “Here I am.”

<sup>3</sup>Then God said, “I am God, the God of your father. Don’t be afraid to go to Egypt. In Egypt I will make you a great nation. <sup>4</sup>I will go to Egypt with you. And I will bring you out of Egypt again. You will die in Egypt, but Joseph will be with you. His own hands will close your eyes when you die.”

Israel Goes to Egypt

Jacob’s Family

<sup>8</sup>Here are the names of Israel’s* sons and family that went into Egypt with him:

Reuben was Jacob’s first son. <sup>9</sup>Reuben’s sons were:
Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

Israel Another name for Jacob. This name means “he fights for God” or “he fights with God.”

Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, and Zohar.
There was also Shaul. (Shaul was born from a Canaanite woman.)

Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah. (Er and Onan died while still in Canaan.)

Perez's sons:
Hezron and Hamul.

Tola, Puah, Job, and Shimron.

Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.

<sup>15</sup>Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun were Jacob's sons from his wife Leah. Leah gave birth to those sons in Paddan Aram. There was also her daughter Dinah. There were 33 people in this family.

Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Arelai.

Imnah, Ishvah, Isvi, Beriah, and their sister, Serah.

Also Beriah's sons:
Heber and Malkiel.

<sup>19</sup>Benjamin was also with Jacob. Benjamin was Jacob and Rachel's son. (Joseph was also Rachel's son, but Joseph was already in Egypt.)

Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.

Hushim.

Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.

<sup>25</sup>Those were the sons of Jacob and Bilhah. (Bilhah was Rachel's maid.) There were seven people in this family.

<sup>26</sup>The total number of Jacob's direct descendants* that went with him to Egypt was 66 people. (The wives of Jacob's sons were not counted in this number.) <sup>27</sup>Also, there were the two sons of Joseph. They had been born in Egypt. So there was a total of 70 people in Jacob's family in Egypt.

Israel Arrives in Egypt

<sup>28</sup>Jacob sent Judah first to Joseph. Judah went to Joseph in the land of Goshen. Then Jacob and his people followed into that land.

<sup>29</sup>Joseph learned that his father was coming near. So Joseph prepared his chariot and went out to meet Israel, his father, in Goshen. When Joseph saw his father, he hugged his neck and cried for a long time.

<sup>30</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, "Now I can die in peace. I have seen your face and I know that you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup>Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's family, "I will go and tell Pharaoh that you are here. I will say to Pharaoh, 'My brothers and my father's family have left the land of Canaan and have come here to me.

<sup>32</sup>This family is the family of shepherds. They have always kept cattle and flocks. They have brought all their animals and everything they own with them.' <sup>33</sup>When Pharaoh calls you, he will ask, 'What work do you do?' <sup>34</sup>You tell him, 'We are shepherds. All our lives we have lived by keeping our animals. This is the way our fathers lived before us.' Then Pharaoh will allow you to live in the land of Goshen. Egyptian people do not like shepherds, so it is better that you stay in Goshen."

descendant(s) A person's children and all their future families.

Israel Settles in Goshen

47 Joseph went in to Pharaoh and said, "My father and my brothers and all their families are here. They have all their animals and everything they own from the land of Canaan with them. They are now in the land of Goshen."<sup>2</sup> Joseph chose five of his brothers to be with him before the Pharaoh.

The brothers said to Pharaoh, "Sir, we are shepherds. Our fathers were shepherds before us." <sup>4</sup>They said to Pharaoh, "The time of hunger is very bad in Canaan. There are no fields left with grass for our animals. So we have come to live in this land. We ask you to please let us live in the land of Goshen."

<sup>5</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. <sup>6</sup>You can choose any place in Egypt for them to live. Give your father and your brothers the best land. Let them live in the land of Goshen. And if they are skilled shepherds, then they can also care for my cattle."

<sup>9</sup>Jacob said to Pharaoh, "I have had a short life with many troubles. I have lived only 130 years. My father and his fathers lived to be much older than I am."

<sup>11</sup>Joseph obeyed Pharaoh. He gave his father and brothers land in Egypt. It was the best land in Egypt, near the city of Rameses. <sup>12</sup>And Joseph gave his father, his brothers, and all their people the food that they needed.

Joseph Buys Land for Pharaoh

<sup>13</sup>The time of hunger became worse. There was no food anywhere in the land. Egypt and Canaan became very poor because of this bad time. <sup>14</sup>People in the land bought more and more grain. Joseph saved the money and brought it to Pharaoh's house. <sup>15</sup>After some time, the people in Egypt and Canaan had no money left. They had spent all their money to buy grain. So the people of Egypt went to Joseph and said, "Please give us food. Our money is gone. If we don't eat, we will die while you are watching."

<sup>16</sup>But Joseph answered, "Give me your cattle, and I will give you food." <sup>17</sup>So the people used their cattle and horses and all their other animals to buy food. And that year, Joseph gave them food and took their animals.

<sup>18</sup>But the next year, people had no animals and nothing to buy food with. So the people went to Joseph and said, "You know that we have no money left. And all our animals belong to you. So we have nothing left—only what you see—our bodies and our land. <sup>19</sup>Surely we will die while you are watching. But if you give us food, then we will give Pharaoh our land, and we will be his slaves. Give us seed so that we can plant. Then we will live and not die. And the land will grow food for us again."

<sup>23</sup>Joseph said to the people, "Now I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh. So I will give you seed, and you can plant your fields.

<sup>24</sup>At harvest time, you must give one-fifth of your crops to Pharaoh. You can keep four-fifths for yourselves. You can use the seed you keep for food and planting the next year. Now you can feed your families and your children."

<sup>25</sup>The people said, "You have saved our lives. We are happy to be slaves to Pharaoh."

<sup>26</sup>So Joseph made a law at that time in the land. And that law still continues today. The law says that one-fifth of everything from the land belongs to the Pharaoh. The Pharaoh owns all the land. The only land he doesn't own is the land of the priests.

“Don’t Bury Me in Egypt”

<sup>27</sup>Israel (Jacob) stayed in Egypt. He lived in the land of Goshen. His family grew and became very large. They got that land in Egypt and did very well.

<sup>28</sup>Jacob lived in Egypt 17 years. So Jacob was 147 years old. <sup>29</sup>The time came when Israel (Jacob) knew he would soon die, so he called his son Joseph to him. He said, “If you love me, then put your hand under my leg and make a promise.* Promise that you will do what I say and that you will be truthful with me. When I die, don’t bury me in Egypt. <sup>30</sup>Bury me in the place where my fathers are buried. Carry me out of Egypt and bury me in our family grave.”

Joseph answered, “I promise that I will do what you say.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Jacob said, “Make a vow to me.” And Joseph vowed to him that he would do this. Then Israel (Jacob) laid his head back down on the bed.*

Blessings for Manasseh and Ephraim

48 Some time later, Joseph learned that his father was very sick. So Joseph took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim and went to his father. <sup>2</sup>When Joseph arrived, someone told Israel, “Your son Joseph has come to see you.” Israel was very weak, but he tried hard and sat up in his bed.

<sup>3</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, “God All-Powerful showed himself to me at Luz in the land of Canaan. God blessed me there. ‘God said to me, ‘I will make you a great family. I will give you many children and you will be a great people. Your family will own this land forever.’ <sup>4</sup>And now you have two sons. These two sons were born here in the land of Egypt before I came. Your two sons Ephraim and Manasseh will be like my own sons. They will be the same as Reuben and Simeon to me. <sup>6</sup>So these two boys will be my sons. They will share in everything I own. But if you have other sons, they will be your sons. But they will also be like sons to Ephraim and Manasseh—that is, in the future, they will share in everything that Ephraim and Manasseh own. <sup>7</sup>On the trip from Paddan Aram, Rachel died. This made me very sad. She died in the land of Canaan. We were still traveling toward Ephrath. I buried her there on the road to Ephrath. (Ephrath is Bethlehem.)”

Israel said, “Bring your sons to me. I will bless them.”

<sup>10</sup>Israel was old and his eyes were not good. So Joseph brought the boys close to his father. Israel kissed and hugged the boys. <sup>11</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, “I never thought I would see your face again. But look! God has let me see you and your children.”

“My fathers, Abraham and Isaac, worshiped our God.

And that God has led me all of my life.

<sup>16</sup> He was the Angel who saved me from all troubles.

And I pray that he will bless these boys. Now these boys will have my name.

They will have the name of our fathers, Abraham and Isaac.

put your hand ... make a promise This showed that this was a very important promise and that Jacob trusted Joseph to keep his promise.

Then Israel ... on the bed Or, “Then Israel worshiped on the head of this staff.” The Hebrew word for “staff” is like the word for “bed.” And the word for “worship” means to “bow down” or “lie down.”

I pray that they will grow to become great families and nations on earth.”

<sup>19</sup>But his father argued and said, “I know, son. I know. Manasseh is the firstborn. And he will be great. He will also be the father of many people. But the younger brother will be greater than the older brother. And the younger brother’s family will be much larger.”

<sup>20</sup>So Israel blessed them that day. He said,

“The people of Israel will use your name in blessing.
They will say, “May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.”

In this way, Israel made Ephraim greater than Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, “Look, my time to die is almost here. But God will still be with you. He will lead you back to the land of your fathers. <sup>22</sup>I have given you something that I did not give your brothers. I give you the mountain that I won from the Amorite people. I fought the people for that mountain with my sword and with my bow and won.”

Jacob Blesses His Sons

49 Then Jacob called all his sons to him. He said, “All my sons, come here to me. I will tell you what will happen in the future.

Reuben

<sup>3</sup> “Reuben, you are my first son.
You are my first child.
You are the proudest and the strongest of all my sons.

You will not be the most important of my sons.

You slept with a woman that belonged to your father.

You did not show honor to your father’s bed.”

Simeon and Levi

They love to fight with their swords.

My soul wants no part in their plans.

I will not accept their secret meetings.

They killed men when they were angry.

And they hurt animals only for fun.

It is too strong.

They are too cruel

when they are mad.

They will not get their own land in the land of Jacob.

They will be spread all over Israel.”

Judah

<sup>8</sup> “Judah, your brothers will praise you.

You will defeat your enemies.

Your brothers will bow down to you.

<sup>9</sup> Judah is like a lion that has killed an animal.

Son, you are like a lion standing over its kill.

Judah is like a lion.

He lies down to rest, and no one is brave enough to bother him.

<sup>10</sup> Men from Judah’s family will be kings.

The sign that his family rules will not leave his family, before the real king comes.*

Then many people will obey and serve him.

before ... comes Or, “until Shiloh comes” or “until the man it belongs to comes.”

He ties his young donkey to the best grapevines.

He uses the best wine to wash his clothes.

- <sup>12</sup> His eyes are red from drinking wine.
His teeth are white from drinking milk.*”

Zebulun

- <sup>13</sup> “Zebulun will live near the sea.
His seacoast will be a safe place for ships.
His land will continue as far as the city of Sidon.”

Issachar

- <sup>14</sup> “Issachar is like a donkey who has worked too hard,
He lies down from carrying a heavy load.
<sup>15</sup> He will see his resting place is good.
He will see his land is pleasant.
Then he will agree to carry heavy loads.
He will agree to work as a slave.”

Dan

- <sup>16</sup> “Dan* will judge his own people, like the other families of Israel.
Let him be like a dangerous snake lying near the path.
That snake bites a horse’s foot.
And the man riding on the horse falls off the horse.

Gad

- <sup>19</sup> “A group of robbers will attack* Gad.

He ties his donkey ... milk Or, “His donkey will be tied to the grapevine, his young donkey to the best grapevines. He will wash his clothes in wine, his best clothes in the blood of the grapes. His eyes will be more red than wine, his teeth more white than milk.”

Dan This is like the Hebrew word meaning “judge.”

A group of robbers will attack The Hebrew words for “group of robbers” and “attack” sound like the name Gad.

But Gad will chase them away.”

Asher

- <sup>20</sup> “Asher’s land will grow much good food.
He will have food that is good enough for a king.”

Naphtali

- <sup>21</sup> “Naphtali is like a deer that runs free.
And his words are like their beautiful babies.”

Joseph

- <sup>22</sup> “Joseph is very successful.
Joseph is like a vine that makes much fruit, like a vine growing by a spring, like a vine growing along a fence.
<sup>23</sup> Many people turned against him and fought him.
People with arrows did not like him.
<sup>24</sup> But he won the fight with his mighty bow and his skillful arms.
He gets power from the Mighty One of Jacob, from the Shepherd,
the Rock of Israel, <sup>25</sup> from the God of your father.
God blesses you.
May God All-Powerful bless you.
May he give you blessings from the sky above, and blessings from the deep below.
May he give you blessings from breast and womb.
<sup>26</sup> My parents had many, many good things happen to them.
And I, your father, was blessed even more.
Your brothers tried to give you away.
But now all my blessings will be piled on you, high like a mountain.”

Benjamin

<sup>7</sup> “Benjamin is like a hungry wolf.
In the morning he kills and eats.
In the evening he shares what is left.”

<sup>8</sup>Those are the twelve families of Israel. And those are the things their father said to them. He gave each son a blessing that was right for him. <sup>9</sup>Then Israel gave them a command. He said, “When I die, I want to be with my people. I want to be buried with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite. <sup>10</sup>That cave is in the field of Machpelah near Mamre. It is in the land of Canaan. Abraham bought that field from Ephron so that he could have a burying place. <sup>11</sup>Abraham and his wife Sarah are buried in that cave. Isaac and his wife Rebekah are buried in that cave. I buried my wife Leah in that cave. <sup>12</sup>That cave is in the field that was bought from the Hittite people.” <sup>13</sup>After Jacob finished talking to his sons, he lay down, put his feet back on the bed and died.

Jacob's Funeral

50 When Israel died, Joseph was very sad. He hugged his father and cried on him and kissed him. <sup>2</sup>Joseph commanded his servants to prepare his father's body. (These servants were doctors.) The doctors prepared Jacob's body to be buried. They prepared the body in the special way of the Egyptians. <sup>3</sup>When the Egyptians prepared the body in this special way, they waited 40 days before they buried the body. Then the Egyptians had a special time of sadness for Jacob. This time was 70 days.

<sup>4</sup>After 70 days, the time of sadness was finished. So Joseph spoke to the Pharaoh's officers. Joseph said, “Please tell this to Pharaoh: <sup>5</sup>‘When my father was near death, I made a promise to him. I promised that I would bury him in a cave in the land of Canaan. This is the cave that he prepared for himself. So please let me go and bury my father. Then I will come back here to you.’”

<sup>7</sup>So Joseph went to bury his father. All of Pharaoh's officials went with Joseph. Pharaoh's elders (leaders) and all the elders of Egypt went with Joseph. <sup>8</sup>All the people in the family of Joseph and his brothers went with him. And all of his father's family went with Joseph. (Only the children and the animals were left in the land of Goshen.) <sup>9</sup>Men rode in chariots and on horses to go with Joseph. It was a very large group.

<sup>12</sup>So Jacob's sons did what their father commanded. <sup>13</sup>They carried his body to Canaan and buried it in the cave at Machpelah. This was the cave near Mamre in the field that Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite. Abraham bought that cave to use as a burial place. <sup>14</sup>After Joseph buried his father, he and everyone in the group with him went back to Egypt.

The Brothers Fear Joseph

<sup>1</sup>After Jacob died, Joseph's brothers became worried. They were afraid that Joseph would still be mad at them for what they did long ago. They said, “Does Joseph still hate us for what we did?” <sup>2</sup>So the brothers sent this message to Joseph:

“Your father gave us a command before he died. <sup>3</sup>He said, ‘Tell Joseph that I beg him to please forgive the wrong that they did to him.’ So now Joseph, we beg you to please forgive the wrong thing that we did. We are the servants of God, the God of your father.”

The things Joseph's brothers said made Joseph very sad and he cried. <sup>4</sup>Joseph's

Goren Atad Or, “Atad's threshing floor.”

Abel Mizraim This means “Egyptian time of sadness.”

brothers went to him and bowed down in front of him. They said, "We will be your servants."

<sup>19</sup>Then Joseph said to them, "Don't be afraid. I am not God! I have no right to punish you." <sup>20</sup>You had planned to do something bad to me. But God was really planning good things. God's plan was to use me to save the lives of many people. And that is still his plan today. <sup>21</sup>So don't be afraid. I will care for you and your children." Joseph spoke kindly to his brothers. This made his brothers feel good.

<sup>22</sup>Joseph continued to live in Egypt with his father's family. Joseph died when he was 110 years old. <sup>23</sup>During Joseph's life, Ephraim had children and grandchildren. And his son Manasseh had a son named Makir. Joseph lived to see Makir's children.

The Death of Joseph

<sup>24</sup>When Joseph was near death, he said to his brothers, "My time to die is almost here. But I know that God will care for you. He will lead you out of this land. God will lead you to the land he promised to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

<sup>25</sup>Then Joseph asked his people to make a promise. Joseph said, "Promise me that you will carry my bones with you when God leads you to that new land."

<sup>26</sup>Joseph died in Egypt when he was 110 years old. Doctors prepared his body for burial and put the body in a coffin in Egypt.

Jacob's Family in Egypt

1 Jacob (Israel) traveled to Egypt with his sons. And each son had his own family with him. These are the sons of Israel: <sup>2</sup>Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, <sup>3</sup>Issachar, Zebulun, Benjamin, <sup>4</sup>Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher. <sup>5</sup>There was a total of 70 people who were direct descendants* of Jacob. (Joseph, one of the twelve sons, was already in Egypt.)

<sup>6</sup>Later, Joseph, his brothers, and all the people of that generation died. <sup>7</sup>But the people of Israel had many children, and their number grew and grew. The people of Israel became strong, and the country of Egypt was filled with the Israelites.

Trouble for the People of Israel

<sup>8</sup>Then a new king began to rule Egypt. This king did not know Joseph. <sup>9</sup>This king said to his people, "Look at the people of Israel. There are too many of them! And they are stronger than we are!" <sup>10</sup>We must make plans to stop the Israelites from growing stronger. If there is a war, the people of Israel might join our enemies. Then they might defeat us and escape from us."

<sup>11</sup>The Egyptian people decided to make life hard for the people of Israel. So the Egyptians put slave masters over the people. The masters forced the Israelites to build the cities of Pithom and Rameses for the king. The king used these cities to store grain and other things.

<sup>12</sup>The Egyptians forced the Israelites to work harder and harder. But the more the people of Israel were forced to work, the more they grew and spread. And the Egyptian people became more and more afraid of the people of Israel. <sup>13</sup>So the Egyptian people forced the people of Israel to work even harder.

<sup>14</sup>The Egyptians made life hard for the Israelites. They forced the Israelites to work very hard making bricks and mortar. They also forced them to work hard in the fields. They forced them to work very hard in everything they did.

The Nurses Who Followed God

<sup>15</sup>There were two nurses that helped the Israelite women give birth to children. These nurses were named Shiphrah and Puah. The king of Egypt talked to the nurses. <sup>16</sup>The king said, "You will continue to help the Hebrew* women give birth to their children. If a girl baby is born, then let the baby live. But if the baby is a boy, then you must kill him!"

<sup>18</sup>The king of Egypt called the nurses and said, "Why did you do this? Why did you let the boy babies live?"

descendants A person's children and all their future families.

Hebrew Or, "Israelite."

trusted Literally, "feared" or "respected."

we can go to help them.”<sup>(20-21)</sup> God was happy with the nurses. So God was good to them and allowed them to have their own families. And the Hebrew* people continued to have more children, and they became very strong.)

<sup>2</sup>So Pharaoh* gave this command to all of his people: “Every time a baby boy is born, you must throw him into the Nile River. But let all the girl babies live.”

Baby Moses

2 There was a man from the family of Levi. He married a woman that was also from the family of Levi. <sup>2</sup>The woman became pregnant and gave birth to a baby boy. The mother saw how beautiful the baby was, and she hid him for three months. <sup>3</sup>The mother was afraid that the baby would be found and killed because he was a boy. After three months, she made a basket and covered it with tar* so that it would float. She put the baby in the basket. Then she put the basket in the river in the tall grass. <sup>4</sup>The baby’s sister stayed and watched. She wanted to see what would happen to the baby.

<sup>5</sup>At that same time, Pharaoh’s daughter went to the river to wash herself. Her servants were walking beside the river. She saw the basket in the tall grass. She told one of her slaves to go get it. <sup>6</sup>The king’s daughter opened the basket and saw a baby boy. The baby was crying and she felt sorry for it. She said, “This is one of the Hebrew* babies.”

Hebrew The people of Israel. This name might also include other people as well. This name might mean people that were descendants of Eber (Genesis 10:25-31) or maybe other people who came from east of the Euphrates River.

Pharaoh A title people used for the king of Egypt. This word means “the Great House.”

tar Or, “pitch,” a very thick oil that must be heated to become liquid.

So the girl went and brought the baby’s own mother.

<sup>9</sup>The king’s daughter said to the mother “Take this baby and feed him for me. Care for the baby, and I will pay you.”

So the woman took her baby and cared for him. <sup>10</sup>The baby grew, and after some time, the woman brought the baby to the king daughter. The king’s daughter accepted the baby as her own son. The king’s daughter named him Moses* because she had pulled him from the water.

Moses Helps His People

<sup>11</sup>Moses grew and became a man. He saw that his people, the Hebrew* people, were forced to work very hard. One day Moses saw an Egyptian man beating a Hebrew* man. <sup>12</sup>Moses looked around and saw that no one was watching. Then Moses killed the Egyptian and buried him in the sand.

<sup>13</sup>The next day Moses saw two Hebrew* men fighting each other. Moses saw that one man was wrong. Moses said to that man, “Why are you hurting your neighbor?”

<sup>14</sup>The man answered, “Did anyone say you could be our ruler and judge? No! Tell me, will you kill me like you killed the Egyptian yesterday?”*

Then Moses was afraid. Moses thought to himself, “Now everyone knows what I did.”

<sup>15</sup>Pharaoh heard about what Moses did, so he decided to kill Moses. But Moses ran away from Pharaoh. Moses went to the land of Midian. Moses stopped near a well in that land.

Moses In Midian

<sup>16</sup>There was a priest in Midian that had seven daughters. Those girls came to that well to get water for their father’s sheep. They were trying to fill the water trough with water. <sup>17</sup>But some shepherds there chased the girls away and would not let them get the water. So Moses yesterday This word is in the ancient Greek translation, but not in the Hebrew text.

Moses This name is like a Hebrew word meaning “to pull or draw out.”

<sup>18</sup>Then they went back to their father, Reuel.* Their father said to them, "You have come home early today. Why?"

<sup>19</sup>The girls answered, "The shepherds tried to chase us away. But an Egyptian man helped us. He got water for us and gave it to our animals."

<sup>21</sup>Moses was happy to stay with that man. And that man gave his daughter, Ziporah, to Moses to be his wife. <sup>22</sup>Ziporah gave birth to a son. Moses named his son Gershom.* (Moses gave his son this name because Moses was a stranger in a land that was not his own.)

God Decides to Help Israel

<sup>23</sup>A long time passed and the king of Egypt died. The people of Israel were still forced to work very hard. They cried for help, and God heard them. <sup>24</sup>God heard their prayers, and he remembered the agreement he made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>25</sup>God saw the troubles of the people of Israel, and he knew that he would soon help them. .

The Burning Bush

3 Moses' father-in-law was named Jethro.* (Jethro was a priest of Midian). Moses was a shepherd over Jethro's sheep. One day, Moses led the sheep to the west side of the desert. Moses went to a mountain called Horeb (Sinai), the mountain of God. <sup>2</sup>On that mountain, Moses saw the Angel of the Lord in a burning bush. (This is how it happened.) Moses saw a bush that was burning without being destroyed. <sup>3</sup>So Moses said, "I will go closer to the bush and see how a bush can continue burning without being destroyed."

<sup>4</sup>The Lord saw Moses was coming to look at the bush. So God called to Moses from the bush. God said, "Moses, Moses!"

Reuel He is also called Jethro.

Gershom This name is like the Hebrew words meaning "a stranger there."

Jethro He is also called Reuel.

And Moses said, "Yes, Lord."

<sup>5</sup>Then the Lord said, "Don't come any closer. Take off your sandals. You are standing on holy ground. <sup>6</sup>I am the God of your ancestors.* I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."

Moses covered his face because he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup>Then the Lord said, "I have seen the troubles my people have suffered in Egypt. And I have heard their cries when the Egyptians hurt them. I know about their pain. <sup>8</sup>Now I will go down and save my people from the Egyptians. I will take them from that land. And I will lead them to a good land where they can be free from troubles.* It is a land filled with many good things.* Many different people live in that land: the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. <sup>9</sup>I have heard the cries of the people of Israel. I have seen the way the Egyptians have made life hard for them. <sup>10</sup>So now I am sending you to Pharaoh. Go! Lead my people, the people of Israel, out of Egypt!"

<sup>11</sup>But Moses said to God, "I am not a great man! How can I be the person to go to Pharaoh and lead the people of Israel out of Egypt?"

<sup>12</sup>God said, "You can do it because I will be with you! This will be the proof that I am sending you: After you lead the people out of Egypt, you will come and worship me on this mountain!"

<sup>13</sup>Then Moses said to God, "But if I go to the people of Israel and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors* sent me to you,' then the people will ask, 'What is his name?' What should I tell them?"

<sup>14</sup>Then God said to Moses, "Tell them, 'I AM WHO I AM.*' When you go to the people of Israel, tell them, 'I AM sent me to you.'"

<sup>15</sup>God also said to Moses, "This is what you

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

land ... troubles Literally, "a spacious land."

filled ... things Literally, "flowing with milk and honey."

I AM WHO I AM The Hebrew words are like the name YAHWEH ("Lord").

should tell the people: 'YAHWEH* is the God of your ancestors,* the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. My name will always be YAHWEH.* That is how the people will know me for generations and generations to come.' [Tell the people, 'YAHWEH has sent me to you!']"

<sup>16</sup>The Lord also said, "Go and gather together the elders (leaders) of the people and tell them, 'YAHWEH,* the God of your ancestors,* has appeared to me. The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob spoke to me. The Lord says: I have thought about you and the things that have happened to you in Egypt. <sup>17</sup>And I have decided that I will take you from the troubles you are suffering in Egypt. I will lead you to the land that now belongs to many different people: the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. I will lead you to a land filled with many good things.*

<sup>18</sup>"The elders (leaders) will listen to you. And then you and the elders (leaders) will go to the king of Egypt. You will tell him, 'YAHWEH,* the God of the Hebrew* people, came to us. He told us to travel three days into the desert. There we must offer sacrifices* to YAHWEH our God.'

<sup>19</sup>"But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go. Only a great power will force him to let you go. <sup>20</sup>So I will use my great power against Egypt. I will cause amazing things to happen in that land. After I do this, he will let you go. <sup>21</sup>And I will cause the Egyptian people to show kindness to the people of Israel. So the Egyptians will give gifts to your people at the time the Israelites leave Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>"Each Hebrew* woman will ask her Egyptian neighbors and any Egyptian woman living in her house, and those people will give her gifts. Your people will get gifts of silver, gold, and fine clothing. You will put those gifts on your children at the time you leave Egypt. In this way you will take the wealth of the Egyptians."

Proof for Moses

4 Then Moses said to God, "But the people of Israel will not believe me when I tell them that you sent me. They will say, 'The Lord* did not talk to you.'"

<sup>2</sup>But God said to Moses, "What is that you have in your hand?"

Moses answered, "It is my walking stick."

So Moses threw his walking stick on the ground. And the stick became a snake. Moses was afraid and ran from it. 'But the Lord said to Moses, "Reach out and grab the snake by its tail."

So Moses reached out and caught the snake's tail. When Moses did this, the snake became a walking stick again. <sup>5</sup>Then God said, "Use your stick in this way and the people will believe that you saw the Lord, the God of your ancestors,* the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."

<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "I will give you another proof. Put your hand under your robe."

So Moses opened his robe and put his hand inside. Then Moses brought his hand out of the robe and it was changed. His hand was covered: with spots that were white like snow.

<sup>7</sup>Then God said, "Now put your hand into your robe again." So Moses put his hand into his robe again. Then Moses brought his hand out, and his hand was changed. Now his hand was good again, like it was before.

<sup>8</sup>Then God said, "If the people don't believe you when you use your walking stick, then they will believe you when you show them this sign. <sup>9</sup>If they still refuse to believe after you show them both of these things, then take some water from the Nile River. Pour the water on the ground, and as soon as it touches the ground, it will become blood."

Lord Or, "YAHWEH."

YAHWEH Or, "Lord." This name is like the Hebrew word meaning, "He is" or "He makes things exist."

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

filled ... things Literally, "flowing with milk and honey."

Hebrew Or, "Israelite."

<sup>10</sup>But Moses said to the Lord, “But Lord, I am telling you the truth, I am not a skilled speaker. I have never been able to talk to people well. And now, even after talking to you, I am not a good speaker. You know that I talk slowly and don’t use the best words.”*

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord said to him, “Who made man’s mouth? And who can make a man deaf or not able to speak? Who can make a man blind? Who can make a man able to see? I am the One who can do all these things—I am YAHWEH.* <sup>12</sup>So go. I will be with you when you speak. I will give you the words to say.”

<sup>14</sup>The Lord became angry with Moses. The Lord said, “Then I will give you more help. I will use your brother Aaron, from the family of Levi. He is a skilled speaker. Aaron is already coming to you. And he will be happy when he sees you. <sup>15</sup>He will go with you to Pharaoh. I will tell you what to say. Then you will tell Aaron. Aaron will choose the right words to speak to Pharaoh. <sup>16</sup>And Aaron will speak for you to the people. You will be like a great king to him. And he will be your official speaker.* <sup>17</sup>So go. And carry your walking stick with you. Use your stick and the other miracles to show the people I am with you.”

Moses Returns to Egypt

<sup>18</sup>Then Moses went back to Jethro, his father-in-law. Moses said to Jethro, “I ask you to let me go back to my people in Egypt. I want to see if they are still alive.”

Jethro said to Moses, “You may go in peace.”

<sup>19</sup>Then, while Moses was still in Midian, God said to him, “It is safe for you to go back to Egypt now. The men who wanted to kill you are now dead.”

<sup>20</sup>So Moses took his wife and his sons and put them on donkeys. Then Moses traveled back to the land of Egypt. Moses carried his walking stick with him—the walking stick with the power of God.

<sup>21</sup>While Moses was traveling back to Egypt, God spoke to him. God said, “When you talk to Pharaoh remember to show him all the miracles that I have given you the power to do. But I will cause Pharaoh to be very stubborn. He will not let the people go. <sup>22</sup>Then you should say to Pharaoh: <sup>23</sup>The Lord says, ‘Israel is my firstborn* son. And I am telling you to let my son go and worship me! If you refuse to let Israel go, then I will kill your firstborn son.’”

Moses’ Son Circumcised

Moses and Aaron before God

<sup>27</sup>The Lord had spoken to Aaron. The Lord had told him, “Go out into the desert and meet Moses.” So Aaron went and met Moses at the mountain of God.* When Aaron saw Moses, he kissed him. <sup>28</sup>Moses told Aaron everything the Lord had said. Moses told Aaron why the Lord sent him. And Moses explained to Aaron about all the miracles and proofs that he must do.

<sup>29</sup>So Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders (leaders) of the people of

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

tried to kill him Or possibly, “wanted to circumcise him.”

flint knife A sharp knife made from flint rock.

circumcise(d) Cutting off the foreskin. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God’s laws and teachings.

Verse 26 Or, “And he was healed. She said, ‘You are a bridegroom of blood’ because of the circumcision.”

mountain of God That is, Mount Horeb (Sinai).

I talk ... words Or, “I stutter and do not speak clearly.”

I am YAHWEH Or, “I am the Lord.”

You will be ... speaker Literally, “He will be your mouth, and you will be his God.”

Israel. <sup>30</sup>Then Aaron spoke to the people. He told them all the things that the Lord had told Moses. Then Moses did the proofs for all the people to see. <sup>31</sup>The people believed that God had sent Moses. They bowed and worshiped God because they knew that God had come to help the people of Israel. And they worshiped God because they knew that God had seen their troubles.

Moses And Aaron Before Pharaoh

5 After Moses and Aaron talked to the people, they went to Pharaoh. They said, "The Lord* God of Israel says, 'Let my people go into the desert so they can have a feast to honor me.'"

<sup>2</sup>But Pharaoh said, "Who is the Lord? Why should I obey him? Why should I let Israel go? I don't know this one you call the Lord. So I refuse to let Israel go."

<sup>3</sup>Then Aaron and Moses said, "The God of the Hebrew* people has talked with us. So we beg you to let us travel three days into the desert. There we will offer a sacrifice* to the Lord our God. If we don't do this, he might become angry and destroy us. He might make us die from sickness or war."

<sup>4</sup>But Pharaoh said to them, "Moses and Aaron, you are causing trouble! You are taking the people away from their work! Tell those slaves to go back to work! <sup>5</sup>There are very many workers, and you are keeping them from doing their jobs."

Pharaoh Punishes the People

<sup>6</sup>That same day, Pharaoh gave a command to make work harder for the people of Israel. Pharaoh said to the slave masters, <sup>7</sup>"You have always given the people straw and they use it to make bricks. But now tell them they must go find their own straw to make bricks. <sup>8</sup>But they must still make the same number of bricks as they did before. They have become lazy. That is why they are asking me to let them go. They don't have enough work to do, so they ask me: to let them make sacrifices* to their God. <sup>9</sup>So make these people work harder. Keep them busy. Then they will not have enough time to listen to the lies of Moses."

<sup>10</sup>So the Egyptian slave masters and the Hebrew* foremen went to the people of Israel and said, "Pharaoh has decided that he will not give you straw for your bricks. <sup>11</sup>You must go and get the straw for yourselves. So go and find straw. But you must make as many bricks as you made before."

<sup>12</sup>So the people went everywhere in Egypt looking for straw. <sup>13</sup>The slave masters continued forcing the people to work harder. They forced the people to make as many bricks as they made before. <sup>14</sup>The Egyptian slave masters had chosen the Hebrew* foremen and had made them responsible for the work the people did. The Egyptian slave masters beat these men and said to them, "Why aren't you making as many bricks as you made in the past? If you could do it in the past, you can do it now!"

<sup>15</sup>Then the Hebrew* foremen went to Pharaoh. They complained and said, "Why are you treating us, your servants, this way? <sup>16</sup>You give us no straw. But we are commanded to continue making as many brick as we made before. And now our masters beat us. Your people are wrong for doing this."

<sup>17</sup>Pharaoh answered, "You are lazy. You don't want to work. That is why you ask me to let you go. And that is why you want to leave here and make sacrifices* to the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Now, go back to work! We will not give you any straw. But you must make as many bricks as you made in the past."

<sup>19</sup>The Hebrew* foremen knew they were in trouble. The foremen knew they could not make as many bricks as they made in the past.

<sup>20</sup>When they were leaving the meeting with Pharaoh, they passed Moses and Aaron. Moses and Aaron were waiting for them. <sup>21</sup>So they said to Moses and Aaron, "You did a bad thing when you told Pharaoh to let us go. May the Lord punish you because you caused Pharaoh

Lord Or, "YAHWEH."

Hebrew Or, "Israelite."

and his rulers to hate us. You have given them an excuse to kill us.”

Moses Complains to God

<sup>22</sup>Then Moses prayed to the Lord and said, “Lord, why have you done this bad thing to your people? Why did you send me here? <sup>23</sup>I went to Pharaoh and said the things you told me to say. But since that time he has been mean to the people. And you have done nothing to help them!”

6 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh. I will use my great power against him, and he will let my people go. He will be so ready for them to leave that he will force them to go.”

<sup>2</sup>Then God said to Moses, <sup>3</sup>“I am the Lord. I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. They called me El Shaddai (God All-Powerful). They did not know my name, YAHWEH (Lord). <sup>4</sup>I made an agreement with them. I promised to give them the land of Canaan. They lived in that land, but it was not their own land. <sup>5</sup>Now, I know about the troubles of the people of Israel. I know that they are the slaves of Egypt. And I remember my agreement. <sup>6</sup>So tell the people of Israel that I say to them, ‘I am the Lord. I will save you. I will make you free. You will not be slaves of the Egyptians. I will use my great power and bring terrible punishment to the Egyptians. Then I will save you. <sup>7</sup>You will be my people and I will be your God. I am the Lord your God, and you will know that I made you free from Egypt. <sup>8</sup>I made a great promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I promised to give them a special land. So I will lead you to that land. I will give you that land. It will be yours. I am the Lord.’”

<sup>9</sup>So Moses told this to the people of Israel. But the people were working so hard that they were not patient with Moses. They would not listen to him.

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>11</sup>“Go tell Pharaoh that he must let the people of Israel leave his land.”

<sup>12</sup>But Moses answered, “The people of Israel refuse to listen to me! So surely Pharaoh will also refuse to listen. I am a very bad speaker!”*

<sup>13</sup>But the Lord talked with Moses and Aaron. God commanded them to go and talk to the people of Israel. He also commanded them to go and talk to Pharaoh. God commanded them to lead the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

Some of the Families of Israel

<sup>14</sup>Here are the names of the leaders of the families of Israel: Israel’s first son, Reuben, had four sons. They were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. <sup>15</sup>Simeon’s sons were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar, and Shaul. (Shaul was the son from a Canaanite woman).

<sup>26</sup>Aaron and Moses were from this family group. And they are the men that God spoke to and said, “Lead my people out of Israel in groups.”* <sup>27</sup>Aaron and Moses are the men that talked to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. They told Pharaoh to let the people of Israel leave Egypt.

I am a very bad speaker Or, “I sound like a foreigner.” Literally, “I have uncircumcised lips.”

groups Or, “divisions.” This is a military term that shows Israel was organized like an army.

God Repeats His Call to Moses

<sup>2</sup>In the land of Egypt God spoke to Moses. <sup>3</sup>He said, "I am the Lord. Tell the king of Egypt everything that I tell you."

7 The Lord said to Moses, "I will be with you. You will be like a great king* to Pharaoh. And Aaron will be your official speaker.* <sup>2</sup>Tell Aaron everything that I command you. Then he will tell the king the things I say. And Pharaoh will let the people of Israel leave this country. <sup>3</sup>But I will make Pharaoh stubborn. He will not obey the things you tell him. Then I will do many amazing proofs in Egypt. But he will still refuse to listen. <sup>4</sup>So then I will punish Egypt in a very bad way. And I will lead my people out of that land. <sup>5</sup>Then the people of Egypt will know that I am the Lord. I will be against them, and they will know that I am the Lord. Then I will lead my people out of their country."

<sup>8</sup>The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "Pharaoh will ask you to prove your power. He will ask you to do a miracle. Tell Aaron to throw his walking stick on the ground. While Pharaoh is watching, the stick will become a snake."

Moses' Walking Stick Becomes a Snake

<sup>10</sup>So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and obeyed the Lord. Aaron threw his walking stick down. While Pharaoh and his officers watched, the stick became a snake.

<sup>11</sup>So the king called his wise men and his magicians. And these men used their tricks and they were able to do the same thing as Aaron. <sup>12</sup>They threw their walking sticks on the ground, and their sticks became snakes. But then Aaron's walking stick ate theirs. <sup>13</sup>Pharaoh still refused to let the people go. This happened like the Lord said it would. The king refused to listen to Moses and Aaron.

The Water Becomes Blood

<sup>14</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Pharaoh is being stubborn. Pharaoh refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup>In the morning Pharaoh will go out to the river. Go to him by the edge of the Nile River. Take with you the walking stick that became a snake. <sup>16</sup>Tell him this: 'The Lord, the God of the Hebrew* people, sent me to you. The Lord told me to tell you to let his people go worship him in the desert. Until now you have not listened to the Lord. <sup>17</sup>So the Lord says that this is how you will know that he is the Lord: I will hit the water of the Nile River with this walking stick in my hand, and the river will change into blood. <sup>18</sup>Then the fish in the river will die, and the river will begin to stink. And the Egyptians will not be able to drink the water from the river.'"

<sup>19</sup>The Lord said to Moses: "Tell Aaron to stretch the walking stick in his hand over the rivers, canals, lakes and every place where they store water. When he does this, all the water will change into blood. All of the water, even the water stored in wood and stone jars, will change into blood."

<sup>22</sup>The magicians used their tricks and did the same thing. So Pharaoh refused to listen to Moses and Aaron. This happened just like the Lord had said. <sup>23</sup>Pharaoh turned and went into his house. Pharaoh ignored what Moses and Aaron had done.

The Frogs

8 Then the Lord told Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and tell him that the Lord says, ‘Let my people go to worship me! <sup>2</sup>If you refuse to let my people go, then I will fill Egypt with frogs. <sup>3</sup>The Nile River will be filled with frogs. They will come from the river and enter your houses. They will be in your bedrooms, and they will be in your beds. The frogs will be in the houses of your officials and in your ovens and in your jars of water. ‘The frogs will be all over you, your people, and your officials.’”

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, “Tell Aaron to raise the walking stick in his hand over the canals, rivers, and lakes. Then the frogs will come out onto the land of Egypt.”

<sup>6</sup>The magicians used their tricks to do the same thing—so even more frogs came out onto the land of Egypt.

<sup>7</sup>Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh said, “Ask the Lord to remove the frogs from me and my people. I will let the people go to offer sacrifices* to the Lord.”

<sup>8</sup>Moses said to Pharaoh, “Tell me when you want the frogs to go away. I will pray for you, your people, and your officials. Then the frogs will leave you and your houses. The frogs will remain only in the river. When do you want the frogs to leave?”

Moses said, “It will happen as you say. In this way you will know that there is no god like the Lord our God. <sup>11</sup>The frogs will leave you, your house, your officials, and your people. The frogs will remain only in the river.”

<sup>12</sup>Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh. Moses prayed to the Lord about the frogs he had sent against Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup>And the Lord did what Moses asked. The frogs died in the houses, in the yards, and in the fields. <sup>14</sup>They began to rot, and the whole country began to stink. <sup>15</sup>Pharaoh saw that they were free of the frogs, and he again became stubborn. Pharaoh did not do what Moses and Aaron had asked him to do. This happened just like the Lord had said.

The Gnats

<sup>16</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, “Tell Aaron to raise his stick and hit the dust on the ground, and everywhere in Egypt the dust will become gnats.”

<sup>17</sup>They did this. Aaron raised the stick in his hand and hit the dust on the ground, and everywhere in Egypt the dust became gnats. The gnats were on the animals and the people.

<sup>18</sup>The magicians used their tricks and tried to do the same thing. But the magicians could not make gnats come from the dust. The gnats remained on the animals and the people. <sup>19</sup>So the magicians told Pharaoh that the power of God did this. But Pharaoh refused to listen to them. This happened just like the Lord had said.

The Flies

<sup>20</sup>The Lord said to Moses, “Get up in the morning and go to Pharaoh. Pharaoh will go out to the river. Tell him that the Lord says, ‘Let my people go and worship me! <sup>21</sup>If you don’t let my people go, then flies will come into your houses. The flies will be on you and your officials. The houses of Egypt will be full of flies. The flies will be all over the ground too! <sup>22</sup>But I will not treat the people of Israel the same as the Egyptian people. There will not be any flies in Goshen, where my people live. In this way you will know that I, the Lord, am in this land. <sup>23</sup>So tomorrow I will treat my people differently from your people. That will be my proof.”

<sup>24</sup>So the Lord did as he said. Many, many flies came into Egypt. The flies were in Pharaoh’s house, and they were in all his officials’ houses. The flies were all over Egypt. The flies were ruining the country. <sup>25</sup>So Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh told them, “Offer sacrifices* to your God here in this country.”

<sup>26</sup>But Moses said, “It would not be right to do that. The Egyptians think that it is a terrible thing to offer sacrifices* to the Lord our God. If we do this so that the Egyptians can see us, then the Egyptians will throw stones at us and kill us. <sup>27</sup>Let us go three days into the desert and offer sacrifices* to the Lord our God. This is what the Lord told us to do.”

<sup>28</sup>So Pharaoh said, “I will let you go and offer sacrifices* to the Lord your God in the desert. But, you must not go any farther than a three day trip. Now, go and pray for me.”

<sup>29</sup>Moses said, “Look, I will leave and ask the Lord to remove the flies from you, your people, and your officials tomorrow. But you must not stop the people from offering sacrifices* to the Lord.”

The Disease of the Farm Animals

9 Then the Lord told Moses to go to Pharaoh and tell him: “The Lord, the God of the Hebrew* people, says, ‘Let my people go to worship me!’ <sup>2</sup>If you continue to hold them and refuse to let them go, <sup>3</sup>then the Lord will use his power against your animals in the fields. The Lord will cause all of your horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, and sheep to become sick with a terrible disease. ‘The Lord will treat Israel’s animals differently from the animals of Egypt. None of the animals that belong to the people of Israel will die. <sup>4</sup>The Lord has set the time for this to happen. Tomorrow the Lord will cause this to happen in this country.’”

<sup>5</sup>The next morning, all the farm animals in Egypt died. But none of the animals that belonged to the people of Israel died. <sup>6</sup>Pharaoh sent people to see if any of the animals of Israel died. And not one of the animals of Israel died. Pharaoh remained stubborn. He did not let the people go.

The Boils

<sup>8</sup>The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, “Fill your hands with the ashes from an oven. Moses, throw the ashes into the air in front of Pharaoh. <sup>9</sup>This will become dust that will go throughout the land of Egypt. Whenever the dust touches a person or an animal in Egypt, boils (sores) will break out on the skin.”

<sup>10</sup>So Moses and Aaron took ashes from a furnace. Then they went and stood before Pharaoh. They threw the ashes into the air, and boils began breaking out on people and animals. <sup>11</sup>The magicians could not stop Moses from doing this, because even the magicians had the boils. This happened everywhere in Egypt. <sup>12</sup>But the Lord made Pharaoh stubborn. So Pharaoh refused to listen to Moses and Aaron. This happened just like the Lord had said.

The Hail

<sup>13</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, “Get up in the morning and go to Pharaoh. Tell him that the Lord, the God of the Hebrew* people says, ‘Let my people go to worship me!’ <sup>14</sup>If you don’t do this, then I will use my full power against you, your officials, and your people. Then you will know that there is no god in the world like me. <sup>15</sup>I could use my power and cause a disease that would wipe you and your people off the earth. <sup>16</sup>But I have put you here for a reason. I have put you here so that I could show you my power. Then people all over the world will learn about me! <sup>17</sup>You are still against my people. You are not letting them go free. <sup>18</sup>So, at this time tomorrow, I will cause a very bad hailstorm. There has never been a hailstorm like this in Egypt, not since Egypt became a nation. <sup>19</sup>Now, you must put your animals in a safe place. Everything you own that is now in the fields must be put in a safe place. Why? Because any person or animal that remains in the fields will be killed. The hail

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

Hebrew Or, “Israelite.”

will fall on everything that is not gathered into your houses.”<sup>19</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Some of Pharaoh’s officials paid attention to the Lord’s message. Those men quickly put all of their animals and slaves into houses. <sup>21</sup>But other people ignored the Lord’s message. Those people lost all their slaves and animals that were in the fields.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord told Moses, “Raise your arms into the air and the hail will start falling all over Egypt. The hail will fall on all the people, animals, and plants in all the fields of Egypt.”

<sup>23</sup>So Moses raised his walking stick into the air, and the Lord caused thunder, lightning, and hail to fall to earth. The hail fell all over Egypt. <sup>24</sup>There was hail, and there was lightning flashing in the hail. This was the worst hailstorm that had ever hit Egypt since the time that Egypt had become a nation. <sup>25</sup>The storm destroyed everything that was in the fields in Egypt. The hail destroyed people, animals, and plants. The hail also broke all the trees in the fields. <sup>26</sup>The only place that did not get hail was the land of Goshen, where the people of Israel lived.

<sup>27</sup>Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh told them, “This time I have sinned. The Lord is right, and I and my people are wrong. <sup>28</sup>The hail and thunder from God are too much! Ask God to stop the storm and I will let you go. You don’t have to stay here.”

<sup>29</sup>Moses told Pharaoh, “When I leave the city, I will spread my arms before the Lord in prayer. And the thunder and hail will stop. Then you will know that the Lord is in this land. <sup>30</sup>But I know that you and your officials don’t yet fear the Lord.”

<sup>31</sup>The flax had already developed its seeds. And the barley was already blooming. So these plants were destroyed. <sup>32</sup>But the wheat and spelt ripen later than the other grains. So these plants were not destroyed.

<sup>33</sup>Moses left Pharaoh and went outside the city. He spread his arms before the Lord, and the thunder and hail stopped. The rain also stopped falling to the ground.

<sup>34</sup>When Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail, and thunder had stopped, he again did wrong. He and his officials became stubborn again. <sup>35</sup>Pharaoh refused to let the people of Israel go free. This happened just like the Lord had said through Moses.

The Locusts

10 The Lord said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh. I have made him and his officials stubborn. I did this so I could show them my powerful miracles. <sup>2</sup>I also did this so you could tell your children and your grandchildren about the miracles and other wonderful things that I have done in Egypt. Then all of you will know that I am the Lord.”

<sup>3</sup>So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh. They told him, “The Lord, the God of the Hebrew* people, says, ‘How long will you refuse to obey me? Let my people go to worship me! If you refuse to let my people go, then tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country. <sup>4</sup>The locusts will cover the land. There will be so many locusts that you won’t be able to see the ground. Anything that was left from the hailstorm will be eaten by the locusts. The locusts will eat all the leaves from the trees in the field. <sup>5</sup>The locusts will fill all your houses, and all your officials’ houses, and all the houses in Egypt. There will be more locusts than your fathers or your grandfathers ever saw. There will be more locusts than there have ever been since people began living in Egypt.’” Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh.

<sup>6</sup>Pharaoh’s officials asked him, “How long will we be trapped by these people. Let the men go to worship the Lord their God. If you don’t let them go, then Egypt will be destroyed before you know it.”

<sup>7</sup>So Pharaoh told his officials to bring Moses and Aaron back to him. Pharaoh said to them, “Go and worship the Lord your God. But tell me, exactly who is going?”

<sup>8</sup>Moses answered, “Our young people and our old people will go. We will also take our sons and daughters and our sheep and cows with us. We will all go because this is the Lord’s feast for us.”

<sup>10</sup>Pharaoh said to them, “The Lord really will have to be with you before I let you and all of your children leave Egypt. Look, you are planning something bad. <sup>11</sup>The men can go worship the Lord. That is what you asked for. But all of your people can’t go.” Then Pharaoh sent Moses and Aaron away.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord told Moses, “Raise your arm over the land of Egypt and the locusts will come! The locusts will spread all over the land of Egypt. The locusts will eat all the plants that the hail did not destroy.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses raised his walking stick over the land of Egypt, and the Lord caused a strong wind to blow from the east. The wind blew all that day and night. When morning came, the wind had brought the locusts to the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup>The locusts flew into the country of Egypt and landed on the ground. There were more locusts than there had ever been in Egypt. And there will never again be that many locusts there. <sup>15</sup>The locusts covered the ground, and the whole country became dark. The locusts ate every plant on the ground and every fruit in the trees that the hail had not destroyed. There were not any leaves left on any of the trees or plants anywhere in Egypt.

<sup>16</sup>Pharaoh quickly called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh said, “I have sinned against the Lord your God and against you. <sup>17</sup>Now, forgive my sins this time. Ask the Lord to remove this ‘death’ (locusts) from me.”

The Darkness

<sup>21</sup>Then the Lord told Moses, “Raise your arm into the air and darkness will cover Egypt. It will be so dark you can feel it!”

<sup>22</sup>So Moses raised his arm into the air and a cloud of darkness covered Egypt. The darkness remained in Egypt for three days. <sup>23</sup>No one could see anyone else. And no one got up and went any place for three days. But there was light in all the places where the people of Israel lived.

<sup>24</sup>Again Pharaoh called for Moses. Pharaoh said, “Go and worship the Lord! You can take your children with you. But you must leave your sheep and cattle here.”

<sup>25</sup>Moses said, “Not only will we take our sheep and cattle with us, but when we leave, even you will give us offerings and sacrifices.* And we will use these sacrifices to worship the Lord our God! <sup>26</sup>We will take our animals with us to worship the Lord. Not one hoof* will be left behind. We don’t know yet exactly what we will need to worship the Lord. We will learn that only when we get to the place we are going to. So we must take all of these things with us.”

<sup>27</sup>The Lord made Pharaoh stubborn again. So Pharaoh refused to let them go. <sup>28</sup>Then Pharaoh told Moses, “Get out of here! I don’t want you to come here again! The next time you come to see me, you will die!”

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses told Pharaoh, “You are right about one thing. I will not come to see you again!”

The Death of the Firstborn

11 Then the Lord told Moses, “I have one more disaster to bring against Pharaoh and Egypt. After this, he will send you people away from Egypt. In fact, he will force you to leave this country. <sup>2</sup>You must tell this message to the people of Israel: ‘You men and women should ask your neighbors to give you things made of silver and gold. <sup>3</sup>The Lord will cause the Egyptians to be kind to you. The Egyptian people, even Pharaoh’s officials, already consider Moses to be a great man.’”

<sup>4</sup>Moses said to the people, “The Lord says, ‘At midnight tonight, I will go through Egypt, and every firstborn* son in Egypt will die, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh (the ruler of

Egypt) to the firstborn son of the slave girl grinding grain. Also the firstborn animals will die. <sup>6</sup>The crying in Egypt will be worse than any time in the past. And it will be worse than any time in the future. <sup>7</sup>But none of the people of Israel will be hurt—not even a dog will bark at them. None of the people or animals of Israel will be hurt. In this way you will know that I have treated Israel differently from Egypt. <sup>8</sup>Then all of these slaves of yours (the Egyptians) will bow down and worship me. They will say, “Leave and take all your people with you.” Then, in anger I will leave Pharaoh.’”

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord told Moses, “Pharaoh did not listen to you. Why? So that I could show my great power in Egypt.” <sup>10</sup>That is why Moses and Aaron did all these great miracles in front of Pharaoh. And that is why the Lord made Pharaoh so stubborn that he would not let the people of Israel leave his country.

Passover

12 While Moses and Aaron were still in Egypt, the Lord spoke to them. The Lord said, <sup>2</sup>“This month* will be the first month of the year for you. <sup>3</sup>This command is for the whole community of Israel: On the tenth day of this month each person must get one lamb for the people in his house. <sup>4</sup>If there are not enough people in his house to eat a whole lamb, then he should invite some of his neighbors to share the meal. There must be enough lamb for everyone to eat. <sup>5</sup>The lamb must be a one-year-old male, and it must be completely healthy. This animal can be either a young sheep or a young goat. <sup>6</sup>You should watch over the animal until the 14th day of the month. On that day, all the people of the community of Israel must kill these animals at twilight.* <sup>7</sup>You must collect the blood from these animals. Put the blood on the top and sides of the door frames of the houses where the people eat this meal.

month That is, the month of Abib (Nisan). This was about the middle of March to the middle of April.

twilight The time after the sun goes down, but before dark.

<sup>8</sup>“On this night, you must roast the lamb and eat all of the meat. You must also eat bitter herbs and bread made without yeast. <sup>9</sup>You must not boil the lamb in water. You must roast the whole lamb over a fire. The lamb must still have its head, legs, and inner parts. <sup>10</sup>You must eat all of the meat that night. If any of the meat is left until morning, then you must burn that meat in the fire.

<sup>12</sup>“Tonight I will go through Egypt and kill every firstborn* in Egypt. I will kill all the firstborn animals and people. I will judge all the gods of Egypt. I will show that I am the Lord. <sup>13</sup>But the blood on your houses will be a special sign. When I see the blood, I will pass over* your house. I will cause bad things to happen to the people of Egypt. But none of those bad diseases will hurt you.

<sup>14</sup>“So you will always remember tonight—it will be a special holiday for you. Your descendants* will honor the Lord with this holiday forever. <sup>15</sup>On this holiday, you will eat bread made without yeast for seven days. On the first day of this holiday, you will remove all the yeast from your houses. No one should eat any yeast for the full seven days of this holiday. If anyone eats yeast, then you must separate that person from the rest of Israel. <sup>16</sup>There will be holy assemblies on the first and last days of the holiday. You must not do any work on these days. The only work you can do on these days is prepare the food for your meals. <sup>17</sup>You must remember the Festival of Unleavened Bread.* Why? Because on this very day I took

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

pass over Or, “protect.”

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

Unleavened Bread Bread made without yeast.

all of your groups of people out of Egypt. So, all of your descendants* must remember this day. This is a law that will last forever. <sup>18</sup>So, on the evening of the 14th day of the first month (Nisan) you will begin eating bread without yeast. You will eat this bread until the evening of the 21st day of the same month. <sup>19</sup>For seven days there must not be any yeast in your houses. Any person, either a citizen of Israel or a foreigner, who eats yeast at this time must be separated from the rest of Israel. <sup>20</sup>On this holiday, you must not eat yeast. You must eat bread without yeast wherever you live."

<sup>21</sup>So Moses called all the elders (leaders) together. Moses told them, "Get the lambs for your families. Kill the lambs for the Passover. <sup>22</sup>Take bunches of hyssop* and dip them in the bowl filled with blood. Paint the blood on the sides and tops of the door frames. No one must leave their house until morning. <sup>23</sup>At the time the Lord goes through Egypt to kill the firstborn, the Lord will see the blood on the sides and tops of the door frames. Then the Lord will protect* that house. The Lord will not let the Destroyer come into your houses and hurt you. <sup>24</sup>You must remember this command. This law is for you and your descendants* forever. <sup>25</sup>You must remember to do this even when you go to the land the Lord will give to you. <sup>26</sup>When your children ask you, 'Why are we doing this ceremony?' <sup>27</sup>you will say, 'This Passover is to honor the Lord. Why? Because when we were in Egypt, the Lord passed over* the houses of Israel. The Lord killed the Egyptians, but he saved the people in our houses. So now the people bow down and worship the Lord.'"

Pharaoh (who ruled Egypt) to the firstborn of the prisoner sitting in jail. Also all the firstborn animals died. <sup>30</sup>That night someone died in every house in Egypt. Pharaoh, his officials, and all the people of Egypt began crying very loudly.

Israel Leaves Egypt

<sup>31</sup>So that night, Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh said to them, "Get up and leave my people. You and your people can do as you said. Go and worship the Lord. <sup>32</sup>And you can take all of your sheep and cattle with you, like you said you would. Go! And bless me too!" <sup>33</sup>The people of Egypt also asked them to hurry and leave. Why? Because they said, "If you don't leave, we will all die!"

<sup>34</sup>The people of Israel did not have time to put the yeast in their bread. They just wrapped the bowls of dough with cloth and carried them on their shoulders. <sup>35</sup>Then the people of Israel did what Moses asked them to do. They went to their Egyptian neighbors and asked for clothing and for things made from silver and gold. <sup>36</sup>The Lord caused the Egyptians to be kind to the people of Israel. So the Egyptians gave their riches to the people of Israel.

day, all the armies of the Lord* left Egypt. <sup>42</sup>So that is a very special night when the people remember what the Lord did. All the people of Israel will remember that night forever.

<sup>50</sup>So all the people of Israel obeyed the commands that the Lord gave to Moses and Aaron. <sup>51</sup>So on that same day, the Lord led all the people of Israel out of the country of Egypt. The people left in groups.*

13 Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>21</sup>"Every firstborn* Israelite boy will belong to me. Every woman's first baby will be mine. You must also give to me every firstborn male animal."

<sup>3</sup>Moses said to the people, "Remember this day. You were slaves in Egypt. But on this day the Lord used his great power and made you free. You must not eat bread with yeast.

<sup>6</sup>"For seven days you must eat only bread that has no yeast. On the seventh day there will be a great feast. This feast will show honor to the Lord. <sup>7</sup>So for seven days you must not eat any bread made with yeast. There must be no bread with yeast any place in your land. <sup>8</sup>On this day, you should tell your children, 'We are having this feast because the Lord took me out of Egypt.'

<sup>9</sup>"This holiday will help you remember—it will be like a string tied on your hand. It will be like a sign before your eyes.* This holiday will help you remember the Lord's teachings. It will help you remember that the Lord used his great power to take you out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>So remember this holiday every year at the right time.

<sup>11</sup>"The Lord will lead you into the land he promised to give you. The Canaanite people now live there. But God promised your ancestors* that he would give you this land. After God gives you this land, <sup>12</sup>you must remember to give him every firstborn boy. And every male animal that is the firstborn must be given to the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Every firstborn donkey can be bought back from the Lord. You can offer a lamb and keep the donkey. If you don't want to buy the donkey from the Lord, then kill it. It

filled with many good things Literally, "flowing with milk and honey."

string ... eyes Literally, "a mark on your hands and a reminder between your eyes." This might refer to the special things a Jewish man ties to his arm and forehead to help him remember God's laws for him.

armies of the Lord The people of Israel.

circumcise(d) To have the foreskin cut off. This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9-14.

groups Or, "divisions." This is a military term, and it shows the people were organized as the "army of the Lord."

will be a sacrifice*—you must break its neck. Every firstborn baby boy* must be bought back from the Lord.

<sup>14</sup>In the future, your children will ask why you do this. They will say, ‘What does all this mean?’ And you will answer, ‘The Lord used his great power to save us from Egypt. We were slaves in that place. But the Lord led us out and brought us here. <sup>15</sup>In Egypt, Pharaoh was stubborn. He refused to let us leave. But the Lord killed every firstborn* in all the land. (The Lord killed the firstborn animals and the firstborn sons.*) So that is why I give every firstborn male animal to the Lord. And that is why I buy back each of my firstborn sons* from the Lord.’ <sup>16</sup>This is like a string tied on your hand. And it is like a sign in front of your eyes.* It helps you remember that the Lord brought us out of Egypt with his great power.”

The Trip out of Egypt

<sup>17</sup>Pharaoh made the people leave Egypt. The Lord did not let the people take the road through the land of the Philistines. That road, by the sea, is the shortest way, but the Lord said, “If the people go that way, they will have to fight. Then they might change their minds and go back to Egypt.” <sup>18</sup>So the Lord led them another way. He led them through the desert by the Red Sea.* The people of Israel were dressed for war when they left Egypt.

Joseph Goes Home

<sup>19</sup>Moses carried the bones of Joseph with him. (Before Joseph died, he made the sons of Israel promise to do this for him. Joseph said, “When God saves you, remember to carry my bones with you out of Egypt.”)

baby boy Or, “baby.”

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

sons Or, “children.”

string ... eyes Literally, “a mark on your hands, a symbol on your forehead.” This might refer to the special things a Jewish man tied to his arm and forehead to help him remember God’s laws.

Red Sea Or, “Reed Sea.” See 1 Kings 9:26.

The Lord Leads His People

14 Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>“Tell the people to travel back to Pi Hahiroth. Tell them to stay the night between Migdol and the Red Sea. This is near Baal Zephon. <sup>3</sup>Pharaoh will think that the people of Israel are lost in the desert. And he will think that the people will have no place to go. <sup>4</sup>I will make Pharaoh brave, and he will chase you. But I will defeat Pharaoh and his army. This will bring honor to me. Then the people of Egypt will know that I am the Lord.” The people of Israel obeyed God—they did what he told them.

Pharaoh Chases the Israelites

<sup>5</sup>Pharaoh received a report that the people of Israel had escaped. When he heard this, he and his officials changed their minds about what they had done. Pharaoh said, “Why did we let the people of Israel leave? Why did we let them run away? Now we have lost our slaves!”

<sup>9</sup>The Egyptian army had many horse soldiers and chariots. They chased the people of Israel and came near them while they were camped near the Red Sea* at Pi Hahiroth and Baal Zephon.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

<sup>10</sup>The people of Israel saw Pharaoh and his army coming toward them. The people were very scared. They cried to the Lord for help. <sup>11</sup>They said to Moses, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt? Why did you bring us out here in the desert to die? We could have died peacefully in Egypt—there were plenty of graves in Egypt. <sup>12</sup>We told you this would happen! In Egypt we said, 'Please don't bother us. Let us stay and serve the Egyptians.' It would have been better for us to stay and be slaves than to come out here and die in the desert."

<sup>13</sup>But Moses answered, "Don't be afraid! Don't run away! Stay and watch the Lord save you today. After today you will never see these Egyptians again! <sup>14</sup>You will not have to do anything but remain calm. The Lord will be fighting for you."

<sup>15</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "You don't need to cry to me! Command the people of Israel to start moving. <sup>16</sup>Raise the walking stick in your hand over the Red Sea,* and the sea will split. Then the people can cross the sea on dry land. <sup>17</sup>I have made the Egyptians brave, so they will chase you. But I will show you that I am more powerful than Pharaoh and all of his horse soldiers and chariots. <sup>18</sup>Then Egypt will know that I am the Lord. They will honor me when I defeat Pharaoh and his horse soldiers and chariots."

<sup>21</sup>Moses raised his arm over the Red Sea,* and the Lord caused a very strong wind to blow from the east. The wind blew all night long. The sea split, and the wind made the ground dry. <sup>22</sup>The people of Israel went through the sea on dry land. The water was like a wall on their right and on their left. <sup>23</sup>Then all of Pharaoh's chariots and horse soldiers followed them into the sea. <sup>24</sup>Early that morning, the Lord looked down from the tall cloud and the column of fire at the Egyptian army. Then the Lord attacked and defeated them.

<sup>27</sup>So, just before daylight, Moses raised his hand over the sea. And the water returned to its proper level. The Egyptians were trying to run away. But the Lord swept away the Egyptians in the sea. <sup>28</sup>The water returned to its proper level and covered the chariots and horse soldiers. All of Pharaoh's army that had chased the people of Israel was destroyed. None of them survived.

<sup>29</sup>But the people of Israel crossed the sea on dry land. The water was like a wall on their right and on their left. <sup>30</sup>So that day, the Lord saved the people of Israel from the Egyptians. And the people of Israel saw the dead bodies of the Egyptians on the shore of the Red Sea.* <sup>31</sup>The people of Israel saw the great power of the Lord when he defeated the Egyptians. So the people respected the Lord. And they trusted the Lord and his servant Moses.

The Song of Moses

15 Then Moses and the people of Israel began singing this song to the Lord:

"I will sing to the Lord,
because he has done great things.
He threw horse and rider into the sea.

He saves me.

And I sing songs of praise about him.*

The Lord ... him Literally, "Yah is my strength and praise. And he becomes my salvation."

The Lord is my God, and I praise him.
The Lord is the God of my ancestors,* and I honor him.

- 3 The Lord is a great soldier.
The Lord is his name.
- 4 The Lord threw Pharaoh's chariots and soldiers into the sea.
Pharaoh's best officers drowned in the Red Sea.*
- 5 The deep water covered them.
They sank like rocks into the deep water.
- 6 "Your right arm is amazingly strong.
Lord, your right arm shattered the enemy.
- 7 In your great majesty you destroyed those who stood against you.
Your anger destroyed them, like fire burning straw.
- 8 The great wind you blew caused the water to pile high.
The fast flowing water became a solid wall.
The sea became solid even to its deepest parts.
- 9 "The enemy said,
I'll chase them and catch them.
I'll take all their riches.
I'll use my sword and take everything from them.
I'll use my hands and take everything for myself.'
- 10 But you blew on them and covered them with the sea.
They sank like lead into the deep sea.
- 11 "Are there any gods like the Lord?
No! There are no gods like you—
You are wonderfully holy!
You are amazingly powerful!
You do great miracles!
- 12 You could raise your right hand and destroy the world!

- 13 With your kindness you lead the people you have saved.
With your strength you lead these people to your holy and pleasant land.
- 14 "The other nations will hear this story, and they will be frightened.
The people of Philistia will shake with fear.
- 15 Then the families of Edom will shake with fear.
The powerful men of Moab will shake with fear.
The people of Canaan will lose their courage.
- 16 Those people will be filled with fear when they see your strength.
They will be as quiet as a rock until the Lord's people pass by, until the people you have made pass by.
- 17 You will lead your people to your mountain, to the place that you prepared for your throne.
Lord, build your temple with your hands!
- 18 May the Lord rule forever and ever!"

<sup>19</sup>Pharaoh's horses, riders, and chariots, went into the sea. And the Lord covered them with water from the sea. But the people of Israel walked through the sea on dry land.

<sup>20</sup>Then Aaron's sister, the woman prophet Miriam, took a tambourine. Miriam and the women began singing and dancing. Miriam repeated the words,

- 21 "Sing to the Lord
because he has done great things.
He threw the horse and rider into the sea . . . ."

<sup>22</sup>Moses continued to lead the people of Israel away from the Red Sea.* The people went into the Shur desert. They traveled for three days in the desert. The people could not find any water. <sup>23</sup>After three days, the people traveled to Marah. There was water at Marah, but the people could not drink it. The water was too bitter to drink. (That is why the place was named Marah.*)

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Red Sea Or, "Reed Sea." See 1 Kings 9:26.

<sup>24</sup>The people began complaining to Moses. The people said, "Now what will we drink?"

In that place, the Lord judged the people and gave them a law. The Lord also tested the faith of the people. <sup>26</sup>The Lord said, "You must obey the Lord, your God. You must do the things he says are right. If you obey all the Lord's commands and laws, then you will not be sick like the Egyptians. I, the Lord, will not give you any of the sicknesses I gave the Egyptians. I am the Lord. I am the one who makes you well."

<sup>27</sup>Then the people traveled to Elim. At Elim there were twelve springs of water. And there were 70 palm trees. So the people made their camp there near the water.

16 Then the people traveled from Elim and came to the Sinai desert. This place was between Elim and Sinai. They came to this place on the 15th day of the second month* after leaving Egypt. <sup>2</sup>Then the people of Israel began complaining again. They complained to Moses and Aaron in the desert. <sup>3</sup>The people said, "It would be better for us if the Lord had killed us in the land of Egypt. In Egypt we had plenty to eat. We had all the food we needed. But now you have brought us into this desert. All of us will die of hunger here."

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "I will cause food to fall from the sky. This food will be for you to eat. Every day the people should go out and gather the food they need to eat that day. I will do this to see if the people will do what I tell them. <sup>5</sup>Every day the people should gather enough food for one day. But on Friday, when the people prepare their food, they will see that they have enough food for two days.*

<sup>6</sup>So Moses and Aaron said to the people of Israel, "Tonight you will see the power of the Lord. You will know that he is the one who saved you from the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>Tomorrow morning you will see the Glory of the Lord. You complained to the Lord. He heard you, and he will help you. You have been complaining and complaining to us. Maybe now we can have a little rest."

<sup>8</sup>And Moses said, "You have been complaining, and the Lord has heard your complaints. So at night the Lord will give you meat. And every morning you will have all the bread you need. You have been complaining to Aaron and me. But now we will have a little rest. Remember, you are not complaining against Aaron and me. You are complaining against the Lord."

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, "Speak to the people of Israel. Say to them, 'Come together before the Lord, because he has heard your complaints.'"

<sup>10</sup>Aaron spoke to all the people of Israel. They were all gathered together in one place. While Aaron was talking, all the people turned and looked into the desert. And they saw the Glory of the Lord appear in a cloud.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>"I have heard the complaints of the people of Israel. So tell them, 'At night you will eat meat. And every morning you will eat all the bread you want. Then you will know you can trust the Lord, your God.'"

15th ... month That is, the 15th of Iyyar. The people of Israel had been traveling for a month.

Friday ... days This happened so that the people would not have to work on the Sabbath (Saturday), the day of rest.

What is that? In Hebrew this question sounds like the word "manna."

8 cups Literally, "1 omer."

<sup>17</sup>So the people of Israel did this. Each person gathered this food. Some people gathered more than others. <sup>18</sup>The people gave the food to everyone in their family. After the food was measured, there was always enough for every person, but there was never too much. Each person gathered just enough for himself and his family to eat.

<sup>19</sup>Moses told them, "Don't save that food to eat the next day." <sup>20</sup>But the people did not obey Moses. Some people saved their food so that they could eat it the next day. And the food that was saved became full of worms and began to stink. Moses was angry with the people who did this.

<sup>21</sup>Every morning the people gathered the food. Each person gathered as much as he could eat. But when the sun became hot, the food melted and it was gone.

<sup>22</sup>On Friday, the people gathered twice as much food. They gathered 16 cups* for every person. So all the leaders of the people came and told this to Moses.

<sup>23</sup>Moses told them, "This is what the Lord said would happen. It happened because tomorrow is the Sabbath, the special day of rest to honor the Lord. You can cook all the food you need to cook for today. But save the rest of this food for tomorrow morning."

<sup>24</sup>So the people saved the rest of the food for the next day. And none of the food spoiled. And worms did not get into any of it.

<sup>25</sup>On Saturday, Moses told the people, "Today is the Sabbath, the special day of rest to honor the Lord. So none of you should be out in the fields. Eat the food you gathered yesterday. <sup>26</sup>You should gather the food for six days. But the seventh day, of the week, is a day of rest—so there will not be any of the special food on the ground."

<sup>27</sup>On Saturday, some of the people went out to gather some of the food, but they could not find any. <sup>28</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "How long will you people refuse to obey my commands and teachings? <sup>29</sup>Look, the Lord has made the Sabbath a day of rest for you. So, on Friday the Lord will give you enough food for two days. Then, on the Sabbath, each of you should sit down and relax. Stay where you are."

<sup>31</sup>The people began calling the special food "manna.*" The manna was like small white coriander seeds, and it tasted like thin cakes made with honey. <sup>32</sup>Moses said, "The Lord said: 'Save 8 cups* of this food for your descendants.* Then they can see the food that I gave to you in the desert when I took you out of Egypt.'"

17 All the people of Israel traveled together from the desert of Sin. They traveled from place to place as the Lord commanded. The people traveled to Rephidim and camped there. There was no water there for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup>So the people turned against Moses and started arguing with him. The people said, "Give us water to drink."

Moses said to them, "Why have you turned against me? Why are you testing the Lord? (Do you think the Lord is not with us?)"

<sup>3</sup>But the people were very thirsty for water. So they continued complaining to Moses. The people said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt? Did you bring us out here so that we, our children, and our cattle will all die without water?"

manna This word is like the Hebrew words meaning "What is that?"

8 cups Literally, "1 omer."

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The two stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and Israel.

about 8 cups Literally, "1/10 of an Ephah."

<sup>5</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "Go before the people of Israel. Take some of the elders (leaders) of the people with you. Carry your walking stick with you. This is the stick that you used when you hit the Nile River. <sup>6</sup>I will stand before you on a rock at Horeb (Mount Sinai). Hit that rock with the walking stick and water will come out of it. Then the people can drink."

Moses did these things and the elders (leaders) of Israel saw it. <sup>7</sup>Moses named that place Meribah* and Massah,* because this was the place that the people of Israel turned against him and tested the Lord. The people wanted to know if the Lord was with them or not.

<sup>8</sup>At Rephidim the Amalekite people came and fought against the people of Israel. <sup>9</sup>So Moses said to Joshua, "Choose some men and go and fight the Amalekites tomorrow. I will stand on the top of the hill and watch you. I will be holding the walking stick God gave me."

<sup>10</sup>Joshua obeyed Moses and went to fight the Amalekite people the next day. At the same time, Moses, Aaron, and Hur went to the top of the hill. <sup>11</sup>Any time Moses held his hands in the air, the men of Israel would win the fight. But when Moses put his hands down, the men of Israel began to lose the fight.

<sup>12</sup>After some time, Moses' arms became tired. The men with Moses wanted to find a way to keep Moses' hands in the air. So they put a large rock under Moses for him to sit on. Then Aaron and Hur held Moses' hands in the air. Aaron was on one side of Moses and Hur was on the other side. They held his hands up like this until the sun went down. <sup>13</sup>So Joshua and his men, defeated the Amalekites in this battle.

<sup>14</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Write about this battle. Write these things in a book so people will remember what happened here. And be sure to tell Joshua that I will completely destroy the Amalekite people from the earth."

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses built an altar.* Moses named the altar, "The Lord is my flag." <sup>16</sup>Moses said, "I lifted my hands toward the Lord's throne. So the Lord fought against the Amalekites, like he always has."

18 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, was a priest in Midian. Jethro heard about the many ways that God helped Moses and the people of Israel. Jethro heard about the Lord leading the people of Israel out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>So Jethro went to Moses while Moses was camped near the mountain of God.* Jethro brought Moses' wife, Zipporah, with him. (Zipporah was not with Moses, because Moses had sent her home.) <sup>3</sup>Jethro also brought Moses' two sons with him. The first son was named Gershom,* because when he was born, Moses said, "I am a stranger in a foreign country." <sup>4</sup>The other son was named Eliezer,* because when he was born, Moses said, "The God of my father helped me and saved me from the king of Egypt." <sup>5</sup>So Jethro went to Moses while Moses was camped in the desert near the mountain of God (Mount Sinai). Moses' wife and his two sons were with Jethro.

<sup>6</sup>Jethro sent a message to Moses. Jethro said, "I am Jethro, your father-in-law. I am bringing your wife and her two sons to you."

<sup>7</sup>So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law. Moses bowed down before him and kissed him. The two men asked about each other's health. Then they went into Moses' tent to talk more. <sup>8</sup>Moses told Jethro everything the Lord had done for the people of Israel. Moses told about the things the Lord did to Pharaoh and the people of Egypt. Moses told about all the problems they had along the way. And Moses told his father-in-law how the Lord saved the people of Israel every time there was trouble.

<sup>9</sup>Jethro was very happy when he heard all the good things the Lord had done for Israel.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

mountain of God That is, "Mount Horeb," also called "Mount Sinai."

Gershom This name is like the Hebrew words meaning "a stranger there."

Eliezer This name means "My God helps."

Meribah This name means "rebellion."

Massah This name means "trial," "temptation," or "test."

Jethro was happy because the Lord had freed the people of Israel from the Egyptians. <sup>10</sup>Jethro said, “Praise the Lord!

He made you free from the people of Egypt.

The Lord has saved you from Pharaoh.

<sup>11</sup> Now I know the Lord is greater than all gods because of the things he did to those other people—the people that thought they were better than Israel.”

<sup>12</sup>Jethro gave sacrifices* and offerings to God. Then Aaron and all the elders (leaders) of Israel came to eat with Jethro, Moses' father-in-law. They did this as a special way to worship God.

<sup>13</sup>The next day, Moses had the special job of judging the people. There were very many people, so the people had to stand before Moses all day.

<sup>14</sup>Jethro saw Moses judging the people. He asked, “Why are you doing this? Why are you the only judge? And why do people come to you all day?”

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses said to his father-in-law, “The people come to me and ask me to ask for God's decision to their problem. <sup>16</sup>If people have an argument, they come to me. I decide which person is right. In this way, I teach the people God's laws and teachings.”

<sup>17</sup>But Moses' father-in-law said to him, “This thing you are doing is not good. <sup>18</sup>This is too much work for you to do alone. It makes you tired. And it also makes the people tired. You can't do this job by yourself. <sup>19</sup>I will give you some advice. I will tell you what to do, and I pray God will be with you. [This is what you should do.] You should continue to listen to the cases of the people. And you should continue to speak to God about these things. <sup>20</sup>You should teach the people God's laws and teachings. Warn the people not to break the laws. Tell the people the right way to live. Tell them what they should do. <sup>21</sup>But you should also choose good men from among the people. You should choose men you can trust—men who respect God. Choose men who will not change their decisions for money. Make these men rulers over the people. There should be rulers over 1,000 people, 100 people, 50 people, and even over ten people. <sup>22</sup>Let these rulers judge the people. If there is a very important case, then they can come to you to decide. But they can decide the other cases themselves. In this way, it will be easier for you. Also, these men will share your work with you. <sup>23</sup>If you do these things, Lord willing, then you will be able to continue doing your job. And at the same time, all the people can go home with their problems solved.”

<sup>25</sup>Moses chose good men from among the people of Israel. Moses made them leaders over the people. There were rulers over 1,000 people, 100 people, 50 people, and ten people.

<sup>26</sup>These rulers were judges for the people. The people could always bring their arguments to these rulers. And Moses had to decide only the most important cases.

<sup>27</sup>After a short time, Moses said good-bye to his father-in-law Jethro. And Jethro went back to his own home.

19 In the third month of their trip from Egypt, the people of Israel reached the Sinai desert. <sup>2</sup>The people had left Rephidim and had come to the Sinai desert. The people of Israel camped in the desert near the mountain.* <sup>3</sup>Then Moses went up on the mountain to God. While Moses was on the mountain, God said to him, “Tell these things to the people of Israel, the great family of Jacob: “You people have seen the things I do to my enemies. You saw what I did to the people of Egypt. You saw that I carried you out of Egypt like an eagle* and brought you here to me. <sup>5</sup>So now I tell you to obey my words. Keep my Agreement. If you do this, then you will be my own special people.

the mountain Mount Horeb (Sinai).

eagle These large birds will often carry their young to a place of safety.

The whole world belongs to me. But I will choose you from all of them. And you will be my own special people. <sup>6</sup>You will be a special nation—a kingdom of priests.’ Moses, you must tell the people of Israel these things I have said.”

<sup>7</sup>So Moses came down from the mountain and called the elders (rulers) of the people together. Moses told the elders all the things the Lord commanded him to tell them. <sup>8</sup>And all the people spoke together. They said, “We will obey everything the Lord says.”

Then Moses went back to God on the mountain. Moses told God that the people would obey him. <sup>9</sup>And the Lord said to Moses, “I will come to you in the thick cloud. I will speak to you. All of the people will hear me talking to you. I will do this so that the people will always believe the things you tell them.”

Then Moses told God all the things the people had said.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord said to Moses, “Today and tomorrow you must prepare the people for a special meeting. The people must wash their clothes <sup>11</sup>and be ready for me on the third day. On the third day the Lord will come down to Mount Sinai. And all the people will see me. <sup>12</sup><sup>13</sup>But you must tell the people to stay away from the mountain. Make a line and don’t allow the people to cross the line. If any person or animal touches the mountain, then he must be killed. He must be killed with rocks or shot with arrows. But no one is allowed to touch him. The people must wait until the trumpet blows. At that time they will be allowed to go up the mountain.”

<sup>14</sup>So Moses went down from the mountain. He went to the people and prepared them for the special meeting. The people washed their clothes.

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses said to the people, “Be ready for the meeting with God in three days. Until that time, the men must not touch the women.”

<sup>16</sup>Three mornings later, there was thunder and lightning on the mountain. A thick cloud came down on the mountain, and there was a very loud sound from a trumpet. All the people in the camp were frightened. <sup>17</sup>Then Moses led the people out of the camp to a place near the mountain to meet God. <sup>18</sup>Mount Sinai was covered with smoke. Smoke rose off the mountain like smoke from a furnace. This happened because the Lord came down to the mountain in fire. Also, the whole mountain began to shake. <sup>19</sup>The noise from the trumpet became louder and louder. Every time Moses spoke to God, God answered him with a voice like thunder.

<sup>20</sup>So the Lord came down to Mount Sinai. The Lord came from heaven to the top of the mountain. Then the Lord called Moses to come up to the top of the mountain with him. So Moses went up the mountain.

<sup>21</sup>The Lord said to Moses, “Go down and warn the people not to come near me and look at me. If they do this, then many people will die. <sup>22</sup>Also tell the priests who will come near me that they must prepare themselves for this special meeting. If they don’t do this, then I will punish them.”

<sup>23</sup>Moses told the Lord, “But the people cannot come up the mountain. You yourself told us to make a line and not allow the people to cross the line to holy ground.”

<sup>24</sup>The Lord said to him, “Go down to the people and get Aaron. Bring him back with you. But don’t allow the priests or the people to come. If they come near me, then I will punish them.”

<sup>25</sup>So Moses went down to the people and told them these things.

The Ten Commandments

20 Then God said, <sup>21</sup>“I am the Lord* your God. I led you out of the land of Egypt where you were slaves. (So you must obey these commands;)

<sup>22</sup>“You must not worship any other gods except me.

<sup>23</sup>“You must not make any idols.* Don’t make any statues or pictures of anything up in the sky or of anything on the earth

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

or of anything down in the water. <sup>3</sup>Don't worship or serve idols of any kind. Why? Because I, the Lord, am your God. I hate my people worshipping other gods.* People that sin against me become my enemies. And I will punish those people. And I will punish their children, their grandchildren, and even their great-grandchildren. <sup>4</sup>But I will be very kind to people that love me and obey my commands. I will be kind to their families for thousands of generations!*

<sup>7</sup>"You must not use the name of the Lord your God in a wrong way. If a person uses the Lord's name in a wrong way, then that person is guilty. And the Lord will not make him innocent.

<sup>8</sup>"You must remember to keep the Sabbath* a special day. <sup>9</sup>Work at your job six days a week. <sup>10</sup>But the seventh day is a day of rest in honor of the Lord your God. So on that day no person should work—not you, your sons and daughters, or your men and women slaves. Even your animals and the foreigners living in your cities must not work! <sup>11</sup>Why? Because the Lord worked six days and made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything in them. And on the seventh day, God rested. In this way, the Lord blessed the Sabbath—the day of rest. The Lord made that a very special day.

<sup>12</sup>"You must honor (respect) your father and your mother. Do this so you will have a full life in the land that the Lord your God gives you.

<sup>17</sup>"You must not want to take your neighbor's house. You must not want his wife. And you must not want his men and women servants, or his cows, or his donkeys. You must not want to take anything that belongs to another person!"

The People Are Afraid of God

<sup>18</sup>During all this time, the people in the valley heard the thundering and saw the lightning on the mountain. They saw smoke rising from the mountain. The people were afraid, and they shook with fear. They stood away from the mountain and watched. <sup>19</sup>Then the people said to Moses, "If you want to speak to us, then we will listen. But please don't let God speak to us. If this happens, we will die."

<sup>20</sup>Then Moses said to the people, "Don't be afraid! The Lord has come to prove that he loves you. He wants you to respect him so that you will not sin."

<sup>21</sup>The people stood away from the mountain while Moses went to the dark cloud where God was. <sup>22</sup>Then the Lord told Moses to say these things to the people of Israel: "You people have seen that I talked with you from heaven. <sup>23</sup>So you must not make idols using gold or silver to compete with me. You must not make these false gods.

<sup>24</sup>"Make a special altar* for me. Use dirt to make this altar. Offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on this altar as a sacrifice* to me. Use your sheep and your cattle to do this. Do this in every place where I tell you to remember me. Then I will come and bless you. <sup>25</sup>If you use rocks to make an altar, then don't use rocks that you have made smooth with tools. If you use any tools on the rocks, then I will not accept the altar. <sup>26</sup>And you must not make steps leading up to the altar. If there are steps, then when people look up to the altar, they will be able to see under your clothes.”

21 Then God said to Moses, “These are the other laws that you will give to the people:

<sup>21</sup>“If you buy a Hebrew* slave, then that slave will serve for only six years. After six years he will become free. He will have to pay nothing. <sup>22</sup>If the person is not married when he becomes your slave, then when he becomes free, he will leave without a wife. But if the man is married when he becomes your slave, then he will keep his wife at the time he is made free. <sup>23</sup>If the slave is not married, the master can give him a wife. If that wife gives birth to sons or daughters, then she and her children will belong to the master. After the slave is finished with his years of service, then he will be made free.

<sup>24</sup>“But maybe the slave will decide that he wants to stay with the master. Then he must say, ‘I love my master. I love my wife and my children. I will not become free—I will stay.’ <sup>25</sup>If this happens, then the master will bring the slave before God. The master will take the slave to a door or the wooden frame around the door. And the master will make a hole through the slave’s ear using a sharp tool. Then the slave will serve that master for all his life.

<sup>29</sup>“If the master marries another woman, then he must not give less food or clothing to the first wife. And he must continue to give her the things she has a right to have in marriage.

<sup>30</sup>The man must do these three things for her. If he does not, then the woman is made free, and it will cost her nothing. She owes no money to the man.

<sup>31</sup>“If a person hits someone and kills him, then that person must be killed too. <sup>32</sup>But if an accident happens, and a person kills someone without planning it, then God allowed that thing to happen. I will choose some special places where people can run for safety. So that person can run to one of those places. <sup>33</sup>But if a person planned to kill another person because he is angry or hates him, then that killer must be punished. Take him away from my altar* and kill him.

<sup>35</sup>“If a person steals someone to sell him as a slave or to keep him for his own slave, then that person must be killed.

<sup>37</sup>“Two men might argue and one might hit the other with a rock or with his fist. How should you punish that man? If the man who was hurt is not killed, then the man who hurt him should not be killed. <sup>38</sup>If the man was hurt and must stay in bed for some time, then the man who hurt him must support him. The man who hurt him must pay for the loss of his time. The man must support him until he is completely healed.

<sup>41</sup>“Two men might be fighting and they might hurt a pregnant woman. This might make altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices. It was one of the special places an innocent person could run for safety.

curse To curse someone is to ask for bad things to happen to them.

punished Or, “punished for murder.”

the woman give birth to her baby before its time. If the woman was not hurt badly, then the man who hurt her must pay a fine. The woman's husband will decide how much the man must pay. The judges will help the man decide how much the fine will be. <sup>22</sup>But if the woman was hurt badly, then the man who hurt her must be punished. If a person is killed, then the person who caused it must be killed. You must trade one life for another life. <sup>24</sup>You must trade an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot, <sup>25</sup>a burn for a burn, a bruise for a bruise, a cut for a cut.

<sup>28</sup>"If a man's bull kills a man or woman, then you should use rocks and kill that bull. You should not eat the bull. But the owner of the bull is not guilty. <sup>29</sup>But if the bull had hurt people in the past, and if the owner was warned, then the owner is guilty. Why? Because he did not keep the bull tied or locked in its place. So if the bull is allowed to be free and kills someone, then that owner is guilty. You should kill the bull with rocks and also kill the owner. <sup>30</sup>But the family of the dead man may accept money. If they accept money, then the man who owned the bull should not be killed. But he must pay as much money as the judge decides.

<sup>31</sup>"This same law must be followed if the bull kills a person's son or daughter. <sup>32</sup>But if the bull kills a slave, then the owner of the animal must pay the master 30 pieces of silver.* And the bull must also be killed with rocks. This law will be the same for men and women slaves.

man's animal comes and falls into that hole, then the man who owns the hole is guilty. <sup>34</sup>The man who owns the hole must pay for the animal. But after he pays for the animal, then he will be allowed to keep the body of that animal.

<sup>35</sup>"If one man's bull kills another man's bull, then they should sell the bull that is alive. Both men will get half of the money that comes from selling the bull, and both men will also get half of the bull that was killed. <sup>36</sup>But if a man's bull has hurt other animals in the past, then that owner is responsible for his bull. If his bull kills another bull, then he is guilty because he allowed the bull to be free. That man must pay bull for bull. He must trade his bull for the bull that was killed.

22 "How should you punish a man who steals a bull or a sheep? If the man kills the animal or sells it, then he can't give it back. So he must pay five bulls for the one he stole. Or, he must pay four sheep for the one he stole. He must pay for stealing. <sup>24</sup>If he owns nothing, then he will be sold as a slave. But if the man still has the animal and you find it, then that man must give the owner two animals for every animal he stole. It doesn't matter if the animal was a bull or a donkey or a sheep.

"If a thief is killed while trying to break into a house at night, then no one will be guilty for killing him. But if this happens during the day, then the person who killed him will be guilty of murder.

<sup>51</sup>"A man might start a fire in his field or vineyard. If he lets the fire spread and it burns his neighbor's field or vineyard, then he must use his best crops to pay his neighbor for his loss.*

<sup>54</sup>"A man might start a fire to burn thorn bushes on his field. But if the fire grows and burns his neighbor's crops or the grain growing on the neighbor's field, then the man that started the fire must pay for the things he burned.

A man ... loss Or, "A man might let his animal graze in his field or vineyard. If the animal wanders into another person's field or vineyard, then the owner must pay. The payment must come from the best of his crop."

<sup>7</sup>“A man might ask a neighbor to keep some money or other things for him in his neighbor’s house. What should you do if that money or those things are stolen from the neighbor’s house? You should try to find the thief. If you find the thief, then he must pay twice as much as the things are worth. <sup>8</sup>But if you can’t find the thief, then God will judge if the owner of the house is guilty. The owner of the house must go before God, and God will judge if he has stolen.

<sup>9</sup>“What should you do if two men disagree about a bull or a donkey or sheep or clothing or something that is lost. One man says, ‘This is mine,’ and the other says, ‘No, it is mine.’ Both men should go before God. God will decide who is guilty. The person who was wrong must pay the other man twice as much as the thing is worth.

<sup>10</sup>“A man might ask his neighbor to help him by caring for his animal for a short time. This animal might be a donkey or a bull or a sheep. But what should you do if that animal dies, or the animal is hurt, or someone takes the animal while no one is looking? <sup>11</sup>That neighbor must explain that he did not steal the animal. If this is true, then the neighbor will promise to the Lord that he did not steal it. The owner of the animal must accept this promise. The neighbor does not have to pay the owner for the animal. <sup>12</sup>But if the neighbor stole the animal, then he must pay the owner for the animal. <sup>13</sup>If wild animals killed the animal, then the neighbor should bring the body as proof. The neighbor will not have to pay the owner for the animal that was killed.

<sup>14</sup>“If a man borrows anything from his neighbor, he is responsible for that thing. If an animal is hurt, or if the animal dies, then the neighbor must pay the owner for the animal. The neighbor is responsible, because the owner was not there himself. <sup>15</sup>But if the owner was there with the animal, then the neighbor does not have to pay. Or, if the neighbor was paying money to use the animal for work, then he will not have to pay if the animal dies or is hurt. The money he paid to use the animal will be enough payment.

<sup>16</sup>“If a man has sexual relations with a pure young woman who is not married,* then he must marry her. And he must pay her father the full dowry.* <sup>17</sup>If the father refuses to allow his daughter to marry him, then the man must still pay the money. He must pay the full amount for her.

<sup>18</sup>“You must not allow any woman to do evil magic. If she does magic, then you must not let her live.

<sup>19</sup>“You must not allow any person to have sexual relations with an animal. If this happens, then that person must be killed.

<sup>20</sup>“If any person makes a sacrifice* to a false god, then that person should be destroyed. The Lord God is the only one you should make sacrifices to.

<sup>21</sup>“Remember, in the past you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. So you should not cheat or hurt any person who is a foreigner in your land.

<sup>22</sup>“You must never do anything bad to women whose husbands are dead or to children without parents. <sup>23</sup>If you do anything wrong to those widows or orphans, then I will know it. I will hear about their suffering. <sup>24</sup>And I will be very angry. I will kill you with a sword. Then your wives will become widows. And your children will become orphans.

<sup>25</sup>“If one of my people is poor, and you lend him money, then you must not charge him for that money. And you must not force him to pay you quickly. <sup>26</sup>Someone might give you his coat as a promise that he will pay you the money he owes you. But you must give that coat back to him before the sun goes down. <sup>27</sup>If that person does not have his coat, then he will have nothing to cover his body. He will be cold when he sleeps. And if he cries to me, then I will hear him. I will listen, because I am kind.

married Or, “engaged.” In ancient Israel, many of the rules concerning an engaged woman were the same as the rules for a married woman.

dowry The money a man gave the father of the bride so the man could marry the woman.

<sup>22</sup>“You must not curse* God or the leaders of your people.

“Give me your firstborn* sons. <sup>24</sup>Also, give me your firstborn cows and sheep. Let the firstborn stay with its mother for seven days. Then on the eighth day, give him to me.

<sup>25</sup>“You are my special people. So don’t eat the meat from something that was killed by wild animals. Let the dogs eat that dead animal.

23 “Don’t tell lies against other people. If you are a witness in court, then don’t agree to help a bad person tell lies.

<sup>26</sup>“Don’t do something just because everyone else is doing it. If a group of people are doing wrong, don’t join them. You must not let those people persuade you to do wrong things—you must do what is right and fair.

<sup>27</sup>“If a poor man is being judged, sometimes people will support him because they feel sorry for him. You must not do that. Support him only if he is right. ]

<sup>28</sup>“If you see a lost bull or donkey, then you must return it to its owner. You must do this even if the owner is your enemy.

<sup>29</sup>“If you see an animal that can’t walk because it has too much to carry, you must stop and help that animal. You must help that animal even if it belongs to one of your enemies.

<sup>30</sup>“You must not let people be unfair to a poor man. He must be judged the same as any other person.

<sup>31</sup>“Be very careful if you say that a person is guilty of something. Don’t make false charges against a person. Never allow an innocent person to be killed as punishment for something he did not do. Any person that kills an innocent man is evil, and I will not pardon (forgive) that person.

<sup>32</sup>“If a person tries to pay you to agree with him when he is wrong, don’t accept that payment. A payment like that can blind judges so that they can’t see the truth. And a payment like that can make good people tell lies.

<sup>33</sup>“You must never do wrong things to a foreigner. Remember, at one time you were also foreigners when you lived in the land of Egypt.

<sup>34</sup>“Plant seeds, harvest your crops, and work the ground for six years. <sup>35</sup>But the seventh year, don’t use your land. The seventh year must be a special time of rest for the land. ] Don’t plant anything in your fields. If any crops grow there, then allow the poor people to have it. And allow the wild animals to eat the food that is left. You should do the same with your vineyards and with your fields of olive trees.

<sup>36</sup>“Work for six days. Then on the seventh day, rest! This will allow your slaves and other workers a time for rest and relaxation. And your bulls and donkeys will also have a time of rest.

<sup>38</sup>“You will have three special holidays each year. On these holidays, you will come to my special place to worship me. <sup>39</sup>The first holiday will be the Festival of Unleavened Bread. This is like I commanded you. At this time you will eat bread that is made without yeast. This will continue for seven days. You will do this during the month of Abib,* because this is the time when you came out of Egypt. Every person must bring a sacrifice* to me during that time.

curse To say bad things about someone or to ask for bad things to happen to them.

firstborn The first child born in a family. The firstborn was very important in ancient times.

month of Abib Or, “the spring month,” that is, Nisan. This is about March-April.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

"The third holiday will be the Festival of Shelters.* This will be in the fall.* This will be at the time you gather all the crops from your fields.

<sup>18</sup>"When you kill an animal and offer its blood as a sacrifice,* you must not offer bread that has yeast in it. And when you eat the meat from this sacrifice, you must eat all of the meat in one day. Don't save any of the meat for the next day.

<sup>19</sup>"During harvest time when you gather your crops, you should bring the first of everything that you harvest to the house* of the Lord your God.

"You must not eat the meat from a young goat that is boiled in its mother's milk.

<sup>20</sup>God said, "I am sending an angel before you. This angel will lead you to the place that I have prepared for you. The angel will protect you. <sup>21</sup>Obey the angel and follow him. Don't rebel against him. The angel will not forgive the wrong things you do to him. He has my power in him. <sup>22</sup>You must obey everything he says. You must do everything that I tell you. If you do this, then I will be with you. I will be against all of your enemies. And I will be an enemy to every person that is against you."

<sup>23</sup>God said, "My angel will lead you through the land. He will lead you against many different people—the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I will defeat all of those people.

<sup>24</sup>"Don't worship the gods of those people. Don't ever bow down to those gods. You must never live the way those people live. You must destroy their idols.* And you must break the stones that help them remember their gods.*

<sup>25</sup>You must serve the Lord your God. If you do this, I will bless you with plenty of bread and water. I will take away all sickness from you.

<sup>26</sup>Your women will all be able to have babies. None of their babies will die at birth. And I will allow you to live long lives.

<sup>27</sup>"When you fight against your enemies, I will send my great power before you.* I will help you defeat all your enemies. The people that are against you will become confused in battle and run away. <sup>28</sup>I will send the hornet* in front of you. He will force your enemies to leave. The Hivite people, the Canaanite people, and the Hittite people will leave your country.

<sup>29</sup>But I will not force all those people out of your land quickly. I will not do this in only one year. The land will be empty if I force the people out too fast. Then all the wild animals would increase and control the land. And they would be much trouble for you. <sup>30</sup>So I will force those people out of your land very slowly. You will continue to move across the land. And wherever you go I will force the other people to leave.

<sup>31</sup>"I will give you all the land from the Red Sea to the Euphrates River. The western border will be the Philistine Sea (Mediterranean Sea), and the eastern border will be the Arabian Desert. I will let you defeat the people living there. And you will force all those people to leave.

<sup>32</sup>"You must not make any agreements with any of those people or their gods. <sup>33</sup>Don't let them stay in your country. If you let them stay, they will be like a trap to you—they will cause you to sin against me. You will begin worshipping their gods."

Festival of Shelters Also called "Succoth" and "Feast of Tabernacles." At this time, the people lived in tents or shelters for seven days to help them remember the time in the Sinai desert.

in the fall Literally, "at the end of the year." This means the end of the growing season.

YAHWEH This name for God is usually translated "Lord."

house The "Holy Tent" where the people would go to meet with God. See Ex. 25:8,9.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

stones ... gods Or, "memorials." Here, these were stone markers that people used in worshipping their gods.

When ... you Or, "News of my power will go before you, and your enemies will be frightened."

hornet A stinging insect like a wasp or bee. This might be a real hornet, or it might mean God's angel or his great power.

God and Israel Make Their Agreement

24 God told Moses, “You, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the 70 elders (leaders) of Israel must come up the mountain and worship me from a distance. <sup>2</sup>Then Moses will come close to the Lord by himself. The other men must not come close to the Lord, and the rest of the people must not even come up the mountain.”

<sup>3</sup>Moses told the people all the rules and commands from the Lord. Then all the people said, “We will obey all the commands that the Lord has spoken.”

<sup>4</sup>So Moses wrote all of the commands of the Lord on a scroll. The next morning, Moses got up and built an altar* near the bottom of the mountain. And he set up twelve stones—one for each of the twelve family groups of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Then Moses sent young men of Israel to offer sacrifices.* These men offered bulls to the Lord as burnt offerings and peace offerings.

<sup>7</sup>Moses read the scroll with the special Agreement written on it. Moses read the Agreement so all the people could hear him. And the people said, “We have heard the laws that the Lord has given us. And we agree to obey them.”

<sup>8</sup>Then Moses held the bowls full of the blood from the sacrifices.* Moses threw that blood on the people. He said, “This blood shows that the Lord has made a special Agreement with you. The laws God gave you explain the Agreement.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the 70 elders (leaders) of Israel went up the mountain. <sup>10</sup>On the mountain, these men saw the God of Israel. God was standing on something that looked like blue sapphires, as clear as the sky! <sup>11</sup>All the leaders of Israel saw God, but God did not destroy them.* They all ate and drank together.”

Moses Goes to Get God’s Law

<sup>12</sup>The Lord said to Moses, “Come to me on the mountain. I have written my teachings and laws on two flat stones. These teachings and laws are for the people. I will give these flat stones to you.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses and his helper, Joshua, went up the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup>Moses said to the elders (leaders), “Wait here for us, we will come back to you. While I am gone, Aaron and Hur will rule over you. Go to those men if anyone has a problem.”

Moses Meets with God

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses went up the mountain. And the cloud covered the mountain. <sup>16</sup>The Glory of the Lord* came down on Mount Sinai. The cloud covered the mountain for six days. On the seventh day, the Lord spoke to Moses from the cloud. <sup>17</sup>The people of Israel could see the Glory of the Lord. It was like a burning fire on top of the mountain.

<sup>18</sup>Then Moses went higher up the mountain into the cloud. Moses was on the mountain for 40 days and 40 nights.”

Gifts for the Holy Things

25 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Tell the people of Israel to bring me gifts. Each person must decide in his heart what he wants to give me. Accept these gifts for me. <sup>3</sup>Here is the list of the things that you should accept from the people: gold, silver, and bronze*; <sup>4</sup>blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen; goat hair, <sup>5</sup>ram skins dyed red, and fine leather*;

saw God ... destroy them The Bible says that people cannot see God. But God wanted these leaders to know what he was like, so he let them see him in some special way.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This form was like a bright, shining light.

bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean “copper,” “bronze,” or “brass.”

fine leather A special kind of leather made from the skin of an animal like a seal or sea cow.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

Moses saved the blood ... altar The blood was used to seal the Agreement between God and the people. It was poured on the altar to show that God shared in the Agreement.

acacia wood; <sup>6</sup>oil for the lamps; spices for the anointing oil* and spices for the sweet-smelling incense* <sup>7</sup>Also accept onyx stones and other jewels to be put on the Ephod* and the Judgment Pouch.*<sup>8</sup>

The Holy Tent

<sup>8</sup>God also said, "The people will build a holy place for me. Then I can live among them. <sup>9</sup>I will show you what the Holy Tent* and everything in it should look like. Build everything exactly the way I show you.

The Box of the Agreement

anointing oil Fine olive oil that was poured on people or things to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Ephod A special coat worn by the priests. See Ex. 28:6-14.

Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the priest's chest.

Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle." Also called the "Meeting Tent." The people went to this special tent to meet with God.

45 inches Literally, "2½ cubits."

27 inches Literally, "1½ cubits."

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

cover Also called "mercy seat." The Hebrew word can mean "lid, cover," or "the place where sins are forgiven."

<sup>18</sup>"Then make two Cherub angels* and put them on each end of the cover. Hammer gold to make these angels. <sup>19</sup>Put one angel on one end of the cover, and put the other angel on the other end. Join the angels together with the cover to make one piece. <sup>20</sup>The wings of these angels should spread up toward the sky. The angels should cover the Box with their wings. The angels should face each other, looking toward the cover.

<sup>21</sup>"I will give you the Agreement.* Put that Agreement in the Box, and put the cover* on the Box. <sup>22</sup>When I meet with you, I will speak from between the Cherub angels* on the cover that is on the Box of the Agreement.* From that place I will give all my commands to the people of Israel.

The Table

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

Box of the Agreement Or, "ark of the Covenant." The box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

36 inches Literally, "2 cubits."

18 inches Literally, "1 cubit."

3 inches Literally, "1 tophah."

special bread Also called "bread of the Presence." Every day this bread was put before God on the special table in the Holy Place.

The Lampstand

<sup>31</sup>“Then you must make a lampstand. Use pure gold and hammer it to make the base and the shaft. Make flowers, buds, and petals from pure gold. Join all these things together into one piece.

<sup>32</sup>“The lampstand must have six branches—three branches on one side, and three branches on the other. <sup>33</sup>Each branch must have three flowers. Make these flowers like almond flowers with buds and petals. <sup>34</sup>Make four more flowers for the lampstand. These flowers must be made like almond flowers with buds and petals. <sup>35</sup>There will be six branches on the lampstand—three branches coming out from each side of the shaft. Make a flower with buds and petals below each of the three places where the branches join the shaft. <sup>36</sup>The whole lampstand with the flowers and branches must be made from pure gold. All this gold must be hammered and joined together into one piece. <sup>37</sup>Then make seven lamps* to go on the lampstand. These lamps will give light to the area in front of the lampstand. <sup>38</sup>Use pure gold to make the wick trimmers* and the trays. <sup>39</sup>Use 75 pounds* of pure gold to make the lampstand and the things to be used with it. <sup>40</sup>Be very careful to make everything exactly the way I showed you on the mountain.”

The Holy Tent

26 The Lord said to Moses, “The Holy Tent* should be made from ten curtains. These curtains must be made from fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn. A skilled worker should sew pictures of Cherub angels* with wings into the curtains. <sup>2</sup>Make each curtain the same size. Each curtain should be 14 yards* long and 2 yards* wide. <sup>3</sup>Join the curtains together into two groups. Join five curtains together to make one group, and join five curtains together to make the other group. <sup>4</sup>Use blue cloth to make loops along the edge of the end curtain in one group. Do the same on the end curtain in the other group. <sup>5</sup>There must be 50 loops on the end curtain of the first group. And there must be 50 loops on the end curtain of the other group. <sup>6</sup>Then make 50 gold rings to join the curtains together. This will join the Holy Tent together into one piece.

lamps These lamps were small bowls filled with oil. A wick was put in the bowl and lit to produce light.

wick trimmers Tools used to extinguish the lamps.

75 pounds Literally, “a kikar.”

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle.” Also called the “Meeting Tent.” The place where God came to live among his people.

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

14 yards Literally, “28 cubits long.”

2 yards Literally, “4 cubits wide.”

15 yards Literally, “30 cubits.”

bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean “copper,” “bronze,” or “brass.”

18 inches Literally, “one cubit.”

fine leather Leather made from the skin of an animal like a seal or a sea cow.

27 inches Literally, “1½ cubits.”

pieces to make each frame. All the frames for the Holy Tent must be the same.<sup>18</sup> Make 20 frames for the south side of the Holy Tent.<sup>19</sup> And make 40 silver bases for the frames. Each frame should have two silver bases to go under it—one base for each side pole.<sup>20</sup> Make 20 more frames for the other side (the north side) of the Holy Tent.<sup>21</sup> And make 40 silver bases for these frames—two bases under each frame.<sup>22</sup> Make six more frames for the back (the west side) of the Holy Tent.<sup>23</sup> Make two frames for the corners at the back of the Holy Tent.<sup>24</sup> The frames at the corners should be joined together at the bottom. At the top, a ring will hold the frames together. Do the same for both corners.<sup>25</sup> There will be a total of eight frames for the west end of the Tent. And there will be 16 silver bases—two bases under each frame.

<sup>26</sup> Use acacia wood and make braces for the frames of the Holy Tent.* There should be five braces for the first side of the Holy Tent.<sup>27</sup> And there should be five braces for the frames on the other side of the Holy Tent. And there should be five braces for the frames at the back (the west side) of the Holy Tent.<sup>28</sup> The middle brace should pass through the frames from one end to the other.

Inside the Holy Tent

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

under ... rings The 50 gold rings that joined together the two parts of the Holy Tent. See Ex. 26:6.

Box of the Agreement* behind the curtain. This curtain will separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place.<sup>34</sup> Put the cover* on the Box of the Agreement in the Most Holy Place.

<sup>35</sup> In the Holy Place, on the other side of the curtain put the special table you made. The table should be on the north side of the Holy Tent.* Then put the lampstand on the south side. This will be across from the table.

The Door of the Holy Tent

The Altar for Burning Offerings

27 The Lord said to Moses, "Use acacia wood and build an altar.* The altar should be square. It must be 7½ feet* long, 7½ feet* wide, and 4½ feet* high.<sup>2</sup> Make a horn for each of the four corners of the altar. Join each horn to its corner so that everything is one piece. Then cover the altar with bronze.*

<sup>3</sup> Use bronze* to make all the tools and dishes that will be used on the altar.* Make pots, shovels, bowls, forks, and pans. These will be used for cleaning ashes from the altar.<sup>4</sup> Make a screen for the altar. Make this screen like a net. And make a bronze ring at each of the four corners of the screen.<sup>5</sup> Put the screen under the ledge at the bottom of the altar. The screen will go halfway up into the altar from below.

Box of the Agreement Or, "ark of the Covenant." The box containing the flint stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

cover Also called "mercy seat." The Hebrew word can mean "lid, cover" or "the place where sins are forgiven."

bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean "copper," "bronze," or "brass."

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

7½ feet Literally, "5 cubits."

4½ feet Literally, "3 cubits high."

<sup>6</sup>“Use acacia wood to make poles for the altar,* and cover them with bronze.* <sup>7</sup>Put the poles through the rings on both sides of the altar. Use these poles for carrying the altar. <sup>8</sup>Make the sides of the altar from boards. Make the altar the way I showed you on the mountain.

The Courtyard Around the Holy Tent

posts must be made from silver, and the bases for the posts must be bronze.* <sup>18</sup>The courtyard should be 50 yards* long and 25 yards* wide. The wall of curtains around the courtyard should be 7½ feet* high. The curtains must be made from fine linen. The bases under the posts must be bronze. <sup>19</sup>All the tools, tent pegs, and other things used in the Holy Tent* must be made from bronze. And all the pegs [for the curtains around the courtyard,] must be made from bronze.

Oil for the Lamp

<sup>20</sup>“Command the people of Israel to bring the best olive oil. Use this oil for the lamp that must be lit each evening. <sup>21</sup>Aaron and his sons will have the job of caring for the lamp. They will go into [the first room of,] the Meeting Tent.* This is outside [the room with,] the Agreement* that is behind the curtain [that separates the two rooms,]. In this place they will make sure the lamp continues burning before the Lord from evening till morning. The people of Israel and their descendants* must obey this law forever.”

Clothes for the Priests

28 [The Lord said to Moses,] “Tell your brother Aaron and his sons, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, to come to you from the people of Israel. These men will serve me as priests.

<sup>2</sup>“Make special clothes for your brother Aaron. These clothes will give him honor and respect. <sup>3</sup>There are skilled men among the people who can make these clothes. I have given these men special wisdom. Tell those men to make the clothes for Aaron. These clothes will show that he serves me in a special way. Then he can serve me as a priest. <sup>4</sup>These are the clothes the men should make: the Judgment Pouch,* the Ephod,* a robe, a woven shirt, a turban* and a sash (belt). The men must make these special clothes for your brother Aaron and his sons. Then Aaron and his sons can serve me as priests. <sup>5</sup>Tell the men to use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple and red yarn.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

The Ephod and the Sash

<sup>6</sup>“Use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn to make the Ephod.* This must be the work of a very skilled person. <sup>7</sup>At each shoulder of the Ephod there should be a shoulder piece. These shoulder pieces should be tied to the two corners of the Ephod.

<sup>8</sup>“The men will very carefully weave a sash (belt) for the Ephod. This sash must be made the same way as the Ephod—use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn.

<sup>9</sup>“Take two onyx stones. Write the names of the twelve sons of Israel (Jacob) on these jewels. <sup>10</sup>Write six names on one jewel and six names on the other jewel. Write the names in order, from the oldest son to the youngest. <sup>11</sup>Cut the names of the sons of Israel on these stones. Do this the way a worker makes a seal.* Put the jewels in gold settings. <sup>12</sup>Then put these two jewels on each shoulder piece of the Ephod. Aaron will wear this special coat when he stands before the Lord. And the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel will be on the Ephod. These jewels will cause God to remember the people of Israel. <sup>13</sup>Use fine gold to hold the stones on the Ephod. <sup>14</sup>Twist chains of pure gold together like a rope. Make two of these gold chains and fasten them to the gold settings.

Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the high priest’s chest.

Ephod A special coat worn by the priests.

turban Head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

seal Small stones with designs cut into them. Pressed into wet clay or hot wax, they made a special mark.

The Judgment Pouch

<sup>15</sup>“Make the Judgment Pouch* for the high priest. Skilled workers should make this pouch like they made the Ephod.* They must use gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn. <sup>16</sup>The Judgment Pouch should be folded double to make a square [pocket]. It should be 9 inches* long and 9 inches* wide. <sup>17</sup>Put four rows of beautiful jewels on the Judgment Pouch. The first row of jewels should have a ruby, a topaz, and a beryl. <sup>18</sup>The second row should have a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald. <sup>19</sup>The third row should have a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. <sup>20</sup>The fourth row should have a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. Set all these jewels in gold. <sup>21</sup>There will be twelve jewels on the Judgment Pouch—one jewel for each of the sons of Israel (Jacob). Write the name of one of the sons of Israel on each of the stones. Cut these names into each stone like a worker makes a seal.*

<sup>29</sup>“When Aaron enters the Holy Place,* he will have the names of the sons of Israel over his heart. These names are on the Judgment Pouch* that he will wear to judge. In this way the Lord will always remember the twelve sons of Israel. <sup>30</sup>Put the Urim and Thummim* inside the Judgment Pouch. They will be over Aaron's heart when he goes before the Lord. So Aaron will always carry with him a way of judging the people of Israel when he is before the Lord.

of Israel.* These are the gifts the people give to the Lord. Aaron will always wear this on his head so that the Lord will accept the gifts of the people.

<sup>39</sup>“Use fine linen to make the woven shirt. And use fine linen to make the turban.* The sash (belt) should have designs sewn into it. <sup>40</sup>Also make coats, belts, and turbans for Aaron's sons. This will give them honor and respect. <sup>41</sup>Put the clothes on your brother Aaron and his sons. Then pour the special oil on them to make them priests. This will make them holy, and they will serve me as priests.

<sup>42</sup>“Use linen* to make underclothes for the priests. These underclothes will cover them from the waist to the thighs. <sup>43</sup>Aaron and his sons must wear these clothes anytime they enter the Meeting Tent.* They must wear these clothes when they come near to the altar to serve as priests in the Holy Place. If they don't wear these clothes, then they will be guilty of wrong, and they will have to die. All this should be a law that continues forever for Aaron and all his family after him.”

The Ceremony for Appointing the Priests

29 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Now I will tell you what you must do to show that Aaron and his sons serve me in a special way as priests. Find one young bull and two young goats that have nothing wrong with them. <sup>2</sup>Then use fine wheat flour without yeast to make bread. And use the same things to make cakes mixed with olive oil. And make small thin cakes spread with oil. <sup>3</sup>Put this bread and the cakes in a basket. Then give the basket to Aaron and his sons. At the same time give them the bull and the two rams.

Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the high priest's chest.

Urim and Thummim Used by the priest to learn God's answer to questions. They were probably like lots—stones, sticks, or bones that were thrown like dice.

Ephod A special coat worn by the priests.

pomegranates A red fruit about the size of an orange.

Holy Place One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.

seal Small stones with designs cut into them. Pressed into wet clay or hot wax, they made a special mark.

turban Head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

In this ... Israel Literally, “It will keep him holy when he bears the guilt from the gifts of the people of Israel.”

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Judgment Pouch* on him. Then tie the beautiful sash (belt) on him. <sup>6</sup>Put the turban* on his head. And put the special crown around the turban. <sup>7</sup>Take the anointing oil* and pour it on Aaron's head. This will show that Aaron is chosen for this work.

<sup>8</sup>Then bring Aaron's sons to that place. Put woven shirts on them. <sup>9</sup>Then tie sashes (belts) around their waists. Give them the special hats to wear. At that time they will begin to be priests. They will be priests because of the special law that will continue forever. This is the way you will make Aaron and his sons priests.

<sup>10</sup>Then bring the bull to that place at the front of the Meeting Tent.* Aaron and his sons must put their hands on the bull's head. <sup>11</sup>Then kill that bull there at the entrance to the Meeting Tent. The Lord will see this. <sup>12</sup>Then take some of the bull's blood and go to the altar.* Use your finger to put some blood on the horns of the altar. Pour all the blood that is left at the bottom of the altar. <sup>13</sup>Then take all the fat from inside the bull. Take the fat from around the liver, and take both kidneys and the fat around them. Burn this fat on the altar. <sup>14</sup>Then take the bull's meat, his skin, and his other parts and go outside your camp. Burn these things there outside the camp. This is an offering to take away the sins of the priests.

is a special offering that is burned. It is offered to the Lord. The Lord will smell this offering and it will please him. This is an offering that is made to the Lord using fire.

<sup>22</sup>Then take the fat from the ram. (This is the ram that will be used in the ceremony to make Aaron the high priest.) Take the fat from around the tail and the fat that covers the organs inside the body. Take the fat that covers the liver. Take both kidneys and the right leg. <sup>23</sup>Then take the basket of bread that you made without yeast. This is the basket you put before the Lord. Take these things out of the basket: one loaf of bread, one cake made with oil, and one small thin cake. <sup>24</sup>Give these things to Aaron and his sons. Tell them to hold these things in their hands before the Lord. This will be a special offering to the Lord. <sup>25</sup>Then take these things from Aaron and his sons and put them on the altar* with the ram. The Lord will smell this burnt offering, and it will please him. This will be an offering made to the Lord using fire.

turban Head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

anointing oil Fine olive oil that was poured on things or people to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

ram(s) A male sheep.

the priests when the people of Israel make an offering to the Lord. When they give these parts to the priest, it will be the same as giving them to the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>“Save those special clothes that were made for Aaron. Those clothes will belong to all his people that live after him. They will wear those clothes when they are chosen to be priests.

<sup>30</sup>Aaron’s son will become the next high priest after him. That son will wear those clothes seven days when he comes to the Meeting Tent* to serve in the Holy Place.*

first lamb, also offer 8 cups* of fine wheat flour. Mix that flour with 1 quart* of wine as an offering. When you kill the second lamb in the evening, also offer the 8 cups* of fine flour. And offer 1 quart* of wine. This is the same as you did in the morning. This will be a food offering for the Lord. When you burn this offering, the Lord will smell it, and it will please him.

<sup>42</sup>“You must burn these things as an offering to the Lord every day. Do this at the entrance of the Meeting Tent* before the Lord. Continue to do this for all time. When you make the offering, I the Lord will meet you there and speak to you. <sup>43</sup>I will meet with the people of Israel in that place. And that place will be made holy because of my greatness.

<sup>44</sup>“So I will make the Meeting Tent* holy. And I will make the altar* holy. And I will make Aaron and his sons holy so that they can serve me as priests. <sup>45</sup>I will live with the people of Israel. I will be their God. <sup>46</sup>The people will know that I am the Lord, their God. They will know that I am the one who led them out of Egypt so I could live with them. I am the Lord, their God.”

The Altar for Burning Incense

30 God said to Moses, “Make an altar* from acacia wood. You will use this altar for burning incense.* <sup>2</sup>You must make the altar square—18 inches* long and 18 inches* wide. It must be 36 inches* high. There will be horns at the four corners. These horns must be made as one piece with the altar. <sup>3</sup>Cover the top and all the sides of the altar with pure gold. And put gold trim all around the altar. <sup>4</sup>Below this trim there should be two gold rings. There should be two gold rings on opposite sides of the altar. These gold rings will be used with poles to carry the altar. <sup>5</sup>Make the poles from acacia wood also. Cover the poles with gold.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Holy Place One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.

ram(s) A male sheep.

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

8 cups Literally, “1/10 of a measure.”

1 quart Literally, “1/4 hin.”

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

18 inches Literally, “1 cubit.”

36 inches Literally, “2 cubits.”

<sup>6</sup>Put the altar in front of the special curtain. The Box of the Agreement* is behind that curtain. The altar will be in front of the cover* that is above the Agreement.* This is the place where I will meet with you.

<sup>7</sup>“Aaron must burn sweet smelling incense* on the altar* every morning. He will do this when he comes to care for the lamps. <sup>8</sup>He must burn incense again in the evening. This is the time when he checks the lamps in the evenings. So that incense will be burned before the Lord every day forever. <sup>9</sup>Don’t use this altar for offering any other kind of incense or burnt offering. Don’t use this altar to offer any kind of grain offering or drink offering.

<sup>10</sup>“Once a year Aaron must make a special sacrifice* to the Lord. Aaron will use the blood of the sin offering to pay for the sins of the people. Aaron will do this at the horns of this altar.* This day will be called the Day of Atonement. This will be a very special day for the Lord.”

The Temple Tax

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>“Count the people of Israel so that you will know how many people there are. Every time this is done, every person must make a payment for himself to the Lord. If each person does this, then no terrible thing will happen to the people. <sup>13</sup>Every person who is counted must pay  $\frac{1}{2}$  shekel. (That is  $\frac{1}{2}$  shekel by the official measure.\* This shekel weighs 20 gerahs.\*) This half

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

official measure Literally, “holy shekel,” the standard of measure used by the priests in the tabernacle or temple.

shekel is an offering to the Lord. <sup>14</sup>Every person that is counted and is 20 years old or more will give the Lord this offering. <sup>15</sup>Rich people must not give more than  $\frac{1}{2}$  shekel. And poor people must not give less than  $\frac{1}{2}$  shekel. All people will make the same offering to the Lord. This will be a payment for your life. <sup>16</sup>Gather this money from the people of Israel. Use the money for the service in the Meeting Tent.\* This payment will be a way for the Lord to remember his people. They will be paying for their own lives.”

The Washing Bowl

<sup>17</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>18</sup>“Make a bronze* bowl and put it on a bronze base. You will use this for washing. Put the bowl between the Meeting Tent* and the altar.* Fill the bowl with water. <sup>19</sup>Aaron and his sons must wash their hands and feet with the water from this bowl. <sup>20</sup>Every time they enter the Meeting Tent or come near the altar they must wash with water. This way they will not die. <sup>21</sup>And they must wash their hands and their feet so they won’t die. This will be a law that continues forever for Aaron and his people. This law will continue for all Aaron’s people that will live in the future.”

The Anointing Oil

the Meeting Tent* and on the Box of the Agreement.* This will show that these things have a special purpose. <sup>27</sup>Pour the oil on the table and on all the dishes on the table. And pour this oil on the lamp and on all its tools. Pour the oil on the incense* altar. <sup>28</sup>Also, pour the oil on the altar for burning offerings to God. Pour this oil on everything on that altar. Pour this oil on the bowl and on the base under the bowl. <sup>29</sup>You will make all these things holy. They will be very special to the Lord. Anything that touches these things will also become holy.

<sup>30</sup>“Pour the oil on Aaron and his sons. This will show that they serve me in a special way. Then they can serve me as priests. <sup>31</sup>Tell the people of Israel that the anointing oil* is holy—it must always be used only for me. <sup>32</sup>No one should use this oil like an ordinary perfume. Don’t make perfume the same way you make this special oil. This oil is holy, and it should be very special to you. <sup>33</sup>If anyone makes a perfume like this holy oil, and if he gives it to a foreigner, then that person must be separated from his people.”

The Incense

<sup>1</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, “Get these sweet-smelling spices: resin, onycha, galbanum, and pure frankincense. Be sure that you have equal amounts of these spices. <sup>2</sup>Mix the spices together to make a sweet-smelling incense.* Do this the same as perfume maker would do. Also mix salt with this incense. This will make it pure and special. <sup>3</sup>Grind some of the incense until it becomes a fine powder. Put the powder in front of the Agreement* in the Meeting Tent.* This is the place where I meet with you. You must use this incense powder only for its very special purpose. <sup>7</sup>You must use this incense only in this special way for the Lord. You will make this incense in a special way. Don’t make any other incense in this special way. <sup>8</sup>A person might want to make some of this incense for himself, so he can enjoy the smell. But if he does this, then he must be separated from his people.”

Bezalel and Oholiab

31 Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>1</sup>“I have chosen Bezalel son of Uri, from the family group of Judah. (Uri was the son of Hur.) <sup>2</sup>I have filled Bezalel with the Spirit of God—I have given him the skill and knowledge to do all kinds of things. <sup>3</sup>Bezalel is a very good designer. And he can make things from gold, silver, and bronze. <sup>4</sup>Bezalel can cut and set beautiful jewels. And he can work with wood. Bezalel can do all kinds of work. <sup>5</sup>I have also chosen Oholiab to work with him. Oholiab is the son of Ahisamach from the family group of Dan. And I have given skills to all the other workers so they can make all the things that I have commanded you:

- <sup>7</sup> the Meeting Tent,*
- the Box of the Agreement,*
- the cover* for the Box,
- <sup>8</sup> the table and everything on it,
- the altar* for burning incense,*
- <sup>9</sup> the altar for burning offerings and the things used at the altar,
- the bowl and the base under it,
- <sup>10</sup> all the special clothes for Aaron the priest,
- and all the special clothes for Aaron’s sons to wear when they serve as

The Sabbath

12 Then the Lord said to Moses, 13 "Tell the people of Israel this: 'You must follow the rules about my special days of rest. You must do this because they will be a sign between you and me for all generations. This will show you that I, the Lord, have made you my special people.'

14 "Make the Sabbath* a special day. If a person treats the Sabbath like any other day, then that person must be killed. Any person who works on the Sabbath day must be separated from his people. 15 There are six other days in the week for working. But the seventh day is a very special day of rest. That is the special day to honor the Lord. Any person who works during the Sabbath must be killed. 16 The people of Israel must remember the Sabbath and make it a special day. They must continue to do this forever. It is an agreement between them and me that will continue forever. 17 The Sabbath will be a sign between me and the people of Israel forever. The Lord worked six days and made heaven and earth. And on the seventh day he rested and relaxed."

18 So the Lord finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai. Then the Lord gave him the two flat stones with the Agreement* on them. God used his finger and wrote on the stones.

anointing oil Fine olive oil that was poured on things or people to show they were chosen by God for a special work or purpose.

Holy Place One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.

Sabbath Saturday, a day of rest and worship for the Jews.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The two flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

The Golden Calf

32 The people saw that a long time had passed and Moses had not come down from the mountain. So the people gathered around Aaron. They said to him, "Look, Moses led us out of the land of Egypt. But we don't know what has happened to him. So make us some gods to go before us and lead us."

2 Aaron said to the people, "Bring me the gold earrings that belong to your wives, sons, and daughters."

3 So all the people gathered their gold earrings and brought them to Aaron. 4 Aaron took the gold from the people. Then he used it to make a statue of a calf. Aaron used a chisel to carve the statue, and then he covered it with gold. Then the people said, "Israel, these are the gods that led you out of Egypt."

Then the people said, "People of Israel, here are your gods! These are the gods who brought you out of the land of Egypt!"

5 Aaron saw all these things. So he built an altar* in front of the calf. Then Aaron made an announcement. He said, "Tomorrow will be a special feast to honor the Lord."

6 The people woke up very early the next morning. They killed animals and offered them as burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. The people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up and had a wild party.

7 At the same time, the Lord said to Moses, "Go down from this mountain. Your people, the people you brought out of the land of Egypt, have done a terrible sin. 8 They have very quickly turned away from the things I commanded them to do. They made a calf from melted gold for themselves. They are worshiping that calf and making sacrifices* to it. The people have said, 'Israel, these are the gods that led you out of Egypt.'"

9 The Lord said to Moses, "I have seen these people. I know that they are very stubborn people. They will always turn against me. 10 So now let me destroy them in anger. Then I will make a great nation from you."

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

<sup>11</sup>But Moses begged the Lord his God. Moses said, "Lord, don't let your anger destroy your people. You brought these people out of Egypt with your great power and strength. <sup>12</sup>But if you destroy your people, then the people of Egypt can say, 'The Lord planned to do bad things to his people. That is why he led them out of Egypt. He wanted to kill them in the mountains. He wanted to destroy his people from the earth.' So don't be angry at your people. Give up your anger. Don't destroy your people. <sup>13</sup>Remember the men who served you—Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob). You used your name and made a promise to those men. You said: 'I will make your people as many as the stars in the sky. I will give your people all this land that I promised them. This land will be theirs forever.'"

<sup>14</sup>So the Lord felt sorry for the people. The Lord did not do the thing that he said he might do—he did not destroy the people.

<sup>15</sup>Then Moses went down the mountain. Moses had the two flat stones with the Agreement* on them. Those commandments were written on both sides of the stone, front and back. <sup>16</sup>God himself had made those stones. And God himself wrote the commandments on those stones.

<sup>17</sup>Moses and the other men were going down the mountain. Joshua heard the noise from the people's party. Joshua said to Moses, "It sounds like war down in the camp!"

<sup>18</sup>Moses answered, "It is not the noise of an army shouting for victory. It is not the noise of an army crying from defeat. The noise I hear is the sound of music.*"

<sup>19</sup>Moses came near the camp. He saw the golden calf, and he saw the people dancing. Moses became very angry, and he threw the flat stones on the ground. The stones broke into several pieces at the bottom of the mountain. <sup>20</sup>Then Moses destroyed the calf that the people had made. He melted it in the fire. Then he ground the gold until it became dust. And he threw the dust in the water. He forced the people of Israel to drink that water.

<sup>21</sup>Moses said to Aaron, "What did these people do to you? Why did you lead them to do such a bad sin?"

<sup>22</sup>Aaron answered, "Don't be angry, sir. You know that these people are always ready to do wrong. <sup>23</sup>The people said to me, 'Moses led us out of Egypt. But we don't know what has happened to him. So make us some gods to lead us.' <sup>24</sup>So I told the people, 'If you have any gold rings, then give them to me.' The people gave me their gold. I threw the gold into the fire, and out of the fire came this calf!"

<sup>25</sup>Moses saw that Aaron had let the people lose control. The people were being wild, and all their enemies could see them acting like fools. <sup>26</sup>So Moses stood at the entrance to the camp. Moses said, "Any person who wants to follow the Lord should come to me." And all the people from the family of Levi ran to Moses.

<sup>27</sup>Then Moses said to them, "I will tell you what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'Every man must get his sword and go from one end of the camp to the other. You must punish these people, even if, each man must kill his brother, friends, and neighbors.'"

<sup>28</sup>The people from the family of Levi obeyed Moses. That day about 3,000 of the people of Israel died. <sup>29</sup>Then Moses said, "The Lord has chosen you today to be the people who will bless your sons and brothers."

<sup>30</sup>The next morning Moses told the people, "You have done a terrible sin! But now I will go up to the Lord, and maybe I can do something so he will forgive you for your sin." <sup>31</sup>So Moses went back to the Lord and said, "Please listen! These people did a very bad sin and made a god from gold. <sup>32</sup>Now, forgive them of this sin! If you will not forgive them, then erase my name from the book you have written.*" who sin against me. <sup>3</sup>So now, go down and lead the people where I tell you. My angel will go before you and lead you. When the time comes to punish the people who sinned, then they will be punished.” <sup>4</sup>So the Lord caused a terrible sickness to come to the people. He did this because they told Aaron to make the golden calf.

“I Will Not Go with You”

33 Then the Lord said to Moses, “You and the people you brought out of Egypt must leave this place. Go to the land that I promised to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I made them a promise. I said, ‘I will give that land to your people who live after you.’ <sup>1</sup>I will send an angel to go before you. And I will defeat the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. I will force those people to leave your land. <sup>2</sup>So go up to a land filled with many good things.* But I will not go with you. You people are very stubborn, and you make me very angry. If I go with you, I might destroy you along the way.”

“The people heard this bad news and they became very sad. After this, the people did not wear jewelry. <sup>3</sup>They did not wear jewelry because, the Lord said to Moses, “Tell the people of Israel, ‘You are a stubborn people. If I traveled with you even for a short time, I would destroy you. So take off all your jewelry. Then I will decide what to do with you.’” <sup>4</sup>So the people of Israel stopped wearing their jewelry at Mount Horeb (Sinai).

The Meeting Tent

<sup>1</sup>Moses used to take a tent a short way outside the camp. Moses called it “the meeting tent.” Any person who wanted to ask something from the Lord would go to the meeting tent outside the camp. <sup>2</sup>Any time Moses went out to the tent, all the people watched him. The people stood at the entrance of their tents and watched Moses until he entered the meeting tent. <sup>3</sup>When Moses went into the tent, the tall cloud always came down. That cloud stayed at the entrance to the tent. In this way, the Lord spoke with Moses. <sup>4</sup>When the people saw the cloud at the entrance of the tent, they went to the entrance of their own tents and bowed down to worship God.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord spoke to Moses face to face. The Lord spoke to Moses like a man speaks with his friend. After speaking with the Lord, Moses always went back to the camp. Moses’ helper was a young man named Joshua son of Nun. Joshua always stayed in the tent when Moses left it.

Moses Sees the Lord’s Glory

<sup>1</sup>Moses said to the Lord, “You told me to lead these people. But you did not say who you would send with me. You said to me, ‘I know you very well, and I am pleased with you.’ <sup>2</sup>If I have truly pleased you, then teach me your ways. I want to know you. Then I can continue to please you. Remember that all these are your people.”

<sup>3</sup>The Lord answered, “I myself will go with you. I will lead you.*”

<sup>4</sup>Then Moses said to the Lord, “If you don’t go with us, then don’t send us away from this place. <sup>5</sup>Also, how will we know if you are pleased with me and these people? If you go with us, then we will know for sure! If you don’t go with us, then I and these people will be no different than any other people on the earth.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, “I will do what you ask. I will do this because I am pleased with you. I know you very well.*”

Moses Sees God’s Goodness

<sup>2</sup>Then the Lord answered, “I will cause all my Goodness to go before you. I am the Lord

filled with many good things Literally, “flowing with milk and honey.”

lead you Or, “give you rest.”

I know you very well Literally, “I know you by name.”

and I will announce my name so that you can hear it. I will show kindness and love to the people I choose. <sup>20</sup>But you can't see my face. No person can see me and continue to live.

<sup>21</sup>"There is a rock at a place near me. You can stand on that rock. <sup>22</sup>My Glory will pass by that place. I will put you in a large crack in that rock, and I will cover you with my hand while I pass. <sup>23</sup>Then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back. But you will not see my face."

The New Stone Tablets

34 Then the Lord said to Moses, "Make two more flat stones like the first two that were broken. I will write the same words on these stones that were written on the first two stones. <sup>1</sup>Be ready tomorrow morning and come up on Mount Sinai. Stand before me there on the top of the mountain. <sup>2</sup>No person will be allowed to come with you. No person should even be seen any place on the mountain. Even your herds of animals or flocks of sheep will not be allowed to eat grass at the bottom of the mountain."

<sup>3</sup>So Moses made two more flat stones like the first ones. Then early the next morning he went up Mount Sinai. Moses did everything like the Lord had commanded him. Moses carried the two flat stones with him. <sup>4</sup>After Moses was on the mountain, the Lord came down to him in a cloud. The Lord stood there with Moses, and Moses called the Lord's name.*

<sup>6</sup>The Lord passed in front of Moses and said, "YAHWEH,* the Lord, is the kind and merciful God. The Lord is slow to become angry. The Lord is full of great love. The Lord can be trusted. <sup>7</sup>The Lord shows his kindness to thousands of generations. The Lord forgives* people for the wrong things they do. But the Lord does not forget to punish guilty people. The Lord will punish not only the guilty people, but their children, their grandchildren, and their great-grandchildren will suffer for the bad things those people do.*"

<sup>8</sup>Then Moses quickly bowed to the ground and worshiped the Lord. Moses said, "Lord, if you are pleased with me, then please go with us. I know that these are stubborn people. But forgive us for the bad things we did! Accept us as your people."

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord said, "I am making this agreement with all of your people. I will do amazing things that have never before been done for any other nation on earth. The people with you will see that I, the Lord, am very great. The people will see the wonderful things that I will do for you. <sup>11</sup>Obey the things I command you today, and I will force your enemies to leave your land. I will force out the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. <sup>12</sup>Be careful! Don't make any agreement with the people that live in the land where you are going. If you make an agreement with those people, then it will bring you trouble. <sup>13</sup>But destroy their altars.* Break the stones they worship. Cut down their idols.* <sup>14</sup>Don't worship any other god. I am Yahweh Kanah—the jealous Lord. That is my name. I am El Kanah—the jealous God.

<sup>15</sup>"Be careful not to make any agreements with the people who live in that land. If you do this, then you might join them when they worship their gods. Those people will invite you to join them, and you will eat their sacrifices.* <sup>16</sup>You might choose some of their daughters as wives for your sons. Those daughters serve false gods. They might lead your sons to do the same thing.

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

stones ... idols Literally, "memorials ... Asherah poles" These were stone markers and wood poles that the people set up to help them remember and honor false gods.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

Moses ... name Literally, "He called on the name of the Lord." This might mean Moses worshiped the Lord, or it might mean the Lord spoke his name to Moses.

YAHWEH This Hebrew name for God is usually translated "Lord." This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "He is" or "He makes things exist."

forgives Or, "spares."

<sup>18</sup>“Celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread. For seven days eat that bread made without yeast like I commanded you before. Do this during the month I have chosen, the month of Abib.* Why? Because that is the month you came out of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup>“A woman’s first baby always belongs to me. Even the first animals that are born from your cows or sheep belong to me. <sup>20</sup>If you want to keep a donkey that is the first born, then you can buy it with a lamb. But if you don’t buy that donkey with a lamb, then you must break the donkey’s neck. You must buy back all of your firstborn* sons from me. No person should come before me without a gift.

<sup>21</sup>“You will work for six days. But on the seventh day you must rest. You must rest even during the times of planting and harvesting.

<sup>23</sup>“Three times each year all your men must go to be with the Lord YAHWEH,* the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>“When you go into your land, I will force your enemies out of that land. I will expand your borders—you will get more and more land. You will go before the Lord your God three times each year. At that time, no one will try to take your land from you.

<sup>25</sup>“If you offer blood from a sacrifice* to me, don’t offer yeast at the same time. And none of the meat from the Passover* meal should be left until the next morning.

<sup>26</sup>“Give the Lord the very first crops that you harvest. Bring those things to the house* of the Lord your God.

“Never cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

<sup>27</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, “Write all the things that I have told you. Those things are the Agreement that I made with you and the people of Israel.”

<sup>28</sup>Moses stayed there with the Lord for 40 days and 40 nights. During that time he did not eat food or drink water. And Moses wrote the words of the Agreement – the Ten Commandments – on the two flat stones.

Moses’ Shining Face

<sup>29</sup>Then Moses came down from Mount Sinai. He carried the two flat stones with the Agreement* on them. Moses’ face was shining because he had talked with the Lord. But Moses did not know this. <sup>30</sup>Aaron and all the people of Israel saw that Moses’ face was shining bright. So they were afraid to go near him. <sup>31</sup>But Moses called to them. So Aaron and all the leaders of the people went to Moses. Moses talked with them. <sup>32</sup>After that, all the people of Israel came near Moses. And Moses gave them the commands that the Lord had given him on Mount Sinai.

<sup>33</sup>When Moses finished speaking to the people, he put a covering over his face. <sup>34</sup>Any time Moses went before the Lord to speak with him, Moses took off the covering. Then Moses would come out and tell the people of Israel the things the Lord commanded. <sup>35</sup>The people would see that Moses’ face was shining bright, so Moses would cover his face again. Moses kept his face covered until the next time he went in to speak with the Lord.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

Abib Or, “spring.” This is Nisan, the first month of the ancient Jewish year.

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

Festival of Weeks Also called “Pentecost” or “Shabuoth.”

fall Literally, “at the changing of the year.”

Festival of Harvest Also called “Feast of Ingathering” or “Succoth.”

YAHWAH This Hebrew name for God is usually translated “Lord.”

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

Passover Important Jewish holy day. They ate a special meal on this day every spring to remember that God freed them from Egypt in the time of Moses.

house The Holy Tent (tabernacle) or temple, where God came to live among his people.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

Rules About the Sabbath

35 Moses gathered all the people of Israel together. Moses said to them, "I will tell you the things the Lord has commanded you to do:

<sup>2</sup>"There are six days for working. But the seventh day will be a very special day of rest for you. You will honor the Lord by resting on that special day. Any person who works on the seventh day must be killed. <sup>3</sup>On the Sabbath* you should not even light a fire in any of the places where you live."

Things for the Holy Tent

"Moses said to all the people of Israel, "This is what the Lord commanded: <sup>1</sup>Gather special gifts for the Lord. Each of you should decide in your heart what you will give. And then you should bring that gift to the Lord. Bring gold, silver, and bronze*; <sup>2</sup>blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen*; goat hair; <sup>3</sup>ram skins dyed red and fine leather*; acacia wood; <sup>4</sup>oil for the lamps; spices for the anointing oil* and spices for the sweet-smelling incense.* <sup>5</sup>Also, bring onyx stones and other jewels to be put on the Ephod* and the Judgment Pouch.*

<sup>10</sup>All of you people who are skilled workers should make all of the things the Lord commanded: <sup>11</sup>the Holy Tent,* its outer tent, and its covering; the hooks, boards, braces, posts, and bases; <sup>12</sup>the Holy Box,* its poles, the cover,* and the curtain that covers the area where the Box stays; <sup>13</sup>the table and its poles, all the things on the table, and the special bread on the table; <sup>14</sup>the lampstand that is used for light and the things used with the lampstand, the lamps, and oil for the light; <sup>15</sup>the altar* for burning incense* and its poles; the anointing oil* and the sweet-smelling incense; the curtain that covers the door at the entrance to the Holy Tent; <sup>16</sup>the altar for burning offerings and its bronze* screen, the poles, and all the things used at the altar; the bronze bowl and its base; <sup>17</sup>the curtains around the yard, their posts and bases, and the curtain that covers the entrance to the yard; <sup>18</sup>the pegs used to support the Tent and the wall of curtains around, the courtyard, and the ropes that tie to the pegs; <sup>19</sup>and the special woven clothes for the priest to wear in the Holy Place.* These are the special clothes for Aaron the priest and his sons to wear. They will wear these clothes when they serve as priests."

The Great Offering from the People

<sup>20</sup>Then all the people of Israel went away from Moses. <sup>21</sup>All the people who wanted to give came and brought a gift to the Lord. These gifts were used for making the Meeting Tent,* all the things in the Tent, and the special clothes. <sup>22</sup>All the men and women who wanted to give brought gold jewelry of all kinds. They brought pins,* earrings, rings, and other jewelry. They all gave their jewelry to the Lord. This was a special offering to the Lord.

bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean "copper," "bronze," or "brass."

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

fine leather A special kind of leather made from the skin of an animal like a seal or sea cow.

anointing oil Fine olive oil that was poured on things or people to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Ephod A special coat worn by the priests.

Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the high priest's chest. See Ex. 28:15-30.

Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle." The place where God came to live among his people.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement, the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

cover Also called "mercy seat." The Hebrew word can mean "lid, cover" or "the place where sins are forgiven."

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

Holy Place One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

pins Or, "hooks." These were like safety pins and were used like buttons to fasten their robes.

Lord. Any person who had goat hair or ram skins dyed red or fine leather* brought it to the Lord. <sup>24</sup>Every person who wanted to give silver or bronze* brought that as a gift to the Lord. Every person who had acacia wood came and gave it to the Lord. <sup>25</sup>Every skilled woman made fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn. <sup>26</sup>And all the women who were skilled and wanted to help made cloth from the goat hair.

<sup>27</sup>The leaders brought onyx stones and other jewels. These stones and jewels were put on the Ephod* and Judgment Pouch* of the priest. <sup>28</sup>The people also brought spices and olive oil. These things were used for the sweet-smelling incense,* the anointing oil,* and the oil for the lamps.

<sup>29</sup>All the people of Israel that wanted to help brought gifts to the Lord. The people gave these gifts freely, because they wanted to. These gifts were used to make all the things the Lord had commanded Moses and the people to make.

Bezalel and Oholiab

<sup>30</sup>Then Moses said to the people of Israel, "Look, the Lord has chosen Bezalel son of Uri, from the family group of Judah. (Uri was the son of Hur.) <sup>31</sup>The Lord filled Bezalel with the Spirit of God—he gave Bezalel special skill and knowledge to do all kinds of things. <sup>32</sup>He can design and make things with gold, silver, and bronze*. <sup>33</sup>He can cut and set stones and jewels. Bezalel can work with wood and make all kinds of things. <sup>34</sup>The Lord has given Bezalel and Oholiab special skills to teach other people. (Oholiab was the son of Ahisamach from the family group of Dan.) <sup>35</sup>The Lord has given both of these men special skill to do all kinds of work. They are able to do the work of carpenters and metal workers. They can weave cloth with designs in it from the blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen.* And they are able to weave things with wool."

36 "So, Bezalel, Oholiab and all the other skilled men must do the work the Lord has commanded. The Lord has given these men the wisdom and understanding to do all the skilled work needed to build this holy place."

<sup>1</sup>Then Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab and all the other skilled people that the Lord had given special skills to. And these people came because they wanted to help with the work. <sup>2</sup>Moses gave these people all the things the people of Israel had brought as gifts. And they used these things to build God's holy place. The people continued to bring gifts each morning. <sup>3</sup>Finally, all the skilled workers left the work they were doing on the holy place, and they went to speak to Moses. They said, <sup>4</sup>"The people have brought too much! We have more than we need to finish the work on the Tent!"

<sup>5</sup>Then Moses sent this message throughout the camp: "No man or woman should make anything else as a gift for the holy place." So the people were forced to stop giving more. <sup>7</sup>The people had brought more than enough things to finish the work of building God's holy place.:

The Holy Tent

<sup>8</sup>Then the skilled workers began making the Holy Tent.* They made the ten curtains from fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn. And they sewed pictures of Cherub angels* with wings into the curtains. <sup>9</sup>Each curtain was the same size—14 yards* long and 2 yards* wide. <sup>10</sup>The workers joined the curtains together into

fine leather A special kind of leather made from the skin of an animal like a seal or sea cow.

bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean "copper," "bronze," or "brass."

Ephod A special coat worn by the priests.

Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the high priest's chest. See Ex. 28:15-30.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

anointing oil Fine olive oil that was poured on things or people to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle." The place where God came to live among his people.

2 yards Literally, "4 cubits."

two groups of curtains. They joined five curtains together to make one group and five curtains together to make the other group. <sup>11</sup>Then they used blue cloth to make loops along the edge of the end curtain of one group. And they did the same on the end curtain in the other group. <sup>12</sup>There were 50 loops on the end curtain in one group, and 50 loops on the end curtain in the other group. The loops were opposite each other. <sup>13</sup>Then they made 50 gold rings to join the two curtains together. So the Holy Tent was joined together into one piece.

made 20 frames for the other side (the north side) of the Holy Tent. <sup>26</sup>They made 40 silver bases for the frames—two bases for each frame. <sup>27</sup>They made six more frames for the back (the west side) of the Holy Tent. <sup>28</sup>They also made two frames for the corners at the back of the Holy Tent. <sup>29</sup>These frames were joined together at the bottom. And at the top a ring held the corner frames together. They did the same for both corners. <sup>30</sup>There was a total of eight frames for the west side of the Holy Tent. And there were 16 silver bases—two bases for each frame.

<sup>35</sup>They used fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yarn to make the special curtain for the entrance to the Most Holy Place. And they sewed pictures of Cherub angels into the curtain. <sup>36</sup>They made four posts using acacia wood, and they covered the posts with gold. Then they made gold hooks for the posts. And they made four silver bases for the posts. <sup>37</sup>Then they made the curtain to cover the entrance to the Tent. They used blue, purple, and red yarn and fine linen to make this curtain. And they wove pictures into it. <sup>38</sup>Then they made the five posts and the hooks for this curtain over the entrance. They covered the tops of the posts and the curtain rods* with gold. And they made the five bronze* bases for the posts.

Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle." The place God came to live among his people.

15 yards Literally, "30 cubits."

2 yards Literally, "4 cubits."

bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean "copper," "bronze," or "brass."

fine leather A special kind of leather made from the skin of an animal like a seal or a sea cow.

15 feet Literally, "10 cubits."

27 inches Literally, "1½ cubits."

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

curtain rods Or, "fasteners."

The Box of the Agreement

37 Bezalel made the Holy Box* from acacia wood. The Box was 45 inches* long, 27 inches* wide, and 27 inches* high. <sup>2</sup>He covered the inside and outside of the Box with pure gold. Then he put gold trim around the Box. <sup>3</sup>He made four rings of gold and put them on the four corners. These rings were used for carrying the Box. There were two rings on each side. <sup>4</sup>Then he made the poles for carrying the Box. He used acacia wood and covered the poles with pure gold. <sup>5</sup>He put the poles through the rings on each side of the Box. <sup>6</sup>Then he made the cover* from pure gold. It was 45 inches* long and 27 inches* wide. <sup>7</sup>Then Bezalel hammered gold to make two Cherub angels. He put the Cherub angels on each end of the cover. <sup>8</sup>He put one angel on one end of the cover, and he put the other angel on the other end. The angels were joined together with the cover to make one piece. <sup>9</sup>The wings of the angels were spread up toward the sky. The angels covered the Box with their wings. The angels faced each other, looking toward the cover.

The Special Table

<sup>10</sup>Then he made the table from acacia wood. The table was 36 inches* long, 18 inches* wide, and 27 inches* high. <sup>11</sup>He covered the table with pure gold. He put gold trim around the table. <sup>12</sup>Then he made a frame 3 inches* wide around the table. He put gold trim on the frame. <sup>13</sup>Then he made four gold rings and put them at the four corners of the table, where the four legs were. <sup>14</sup>He put the rings close to the frame around the top of the table. The rings were to hold the poles used to carry the table. <sup>15</sup>Then he used acacia wood to make the poles for carrying the table. He covered the poles with pure gold. <sup>16</sup>Then he made all the things that were used on the table. He made the plates, the spoons, the bowls, and the pitchers from pure gold. The bowls and pitchers are used for pouring the drink offerings.

The Lampstand

<sup>17</sup>Then he made the lampstand. He used pure gold and hammered it to make the base and the shaft. Then he made flowers, buds, and petals. He joined all these things together into one piece. <sup>18</sup>The lampstand had six branches—three branches on one side and three branches on the other side. <sup>19</sup>Each branch had three flowers on it. These flowers were made like almond flowers with buds and petals. <sup>20</sup>The shaft of the lampstand had four more flowers. They were also made like almond flowers with buds and petals. <sup>21</sup>There were six branches—three branches coming out from each side of the shaft. And there was a flower with buds and petals below each of the three places where the branches joined the shaft. <sup>22</sup>The whole lampstand, with the flowers and branches, was made from pure gold. All this gold was hammered and joined together into one piece. <sup>23</sup>He made seven lamps for this lampstand. Then he made wick trimmers and trays from pure gold. <sup>24</sup>He used 75 pounds* of pure gold to make the lampstand and the things used with it.

The Altar for Burning Incense

<sup>25</sup>He made the altar* for burning incense.* He made this from acacia wood. The altar was square. It was 18 inches* long, 18 inches* wide, and 36 inches* high. There were four horns on the altar. There was one horn on each corner. These horns were joined together with the altar to make one piece. <sup>26</sup>He covered the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold. Then he put gold trim around the altar.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

<sup>23</sup>He made two gold rings for the altar. He put the gold rings below the trim on each side of the altar. These gold rings held the poles for carrying the altar. <sup>24</sup>He made the poles from acacia wood and covered them with gold.

<sup>25</sup>Then he made the holy anointing oil.* He also made the pure, sweet-smelling incense.* These things were made the same way that a perfume maker would make them.

The Altar for Burning Offerings

38 Then Bezalel used acacia wood to build the altar. This was the altar used for burning offerings. The altar was square. It was  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* long,  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* wide, and  $4\frac{1}{2}$  feet\* high. <sup>2</sup>He made a horn for each of the four corners of the altar. He joined each horn to its corner so that everything was one piece. He covered the altar with bronze.\* <sup>3</sup>Then he used bronze to make all the tools to be used on the altar. He made the pots, shovels, bowls, forks, and pans. <sup>4</sup>Then he made a bronze screen for the altar. This screen was like a net. The screen was put under the ledge at the bottom of the altar. It went halfway up into the altar from below. <sup>5</sup>Then he made bronze rings. These rings were used to hold the poles for carrying the altar. He put the rings at the four corners of the screen. <sup>6</sup>Then he used acacia wood to make the poles and covered them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>He put the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar. The poles were used for carrying the altar. He used boards to make the altar. It was hollow.

<sup>8</sup>He made the bowl and its base with bronze.* He used the bronze mirrors that the women gave. These were the women that served at the entrance to the Meeting Tent.*

The Courtyard Around the Holy Tent

<sup>9</sup>Then he made the courtyard. On the south side he made a wall of curtains 50 yards* long. The curtains were made from fine linen.* <sup>10</sup>The curtains on the south side were supported by 20 posts. The posts were on 20 bronze* bases. The hooks for the posts and the curtain rods* were made from silver. <sup>11</sup>The north side of the courtyard also had a wall of curtains 50 yards* long. There were 20 posts with 20 bronze bases. The hooks for the posts and the curtain rods were made from silver.

<sup>12</sup>On the west side of the courtyard the wall of curtains was 25 yards* long. There were 10 posts and 10 bases. The hooks for the posts and the curtain rods* were made from silver.

<sup>13</sup>The east side of the courtyard was 25 yards\* wide. The entrance to the courtyard was on this side. <sup>14</sup>On one side of the entrance the wall of curtains was  $7\frac{1}{2}$  yards\* long. There were three posts and three bases on this side. <sup>15</sup>On the other side of the entrance the wall of curtains was also  $7\frac{1}{2}$  yards\* long. There were three posts and three bases on that side. <sup>16</sup>All the curtains around the courtyard were made from fine linen.\* <sup>17</sup>The bases for the posts were made from bronze\*. The hooks and the curtain rods\* were made from silver. The tops of the posts were covered with silver also. All the posts in the courtyard had silver curtain rods.

<sup>18</sup>The curtain for the entrance of the courtyard was made from fine linen\* and blue, purple, and red yarn. Designs were woven into that curtain. The curtain was 10 yards\* long and  $2\frac{1}{2}$  yards\* high. It was the same height as the curtains around the courtyard. <sup>19</sup>The curtain was supported by four posts and four bronze\*

anointing oil Fine olive oil that was poured on things or people to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

bases. The hooks on the posts were made from silver. The tops on the posts were covered with silver, and the curtain rods* were also made from silver. <sup>20</sup>All the tent pegs for the Holy Tent* and for the curtains around the courtyard were made from bronze.

<sup>21</sup>Moses commanded the Levite people to write down all the things that were used to make the Holy Tent,* the Tent of the Agreement.* Ithamar son of Aaron, was in charge of keeping the list.

<sup>22</sup>Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, from the family group of Judah, made everything the Lord commanded Moses. <sup>23</sup>Also Oholiab son of Ahisamach, from the family group of Dan, helped him. Oholiab was a skilled worker and designer. He was skilled at weaving fine linen* and blue, purple, and red yam.

<sup>24</sup>More than 2 tons* of gold was given as an offering to the Lord for his holy place. (This was weighed using the official measure.*)

<sup>25</sup>The total number of men that were counted gave more than 3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> tons* of silver. (This was weighed using the official measure.)* <sup>26</sup>All the men 20 years old or older were counted. There were 603,550 men, and each man had to pay a tax of 1 beqa* of silver. (Using the official measure, a beqa is 1/2 shekel.)* <sup>27</sup>They used 3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> tons* of that silver to make the 100 bases for the Lord's, holy place and for the curtain. They used 75 pounds* of silver for each base. <sup>28</sup>The other 50 pounds* of silver was used to make the hooks, the curtain rods,* and the silver covering for the posts.

curtain rods Or, "fasteners."

Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle." The place God came to live among his people.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The two flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

official measure Literally, "holy shekel," the official standard of measure used in the tabernacle or temple.

3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> tons Literally, "100 kikars and 1,775 shekels."

1 beqa Or, "1/5 of an ounce."

shekel Or, "2/3 of an ounce."

75 pounds Literally, "1 kikar."

50 pounds Literally, "1,775 shekels."

<sup>29</sup>More than 26<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> tons* of bronze* was given to the Lord. <sup>30</sup>That bronze was used to make the bases at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* They also used the bronze to make the altar* and the bronze screen. And the bronze was used to make all the tools and dishes for the altar. <sup>31</sup>It was also used to make the bases for the curtains around the courtyard and the bases for the curtains at the entrance. And the bronze was used to make the tent pegs for the Holy Tent* and for the curtains around the courtyard.

The Priests' Special Clothes

39 The workers used the blue, purple, and red yam to make special clothes for the priest to wear when they served in the Lord's, holy place. They also made the special clothes for Aaron like the Lord had commanded Moses.

The Ephod

<sup>2</sup>They made the Ephod* from gold thread, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yam. <sup>3</sup>(They hammered the gold into thin strips. Then they cut the gold into long threads. And they wove the gold into the blue, purple, and red yam and fine linen. This was the work of a very skilled person.) <sup>4</sup>They made the shoulder pieces for the Ephod. They tied these shoulder pieces to the two corners of the Ephod. <sup>5</sup>They wove the sash (belt) and fastened it to the Ephod. It was made the same way as the Ephod—they used gold thread, fine linen and blue, purple, and red yam, just like the Lord commanded Moses.

Ephod.* These jewels were to cause God to remember the people of Israel. This was done like the Lord commanded Moses.

The Judgment Pouch

<sup>8</sup>Then they made the Judgment Pouch.* It was the work of a skilled person. The Judgment Pouch was made like the Ephod.* It was made from gold threads, fine linen,* and blue, purple, and red yarn. <sup>9</sup>The Judgment Pouch was folded double to make a square [pocket]. It was 9 inches* long and 9 inches* wide. <sup>10</sup>Then the workers put four rows of beautiful jewels on the Judgment Pouch. The first row had a ruby, a topaz, and a beryl. <sup>11</sup>The second row had a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald. <sup>12</sup>The third row had a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. <sup>13</sup>The fourth row had a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. All these jewels were set in gold. <sup>14</sup>There were twelve jewels on the Judgment Pouch—one jewel for each of the sons of Israel (Jacob). The name of one of the sons of Israel was written on each stone. The names were cut into each stone, like a worker makes a seal.*

<sup>15</sup>They made chains from pure gold for the Judgment Pouch.* They were braided like a rope. <sup>16</sup>The workers made two gold settings and two gold rings. They put the two gold rings on the two corners of the Judgment Pouch. <sup>17</sup>Then they put the two gold chains through the two rings at the corners of the Judgment Pouch. <sup>18</sup>They fastened the other ends of the gold chains to the two settings. This fastened them to the two shoulder pieces of the Ephod* in the front. <sup>19</sup>Then they made two more gold rings and put them on the other two corners of the Judgment Pouch. They put the rings on the inside edge of the Judgment Pouch next to the Ephod. <sup>20</sup>They also put two gold rings on the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the Ephod. These rings were near the fastener, just above the sash (belt). <sup>21</sup>Then they used a blue ribbon and tied the rings of the Judgment Pouch to the rings of the Ephod. In this way the Judgment Pouch would rest close to the sash and would be held tight against the Ephod. They did all these things like the Lord commanded.

Other Clothes for the Priests

<sup>27</sup>Skilled workers wove shirts for Aaron and his sons. These shirts were made from fine linen.* <sup>28</sup>And the workers made a turban* from fine linen. They also used fine linen to make head bands and underclothes. <sup>29</sup>Then they made the sash (belt) from fine linen and blue, purple, and red yarn. Designs were sewn into the cloth. These things were made like the Lord had commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup>Then they made the strip of gold for the holy crown. They made it from pure gold. They wrote words into the gold. They wrote these words: HOLY TO THE LORD. <sup>31</sup>They fastened the gold strip to a blue ribbon. Then they tied the blue ribbon around the turban* like the Lord had commanded Moses.

Ephod A special coat worn by the priests.

Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the high priest's chest. See Ex. 28:15-30.

linen Thread or cloth made from the fibers of the flax plant.

9 inches Literally, "1 span."

seal(s) Small stones with designs cut into them. Pressed into wet clay or hot wax, they made a special mark.

pomegranates A red fruit about the size of an orange.

turban Head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

Moses Inspects the Holy Tent

<sup>32</sup>So all the work on Holy Tent,* the Meeting Tent was finished. The people of Israel did everything exactly like the Lord had commanded Moses. <sup>33</sup>Then they showed the Holy Tent to Moses. They showed him the Tent and all the things in it. They showed him the rings, the frames, the braces, the posts, and the bases. <sup>34</sup>They showed him the covering of the Tent that was made from ram skins dyed red. And they showed him the covering that was made from fine leather.* And they showed him the curtain that covered the entrance to the Most Holy Place.

fine leather A special kind of leather made from the skin of an animal like a seal or sea cow.

Box of the Agreement Or, "ark of the Covenant." The box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

cover Also called "mercy seat." The Hebrew word can mean "lid," "cover," or "the place where sins are forgiven."

special bread Also called "Bread of the Presence." Every day this bread was put before God on the special table in the Holy Place.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

anointing oil Fine olive oil that was poured on things or people to show that they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

screen. They showed him the poles used for carrying the altar. And they showed him all the things that were used on the altar. They showed him the bowl and the base under the bowl.

<sup>40</sup>They showed Moses the wall of curtains around the courtyard with the posts and bases. They showed him the curtain that covered the entrance to the courtyard. They showed him the ropes and the tent pegs. They showed him all the things in the Holy Tent,* the Meeting Tent.

<sup>41</sup>Then they showed Moses the clothes that were made for the priests serving in the holy area. They showed him the special clothes for Aaron the priest and his sons. These were clothes for them to wear when they served as priests.

<sup>42</sup>The people of Israel did all this work exactly like the Lord had commanded Moses. <sup>43</sup>Moses looked closely at all the work. Moses saw that the work was done exactly like the Lord had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

Moses Sets Up the Holy Tent

40 Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>"On the first day of the first month, set up the Holy Tent,* the Meeting Tent. <sup>25</sup>Put the Box of the Agreement* in the Holy Tent. Cover the Box with the curtain. <sup>26</sup>Then bring in the table. Put the things on the table that should be there. Then put the lampstand in the Tent. Put the lamps on the lampstand in the right places. <sup>27</sup>Put the gold altar* for offering incense* in the Tent. Put the altar in front of the Box of the Agreement. Then put the curtain at the entrance to the Holy Tent.

<sup>31</sup>Use the anointing oil and anoint* the Holy Tent* and everything in it. When you put the oil on these things, you will make them holy.*

 10Anoint the altar for burning offerings. Anoint everything on the altar. You will make the altar holy. It will be very holy. 11Then anoint the bowl and the base under it. Do this to make those things holy.

12“Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Wash them with water. 13Then put the special clothes on Aaron. Anoint* him with the oil and make him holy.* Then he can serve me as a priest. 14Then put the clothes on his sons. 15Anoint the sons in the same way that you anointed their father. Then they can also serve me as priests. When you anoint them, they will become priests. That family will continue to be priests for all time to come.” 16Moses obeyed the Lord. He did everything that the Lord commanded him.

17So the Holy Tent* was set up at the right time. It was the first day of the first month during the second year [from the time they left Egypt]. 18Moses set up the Holy Tent like the Lord had said. He put the bases down first. Then he put the frames on the bases. Then he put the braces on and set up the posts. 19After that, Moses put the outer tent over the Holy Tent. Then he put the covering over the outer tent. He did these things like the Lord had commanded.

20Moses took the Agreement* and put it in the Holy Box. Moses put the poles on the Box. Then he put the cover* on the Box. 21Then Moses brought the Holy Box into the Holy Tent.* He hung the curtain in the right place to protect it. In this way, he protected the Box of the Agreement* [behind the curtain, like the Lord had commanded him. 22Then Moses put the table in the Meeting Tent. He put it on the north side of the Holy Tent. He put it [in the Holy Place,] in front of the curtain. 23Then he put the bread on the table before the Lord. He did this like the Lord had commanded him. 24Then Moses put the lampstand in the Meeting Tent. He put the lampstand on the south side of the Tent, across from the table. 25Then Moses put the lamps on the lampstand before the Lord. He did this like the Lord had commanded him.

26Then Moses put the gold altar* in the Meeting Tent.* He put the altar in front of the curtain. 27Then he burned sweet-smelling incense* on the altar. He did this like the Lord had commanded him. 28Then Moses put the curtain at the entrance to the Holy Tent.*

29Moses put the altar* for burning offerings, at the entrance to the Holy Tent,* the Meeting Tent. Then Moses offered a burnt offering on that altar. He also offered grain offerings to the Lord. He did these things like the Lord had commanded him.

30Then Moses put the bowl between the Meeting Tent* and the altar.* Moses put water in the bowl for washing. 31Moses, Aaron, and Aaron’s sons used this bowl to wash their hands and feet. 32They washed themselves every time they entered the Meeting Tent. They also washed themselves every time they went near the altar. They did these things like the Lord commanded Moses.

33Then Moses set up [the curtains around] the courtyard of the Holy Tent.* Moses put the altar* in the courtyard. Then he put the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard. So Moses finished all the work that the Lord had given him to do.

holy Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

anoint To pour olive oil on things or people to show they are chosen by God for a special work or purpose.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle.” The place God came to live among his people.

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The two flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

cover Also called “mercy seat.” The Hebrew word can mean “lid,” “cover” or “the place where sins are forgiven.”

Box of the Agreement Or, “ark of the Covenant.” The box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

The Glory of the Lord

The Glory of the Lord* filled the Holy Tent.*

<sup>35</sup>The cloud settled on the Meeting Tent. Moses could not enter, because the Glory of the Lord filled the Holy Tent.

<sup>36</sup>«The cloud showed the people when to move.» When the cloud rose from the Holy Tent,* then the people would begin to travel.

<sup>37</sup>But while the cloud stayed on the Holy Tent, the people did not try to move. They stayed in that place until the cloud rose. <sup>38</sup>So the cloud of the Lord was over the Holy Tent during the day. And at night, there was a fire in the cloud. So all the people of Israel could see the cloud while they traveled.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle), where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This was like a bright shining light.

Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle." The place God came to live among his people.

Sacrifices and Offerings

1 The Lord God called to Moses and spoke to him from the Meeting Tent.* The Lord said, <sup>2</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: When you bring an offering to the Lord, the offering must be one of your tame animals—it can be a cow, a sheep, or a goat.

<sup>3</sup>“When a person offers one of his cows as a burnt offering, then that animal must be a bull that has nothing wrong with it. The person must take the animal to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Then the Lord will accept the offering. <sup>4</sup>“The person must put his hand on the animal’s head while it is being killed. The Lord will accept that burnt offering as payment to make that person pure.*

offering, an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>“When a person offers a sheep or a goat as a burnt offering, then that animal must be a male animal that has nothing wrong with it. <sup>11</sup>The person must kill the animal on the north side of the altar* in front of the Lord. Then Aaron’s sons, the priests, must sprinkle the animal’s blood on the altar, all around it. <sup>12</sup>Then the priest must cut the animal into pieces. The priest must lay the pieces (the head and the fat) on the wood that is on the fire on the altar. <sup>13</sup>The priest must wash the legs and inside parts of the animal with water. Then the priest must offer all the animal’s parts. He must burn the animal on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord.

<sup>14</sup>“When a person offers a bird as a burnt offering to the Lord, then that bird must be a dove or a young pigeon. <sup>15</sup>The priest must bring the offering to the altar.* The priest must pull off the bird’s head and burn the bird on the altar. The bird’s blood must be drained out on the side of the altar. <sup>16</sup>The priest must remove the bird’s crop* and feathers and throw them on the east side of the altar. This is the place where they put the ashes from the altar. <sup>17</sup>Then the priest must tear the bird by its wings, but he must not divide the bird into two parts. The priest must burn the bird on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

crop A small bag inside a bird’s throat. When a bird eats, its food goes into this bag first to be made soft.

Grain Offerings

2 “When a person gives a grain offering to the Lord God, his offering must be made from fine flour. The person must pour oil on this flour and put frankincense* on it. <sup>2</sup>Then he must bring it to Aaron’s sons, the priests. He must take a handful of the fine flour with the oil and frankincense in it. Then the priest must burn this memorial offering on the altar.* It is an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord. <sup>3</sup>The grain offering that is left will belong to Aaron and his sons. This offering made by fire to the Lord is very holy.

Baked Grain Offerings

“When a person gives a grain offering that was baked in the oven, then it must be unleavened bread* made from fine flour mixed with oil, or wafers* with oil poured over them. <sup>5</sup>If you bring a grain offering from the baking pan, then it must be made from fine flour mixed with oil but without yeast. <sup>6</sup>You must break it into pieces and pour oil over it. It is a grain offering. <sup>7</sup>If you bring a grain offering cooked in a frying pan, then it must be made from fine flour mixed with oil.

“You must bring grain offerings made from these things to the Lord. You must take those things to the priest, and he will put them on the altar.* <sup>9</sup>Then the priest will take part of the grain offering, and burn this memorial offering on the altar. It is an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord. <sup>10</sup>The grain offering that is left will belong to Aaron and his sons. This offering made by fire to the Lord is very holy.

“You must not give any grain offering to the Lord that has yeast in it. You must not burn yeast or honey as an offering made by fire to the Lord. <sup>12</sup>You may bring yeast and honey to the Lord as an offering from the first harvest. But yeast and honey must not be burned to go up as a sweet smell on the altar.* <sup>13</sup>You must also put salt on every grain offering you bring. You must not let the salt of God’s Agreement be missing from your grain offering. You must bring salt with all your offerings.

Grain Offerings from First Harvest

“When you bring a grain offering from the first harvest to the Lord, you must bring roasted heads of grain. They must be crushed heads of fresh grain. This will be your grain offering from the first harvest. <sup>15</sup>You must put oil and frankincense* on it. It is a grain offering. <sup>16</sup>The priest must burn part of the crushed grain, the oil, and all the frankincense on it as the memorial offering. It is an offering by fire to the Lord.

Fellowship Offerings

3 “When a person gives a sacrifice as a fellowship offering, the animal must have nothing wrong with it. The animal can be a cow, a sheep, or a goat. And the animal can be a male or a female animal. <sup>2</sup>The person must put his hand on the animal’s head and kill the animal at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Then Aaron’s sons, the priests, must sprinkle the blood on the altar,* all around it. <sup>3</sup>The fellowship offering is an offering made by fire to the Lord. The person must offer the fat that is on and around the animal’s inside parts. <sup>4</sup>The person must offer the two kidneys and the fat covering them at the loins.* He must also offer the fat covering the liver. He must offer the liver with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup>Then Aaron’s sons will burn the fat on the altar. They will put it on the burnt offering that is on the wood on the fire. It is an offering by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord.

“When a person gives a sheep or a goat as a fellowship offering to the Lord, then the animal must have nothing wrong with it. The animal can be a male or a female animal. <sup>7</sup>If he brings a lamb as his offering, then he must bring it before the Lord. <sup>8</sup>He must put his hand on the animal’s head and kill the animal in front of the Meeting Tent.* Then Aaron's sons must sprinkle the animal's blood on the altar,* all around it. <sup>9</sup>The person must give part of the fellowship offering as an offering made by fire to the Lord. The person must offer the fat, the whole fat tail, and the fat that is on and around the animal's inside parts. (He must cut off the tail close to the backbone.) <sup>10</sup>The person must offer the two kidneys and the fat covering them at the loins.* He must also offer the fat covering the liver. He must offer the liver with the kidneys. <sup>11</sup>Then the priest must burn them on the altar. The fellowship offering is an offering made by fire to the Lord. But it will also be food for the people. .

A Goat as a Fellowship Offering

<sup>12</sup>"If the offering is a goat, then the person must bring it before the Lord. <sup>13</sup>The person must put his hand on the goat's head and kill it in front of the Meeting Tent.* Then Aaron's son must sprinkle the goat's blood on the altar,* all around it. <sup>14</sup>The person must give part of the fellowship offering as an offering made by fire to the Lord. The person must offer the fat that is on and around the animal's inside parts. <sup>15</sup>The person must offer the two kidneys and the fat covering them at the loins.* He must also offer the fat covering the liver. He must offer the liver with the kidneys. <sup>16</sup>Then the priest must burn them on the altar. The fellowship offering is an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord. It is also food for the people,—but the best parts* belong to the Lord. <sup>17</sup>This rule will continue forever through all your generations. Wherever you live, you must never eat fat or blood."

Offerings for Accidental Sins

4 The Lord spoke to Moses. The Lord said, <sup>24</sup>"Tell the people of Israel: If any person sins by accident and does any of the things the Lord said must not be done, then that person must do these things:

<sup>3</sup>If the anointed priest* makes a mistake in a way that leaves the people guilty for their sin, then the priest must make an offering to the Lord for his sin. The priest must offer a young bull that has nothing wrong with it. He must offer the young bull to the Lord as a sin offering. <sup>4</sup>The anointed priest must bring the bull to the entrance of the Meeting Tent* in front of the Lord. He must put his hand on the bull's head and kill the bull in front of the Lord. <sup>5</sup>Then the anointed priest* must get some of the blood from the bull and take it into the Meeting Tent. <sup>6</sup>The priest must put his finger in the blood and sprinkle the blood seven times before the Lord in front of the curtain of the Most Holy Place.* <sup>7</sup>The priest must put some of the blood on the corners of the incense* altar.* (This altar is in the Meeting Tent, in front of the Lord.) The priest must pour out all of the bull's blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering. (This altar is at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.) <sup>8</sup>And he must take all the fat from the bull of the sin offering. He must take the fat that is on and around the inside parts. <sup>9</sup>He must take the two kidneys and the fat covering them at the loins.* He must also take the fat covering the liver. He must take out the liver with the kidneys. <sup>10</sup>The priest must offer these parts just like they are offered from the bull of the fellowship offering.* The priest must burn the animal parts on the altar of burnt offering. <sup>11-12</sup>But the priest must carry out the bull's skin, inside parts and body waste, and all the meat on its head and legs. The priest must carry those parts outside the camp to the special place where the ashes are poured out. The priest must put those parts there on the wood and burn them. The bull must be burned where the ashes are poured out.

anointed priest The priest chosen to serve at a particular time. The priests took turns. Special oil was poured on the one chosen to show that God chose him to serve.

Most Holy Place Most important room in the Holy Tent. The Holy Box with the Cherub Angels on it was in this room. It was like God's throne.

just like ... fellowship offering See Lev. 3:1-5.

<sup>13</sup>“It may happen that the whole nation of Israel sins without knowing it. They might have done any of the things that the Lord has commanded them not to do. If this happens, they will become guilty. <sup>14</sup>If they learn about that sin, then they must offer a young bull as a sin offering for the whole nation. They must bring the bull to the Meeting Tent.* <sup>15</sup>The elders (leaders) of the people must put their hands on the bull’s head in front of the Lord, and then a person must kill the bull in front of the Lord. <sup>16</sup>Then the anointed priest* must get some of the bull’s blood and take it into the Meeting Tent. <sup>17</sup>The priest must put his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times in front of the curtain before the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Then the priest must put some of the blood on the corners of the altar.* (This altar is in the Meeting Tent, in front of the Lord.) The priest must pour out all the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering. (This altar is at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.) <sup>19</sup>Then the priest must take all the fat from the animal and burn it on the altar. <sup>20</sup>The priest must offer these parts just like he offered the bull of the sin offering.* In this way, the priest will make the people pure.* And God will forgive the people of Israel. <sup>21</sup>The priest must carry this bull outside the camp and burn it, just like he burned the other bull. This is the sin offering for the whole community.

<sup>22</sup>“A ruler might sin by accident and do one of the things the Lord his God said must not be done. The ruler will be guilty of doing wrong. <sup>23</sup>If the ruler learns about his sin, then he must bring a male goat that has nothing wrong with it. That will be his offering. <sup>24</sup>The ruler must put his hand on the goat’s head and kill the goat at the place where they kill the burnt offering before the Lord. The goat is a sin offering. <sup>25</sup>The priest must take some of the blood of the sin offering on his finger and put it on the corners of the altar* of burnt offering. The priest must pour the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>26</sup>And the priest must burn all the goat’s fat on the altar. He must burn it like he burns the fat of the sacrifice of fellowship offerings. In this way, the priest will make the ruler pure.* And God will forgive the ruler.

<sup>27</sup>“One of the common people might sin by accident and do one of the things that the Lord said must not be done. <sup>28</sup>If that person learns about his sin, then he must bring a female goat that has nothing wrong with it. That will be the person’s sin offering. He must bring this goat for the sin that he has done. <sup>29</sup>He must put his hand on the animal’s head and kill it at the place for the burnt offering. <sup>30</sup>Then the priest must take some of the goat’s blood on his finger and put it on the corners of the altar* of burnt offering. Then the priest must pour out the rest of the goat’s blood at the base of the altar. <sup>31</sup>The priest must offer all the goat’s fat, just like the fat is offered from the fellowship offerings. The priest must burn it on the altar as a sweet smell to the Lord. In this way, the priest will make that person pure.* And God will forgive that person.

<sup>32</sup>“If that person brings a lamb as his sin offering, then he must bring a female lamb that has nothing wrong with it. <sup>33</sup>The person must put his hand on the animal’s head and kill it as a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. <sup>34</sup>The priest must take some of the blood from the sin offering on his finger and put it on the corners of the altar* of burnt offering. Then the priest must pour out all the lamb’s blood at the base of the altar. <sup>35</sup>The priest must offer all the lamb’s fat, just like the fat of the lamb is offered from the fellowship offerings. The priest must burn it on the altar, just like any offering made by fire to the Lord. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* from the sin he did. And God will forgive that person.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

anointed priest The priest chosen to serve at a particular time. The priests took turns. Special oil was poured on the one chosen to show that God chose him to serve.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

like ... sin offering See Lev. 4:3-12.

make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

Different Accidental Sins

5 “A person might hear a warning. Or a person might see or hear something that he should tell to other people. If that person does not tell what he saw or heard, then that person is guilty of doing wrong. <sup>2</sup>Or a person might touch something unclean.* It might be the dead body of a tame animal, or it might be the dead body of an unclean animal. That person might not know that he touched those things, but he will still be guilty of doing wrong. <sup>3</sup>There are many things that come from a person that make a person unclean. A person might touch any of these things from another person, but not know about it. When that person learns that he has touched something unclean, he will be guilty. <sup>4</sup>Or a person might make a quick promise to do something—it makes no difference if it is bad or good. People make many kinds of quick promises. A person might make such a promise and forget it.* When he remembers* his promise, then he will be guilty, because he didn’t keep his promise. <sup>5</sup>So, if a person is guilty of any of these things, then he must confess (admit) the thing he did wrong. <sup>6</sup>He must bring his guilt offering to the Lord for the sin he did. He must bring a female lamb or a female goat as a sin offering. Then the priest will do the things that will make that person pure* from the sin that person did.

<sup>7</sup>“If the person can’t afford a lamb, he must bring two doves or two young pigeons to the Lord. These will be the guilt offering for his sin. One bird must be for a sin offering, and the other must be for a burnt offering. <sup>8</sup>The person must bring them to the priest. First, the priest will offer one bird for the sin offering. The priest will pull off the bird’s head from its neck. But the priest will not divide the bird into two parts. <sup>9</sup>The priest must sprinkle the blood from the sin offering on the side of the altar.* Then the priest must pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>Then the priest must offer the second bird according to the rules for a burnt offering. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* from the sin that person did. And God will forgive that person.

<sup>11</sup>“If the person can’t afford two doves or two pigeons, then he must bring 8 cups* of fine flour. This will be his sin offering. The person must not put oil on the flour. He must not put frankincense* on it, because it is a sin offering. <sup>12</sup>The person must bring the flour to the priest. The priest will take a handful from the flour. It will be a memorial offering. The priest will burn the flour on the altar.* It will be an offering made by fire to the Lord. It is a sin offering. <sup>13</sup>In this way, the priest will make that person pure.* And God will forgive that person. The grain offering that is left will belong to the priest, just like the meal offering.”

<sup>14</sup>“The Lord said to Moses, <sup>15</sup>“A person might accidentally do something wrong with the holy things of the Lord.* Then that person must bring a ram that has nothing wrong with it. This will be his guilt offering to the Lord. You must use the official measure* and set the price of the ram. <sup>16</sup>That person must pay for the sin he did with the holy things. He must give the things he promised, add one-fifth to the value, and give this money to the priest. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* with the ram of the guilt offering. And God will forgive that person.

<sup>17</sup>“If a person sins and does any of the things that the Lord has commanded not to be done, it does not matter if that person did not know. That person is guilty. That person must accept the responsibility for his sin. <sup>18</sup>That person must bring a ram that has nothing wrong with it to the priest. The ram will be a guilt offering. In holy things ... Lord These are probably special gifts that a person promised but forgot to give to the Lord.

8 cups Literally, “ $\frac{1}{10}$  of an ephah.”

Frankincense Very special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

official measure Literally, “holy shekel,” the official standard of measure used in the tabernacle or temple.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

forget it Literally, “it is hid from him.”

remembers Literally, “knows of.”

make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

this way, the priest will make that person pure* from the sin that person did without knowing. And God will forgive that person. <sup>19</sup>The person is guilty, even if he did not know he was sinning. So he must give the guilt offering to the Lord."

Guilt Offerings for Other Sins

6 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>"A person might do wrong against the Lord by doing one of these sins: A person might lie about what happened, to something he was taking care of for someone else. Or a person might lie about a deposit* he received. Or a person might steal something. Or a person might cheat someone. <sup>3</sup>Or a person might find something that was lost and then lie about it. Or a person might promise to do something and then not do what he promised. Or a person might do some other bad thing. <sup>4</sup>If a person does any of those things, then that person is guilty of sin. That person must bring back whatever he stole, or whatever he took by cheating, or whatever he took that the other person asked him to hold for him, or whatever he found and lied about, or <sup>5</sup>whatever he made a false promise about. He must pay the full price. And then he must pay an extra fifth of the value of the thing. He must give the money to the true owner. He must do this on the day he brings his guilt offering.

<sup>6</sup>"That person must bring a guilt offering to the priest. It must be a ram from the flock. The ram must not have anything wrong with it. It must be worth the amount that the priest says. It will be a guilt offering to the Lord. <sup>7</sup>Then the priest will go to the Lord and do the things that will make that person pure*. And God will forgive that person for all the things that made him guilty."

deposit Literally, "pledge" or "security." This is something like a down payment given as proof that something more important will be done.

Burnt Offerings

<sup>8</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>9</sup>"Give this command to Aaron and his sons: This is the law of the burnt offering. The burnt offering must stay on the hearth* of the altar* all night until morning. The altar's fire must be kept burning on the altar. <sup>10</sup>The priest must put on his linen robe. He must put on his linen underwear next to his body. Then the priest must pick up the ashes left by the fire when it burned the burnt offering on the altar. The priest must put these ashes beside the altar. <sup>11</sup>Then the priest must take off his clothes and put on other clothes. Then he must carry the ashes outside the camp to a special place. <sup>12</sup>But the altar's fire must be kept burning on the altar. It must not be allowed to stop burning. The priest must burn wood on the altar every morning. He must put the wood on the altar. He must burn the fat of the fellowship offerings. <sup>13</sup>Fire must be kept burning on the altar without stopping. It must not go out.

Grain Offerings

<sup>14</sup>"This is the law of the grain offering: The sons of Aaron must bring it to the Lord in front of the altar.* <sup>15</sup>The priest must take a handful of the fine flour from the grain offering. The oil and the frankincense* must be on the grain offering. The priest must burn the grain offering on the altar. It will be a memorial offering, to the Lord. Its smell will please the Lord.

<sup>16</sup>"Aaron and his sons must eat the grain offering that is left. The grain offering is a kind of bread made without yeast. The priests must eat this bread in a holy place. They must eat it in the courtyard around the Meeting Tent.* <sup>17</sup>The grain offering must not be cooked with yeast. I have given it as the priests' share of the offerings made to me by fire. It is most holy, hearth The place where a sacrifice is burned.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

frankincense Very special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

like the sin offering and the guilt offering. <sup>18</sup>Every male among the children of Aaron may eat from the offerings made to the Lord by fire. This is a rule forever through your generations. Touching these offerings makes those men holy."

The Priests' Grain Offering

<sup>19</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>20</sup>"This is the offering that Aaron and his sons must bring to the Lord. They must do this on the day they anoint* Aaron to be high priest. They must bring 8 cups* of fine flour for a grain offering. (This will be offered at the times of the daily offering.) They must bring half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening. <sup>21</sup>The fine flour must be mixed with oil and made on a baking pan. When it is cooked, then you must bring it in. You must break the offering into pieces. Its smell will please the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>"The priest from among Aaron's descendants* that is chosen to take Aaron's place must make this grain offering to the Lord. This rule will continue forever. The grain offering must be completely burned for the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Every grain offering of the priest must be completely burned. It must not be eaten."

The Law of the Sin Offering

<sup>24</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>25</sup>"Tell Aaron and his sons: This is the law of the sin offering. The sin offering must be killed in the place where the burnt offering is killed before the Lord. It is most holy. <sup>26</sup>The priest that offers the sin offering must eat it. He must eat it in a holy place, in the courtyard around the Meeting Tent.* <sup>27</sup>Touching the meat of the sin offering, makes a person or a thing holy.

"If any of the sprinkled blood falls on a person's clothes, then you must wash the clothes in a holy place. <sup>28</sup>If the sin offering was boiled in a clay pot, then the pot must be broken. If the sin offering was boiled in a bronze* pot, then the pot must be washed and rinsed in water.

<sup>29</sup>"Any man in a priest's family may eat the sin offering. It is very holy. <sup>30</sup>But if the blood of the sin offering was taken into the Meeting Tent* and used in the Holy Place to make people pure,* then that sin offering must be burned in the fire. The priests must eat that sin offering.

Guilt Offerings

7 "These are the rules for the guilt offering. It is very holy. <sup>2</sup>A priest must kill the guilt offering in the same place where they kill the burnt offerings. Then the priest must sprinkle the blood from the guilt offering around the altar.*

<sup>3</sup>"The priest must offer all the fat from the guilt offering. He must offer the fat tail and the fat that covers the inside parts. <sup>4</sup>The priest must offer the two kidneys and the fat covering them at the loins.* He must also offer the fat covering the liver. He must offer the liver with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup>The priest must burn all those things on the altar.* This will be an offering made by fire to the Lord. It is a guilt offering.

<sup>6</sup>"Every man that is a priest may eat the guilt offering. It is very holy, so it must be eaten in a holy place. <sup>7</sup>The guilt offering is like the sin offering. The same rules are for both offerings. The priest that does the sacrificing will get the meat for food. <sup>8</sup>The priest that does the sacrificing can also have the skin* from the burnt offering. <sup>9</sup>Every grain offering belongs to the priest that offers it. That priest will get the grain offerings that were baked in an oven, or cooked on a frying pan or a baking dish. <sup>10</sup>The grain offerings will belong to Aaron's sons. It anoint To pour olive oil on things or people to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

8 cups Literally, "1/10 of an ephah."

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean "copper," "bronze," or "brass."

make ... pure Or, "make atonement." The Hebrew word means "to cover," "to hide," or "to erase sins."

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

loins The part from behind the ribs to the back legs.

skin This was used for making leather.

does not make any difference if they are dry or mixed with oil. The sons of Aaron (priests) will all share this food.

Fellowship Offerings

<sup>11</sup>“This is the law of the sacrifice* of fellowship offerings that a person offers to the Lord: <sup>12</sup>The person may bring the fellowship offering to show his thanks. If he brings his sacrifice to give thanks, he should also, bring unleavened bread* mixed with oil, wafers* with oil poured over them, and loaves of fine flour mixed with oil. <sup>13</sup>The fellowship offerings is the offering that a person brings to show thanks to God. With that offering the person must bring another offering with loaves of bread made with yeast. <sup>14</sup>One of these loaves of bread will belong to the priest that sprinkles the blood of the fellowship offerings. <sup>15</sup>The meat of the fellowship offering must be eaten on the same day it is offered. A person offers this gift as a way of showing thanks to God. But none of the meat should remain the next morning.

<sup>16</sup>“A person might bring a fellowship offering just because he wants to give a gift to God. Or maybe a person made a special promise to God. If this is true, then the sacrifice* must be eaten the same day he offers it. If there is any left, then it must be eaten that next day. <sup>17</sup>But if any meat from this sacrifice is still left over on the third day, it must be burned in the fire. <sup>18</sup>If a person eats any of the meat from his fellowship offering on the third day, then the Lord will not be happy with that person. The Lord will not count the sacrifice for him. The sacrifice will become a hated thing. And if a person eats any of that meat, then that person will be responsible for his own sin.

<sup>19</sup>“Also, people must not eat the meat that touches anything that is unclean.* They must burn this meat in the fire. Every person that is clean* may eat the meat from the fellowship offering. <sup>20</sup>But if a person is unclean and eats the meat from the fellowship offerings that belongs to the Lord, then that person must be separated from his people.

<sup>21</sup>“A person might touch something that is unclean.* That thing may have been made unclean by people, by an unclean animal, or by any unclean hated thing. That person will become unclean, and, if he eats any of the meat from the fellowship offerings that belong to the Lord, then that person must be separated from his people.”

<sup>22</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>23</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: You must not eat any fat from cows, sheep, or goats. <sup>24</sup>You may use the fat from any animal that has died by itself, or was torn by other, animals. But you must never eat it. <sup>25</sup>If any person eats the fat from an animal that was offered by fire to the Lord, then that person must be separated from his people.

<sup>26</sup>“No matter where you live, you must never eat blood from any bird or any animal. <sup>27</sup>If a person eats any blood, then that person must be separated from his people.”

Rules for the Wave Offering

<sup>28</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>29</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: If a person brings a fellowship offering to the Lord, then that person must give a part of that gift to the Lord. <sup>30</sup>That part of the gift will be burnt in the fire. He must carry that part of the gift in his own hands. He must bring the fat and the breast of the animal to the priest. The breast will be lifted up in front of the Lord. This will be the wave offering. <sup>31</sup>Then the priest must burn the fat on the altar.* But the breast of the animal, will belong to Aaron and his sons. <sup>32</sup>You must also give the right thigh from the fellowship offering to the priest. <sup>33</sup>The right thigh from the fellowship offerings will belong to the priest* that offers the blood and fat of the fellowship offering. <sup>34</sup>I (the Lord) am taking the breast of the wave offerings and the right thigh of the fellowship offerings from sacrifice A gift to God. Usually, it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

unleavened bread Bread made without yeast.

wafers A thin bread, like crackers, made without yeast.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

the priest Literally, “him of the sons of Aaron.”

the people of Israel. And I am giving those things to Aaron and his sons. The people of Israel must obey this rule forever.”

<sup>35</sup>Those are the parts from the offerings made by fire to the Lord that were given to Aaron and his sons. Whenever Aaron and his sons serve as the Lord’s priests, they get that share of the sacrifices. <sup>36</sup>At the time the Lord chose the priests, he commanded the people of Israel to give those parts to the priests. The people must give that share to the priests forever.

<sup>37</sup>Those are the laws about burnt offerings, grain offerings, sin offerings, guilt offerings, fellowship offerings, and about the choosing of priests. <sup>38</sup>The Lord gave those laws to Moses on Mount Sinai. The Lord gave those laws on the day that he commanded the people of Israel to bring their offerings to the Lord in the Sinai desert.

Moses Makes the Priests Ready

8 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Take Aaron and his sons with him and the clothes, the anointing oil,* the bull of the sin offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread.* <sup>3</sup>Then bring the people together at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.*”

<sup>4</sup>Moses did what the Lord commanded him. The people met together at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. <sup>5</sup>Then Moses said to the people, “This is the thing that the Lord has commanded must be done.”

Aaron. <sup>8</sup>Moses put the Judgment Pouch* on Aaron. Then he put the Urim and Thummim* in the pocket of, the Judgment Pouch. <sup>9</sup>Moses also put the turban* on Aaron’s head. Moses put the strip of gold on the front of the turban. This strip of gold is the holy crown. <sup>10</sup>Moses did, this as the Lord commanded him to.

<sup>10</sup>Then Moses took the anointing oil* and sprinkled it on the Holy Tent* and on all the things in it. In this way, Moses made them holy.* <sup>11</sup>Moses sprinkled some of the anointing oil on the altar* seven times. Moses sprinkled the oil on the altar and on all its tools and dishes. Moses also sprinkled the oil on the bowl and its base. In this way, Moses made them holy. <sup>12</sup>Then Moses poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head. In this way, he made Aaron holy. <sup>13</sup>Then Moses brought Aaron’s sons and put the woven shirts on them. He tied sashes (belts) on them. Then he wrapped headbands on their heads. <sup>14</sup>Moses did these things, as the Lord had commanded him.

Judgment Pouch A piece of clothing like a bib or an apron that covered the high priest’s chest.

Urim and Thummim Used by the priest to learn God’s answer to questions. They were probably like lots—stones, sticks, or bones that were thrown like dice to make decisions.

turban Head covering made by wrapping a long piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle.” The place God came to live among his people.

holy Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

anointing oil Olive oil that was poured on things or people to show that they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

unleavened bread Bread made without yeast.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

Ephod A special coat worn by the high priest.

took, the bull's skin, its meat, and its body waste outside the camp. Moses burned those things in a fire outside the camp. Moses did those things like the Lord commanded him.

<sup>22</sup>Then Moses brought the other ram. This ram was used for appointing Aaron and his sons to become priests. Aaron and his sons put their hands on the ram's head. <sup>23</sup>Then Moses killed the ram. He put some of its blood on the tip of Aaron's ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of Aaron's right foot. <sup>24</sup>Then Moses brought Aaron's sons close to the altar. Moses put some of the blood on the tip of their right ears, on the thumb of their right hands, and on the big toe of their right feet. Then Moses sprinkled the blood around on the altar.* <sup>25</sup>Moses took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat on the inside parts, the fat covering of the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh. <sup>26</sup>A basket of unleavened bread* is put before the Lord each day. Moses took one of those loaves of bread, and one loaf of bread mixed with oil, and one unleavened wafer.* Moses put those pieces of bread on the fat and on the right thigh of the ram. <sup>27</sup>Then Moses put all those things, in the hands of Aaron and his sons. Moses waved the pieces as a wave offering before the Lord. <sup>28</sup>Then Moses took these things from the hands of Aaron and his sons. Moses burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering. So that was the offering for appointing Aaron and his sons as priests. It was an offering made by fire. Its smell pleased the Lord. <sup>29</sup>Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering in front of the Lord. It was Moses' share of the ram for appointing the priests. This was like the Lord had commanded Moses.

<sup>31</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Do you remember my command?," I said, 'Aaron and his sons must eat these things.' So take the basket of bread and meat from the ceremony for choosing the priests. Boil that meat at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Eat the meat and bread at that place. Do this like I told you. <sup>32</sup>If any of the meat or bread is left, then burn it. <sup>33</sup>The ceremony for choosing the priests will last for seven days. You must not leave the entrance of the Meeting Tent until that time is finished. <sup>34</sup>The Lord has commanded to do the things that were done today. He commanded these things to make you pure.* <sup>35</sup>You must stay at the entrance of the Meeting Tent day and night for seven days. If you don't obey the Lord's commands, then you will die! The Lord gave me those commands."

The Priests Begin Their Work

9 On the eighth day, Moses called Aaron and his sons. He also called the elders (leaders) of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Moses said to Aaron, "Take a bull and a ram. There must be nothing wrong with those animals. The bull will be a sin offering, and the ram will be a burnt offering. Offer those animals to the Lord. <sup>3</sup>Tell the anointing oil Olive oil that was poured on things or people to show that they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

holy Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

make ... pure Or, "make atonement." The Hebrew word means "to cover," "to hide," or "to erase sins."

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

unleavened bread Bread made without yeast.

wafer A thin bread, like crackers, made without yeast.

people of Israel, "Take a male goat for a sin offering. And take a calf and a lamb for a burnt offering. The calf and the lamb must each be one year old. There must be nothing wrong with those animals. "Take a bull and a ram for fellowship offerings. Take those animals and a grain offering mixed with oil, and offer those things to the Lord. Why? Because today the Lord will appear to you."

<sup>5</sup>So all the people came to the Meeting Tent.* They all brought the things that Moses had commanded. All the people stood before the Lord. <sup>6</sup>Moses said, "You must do those things that the Lord commanded. Then the Glory of the Lord.* will appear to you."

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses told Aaron these things: "Go do the things the Lord commanded. Go to the altar* and offer sin offerings and burnt offerings. Do those things that will make you and the people pure.* Take the people's sacrifices and do the things that will make them pure."

<sup>8</sup>So Aaron went to the altar.* He killed the bull for the sin offering. This sin offering was for himself. <sup>9</sup>Then the sons of Aaron brought the blood to Aaron. Aaron put his finger in the blood and put it on the corners of the altar. Then Aaron poured out the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>10</sup>Aaron took the fat, the kidneys, and the fat covering the liver from the sin offering. He burned those things on the altar. He did this the way the Lord had commanded Moses. <sup>11</sup>Then Aaron burned the meat and skin on a fire outside the camp.

washed the inside parts and the legs of the burnt offering. And he burned them on the altar.

<sup>15</sup>Then Aaron brought the people's offering. He killed the goat of the sin offering that was for the people. He offered the goat for sin, like the first. <sup>16</sup>Aaron brought the burnt offering and offered it, like the Lord had commanded. <sup>17</sup>Aaron brought the grain offering to the altar.* He took a handful of the grain and put it on the altar beside that morning's daily sacrifice.

<sup>22</sup>Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them. After Aaron finished offering the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the fellowship offerings, he came down from the altar.

<sup>23</sup>Moses and Aaron went into the Meeting Tent.* They came out and blessed the people. Then the Glory of the Lord* appeared to all the people. <sup>24</sup>Fire came out from the Lord and burned the burnt offering and fat on the altar.* When all the people saw this, they shouted and bowed their faces low to the ground.

God Destroys Aaron's Sons

10 Then Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu sinned. Each son took a dish for burning incense.* They used a different fire and lit the incense. They did not use the fire that Moses had commanded them to use. <sup>2</sup>So fire came from the Lord and destroyed Nadab and Abihu. They died in front of the Lord.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

Glorify ... Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This was like a bright, shining light.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

make ... pure Or, "make atonement." The Hebrew word means "to cover," "to hide," or "to erase sins."

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

<sup>3</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, "The Lord says, 'The priests that come near me must respect me! I must be holy to them and to all the people.'" So Aaron did not say anything about his sons dying.

<sup>4</sup>Aaron's uncle Uzziel had two sons. They were Mishael and Elzaphan. Moses said to those sons, "Go to the front part of the Holy Place. Take your cousins' bodies and carry them outside the camp."

<sup>5</sup>So Mishael and Elzaphan obeyed Moses. They carried the bodies of Nadab and Abihu outside the camp. Nadab and Abihu were still wearing their special woven shirts.

<sup>6</sup>Then Moses spoke to Aaron and his other sons Eleazar and Ithamar. Moses told them, "Don't show any sadness! Comb your hair and don't tear your clothes! Don't show your sadness and you will not be killed. And the Lord will not be angry against all the people. All the people of Israel are your relatives—they can cry about the Lord burning Nadab and Abihu. <sup>7</sup>But you must not even leave the entrance of the Meeting Tent. If you leave, then you will die! Why? Because the Lord's anointing oil* is on you." So Aaron, Eleazar, and Ithamar obeyed Moses.

<sup>8</sup>Then the Lord said to Aaron, "You and your sons must not drink wine or beer when you come into the Meeting Tent. If you drink those things,, then you will die! This law continues forever through your generations. <sup>10</sup>You must make a clear distinction (difference) between things that are holy and things that are not holy. You must make a clear distinction between things that are clean* and things that are unclean.* <sup>11</sup>The Lord gave his laws to Moses, and Moses gave those laws to the people. Aaron, you must teach the people about all of those laws."

<sup>12</sup>Aaron had two sons that were still alive, Eleazar and Ithamar. Moses talked to Aaron and his two sons. Moses said, "Some of the grain offering is left from the sacrifices that were burned on the fire. You will eat that part of the grain offering. But you must eat it without adding yeast. Eat it near the altar.* Why? Because that offering is very holy.* <sup>13</sup>That is part of the offerings that were burned on the fire for the Lord. And the law I gave you teaches that a part belongs to you and your sons. But you must eat it in a holy place.

<sup>14</sup>Also you, your sons, and your daughters will be able to eat the breast from the wave offerings. You don't have to eat these in a holy place,, but you must eat them in a clean* place. Why? Because they come from the fellowship offerings. The people of Israel give those gifts to God. The people eat part of those animals,, but the breast is your share. <sup>15</sup>The people must bring the fat from their animals as part of the sacrifice that is burned on the fire. They must also bring the thigh of the fellowship offering and the breast of the wave offering. That will be waved in front of the Lord, and then it will be your share of the offering. It will belong to you and your children. That part of the sacrifices will be your share forever, as the Lord has commanded."

<sup>16</sup>Moses looked for the goat of the sin offering. But it was already burned up. Moses became very angry at Aaron's other sons Eleazar and Ithamar. Moses said, <sup>17</sup>"You were supposed to eat that goat in the holy area! It is very holy! Why did you not eat it in front of the Lord? The Lord gave it to you to carry away the guilt of the people—to make the people pure.* <sup>18</sup>That goat's blood was not used inside the Holy Place.* So, you should have eaten it in the holy area, like I commanded!"

<sup>19</sup>But Aaron said to Moses, "Look, today they brought their sin offering and burnt offering before the Lord. But you know what happened to me today! Do you think the Lord would be happy if I ate the sin offering today? No!"

anointing oil Olive oil that was poured on things or people to show that they had been chosen for a special work or purpose.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

holy Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.

make ... pure Or, "make atonement." The Hebrew word means "to cover," "to hide," or "to erase sin."

Holy Place One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.

<sup>20</sup>When Moses heard this, he agreed.

Rules About Eating Meat

11 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>24</sup>Tell the people of Israel: These are the animals you can eat: <sup>3</sup>If an animal has hooves* that are split into two parts, and if that animal also chews the cud,* then you can eat the meat from that animal.

<sup>4</sup>“Some animals chew the cud,* but they don’t have split hooves.* Don’t eat those animals. Camels, rock badgers, and rabbits are like that, so they are unclean* for you. <sup>7</sup>Other animals have hooves* that are split into two parts, but they don’t chew the cud. Don’t eat those animals. Pigs are like that, so they are unclean* for you. <sup>8</sup>Don’t eat the meat from those animals! Don’t even touch their dead bodies! They are unclean for you!

Rules About Sea Food

<sup>9</sup>“If an animal lives in the sea or in a river and if the animal has fins and scales, then you can eat that animal. <sup>10-11</sup>But if an animal lives in the sea or in a river and does not have fins and scales, then you must not eat that animal. It is one of the animals the Lord says is bad to eat. Don’t eat the meat from that animal. Don’t even touch its dead body! <sup>12</sup>You must treat any animal in the water that does not have fins and scales as one of the animals that God says are bad to eat.

Birds That Must Not Be Eaten

hooves The hard part of the foot of certain animals.

cud The food that is brought up from the stomach of some animals (like cows) and chewed again.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

kite(s) A bird like a hawk.

Rules About Eating Insects

<sup>24</sup>“If insects have wings and walk on four feet, then you should treat them as things the Lord says you must not eat. Don’t eat those insects! <sup>25</sup>But you can eat those insects if they have legs with joints above their feet so they can jump. <sup>26</sup>You can also eat all kinds of locusts, all kinds of winged locusts, all kinds of crickets, and all kinds of grasshoppers.

<sup>27</sup>“But all the other insects that have wings and four feet are things the Lord says you must not eat. <sup>28</sup>Those insects will make you unclean.* Any person that touches the dead bodies of these insects will become unclean until evening. <sup>29</sup>If a person picks up one of those dead insects, then that person must wash his clothes. That person will be unclean until evening.

More Rules About Animals

<sup>26-27</sup>“Some animals have split hooves,* but the hooves don’t make exactly two parts. Some animals don’t chew the cud.* Some animals don’t have hooves—they, walk on their paws.* All of those animals are unclean* for you. Any person that touches them will become unclean. That person will be unclean until evening. <sup>28</sup>If any person picks up their dead bodies, that person must wash his clothes. That person will be unclean until evening. Those animals are unclean to you.

Rules About Crawling Animals

<sup>29</sup>“These crawling animals are unclean* for you: moles, mice, all kinds of great lizards, <sup>30</sup>geckos, crocodiles, lizards, sand reptiles, and chameleons. <sup>31</sup>Those crawling animals are unclean for you. Any person that touches their dead bodies will be unclean until evening.

Rules about Unclean Animals

<sup>32</sup>“If any of those unclean* animals dies and falls on something, then that thing will become unclean. It might be something made from wood, cloth, leather, a cloth of sadness or some work tool. Whatever it is, it must be washed with water. It will be unclean until evening. Then it will become clean again. <sup>31</sup>If any of those unclean animals dies and falls into a clay bowl, then anything in the bowl will become unclean. And you must break the bowl. <sup>32</sup>If water [from the unclean clay bowl] comes on any food, then that food will become unclean. Any drink in the unclean bowl will become unclean. <sup>33</sup>If any part of a dead unclean animal falls on something, then that thing is unclean. It may be a [clay] oven or a [clay] baking pan. It must be broken into pieces. Those things will not be clean [any more]. They will always be unclean for you.

<sup>34</sup>“A spring or a well that collects water will [stay] clean.* But any person that touches the dead bodies of any unclean animal will become unclean. <sup>35</sup>If any part of those dead unclean* animals falls on any seed that is to be planted, then that seed is [still] clean. <sup>36</sup>But if you put water on some seeds and then if any part of those dead unclean animals falls on those seeds, then those seeds are unclean for you.

<sup>37</sup>“Also, if [an] animal [that you use for food] dies, then the person that touches its dead body will be unclean* until evening. <sup>38</sup>And the person that eats meat from this animal’s body must wash his clothes. This person will be unclean until evening. The person that picks up the dead body of the animal must wash his clothes. This person will be unclean until evening.

<sup>39</sup>“Every animal that crawls on the ground is one of the animals the Lord says you must not eat. You must not eat it. <sup>40</sup>You must not eat any of the reptiles that crawl on their stomachs or that walk on all four feet, or any of the animals that have many feet. Don’t eat those animals! <sup>41</sup>Don’t let those animals make you filthy.* You must not become unclean! <sup>42</sup>“Why? Because I am the Lord your God! I am holy, so you should keep yourselves holy! Don’t make yourselves unclean with those crawling things! <sup>43</sup>“I brought you people from Egypt. I did this so you could be my special people and I could be your God. I am holy, so you must be holy too!”

<sup>44</sup>Those are the rules about all of the tame animals, birds, and other animals on earth. Those are the rules about all of the animals in the sea and all of the animals that crawl on the ground. <sup>45</sup>Those teachings are so people can know unclean* animals from clean* animals. So people will know which animals they can eat and which animals they must not eat.

Rules for New Mothers

12 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>1</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: If a woman gives birth to a baby boy, then that woman will be unclean* for seven days. This will be like her being unclean during her monthly time of bleeding. <sup>2</sup>On the eighth day, the baby boy must be circumcised.* <sup>3</sup>Then it will be 33 days before she becomes clean* from her loss of blood. She must not touch anything that is holy. She must not enter the Holy Place until the time of her being made clean is finished. <sup>4</sup>But if the woman gives birth to a girl, then the mother will be unclean for two weeks, like in her monthly time of bleeding. It will be 66 days before she becomes clean from her loss of blood.

<sup>5</sup>“After the time for being made clean* is finished, the new mother of a baby girl or boy must bring special sacrifices to the Meeting Tent.* She must give those sacrifices to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. She must bring a one-year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a dove or young pigeon for a sin offering. <sup>6</sup>“If the woman can’t afford a lamb, she may bring two doves or two young pigeons. One bird will be for a burnt offering and one for a sin offering. The priest will offer those things before the Lord. In this way, the priest

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

filthy Or, “hated.” Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

circumcised To have the foreskin cut off. This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:4-14.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

will make her pure.* Then she will be clean from her loss of blood. Those are the rules for a woman that gives birth to a baby boy or a baby girl."

Rules About Skin Diseases

13 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "A person might have a swelling on his skin, or it may be a scab or a bright spot. If the sore looks like the disease of leprosy,* then the person must be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests. <sup>3</sup>The priest must look at the sore on the person's skin. If the hair in the sore has become white, and if the sore seems deeper than the person's skin, then it is a leprosy disease. When the priest has finished looking at the person, the priest must announce that the person is unclean.*

<sup>4</sup>"Sometimes there is a white spot on a person's skin. But the spot does not seem deeper than the skin. If that is true, then the priest must separate that person from other people for seven days. <sup>5</sup>On the seventh day, the priest must look at the person. If the priest sees that the sore has not changed and has not spread on the skin, then the priest must separate the person for seven more days. <sup>6</sup>Seven days later the priest must look at the person again. If the sore has faded, and has not spread on the skin, then the priest must announce that the person is clean.* The sore is only a scab. The person must wash his clothes and become clean again.

<sup>7</sup>"But if, after the person has shown himself to the priest to be made clean (again), the scab spreads more over the skin, then the person must come again to the priest. <sup>8</sup>The priest must look. If the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean.* That is a leprosy* disease.

<sup>9</sup>"If a person has leprosy,* he must be brought to the priest. <sup>10</sup>The priest must look at that person. If there is a white swelling in the skin, and if the hair has become white, and if the skin looks raw in the swelling, <sup>11</sup>then it is a leprosy that has continued for a long time on that person's skin. The priest must announce that the person unclean.* The priest will not separate that person from other people for a short time. Why? Because he knows that the person is unclean.

<sup>12</sup>"Sometimes a skin disease* will spread all over a person's body. The skin disease will cover that person's skin from his head to his feet. The priest must look at that person's whole body. <sup>13</sup>If the priest sees that the skin disease covers the whole body and that it has turned all of that person's skin white, then the priest must announce that the person is clean.* <sup>14</sup>But if the person has raw skin, then he is not clean. <sup>15</sup>When the priest sees the raw skin, he must announce that the person is unclean.* The raw skin is not clean. It is a leprosy* disease.

<sup>16</sup>"If the raw skin changes and becomes white, then the person must come to the priest. <sup>17</sup>The priest must look at the person. If the infection has become white, then the priest must announce that the person that has the infection is clean.* That person is clean.

<sup>18</sup>"A person might have a boil on his skin. The boil is healed, <sup>19</sup>but in the place where the boil was, there is a white swelling, or a reddish-white, bright spot. Then this place on the skin, must be shown to the priest. <sup>20</sup>The priest must look. If the swelling is deeper than the skin, and the hair on it has become white, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean.* The spot is the infection of leprosy.* The leprosy has broken out from inside the boil. <sup>21</sup>But if the priest looks at the spot, and there are no white hairs in it, and the spot is not deeper than the skin, but is faded, then the priest must separate the person for seven days. <sup>22</sup>If more of the spot spreads on the skin, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean. It is an infection. <sup>23</sup>But if the bright spot stays in its place, and does not spread, then it is only the scar from the old boil. The priest must announce that the person is clean.

leprosy A very bad skin disease.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

skin disease Literally, "leprosy." The Hebrew word can mean many kinds of skin disease.

<sup>24-25</sup>“A person might get a burn on his skin. If the raw skin becomes a white or reddish-white spot, the priest must look at it. If that white spot seems to be deeper than the skin, and the hair at that spot has become white, then it is a leprosy* disease. The leprosy has broken out in the burn. Then the priest must announce that the person is unclean.* It is a leprosy disease. <sup>26</sup>But if the priest looks at the spot, and there is no white hair in the bright spot, and the spot is not deeper than the skin, but is faded, then the priest must separate the person for seven days. <sup>27</sup>On the seventh day the priest must look at the person again. If the spot spread on the skin, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean. It is a leprosy disease. <sup>28</sup>But if the bright spot did not spread on the skin, but is faded, it is the swelling from the burn. The priest must announce the person clean. It is only the scar from the burn.

<sup>29</sup>“A person might get an infection on his scalp* or beard. <sup>30</sup>A priest must look at the infection. If the infection seems to be deeper than the skin, and if the hair around it is thin and yellow, then the priest must announce that the person is unclean.* It is a bad skin disease.* <sup>31</sup>If the disease does not seem deeper than the skin, but there is no dark hair in it, then the priest must separate that person for seven days. <sup>32</sup>On the seventh day the priest must look at the infection. If the disease has not spread, and there are no yellow hairs growing in it, and the disease does not seem deeper than the skin, <sup>33</sup>then the person must shave himself. But he must not shave the disease. The priest must separate that person for seven more days. <sup>34</sup>On the seventh day, the priest must look at the disease. If the disease has not spread through the skin, and it does not seem deeper than the skin, then the priest must announce that the person is clean.* The person must wash his clothes and become clean. <sup>35</sup>But if the disease spreads on the skin after the person has become clean, <sup>36</sup>then the priest must look at the person again. If the disease has spread in the skin, the priest does not need to look for the yellowish hair. The person is unclean.* <sup>37</sup>But if the priest thinks that the disease has stopped, and black hair is growing in it, the disease has healed. The person is clean. The priest must announce that the person is clean.

<sup>45</sup>“If a person has a leprosy* disease, then that person must warn other people. That person must shout, ‘Unclean, unclean!’ That person’s clothes must be torn at the seams. That person must let his hair grow wild.* And that person must cover his mouth. <sup>46</sup>That person will be unclean* the whole time he has the infection. That person is unclean. He must live alone. His home must be outside the camp.

priest must look at the mildew. He must put that thing in a separate place for seven days.<sup>51,52</sup> On the seventh day, the priest must look at the mildew. It does not matter if the mildew is on leather or cloth. It does not matter if the cloth is woven or knitted. It does not matter what the leather was used for. If the mildew spread, then that cloth or leather is unclean.* The infection is unclean. The priest must burn that cloth or leather.

<sup>53</sup>“If the priest sees that the mildew* did not spread, then that cloth or leather must be washed. It does not matter if it is leather or cloth, or if the cloth is knitted or woven, it must be washed. <sup>54</sup>The priest must order the people to wash that piece of leather or cloth. Then the priest must separate the clothing for seven more days. <sup>55</sup>After that time, the priest must look again. If the mildew still looks the same, then that thing is unclean.* It does not matter if the infection has not spread. You must burn that cloth or piece of leather.

<sup>56</sup>“But if the priest looks at that piece of leather or cloth, and the mildew has faded, then the priest must tear the infection out of the piece of leather or cloth. It does not matter if the cloth is woven or knitted. <sup>57</sup>But the mildew* might come back to that piece of leather or cloth. If that happens, then the mildew is spreading. That piece of leather or cloth must be burned. <sup>58</sup>But if the mildew did not come back after washing, then that piece of leather or cloth is clean.* It does not matter if the cloth was woven or knitted. That cloth is clean.”

<sup>59</sup>Those are the rules for mildew* on pieces of leather or cloth. It does not matter if the cloth is woven or knitted.

Rules for the Leper Made Clean

<sup>3</sup>“A priest must look at the person that had the skin disease.* <sup>4</sup>The priest must go to that person outside the camp. The priest must look to see if the skin disease is healed. <sup>5</sup>If the person is healthy, then the priest will tell him to do these things: That person must get two living clean* birds. He must also get a piece of cedar wood, a piece of red cloth, and a hyssop* plant. <sup>6</sup>Then the priest must order one bird to be killed in a clay bowl over running water. <sup>7</sup>The priest must take the other bird that is still alive and the piece of cedar wood, the piece of red cloth, and the hyssop plant. He must dip the living bird and the other things in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. <sup>8</sup>The priest must sprinkle the blood seven times on the person that had the skin disease. Then the priest must announce that the person is clean. After that, the priest must go to an open field and let the living bird go free.

<sup>9</sup>“Then that person must wash his clothes. He must shave off all his hair. And he must wash with water. Then he will be clean.* Then that person may go into the camp. But he must stay outside his tent for seven days. <sup>10</sup>On the seventh day, he must shave off all his hair. He must shave his head, his beard, and his eyebrows—yes, all his hair. Then he must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water. Then he will be clean.

<sup>10</sup>“On the eighth day, the person that had a skin disease* must take two male lambs that have nothing wrong with them. He must also take a year-old female lamb that has nothing wrong with it. He must take 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil. This fine flour is for a grain offering. the same priest who announces that the person is clean*)<sup>12</sup>The priest will offer one of the male lambs as a guilt offering. He will offer that lamb and some of the oil as a wave offering before the Lord.<sup>13</sup>Then the priest will kill the male lamb in the holy place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering. The guilt offering is like the sin offering. It belongs to the priest. It is very holy.

<sup>14</sup>“The priest will take some of the blood of the guilt offering. The priest will put some of this blood on the tip of the right ear of the person to be made clean.* The priest will put some of this blood on the thumb of the right hand and on the big toe of the right foot of that person.<sup>15</sup>The priest will also take some of the oil and pour it into his left palm.<sup>16</sup>Then the priest will dip the finger of his right hand into the oil that is in his left palm. He will use his finger to sprinkle some of the oil seven times before the Lord.<sup>17</sup>Then the priest will put some of the oil that is in his palm on the person to be made clean. He will put that oil on the same places he put, the blood of the guilt offering. The priest will put some of the oil on the tip of the person’s right ear. He will put some of the oil on the thumb of the right hand. And he will put some of the oil on the big toe of the person’s right foot.<sup>18</sup>The priest will put the oil that is left in his palm on the head of the person to be made clean. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* before the Lord.

<sup>19</sup>“Then the priest must offer the sin offering for the person to be made clean.* The priest will offer the sin offering and make that person pure.* After that, the priest will kill the animal for the burnt offering.<sup>20</sup>Then the priest will offer up the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar.* In this way, the priest will make that person pure. And the person will be clean.

<sup>21</sup>“But if the person is poor, and he can’t afford those offerings, then he must take one male lamb for a guilt offering. That will be a wave offering, so that the priest can, make that person pure.* He must take 8 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil. This flour will be used for a grain offering. The person must take 2/3 of a pint* of olive oil<sup>22</sup>and two doves or two young pigeons. Even poor people can afford those things. <sup>23</sup>“On the eighth day, the person will bring those things to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Those things will be offered before the Lord so that that person can become clean.*<sup>24</sup>The priest will take the lamb for the guilt offering and the oil, and the priest will offer them as a wave offering before the Lord.<sup>25</sup>Then the priest will kill the lamb of the guilt offering. The priest will take some of the blood of the guilt offering. The priest will put some of this blood on the tip of the right ear of the person to be made clean. He will put some of the oil on the tip of the right ear of the person to be made clean. The priest will put some of the oil on the thumb of the right hand. And he will put some of the oil on the big toe of the person’s right foot.<sup>29</sup>The priest will put the oil that is left in his palm on the head of the person to be made clean. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* before the Lord.

<sup>30</sup>“Then the priest must offer one of the doves or young pigeons. (He must offer whatever the person can afford.)<sup>31</sup>He must offer one of these birds as a sin offering and the other bird as a burnt offering. He must offer the birds with the grain offering. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* before the Lord. And that person will become clean.*”

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

8 cups Literally, “1/10 of an ephah.”

2/3 of a pint Literally, “1 log.”

<sup>32</sup>Those are the rules for making a person clean after he becomes well from a skin disease.* Those are the rules for people that cannot afford the regular sacrifices for becoming clean.

Rules for Mildew in a House

<sup>33</sup>The Lord also said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>34</sup>"I am giving the land of Canaan to your people. Your people will enter that land. At that time, I might cause mildew* to grow in some person's house. <sup>35</sup>The person that owns that house must come and tell the priest, 'I see something like mildew in my house.'

<sup>36</sup>"Then the priest must order the people to take everything out of the house. The people must do this before the priest goes in to look at the mildew.* Then the priest will not have to say everything in the house is unclean.* After the people have taken everything out of the house, the priest will go in to look at the house. <sup>37</sup>The priest will look at the mildew. If the mildew on the walls of the house has holes that are a green color or red color, and if the mildew goes into the wall's surface, <sup>38</sup>then the priest must go out of the house and lock the house for seven days.

<sup>39</sup>"On the seventh day, the priest must come back and check the house. If the mildew* has spread on the walls of the house, <sup>40</sup>then the priest must order the people to tear out the stones with the mildew on them and throw them away. They must put those stones at a special unclean* place outside the city. <sup>41</sup>Then the priest must have all the house scraped inside. The people must throw away the plaster* that they scrape off. They must put that plaster at a special unclean place outside the city. <sup>42</sup>Then that person must put new stones in the walls. And he must cover those walls with new plaster.

<sup>43</sup>"Maybe a person took away the old stones and plaster and put in new stones and plaster. And maybe mildew* again appears in that house. <sup>44</sup>Then the priest must come in and check the house. If the infection has spread in the house, then it is a disease that spreads quickly to other places. So the house is unclean.* <sup>45</sup>That person must tear down the house. They must take all of the stones, plaster, and pieces of wood to the special unclean place outside the city. <sup>46</sup>And any person that goes into that house will be unclean until evening. <sup>47</sup>If any person eats in that house or lies down in there, then that person must wash his clothes.

<sup>48</sup>"After new stones and plaster are put in a house, the priest must check the house. If the mildew* has not spread through the house, then the priest will announce that the house is clean.* Why? Because the mildew is gone!

skin disease Literally, "leprosy." The Hebrew word can mean many kinds of skin disease.

mildew A kind of fungus that often grows on cloth, leather, or wood that is in a warm, damp place.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

plaster A type of mud or cement that people used to cover a wall and make it smooth.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

hyssop A plant with fine branches and leaves used for sprinkling blood or water in cleansing ceremonies.

make ... pure Literally, "make atonement." The Hebrew word means "to cover," "to hide," or "to erase sins."

leprosy The Hebrew word means any of several kinds of skin disease.

Rules for Discharges from the Body

15 The Lord also said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>2</sup>“Say to the people of Israel: When any person has a discharge* from his body, then that person is unclean.* <sup>3</sup>It does not matter if the discharge flows freely from his body or if his body stops it from flowing.

<sup>4</sup>“If the person that has the discharge* lies on any bed, that bed becomes unclean.* Everything that person sits on becomes unclean. <sup>5</sup>If any person touches that person’s bed, then he must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. <sup>6</sup>If any person sits on anything that the person with the discharge sat on, then he must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. <sup>7</sup>Also, if any person touches the person that has the discharge, then he must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening.

<sup>8</sup>“If the person with the discharge* spits on a clean person, then the clean person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. This person will be unclean* until evening. <sup>9</sup>Any saddle the person with the discharge sits on will become unclean. <sup>10</sup>So any person that touches any of the things that were under the person with the discharge will be unclean until evening. The person that carries these things that were under the person with the discharge, must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening.

<sup>11</sup>“It may happen that the person with the discharge* has not washed his hands in water and touches another person. Then that other person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean* until evening.

<sup>12</sup>“But if the person with the discharge* touches a clay bowl, then that bowl must be broken. If the person with the discharge touches a wooden bowl, then that bowl must be washed in water.

<sup>13</sup>“When the person with the discharge* is made clean from his discharge, then he must wait seven days before he can be cleansed. Then he must wash his clothes and bathe his body in running water. Then he will become clean.* <sup>14</sup>On the eighth day, that person must take for himself two doves or two young pigeons. He must come before the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* That person will give the two birds to the priest. <sup>15</sup>The priest will offer the birds, one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. In this way, the priest will make that person pure* before the Lord.

Rules for Men

<sup>16</sup>“If a man has a flow of semen,* he must bathe his whole body in water. He will be unclean until evening. <sup>17</sup>If the semen is on any clothing or leather, then that clothing or leather must be washed with water. It will be unclean* until evening. <sup>18</sup>If a man sleeps with a woman and has a flow of semen, then both the man and the woman must bathe in water. They will be unclean until evening.

Rules for Women

<sup>19</sup>“If a woman has a discharge* from her monthly time of bleeding, she will be unclean* for seven days. If any person touches her, that person will be unclean until evening. <sup>20</sup>Also, everything the woman lies on during her monthly time of bleeding will be unclean. And everything she sits on during that time will be unclean. <sup>21</sup>If any person touches the woman’s bed, that person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup>If any person touches anything the woman has sat on, that person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. <sup>23</sup>It does not matter if the person touched the woman’s bed or if he touched something she sat on, that person will be unclean until evening.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

semen The fluid produced by a man’s sexual organs.

discharge Fluid from a person’s body, including pus from sores, a man’s semen, or a woman’s period flow.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

<sup>14</sup>“And if a man has sexual relations with a woman during her monthly time of bleeding, then the man will be unclean* seven days. Every bed that man lies on will be unclean.

<sup>15</sup>“If a woman has a discharge* of blood many days, not during her time of her monthly bleeding, or if she has a discharge after that time, then she will be unclean,* like the time of monthly bleeding. She will be unclean for as long as she has a discharge. <sup>16</sup>Any bed the woman lies on during all the time of her discharge will be like her bed during her time of monthly bleeding. Everything the woman sits on will be unclean, like during the time she is unclean from her monthly time of bleeding.

<sup>17</sup>If any person touches those things, that person will be unclean. That person must wash his clothes and bathe in water. He will be unclean until evening. <sup>18</sup>After the woman's discharge stops, she must wait seven days. After that, she will be clean. <sup>19</sup>Then on the eighth day, the woman must take two doves or two young pigeons. She must bring them to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* <sup>20</sup>Then the priest must offer one bird for a sin offering and the other bird for a burnt offering. In this way, the priest will make her pure* before the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>“So you must warn the people of Israel about being unclean.* If you don't warn the people, then they might make my Holy Tent* unclean. And then they would have to die!”

<sup>22</sup>Those are the rules for people with a discharge.* Those rules are for men that become unclean* from a flow of semen.* <sup>23</sup>And those rules are for women that become unclean from their monthly time of bleeding. And those are the rules for any person that becomes unclean by sleeping with another person that is unclean.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

discharge Fluid from a person's body, including pus from sores, a man's semen, or a woman's period flow.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle.” The place God came to live among his people.

semen The fluid produced by a man's sexual organs.

The Day of Atonement

16 Two of Aaron's sons died while offering incense* to the Lord.* After that time, the Lord spoke to Moses. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said, “Talk to your brother Aaron. Tell him that he cannot go behind the curtain into the Most Holy Place* anytime he wants to. The Holy Box* is in the room behind that curtain. The special cover* is on top of that Holy Box. And I appear in a cloud over that special cover. If Aaron goes into that room, he might die!

<sup>3</sup>“Before Aaron enters the Most Holy Place on the Day of Atonement, he must offer a bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>Aaron must wash his whole body with water. Then he must put these clothes on: Aaron must put on the holy* linen shirt. The linen underclothes will be next to his body. He must tie the linen sash (belt) around him. And he must put on the linen turban.* These are holy clothes.

<sup>7</sup>“Then Aaron must take the two goats and bring them before the Lord at the doorway of the Meeting Tent. <sup>8</sup>Aaron will throw lots* for the two goats. One lot will be for the Lord. The

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Two of Aaron's sons ... to the Lord See Lev. 10:1-2.

Most Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent where the Holy Box was.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement—the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

cover Also called “mercy seat.” The Hebrew word can mean “lid,” “cover,” or “the place where sins are forgiven.”

holy Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.

turban Head covering made by wrapping a piece of cloth around the head or around a cap worn on the head.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

other lot will be for Azazel.*

<sup>9</sup>“Then Aaron will offer the goat chosen by the lot* for the Lord. Aaron must make this goat a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>But the goat chosen by the lot for Azazel* must be brought alive before the Lord. And then this goat will be sent out to Azazel in the desert. This is to make the people pure.*

<sup>11</sup>“Then Aaron will offer the bull as a sin offering for himself. Aaron will make himself and his family pure.* Aaron will kill the bull for the sin offering for himself. <sup>12</sup>Then he must take a firepan* full of coals of fire from the altar* before the Lord. Aaron will take two handfuls of sweet incense* that has been ground into powder. Aaron must bring that incense into the room behind the curtain. <sup>13</sup>Aaron must put the incense on the fire before the Lord. Then the cloud of incense will cover the special cover* that is over the Agreement.* This way Aaron will not die. <sup>14</sup>Also, Aaron must take some of the blood from the bull and sprinkle it with his finger toward the east, onto the special cover. He will sprinkle the blood seven times with his finger in front of the special cover.

things to make the Most Holy Place* pure.* Aaron must do these things because the people of Israel are unclean.* They do wrong and have many sins. Aaron must also do these things for the Meeting Tent* because it stays in the middle of unclean people! <sup>17</sup>At the time that Aaron goes into the Most Holy Place to make it and the people, pure,* no person must be in the Meeting Tent. No person must go in there until Aaron comes out. So, Aaron will make himself and his family pure. And he will make all the people of Israel pure. <sup>18</sup>Then Aaron will go out to the altar* that is before the Lord. Aaron will make the altar pure. Aaron will take some of the bull’s blood and some of the goat’s blood and put it on the corners of the altar on all sides. <sup>19</sup>Then Aaron will sprinkle some of the blood with his finger on the altar seven times. In this way, Aaron will make the altar holy* and clean* from all the sins of the people of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>“So Aaron will make the Most Holy Place,* the Meeting Tent,* and the altar* pure.* After that, Aaron will bring the live goat to the Lord. <sup>21</sup>Aaron will put both his hands on the head of the living goat. Then Aaron will confess (admit) the sins and crimes of the people of Israel over the goat. In this way, Aaron will lay the people’s sins on the goat’s head. Then he will send the goat away to the desert. A man will be standing by, ready to lead this goat away. <sup>22</sup>So the goat will carry all the people’s sins on itself to the empty desert. The man that leads the goat will let it loose in the desert.

<sup>23</sup>“Then Aaron will enter the Meeting Tent.* He will take off the linen clothes that he put on when he went into the Holy Place. He must leave these clothes there. <sup>24</sup>He will wash his whole, body with water in a holy place. Then he will put on his other special, clothes. He Azazel Or, “scapegoat.” The meaning of this word or name is not known. The main idea seems to be that the goat “carried away” the sins of the people.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

firepan A tool like a small shovel for taking the ashes from the altar.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

cover Also called “mercy seat.” The Hebrew word can mean “lid,” “cover,” or “the place where sins are forgiven.”

Agreement Literally, “Proof.” The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

Most Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent where the Holy Box was.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

holy Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

will come out and offer his burnt offering and the people's burnt offering. He will make himself and the people pure.* <sup>23</sup>Then he will burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.*

<sup>24</sup>"The person that led the goat to Azazel* must wash his clothes and his whole body with water. After that, he can come into the camp.

<sup>25</sup>"The bull and the goat for the sin offerings must be taken outside the camp. (The blood from those animals was brought into the Holy Place to make the holy things, pure.) The priests, must burn the skins, bodies, and body waste of those animals in the fire. <sup>26</sup>Then the person that burns them must wash his clothes and wash his whole body with water. After that, he can come into the camp.

<sup>27</sup>"This law will always continue for you: On the tenth day, of the seventh month, you must not eat food.* You must not do any work. None of the travelers or foreigners living in your land can do any work either. <sup>28</sup>Why? Because on this day, the priest will make you pure* and wash away your sins. Then you will be clean* to the Lord. <sup>29</sup>This day is a very important day of rest for you. You must not eat food.* This law will continue forever.

<sup>30</sup>"So the man chosen to be the high priest will do the ceremony to make things pure.* This is the man appointed to serve as high priest after his father. That priest must put on the holy linen clothes. <sup>31</sup>He must make the Most Holy Place,* the Meeting Tent,* and the altar* pure. And he must make the priests and all the people of Israel, pure. <sup>32</sup>That law for making the people of Israel pure will continue forever. You will do those things one time every year. Why? Because of the sins of the people of Israel."

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

to Azazel Or, "as a scapegoat." The meaning of this word or name is not known. The main idea is that the goat "carried away" the sins of the people.

not eat food Literally, "humble yourselves."

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

Most Holy Place The room in the Holy Tent that had the Holy Box in it.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

So they did the things that the Lord had commanded Moses.

Rules About Killing and Eating Animals

17 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>"Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the people of Israel. Tell them, this is what the Lord has commanded: <sup>3</sup>An Israelite person might kill a bull, or a lamb, or a goat in the camp or outside the camp. <sup>4</sup>That person must bring that animal to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* He must give a part of that animal as a gift to the Lord. That person has spilled blood (killed), so he must take his gift to the Lord's Holy Tent.* <sup>5</sup>If he does not take part of the animal as a gift to the Lord, then that person must be separated from his people! <sup>6</sup>This rule is so people will bring their fellowship offering to the Lord. The people of Israel must bring the animals they kill in the fields. They must bring those animals to the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. They must bring those animals to the priest. <sup>7</sup>Then the priest will throw the blood from those animals onto the Lord's altar* near the entrance of the Meeting Tent. And the priest will burn the fat from those animals on the altar. Its smell will please the Lord. <sup>8</sup>They must not offer any more sacrifices to their 'goat demons'! They have chased after those other gods. In that way, they have acted like prostitutes.* These rules will continue forever!

<sup>9</sup>"Tell the people: Some citizen of Israel or some traveler or foreigner living among you might offer a burnt offering or a sacrifice. <sup>10</sup>That person must take his sacrifice to the entrance of the Meeting Tent and offer it to the Lord. If that person does not do this, then that person must be separated from his people.

<sup>11</sup>"I (God) will be against any person that eats blood. It does not matter if that person is a citizen of Israel or if that person is a foreigner living among you! I will separate that person from his people. <sup>12</sup>Why? Because the life of the prostitute(s) A woman that sells her body for sex. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and starts worshipping other gods.

body is in the blood. I have given you rules for pouring that blood on the altar.* You must do this to make yourselves pure.* You must give that blood to me, as payment for the life that you took. 12So I tell the people of Israel: None of you people may eat blood. And no foreigner living among you may eat blood.

13If any person catches a wild animal or a bird that can be eaten, then that person must pour the blood on the ground and cover it with dirt. It does not matter if that person is a citizen of Israel or a foreigner living among you! 14Why must you do this? Because, if blood is still in the meat, that animal's life is still in the meat. So I give this command to the people of Israel: Don't eat meat that still has blood in it! Any person that eats blood must be separated from his people.

15Also, if any person eats an animal that died by itself, or if any person eats an animal that was killed by some other animal, then that person will be unclean* until evening. That person must wash his clothes and wash his whole body with water. It does not matter if that person is a citizen of Israel or if he is a foreigner living among you! 16If that person does not wash his clothes or bathe his body, then he will be guilty of sin."

Rules About Sexual Relations

18 The Lord said to Moses, 24Tell the people of Israel: I am the Lord your God. 25In the past, you lived in Egypt. You must not do the things that were done in that country! I am leading you to Canaan. You must not do the things that are done in that country! Don't follow their customs. 26You must obey my rules and follow my laws! Be sure to follow those rules! Why? Because I am the Lord your God. 27So you must obey my laws and rules. If a person obeys my laws and rules, he will live! I am the Lord!

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

make ... pure Literally, "make atonement." The Hebrew word means "to cover," "to hide," or "to erase sins."

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

64You must never have sexual relations with* your close relatives! I am the Lord.

74You must never bring shame on your father by having sexual relations with* your mother. She is your mother. You must not have sexual relations with her. 8You must not have sexual relations with your father's wife. That would bring shame on your father.*

94You must not have sexual relations with* your sister, the daughter of your father or mother. It does not matter if your sister was born in your house or at another place.

104You must not have sexual relations with* your granddaughter. That would bring shame on you!

114If your father and his wife* have a daughter, then she is your sister. You must not have sexual relations with* her.

124You must not have sexual relations with* your father's sister. She is your father's close relative. 13You must not have sexual relations with your mother's sister. She is your mother's close relative. 14You must not have sexual relations with your father's brother. You must not go near your uncle's wife for sexual relations. She is your aunt.

154You must not have sexual relations with* your daughter-in-law. She is your son's wife. You must not have sexual relations with her.

164You must not have sexual relations with* your brother's wife. That would bring shame on your brother.*

174You must not have sexual relations with* a woman and her daughter. And you must not have sexual relations with this woman's granddaughter. It does not matter if this granddaughter is the daughter of this woman's son or daughter. Her granddaughters are her close relatives. It is wrong to have sexual relations with them.

have sexual relations with Literally, "uncover the nakedness of."

That would bring shame on your father

Literally, "She is the nakedness of your father."

his wife This probably means "your stepmother."

That would bring shame on your brother

Literally, "She is the nakedness of your brother."

<sup>20</sup>“And you must not have sexual relations with your neighbor’s wife. This will only make you filthy*!

<sup>21</sup>“You must not give any of your children through the fire, to Molech.* If you do this, you will show that you don’t respect the name of your God! I am the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>“You must not have sexual relations with a man as with a woman. That is a terrible sin!

<sup>23</sup>“You must not have sexual relations with any animal. This will only make you filthy*! Also, a woman must not have sexual relations with an animal. It is against nature!

<sup>24</sup>“Don’t make yourself unclean* with any of those wrong things! I am throwing nations out of their countries, and I am giving their land to you! Why? Because those people did those terrible sins! <sup>25</sup>So the land has become filthy*! Now the land is sick of those things, and the land is vomiting out those people that lived there!

<sup>26</sup>“So you must obey my laws and rules. You must not do any of those terrible sins. Those rules are for the citizens of Israel, and they are for the people that live among you!

<sup>27</sup>The people that lived in the land before you did all those terrible things. So the land became filthy*! <sup>28</sup>If you do these things, then you will make the land filthy. And it will vomit you out like it vomited out the nations that were there, before you. <sup>29</sup>If any person does any of those terrible sins, then that person must be separated from his people! <sup>30</sup>Other people have done those terrible sins. But you must obey my laws! You must not do any of those terrible sins! Don’t make yourself filthy with those terrible sins! I am the Lord your God.”

Israel Belongs to God

19 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Tell all the people of Israel: I am the Lord your God! I am holy, so you must be holy!

<sup>3</sup>“Each person among you must honor his mother and father and keep my special days of rest.* I am the Lord your God!

<sup>5</sup>“When you offer a sacrifice* of fellowship offerings to the Lord, you must offer it so that you will be accepted. <sup>6</sup>You may eat it the same day you offer it, and also on the next day. But if any of that sacrifice is left on the third day, then you must burn it in the fire. <sup>7</sup>It is a terrible sin to eat any of the sacrifice on the third day. It will not be accepted. <sup>8</sup>A person will be guilty of sin if he does that! Why? Because he did not respect the holy things that belong to the Lord. That person must be separated from his people.

<sup>9</sup>“When you cut your crops at harvest time, don’t cut all the way to the comers of your fields. And if grain falls on the ground, you must not gather up that grain. <sup>10</sup>Don’t pick all the grapes in your vineyards and don’t pick up the grapes that fall to the ground. Why? Because you must leave those things for poor people and for people traveling through your country. I am the Lord your God!

<sup>11</sup>“You must not steal. You must not cheat people. You must not lie to each other. <sup>12</sup>You must not make a false promise using my name. If you do that, then you will show that you don’t respect the name of your God. I am the Lord!

have sexual relations with Literally, “uncover the nakedness of.”

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

filthy Or, “polluted” or “unclean.”

Molech A false God. People often killed their children as part of their worship to Molech.

special days of rest Or, “Sabbaths.” This might mean Saturday, or it might mean all of the special days when the people were not supposed to work.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

<sup>13</sup>“You must not do bad things to your neighbor. You must not rob him. You must not hold a hired worker’s salary all night until morning.*

<sup>14</sup>“You must not curse a deaf man. You must not put something in front of a blind person to make him fall. But you must respect your God. I am the Lord!

<sup>15</sup>“You must be fair in judgment. You must not show special favor to poor people. And you must not show special favor to important people. You must be fair when you judge your neighbor. <sup>16</sup>You must not go around spreading false stories against other people. Don’t do anything that would put your neighbor’s life in danger. I am the Lord!

<sup>17</sup>“You must not hate your brother in your heart. If your neighbor does something wrong, then talk to him about it. But forgive him! <sup>18</sup>Forget about the wrong things people do to you. Don’t try to get even. Love your neighbor as yourself. I am the Lord!

<sup>19</sup>“You must obey my laws. You must not breed together two kinds of animals. You must not sow your field with two kinds of seed. You must not wear clothing made from two kinds of material mixed together.

<sup>20</sup>“It may happen that a man has sexual relations with a woman that is the slave of another man. But this slave woman has not been bought or given her freedom. If this happens, then there must be punishment. But they will not be put to death. Why? Because the woman was not free. <sup>21</sup>The man must bring his guilt offering to the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* The man must bring a ram for a guilt offering. <sup>22</sup>The priest will do the things that will make the man pure.* The priest will offer the ram as a guilt offering before the Lord. It will be for the sins the man did. Then the man will be forgiven for the sins he did.

You must not hold ... until morning Workers were paid at the end of each day for the work they did that day. See Mt. 20:1-16.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

<sup>24</sup>“In the future, you will enter your country. At that time, you will plant many kinds of trees for food. After planting a tree, you must wait three years before you can use any of the fruit from that tree. You must not use that fruit. <sup>24</sup>In the fourth year, the fruit from that tree will be the Lord’s. It will be a holy offering of praise to the Lord. <sup>25</sup>Then, in the fifth year, you can eat the fruit from that tree. And the tree will produce more and more fruit for you. I am the Lord your God!

“You must not try to use magic and other things to predict the future.

<sup>27</sup>“You must not round off the side-growth of your heads. You must not cut the edges of your beard. <sup>28</sup>You must not cut your body as a way to remember dead people. You must not make any tattoo marks on yourselves. I am the Lord!

<sup>29</sup>“Don’t make your daughter become a prostitute.* That only shows you don’t respect her! Don’t let people be prostitutes in your country. Don’t let your country be filled with that kind of sin.

<sup>30</sup>“You must not work on my special days of rest.* You must honor my holy place. I am the Lord!

<sup>31</sup>“Don’t go to mediums* or wizards* for advice. Don’t go to them; they will only make you unclean.* I am the Lord your God!

<sup>32</sup>“Show honor to old people. Stand up when they come into the room. Show respect to your God. I am the Lord!

<sup>33</sup>“Don’t do bad things to foreigners living in your country! <sup>34</sup>You must treat foreigners the same as you treat your own citizens. Love foreigners like you love yourselves. Why? Because you were foreigners one time—in Egypt. I am the Lord your God!

prostitute(s) A woman that sells her body for sex.

special days of rest Or, “Sabbaths.” This might mean Saturday, or it might mean all of the special days when the people were not supposed to work.

medium(s) A person that tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.

wizard(s) A person that tries to use evil spirits to do magic.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

<sup>35</sup>“You must be fair when you judge people. And you must be fair when you measure and weigh things. <sup>36</sup>Your baskets should be the right size. Your jars should hold the right amount of liquids. Your weights and balances should weigh things correctly. I am the Lord your God! I brought you out from the land of Egypt!

<sup>37</sup>“You must remember all my laws and rules. And you must obey them. I am the Lord!”

Warning Against Worshipping Idols

20 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>21</sup>“You must also tell the people of Israel these things: A person in your country might give one of his children to the false god Molech.* That person must be killed! It does not matter if that person is a citizen of Israel or a foreigner living in Israel, you must throw stones at that person and kill him! <sup>22</sup>I will be against that person! I will separate him from his people! Why? Because he gave his children to Molech. He showed that he did not respect my holy name! And he made my holy place unclean.* <sup>23</sup>‘Maybe the common people will ignore that person. Maybe they will not kill that person that gave his children to Molech. <sup>24</sup>But I will be against that person and his family! I will separate him from his people! I will separate any person that is unfaithful to me and chases after Molech.

<sup>25</sup>“I will be against any person that goes to mediums* and wizards* for advice. That person is being unfaithful to me. So I will separate that person from his people.

<sup>26</sup>“Be special! Make yourselves holy*! Why? Because I am holy! I am the Lord your God. <sup>27</sup>Remember and obey my laws. I am the Lord. And I have made you my special people.

<sup>28</sup>“If any person curses* his father or mother, that person must be put to death. He cursed his father or mother, so he must be killed!*

Punishments for Sexual Sins

<sup>10</sup>“If a man has sexual relations with his neighbor’s wife, then both the man and the woman are guilty of adultery. So both the man and the woman must be put to death! <sup>11</sup>If a man has sexual relations with his father’s wife, then that man must be put to death. Both the man and his father’s wife must be killed.* That man brought shame to his father!*

<sup>12</sup>“If a man has sexual relations with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death. They have done a very bad sexual sin! They must be killed.*

<sup>13</sup>“If a man has sexual relations with another man as with a woman, then these two men have done a terrible sin. They must be put to death. They must be killed.*

<sup>14</sup>“If a man has sexual relations with a woman and her mother, then this is a sexual sin. The people must burn that man and the two women in fire! Don’t let this sexual sin happen among your people!

<sup>15</sup>“If a man has sexual relations with an animal, that man must be put to death. And you must also kill the animal. <sup>16</sup>If a woman has sexual relations with an animal, then you must kill the woman and the animal. They must be put to death. They must be killed.*

he must be killed Literally, “his blood is on him.”

Both ... killed Literally, “Their blood is on them.”

That man ... father Literally, “He uncovered his father’s nakedness.”

They must be killed Literally, “Their blood is on them.”

have sexual relations with each other Literally, “he sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness.”

must be punished ... sin Literally, “will carry his guilt.”

Molech A false god. People often killed their children as part of their worship to Molech.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

medium(s) A person that tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.

wizard(s) A person that tries to use evil spirits to do magic.

holy Set aside or chosen for a special purpose.

curse To ask for bad things to happen to someone.

<sup>18</sup>“If a man has sexual relations with a woman during her monthly time of bleeding, then both the woman and the man must be separated from their people. They sinned because they exposed her source of blood.

<sup>19</sup>“You must not have sexual relations with* your mother’s sister or your father’s sister. That is a sin of incest.* You must be punished for your sins.*

<sup>22</sup>“You must remember all my laws and rules. And you must obey them. I am leading you to your land. You will live in that country. If you obey my laws and rules, then that land will not vomit you out. <sup>23</sup>I am forcing other people to leave that country. Why? Because those people did all of those sins! I hate those sins. I do not live the way those people lived!

<sup>24</sup>“I have told you that you will get their land. I will give their land to you. It will be your land! It is a land filled with many good things.* I am the Lord your God!

“I have made you my special people. I have treated you differently from other people. <sup>25</sup>So you must treat clean* animals differently from unclean* animals. You must treat clean birds differently from unclean birds. Don’t eat any of those unclean birds, and animals, and things that crawl on the ground. I have made those things unclean. <sup>26</sup>I have made you my special people. So you must be holy for me! Why? Because I am the Lord, and I am holy!

<sup>27</sup>“A man or a woman that is a medium* or a wizard,* must be put to death. The people must kill them with stones. They must be killed.*”

Rules for Priests

21 The Lord said to Moses, “Tell these things to Aaron’s sons, the priests: A priest must not make himself unclean* by touching a dead person. <sup>2</sup>But if the dead person was one of his close relatives, then he can touch the dead body. The priest can make himself unclean if the dead person is his mother or father, his son or daughter, his brother or his unmarried* sister. (This sister is close to him because she has no husband. So the priest may make himself unclean for her if she dies.) <sup>3</sup>But a priest must not make himself unclean if the dead person was only one of his slaves.*

<sup>4</sup>“Priests must not shave their heads bald. Priests must not shave off the edges of their beards. Priests must not make any cuts in their bodies. <sup>5</sup>Priests must be holy for their God. They must show respect for God’s name. Why? Because they carry the bread and the offerings by fire to the Lord. So they must be holy.*

<sup>8</sup>“If a priest’s daughter becomes a prostitute,* then she ruins her reputation, and

have sexual relations with Literally, “uncover the nakedness of.”

incest Having sexual relations with a close relative.

must be punished ... sins Literally, “will carry your guilt.”

will be punished ... children Literally, “they must bear their childlessness. They will die.”

brought shame ... brother Literally, “uncovered his brother’s nakedness.”

filled ... things Literally, “flowing with milk and honey.”

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

medium(s) A person that tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.

wizard(s) A person that tries to use evil spirits to do magic.

unmarried Literally, “virgin,” a girl that was never married and never had sexual relations with anyone.

But a priest ... slaves Or, “A master must not become unclean for his people.”

holy Chosen or set aside for a special purpose.

prostitute A woman that sells her body for sex.

she brings shame to her father! So she must be burned.

<sup>10</sup>“The high priest was chosen from among his brothers. The anointing oil* was poured on his head. In this way, he was chosen for the special job of being high priest. He was chosen to wear the special clothes. So he must not do things to show his sadness in public. He must not let his hair grow wild. He must not tear his clothes. <sup>11</sup>He must not make himself unclean* by touching a dead body. He must not go near a dead body, even if it is his own father or mother. <sup>12</sup>The high priest must not go out of God’s holy place. Then he might become unclean, and then he might make God’s holy place unclean.* The anointing oil was poured on the high priest’s head. This separated him from the rest of the people. I am the Lord!

<sup>13</sup>“The high priest must marry a wife that is a virgin.* <sup>14</sup>The high priest must not marry a woman that has had sexual relations with some other man. The high priest must not marry a prostitute,* or a divorced woman, or a woman whose husband has died. The high priest must marry a virgin from his own people. <sup>15</sup>In this way, people will show respect for his children.* I, the Lord, have separated the high priest for his special work.”

<sup>16</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>17</sup>“Tell Aaron: If any of your descendants* children have something wrong with them, then they must not carry the special bread to God. <sup>18</sup>Any man that has something wrong with him must not serve as priest and bring sacrifices to me. These men cannot serve as priests:

blind men, crippled men,
men with bad scars on their faces, men whose arms or legs are too long, <sup>19</sup> men with broken feet or hands, <sup>20</sup> men that are hunchbacks, dwarfs,* men that have something wrong with their eyes, men that have an itching disease or a skin disease, men that have crushed testicles.

<sup>21</sup>If one of Aaron’s descendants has something wrong with him, then he cannot offer fire sacrifices to the Lord. And that person cannot carry the special bread to God. <sup>22</sup>That person is from the family of priests, so he can eat the holy bread. He can also eat the very holy bread. <sup>23</sup>But he cannot go through the curtain into the Most Holy Place, and he cannot go near the altar.* Why? Because he has something wrong with him. He must not make my holy places not holy. I, the Lord, make those places holy!”

22 The Lord God said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>“Tell Aaron and his sons: The people of Israel will give things to me. Those things will become holy. They are mine. So you priests must not take those things. If you use those holy things, then you will show that you don’t respect my holy name. I am the Lord! <sup>31</sup>If any person from among all your descendants* touches those things, then that person will become unclean.* That person must be separated from me! The people of Israel gave those things to me. I am the Lord!

“If any of Aaron’s descendants* has one of the bad skin diseases,* or a discharge,* he can’t eat the holy food until he becomes clean.* That rule is for any priest that becomes unclean.* That priest can become unclean from a dead anointing oil Olive oil that was poured on people or things to show they were chosen for a special work or purpose.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

virgin A pure woman that has never been married.

prostitute A woman that sells her body for sex.

people ... children Or, “his children will not become unclean from the people.”

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

dwarfs A dwarf is a person whose body stopped growing properly.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

bad skin diseases This might be leprosy, or it might be some other serious skin disease.

discharge Fluid from a person’s body, including pus from sores, a man’s semen, or a woman’s period flow.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

body or from his semen.* <sup>5</sup>He can become unclean if he touches any unclean crawling animals. And he can become unclean if he touches an unclean person. It does not matter what made that person unclean. <sup>6</sup>If a person touches any of those things, he will become unclean until evening. That person must not eat any of the holy food. Even if he washes with water, he can't eat the holy food. <sup>7</sup>He will be clean only after the sun goes down. Then he can eat the holy food. Why? Because that food belongs to him.

<sup>8</sup>"If a priest finds an animal that died by itself or that was killed by wild animals, he must not eat that dead animal. If that person eats that animal, he will become unclean.* I am the Lord!

<sup>9</sup>"The priests will have special times to serve me. They must be careful at those times. They must be careful not to make the holy things not holy. If they are careful, then they will not die. I, the Lord, have separated them for this special job. <sup>10</sup>"Only people from a priests' family can eat the holy food. A visitor staying with the priest or a hired worker must not eat any of the holy food. <sup>11</sup>But if the priest buys a person as a slave with his own money, then that person may eat some of the holy things. (Slaves, that were born in the priest's house may also eat some of the priest's food. <sup>12</sup>A priest's daughter might marry a person that is not a priest. If she does that, then she can't eat any of the holy offerings. <sup>13</sup>A priest's daughter might become a widow,* or she might become divorced. If she does not have any children to support her, and she goes back to her father's house, where she lived, as a child, then she can eat some of her father's food. But only people from a priest's family can eat this food.

<sup>14</sup>"A person might eat some of the holy food by mistake. That person must give the same amount to the priest, and he must give another fifth of the price of that food.

<sup>15</sup>"The people of Israel will give gifts to the Lord. Those gifts become holy. So the priest must not make those holy things not holy. <sup>16</sup>If the priests treat those things as not holy, then they will add to their sin when they eat the holy food. I, the Lord, make them holy!"

<sup>17</sup>The Lord God said to Moses, <sup>18</sup>"Tell Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel: Maybe a citizen of Israel or a foreigner will want to bring an offering. Maybe it is for some special promise that person made. Or maybe it is some special sacrifice that person wanted to bring. <sup>19-20</sup>Those are gifts that the people bring because they really want to give a gift to God. You must not accept any offering that has anything wrong with it. I will not be happy with that gift! If the gift is a bull, or a sheep, or a goat, then that animal must be a male. And it must not have anything wrong with it!

<sup>21</sup>"A person might bring a fellowship offering to the Lord. That fellowship offering might be payment for a special promise that person made. Or maybe it is a special gift that person wanted to give to the Lord. It might be a bull or a sheep. But it must be healthy. There must be nothing wrong with that animal! <sup>22</sup>You must not offer to the Lord any animal that is blind, or has broken bones, or is crippled, or has a discharge,* or a bad skin disease. You must not offer sick animals on the fire of the Lord's altar.*

<sup>23</sup>"Sometimes a bull or lamb will have a leg that is too long, or a foot that did not grow right. If a person wants to give that animal as a special gift to the Lord, then it will be accepted. But it will not be accepted as payment for a special promise that person made.

<sup>24</sup>"If an animal has bruised, crushed, or torn testicles, then you must not offer that animal to the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>"You must not take animals from foreigners as sacrifices to the Lord. Why? Because the animals might have been hurt in some way. They might have something wrong with them. They will not be accepted!"

semen The fluid produced by a man's sexual organs.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

discharge Fluid from a person's body, including pus from sores, a man's semen, or a woman's period flow.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

<sup>26</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>27</sup>“When a calf, or a sheep, or a goat is born, it must stay seven days with its mother. Then on the eighth day and after, this animal will be accepted as a sacrifice offered by fire to the Lord. <sup>28</sup>But you must not kill the animal and its mother on the same day! This rule is the same for cows and sheep.

<sup>29</sup>“If you want to offer some special offering of thanks to the Lord, then you are free to offer that gift. But you must do it in a way that pleases God.” <sup>30</sup>You must eat the whole animal that day. You must not leave any of the meat for the next morning. I am the Lord!

<sup>31</sup>“Remember my commands, and obey them. I am the Lord! <sup>32</sup>Show respect for my holy name! I must be very special to the people of Israel. I, the Lord, have made you my special people. <sup>33</sup>I brought you from Egypt. I became your God. I am the Lord!”

Special Holidays

23 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: You will announce the Lord’s chosen festivals as holy meetings. These are my special holidays:

Sabbath

<sup>34</sup>“Work for six days. But the seventh day, the Sabbath, will be a special day of rest, a holy meeting. You must not do any work. It is a Sabbath to the Lord in all your homes.

Passover

“These are the Lord’s chosen holidays. You will announce the holy meetings at the times chosen for them. <sup>5</sup>The Lord’s Passover is on the 14th day of the first month* at twilight.*

Festival of Unleavened Bread

“The Festival of Unleavened Bread* is on the 15th day of the same month (Nisan). You will eat unleavened bread for seven days. <sup>7</sup>On the first day of this holiday you will have a special meeting. You must not do any work on that day.” <sup>8</sup>For seven days, you will bring an offering by fire to the Lord. Then there will be another special meeting on the seventh day. You must not do any work on that day.”

Festival of the First Harvests

<sup>9</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>10</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: You will enter the land that I will give you. You will reap its harvest. At that time, you must bring in the first sheaf* of your harvest to the priest. <sup>11</sup>The priest will wave the sheaf before the Lord. Then you will be accepted. The priest will wave the sheaf on Sunday morning.*

<sup>12</sup>“On the day when you wave the sheaf,* you will offer a one-year-old male lamb. There must be nothing wrong with that lamb. That lamb will be a burnt offering to the Lord. <sup>13</sup>You must also offer a grain offering of 16 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil. You must also offer 1 quart* of wine. The smell of that offering will please the Lord. <sup>14</sup>You must not eat any of the new grain, or fruit, or bread made from the new grain, until you bring that offering to your God. This law will always continue through your generations wherever you live.

Festival of Pentecost

<sup>15</sup>“From that Sunday morning,* (the day you bring the sheaf* for the wave offering) count seven weeks. <sup>16</sup>On the Sunday following the seventh week, (that is 50 days later) you will bring a new grain offering to the Lord. <sup>17</sup>On that day, bring two loaves of bread from your homes. That bread will be for a wave offering. Use yeast and 16 cups* of flour to make those loaves of bread. That will be your gift to the Lord from your first harvest.

sheaf A stack of grain.

Sunday morning Literally, “the morning after the Sabbath.”

first month Nisan, the first month of the Jewish calendar. It was during March-April.

twilight The time after the sun goes down, but before dark.

Unleavened Bread Bread made without yeast.

<sup>18</sup>“One bull, one ram, and seven one-year-old male lambs will be offered with the grain offerings from the people. There must be nothing wrong with those animals. They will be a burnt offering to the Lord. They will be an offering by fire. Its smell will please the Lord. <sup>19</sup>You will also offer one male goat for a sin offering and two one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering.

<sup>20</sup>“The priest will wave them with the bread from the first harvest for a wave offering with two lambs before the Lord. They are holy to the Lord. They will belong to the priest. <sup>21</sup>On that same day, you will call a holy meeting. You must not do any work. This law continues forever in all your homes.

<sup>22</sup>“Also, when you harvest the crops on your land, don’t cut all the way to the corners of your field. Don’t pick up the grain that falls on the ground. Leave those things for poor people and for foreigners traveling through your country. I am the Lord your God!”

Festival of Trumpets

<sup>23</sup>Again the Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: On the first day of the seventh month, you must have a special day of rest. There will be a holy meeting. You must blow the trumpet for a special time of remembering. <sup>25</sup>You must not do any work. You will bring an offering by fire to the Lord.”

Day of Atonement

<sup>26</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>27</sup>“The Day of Atonement* will be on the tenth day of the seventh month. There will be a holy meeting. You must not eat food* and you must bring an offering by fire to the Lord. <sup>28</sup>You must not do any work on that day. Why? Because it is the Day of Atonement. On that day, the priests will go, before the Lord and do the ceremony

Day of Atonement Also called “Yom Kippur”—the most important Jewish holy day. On this day the high priest went into the Most Holy Place and did the ceremony that atoned (covered or erased) the sins of the people.

<sup>29</sup>“If any person refuses to fast* on this day, he must be separated from his people. <sup>30</sup>If a person does any work on this day, I (God) will destroy that person from among his people. <sup>31</sup>You must not do any work at all. This law that continues forever wherever you live. <sup>32</sup>It will be a special day of rest for you. You must not eat food.* You will start this special day of rest on the evening following the ninth day of the month.* This special day of rest continues from that evening until the next evening.”

Festival of Shelters

<sup>33</sup>Again the Lord said to Moses, <sup>34</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: On the 15th day of the seventh month is the Festival of Shelters. This holiday to the Lord will continue for seven days. <sup>35</sup>There will be a holy meeting on the first day. You must not do any work. <sup>36</sup>You will bring an offering by fire to the Lord for seven days. On the eighth day you will have another holy meeting. You will bring an offering by fire to the Lord. This will be a holy meeting. You must not do any work.

<sup>37</sup>“Those are the Lord’s special holidays. There will be holy meetings on those holidays. You will bring offerings by fire to the Lord—burnt offerings, grain offerings, sacrifices, and drink offerings. You will bring those gifts at the right time. <sup>38</sup>You will celebrate those holidays in addition to remembering the Lord’s Sabbath* days. You will offer those gifts in addition to your other gifts to the Lord. You will offer those things in addition to any offerings you give as payment for your special promises. They will be in addition to any special offerings you want to give to the Lord.

<sup>39</sup>“On the 15th day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the crops of the land, you will celebrate the Lord’s festival for

make ... pure Literally, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

fast To live without food for a time of prayer and worship.

evening following ... month According to Jewish time, the day starts at sunset.

Sabbath Saturday—a day of rest and worship for the Jews.

seven days. You will rest on the first day and on the seventh day. <sup>40</sup>On the first day you will take good fruit from fruit trees. And you will take branches from palm trees, poplar trees and willow trees by the brook. You will celebrate before the Lord your God for seven days. <sup>41</sup>You will celebrate this holiday to the Lord for seven days each year. This law will continue forever. You will celebrate this holiday in the seventh month. <sup>42</sup>You will live in temporary shelters for seven days. All the people born in Israel will live in those shelters. <sup>43</sup>Why? So all of your descendants* will know that I made the people of Israel live in temporary shelters during the time I brought them from Egypt. I am the Lord your God!"

<sup>44</sup>So Moses told the people of Israel about all of the special meetings to honor the Lord.

The Lampstand and the Holy Bread

24 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>"Command the people of Israel to bring to you pure oil from crushed olives. That oil is for the lamps. Those lamps must burn without stopping. <sup>3</sup>Aaron will keep the light burning in the Meeting Tent* from evening until morning before the Lord. This will be outside the curtain in front of the Agreement.* This law will continue forever. <sup>4</sup>Aaron must always keep the lamps burning on the lampstand of pure gold before the Lord.

the Lord. <sup>8</sup>Every Sabbath day* Aaron will put the bread in order before the Lord. This must be done forever. This Agreement with the people of Israel will continue forever. <sup>9</sup>That bread will belong to Aaron and his sons. They will eat the bread in a holy place. Why? Because that bread is one of the offerings made by fire to the Lord. That bread is Aaron's share forever."

The Man That Cursed God

<sup>10</sup>There was a son of an Israelite woman. His father was an Egyptian. This Israelite woman's son was an Israelite. He was walking among the people of Israel, and he started fighting in camp. <sup>11</sup>The Israelite woman's son began cursing and saying bad things about the Lord's name. So the people brought this man to Moses. (The name of the man's mother was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, from the family group of Dan.) <sup>12</sup>The people held the man as a prisoner and waited for the Lord's command to be made clear to them.

<sup>13</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>14</sup>"Bring the man that has cursed to a place outside the camp. Then bring together all the people that heard him curse. Those people will put their hands on his head.* And then all the people must throw stones at him and kill him. <sup>15</sup>You must tell the people of Israel: If a person curses his God, then he must be punished.* <sup>16</sup>Any person that speaks against the name of the Lord must be put to death. All the people must stone him. Foreigners must be punished just like the person that was born in Israel. If a person curses the Lord's name, then he must be put to death.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

16 cups Literally, "2/10 of an ephah."

frankincense Very special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Sabbath day Saturday—a day of rest and worship for the Jews.

put ... head This shows that all those people were sharing in punishing the man.

he must be punished Literally, "he must bear his sin."

give ... place Literally, "pay for it; life for life."

<sup>19</sup>“And if a person causes an injury to his neighbor, then the same kind of injury must be given that person. <sup>20</sup>A broken bone for a broken bone; an eye for an eye; and a tooth for a tooth. The same kind of injury a person gives another person must be given that person. <sup>21</sup>So if a person kills an animal, then that person must pay for the animal. But if a person kills another person, then he must be put to death.

<sup>22</sup>“The law will be fair,—it will be the same for foreigners and for people from your own country. Why? Because I am the Lord your God.”

<sup>23</sup>Then Moses spoke to the people of Israel, and they brought the man that had cursed to a place outside the camp. Then they killed him with stones. So the people of Israel did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

A Time of Rest for the Land

25 The Lord spoke to Moses at Mount Sinai. The Lord said, <sup>26</sup>“Tell the people of Israel: You will enter the land that I am giving to you. At that time, you must let the land have a special time of rest. This will be a special time of rest to honor the Lord. <sup>3</sup>You will plant seed, in your field for six years. You will trim the plants in your grape fields for six years and bring in its fruits. <sup>4</sup>But during the seventh year, you will let the land rest. This will be a special time of rest to honor the Lord. You must not plant seed in your field or trim the plants in your grape fields. <sup>5</sup>You must not cut the crops that grow by themselves after your harvest. You must not gather the grapes from your vines that are not trimmed. The land will have a year of rest.

<sup>6</sup>“The land will have a year of rest, but you will still have enough food. There will be enough food for your men and women servants. There will be food for your hired workers and for the foreigners living in your country. <sup>7</sup>And there will be enough food for your cows and other animals to eat.

Jubilee

<sup>8</sup>“You will also count seven groups of seven years. This will be 49 years. During that time, there will be seven years of rest for the land. <sup>9</sup>On the Day of Atonement,* you must blow a ram’s horn. That will be on the tenth day of the seventh month. You must blow the ram’s horn through the whole country. <sup>10</sup>You will make the 50th year a special year. You will announce freedom for all the people living in your country. This time will be called “Jubilee.”* Each of you will go back to his own property.* And each of you will go back to his family. <sup>11</sup>The 50th year will be a special celebration* for you. Don’t plant seeds. Don’t harvest the crops that grow by themselves. Don’t gather grapes from the vines that are not trimmed. <sup>12</sup>That year is Jubilee. It will be a holy time for you. You will eat the crops that come from the field. <sup>13</sup>In the year of Jubilee, each person will go back to his own property.”

<sup>14</sup>“Don’t cheat your neighbor when you sell your land to him. And don’t let him cheat you when you buy land from him. <sup>15</sup>If you want to buy your neighbor’s land, then count the number of years since the last Jubilee, and use that number to decide the right price. If you sell the land, then count the number of years for harvesting crops, and use that number to decide the right price. <sup>16</sup>If there are many years, then the price will be high. If the years are few, then lower the price. Why? Because your neighbor is really selling only a number of crops to you. At the next Jubilee the land will again belong to his family.” <sup>17</sup>You must not cheat each other. You must honor your God! I am the Lord your God!

Day of Atonement Also called “Yom Kippur”—the most important Jewish holy day. On this day the high priest went into the Most Holy Place and did the ceremony that atoned (covered or erased) the sins of the people.

Jubilee The word comes from the Hebrew word for the horn that was blown at this time.

own property In Israel, the land belonged to the family or family group. A person might sell his land, but at Jubilee that land again belonged to the family and family group that it was originally given to.

special celebration Literally, “Jubilee.”

<sup>18</sup>“Remember my laws and rules. Obey them! Then you will live safely in your country. <sup>19</sup>And the land will produce good crops for you. Then you will have plenty of food and you will live safely on the land.

<sup>20</sup>“But maybe you will say, ‘If we don’t plant seeds or gather our crops, we will not have anything to eat during the seventh year.’

<sup>21</sup>‘Don’t worry!’ I will order my blessing to come to you during the sixth year. The land will continue growing crops for three years.

<sup>22</sup>When you plant in the eighth year, you will still be eating things from the old crop. You will eat the old crop until the ninth year, when the crop you planted in the eighth year comes in.

Property Laws

<sup>23</sup>“The land really belongs to me. So you can’t really sell it permanently. You are only foreigners and travelers living on my land, with me. <sup>24</sup>People might sell their land, but the family will always get their land back. <sup>25</sup>A person in your country might become very poor. He might be so poor that he must sell his property. So his close relative must come and buy back the property for his relative. <sup>26</sup>A person might not have a close relative to buy back his land for him. But he might get enough money to buy back the land for himself. <sup>27</sup>Then he must count the years since the land was sold. He must use that number to decide how much to pay for the land. Then he must buy back the land. Then the land will be his property again. <sup>28</sup>But if this person can’t find enough money to get the land back for himself, then what he has sold will stay in the hands of the person that bought it until the year of Jubilee.* Then during that special celebration, the land will go back to the first owner’s family. So the property will again belong to the right family.

<sup>29</sup>“If a person sells a home in a walled city, then he still has the right to get it back until a full year after he sold the house. His right to get the house back will continue one year. <sup>30</sup>But if the owner does not buy back the house before a full year is finished, then the house that is in the walled city will belong to the person that bought it, and to his descendants.* The house will not go back to the first owner, at the time of Jubilee.* <sup>31</sup>Towns without walls around them will be treated like open fields. So houses built in those small towns will go back to the first owners at the time of Jubilee.*

<sup>32</sup>“But about the cities of the Levites: The Levites can buy back their houses at any time in the cities that belong to them. <sup>33</sup>If a person buys a house from a Levite, that house in the Levites’ city will again belong to the Levites at the time of Jubilee.* Why? Because houses in Levite cities belong to people from the family group of Levi. The people of Israel gave those cities to the Levite people. <sup>34</sup>Also, the fields and pastures around the Levite cities can’t be sold. Those fields belong to the Levites forever.

Rules for Slave Owners

<sup>35</sup>“Maybe a person from your own country* will become too poor to support himself. You must let him live with you like a visitor. <sup>36</sup>Don’t charge him any interest on money you might loan to him. Respect your God, and let your brother* live with you. <sup>37</sup>Don’t charge him interest on any money you lend him. And don’t try to make a profit from the food you sell him. <sup>38</sup>I am the Lord your God. I brought you out of the land of Egypt to give the land of Canaan to you and to become your God.

<sup>39</sup>“Maybe a person from your own country* will become so poor that he sells himself as a slave to you. You must not make him work like a slave. <sup>40</sup>He will be like a hired worker and a visitor with you until the year of Jubilee.* <sup>41</sup>Then he can leave you. He can take his children and go back to his family. He can go back to the property of his ancestors.* <sup>42</sup>Why? Because they are my servants! I brought them

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

a person ... country Literally, “one of your brothers.”

your brother Or, “the person from your own country.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Jubilee The word comes from the Hebrew word for the horn that was blown at this time. See Leviticus 25:9.

out of slavery, in Egypt. They must not become slaves again.<sup>43</sup> You must not be a cruel master to this person. You must respect your God.

<sup>44</sup>“About your men and women slaves: You may get men and women slaves from the other nations around you. <sup>45</sup>Also, you may get children as slaves if they come from the families of the foreigners living in your land. Those children slaves will belong to you. <sup>46</sup>You may even pass these foreign slaves on to your children after you die so that they will belong to your children. They will be your slaves forever. You may make slaves of these foreigners. But you must not be a cruel master over your own brothers, the people of Israel.

<sup>47</sup>“Maybe a foreigner or visitor among you will become rich. Maybe a person from your own country* will become poor, so that he sells himself as a slave to a foreigner living among you or to a member of a foreigner’s family. <sup>48</sup>That person will have the right to be bought back and become free. One of his brothers* can buy him back. <sup>49</sup>Or his uncle or his cousin can buy him back. Or one of his close relatives from his family can buy him back. Or if the person gets enough money, he can pay the money himself and become free again.

<sup>50</sup>“How do you decide the price? You must count the years from the time he sold himself to the foreigner up to the next year of Jubilee.* Use that number to decide the price. Why? Because really the person only ‘hired’ him for a few years! <sup>51</sup>If there are still many years before the year of Jubilee, then the person must give back a large part of the price. It all depends on the numbers of years. <sup>52</sup>If only a few years are left until the year of Jubilee, then the person must pay a small part of the original price. <sup>53</sup>But that person will live like a hired man with the foreigner every year. Don’t let the foreigner be a cruel master over that person.

a person ... country Literally, “one of your brothers.”

Jubilee The word comes from the Hebrew word for the horn that was blown at this time. See Leviticus 25:9.

<sup>54</sup>“That person will become free, even if no one buys him back. At the year of Jubilee* he and his children will become free. <sup>55</sup>Why? Because the people of Israel are my servants. They are my servants that I brought them out of slavery, in Egypt. I am the Lord your God!

Rewards for Obeying God

26 “Don’t make idols for yourselves. Don’t set up statues or memorials* in your land to bow down to. Why? Because I am the Lord your God!

<sup>2</sup>“Remember my special days of rest* and honor my holy place. I am the Lord!

<sup>3</sup>“Remember my laws and commands, and obey them! <sup>4</sup>If you do those things, then I will give you rains at the time they should come. The land will grow crops and the trees of the field will grow their fruit. <sup>5</sup>Your threshing* will continue until it is time to gather grapes. And your grape gathering will continue until it is time to plant. Then you will have plenty to eat. And you will live safely in your land. <sup>6</sup>I will give peace to your country. You will lie down in peace. No person will come to make you afraid. I will keep harmful animals out of your country. And armies will not come through your country.

<sup>7</sup>“You will chase your enemies, and defeat them. You will kill them with your sword. <sup>8</sup>Five of you will chase 100 men, and 100 of you will chase 10,000 men. You will defeat your enemies and kill them with your sword.

<sup>9</sup>“Then I will turn to you. I will let you have many children. I will keep my Agreement with you. <sup>10</sup>You will have enough crops to last for more than a year. You will harvest the new crops. But then you will have to throw out the old crops to make room for the new crops! <sup>11</sup>Also, I will place my Holy Tent* among you.

memorial A stone marker to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stone markers as places to worship false gods.

special days of rest Or, “Sabbaths.”

threshing Beating or walking on grain to remove the hulls from the grain.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle.” The place God came to live among his people.

I will not turn away from you! <sup>12</sup>I will walk with you and be your God. And you will be my people. <sup>13</sup>I am the Lord your God. You were slaves in Egypt. But I brought you out of Egypt. You were bent low from the heavy weights you carried as slaves. But I broke the poles that were on your shoulders. I let you walk tall again!

Punishment for Not Obeying God

<sup>14</sup>“But if you don’t obey me and all my commands, then these bad things will happen. <sup>15</sup>If you refuse to obey my laws and commands, then you have broken my Agreement. <sup>16</sup>If you do that, then I will cause terrible things to happen to you. I will cause you to have disease and fever. They will destroy your eyes and take away your life. You will not have success when you plant your seed. And your enemies will eat your crops! <sup>17</sup>I will be against you, so your enemies will defeat you. Those enemies hate you, and they will rule over you. You will run away even when no one is chasing you.

<sup>18</sup>“After these things, if you still don’t obey me, I will punish you seven times more for your sins. <sup>19</sup>And I will also break the great cities that, make you proud. The skies will not give rain, and the earth will not produce crops.* <sup>20</sup>You will work hard, but it will not help. Your land will not give any crops, and your trees will not grow their fruit.

<sup>21</sup>“If you still turn against me and refuse to obey me, then I will beat you seven times harder! The more you sin, the more you will be punished! <sup>22</sup>I will send wild animals against you. They will take your children away from you. They will destroy your animals. They will kill many of your people. People will be afraid to travel—the roads will be empty!

<sup>23</sup>“If you don’t learn your lesson after all those things, and if you still turn against me, <sup>24</sup>then I will also turn against you. I—yes, I (the Lord)—will punish you seven times for your sins. <sup>25</sup>You broke my Agreement, so I will punish you. I will bring armies against you.

You will go into your cities for safety. But I will cause diseases to spread among you. And your enemies will defeat you. <sup>26</sup>I will give you a share of the grain left in that city. But there will be very little food to eat. Ten women will be able to cook all their bread in one oven. They will measure each piece of bread. You will eat, but you will still be hungry!

<sup>27</sup>“If you still refuse to listen to me, and if you still turn against me, <sup>28</sup>then I will really show my anger! I—yes, I (the Lord)—will punish you seven times for your sins! <sup>29</sup>You will become so hungry that, you will eat the bodies of your sons and daughters. <sup>30</sup>I will destroy your high places.* I will cut down your incense* altars.* I will put your dead bodies on the dead bodies of your idols.* You will be very disgusting to me. <sup>31</sup>I will destroy your cities. I will make your holy places empty. I will stop smelling your offerings. <sup>32</sup>I will make your land empty. And your enemies that come to live there will be shocked at it. <sup>33</sup>I will scatter you among the nations. I will pull out my sword and destroy you. Your land will become empty and your cities will be destroyed.

<sup>34</sup>“You will be taken to your enemy’s country. Your country will be empty. So your land will finally get its rest. The land will enjoy its time of rest. <sup>35</sup>The law says the land should have a year of rest every seven years. During the time that the land is empty, it will get the time of rest that you did not give it while you lived there. <sup>36</sup>The survivors* will lose their courage in the land of their enemies. They will be scared of everything. They will run around like a leaf being blown by the wind. They will run like someone is chasing them with a sword. They will fall even when no one is chasing them! <sup>37</sup>They will run like someone is chasing them with a sword. They will fall over each other—even when no person is chasing them.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were usually on the hills and mountains.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

altars A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

survivor(s) People that escaped some disaster. Here, this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy’s armies.

The skies ... crops Literally, “Your skies will be like iron, your land like bronze.”

"You will not be strong enough to stand up against your enemies. <sup>38</sup>You will be lost in other nations. You will disappear in the land of your enemies. <sup>39</sup>So the survivors* will rot away in their sin in their enemies' countries. They will rot away in their sins just like their ancestors* did.

There Is Always Hope

<sup>40</sup>"But maybe the people will confess (admit) their sins. And maybe they will confess the sins of their ancestors.* Maybe they will admit that they turned against me. Maybe they will admit that they sinned against me. <sup>41</sup>Maybe they will admit that I turned against them and brought them into the land of their enemies. Those people will be like strangers to me. But maybe they will become humble* and accept the punishment for their sin. <sup>42</sup>If they do, then I will remember my Agreement with Jacob. I will remember my Agreement with Isaac. I will remember my Agreement with Abraham. And I will remember the land.

<sup>43</sup>"The land will be empty. The land will enjoy its time of rest. Then the survivors* will accept the punishment for their sins. They will learn that they were punished because they hated my laws and refused to obey my rules. <sup>44</sup>They truly sinned. But if they come to me for help, I will not turn away from them. I will listen to them, even if they are in the land of their enemies. I will not completely destroy them. I will not break my Agreement with them. Why? Because I am the Lord their God! <sup>45</sup>For them, I will remember the Agreement with their ancestors.* I brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt so I could become their God. The other nations saw those things. I am the Lord!"

survivor(s) People that escaped some disaster. Here, this means the Jewish people that survived the destruction of Judah and Israel by its enemy armies.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Those people ... humble Literally, "if they humble their uncircumcised heart."

[Those laws are the Agreement, between the Lord and the people of Israel. The Lord gave those laws to Moses at Mount Sinai, and Moses gave them to the people.]

Promises Are Important

27 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>"Tell the people of Israel: A person might make a special promise to the Lord. That person might promise to give a person to the Lord. [That person will then serve the Lord in a special way.] The priest must set a price for that person. People will have to pay that price if they want to buy the person back from the Lord.] <sup>3</sup>The price for a man from 20 to 60 years old is 50 shekels* of silver. (You must use the official measure* for the silver.) <sup>4</sup>The price for a woman [that is 20 to 60 years old,] is 30 shekels. <sup>5</sup>The price for a man from 5 to 20 years old is 20 shekels. The price for a woman [from 5 to 20 years old,] is 10 shekels. <sup>6</sup>The price for a baby boy from one month to five years old is 5 shekels. For a baby girl, the price is 3 shekels. <sup>7</sup>The price for a man that is 60 years old or older is 15 shekels. The price for a woman is 10 shekels.

<sup>8</sup>"If a person is too poor to pay the price, then bring that person to the priest. The priest will decide how much money the person can afford to pay.

Gifts to the Lord

<sup>9</sup>"Some animals can be used as sacrifices to the Lord. If a person brings one of those animals, then that animal will become holy. <sup>10</sup>[That person promises to give that animal to the Lord,] so that person must not try to put another animal in its place. He must not try to change it for something else. He must not try to change a good animal for a bad animal. He must not change a bad animal for a good animal. If that person does try to change animals, then both animals will become holy—both animals will belong to the Lord.]

shekels A shekel is 2/5 of an ounce.

official measure Literally, "holy shekel," the official standard of measure used in the tabernacle or temple.

<sup>11</sup>“Some animals can’t be offered as sacrifices to the Lord. If a person brings one of those unclean* animals to the Lord, then that animal must be brought to the priest. <sup>12</sup>The priest will decide a price for that animal. It does not make any difference if the animal is good or bad. If the priest decides on a price, then that is the price for the animal. <sup>13</sup>If the person wants to buy back the animal,* then he must add a fifth to the price.

The Value of a House

<sup>14</sup>“Now if a person dedicates his house as holy to the Lord, then the priest must decide its price. It does not make any difference if the house is good or bad. If the priest decides on a price, then that is the price for the house. <sup>15</sup>But if the person that gives the house wants to get it back, then he must add a fifth to the price. Then the house will belong to that person.

Value of Property

<sup>16</sup>“If a person dedicates part of his fields to the Lord, the value of those fields will depend on how much seed is needed to plant it. It will be 50 shekels* of silver for each homer* of barley seed. <sup>17</sup>If the person gives his field to God during the year of Jubilee,* then its value will be whatever the priest decides. <sup>18</sup>But if the person gives his field after the Jubilee, then the priest must calculate its exact price. He must count the number of years to the next year of Jubilee. Then he must use that number to decide the price. <sup>19</sup>If the person that gave the field wants to buy back the field, then he must add a fifth to that price. Then the field will again belong to that person. <sup>20</sup>If the person does not buy back the field, then the field will always belong to the priests. If the land is sold to someone else, then that first person can’t buy back the land. <sup>21</sup>If the person did not buy back the land, then at the year of Jubilee,* the field will remain holy to the Lord—it will belong to the priest forever! It will be like land that was given completely to the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>“If a person dedicates to the Lord a field that he has bought, and it is not a part of his family’s property,* <sup>23</sup>then the priest must count the years to the year of Jubilee* and decide the price for the land. Then that land will belong to the Lord. <sup>24</sup>At the year of Jubilee, the land will go to the original owner. It will go back to the family that owns the land.

Value of Animals

<sup>26</sup>“People can give cows and sheep as special gifts to the Lord. But if the animal is the firstborn, then that animal already belongs to the Lord. So people can’t give those animals as special gifts. <sup>27</sup>People must give firstborn animals to the Lord. But if the firstborn animal is an unclean* animal, then the person must buy back that animal. The priest will decide the price of the animal, and the person must add a fifth to that price. If the person does not buy back that animal, then the priest must sell the animal for the price he decided.

<sup>28</sup>“There is a special kind of gift* that people give to the Lord. That gift belongs only to the Lord. That gift cannot be bought back or sold. That gift belongs to the Lord. That type of gift includes people, animals, and fields from the family property.

<sup>29</sup>“If that special kind of gift* to the Lord is a person, then that person cannot be bought back. That person must be killed.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

buy ... animal See Exodus 13:1-16 for the laws about giving to God or “buying back” firstborn children or animals.

shekels A shekel was 2/5 of an ounce.

homer A dry measure equal to about 6 bushels.

Jubilee The word comes from the Hebrew word for the horn that was blown at this time. See Leviticus 25:9.

family’s property That is, land that was owned originally by his family and family group.

official measure Literally, “holy shekel,” the official standard of measure used in the tabernacle or temple.

gerahs A gerah is 1/50 of an ounce.

special kind of gift This usually means things taken in war. Those things (gifts) belonged only to the Lord, so they could not be used for anything else.

<sup>30</sup>“A tenth of all crops belong to the Lord. This means the crops from fields and the fruit from trees—a tenth belongs to the Lord. <sup>31</sup>So if a person wants to get back his tenth, he must add a fifth to its price and then buy it back.

<sup>32</sup>“The priests will take every tenth animal from a person’s cows or sheep. Every tenth animal will belong to the Lord. <sup>33</sup>The owner should not worry if the chosen animal is good or bad. He should not change the animal for another animal. If he decides to change it for another animal, then both animals will belong to the Lord. That animal can’t be bought back.

Numbers

Moses Counts the People of Israel

1 The Lord spoke to Moses in the Meeting Tent.* This was in the Sinai Desert. It was on the first day of the second month of the second year after the people of Israel left Egypt. The Lord said to Moses: <sup>2</sup>“Count the number of all the people of Israel. List the name of each man with his family and his family group. <sup>3</sup>You and Aaron will count all the men of Israel. Count the men that are 20 years old or older. (These are the men who serve in the army of Israel.) List them by their group.* <sup>4</sup>‘One man from each and every family group will help you.’ This man will be the leader of his family group. <sup>5</sup>‘These are the names of the men that will stand with you, and help you;:

from Reuben’s family group—Elizur son of Shedeur;

from Manasseh’s family group, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur (Manasseh was also Joseph’s son);

<sup>16</sup>All those men were the leaders of their families. The people also chose them to be leaders of their family groups. <sup>17</sup>Moses and Aaron took these men that had been chosen to be leaders. <sup>18</sup>And Moses and Aaron called all the people of Israel together. Then the people were listed by their families and their family groups. All the men that were 20 years old or older were listed. <sup>19</sup>Moses did exactly what the Lord commanded—Moses counted the people while they were in the Sinai desert.

<sup>20</sup>They counted Reuben’s family group. (Reuben was the firstborn* son of Israel.) The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>21</sup>The total number of men counted from Reuben’s family group was 46,500.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

group Or, “division.” This is a military term that shows Israel was organized like an army.

Deuel Or, “Reuel.”

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

<sup>22</sup>They counted Simeon's family group. The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>23</sup>The total number of men counted from Simeon's family group was 59,300.

<sup>24</sup>They counted Gad's family group. The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>25</sup>The total number of men counted from Gad's family group was 45,650.

<sup>26</sup>They counted Judah's family group. The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>27</sup>The total number of men counted from Judah's family group was 74,600.

<sup>28</sup>They counted Issachar's family group. The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>29</sup>The total number of men counted from Issachar's family group was 54,400.

<sup>30</sup>They counted Zebulun's family group. The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>31</sup>The total number of men counted from Zebulun's family group was 57,400.

<sup>32</sup>They counted Ephraim's family group. (Ephraim was the son of Joseph.) The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>33</sup>The total number of men counted from Ephraim's family group was 40,500.

<sup>34</sup>They counted Manasseh's family group. (Manasseh was also the son of Joseph.) The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>35</sup>The total number of men counted from Manasseh's family group was 32,200.

<sup>36</sup>They counted Benjamin's family group. The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>37</sup>The total number of men counted from Benjamin's family group was 35,400.

<sup>38</sup>They counted Dan's family group. The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>39</sup>The total number of men counted from Dan's family group was 62,700.

<sup>40</sup>They counted Asher's family group. The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed with their families and family groups. <sup>41</sup>The total number of men counted from Asher's family group was 41,500.

<sup>42</sup>They counted Naphtali's family group. The names of all the men that were 20 years old or older and able to serve in the army were listed. They were listed by name with their families and family groups. <sup>43</sup>The total number of men counted from Naphtali's family group was 53,400.

<sup>47</sup>The families from the Levi family group were not counted with the other people of Israel. <sup>48</sup>The Lord had told Moses: <sup>49</sup>"Don't count the men from Levi's family group or include them with the other people of Israel. <sup>50</sup>Tell the people of Levi that they are responsible for the Holy Tent* of the Agreement. They must take care of that and all the things that are with it. They must carry the Holy Tent and everything in it. They must make their camp around it and take care of it. <sup>51</sup>Any time that the Holy Tent is moved, the people of Levi must do it. Any time the Holy Tent is put in a place, the people of Levi must do it. They are the ones that care for the Holy Tent. If any other person that is not from Levi's family group tries to care for the tent, he will be killed. <sup>52</sup>The people of Israel will make their camps in separate groups.* Each person should camp near his family flag. <sup>53</sup>But the people of Levi must make their camp around the Holy Tent. The people of Levi will guard the Holy Tent of the Agreement. They will protect the Holy Tent, so that nothing bad will happen to the people of Israel."

<sup>54</sup>So the people of Israel obeyed all the things that the Lord commanded Moses.

The Camp Arrangement

2 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron: <sup>24</sup>"The people of Israel should make their camps around the Meeting Tent.* Each group* will have its own special flag, and each person should camp near his group's flag."

<sup>25</sup>The flag of the camp of Judah will be on the east side, where the sun rises. The people of Judah will camp near its flag. The leader of the people of Judah is Nahshon son of Amminadab. <sup>26</sup>There are 74,600 men in his group.*

<sup>29</sup>Zebulun's family group will also camp next to Judah's family group. The leader of the people of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon. <sup>30</sup>There are 57,400 men in his group.*

<sup>31</sup>There is a total of 186,400 men in Judah's camp. All these men are divided into their different family groups. Judah will be the first group to move when the people travel from one place to another.

<sup>32</sup>The flag of Reuben's camp will be south of the Holy Tent.* Each group will camp near its flag. The leader of the people of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur. <sup>33</sup>There are 46,500 people in this group.*

group(s) Or, "division(s)." This is a military term that shows Israel was organized like an army."

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle," the place God came to live among his people.

<sup>34</sup>Simeon's family group will camp next to Reuben's family group. The leader of the people of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai. <sup>35</sup>There are 59,300 people in this group.*

<sup>36</sup>Gad's family group will also camp next to the people of Reuben. The leader of the people of Gad is Eliasaph son of Deuel.* <sup>37</sup>There are 45,650 people in this group.*

<sup>38</sup>There are 151,450 men in all the groups* in Reuben's camp. Reuben's camp will be the second group to move when the people travel from place to place.

<sup>39</sup>When the people travel, Levi's camp will move next. The Meeting Tent* will be with them between the other camps. The people will make their camps in the same order that they move. Each person will be with his family flag.

<sup>40</sup>The flag of the Camp of Ephraim will be on the west side. The family groups* of Ephraim will camp there. The leader of the people of Ephraim is Elishama son of Ammihud. <sup>41</sup>There are 40,500 people in this group.*

<sup>46</sup>There are 108,100 men in Ephraim's camp. They will be the third family to move when the people travel from one place to another.

<sup>49</sup>The people from Asher's family group will camp next to Dan's family group. The leader of the people of Asher is Pagiel son of Ocran. <sup>50</sup>There are 41,500 people in this group.*

Deuel Or, "Reuel."

<sup>29</sup>Naphtali's family group will also camp next to Dan's family group. The leader of the people of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan.

<sup>31</sup>There are 157,600 men in Dan's camp. They will be the last family to move when the people travel from place to place. Each person will be with his family's flag.

<sup>32</sup>So those were the people of Israel. They were counted by families. The total number of Israelites in the camps, counted by groups,* is 603,550. <sup>33</sup>Moses obeyed the Lord and did not count the Levites with the other people of Israel.

<sup>34</sup>So the people of Israel did everything the Lord told Moses. Each group camped under its own flag. And each person stayed with his own family and family group.

Aaron's Family, the Priests

3 This is the family history of Aaron and Moses at the time the Lord talked to Moses on Mount Sinai.

These sons were given the special work of serving the Lord as priests. <sup>4</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died, because they sinned, while serving the Lord. They made an offering to the Lord but they used fire that the Lord did not allow. This happened in the Sinai desert. So Nadab and Abihu died there. They had no sons, so Eleazar and Ithamar became priests and served the Lord. They did this during the time that their father Aaron was living.

Levites—the Priests' Helpers

Aaron the priest. Those people will be Aaron's helpers. <sup>7</sup>The Levites will help Aaron when he serves at the Meeting Tent.* And the Levites will help all the people of Israel when they come to worship at the Holy Tent.* <sup>8</sup>The people of Israel should protect all the things in the Meeting Tent; it is their duty. But the Levites will serve the people of Israel by caring for these things. This will be their way of worshipping at the Holy Tent.

<sup>10</sup>“Appoint Aaron and his sons to be priests. They must do their duty and serve as priests. Any other person that tries to come near the holy things* must be killed.”

<sup>11</sup>The Lord also said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>“I told you that every family of Israel must give their firstborn* son to me,—but now I am choosing the Levites to serve me. They will be mine. So all the other people of Israel will not have to give their firstborn sons to me.

<sup>13</sup>“When you were in Egypt, I killed all the firstborn* children of the Egyptian people. At that time, I took all of the firstborn children of Israel to be mine. All of the firstborn children and all the firstborn animals are mine. But now I am giving your firstborn children back to you, and I am making the Levites mine. I am the Lord.”

<sup>14</sup>The Lord again talked to Moses in the Sinai desert. The Lord said, <sup>15</sup>“Count all the families and family groups in Levi's family group. Count every man or boy that is a month old or older.” <sup>16</sup>So Moses obeyed the Lord. He counted them all.

<sup>17</sup>Levi had three sons. Their names were: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>18</sup>Each son was the leader of several family groups.

The Gershon family groups were: Libni and Shimei.

group(s) Or, “division(s).” This is a military term that shows Israel was organized like an army.

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

chosen Or, “anointed.” A special oil was poured on their heads to show they were chosen by God.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the place God came to live among his people.

tries ... holy things Or, “tries to serve as a priest.”

Those are the families that belonged to Levi's family group.

<sup>21</sup>The families of Libni and Shimei belonged to the family of Gershon. They were the Gershonite family groups. <sup>22</sup>There were 7,500 boys and men over the age of one month in these two family groups. <sup>23</sup>The Gershonite family groups were told to camp in the west. They made their camp behind the Holy Tent.*

<sup>24</sup>The leader of the family groups of the Gershonite people was Eliasaph son of Lael. <sup>25</sup>In the Meeting Tent,* the Gershonite people had the job of taking care of the Holy Tent, the outer tent, and the covering. They also took care of the curtain at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. <sup>26</sup>They cared for the curtain in the courtyard. And they cared for the curtain at the entrance of the courtyard. This courtyard was around the Holy Tent and the altar.* And they cared for the ropes and for everything that was used with the curtains.

<sup>27</sup>The families of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, belonged to the family of Kohath. They were the Kohathite family groups. <sup>28</sup>In this family group there were 8,300* men and boys a month old or over. The Kohathite people were given the job of taking care of the things in the holy place. <sup>29</sup>The Kohathite family groups were given the area to the south of the Holy Tent.* This was the area where they camped. <sup>30</sup>The leader of the Kohathite family groups was Elizaphan son of Uzziel. <sup>31</sup>Their job was to care for the Holy Box,* the table, the lampstand, and the tools of the Holy Place.* They also cared for the curtain and all the things that were used with the curtain.

<sup>32</sup>The leader over the leaders of the Levite people was Eleazar son of Aaron. (He was the priest.) Eleazar was in charge of all the people that cared for the holy things.

<sup>33-34</sup>The family groups of Mahli and Mushi belonged to the Merari family. There were 6,200 men and boys that were one month old or older in the Mahli family group. <sup>35</sup>The leader of the Merari family group was Zuriel son of Abihail. This family group was given the area to the north of the Holy Tent.* This is the area where they camped. <sup>36</sup>The people from the Merari family were given the job of caring for the frames of the Holy Tent. They cared for all the braces, posts, bases, and everything that was used with the frames of the Holy Tent. <sup>37</sup>They also cared for all the posts in the courtyard around the Holy Tent. This included all the bases, tent pegs, and ropes.

<sup>38</sup>Moses, Aaron, and his sons camped east of the Holy Tent,* in front of the Meeting Tent. They were given the work of caring for the Holy Place. They did this for all the people of Israel. Any other person that came near the Holy Place was to be killed.

<sup>39</sup>The Lord commanded Moses and Aaron to count all the men and boys one month old or older in Levi's family group. The total number was 22,000.

Levites Take the Place of the Firstborn Sons

<sup>40</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "Count all the firstborn* men and boys in Israel that are one month old or older. Make a list of their names. <sup>41</sup>Now, I will not take all the firstborn* men and boys of Israel. Now I, the Lord, will take the Levites. I will also take the firstborn animals of the Levites instead of taking all the firstborn animals from the other people in Israel."

people of Israel. <sup>43</sup>Moses listed all the firstborn men and boys that were one month old or older. There were 22,273 names on that list.

<sup>44</sup>The Lord also said to Moses, “I, the Lord, give this command: ‘Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn* men from the other families of Israel. And I will take the animals of the Levites instead of the animals of the other people. The Levites are mine. <sup>45</sup>There are 22,000 Levites, but there are 22,273 firstborn sons from the other families. This leaves 273 more firstborn sons than Levites. <sup>46</sup>Using the official measure,* collect five shekels* of silver for each of the 273 people. (The shekel by the official measure weighs 20 gerahs.*) Collect that silver from the people of Israel. <sup>47</sup>Give that silver to Aaron and his sons. It is the payment for the 273 people of Israel.’”

<sup>48</sup>So Moses gathered the money for the 273 people. These are the 273 people that the Levite family group could not take the place of. <sup>49</sup>Moses collected the silver from the firstborn* men of the people of Israel. He collected 1,365 shekels* of silver, using the official measure.* <sup>50</sup>Moses obeyed the Lord. Moses gave the silver to Aaron and his sons the way the Lord had commanded.

The Jobs of the Kohath Family

4 The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>1</sup>“Count the men in the families of the Kohath family group. (The Kohath family group is a part of Levi’s family group.) <sup>2</sup>Count all the men from 30 to 50 years old that served in the army. These men will work in the Meeting Tent.* <sup>3</sup>Their job is to care for the most holy things in the Meeting Tent.

<sup>4</sup>“When the people of Israel travel to a new place, then Aaron and his sons must go into the Meeting Tent* and take down the curtain and cover the Holy Box of the Agreement* with it. <sup>5</sup>Then they must cover all of this with covering made from fine leather.* Then they must spread the solid blue cloth over the leather and put the poles in the rings on the Holy Box.

<sup>6</sup>Then they must spread a blue cloth over the holy table. Then they must put the plates, spoons, bowls, and the jars for drink offerings on the table. Also, put the special bread on the table. <sup>7</sup>Then you must put a red cloth over all of these things. Then cover everything with fine leather.* Then put the poles in the rings of the table.

<sup>8</sup>Then they must cover the lampstand and its lamps with a blue cloth. They must also cover all the things used to keep the lamps burning and all the jars of oil that are used in the lamps. <sup>9</sup>Then wrap everything in fine leather.* Then they must put all these things on poles used for carrying them.

<sup>10</sup>They must spread a blue cloth over the golden altar.* They must cover that with fine leather.* Then they must put the poles for carrying it in the rings on the altar.

<sup>11</sup>Then they must gather together all the special things that are used for worship in the Holy Place.* They must gather those things together and wrap them in a blue cloth. Then they must cover that with fine leather.* They must put these things on a frame for carrying them.

<sup>12</sup>They must clean the ashes out of the bronze, altar* and spread a purple cloth over it. <sup>13</sup>Then they must gather together all the things that are used for worship at the altar. These are the fire pans, forks, shovels, and the bowls. They must put these things on the bronze, altar. Then they must spread a covering of fine leather* over the altar. They <sup>15</sup>“Aaron and his sons must finish covering all the holy things in the Holy Place.* Then the men from the Kohath family can go in and begin carrying those things. In this way, they can touch the Holy Place and not die.

<sup>16</sup>“Eleazar son of Aaron the priest will be responsible for the Holy Tent.* He will be responsible for the Holy Place* and for everything in it. He will be responsible for the oil for the lamp, the sweet-smelling incense,* the daily offering,* and the anointing oil.”*

<sup>17</sup>The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>18</sup>“Be careful! Don’t let these Kohathite men be destroyed. <sup>19</sup>You must do these things so that the Kohathite men can go near the Most Holy Place* and not die. Aaron and his sons must go in and show each Kohathite man what to do. They must give each man the things he needs to carry. <sup>20</sup>If you do not do this, then the Kohathite men might go in and look at the holy things. If they look at those things, even for a moment, then they must die.”

The Jobs of the Gershon Family

<sup>21</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>22</sup>“Count all the people of the Gershon family. List them by family and family group. <sup>23</sup>Count all the men that are from 30 to 50 years old that served in the army. These men will have the job of caring for the Meeting Tent.*

<sup>24</sup>“This is what the Gershonite family must do and the things they must carry. <sup>25</sup>They must carry the curtains of the Holy Tent,* the Meeting Tent, its covering, and the covering made from fine leather.* They must also carry the curtain at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. <sup>26</sup>They must carry the curtains of the courtyard that are around the Holy Tent and the altar.* And they must carry the curtain for the entrance of the courtyard. They must also carry all of the ropes and all the things that are used with the curtains. The Gershonite men will be responsible for anything that needs to be done with these things. <sup>27</sup>Aaron and his sons will watch all the work that is done. Everything the Gershonite people carry and the other work they do will be watched by Aaron and his sons. You must tell them all the things that they are responsible for carrying. <sup>28</sup>This is the work that the men of the Gershonite family group must do for the Meeting Tent. Ithamar son of Aaron the priest will be responsible for their work.”

The Jobs of the Merari Family

<sup>29</sup>“Count all of the men in the families and family groups in the Merari family group. <sup>30</sup>Count all the men that are from 30 to 50 years old and served in the army. These men will do a special work for the Meeting Tent.* <sup>31</sup>When you travel, it is their job to carry the frames of the Meeting Tent. They must carry the braces, the posts, and the bases. <sup>32</sup>They must also carry the posts that are around the courtyard. They must carry the bases, the tent pegs, the ropes, and everything that is used for the poles around the courtyard. List the names and tell each man exactly what he must carry. <sup>33</sup>These are the things that the people from the Merari family will do to serve in the work for the Meeting Tent. Ithamar son of Aaron the priest will be responsible for their work.”

The Levite Families

<sup>34</sup>Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the people of Israel counted the Kohathite people. They counted them by families and family groups. <sup>35</sup>They counted all the men from 30 to 50 years old that served in the army. These men were given special work to do for the Meeting Tent.*

<sup>36</sup>There were 2,750 men in the Kohath family group that were qualified to do this work. <sup>37</sup>So these men from the Kohath family group were given their special work to do for the Meeting Tent.* Moses and Aaron did this the way the Lord had told Moses to do.

<sup>38</sup>Also, the Gershonite family group was counted. <sup>39</sup>All the men from 30 to 50 years old that served in the army were counted. These men were given their special work to do for the Meeting Tent.* <sup>40</sup>There were 2,630 men in the families of the Gershon family group that were qualified. <sup>41</sup>So these men from the Gershon family group were given their special work to do for the Meeting Tent. Moses and Aaron did this the way the Lord had told Moses to do.

<sup>46</sup>So Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the people of Israel counted all the people in Levi's family group. They had counted each family and each family group. <sup>47</sup>All the men between the ages of 30 and 50 that served in the army were counted. These men were given a special work to do for the Meeting Tent.* They did the work of carrying the Meeting Tent when they traveled. <sup>48</sup>The total number was 8,580.

<sup>49</sup>So, each man was counted like the Lord commanded Moses. Each man was given his own work and told what he must carry. This was done like the Lord commanded.

Rules About Cleanliness

5 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>1</sup>"I command the people of Israel to keep their camp free from sickness and disease. Tell the people to send away from the camp any person that has a bad skin disease.* Tell them to send away from the camp any person that has a discharge.* And tell them to send away from their camp any person that has touched a dead body. <sup>3</sup>It doesn't matter if that person is a man or a woman, send them away from your camp. Send them away so that they will not cause any more sickness and disease. I am living among you in your camp."

<sup>4</sup>So the people of Israel obeyed God's command. They sent those people outside the camp. They did this thing that the Lord had commanded to Moses.

Paying for Doing Wrong

<sup>5</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>6</sup>"Tell this to the people of Israel: A person might do something bad to another person. (When someone does bad things to other people, he is really sinning against God.) That person is guilty. <sup>7</sup>So that person must tell the people about the sin he has done. Then that person must fully pay for the wrong that he has done. And he must add one-fifth to the payment and pay it all to the person that he did wrong to. <sup>8</sup>But maybe the person he did wrong to is dead. And maybe that dead person doesn't have any close relatives to take the payment. In that case, the person that did wrong will give the payment to the Lord. That person will give the full payment to the priest. The priest must sacrifice the ram that makes people pure. This ram must be sacrificed to cover over the sins of the person that did wrong. But the priest can keep the rest of the payment.

<sup>9</sup>"If one of the people of Israel gives a special gift to God, then the priest that accepts that gift can keep it. It is his. <sup>10</sup>A person doesn't have to give these special gifts. But if he gives them, then the gifts belong to the priest.”

Suspicious Husbands

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>12</sup>“Tell these things to the people of Israel: A man’s wife might be unfaithful to him. <sup>13</sup>She might have sexual relations with another man and hide this from her husband. Her husband might never know about the wrong thing she did. There will be no one to tell him that she did this sin. And the woman will not tell her husband about her sin. <sup>14</sup>But the husband might begin to suspect that his wife sinned against him. He might become jealous. He might begin to believe that she is not pure and true to him. <sup>15</sup>If that happens, then he must take his wife to the priest. The husband must also take an offering. This offering will be 8 cups* of barley flour. He must not pour oil or incense* on the barley flour. This barley flour is a grain offering to the Lord. It is given because the husband is jealous. This offering will show that he believes that his wife has been unfaithful to him.

<sup>16</sup>“The priest will take the woman, and the woman will stand before the Lord. <sup>17</sup>Then the priest will take some special water and put it in a clay jar. The priest will put some dirt from the floor of the Holy Tent into the water. <sup>18</sup>The priest will force the woman to stand before the Lord. Then he will loosen her hair and put the grain offering in her hand. This is the barley flour that was given for jealousy. At the same time, he will hold the clay jar of special water. This is the special water that brings trouble to the woman.

<sup>19</sup>“Then the priest will tell the woman that she must not lie. She must promise to tell the truth. The priest will say to her: ‘If you have not slept with another man, and if you have not sinned against your husband while you were married to him, then this water that causes trouble will not hurt you. <sup>20</sup>But if you have sinned against your husband—if you have slept with a man that is not your husband—then you are not pure. <sup>21</sup>So, when you drink this special water, much trouble will come to you. You will not be able to have any children. And if you are pregnant, your baby will die.* Then your people will leave you, and they will say bad things about you. Then the priest must tell the woman to make a special promise to the Lord. The woman must agree that these bad things will happen to her if she lies. <sup>22</sup>The priest must say, ‘You must drink this water that causes trouble. If you have sinned, you will not be able to have children and any baby you have will die before it is born.’ Then the woman should say: ‘I agree to do as you say.’

<sup>23</sup>“The priest should write these warnings on a scroll.* Then he should wash the words off into the water. <sup>24</sup>Then the woman must drink the water that brings trouble. This water will enter her and, if she is guilty, it will cause her much suffering.

<sup>25</sup>“Then the priest will take the grain offering from her (the offering for jealousy) and raise it before the Lord. Then he will bring it to the altar.* <sup>26</sup>The priest will fill his hands with some of the grain and put it on the altar. Then he will burn it there. After that, he will tell the woman to drink the water. <sup>27</sup>If the woman has sinned against her husband, then the water will bring trouble to her. The water will go into her body and cause her much suffering. Any baby that is in her will die before it is born, and she will never be able to have children. All the people will turn against her.* <sup>28</sup>But if the woman has not sinned against her husband and she is pure, then the priest will say that she is not guilty. Then she will be normal, able to have children.

<sup>29</sup>“So this is the law about jealousy. This is what you should do when a woman sins against her husband while she is married to him. <sup>30</sup>Or if scroll A long roll of leather or papyrus (paper) used for writing books, letters, and legal documents.

the man becomes jealous and suspects his wife has sinned against him, then that is what the man should do. The priest must tell the woman to stand before the Lord. Then the priest will do all these things. This is the law. <sup>31</sup>The husband will not be guilty of doing anything wrong. But the woman will suffer if she has sinned."

Nazirites

6 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>1</sup>"Tell these things to the people of Israel: A man or a woman might want to separate from other people for a time. This time of separation allows a person to give himself totally to the Lord for a time. That person will be called a Nazirite.* <sup>2</sup>During that time, that person must not drink any wine or other strong drink. The person must not drink vinegar that is made from wine or from other strong drink. That person must not drink grape juice or eat grapes or raisins. <sup>4</sup>During that special time of separation, that person must not eat anything that comes from the grape. That person must not even eat the seeds or the skins from grapes.

<sup>3</sup>"During that time of separation, that person must not cut his hair. He must be holy until the time that his separation is ended. He must let his hair grow long. That person's hair is a special part of his promise to God. He will give that hair as a gift to God. So, that person must let his hair grow long until the time of separation is ended.

<sup>4</sup>"During his time of separation, a Nazirite* must not go near a dead body. Why? Because that person has given himself fully to the Lord. <sup>7</sup>Even if his own father or mother or brother or sister dies, he must not touch them. This would make him unclean. He must show that he is separated and has given himself fully to God. <sup>9</sup>During all of the time he is separated, he is giving himself fully to the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>"It might happen that the Nazirite* is with another person and that other person suddenly dies. If the Nazirite touches this dead man, the Nazirite will become unclean.* <sup>11</sup>If that happens, then the Nazirite must shave the hair from his head. (That hair was part of his special promise.) He must cut his hair on the seventh day, because on that day he is made clean.* <sup>10</sup>Then on the eighth day, that Nazirite must bring two doves and two young pigeons to the priest. He must give them to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* <sup>11</sup>Then the priest will offer one as a sin offering. He will offer the other as a burnt offering. This burnt offering will be a payment for the sin that the person did. (He sinned because he was near a dead body.) At that time, the person will again promise to give the hair on his head as a gift to God. <sup>12</sup>This means that person must again give himself to the Lord for another time of separation. That person must bring a male lamb that is a year old. He will give this as a guilt offering. All of the days that he was separated are forgotten. The man must start over with a new time of separation. This must be done because he touched a dead body during his first time of separation.

<sup>13</sup>"After the man's time of separation is ended, then this is what he must do: He must go to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* <sup>14</sup>There he must give his offering to the Lord. His offering must be:

- A one-year-old male lamb with nothing wrong with it for a burnt offering;
- A one-year-old female lamb with nothing wrong with it for a sin offering;
- One ram with nothing wrong with it for a fellowship offering;
- <sup>15</sup> A basket of bread made without yeast (cakes made with fine flour mixed with oil).
- Oil must be spread on these cakes.
- The grain offerings and drink offerings that are a part of these gifts.

<sup>16</sup>"Then the priest will give these things to the Lord. The priest will make the sin offering and the burnt offering. <sup>17</sup>The priest will give the basket of bread without yeast to the Lord. Then he will kill the ram as a fellowship offering to the Lord. He will give it to the Lord with the grain offering and the drink offering.

<sup>18</sup>“The Nazirite* must go to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* There he must shave off his hair that he grew for the Lord. That hair will be put in the fire that is burning under the sacrifice of the fellowship offering.

<sup>19</sup>“After the Nazirite* has cut off his hair, then the priest will give him a boiled shoulder from the ram and a large and a small cake from the basket. Both of these cakes are made without yeast. <sup>20</sup>Then the priest will wave these things before the Lord. This is a wave offering. These things are holy and belong to the priest. Also, the breast and the thigh from the ram are waved before the Lord. These things also belong to the priest. After that, the Nazirite man can drink wine.

<sup>21</sup>“If a person decides to make the Nazirite* separation, then he must give all of those gifts to the Lord. That is the law of the Nazirite promise. But a person might be able to give much more to the Lord. If that person promised to do more, then he must keep his promise. That is also the law of the Nazirite promise.”

The Priests' Blessings

<sup>22</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>23</sup>“Tell Aaron and his sons that this is how they should bless the people of Israel. They should say:

- <sup>24</sup> May the Lord bless you and keep you.
<sup>25</sup> May the Lord be good to you* and show you his kindness.
<sup>26</sup> May the Lord answer your prayers* and give you peace.”

Nazirite A person that has made a special promise to God. The name is from a Hebrew word meaning, “to separate from.”

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

May ... you Literally, “May the Lord make his face shine on you.”

May ... prayers Literally, “May the Lord lift his face to you.”

<sup>27</sup>Then the Lord said, “In that way, Aaron and his sons will use my name to give a blessing to the people of Israel. And I will bless them, and do the things they ask.”

Dedicating the Holy Tent

7 Moses finished setting up the Holy Tent.* On that day, he dedicated it to the Lord. Moses anointed* the Tent and on all the things in it. Moses also anointed the altar* and on all the things used with it. This showed these things should be used only for worshiping the Lord.

<sup>2</sup>Then the leaders of Israel made offerings. These men were the heads of their families and leaders of their family group. These were the same men that were in charge of counting the people. <sup>3</sup>These leaders brought gifts to the Lord. They brought six covered wagons and twelve cows for pulling the wagons. (One cow was given by each leader. Each leader joined with another leader to give one wagon.) The leaders gave these things to the Lord at the Holy Tent.

<sup>6</sup>So Moses accepted the wagons and the cows. He gave these things to the Levite men. <sup>7</sup>He gave two carts and four cows to the men in Gershon's group. They needed the wagons and the cows for their work. <sup>8</sup>Then Moses gave four wagons and eight cows to the men in Merari's group. They needed the wagons and cows for their work. <sup>9</sup>Ithamar son of Aaron the priest was responsible for the work of all these men. <sup>10</sup>Moses did not give any cows or wagons to the men in Kohath's group. These men must carry the holy things on their shoulders. This was the work they were given to do.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the place God came to live among his people.

anoint To pour olive oil on people or things to show they are chosen for a special work or purpose.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

<sup>10</sup>Moses anointed* the altar.* That same day, the leaders brought their offerings for dedicating the altar. They gave their offerings to the Lord at the altar. <sup>11</sup>The Lord told Moses, "Each day one leader must bring his gift for dedicating the altar."

Each leader brought one silver plate that weighed 3¼ pounds.* Each leader brought one silver bowl that weighed 1¾ pounds.* Both of these gifts were weighed by the official measure.* The bowl and the plate were each filled with fine flour mixed with oil. This was to be used as a grain offering. Each leader also brought a large gold spoon that weighed about 4 ounces.* The spoon was filled with incense.*

Each leader also brought 1 young bull, 1 ram, and 1 male lamb a year old. These animals were for a burnt offering. Each leader also brought 1 male goat to be used as a sin offering. Each leader brought 2 cows, 5 rams, 5 male goats, and 5 male lambs a year old. All of these things were sacrificed for a fellowship offering.

On the first day, the leader of Judah's family group, Nahshon son of Amminadab brought his gifts.

On the second day, the leader of Issachar, Nethanel son of Zuar brought his gifts.

On the third day, the leader of the people of Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon brought his gifts.

On the fourth day, the leader of the people of Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur brought his gifts.

On the fifth day, the leader of the people of Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai brought his gifts.

On the sixth day, the leader of the people of Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel* brought his gifts.

On the seventh day, the leader of the people of Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud brought his gifts.

On the eighth day, the leader of the people of Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur brought his gifts.

On the ninth day, the leader of the people of Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideon brought his gifts.

On the tenth day, the leader of the people of Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai brought his gifts.

On the eleventh day, the leader of the people of Asher, Pagiel son of Ocran brought his gifts.

On the twelfth day, the leader of the people of Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan brought his gifts.

<sup>84</sup>So all those things were the gifts from the leaders of the people of Israel. They brought those things during the time that Moses dedicated the altar* by anointing* it. They brought 12 silver plates, 12 silver bowls, and 12 gold spoons. <sup>85</sup>Each silver plate weighed about 3¼ pounds.* And each bowl weighed about 1¾ pounds.* The silver plates and the silver bowls together all weighed about 60 pounds,* using the official measure.* <sup>86</sup>The 12 gold spoons filled with incense* weighed 4 ounces* each, using the official measure. The 12 gold spoons all together weighed about 3 pounds.*

<sup>87</sup>The total number of animals for the burnt offering was 12 bulls, 12 rams, and 12 male lambs that were one year old. There were also the grain offerings that must be given with those offerings. And there were 12 male goats that were used for a sin offering to the Lord. <sup>88</sup>The leaders also gave animals to be killed and used as a fellowship offering. The total number of these animals was 24 bulls, 60 rams, 60 male goats, and 60 male lambs that were one year old. In this way, they dedicated the altar after Moses anointed* it.

<sup>8</sup>Moses went into the Meeting Tent* to speak to the Lord. At that time, he heard the Lord's voice speaking to him. The voice was coming from the area between the two Cherub angels on the special cover* on top of the Box of the Agreement.* <sup>9</sup>This was the way, God spoke to Moses.

The Lampstand

8 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>1</sup>"Tell Aaron to put the seven lamps in the place I showed you. Those lamps should light the area in front of the lampstand."

<sup>2</sup>Aaron did this. Aaron put the lamps in the right place and faced them so that they lighted the area in front of the lampstand. He obeyed the command that the Lord gave Moses. <sup>3</sup>The lampstand was made from hammered gold. The gold started at the base and went up to the golden flowers. It was made just like the Lord showed Moses.

Dedicating the Levites

<sup>5</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>6</sup>"Separate the Levite people from the other people of Israel. Make those Levite people clean.* <sup>7</sup>This is what you should do to make them pure. Sprinkle the special water from the sin offering* on them. This water will make them pure. Then they must shave their bodies and wash their clothes. This will make their bodies clean.

anoint To pour olive oil on people or things to show they are chosen for a special work or purpose.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

cover Also called "mercy seat." The Hebrew word can mean "lid," "cover," or "place where sins are forgiven."

Box ... Agreement Or, "ark of the Covenant," the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

water ... offering In this water were the ashes from the red cow that had been burnt on the altar as a sin offering.

<sup>8</sup>"The Levite men must take a young bull and the grain offering that must be offered with it. This grain offering will be flour mixed with oil. Then take another young bull for a sin offering. <sup>9</sup>Bring the Levite people to the area in front of the Meeting Tent.* Then bring all the people of Israel together at that place. <sup>10</sup>Bring the Levite people before the Lord. The people of Israel will put their hands on them.* <sup>11</sup>Then Aaron will give the Levite people to the Lord—they will be like an offering to God. In this way, the Levite people will be ready to do their special work for the Lord.

<sup>12</sup>Tell the Levite people to put their hands on the heads of the bulls. One bull will be a sin offering to the Lord. The other bull will be used as a burnt offering to the Lord. These offerings will make the Levite people pure.* <sup>13</sup>Tell the Levite people to stand in front of Aaron and his sons. Then give the Levite men to the Lord. They will be like a wave offering. <sup>14</sup>This will make the Levite people holy—it will show that they will be used in a special way for God. They will be different than the other people of Israel. The Levite people will belong to me.

<sup>15</sup>"So make the Levite people pure.* And give them to the Lord. They will be like a wave offering. After you do this they can come and do their work at the Meeting Tent.* <sup>16</sup>The Israelite people will give me the Levites. They will belong to me. In the past, I told every Israelite family to give me their firstborn* son. But now I am taking the Levite people in place of those firstborn sons from the other families in Israel. <sup>17</sup>Every firstborn male in Israel is mine. It doesn't matter if it is a man or animal, it is still mine. Why? Because I killed all the firstborn children and animals in Egypt. And I chose to take the firstborn sons to belong to me.

<sup>18</sup>But now I will take the Levite people in their place. I will take the Levite people in place of all the firstborn sons from the other families in put their hands on them This showed the people shared in appointing the Levite people to their special work.

make ... pure Literally, "make atonement." The Hebrew word means "to cover," "to hide," or "to erase sins."

firstborn The first child born into a family. In ancient times, the firstborn son was very important.

Israel. <sup>19</sup>I chose the Levite people from among all the people of Israel. And I give them as gifts to Aaron and his sons. I want them to do the work at the Meeting Tent. They will serve for all the people of Israel. They will help make the sacrifices that make the people of Israel pure. Then no great sickness or trouble will come to the people of Israel when they come near the holy place.”

<sup>20</sup>So Moses, Aaron, and all the people of Israel obeyed the Lord. They did with the Levite people everything that the Lord commanded Moses. <sup>21</sup>The Levites washed themselves and their clothes. Then Aaron gave them to the Lord like wave offerings. Aaron gave the offerings that covered their sins and made them pure. <sup>22</sup>After that, the Levite people came to the Meeting Tent* to do their work. Aaron and his sons watched them. They were responsible for the work of the Levite people. Aaron and his sons did the things that the Lord told Moses.

<sup>23</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>“This is a special command for the Levite people: Every Levite man that is 25 years old or older must come and share in the work at the Meeting Tent.* <sup>25</sup>But when a man is 50 years old, he must retire from this work. He will not need to work again. <sup>26</sup>Those men 50 years old or older can help their brothers with their work at the Meeting Tent. But those men must not do the work themselves. You must do these things when you choose Levite men to do their work.”

Passover

9 The Lord spoke to Moses in the Sinai desert. This was during the first month of the second year after the people of Israel came out of Egypt. The Lord said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>“Tell the people of Israel to celebrate Passover at the chosen time—<sup>3</sup>they must eat the Passover* meal at twilight* on the 14th day of this month. They must do this at the chosen time, and they must follow all the rules about Passover.”

<sup>4</sup>So Moses told the people of Israel to celebrate Passover.* <sup>5</sup>The people did this in the Sinai desert at twilight* on the 14th day of the first month. The Israelites did everything just like the Lord commanded Moses.

<sup>6</sup>But some of the people could not celebrate Passover* that day. They were unclean* because they had touched a dead body. So they went to Moses and Aaron that day. <sup>7</sup>Those people said to Moses, “We touched a person’s dead body and became unclean. The priests stopped us from giving gifts to the Lord at the chosen time. So we can’t celebrate Passover, with the other people of Israel! What should we do?”

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>10</sup>“Tell these things to the people of Israel: This rule will be for you and your descendants.* Maybe a person is not able to celebrate Passover* at the right time. Maybe that person is unclean* because he touched a dead body. Or maybe that person was away on a trip. <sup>11</sup>That person will still be able to celebrate Passover at another time. That person must celebrate Passover at twilight* on the 14th day of the second month. At that time, he must eat the lamb, the bread made without yeast, and the bitter herbs. <sup>12</sup>That person must not leave any of that food until the next morning. And that person must not break any of the bones of the lamb. That person must follow all the rules about Passover. <sup>13</sup>But any person that is able must celebrate Passover at the right time. If he is clean* and he is not away on a trip, then he has no excuse. If that person does not celebrate Passover at the right time, then he must be separated from his people. He is guilty and must be punished! Why? Because he did not give the Lord his gift at the right time.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Passover Important Jewish holy day. They ate a special meal on this day every spring to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt.

twilight The time after the sun goes down, but before dark.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

descendants A person’s children and all their future families.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

<sup>14</sup>“A foreigner living among you might want to share in the Lord’s Passover* with you. This is allowed, but that person must follow all the rules about Passover. The same rules are for everyone.”

The Cloud and the Fire

<sup>15</sup>On the day the Holy Tent,* the Tent of the Agreement, was set up, the Lord’s cloud covered it. At night, the cloud over the Holy Tent looked like fire. <sup>16</sup>The cloud stayed over the Holy Tent all the time. And at night the cloud looked like fire. <sup>17</sup>When the cloud moved from its place over the Holy Tent, the Israelites followed it. When the cloud stopped, that is the place where the people of Israel camped. <sup>18</sup>This was the way the Lord showed the people of Israel when to move and when to stop and set up camp. While the cloud stayed over the Holy Tent, the people continued to camp in that same place. <sup>19</sup>Sometimes the cloud would stay over the Holy Tent for a long time. The Israelites obeyed the Lord and did not move. <sup>20</sup>Sometimes the cloud was over the Holy Tent for only a few days. So the people obeyed the Lord’s command—they followed the cloud when it moved. <sup>21</sup>Sometimes the cloud stayed only during the night—the next morning the cloud moved. So the people gathered their things and followed it. If the cloud moved, during the day or during the night, then the people followed it. <sup>22</sup>If the cloud stayed over the Holy Tent for two days, or a month, or a year, the people continued to obey the Lord. They stayed at that place and did not leave until the cloud moved. Then when the cloud rose from its place and moved, the people also moved. <sup>23</sup>So the people obeyed the Lord’s command. They camped where the Lord showed them. And when the Lord commanded them to leave, the people left, following the cloud. The people watched carefully and obeyed the Lord’s commands to Moses.

Passover Important Jewish holy day. They ate a special meal on this day every spring to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt.

Holy Tent Or, “tabernacle,” the place God came to live among his people.

The Silver Trumpets

10 The Lord said to Moses: <sup>24</sup>“Make two trumpets. Use silver and hammer it to make the trumpets. These trumpets will be for calling the people together and for telling them when it is time to move the camp. <sup>25</sup>If you blow long blasts on both trumpets, then all the people must meet together at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* <sup>26</sup>But if you blow long blasts on only one trumpet, then only the leaders will come to meet with you. (These are the leaders of the twelve family groups of Israel.)

<sup>27</sup>“Short blasts on the trumpets will be the way to tell the people to move the camp. The first time you blow a short blast on the trumpets, the family groups camping on the east side of the Meeting Tent, must begin to move. <sup>28</sup>The second time you blow a short blast on the trumpets, the family groups camping on the south side of the Meeting Tent, will begin to move. <sup>29</sup>But if you want to gather the people together for a special meeting, then blow the trumpets in a different way—blow a long steady blast on the trumpets. <sup>30</sup>Only Aaron’s sons, the priests, should blow the trumpets. This is a law for you that will continue forever, for generations to come.

<sup>31</sup>“If you are fighting an enemy in your own land, then blow loudly on the trumpets before you go to fight them. The Lord your God will hear you, and he will save you from your enemies. <sup>32</sup>Also you should blow these trumpets for your special meetings, new moon days, and all your happy times together. Blow the trumpets when you give your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. This will be a special way for the Lord your God to remember you. I command you to do this; I am the Lord your God.”

The People of Israel Move Their Camp

the Agreement.*<sup>12</sup> So the people of Israel began their journeys. They left the Sinai desert and traveled until the cloud stopped in the desert of Paran.<sup>13</sup> This was the first time the people moved their camp. They moved it the way the Lord commanded Moses.

<sup>14</sup>The three groups* from Judah's camp went first. They traveled under their flag. The first group was Judah's family group. Nahshon son of Amminadab was the commander of that group.<sup>15</sup> Next came Issachar's family group. Nethanel son of Zuar was the commander of that group.<sup>16</sup> And then came Zebulun's family group. Eliab son of Helon was the commander of that group.

<sup>17</sup>Then the Holy Tent* was taken down. And the men from the Gershon and the Merari families carried the Holy Tent. So the people from these families were next in line.

<sup>18</sup>Then came the three groups* from Reuben's camp. They traveled under their flag. The first group was Reuben's family group. Elizur son of Shedeur was the commander of that group.<sup>19</sup> Next came Simeon's family group. Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai was the commander of that group.<sup>20</sup> And then came Gad's family group. Eliasaph son of Deuel* was the commander of that group.<sup>21</sup> Then came the people from the Kohath family. They carried the holy things from inside the Holy Place. These people came at this time so that the other people could set up the Holy Tent* and make it ready at the new camp, before these people arrived.

<sup>22</sup>Next came the three groups from Ephraim's camp. They traveled under their flag. The first group was Ephraim's family group. Elishama son of Ammihud was the commander of that group.<sup>23</sup> Next came Manasseh's family group. Gamaliel son of Pedahzur was the commander of that group.

<sup>24</sup>Then came Benjamin's family group. Abidan son of Gideoni was the commander of that group.

<sup>25</sup>The last three family groups in the line were the rear guard for all the other family groups. These were the groups from Dan's camp. They traveled under their flag. The first group was Dan's family group. Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai was their commander.<sup>26</sup> Next came Asher's family group. Pagiel son of Ocran was the commander of that group.<sup>27</sup> Then came Naphtali's family group. Ahira son of Enan was the commander of that group.<sup>28</sup> That was the way the people of Israel marched when they moved from place to place.

<sup>29</sup>Hobab was the son of Reuel, the Midianite. (Reuel was Moses' father-in-law.) Moses said to Hobab, "We are traveling to the land that God promised to give to us. Come with us and we will be good to you. The Lord has promised good things to the people of Israel."

<sup>30</sup>But Hobab answered, "No, I will not go with you. I will go back to my homeland and to my own people."

<sup>31</sup>Then Moses said, "Please don't leave us. You know more about the desert than we do. You can be our guide.<sup>32</sup> If you come with us, then we will share with you all the good things that the Lord gives us."

<sup>33</sup>So Hobab agreed, and they began traveling from the mountain of the Lord. The priests took the Box of the Lord's Agreement* and walked in front of the people. They carried the Holy Box for three days, looking for a place to camp.<sup>34</sup> The Lord's cloud was over them every day. And when they left their camp every morning, the cloud was there to lead them.

<sup>35</sup>When the people lifted the Holy Box to move the camp, Moses always said,

"Get up, Lord!

May your enemies run away in all

Tent of the Agreement The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the Box of the Agreement was kept.

groups Or, "divisions." This is a military term that shows Israel was organized like an army.

Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle," the place God came to live among his people.

Deuel Or, "Reuel."

Box of the Lord's Agreement Or, "ark of the Covenant," the Holy Box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

May all your enemies run away from you.”

*And when the Holy Box was put in its place, Moses always said, “Come back, Lord, to the millions of people of Israel.”

The People Complain Again

11 The people started complaining about their troubles. The Lord heard their complaints. The Lord heard these things and became angry. Fire from the Lord burned among the people. The fire burned some of the areas at the edge of the camp. <sup>1</sup>So the people cried to Moses for help. Moses prayed to the Lord and the fire stopped burning. <sup>2</sup>So that place was called Taberah.* The people gave the place that name because the Lord caused a fire to burn in their camp.

The 70 Older Leaders

“The foreigners that had joined the people of Israel began wanting other things to eat. Soon all the people of Israel began complaining again. The people said, “We want to eat meat! <sup>5</sup>We remember the fish we ate in Egypt. That fish cost us nothing. We also had good vegetables like cucumbers, melons, chives, onions, and garlic. <sup>6</sup>But now we have lost our strength. We never eat anything—only this manna!” <sup>7</sup>(The manna was like small coriander seeds, and it looked like gum from a tree. <sup>8</sup>The people gathered the manna. Then they used rocks to crush it and cooked it in a pot. Or they ground it into a flour and made thin cakes with it. The cakes tasted like sweet cakes cooked with olive oil. <sup>9</sup>The manna fell on the ground each night when the ground became wet with dew.)

<sup>10</sup>Moses heard the people complaining. People from every family were sitting by their tents and complaining. The Lord became very angry, and this made Moses very upset.

“Moses asked the Lord, “Lord, why did you bring this trouble on me? I am your servant. What did I do wrong? What did I do to upset you? Why did you give me responsibility over all these people? <sup>12</sup>You know that I am not the father of all these people. You know that I did not give birth to them. But I must take care of them, like a nurse carrying a baby in her arms. Why do you force me to do this? Why do you force me to carry them to the land that you promised to our fathers? <sup>13</sup>I don’t have enough meat for all these people! And they continue complaining to me. They say, ‘Give us meat to eat!’ <sup>14</sup>I cannot care for all these people alone. The burden is too heavy for me. <sup>15</sup>If you plan to continue giving me their troubles, then kill me now. If you accept me as your servant, then let me die now. Then I will be finished with all my troubles!”

<sup>16</sup>The Lord said to Moses, “Bring to me 70 of the elders of Israel. These men are the leaders among the people. Bring them to the Meeting Tent.* Let them stand there with you. <sup>17</sup>Then I will come down and speak with you there. The Spirit* is on you now. But I will also give some of that Spirit* to them. Then they will help you care for the people. In this way, you will not have to be responsible for these people alone.

<sup>18</sup>“Tell these things to the people: Make yourselves ready for tomorrow. Tomorrow you will eat meat. The Lord heard you when you cried. The Lord heard your words when you said, ‘We need meat to eat! It was better for us in Egypt!’ So now the Lord will give you meat. And you will eat it. <sup>19</sup>You will eat it for more than one, or two, or five, or ten, or even twenty days! <sup>20</sup>You will eat that meat for a whole month. You will eat the meat until you are sick of it. This will happen to you because you complained against the Lord. The Lord lives among you and knows what you need. But you cried and complained to him! You said, ‘Why did we ever leave Egypt?’”

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

Spirit Or, “spirit.”

Taberah This name means “burning.”

<sup>21</sup>Moses said, "Lord, there are 600,000 men walking around here. And you say, 'I will give them enough meat to eat for a whole month!'"
<sup>22</sup>If we were to kill all of the sheep and cattle, then that would still not be enough to feed this many people for a month. And if we caught all the fish in the sea, it would not be enough for them!"

<sup>23</sup>But the Lord said to Moses, "Don't limit the power of the Lord! You will see that I can do the things I say I can do."

<sup>24</sup>So Moses went out to speak with the people. Moses told them what the Lord said. Then Moses gathered 70 of the elders (leaders) together. Moses told them to stand around the Tent. <sup>25</sup>Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses. The Spirit* was on Moses. The Lord put that same Spirit on the 70 elders (leaders). After the Spirit came down on them, they began to prophesy.* But that was the only time these men ever did this.

<sup>26</sup>Two of the elders, Eldad and Medad, did not go out to the Tent. Their names were on the list of elders (leaders), but they stayed in camp. But the Spirit also came on them, and they began prophesying* in camp. <sup>27</sup>A young man ran and told Moses. The man said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in camp."

<sup>28</sup>Joshua son of Nun said to Moses, "Moses, sir, you must stop them!" (Joshua had been Moses' helper since Joshua was a young boy.)

<sup>29</sup>But Moses answered, "Are you afraid the people will think that I am not the leader now? I wish that all the Lord's people were able to prophesy. I wish that the Lord would put his Spirit* on all of them!" <sup>30</sup>Then Moses and the leaders of Israel went back to the camp.

The Quails Come

<sup>31</sup>Then the Lord made a powerful wind to blow in from the sea. The wind blew quail* into that area. The quail flew all around the camp. There were so many quail that the ground was covered. The quail were about three feet deep on the ground. There were quail in every direction as far as a man can walk in one day. <sup>32</sup>The people went crazy! They went out and gathered quail all that day and all that night. And they gathered quail all the next day too! The smallest amount any person gathered was 60 bushels. Then the people spread the quail meat all around the camp to dry in the sun.

<sup>33</sup>People began to eat the meat, but the Lord became very angry. While the meat was still in their mouth, before the people could finish eating it, the Lord caused the people to become very sick. Many people died and were buried in that place. <sup>34</sup>So the people named that place Kibroth Hattaavah.* They gave the place that name because that is the place they buried the people that had the strong desire for meat.

Miriam and Aaron Complain About Moses

12 Miriam and Aaron began to talk against Moses. They criticized him because he married an Ethiopian* woman. They thought that it was not right for Moses to marry an Ethiopian woman. <sup>2</sup>They said to themselves, "The Lord used Moses to speak to the people. But Moses is not the only one. The Lord also spoke through us!"

The Lord heard this. <sup>3</sup>(Moses was a very humble man. He did not boast or brag. He was more humble than any other person on earth.)
<sup>4</sup>So, suddenly, the Lord came and spoke to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. The Lord said, "You three, come to the Meeting Tent,* now!"

So Moses, Aaron, and Miriam went to the Tent. <sup>5</sup>The Lord came down in the tall cloud and stood at the entrance to the Tent. The Lord called out, "Aaron and Miriam!" Aaron and Miriam went to him. <sup>6</sup>God said, "Listen to me!

Spirit Or, "spirit."

prophesy Usually this means "to speak for God." But here it might mean that God's Spirit took control of these men in some special way.

quail A kind of bird.

Kibroth Hattaavah This name means "Graves of Strong Desire."

Ethiopian Or, "Cushite," a person from Ethiopia, in Africa.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

You will have prophets.* I, the Lord, will show myself to them in visions.* I will speak to them in dreams. <sup>7</sup>But Moses is not like that. Moses is my faithful servant—I trust him with my whole house (family)! <sup>8</sup>When I speak to him, I talk face to face with him. I don't use stories with hidden meanings—I show him clearly the things I want him to know. And Moses can look at the very image of the Lord. So why were you brave enough to speak against my servant Moses?"

<sup>11</sup>Then Aaron said to Moses, "Please, sir, forgive us for the foolish sin that we did. <sup>12</sup>Don't let her lose her skin like a baby that is born dead." (Sometimes a baby will be born like that, with half of its skin eaten away.)

<sup>13</sup>So Moses prayed to the Lord, "God, please heal her from this sickness!"

<sup>14</sup>The Lord answered Moses, "If her father spit in her face, then she would be shamed for seven days. So put her outside the camp for seven days. After that time, she will become well. Then she can come back into the camp."

<sup>15</sup>So they took Miriam outside the camp for seven days. And the people did not move from that place until she was brought in again. <sup>16</sup>After that, the people left Hazeroth and traveled to the desert of Paran. The people camped in that desert.

The Spies Go to Canaan

13 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>"Send some men to explore the land of Canaan. This is the land that I will give to the people of Israel. Send one leader from each of the twelve family groups."

<sup>3</sup>So Moses obeyed the Lord's command. Moses sent out these leaders while the people were camped in the desert of Paran. <sup>4</sup>These are the names of those leaders:

- from Reuben's family group—Shammua son of Zaccur;
- <sup>5</sup> from Simeon's family group—Shaphat son of Hori;
- <sup>6</sup> from Judah's family group—Caleb son of Jephunneh;
- <sup>7</sup> from Issachar's family group—Igal son of Joseph;
- <sup>8</sup> from Ephraim's family group—Hoshea* son of Nun;
- <sup>9</sup> from Benjamin's family group—Palti son of Raphu;
- <sup>10</sup> from Zebulun's family group—Gaddiel son of Sodi;
- <sup>11</sup> from Joseph's family group (Manasseh)—Gaddi son of Susi;
- <sup>12</sup> from Dan's family group—Ammiel son of Gemalli;
- <sup>13</sup> from Asher's family group—Sethur son of Michael;
- <sup>14</sup> from Naphtali's family group—Nahbi son of Vophsi;
- <sup>15</sup> from Gad's family group—Geuel son of Maki.

<sup>16</sup>Those are the names of the men that Moses sent to look at and study the land. (Moses called Hoshea son of Nun by another name. Moses called him Joshua.)

<sup>17</sup>When Moses was sending them out to explore Canaan, he said, "Go through the Negev* and then into the hill country. <sup>18</sup>See what the land looks like. Learn about the people that live there. Are they strong or are they weak? Are they few or are they many? <sup>19</sup>Learn about the land that they live in. Is it good land or bad land? What kind of towns do they live in? Do the towns have walls protecting them? Are the towns strongly defended? <sup>20</sup>And learn other things about the land. Is the dirt good for growing things, or is it poor soil? Are there trees on the land? Also, try to bring back some of the fruit from that land." (This was during the time when the first grapes should be ripe.)

prophet(s) A person called by God to be a special servant. God gave them messages to tell the people.

vision(s) Something like a dream that God used to speak to people.

Hoshea Or, "Joshua."

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

<sup>1</sup>So they went to explore the country. They explored the area from the Zin desert to Rehob and Lebo Hamath. <sup>2</sup>They entered the country through the Negev* and went to Hebron. (The town of Hebron was built seven years before the town of Zoan in Egypt.) Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi lived there. These men were descendants* of Anak. <sup>3</sup>Then the men went to Eshcol Valley. There, the men cut off a branch from a grapevine. The branch had a bunch of grapes on it. They put that branch on a pole. And two men carried it between them. They also carried some pomegranates,* and figs. <sup>4</sup>That place is called the Eshcol* Valley, because that is the place where the men of Israel cut off the bunch of grapes.

<sup>5</sup>The men explored that country for 40 days. Then they went back to the camp. <sup>6</sup>The people of Israel were camped near Kadesh, in the desert of Paran. The men went to Moses and Aaron and all the Israelite people. The men told Moses, Aaron, and all the people about the things they saw. And they showed them the fruit from the land. <sup>7</sup>The men told Moses, "We went to the land where you sent us. It is a land filled with many good things*! Here is some of the fruit that grows there. <sup>8</sup>But the people living there are very powerful. The cities are very large. The cities are strongly defended. We even saw some Anakite* people there. <sup>9</sup>The Amalekite people live in the Negev.* The Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites live in the hill country. The Canaanites live near the sea and by the Jordan River."

<sup>10</sup>Caleb told the people near Moses to be quiet. Then Caleb said, "We should go up and take that land for ourselves. We can easily take that land."

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

descendants A person's children and all their future families.

pomegranates A red fruit with many small seeds inside it. Each seed is covered with the soft, juicy part of the fruit.

Eshcol This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "a bunch of grapes."

filled with many good things Literally, "flowing with milk and honey."

Anakite These people were famous for being big, powerful fighters.

<sup>11</sup>But the men that had gone with him said, "We can't fight those people! They are much stronger than we are." <sup>12</sup>And those men told all the people of Israel that they were not strong enough to defeat the people in that land. They said, "The land we saw is full of strong people. Those people are strong enough to easily defeat any person that goes there. <sup>13</sup>We saw the giant Nephilim* people there! (The descendants* of Anak come from the Nephilim people.) They looked at us like we were little grasshoppers. Yes, we were like grasshoppers to them!"

The People Complain Again

14 That night all the people in the camp began yelling loudly. <sup>2</sup>The people of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron. All the people came together and said to Moses and Aaron, "We should have died in Egypt or in the desert. That would have been better than being killed in this new land." <sup>3</sup>Did the Lord bring us to this new land to be killed in war? The enemy will kill us and take our wives and children! It would be better for us to go back to Egypt."

<sup>5</sup>Moses and Aaron bowed low to the ground in front of all the people gathered there. <sup>6</sup>Joshua and Caleb became very upset. (Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephuneh were two of the men that explored the land.) <sup>7</sup>These two men said to all of the people of Israel gathered there, "The land that we saw is very good. <sup>8</sup>It is a land filled with many good things.* And if the Lord is pleased with us, then he will lead us into that land. And the Lord will give that land to us! <sup>9</sup>So don't turn against the Lord! Don't be afraid of the people in that land. We can defeat them. They have no protection, nothing to keep them safe. But we have the Lord with us. So don't be afraid!"

Glory of the Lord* appeared over the Meeting Tent* where all the people could see it. <sup>11</sup>The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, "How long will these people continue to turn against me? They show that they don't trust me. They show that they don't believe in my power. They refuse to believe me, even after I have shown them many powerful signs. I have done many great things among them. <sup>12</sup>I will kill them all with a terrible sickness. I will destroy them, and I will use you to make another nation. And your nation will be greater and stronger than these people."

<sup>13</sup>Then Moses said to the Lord, "If you do that, the Egyptians will hear about it! They know that you used your great power to bring your people out of Egypt. <sup>14</sup>And the people of Egypt told the people in Canaan about it. They already know you are the Lord. They know that you are with your people. They know that the people saw you. Those people know about the special cloud. They know you use the cloud to lead your people during the day. And they know the cloud becomes a fire to lead your people at night. <sup>15</sup>So you must not kill these people now. If you kill them, then all the nations that have heard about your power will say, <sup>16</sup>"The Lord was not able to bring these people into the land he promised them. So the Lord killed them in the desert."

<sup>17</sup>"So now, Master, show your strength! Show it the way you said you would! <sup>18</sup>You said, "The Lord is slow to become angry. The Lord is full of great love. The Lord forgives* people that are guilty and break the law. But the Lord always punishes people that are guilty. The Lord punishes those people, and he also punishes their children, their grandchildren, and even their great-grandchildren for those bad things!"* <sup>19</sup>Now, show your great love to these people. Forgive their sin. Forgive them the same way you have been forgiving them since the time they left Egypt until now."

<sup>20</sup>The Lord answered, "Yes, I will forgive the people like you asked. <sup>21</sup>But, I tell you the truth. As surely as I live and as surely as my power fills the whole earth, I make you this promise! <sup>22</sup>None of the people that I led out of Egypt will ever see the land of Canaan. Those people saw my glory and the great signs that I did in Egypt. And they saw the great things that I did in the desert. But they disobeyed me and tested me ten times. <sup>23</sup>I made a promise to their ancestors.* I promised that I would give them that land. But none of these people that turned against me will ever enter that land! <sup>24</sup>But my servant Caleb was different. He follows me completely. So I will bring him into the land that he has already seen. And his people will get that land. <sup>25</sup>The Amalekite and the Canaanite people are living in the valley. So tomorrow you must leave this place. Go back to the desert on the road to the Red Sea."

The Lord Punishes the People

<sup>26</sup>The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, <sup>27</sup>"How long will these bad people continue to complain against me? I have heard their complaints and their griping. <sup>28</sup>So tell them, "The Lord says that he will surely do all those things to you that you complained about. This is what will happen to you: <sup>29</sup>You will die in this desert. Every one of you people that is 20 years old or older and was counted as one of my people will die. You complained against me, the Lord. <sup>30</sup>So none of you will ever enter and live in the land that I promised to give you. Only Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun will enter that land. <sup>31</sup>You were afraid and complained that your enemies in that new land would take your children away from you. But I tell you that I will bring those children into the land. They will enjoy the things that you refused to accept. <sup>32</sup>As for you people, you will die in this desert.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. Here this might be a bright shining light, or it might be the tall cloud.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

Forgives Or, "spares."

But the Lord ... bad things Or, "The Lord credits the guilt of the fathers to their children and grandchildren, to the third and fourth generation."

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

<sup>33</sup>“Your children will be shepherds here in the desert for 40 years. They will suffer because you were not faithful to me. They must suffer until all of you lie dead in the desert. <sup>34</sup>For 40 years you will suffer for your sins. (That is one year for each of the 40 days that the men explored the land.) You will know that it is a terrible thing for me to be against you.

<sup>35</sup>“I am the Lord, and I have spoken. And I promise that I will do these things to all of these evil people. These people have come together against me. So they will all die here in this desert.”

<sup>36</sup>Those men that Moses sent to explore the new land were the ones that came back and spread complaining among all the Israelite people. Those men said that the people were not strong enough to enter that land. <sup>37</sup>Those men were responsible for spreading the trouble among the Israelite people. So the Lord caused a sickness to kill all of those men. <sup>38</sup>But Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh were among the men that were sent out to explore the land. And the Lord saved those two men. They did not get the sickness that caused the other ten men to die.

The People Try to Go into Canaan

<sup>39</sup>Moses told all these things to the Israelite people. The people were very, very sad. <sup>40</sup>Early the next morning the people started to go up to the high hill country. The people said, “We have sinned. We are sorry that we did not trust the Lord. We will go to the place that the Lord promised.”

<sup>41</sup>But Moses said, “Why are you not obeying the Lord’s command? You will not be successful! <sup>42</sup>Don’t go into that land. The Lord is not with you. Your enemies will easily defeat you. <sup>43</sup>The Amalekite people and Canaanite people will fight against you there. You have turned away from the Lord. So he will not be with you when you fight them. And you will all be killed in battle.”

<sup>44</sup>But the people did not believe Moses. They went toward the high hill country. But Moses and the Box of the Lord’s Agreement* did not go with the people. <sup>45</sup>The Amalekite people and the Canaanite people living in the hill country came down and attacked the people of Israel. The Amalekites and the Canaanites easily defeated them and chased them all the way to Hormah.

Rules About Sacrifices

15 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>1</sup>“Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: I am giving you a land to be your home. When you enter that land, <sup>2</sup>you must give special offerings made by fire to the Lord. Their smell will please the Lord. You will use your cows, sheep, and goats for burnt offerings, sacrifices, special promises, special gifts, fellowship offerings, or special holidays.

<sup>3</sup>“At the time a person brings his offering, he must also give a grain offering to the Lord. The grain offering will be 8 cups* of fine flour mixed with 1 quart* of olive oil. <sup>4</sup>Each time you offer a lamb as a burnt offering, you must also prepare a quart of wine as a drink offering.

<sup>5</sup>“If you are giving a ram, then you must also prepare a grain offering. This grain offering should be 16 cups* of fine flour mixed with 1¼ quarts* of olive oil. <sup>6</sup>And you must prepare 1¼ quarts* of wine as a drink offering. Its smell will please the Lord.

<sup>7</sup>“You might prepare a young bull as a burnt offering, a sacrifice, a fellowship offering, or to keep a special promise to the Lord. <sup>8</sup>At that time, you must also bring a grain offering with the bull. That grain offering should be 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with 2 quarts* of olive oil. <sup>9</sup>Also bring 2 quarts* of wine as a drink offering. This will be an offering made by fire.

Box of the Lord’s Agreement Or, “ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

Its smell will please the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Each bull or ram, or lamb or young goat that you give to the Lord must be prepared in this way. <sup>12</sup>Do this for every one of these animals that you give.

<sup>13</sup>That is the way every citizen of Israel must give the offerings made by fire to please the Lord. <sup>14</sup>Foreigners will live among you. If those people give offerings made by fire to please the Lord, then they must offer them the same way you do. <sup>15</sup>The same rules will be for everyone—the people of Israel and the foreigners living in your country. This law will continue forever. You and the people living among you will be the same before the Lord. <sup>16</sup>This means that you must follow the same laws and the same rules. Those laws and rules are for you people of Israel and for the other people that are living among you.”

<sup>17</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>18</sup>“Tell the people of Israel these things: I am taking you to another land. <sup>19</sup>When you eat the food that grows in that land, you must give part of that food as an offering to the Lord. <sup>20</sup>You will gather grain and grind it into flour to make dough for bread. You must give the first of that dough as a gift to the Lord. It will be like the grain offering that comes from the threshing floor.* <sup>21</sup>This rule will continue forever, you must give the first of that dough as a gift to the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>“So the priest must do the things that will make the people pure.* He must do this for all of the people of Israel. The people did not know they were sinning. But when they learned about it, they brought a gift to the Lord. They brought the offering made by fire and the sin offering. So the people will be forgiven. <sup>26</sup>All of the people of Israel and all the other people living among them will be forgiven. They will be forgiven because they did not know they were doing wrong.

<sup>27</sup>“But if only one person makes a mistake and sins, then he must bring a female goat that is one year old. That goat will be the sin offering. <sup>28</sup>The priest must do the things that will make the person pure.* That person made a mistake and sinned before the Lord. But the priest made that person pure, and he will be forgiven. <sup>29</sup>That law is for every person that makes a mistake and sins. The same law is for the people born in the family of Israel and for the foreigners living among you.

<sup>30</sup>“But if a person sins and knows that he is doing wrong, then that person is against the Lord. That person must be separated from his people. It is the same for a person born into the family of Israel or for a foreigner living among you. <sup>31</sup>That person did not think the Lord’s word was important. He broke the Lord’s commands. That person must surely be separated from your group. That person is guilty and must be punished!***”

A Man Works on the Day of Rest

<sup>32</sup>At this time, the people of Israel were still in the desert. It happened that a man found some wood to burn. So the man was gathering the wood, but it was the Sabbath day.* Some other people saw him doing this. <sup>33</sup>The people that saw him gathering the wood brought him to Moses and Aaron. And all the people gathered around. <sup>34</sup>They kept the man there because they did not know how they should

That ... punished Literally, “His guilt is on him.”

Sabbath day Saturday, a day of rest and worship for the Jews.

threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

punish him.

<sup>35</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, “The man must die. All the people must throw stones at him outside the camp.” <sup>36</sup>So the people took him outside the camp and killed him with stones. They did this the way that the Lord commanded Moses.

God Helps His People Remember the Rules

<sup>37</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>38</sup>“Speak to the people of Israel. Tell them these things: I will give you something to remember my commands.” Tie several pieces of thread together and tie them in the corner of your clothes. Put a piece of blue thread in each one of these tassels. You must wear these things now and forever. <sup>39</sup>You will be able to look at these tassels and remember all the commands that the Lord has given you. Then you will obey the commands. You will not do wrong by forgetting about the commands and doing the things that your own bodies and eyes want. <sup>40</sup>You will remember to obey all my commands. Then you will be God’s special people. “I am the Lord your God. I am the One who brought you out of Egypt. I did this to be your God. I am the Lord your God.”

Some Leaders Turn Against Moses

16 Korah, Dathan, Abiram, and On turned against Moses. (Korah was the son of Izhar. Izhar was the son of Kohath, and Kohath was the son of Levi. Dathan and Abiram were brothers, the sons of Eliab. And On was the son of Peleth. Dathan, Abiram, and On were descendants* of Reuben.) <sup>2</sup>Those four men gathered 250 other men from Israel together and came against Moses. They were leaders that had been chosen by the people. All the people knew them. <sup>3</sup>They came as a group to speak against Moses and Aaron. These men said to Moses and Aaron, “You have gone too far—you are wrong! All the people of Israel are holy—the Lord still lives among them! You are making yourself more important than the rest of the Lord’s people.”

<sup>4</sup>When Moses heard these things, he bowed his face to the ground to show he was not being proud. <sup>5</sup>Then Moses said to Korah and all his followers, “Tomorrow morning the Lord will show which person truly belongs to him. The Lord will show which person is truly holy. And the Lord will bring that person near to him. The Lord will choose that man, and the Lord will bring that man near to him. <sup>6</sup>So Korah, you and all your followers should do this: <sup>7</sup>Tomorrow put fire and incense* in some special pans. Then bring those pans before the Lord. The Lord will choose the person that is truly holy. You Levites have gone too far—you are wrong!”

<sup>8</sup>Moses also said to Korah, “You Levites, listen to me. <sup>9</sup>You should be happy that the God of Israel chose you and made you special. You are different from the rest of the Israelite people. The Lord brought you near to him to do the special work in the Lord’s Holy Tent* to help the people of Israel worship him. Isn’t that enough? <sup>10</sup>The Lord brought you Levite people near to him to help the priests. But now you are trying to become priests also. <sup>11</sup>You and your followers have joined together and turned against the Lord! Did Aaron do anything wrong? No! So why are you complaining against Aaron?”

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses called Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. But the two men said, “We will not come! <sup>13</sup>You have brought us out of a land filled with many good things.* You brought us to the desert to kill us. And now you want to show that you have even more power over us. <sup>14</sup>Why should we follow you? You did not bring us into the new land filled with many good things.* You did not give us the land God promised. You did not give us the fields or the vineyards. Will you make these men your slaves? No! We will not come."

<sup>15</sup>So Moses became very angry. He said to the Lord, "I never did anything wrong to these people. I never took anything from them—not even a donkey! Lord, don't accept their gifts!"

<sup>16</sup>Then Moses said to Korah, "You and all your followers will stand before the Lord tomorrow. There will be Aaron and you and your followers. <sup>17</sup>Each of you must bring a pan, put incense* on it, and present it to the Lord. There will be 250 pans [for the leaders], and one pan for you and one pan for Aaron."

<sup>18</sup>So each man got a pan and put burning incense* on it. Then they stood at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* Moses and Aaron also stood there. <sup>19</sup>Korah also gathered all the people together at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. Then the Glory of the Lord* appeared to every person there.

<sup>22</sup>But Moses and Aaron bowed to the ground and cried out, "God, you know what people are thinking.* Please don't be angry at all these people. Only one man really sinned."

<sup>25</sup>Moses stood and went to Dathan and Abiram. All the elders (leaders) of Israel followed him. <sup>26</sup>Moses warned the people, "Move away from the tents of these evil men. Don't touch anything that belongs to them! If you do, then you will be destroyed because of their sins."

<sup>28</sup>Then Moses said, "I will show you proof that the Lord sent me to do all the things I told you. I will show you that all those things were not my own idea. <sup>29</sup>These men here will die. But if they die in a normal way—the way men always die—then that will show that the Lord did not really send me. <sup>30</sup>But if the Lord causes these men to die in a different way—something new—then you will know that these men have truly sinned against the Lord. [This is the proof:] the earth will open and swallow these men. They will go down to their grave still alive. And everything that belongs to these men will go down with them."

<sup>31</sup>When Moses finished saying these things, the ground under the men opened. <sup>32</sup>It was like the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them. All of Korah's men, their families, and everything they owned went down into the earth. <sup>33</sup>Those people went down into their grave alive. Everything they owned went with them. Then the earth closed over them. They were finished—gone from the camp!

<sup>34</sup>The people of Israel heard the cries of the men being destroyed. So they all ran in different directions and said, "The earth will kill us, too!"

<sup>39</sup>So Eleazar the priest gathered together all the bronze* pans that the men had brought. Those men were all burned up, but the pans were still there. Then Eleazar told some men to hammer the pans into flat metal. Then he put the metal sheets on the altar.* <sup>40</sup>He did this the way the Lord commanded him through Moses. This was a sign to help the people of Israel remember that only a person from the family of Aaron should burn incense* before the Lord. Any other person that burns incense before the Lord will die like Korah and his followers.

Aaron Saves the People

<sup>41</sup>The next day all the people of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron. They said, "You killed the Lord's people."

<sup>42</sup>Moses and Aaron were standing at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* The people gathered together at that place to complain against Moses and Aaron. But when they looked toward the Meeting Tent, the cloud covered it and the Glory of the Lord* appeared there. <sup>43</sup>Then Moses and Aaron went to the front of the Meeting Tent.

<sup>44</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>45</sup>"Move away from those people so that I can destroy them now." So Moses and Aaron bowed with their faces to the ground.

<sup>46</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, "Get your bronze* pan and some fire from the altar.* Then put incense* on it. Hurry to the group of people and do the things that will make the people pure.* The Lord is angry at them. The trouble has already started."

<sup>47-48</sup>So Aaron did what Moses said. Aaron got the incense* and the fire, and he ran to the middle of the people. But the sickness had already started among the people. So Aaron stood between the dead people and the people that were still alive. Aaron did the things to make the people pure.* And the sickness stopped there. <sup>49</sup>But 14,700 people died from that sickness—and that is not counting the people that died because of Korah. <sup>50</sup>So, the terrible sickness was stopped and Aaron went back to Moses at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.*

God Proves Aaron Is the High Priest

17 The Lord said to Moses, <sup>1</sup>"Speak to the people of Israel. Get twelve wooden walking sticks from them. Get one from the leader of each of the twelve family groups. Write the name of each man on his walking stick. <sup>2</sup>On the stick from Levi, write Aaron's name. There must be one stick for the head of each of the twelve family groups. <sup>3</sup>Put these walking sticks in the Meeting Tent* in front of the Box of the Agreement.* This is the place where I meet with you. <sup>4</sup>I will choose one man to be the true priest. You will know which man I choose because his walking stick will begin to grow new leaves. In this way, I will stop the people from always complaining against you and me."

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This was like a bright shining light.

make ... pure Or, "make atonement." The Hebrew word means "to cover," "to hide," or "to erase sins."

Box of the Agreement Or, "ark of the Covenant," the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

Tent of the Agreement The Holy Tent where the Box of the Agreement was kept.

<sup>10</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Put Aaron's walking stick back into the Tent, in front of the Agreement.* This will be a warning for these people that are always turning against me. This will stop their complaining against me, so that I won't destroy them." <sup>11</sup>So Moses did what the Lord commanded him.

<sup>12</sup>The people of Israel said to Moses, "We know that we will die! We are lost! We will all be destroyed! <sup>13</sup>Any person that even comes near the Lord's holy place will die. Is it true that we will all die?"

The Work of the Priests and Levites

18 The Lord said to Aaron, "You, your sons, and all the people in your father's family are now responsible for any wrong things that are done against the holy place. You and your sons are responsible for wrong things that are done against the priests. <sup>2</sup>Bring the other Levite men from your family group to join you. They will help you and your sons do your work in the Tent of the Agreement.* <sup>3</sup>Those people from the family of Levi are under your control. They will do all the work that needs to be done in the Tent. But they must not go near the things in the Holy Place* or the altar.* If they do, then they will die—and you will die also. <sup>4</sup>They will join you and work with you. They will be responsible for caring for the Meeting Tent.* All the work that must be done in the Tent will be done by them. No one else may come near the place where you are.

<sup>5</sup>"You are responsible for caring for the holy place and the altar.* I don't want to become angry with the people of Israel again. <sup>6</sup>I myself chose the Levite people from among all the people of Israel. They are like a gift to you. I gave them to you to serve the Lord and work in the Meeting Tent.* <sup>7</sup>But, Aaron, only you and your sons may serve as priests. You are the only ones that can go near the altar. You are the only ones that can go inside the curtain into the Most Holy Place. I am giving you a gift—your service as a priest. Anyone else that comes near my, holy place must be killed."

<sup>8</sup>Then the Lord said to Aaron, "I myself gave you responsibility over all the special gifts people give to me. All the holy* gifts that the people of Israel give to me, I give to you. You and your sons can share in these gifts. They will always belong to you. <sup>9</sup>The people will bring sacrifices, grain offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings. Those offerings are most holy. Your share in the most holy offerings will come from the parts that are not burned. All those things will be for you and your sons. <sup>10</sup>Eat those things only in the very holy place. Every male in your family may eat them, but you must remember that those offerings are holy.

<sup>11</sup>"And all the gifts that the Israelite people give as wave offerings will also be yours. I give this to you and your sons and your daughters. This is your share. Every person in your family that is clean* will be able to eat it.

<sup>12</sup>"And I give you all the best olive oil and all the best new wine and grain. These are the things that the people of Israel give to me, the Lord. These are the first things that they gather in their harvest. <sup>13</sup>When the people gather a harvest, they bring all the first things to the Lord. So these things I will give to you. And every person in your family that is clean* may eat it.

<sup>15</sup>"A woman's first baby and an animal's first baby must be given to the Lord. That baby will belong to you. If the firstborn animal is unclean,* then it must be bought back. If the baby is a child, that child must be bought back.

Agreement Literally, "Proof." The flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them. These were proof of the Agreement between God and the people of Israel.

Tent of the Agreement The Holy Tent where the Box of the Agreement was kept.

Holy Place One of the rooms in the Holy Tent.

altar A table of raised area used for offering sacrifices.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

holy Chosen or set aside for God.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

given to the Lord Things that were given to God and could not be bought back. See Lev. 27:28-29.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

That child will again belong to its family.<sup>16</sup> They must make the payment when the baby is one month old. The cost will be 2 ounces* of silver. You must use the official measure* to weigh this silver. A shekel by the official measure is 20 gerahs.*

<sup>17</sup>“But you must not make a payment for the firstborn cow, sheep, or goat. Those animals are holy.* Sprinkle their blood on the altar* and burn their fat. This is an offering made by fire. Its smell pleases the Lord. <sup>18</sup>But the meat from those animals will be yours. And also the breast from a wave offering will be yours. And the right thigh from other offerings will be yours. <sup>19</sup>Anything that the people offer as holy gifts, I, the Lord, give to you. This is your share. I give it to you and your sons and your daughters. This law will continue forever. It is an agreement with the Lord that can’t be broken.* I make this promise to you and to your descendants.”*

<sup>20</sup>The Lord also said to Aaron, “You will not get any of the land. And you will not own anything that the other people own. I, the Lord, will be yours. The Israelite people will get the land that I promised. But I am my gift to you.

<sup>21</sup>“The people of Israel will give one tenth of everything they have. So I give that one tenth to all the descendants* of Levi. This is their payment for the work that they do while they serve at the Meeting Tent.* <sup>22</sup>But the other people of Israel must never go near that Meeting Tent. If they do, then they must be put to death! <sup>23</sup>The Levite people that are working in the Meeting Tent are responsible for the sins against it. This is a law that will continue forever. The Levite people will not get any of the land that I promised to the other people of Israel. <sup>24</sup>But the people of Israel will give one tenth of everything they have to me. And I will give that one tenth to the Levite people. That is why I said these words about the Levite people: Those people will not get the land that I promised the people of Israel.”

<sup>25</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>26</sup>“Speak to the Levite people and tell them: The people of Israel will give one tenth of everything they own to the Lord. That one tenth will belong to the Levite people. But you must give one tenth of that to the Lord as his offering. <sup>27</sup>You will be given grain after it is harvested and juice from the winepress. Then that will also be your offering to the Lord. <sup>28</sup>In this way, you will also give an offering to the Lord in the same way that the other people of Israel do. You will get the one tenth that the people of Israel give to the Lord. And then you will give one tenth of that to Aaron the priest. <sup>29</sup>When the people of Israel give you one tenth of everything that they own, then you should choose the best and the holiest part of those things. That is the one tenth that you must give to the Lord.

<sup>30</sup>“Moses, tell the Levite people: The people of Israel will give you one tenth of their harvest and of their wine. Then you will give the best part of that to the Lord. <sup>31</sup>You and your families can eat all that is left. This is your payment for the work you do in the Meeting Tent.* <sup>32</sup>And if you always give the best part of it to the Lord, then you will never be guilty. You will always remember that those gifts are the holy* offerings from the people of Israel. And you will not die.”

The Ashes of the Red Cow

19 The Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron. He said, <sup>24</sup>“These are the laws from the teachings that the Lord gave to the people of Israel. Get a red cow that has nothing wrong with it. That cow must not have any bruises. And that cow must never have worn a yoke.* <sup>3</sup>Give that cow to Eliezar the priest. Eliezar will official measure The standard measure used in the tabernacle or temple.

gerah(s) Or, “ $\frac{2}{5}$  of an ounce.”

holy Chosen or set aside for God.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

It is an agreement ... broken Literally, “It is an eternal, salt agreement before the Lord.”

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

yoke A piece of wood that joins two work animals together for pulling a wagon or plow.

take the cow outside the camp and kill it there. <sup>4</sup>Then Eliezar the priest must put some of its blood on his finger and sprinkle some of the blood towards the Holy Tent. He must do this seven times. <sup>5</sup>Then the whole cow must be burned in front of him. The skin, the meat, the blood, and the intestines must all be burned. <sup>6</sup>Then the priest must take a cedar stick, a hyssop* branch, and some red string. The priest must throw those things into the fire where the cow is burning. <sup>7</sup>Then the priest must wash himself and his clothes with water. Then he must come back into the camp. The priest will be unclean* until evening. <sup>8</sup>The person that burns that cow must wash himself and his clothes in water. He will be unclean until evening.

<sup>9</sup>Then a person that is clean* will collect the ashes from the cow. He will put those ashes in a clean place outside the camp. These ashes will be used when people must keep a special ceremony to become clean. These ashes will also be used to remove a person's sins.

<sup>10</sup>The person that collected the cow's ashes must wash his clothes. He will be unclean* until evening.

"This rule will continue forever. This rule is for the citizens of Israel. And this rule is for the foreigners living with you. <sup>11</sup>If someone touches a dead person's body, then he will be unclean* for seven days. <sup>12</sup>He must wash himself with the special water on the third day and again on the seventh day. If he does not do this, then he will remain unclean. <sup>13</sup>If a person touches a dead body, then that person is unclean. If that person stays unclean and then goes to the Holy Tent,* then the Holy Tent becomes unclean. So that person must be separated from the people of Israel. If the special water is not thrown on an unclean person, then that person will stay unclean.

<sup>14</sup>This is the rule about people that die in their tents. If a person dies in his tent, then everyone in the tent will be unclean.* They will be unclean for seven days. <sup>15</sup>And every jar or pot without a lid becomes unclean. <sup>16</sup>If anyone touches a dead body, then that person will be unclean for seven days. This is true if the dead body is out in the field or if the person was killed in war. Also, if anyone touches the bones from a dead person then that person is unclean.

<sup>17</sup>So you must use the ashes from the burnt cow to make that person clean* again. Pour fresh water* over the ashes into a jar. <sup>18</sup>A clean person must take a hyssop* branch and dip it into the water. Then he must sprinkle it over the tent, the dishes, and the people that were in the tent. You must do this to anyone that touches a dead person's body. You must do this to anyone that touches the body of someone killed in war, and to anyone that touches the bones from a dead person.

<sup>19</sup>Then a clean* person must sprinkle this water on the unclean* person on the third day and again on the seventh day. On the seventh day, that person becomes clean. He must wash his clothes in water. He will become clean in the evening.

<sup>20</sup>If a person becomes unclean* and does not become clean,* that person must be separated from the people of Israel. That person was not sprinkled with the special water. He did not become clean. So he might make the Holy Tent* unclean. <sup>21</sup>This rule will be for you forever. If a person is sprinkled with the special water, then he must also wash his clothes. Any person that touches the special water will be unclean until evening. <sup>22</sup>If an unclean person touches someone else, then that other person also becomes unclean. That person will be unclean until evening."

Miriam Dies

20 The people of Israel arrived at the Zin desert on the first month. The people stayed at Kadesh. Miriam died, and she was buried there.

hyssop A plant with fine branches and leaves used for sprinkling water or blood in cleansing ceremonies.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

Holy Tent Or, "tabernacle," the place God came to live among his people.

fresh water Literally, "living water." This means fresh, flowing water.

Moses Makes a Mistake

<sup>2</sup>There was not enough water for the people at that place. So the people met together to complain to Moses and Aaron. <sup>3</sup>The people argued with Moses. They said, "Maybe we should have died in front of the Lord like our brothers did. 'Why did you bring the Lord's people into this desert? Do you want us and our animals to die here? 'Why did you bring us from Egypt? Why did you bring us to this bad place? There is no grain. There are no figs, grapes, or pomegranates.* And there is no water to drink. <sup>6</sup>So Moses and Aaron left the crowd of people and went to the entrance of the Meeting Tent.* They bowed down to the ground. And the Glory of the Lord* appeared to them.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, "'Get the special walking stick. Take your brother Aaron and the crowd of people and go to that rock. Speak to the rock in front of the people. Then water will flow from the rock. And you can give that water to the people and to their animals."

<sup>8</sup>The walking stick was in the Holy Tent, in front of the Lord. Moses took the walking stick like the Lord said. <sup>9</sup>Moses and Aaron told the people to meet together in front of the rock. Then Moses said, "You people are always complaining. Now listen to me. I will cause water to flow from this rock." <sup>11</sup>Moses lifted his arm and hit the rock twice. Water began flowing from the rock. And the people and their animals drank that water.

<sup>12</sup>But the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "All the people of Israel were gathered around. But you did not show me honor. You did not show the people of Israel that the power to make the water came from me. You did not show the people that you trusted in me. I will give those people the land that I promised them. But you will not lead them into that land!"

pomegranate A red fruit with many small seeds inside it.

Each seed is covered with the soft, juicy part of the fruit.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This was like a bright, shining light.

<sup>13</sup>This place was called the waters of Meribah.* This was the place where the Israelite people argued with the Lord. And this was the place that the Lord showed them that he was holy.

Edom Won't Let Israel Pass

<sup>14</sup>While Moses was at Kadesh, he sent some men with a message to the king of Edom. The message said: "Your brothers, the people of Israel, say to you: You know about all the troubles that we have had. <sup>15</sup>Many, many years ago our ancestors* went down into Egypt. And we lived there for many years. The people of Egypt were cruel to us. <sup>16</sup>But we asked the Lord for help. The Lord heard us and sent an angel to help us. The Lord has brought us out of Egypt.

"Now we are here at Kadesh, where your land begins. <sup>17</sup>Please let us travel through your country. We will not travel through any fields or vineyards. We will not drink water from any of your wells. We will travel only along the King's Road. We will not leave that road to the right or to the left. We will stay on the road until we have traveled through your country."

<sup>18</sup>But the king of Edom answered, "You may not travel through our land. If you try to travel through our land, then we will come and fight you with swords."

<sup>19</sup>The people of Israel answered, "We will travel along the main road. If our animals drink any of your water, we will pay you for it. We only want to walk through your country. We don't want to take it for ourselves."

<sup>20</sup>But again Edom answered, "We won't allow you to come through our country."

Then the king of Edom gathered a large and powerful army and went out to fight against the people of Israel. <sup>21</sup>The king of Edom refused to let the people of Israel travel through his country. And the people of Israel turned around and went another way.

Meribah This name means "argument," or "rebellion."

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Aaron Dies

<sup>5</sup>“Now, bring Aaron and his son Eleazar up to Mount Hor. <sup>6</sup>Take Aaron’s special clothes from him and put those clothes on his son Eleazar. Aaron will die there on the mountain. And he will go to be with his ancestors.*”

<sup>7</sup>Moses obeyed the Lord’s command. Moses, Aaron, and Eleazar went up on Mount Hor. All the people of Israel watched them go. <sup>8</sup>Moses removed Aaron’s special clothes and put those clothes on Aaron’s son Eleazar. Then Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Moses and Eleazar came back down the mountain. <sup>9</sup>All the people of Israel learned that Aaron was dead. So every person in Israel mourned* for 30 days.

War with the Canaanites

21 The king of the Canaanite people was named Arad. He lived in the Negev.* King Arad heard that the people of Israel were coming on the road to Atharim. So the king went out and attacked the people of Israel. Arad captured some of the people and made them prisoners. <sup>2</sup>Then the people of Israel made a special promise to the Lord: “Lord, please help us defeat these people. If you do this, then we will give their cities to you. We will totally destroy them.”

<sup>3</sup>The Lord listened to the people of Israel. And the Lord helped the people of Israel to defeat the Canaanite people. The people of

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

mourn To show sadness for a person that died. In ancient Israel people often cried very loudly, wore special clothes, and put ashes on their head to show their sadness.

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

Israel completely destroyed the Canaanite people and their cities. So that place was named Hormah.*

The Bronze Snake

“The people of Israel left Mount Hor and traveled on the road that goes to the Red Sea. They did this to go around the country of Edom. But the people became impatient. <sup>2</sup>They began complaining against God and Moses. The people said, “Why did you bring us out of Egypt? We will die here in the desert! There is no bread! There is no water! And we hate this terrible food!”

<sup>3</sup>So the Lord sent poisonous snakes among the people. The snakes bit the people, and many of the people of Israel died. <sup>4</sup>The people came to Moses and said, “We know that we sinned when we spoke against the Lord and against you. Pray to the Lord. Ask him to take away these snakes.” So Moses prayed for the people.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord said to Moses, “Make a bronze* snake and put it on a pole. If any person is bitten by a snake, then that person should look at the bronze snake on the pole. Then that person will not die.” <sup>6</sup>So Moses obeyed the Lord. He made a bronze snake and put it on a pole. Then when a snake bit any person, that person looked at the bronze snake on the pole and lived.

From Mount Hor to Moab

Hormah This name means “completely destroyed,” or “a gift given totally to God.” See Lev. 27:28-29.

bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean “copper,” “bronz,” or “brass.”

why these things are written in the Book of the Wars of the Lord:

"... and Waheb in Suphah, and the Valleys of the Arnon,<sup>15</sup> and the hills by the valleys that lead to the town of Ar. These places are at the border of Moab."

<sup>16</sup>The people of Israel left that place and traveled to Beer.* This was the place with the well. This was the place where the Lord said to Moses, "Bring the people together here and I will give them water."<sup>17</sup> Then the people of Israel sang this song:

"Well, flow with water!

Sing about it!

<sup>18</sup> Great men dug this well.

Important leaders dug this well.

With their staffs and walking sticks they dug this well.

It is a gift in the desert.**

So the people called that well "Mattanah."

Sihon and Og

<sup>21</sup>The people of Israel sent some men to Sihon, the king of the Amorite people. The men said to the king,<sup>22</sup> "Allow us to travel through your country. We will not travel through any field or vineyard. We will not drink water from any of your wells. We will travel only along King's Road. We will stay on that road until we have traveled through your country."

<sup>23</sup>But King Sihon would not allow the people of Israel to travel through his country. The king gathered together his army and marched out to the desert. He was marching to fight against the people of Israel. At Jahaz, the king's army fought against the people of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>But the people of Israel killed the king. Then they took his land from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River. The people of Israel took the land as far as the Ammonite border. They stopped at that border because it was strongly defended by the Ammonite people.<sup>25</sup> Israel took all the Amorite cities and began living in them. They even defeated the city of Heshbon and all the small towns around it.<sup>26</sup> Heshbon was the city where Sihon, the Amorite king, lived. In the past, Sihon had fought with the king of Moab. Sihon had taken the land as far as the Arnon River.<sup>27</sup> That is why the singers sing this song:

"Heshbon, you should be built again.

Let Sihon's city be built again.

<sup>28</sup> A fire began in Heshbon.

That fire began in Sihon's city.

The fire destroyed the city of Ar in Moab.

It burned the hills above the Arnon River.

<sup>29</sup> It is bad for you, Moab.

Chemosh's* people have been destroyed.

His sons ran away.

His daughters were taken prisoners by Sihon, king of the Amorite people.

<sup>30</sup> But we defeated those Amorites.

We destroyed their towns from Heshbon to Dibon, from Nashim to Nophah, near Medeba."

<sup>31</sup>So the people of Israel made their camp in the land of the Amorite people.

<sup>32</sup>Moses sent some men to look at the town of Jazer. After Moses did this, the people of Israel captured that town. They captured the small towns that were around it. The people of Israel forced the Amorite people that were living there to leave.

<sup>33</sup>Then the people of Israel traveled on the road toward Bashan. Og, the king of Bashan, got his army and marched out to meet the people of Israel. He fought against them at Edrei.

<sup>34</sup>But the Lord said to Moses, "Don't be afraid of that king. I will allow you to defeat

Beer This Hebrew name means "Well."

gift in the desert In Hebrew this is the name "Mattanah."

Chemosh Chemosh was the god of the Moabite people.

him. You will take his whole army and all his land. Do the same to him as you did to Sihon, the Amorite king that lived in Heshbon."

<sup>23</sup>So the people of Israel defeated Og and his army. They killed him and his sons and all his army. Then the people of Israel took all his land.

Balaam and the King of Moab

22 Then the people of Israel traveled to the Jordan Valley in Moab. They camped near the Jordan River across from Jericho.

<sup>23</sup>Balak son of Zippor saw all the things that the people of Israel had done to the Amorite people. The king of Moab was very afraid, because there were so many people of Israel. Moab was really scared of them.

"The king of Moab said to the leaders of Midian, "This large group of people will destroy everything around us, the way a cow eats all the grass in a field."

Balak son of Zippor was the king of Moab at this time. <sup>1</sup>He sent some men to call Balaam son of Beor. Balaam was at the Pethor, near the Euphrates River. This was where Balaam's people lived.* This was Balak's message: "A new nation of people has come out of Egypt. There are so many people that they cover all the land. They have camped next to me. "Come and help me. These people are too powerful for me. I know that you have great power. If you bless a person, then good things happen to him. And if you speak against a person, then bad things happen to him. So come and speak against these people. Maybe then I will be able to defeat them. Then I can force them to leave my country."

<sup>2</sup>The leaders of Moab and Midian left. They went to talk to Balaam. They carried with them money to pay him for his service.* Then they told him what Balak had said.

This ... lived Or, "This was the land of the Ammonites."
for his service Or, "for the things he needed to make curses." In ancient times, when people asked bad things to happen to other people, they often wrote the curses on special bowls and used them in ceremonies. They did this to try to force those bad things to happen. See Deut. 18:10.

<sup>3</sup>Balaam said to them, "Stay here for the night. I will talk to the Lord and tell you the answer he gives me." So the leaders of Moab stayed there with Balaam that night.

<sup>4</sup>God came to Balaam and asked, "Who are these men with you?"

<sup>5</sup>Balaam said to God, "The king of Moab, Balak son of Zippor, sent them to give me a message. "This is the message: A new nation of people has come out of Egypt. There are so many people that they cover all the land. So, come and speak against these people. Then maybe I will be able to fight them and force them to leave my land."

<sup>6</sup>But God said to Balaam, "Don't go with them. You must not speak against those people. They are my people."

<sup>7</sup>The next morning Balaam got up and said to leaders from Balak, "Go back to your own country. The Lord will not let me go with you."

<sup>8</sup>So the leaders of Moab went back to Balak and told him this. They said, "Balaam refused to come with us."

<sup>9</sup>So Balak sent other leaders to Balaam. This time he sent many more than the first time. And these leaders were much more important than the first ones he sent. <sup>10</sup>They went to Balaam and said: "Balak son of Zippor says this to you: Please don't let anything stop you from coming. <sup>11</sup>I will pay you very much if you will do what I ask.* Come and speak against these people for me."

<sup>12</sup>Balaam gave Balak's officials his answer. He said, "I must obey the Lord my God. I cannot do anything against his command. I cannot do anything, great or small, unless the Lord says that I can. I will not do anything against the Lord's command, even if King Balak gives me his beautiful home filled with silver and gold. <sup>13</sup>But you can stay here tonight like the other men did. And during the night I will learn what the Lord wants to tell me."

<sup>14</sup>That night, God came to Balaam. God said, "These men have come again to ask you to go with them. So you can go with them. But do only the things that I tell you to do."

I will ... ask Or, "I will honor you very much."

Balaam and His Donkey

<sup>21</sup>The next morning, Balaam got up and put a saddle on his donkey. Then he went with the leaders of Moab. <sup>22</sup>Balaam was riding on his donkey. Two of his servants were with him. While Balaam was traveling, God became angry. So the Lord's angel stood in the road in front of Balaam. The angel was going to stop* Balaam.

<sup>23</sup>Balaam's donkey saw the Lord's angel standing in the road. The angel was holding a sword in his hand. So the donkey turned from the road and went into the field. Balaam could not see the angel. So he was very angry with the donkey. He hit the donkey and forced it to go back on the road.

<sup>24</sup>Later, the Lord's angel stood at a place where the road became narrow. This was between two vineyards. There were walls on both sides of the road. <sup>25</sup>Again the donkey saw the Lord's angel. So the donkey walked very close to one wall. This crushed Balaam's foot against the wall. So Balaam hit his donkey again.

<sup>26</sup>Later the Lord's angel stood at another place. This was another place where the road became narrow. There was no place where the donkey could go around him. The donkey could not turn to the left or to the right. <sup>27</sup>The donkey saw the the Lord's angel. So the donkey lay down with Balaam sitting on top of it. Balaam was very angry at the donkey. So he hit it with his walking stick.

<sup>28</sup>Then the Lord caused the donkey to speak. The donkey said to Balaam, "Why are you angry at me? What have I done to you? You have hit me three times!"

<sup>29</sup>Balaam answered the donkey, "You have made me look foolish. If I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you right now!"

<sup>30</sup>But the donkey said to Balaam, "Look, I am your own donkey! You have ridden me for many, many years. And you know that I have never done this to you before!"

"That is true," Balaam said.

<sup>31</sup>Then the Lord allowed Balaam to see the angel. The Lord's angel was standing in the road, holding a sword in his hand. Balaam bowed low to the ground.

<sup>32</sup>Then the Lord's angel asked Balaam, "Why did you hit your donkey three times? I am the one that came to stop* you. But just in time,* <sup>33</sup>your donkey saw me and turned away from me. That happened three times. If the donkey had not turned away, I probably would have killed you already. And I would have let your donkey live."

<sup>34</sup>Then Balaam said to the Lord's angel, "I have sinned. I did not know that you were standing in the road. If I am doing wrong, then I will go back home."

<sup>35</sup>Then the Lord's angel said to Balaam, "No! You can go with these men. But be careful. Speak only the words that I will tell you to say." So Balaam went with the leaders that Balak had sent.

<sup>36</sup>Balak heard that Balaam was coming. So Balak went out to meet him at the Moabite town* near the Arnon River. This was at the northern border of his country. <sup>37</sup>When Balak saw Balaam, he said to him, "I asked you before to come. I told you it was very, very important. Why didn't you come to me? I might not be able to pay you now."

<sup>38</sup>Balaam answered, "But I am here now. I came, but I might not be able to do the thing you asked. I can only say the words that the Lord God tells me to say."

<sup>39</sup>Then Balaam went with Balak to Kiriath Huzoth. <sup>40</sup>Balak killed some cattle and some sheep as his sacrifice. He gave some of the meat to Balaam and some to the leaders that were with him.

<sup>41</sup>The next morning Balak took Balaam to the town of Bamoth Baal. From there, they could see part of the Israelite camp.

But just in time Literally, "Just as the path in front of me dropped away...." or, "Because you are not doing right...."

The Hebrew is very hard to understand.

Moabite town Or possibly, "Ar Moab."

Balaam's First Message

23 Balaam said, "Build seven altars* here. And prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me." <sup>2</sup>Balak did the thing that Balaam asked. Then Balak and Balaam killed a ram and a bull on each of the altars.

<sup>3</sup>Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here near this altar.* I will go to another place. Then the Lord will come to me, and he will tell me what I must say." Then Balaam went away to a higher place.

<sup>4</sup>God came to Balaam at that place. And Balaam said, "I have prepared seven altars.* And I have killed a bull and a ram as a sacrifice on each altar."

<sup>5</sup>Then the Lord told Balaam what he should say. Then the Lord said, "Go back to Balak and say these things that I have given you to say."

<sup>6</sup>So Balaam went back to Balak. Balak was still standing near the altar.* And all the leaders of Moab were standing there with them. <sup>7</sup>Then Balaam said these things:

Balak, king of Moab, brought me here from Aram, from the eastern mountains.

Balak said to me,
"Come, speak against Jacob* for me.
Come and speak against the people of Israel."

- <sup>8</sup> But God is not against those people,
So I can't speak against them either!
The Lord has not asked for bad things to happen to those people.
So I can't do that either.
- <sup>9</sup> I see those people from the mountain.
I see them from the high hills.
Those people live alone.
Those people are not part of any other nation.
- <sup>10</sup> Jacob has more people than there are grains of sand.
No person can count even a fourth of all the people of Israel.

Let me die like a good man.

Let my life end as happy as theirs!

<sup>11</sup>Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you here to speak against my enemies. But you have only blessed them!"

<sup>12</sup>But Balaam answered, "I must say the things that the Lord tells me to say."

<sup>13</sup>Then Balak said to him, "So come with me to another place. At that place you can see more of those people. You can't see all of them—you can only see part of them. Maybe from that place you can speak against them for me." <sup>14</sup>So Balak led Balaam to Watchmen Hills.* This was on top of Mount Pisgah. At that place, Balak built seven altars.* And then Balak killed a bull and a ram on each altar as a sacrifice.

<sup>15</sup>So Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here by this altar.* I will go meet with God over at that place."

<sup>16</sup>So the Lord came to Balaam and told Balaam what to say. Then the Lord told Balaam to go back to Balak and say those things. <sup>17</sup>So Balaam went to Balak. Balak was still standing near the altar.* The leaders of Moab were there with him. Balak saw Balaam coming and said, "What did the Lord say?"

Balaam's Second Message

<sup>18</sup>Then Balaam said these things:

"Stand up, Balak, and listen to me.
Hear me, Balak son of Zippor.

- <sup>19</sup> God is not a man;
he will not lie.
God is not a human being;
his decisions will not change.
If the Lord says he will do something,
then he will do it.
If the Lord makes a promise,
then he will do the thing he promised.
- <sup>20</sup> The Lord commanded me to bless those people.
The Lord blessed them, so I cannot change that.

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

Jacob This is another name for Israel.

Watchmen Hills Or, "the fields of Zophim."

<sup>21</sup> God saw nothing wrong with the people of Jacob.

God saw no sin among the people of Israel.

The Lord is their God, and he is with them.

The Great King is with them!

<sup>22</sup> God brought those people out of Egypt.
They are as strong as a wild ox.

<sup>23</sup> There is no power that can defeat the people of Jacob.*

There is no magic that can stop the people of Israel.

People will say this about Jacob and about the people of Israel:

“Look at the great things that God has done!”

<sup>24</sup> The people are strong, like a lion.
They fight like a lion.

And that lion will never rest,
until he has eaten his enemy.

And that lion will never rest, until he drinks the blood of those that are against him.”

<sup>25</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, “You didn’t ask for good things to happen to those people. But you didn’t ask for bad things to happen to them either!”

<sup>26</sup>Balaam answered, “I told you before that I can only say the things that the Lord tells me to say.”

<sup>27</sup>Then Balak said to Balaam, “So come with me to another place. Maybe God will be pleased and will allow you to curse them from that place.” <sup>28</sup>So Balak led Balaam to the top of Peor Mountain. This mountain looks out over the desert.

<sup>29</sup>Balaam said, “Build seven altars* here. Then prepare seven bulls and seven rams for the altars.” <sup>30</sup>Balak did the thing that Balaam asked. Balak offered the bulls and rams on the altars.

Balaam’s Third Message

24 Balaam saw that the Lord wanted to bless Israel. So Balaam did not try to change that by using any kind of magic. But Balaam turned and looked toward the desert. <sup>2</sup>Balaam looked out across the desert and saw all the people of Israel. They were camped with the family groups in their different areas. Then the Spirit of God came to Balaam. <sup>3</sup>And Balaam said these words:

“This message is from Balaam
son of Beor.

I am speaking about things I see clearly.

<sup>4</sup> I heard this message from God.

I saw the things God All-Powerful*
showed me.

I bow down to God,
and I see these things clearly.

<sup>5</sup> “People of Jacob, your tents are very beautiful!

The places you live are beautiful, people of Israel!

<sup>6</sup> Your people spread across the land like streams.

You are like a garden growing beside a river.

You people are like sweet-smelling bushes the Lord planted.

You are like beautiful trees growing by the water.

<sup>7</sup> You will always have enough water to drink.

Your seeds will always have enough water to grow.

Your king will be greater than king Agag.
Your kingdom will be very great.

<sup>8</sup> “God brought those people out of Egypt.
They are as strong as a wild ox.

They will defeat all their enemies.
They will break the bones of their enemies.

And their arrows will kill their enemies.

Jacob This is another name for Israel.

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

God All-Powerful Literally, “El Shaddai.”

<sup>9</sup> “They are like a lion waiting to jump on its prey.
Those people are like a sleeping lion.
No person is brave enough to wake him.
Any person that blesses you will be blessed.
And any person that speaks against you will have great troubles.”

<sup>10</sup> Balak became very angry at Balaam. Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to come and speak against my enemies. But you have blessed them. You have blessed them three times. <sup>11</sup> Now leave and go home! I told you that I would give you a very good payment. But the Lord has caused you to lose your reward.”

<sup>12</sup> Balaam said to Balak, “You sent men to me. Those men asked me to come. But I told them, <sup>13</sup> ‘Balak can give me his most beautiful home filled with silver and gold. But I can still say only the things that the Lord commands me to say. I cannot do anything myself, good or bad. I must say what the Lord commands.’ Surely you remember that I told your men these things. <sup>14</sup> Now I am going back to my own people. But I will give you this warning. I will tell you what these people of Israel will do to you and your people in the future.”

Balaam's Last Message

<sup>15</sup> Then Balaam said these things:

“This message is from Balaam
son of Beor.
I am speaking about things I see clearly.

<sup>16</sup> I heard this message from God.
I learned these things from God
Most-High.

I saw the things God All-Powerful*
showed me.

I bow down to God,
and I see these things clearly.

<sup>17</sup> “I see the Lord coming, but not now.
I see him coming, but not soon.

A star will come from the family of Jacob.*
A new ruler will come from the people of Israel.
That ruler will crush the heads of the Moabite people.
That ruler will crush the heads of all the sons of Sheth.*

<sup>18</sup> Israel will grow strong!
He will get the land of Edom.
He will get the land of Seir,* his enemy.

<sup>19</sup> “A new ruler will come from the family of Jacob.*
That ruler will destroy the people left alive in that city.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Balaam saw the Amalekite people and said these words:

“Amalek was the strongest among all the nations.
But even Amalek will be destroyed!”

<sup>21</sup> Then Balaam saw the Kenite people and he said these words:

“You believe that your country is safe, like a bird's nest* high on a mountain.

<sup>22</sup> But you Kenite* people will be destroyed, just like the Lord destroyed Cain.*
Assyria will make you prisoners.”

<sup>23</sup> Then Balaam said these words:

“No person can live when God does this.

<sup>24</sup> Ships will come from the shores of Cyprus.*
Those ships will defeat Assyria and Eber.*

Jacob This is another name for Israel.

sons of Sheth Or, “Seth.” Seth was Adam's third son. This might be like the phrases “son of Man (Adam)” and “son of Enosh” and mean simply “all those people.”

Seir Another name for Edom.

nest, Kenite, Cain A play on words. The names “Cain” and “Kenite” are like the Hebrew word meaning “nest.”

Cyprus Literally, “Kittim.” This might be Cyprus, Crete, or other places west of Israel in the Mediterranean Sea.

Eber This might mean the people living west of the Euphrates River, or it might mean descendants of Eber. See Gen. 10:21.

But then those ships will also be destroyed.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Balaam got up and went back home. And Balak went his own way.

Israel at Peor

25 The people of Israel were camped near Acacia. At that time, the men began doing sexual sins* with Moabite women. <sup>23</sup>The Moabite women invited the men to come and join in their sacrifices to their false gods. So the Israelite people joined in worshipping those false gods—they ate the sacrifices and worshiped those gods. At that place, the people of Israel began worshipping the false god, Baal of Peor. And the Lord became very angry at them.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord said to Moses, “Get all the leaders of these people. Then kill them so that all the people can see.* Lay their bodies before the Lord. Then the Lord will not show his anger against all the people of Israel.”

<sup>5</sup>So Moses said to Israel’s judges, “Each of you must find the men in your family group that have led people to worship the false god, Baal of Peor. Then you must kill those men.”

<sup>6</sup>At the time, Moses and all the elders (leaders) of Israel were gathered together at the entrance to the Meeting Tent.* An Israelite man brought a Midianite woman home to his family. He did this where Moses and all the leaders could see. Moses and the leaders were very sad. <sup>7</sup>Phinehas was the son of Eleazar and the grandson of Aaron the priest. Phinehas saw this man bring the woman into camp. So Phinehas left the meeting and got his spear. <sup>8</sup>He followed the Israelite man into his tent. Then he killed the Israelite man and the Midianite woman with the spear. He put the spear through both of their bodies. At that time, there was a great sickness among the Israelite people. But when Phinehas killed these two people, the sickness stopped. <sup>9</sup>A total of 24,000 people died from that sickness.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>11</sup>“I have strong feelings for my people—I want them to belong only to me! Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saved the people of Israel from my anger. He did this by showing those feelings for my people. So I will not kill the people like I wanted to. <sup>12</sup>Tell Phinehas that I am making a peace agreement with him. <sup>13</sup>This is the agreement: He and all of his family that live after him will always be priests. Why? Because he had strong feelings for his God. And he did the things that made the people of Israel pure.*”

<sup>14</sup>The Israelite man that was killed with the Midianite woman was named Zimri son of Salu. He was the leader of a family in Simeon’s family group. <sup>15</sup>And the name of the Midianite woman that was killed was Cozbi.* She was the daughter of Zur. Zur was the head of a family and leader of a Midianite family group.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>17</sup>“The Midianite people are your enemies. You must kill them. <sup>18</sup>They have already made you their enemies. They tricked you at Peor. And they tricked you with the woman named Cozbi.* She was the daughter of a Midianite leader. But she was killed when the sickness came to the Israelite people. That sickness was caused because the people were tricked into worshipping the false god Baal of Peor.”

The People Are Counted

26 After the great sickness, the Lord spoke to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron the priest. <sup>2</sup>He said, “Count the people of Israel. Count all the men that are 20 years old or older and list them by families. These are the men that are able to serve in the army of Israel.”

<sup>3</sup>At this time the people were camped in the Jordan Valley in Moab. This was near the sexual sins Sexual sin was often part of the worship of false gods. So this can mean that the men were unfaithful to their wives and also that they were unfaithful to God by worshipping false gods.

so that ... see Literally, “before the sun.”

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

made ... pure Or, “atoned.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

Cozbi This name is like the Hebrew word meaning “my lie.”

Jordan River, across from Jericho. So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke to the people. They said, "You must count every man that is 20 years old or older. The Lord gave Moses this command." Here is the list of the people of Israel that came out of Egypt:

<sup>5</sup>These are the people from Reuben's family. (Reuben was the firstborn* son of Israel (Jacob.) The families were:

Hanoch—the Hanochite family.

Pallu—the Palluite family.

<sup>7</sup>Those were the families in Reuben's family group. There was a total of 43,730 men.

<sup>8</sup>Pallu's son was Eliab. <sup>9</sup>Eliab had three sons—Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. Remember, Dathan and Abiram were the two leaders that turned against Moses and Aaron. They followed Korah when Korah turned against the Lord. <sup>10</sup>That was the time when the earth opened and swallowed Korah and all of his followers. And 250 men died! That was a warning to all the people of Israel. <sup>11</sup>But the other people that were from the family of Korah did not die.

Nemuel—the Nemuelite family.

Jamin—the Jaminite family.

Jakin—the Jakinite family.

Shaul—the Shaulite family.

<sup>14</sup>Those were the families in Simeon's family group. There was a total of 22,200 men.

<sup>15</sup>These are the families in Gad's family group:

Zephon—the Zephonite family.

Haggi—the Haggite family.

Shuni—the Shunite family.

Eri—the Erite family.

Areli—the Arelitate family.

<sup>18</sup>Those were the families in Gad's family group. There was a total of 40,500 men.

<sup>19-20</sup>These are the families in Judah's family group:

Shelah—the Shelanite family.

Perez—the Perezite family.

Zerah—the Zerahite family.

(Two of Judah's sons, Er and Onan, died in Canaan.)

Hezron—the Hezronite family.

Hamul—the Hamulite family.

<sup>22</sup>Those were the families from Judah's family group. The total number of men was 76,500.

<sup>23</sup>The families in Issachar's family group were:

Tola—the Tolaite family.

Puah—the Puite family.

Shimron—the Shimronite family.

<sup>25</sup>Those were the families from Issachar's family group. The total number of men was 64,300.

<sup>26</sup>The families in Zebulun's family group were:

Sered—the Seredite family.

Elon—the Elonite family.

Jahleel—the Jahleelite family.

<sup>27</sup>Those were the families from Zebulun's family group. The total number of men was 60,500.

<sup>28</sup>Joseph's two sons were Manasseh and Ephraim. Each son became a family group with its own families. <sup>29</sup>Manasseh's families were:

Makir—the Makirite family. (Makir was the father of Gilead.)

Gilead—the Gileadite family.

<sup>30</sup> The families from Gilead were:

firstborn The first child born into a family. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

Iezer—the Iezerite family.
Helek—the Helekite family.

- <sup>31</sup> Asriel—the Asrielite family.
Shechem—the Shechemite family.
Hepher—the Hephertite family.

<sup>33</sup>Zelophehad was the son of Hepher. But he had no sons—only daughters. His daughters names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

<sup>34</sup>Those are all the families in Manasseh's family group. The total number of men was 52,700.

<sup>35</sup>The families in Ephraim's family group were:

Shuthelah—the Shuthelahite family.
Beker—the Bekerite family.
Tahan—the Tahanite family.

- <sup>36</sup> Eran was from Shuthelah's family.
Eran's family was the Eranite family.

<sup>37</sup>Those were the families in Ephraim's family group. The total number of men was 32,500. Those are all the people that came from Joseph's family groups.

<sup>38</sup>The families in Benjamin's family group were:

Bela—the Belaite family.
Ashbel—the Ashbelite family.
Ahiram—the Ahiramite family.
<sup>39</sup> Shupham—the Shuphamite family.
Hupham—the Huphamite family.

- <sup>40</sup> The families from Bela were:

Ard—the Ardite family.
Naaman—the Naamanite family.

<sup>41</sup>Those were all the families in Benjamin's family group. The total number of men was 45,600.

<sup>42</sup>The families in Dan's family group were:

Shuham—the Shuhamite family group.

That was the family group from Dan's family group. <sup>43</sup>There were many families in the Shuhamite family group. The total number of men was 64,400.

<sup>44</sup>The families in Asher's family group were:

Imnah—the Imnite family.
Ishvi—the Ishvite family.
Beriah—the Beriite family.

- <sup>45</sup> The families from Beriah were:

Heber—the Heberite family.
Malkiel—the Malkielite family.

<sup>46</sup>(Asher also had a daughter named Serah.)
<sup>47</sup>Those were the families in Asher's family group. The total number of men was 53,400.

<sup>48</sup>The families from Naphtali's family group were:

Jahzeel—the Jahzeelite family.
Guni—the Gunitite family.
<sup>49</sup> Jezer—the Jezerite family.
Shillem—the Shillemite family.

<sup>50</sup>Those were the families from Naphtali's family group. The total number of men was 45,400.

<sup>51</sup>So the total number of men of Israel was 601,730.

<sup>52</sup>The Lord said to Moses, <sup>53</sup>“The land will be divided and given to these people. Each family group will get enough land for all of the people that were counted. <sup>54</sup>A large family will get much land, and a small family will get less land. The land that they get will be equal to the number of people that were counted. <sup>55</sup>But you must use lots* to decide which family gets which part of the land. Each family group will get its share of the land. And that land will be given the name of that family group. <sup>56</sup>Land will be given to each family—large and small. And you will throw lots to make the decisions.”

<sup>57</sup>They also counted Levi's family group. These are the families from Levi's family group:

Gershon—the Gershonite family.
Kohath—the Kohathite family.

lots Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

Merari—the Merarite family.

<sup>3</sup>These were also families from Levi's family group:

The Libnite family.
The Hebronite family.
The Mahlite family.
The Mushite family.
The Korahite family.

Amram was from the Kohath family group.

<sup>5</sup>Amram's wife was named Jochebed. She was also from Levi's family group. She was born in Egypt. Amram and Jochebed has two sons, Aaron and Moses. They also had a daughter, Miriam.

<sup>6</sup>Aaron was the father of Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>6</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died. They died because they made an offering to the Lord with fire that was not allowed.

<sup>6</sup>The total number of men from Levi's family group was 23,000. But these men were not counted with the other people of Israel. They did not get a share of the land that the Lord gave to the other people.

<sup>6</sup>Moses and Eleazar the priest counted all these people. They counted the people of Israel while they were in the Jordan Valley in Moab. This was near the Jordan River across from Jericho. <sup>6</sup>Many years before, in the Sinai desert, Moses and Aaron the priest counted the people of Israel. But all those people were dead. None of those people were still alive. <sup>6</sup>Why? Because the Lord told those people of Israel that they would all die in the desert. The only two men that were left alive were Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Zelophehad's Daughters

27 Zelophehad was the son of Hopher. Hopher was the son of Gilead. Gilead was the son of Makir. Makir was the son of Manasseh. Manasseh was the son of Joseph. Zelophehad had five daughters. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>2</sup>These five women went to the Meeting Tent* and stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and all the people of Israel.

The five daughters said, <sup>3</sup>"Our father died while we were traveling through the desert. Our father died a natural death. He was not one of the men that joined Korah's group. (Korah was the man that turned against the Lord.) But our father had no sons. <sup>4</sup>This means that our father's name will not continue. It is not fair that our father's name will not continue. His name will end because he had no sons. So we ask you to give us some of the land that our father's brothers will get."

<sup>5</sup>So Moses asked the Lord what he should do. <sup>6</sup>The Lord said to him, <sup>7</sup>"The daughters of Zelophehad are right. They should share the land with their father's brothers. So give them the land that you would have given to their father.

<sup>8</sup>"So make this law to the people of Israel, <sup>9</sup>"If a man has no son, and he dies, then everything he owns should be given to his daughter. <sup>9</sup>If he has no daughter, then everything he owns should be given to his brothers. <sup>10</sup>If he has no brothers, then everything he owns should be given to his father's brothers. <sup>11</sup>If his father had no brothers, then everything he owns should be given to the closest relative in his family. This should be a law among the people of Israel. The Lord gives this command to Moses."

Joshua Is the New Leader

<sup>12</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, "Go up on one of mountains in the desert east of the Jordan River. There you will see the land that I am giving to the people of Israel. <sup>13</sup>After you have seen this land, then you will die like your brother Aaron. <sup>14</sup>Remember when the people became angry at the water in the desert of Zin. Both you and Aaron refused to obey my command. You did not honor me and show the people that I am holy." (This was at the water of Meribah near Kadesh in the desert of Zin.)

<sup>15</sup>Moses said to the Lord, <sup>16</sup>"The Lord is the God who knows what people are thinking. Lord, I pray that you will choose a leader for these people.*<sup>17</sup> I pray that the Lord will choose a leader that will lead them out of this land and bring them into the new land. Then the Lord's people will not be like sheep without a shepherd."

<sup>18</sup>So the Lord said to Moses, "Joshua son of Nun will be the new leader. He is very wise.* Make him the new leader. <sup>19</sup>Tell him to stand before Eleazar the priest and all the people. Then make him the new leader.

<sup>20</sup>"Show the people that you are making him leader,* then all the people will obey him. <sup>21</sup>If Joshua needs to make a decision, then he will go to Eleazar the priest. Eleazar will use the Urim* to learn the Lord's answer. Then Joshua and all the people of Israel will do the things God says. If he says, 'go to war,' then they will go to war. And if he says, 'go home,' then they will go home."

<sup>22</sup>Moses obeyed the Lord. Moses told Joshua to stand before Eleazar the priest, and all the people of Israel. <sup>23</sup>Then Moses put his hands on him to show that he was the new leader. He did this the way the Lord had told him.

Daily Offerings

28 Then the Lord spoke to Moses. He said, <sup>24</sup>"Give this command to the people of Israel. Tell them to be sure to give the grain offerings and sacrifices to me at the right time. Those are the offerings made by fire. Their smell will please the Lord. <sup>25</sup>These are the offerings made by fire that they must give to the Lord. Every day they must give 2 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>26</sup>Offer one of the lambs in the morning, and offer the other lamb at twilight.* <sup>27</sup>Also give a grain offering of 8 cups*

The ... people Literally, "May the Lord, the God of the spirits of all people, appoint a man for this community."

Joshua ... wise Literally, "Take Joshua son of Nun. He is a man with a spirit in him." This might mean that Joshua was very wise, or it might mean that God's Spirit was with him.

Show ... leader Literally, "Give him some of your glory."

Urim Used together with the Thummim to learn God's answer to questions. They were probably like lots-stones, sticks, or bones that were thrown like dice to make decisions.

twilight The time after the sun goes down, but before dark.

8 cups Literally, "1/10 of an ephah."

of fine flour mixed with 1 quart* of olive oil."<sup>28</sup> (They started giving the daily offerings at Mount Sinai. They were offerings made by fire. Their smell pleased the Lord.) <sup>29</sup>The people must also give the drink offerings that go with the offerings made by fire. They must give 1 quart* of wine with every lamb. Pour that drink offering on the altar, in the Holy Place. This is a gift to the Lord. <sup>30</sup>Offer the second lamb at twilight.* Offer it just like the morning offering. Also give the drink offering that goes with it. This will be an offering made by fire. Its smell will please the Lord."

Sabbath Offerings

<sup>31</sup>"On the Sabbath,* you must give 2 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. You must also give a grain offering of 16 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil, and a drink offering. <sup>32</sup>This is a special offering for the day of rest. This offering is in addition to the regular daily offering and drink offering."

Monthly Meetings

<sup>33</sup>"On the first day of each month you will offer a special burnt offering to the Lord. This offering will be 2 male bulls, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>34</sup>You must give a grain offering of 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil with each bull. Also you must give a grain offering of 16 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil with the ram. <sup>35</sup>Also give a grain offering of 8 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil with each lamb. This will be an offering made by fire. Its smell will please the Lord. <sup>36</sup>The drink offering will be 2 quarts* of wine with each bull, 1 1/4 quarts* of wine with the ram, and 1 quart* of wine with each lamb. That is the burnt offering that must be offered

1 quart Literally, "1/4 hin."

Sabbath Saturday, a day of rest and worship for the Jews.

16 cups Literally, "2/10 of an ephah."

24 cups Literally, "3/10 of an ephah."

2 quarts Literally, "1/2 hin."

1 1/4 quarts Literally, "3/10 hin."

each and every month of the year. <sup>15</sup>In addition to the regular daily burnt offering and drink offering, you must also give 1 male goat to the Lord. That goat will be a sin offering.

Passover

<sup>16</sup>Passover will be on the 14th day of the first month. <sup>17</sup>The Festival of Unleavened Bread begins on the 15th day of that month. This holiday lasts for seven days. The only bread you can eat is bread made without yeast. <sup>18</sup>You must have a special meeting on the first day of this holiday. You will not do any work on that day. <sup>19</sup>You will give burnt offerings to the Lord. The burnt offerings will be 2 bulls, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>20,21</sup>You must also give a grain offering of 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil with each bull, and 16 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil with the ram, and 8 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil for each lamb. <sup>22</sup>You must also give 1 male goat. That goat will be a sin offering to make you pure.* <sup>23</sup>You must give those offerings in addition to the morning burnt offerings that you give every day.

<sup>24</sup>In the same way, each day for seven days, you must give the offerings made by fire to the Lord and the drink offerings that go with them. The smell of these offerings will please the Lord. The offerings will be food for the people. You must give these offerings in addition to the burnt offerings that you give every day.

<sup>25</sup>Then, on the seventh day of this holiday, you will have another special meeting. You will not do any work on that day.

Festival of Weeks (Pentecost)

<sup>26</sup>At the Festival of Firstfruits* (the Festival of Weeks) use the new crops to give a grain offering to the Lord. At that time, you must also call a special meeting. You must not do any work on that day. <sup>27</sup>You must offer a burnt offering. It will be an offering made by fire. Its smell will please the Lord. You must offer 2 bulls, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>28</sup>You must also give 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil with each bull and 16 cups* with each ram, <sup>29</sup>and 8 cups* with each lamb. <sup>30</sup>You must also sacrifice 1 male goat to make you pure.* <sup>31</sup>You must give those offerings in addition to the daily burnt offerings and the grain offering you give with them. Be sure there is nothing wrong with the animals or the drink offerings that you give with them.

Festival of Trumpets

29 There will be a special meeting on the first day of the seventh month. You will not do any work on that day. That is the day for blowing the trumpet.* <sup>1</sup>You will offer burnt offerings. They will be offerings made by fire. Their smell will please the Lord. You will offer 1 bull, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>3</sup>You will also offer 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil with the bull, 16 cups* with the ram, <sup>4</sup>and 8 cups* with each of the 7 lambs. <sup>5</sup>Also, offer 1 male goat for a sin offering to make you pure.* <sup>6</sup>Those offerings are in addition to the New Moon* sacrifice and its grain offering. And they are in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings. Those must be done according to the rules. They must be offerings made by fire. Their smell will please the Lord.

24 cups Literally, <sup>23</sup>/10 of an ephah."

8 cups Literally, <sup>21</sup>/10 of an ephah."

make ... pure Or, "make atonement." The Hebrew word means "to cover," "to hide," or "to erase sins."

Firstfruits Grain, such as wheat, and other crops that began to ripen around May and June. The first crops harvested were given to God.

blowing the trumpet Or, "shouting." This might mean that this is a day for shouting and being happy.

New Moon The first day of the Jewish month. This was a special day of worship.

The Day of Atonement

<sup>7</sup>“There will be a special meeting on the tenth day of the seventh month. During that day you must not eat any food.* And you must not do any work. <sup>8</sup>You will offer burnt offerings. They will be offerings made by fire. Their smell will please the Lord. You must offer 1 bull, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>9</sup>You must also offer 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with olive oil with the bull, 16 cups* with the ram, <sup>10</sup>and 8 cups* with each of the 7 lambs. <sup>11</sup>You will also offer 1 male goat as a sin offering. This will be in addition to the sin offering for the Day of Atonement.* This will also be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

Festival of Shelters

<sup>12</sup>“There will be a special meeting on the 15th day of the seventh month. (This will be the Festival of Shelters.)* You must not do any work on that day. You must celebrate a special holiday for the Lord for seven days. <sup>13</sup>You will offer burnt offerings. They will be offerings made by fire. Their smell will please the Lord. You will offer 13 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>14</sup>You must also offer 24 cups* of fine flour mixed with oil with each of the 13 bulls, 16 cups* with each of the 2 rams, <sup>15</sup>and 8 cups* with each of the 14 lambs. <sup>16</sup>You must also offer 1 male goat. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

During ... food Literally, “You will humble your souls.”

Day of Atonement Also called “Yom Kippur”—a very important holiday for the Jews. On this day, the high priest went into the Most Holy Place and did the ceremony that atoned (covered or erased) the sins of the people.

Festival of Shelters Also called “Succoth” or “Feast of Tabernacles.” At this time in ancient Israel, Jewish people traveled to Jerusalem and camped out in tents and temporary shelters to help them remember their time in the Sinai desert.

<sup>17</sup>“On the second day (of this holiday), you must offer 12 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>18</sup>You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bulls, rams, and lambs. <sup>19</sup>You must also offer 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

<sup>20</sup>“On the third day (of this holiday), you must offer 11 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>21</sup>You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bulls, rams, and lambs. <sup>22</sup>You must also give 1 goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

<sup>23</sup>“On the fourth day (of this holiday), you must offer 10 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>24</sup>You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bulls, rams, and lambs. <sup>25</sup>You must also give 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

<sup>26</sup>“On the fifth day (of this holiday), you must offer 9 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>27</sup>You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bulls, rams, and lambs. <sup>28</sup>You must also give 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

<sup>29</sup>“On the sixth day (of this holiday), you must offer 8 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>30</sup>You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings for the bulls, rams, and lambs. <sup>31</sup>You must also give 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

<sup>32</sup>“On the seventh day (of this holiday), you must offer 7 bulls, 2 rams, and 14 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>33</sup>You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bulls, rams, and lambs. <sup>34</sup>You must also give 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

<sup>35</sup>“The eighth day of this holiday, is a very special meeting for you. You must not do any work on that day. <sup>36</sup>You must offer a burnt offering. It will an offering made by fire. Its smell will please the Lord. You must offer 1 bull, 1 ram, and 7 lambs that are one year old. There must be nothing wrong with them. <sup>37</sup>You must also give the right amount of grain and drink offerings with the bull, ram, and lambs. <sup>38</sup>You must also give 1 male goat as a sin offering. This must be in addition to the daily sacrifice and its grain offerings and drink offerings.

<sup>39</sup>“At the special holidays you must bring your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings, and fellowship offerings. You must give those offerings to the Lord. Those offerings are in addition to any special gift you might want to give to the Lord and any offering that is part of any special promise you make.

<sup>40</sup>Moses told the people of Israel about all of the things that the Lord had commanded him.

Special Promises

30 Moses spoke with all the leaders of the Israelite family groups. Moses told them about these commands from the Lord:

<sup>1</sup>If a person wants to make a special promise to God, or if that person promises to give something special to God, then let him do that thing. But that person must do exactly what he promises!

<sup>2</sup>A young woman might still be living in her father's house. And that young woman might make a special promise to give something to the Lord. <sup>3</sup>If her father hears about the promise and agrees, then the young woman must do the thing she promised. <sup>4</sup>But if her father hears about the promise and does not agree, then she is free from her promise. She does not have to do the thing she promised. Her father stopped her, so the Lord will forgive her.

<sup>5</sup>Also, a man's wife might make a special promise to give something to the Lord. <sup>6</sup>If the husband hears about the promise and agrees, then the woman must do the thing she promised. <sup>7</sup>But if the husband hears about the promise and does not agree, then the wife does not have to do the thing she promised. Her husband broke the promise—he did not let her do the thing she said. So the Lord will forgive her.

<sup>8</sup>A widow* or a divorced woman might make a special promise. If she does, then she must do exactly what she promised. <sup>9</sup>A married woman might make a promise to give something to the Lord. <sup>10</sup>If her husband hears about the promise and lets her keep her promise, then she must do exactly what she promised. She must give everything she promised. <sup>11</sup>But if her husband hears about the promise and refuses to let her keep the promise, then she does not have to do what she promised. It does not matter what she promised, her husband can break the promise. If her husband breaks the promise, then the Lord will forgive her. <sup>12</sup>A married woman might promise to give something to the Lord, or she might promise to do without something,* or she might make some other special promise to God. The husband can stop any of those promises, and the husband can let her keep any of those promises. <sup>13</sup>How does the husband let his wife keep her promises? If he hears about the promises and does not stop them, then the woman must do exactly what she promised. <sup>14</sup>But if the husband hears about the promises and stops them, then he is responsible for breaking her promises.*

<sup>15</sup>Those are the commands that the Lord gave to Moses. Those are the commands about a man and his wife, and about a father and his daughter that is still young and living at home in her father's house.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

do without something Literally, “humble her soul.” Usually this means to make the body suffer in some way, such as by not eating food.

he is ... promises Literally, “he carries her guilt.”

Israel Fights Back Against the Midianites

31 The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, <sup>24</sup>“I will help the people of Israel get even with the Midianites. After that, Moses, you will die.*

<sup>3</sup>So Moses spoke to the people. He said, “Choose some of your men to be soldiers. The Lord will use those men to get even with the Midianites. <sup>4</sup>Choose 1,000 men from each of the family groups of Israel. <sup>5</sup>There will be a total of 12,000 soldiers from the family groups of Israel.”

<sup>14</sup>Moses was very angry against the leaders of the army. He was angry against the commanders of 1,000 men and against the commanders of 100 men that came back from the war. <sup>15</sup>Moses said to them, “Why did you let the women live? <sup>16</sup>These women will be bad for the men of Israel. The people will turn away from the Lord. It will be like the time of Balaam. It will be like at Peor. The disease will again come to the Lord’s people. <sup>17</sup>Now, kill all the Midianite boys. And kill all the Midianite women that had lived with a man. Kill all the Midianite women that had sexual relations with any man. <sup>18</sup>You can let all the young girls live—but only if they never had sexual relations with any man. <sup>19</sup>And then, all of you men that killed other people must stay outside the camp for seven days. You must stay outside the camp even if you just touched a dead body. On the third day, you and your prisoners must make yourselves pure. You must do the same thing again on the seventh day. <sup>20</sup>You must wash all of your clothes. You must wash anything made with leather, wool, or wood. You must become pure.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Eleazar the priest spoke to the soldiers. He said, “Those are the rules that the Lord gave to Moses. Those rules are about soldiers coming back from war. <sup>22,23</sup>But the rules for things that can be put in the fire are different. You must put gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, or lead into the fire. And then wash those things with water and they will be pure. If things cannot be put in fire, then you must still wash them with water. <sup>24</sup>On the seventh day you must wash all of your clothes. Then you will become pure. After that you can come into camp.”

<sup>25</sup>Then the Lord said to Moses, <sup>26</sup>“You, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders should count all of the prisoners, animals, and all of the things that the soldiers took in war. <sup>27</sup>Then divide those things between the soldiers that went to war and the rest of the people of Israel. <sup>28</sup>Take part of those things from the soldiers that went to war. That part will belong to the Lord. The Lord’s share is one thing for every 500 things. This includes people, cows, donkeys, and sheep. <sup>29</sup>Take those things from the soldiers’ half of the things they took in war. Then give those things to Eleazar the priest. That part will belong to the Lord. <sup>30</sup>And then, from the people’s half, take one thing for every 50 things. This includes people, cows, donkeys, sheep, or any other animal. Give that share to the Levites. Why? Because the Levites take care of the Lord’s Holy Tent.”

you will die Literally, “you will be gathered to your people.”

<sup>51</sup>So Moses took all of those things made from gold and gave them to Eleazar the priest. <sup>52</sup>The gold that the leaders of 1,000 men and the leaders of 100 men gave to the Lord weighed about 420 pounds.* <sup>53</sup>The soldiers kept the rest of their share of the things they took in war. <sup>54</sup>Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the leaders of 1,000 men and the leaders of 100 men. Then they put that gold in the Meeting Tent.* This present was a memorial* before the Lord for the people of Israel.

The Family Groups East of the Jordan River

32 The family groups of Reuben and Gad had many, many cows. Those people looked at the land near Jazer and Gilead. They saw that this land was good for their cows. <sup>1</sup>So the people from the family groups of Reuben and Gad came to Moses. They spoke to Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the leaders of the people. <sup>2</sup>They said, "We, your servants, have many, many cows. And the land that we have fought against is a good land for cows. This land includes the area around Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sibmah,* Nebo, and Beon. <sup>3</sup>If it pleases you, we would like this land to be given to us. Don't take us to the other side of the Jordan River."

<sup>4</sup>Moses told the people from the family groups of Reuben and Gad, "Will you let your brothers go and fight while you settle here? <sup>5</sup>Why are you trying to discourage the people of Israel? You will make them not want to cross the river and take the land that the Lord has given to them! <sup>6</sup>Your fathers did the same thing to me. In Kadesh Barnea I sent spies to look at the land. <sup>7</sup>Those men went as far as Eshcol Valley. They saw the land. And those men discouraged the people of Israel. Those men made the people of Israel not want to go into the land that the Lord had given to them. <sup>8</sup>The Lord became very angry at the people. The Lord made this promise: <sup>9</sup>"None of the people that came from Egypt and that are 20 years old or older will be allowed to see this land. I made a promise to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I promised to give this land to these people. But they have not truly followed me. (So they will not get this land). <sup>10</sup>Only Caleb son of Jephuneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun truly followed the Lord!"

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel came to meet with God.

memorial Something that helps people remember things that happened in the past.

Sibmah Or, "Sebam."

make ... pure Or, "make atonement." The Hebrew word means "to cover," "to hide," or "to erase sins."

420 pounds Literally, "16,750 shekels."

<sup>13</sup>“The Lord was very angry against the people of Israel. So the Lord made the people stay in the desert for 40 years. The Lord made them stay there until all the people that had sinned against the Lord were dead. <sup>14</sup>And now you are doing the same thing that your fathers did. You sinful people, do you want the Lord to be even more angry against his people? <sup>15</sup>If you quit following the Lord, then the Lord will make Israel stay even longer in the desert. Then you will destroy all of these people!”

<sup>16</sup>But the people from Reuben’s and Gad’s family groups, went to Moses. They said, “We will build cities for our children and barns for our animals here. <sup>17</sup>Then our children can be safe from the other people that live in this land. But we will gladly come and help the other people of Israel. We will bring them to their land. <sup>18</sup>We will not come back home until everyone in Israel has taken his part of the land. <sup>19</sup>We won’t take any of the land west of the Jordan River. No! Our part of the land is east of the Jordan River.”

<sup>25</sup>Then the people from the family groups of Gad and Reuben said to Moses, “We are your servants. You are our master. So we will do what you say. <sup>26</sup>Our wives, children, and all our animals will stay in the Gilead cities. <sup>27</sup>But we, your servants, will cross the Jordan River. We will march before the Lord into battle, like our master says.”

<sup>28</sup>So Moses, Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and all the leaders of the family groups of Israel heard them make that promise. <sup>29</sup>Moses said to them, “The people of Gad and Reuben will cross the Jordan River. They will march before the Lord into battle. They will help you take the land. And you will give the land of Gilead as their part of the country. <sup>30</sup>They promise to help you take the land of Canaan.”

<sup>31</sup>The people of Gad and Reuben answered, “We promise to do what the Lord commanded. <sup>32</sup>We will cross the Jordan River, and march before the Lord into the land of Canaan. And our part of the country is the land east of the Jordan River.”

<sup>33</sup>So Moses gave that land to the people of Gad, to the people of Reuben, and to half of Manasseh’s family group. (Manasseh was Joseph’s son.) That land included the kingdom of Sihon the Amorite and the kingdom of Og, king of Bashan. That land included all the cities around that area.

<sup>39</sup>People from Makir’s family group, went to Gilead. (Makir was Manasseh’s son.) They defeated the city. They defeated the Amorites that lived there. <sup>40</sup>So Moses gave Gilead to Makir from Manasseh’s family group. So his family settled there. <sup>41</sup>Jair, from the family of Manasseh, defeated the small towns there. Then he called them Towns of Jair. <sup>42</sup> Nobah defeated Kenath and the small towns near it. Then he called that place by his own name.

Israel's Journey from Egypt

33 Moses and Aaron led the people of Israel out of Egypt in groups.* Here are the places they traveled. <sup>2</sup>Moses wrote about the places they traveled. Moses wrote the things that the Lord wanted. Here are the places they traveled and when they left:

<sup>3</sup>On the 15th day of the first month, they left Rameses. That morning after Passover, the people of Israel marched out of Egypt with their arms raised in victory. All the people of Egypt saw them. <sup>4</sup>The Egyptians were burying all of the people that the Lord killed. They were burying all of their firstborn* sons. The Lord had shown his judgment against the gods* of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>The people left Marah and went to Elim and camped there. There were 12 springs of water and 70 palm trees there.

land of Canaan. The Canaanite king in that place heard that the people of Israel were coming. <sup>41</sup>The people left Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.

<sup>50</sup>At that place, the Lord spoke to Moses. He said, <sup>51</sup>“Speak to the people of Israel. Tell them these things: You will cross the Jordan River. You will go into the land of Canaan. <sup>52</sup>You will take the land from the people you find there. You must destroy all of their carved statues and idols. You must destroy all of their high places.* <sup>53</sup>You will take the land and you will settle there. Why? Because I am giving this land to you. It will belong to your families. <sup>54</sup>Each of your families will get part of the land. You will throw lots* to decide which family gets each part of the country. Large families will get large parts of the land. Small families will get small parts of the land. The lots will show which family gets which part of the land. Each family group will get its part of the land.

<sup>55</sup>You must force those other people to leave the country. If you let those people stay in your country, then they will bring many troubles to you. They will be like stickers in your eyes and they will be like thorns in your side. They will bring many troubles to the country where you will be living. <sup>56</sup>I showed you what I would do—and I will do that to you if you let those people stay in your country.

The Borders of Canaan

34 The Lord spoke to Moses. He said, <sup>2</sup>“Give this command to the people of Israel: You are coming to the land of Canaan. You will defeat this country. You will take the whole land of Canaan. <sup>3</sup>On the south, you will get part of the Zin desert near Edom. Your southern border will start at the southern end of the Dead Sea. <sup>4</sup>It will cross south of Scorpion Pass. It will go through the Zin desert to Kadesh Barnea, and then to Hazar Addar and then it will pass through Azmon. <sup>5</sup>From Azmon, the border will go to the River of Egypt, and it will end at the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>6</sup>Your western border will be the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>7</sup>Your northern border will begin at the Mediterranean Sea and go to Mount Hor (in Lebanon). <sup>8</sup>From Mount Hor, it will go to Lebo-Hamath, and then to Zedad. <sup>9</sup>Then that border will go to Ziphron and it will end at Hazar Enan. So that will be your northern border. <sup>10</sup>Your eastern border will begin at Enan and it will go to Shepham. <sup>11</sup>From Shepham, the border will go east of Ain to Riblah. The border will continue along the hills by Lake Galilee.* <sup>12</sup>Then the border will continue along the Jordan River. It will end at the Dead Sea. Those are the borders around your country.”

<sup>13</sup>So Moses gave this command to the people of Israel: That is the land that you will get. You will throw lots* to divide the land among the ten family groups and half of Manasseh’s family group. <sup>14</sup>Reuben’s and Gad’s family groups, and half of Manasseh’s family group have already taken their land. <sup>15</sup>Those two and a half family groups took the land near Jericho—they took the land east of the Jordan River.”

high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were usually on the hills and mountains.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

Lake Galilee Literally, “Kinnereth Lake.”

<sup>16</sup>Then the Lord spoke to Moses. He said, <sup>17</sup>“These are the men that will help you divide the land: Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, <sup>18</sup>and the leaders of all the family groups. There will be one leader from each family group.
Those men will divide the land. <sup>19</sup>These are the names of the leaders:

- from Judah’s family group—Caleb son of Jephunneh;
- <sup>20</sup> from Simeon’s family group—Shemuel
son of Ammihud;
- <sup>21</sup> from Benjamin’s family group—Elidad son of Kislon;
- <sup>22</sup> from Dan’s family group—Bukki son of Jogli;
- <sup>23</sup> from Manasseh’s family group—Hanniel son of Ephod;
(Mannasseh was one of Joseph’s sons.)
- <sup>24</sup> from Ephraim’s family group—Kemuel son of Shiptan;
(Ephraim was one of Joseph’s sons.)
- <sup>25</sup> from Zebulun’s family group—Elizaphan son of Parnach;
- <sup>26</sup> from Issachar’s family group—Paltiel son of Azzan;
- <sup>27</sup> from Asher’s family group—Ahihud son of Shelomi;
- <sup>28</sup> from Naphtali’s family group—Pedahel
son of Ammihud.”

<sup>29</sup>The Lord chose those men to divide the land of Canaan among the people of Israel.

The Levites’ Towns

35 The Lord spoke to Moses. This was in the Jordan Valley in Moab, near the Jordan River, across from Jericho. The Lord said. <sup>2</sup>“Tell the people of Israel that they should give some of the cities in their part of the land to the Levites. The people of Israel should give those cities and the pastures around them to the Levites. <sup>3</sup>The Levites will be able to live in those cities. And all the cows and other animals that belong to the Levites will be able to eat from the pastures around those cities. <sup>4</sup>How much of your land should you give to the Levites? From the walls of the cities, go out

1,500 feet*—all of that land will belong to the Levites. <sup>5</sup>Also, all of the land 3,000 feet* east of the city, and 3,000 feet south of the city, and 3,000 feet west of the city, and 3,000 feet north of the city will belong to the Levites. (The city will be in the middle of all that land.) <sup>6</sup>Six of those cities will be cities of safety. If a person accidentally kills someone, then that person can run to those towns for safety. In addition to those six cities, you will also give 42 more cities to the Levites. <sup>7</sup>So you will give a total of 48 cities to the Levites. You will also give them the land around those cities. <sup>8</sup>The large families of Israel will get large pieces of land. The small families of Israel will get small pieces of land.
But all of the family groups, must give some of the cities in their part of the country to the Levites.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the Lord spoke to Moses. He said, <sup>10</sup>“Tell the people these things: You people will cross the Jordan River and go into the land of Canaan. <sup>11</sup>You must choose towns to be cities of safety. If a person accidentally kills another person, then that person can run to one of those cities for safety. <sup>12</sup>That person will be safe from anyone from the dead man’s family that wants to get even. That person will be safe until he is judged in court. <sup>13</sup>There will be six cities of safety. <sup>14</sup>Three of those cities will be east of the Jordan River. And three of those cities will be in the land of Canaan, west of the Jordan River. <sup>15</sup>Those cities will be places of safety for citizens of Israel, and for foreigners and travelers. Any of those people will be able to run to one of those cities if he accidentally kills someone.

<sup>16</sup>“If a person uses an iron weapon* to kill someone, then that person must die. <sup>17</sup>And if a person takes a rock and kills someone, then that person must die. (But the rock must be the size of rock that would normally be used for killing people.) <sup>18</sup>And if a person uses a piece of wood

1,500 feet Literally, “1,000 cubits.” The people probably let their sheep and cows use this land.

3,000 feet Literally, “2,000 cubits.” The Levites probably used this land for gardens and vineyards.

iron weapon This shows the murderer chose a weapon he knew could kill the other person.

and kills someone, then that person must die. (The piece of wood must be a weapon that people normally use for killing people.) <sup>19</sup>A member of the dead man's family* can chase that murderer and kill him.

<sup>20-21</sup>"A person might hit someone with his hand and kill him. Or a person might push someone and kill him. Or a person might throw something at someone and kill him. If the killer did that from hate, then he is a murderer. That person must be killed. A member of the dead man's family* can chase that murderer and kill him.

<sup>22</sup>"But a person might accidentally kill someone. That person didn't hate the person he killed—it was only an accident. Or a person might throw something and accidentally kill someone—he didn't plan to kill anyone. <sup>23</sup>Or a person might throw a rock. And that rock might fall on someone that person didn't see and the rock might kill that person. That person didn't plan to kill anyone. That person didn't hate the person he killed—it was only an accident. <sup>24</sup>If that happens, then the community must decide what to do. The community's court must decide if a member of the dead man's family* can kill that person. <sup>25</sup>If the court decides to let the killer live, then that person must go to his city of safety. He must stay there until the high priest dies—this must be the high priest that was anointed* with the holy oil.

<sup>26-27</sup>"That man must never go outside the limits of his city of safety. If he goes outside those limits, and if a member of the dead man's family* catches him and kills him, then that member won't be guilty of murder. <sup>28</sup>The person that accidentally killed someone must stay in his city of safety until the high priest dies. After the high priest dies, that person can go back to his own land. <sup>29</sup>Those rules will be the law forever in all of the towns of your people.

<sup>30</sup>"A killer should be put to death as a murderer only if there are witnesses. No person can be put to death if there is only one witness.

<sup>31</sup>"If a person is a murderer, then he must be put to death. Don't take money and change his punishment. That murderer must be killed.

<sup>32</sup>"If a person killed someone and then ran to one of the cities of safety, then don't take money to let him go home. That person must stay in that city until the high priest dies.

<sup>33</sup>"Don't let your land be ruined with innocent blood. If a person murders someone, then the only payment for that crime is that the murderer must be killed! There is no other payment that will free the land from that crime.

<sup>34</sup>I am the Lord! I will be living in your country with the people of Israel. I will be living there, so don't make it unclean* with the blood of innocent people."

The Land of Zelophehad's Daughters

36 Manasseh was Joseph's son. Makir was Manasseh's son.* Gilead was Makir's son. The leaders of Gilead's family went to talk to Moses and the leaders of Israel's family groups. <sup>2</sup>They said, "Sir, the Lord commanded us to get our land by throwing lots.* And sir, the Lord commanded Zelophehad's land be given to his daughters. Zelophehad was our brother. <sup>3</sup>Maybe a man from one of the other family groups will marry one of Zelophehad's daughters. Will that land leave our family? Will the people of that other family group get that land? Will we lose the land that we got by throwing lots? <sup>4</sup>People might sell their land. But, in the Jubilee year,* all of the land is returned to the family group that really owns it. At that time, who will get

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

Makir ... son Or, "Makir was from Manasseh's family group."

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

Jubilee year See Lev. 25 for the rules the Jews were to follow during this special time.

member ... family Literally, "the blood avenger."

Usually, this was a friend or family member that would chase a dead man's murderer and kill him.

anoint Here, this means to pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be the priest on duty.

the land that belongs to Zelophehad's daughters? If that happens, then our family will lose that land forever."

person will keep the land that belonged to his ancestors. <sup>9</sup>So, the land must not be passed: from family group to family group among the people of Israel. Each Israelite will keep the land that belonged to his own ancestors."

<sup>13</sup>So those were the laws and commands that the Lord gave to Moses in the Jordan Valley in Moab. This was by the Jordan River, across from Jericho.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Deuteronomy

Moses Talks to the People of Israel

1 This is the message that Moses gave the people of Israel. He told them these things when they were in the Jordan Valley, in the desert east of the Jordan River. This was across from Suph, between the desert of Paran and the cities Tophel, Laban, Hazereth, and Dizahab.

<sup>2</sup>The trip from Mount Horeb (Sinai) through the Seir mountains to Kadesh Barnea takes only eleven days. <sup>3</sup>But it was 40 years from the time the people of Israel left Egypt until the time they came to this place. On the first day of the eleventh month of the 40th year, Moses spoke to the people. Moses told them all the things the Lord commanded. <sup>4</sup>This was after the Lord defeated Sihon and Og. (Sihon was the king of the Amorite people. Sihon lived in Heshbon. Og was the king of Bashan. Og lived in Ashtaroth and Edrei.) <sup>5</sup>The people of Israel were on the east side of the Jordan River in the land of Moab, and Moses began to explain the things that God commanded. Moses said:

<sup>6</sup>“At Mount Horeb (Sinai) the Lord our God spoke to us. He said, ‘You have stayed at this mountain long enough. <sup>7</sup>Go to the hill country where the Amorite people live. Go to all the places around there. Go to the Jordan Valley, the hill country, the western slopes, the Negev,* and the seacoast. Go to the land of Canaan. And go to Lebanon. Go as far as the great river, the Euphrates. <sup>8</sup>Look, I am giving you that land. Go and take it. I promised to give that land to your ancestors*—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I promised to give that land to them and to their descendants.*<sup>9</sup>”

Moses Chooses Leaders

<sup>9</sup>Moses said, “At that time I told you: I can’t take care of you by myself. <sup>10</sup>And now, there are even more of you! The Lord your God has added more and more people, so that today you are as many as the stars in the sky! <sup>11</sup>May the Lord, the God of your ancestors,* make you 1,000 times more than you are now! May he bless you like he promised! <sup>12</sup>But I couldn’t take care of you and solve all your arguments by myself. <sup>13</sup>So, I told you: ‘Choose some men from each family group, and I will make them leaders over you. Choose wise men that have understanding and experience.’

<sup>15</sup>“So I took the wise and experienced men you chose from your family groups, and I made them your leaders. In this way, I gave you leaders over 1,000 people, leaders over 100 people, leaders over 50 people, leaders over 10 people, and I gave you officers for your family groups.

<sup>16</sup>“At that time, I told the judges, ‘Listen to the arguments between your people. Be fair when you judge each case. It does not matter if the problem is between two Israelite people or

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

between an Israelite and a foreigner. You must judge each case fairly. <sup>17</sup>When you judge, you must not think that one person is more important than another person. You must judge every person the same. Don't be afraid of anyone, because your decision is from God. But if there is a case too hard for you to judge, then bring it to me and I will judge it. <sup>18</sup>At that same time, I also told you all the other things you must do.

The Spies Go to Canaan

<sup>19</sup>"Then we obeyed the Lord our God. We left Mount Horeb (Sinai) and traveled toward the hill country of the Amorite people. We went through that big and terrible desert that you saw. We came to Kadesh Barnea. <sup>20</sup>Then I said to you, 'You have now come to the hill country of the Amorites. The Lord our God will give us this country. <sup>21</sup>Look, there it is! Go up and take the land for your own! The Lord, the God of your ancestors,* told you to do this. So don't be afraid. Don't worry about anything!'

<sup>22</sup>"But you all came to me and said, 'Let's send some men to look at the land first. They can look for all the strong and weak places there. Then they can come back and tell us the way we should go. They can also tell us about the cities we will come to.'

<sup>23</sup>"I thought that was a good idea. So I chose twelve men from among you, one man from each family group. <sup>24</sup>Then those men left and went up to the hill country. They came to the Valley of Eshcol and explored it. <sup>25</sup>They took some of the fruit from that land and brought it back to us. They told us about the land. They said, 'The Lord our God is giving us a good land!'

<sup>26</sup>"But you refused to go into the land. You refused to obey the Lord your God. <sup>27</sup>You went to your tents and began to complain. You said, 'The Lord hates us! He brought us out of the land of Egypt just to let the Amorite people destroy us! <sup>28</sup>Where can we go now? Our brothers (the twelve spies) have made us afraid with their report. They said: The people there are bigger and taller than we are! The cities are big and have walls as high as the sky! And we saw giants* there!'

<sup>29</sup>"So I said to you, 'Don't be upset! Don't be afraid of those people! <sup>30</sup>The Lord your God will go before you and fight for you. He will do this the same as he did in Egypt. You saw him go before you there <sup>31</sup>and in the desert. You saw how the Lord your God carried you, like a man carries his son. The Lord brought you safely all the way to this place.'

<sup>32</sup>"But you still did not trust the Lord your God! <sup>33</sup>When you were traveling, he went before you to find a place for you to put your camp. He went before you in a fire by night and in a cloud by day to show you which way you should go.

People Not Allowed to Enter Canaan

<sup>34</sup>"The Lord heard what you said, and he became angry. He made a strong promise. He said, <sup>35</sup>'None of you evil people that are living now will go into the good land that I promised to your ancestors.* <sup>36</sup>Only Caleb son of Jephunneh will see that land. I will give Caleb the land he walked on. And I will give that land to Caleb's descendants.* Why? Because Caleb did all that I commanded.'

People Not Allowed to Enter Canaan

<sup>37</sup>"The Lord was also angry with me because of you. He said to me, 'Moses, you can't enter the land, either. <sup>38</sup>But your helper, Joshua son of Nun will go into the land. Encourage Joshua, because he will lead the people of Israel to take the land for their own.'

<sup>39</sup>"And the Lord said to us, 'You said your little children would be taken by your enemies. But those children will go into the land. I don't blame your children for your mistake, because, they are still too young to know if something is right or wrong. So I will give the land to them. Your children will take the land for their own. <sup>40</sup>But you—you must turn around and go back to the desert on the road that leads to the Red Sea.'

<sup>41</sup>"Then you said, 'Moses, we have sinned against the Lord. But now we will go and fight, like the Lord our God commanded us before.' Then each of you put on your weapons. You thought it would be easy to go and take the hill country.

<sup>42</sup>"But the Lord said to me, 'Tell the people not to go up there and fight. Why? Because I will not be with them, and their enemies will defeat them!'

<sup>43</sup>"I spoke to you, but you did not listen. You refused to obey the Lord's command. You thought you could use your own power. So you went up into the hill country. <sup>44</sup>But the Amorite people that live there came out to fight against you. They were like a swarm of bees chasing you. They chased you all the way from Seir to Hormah. <sup>45</sup>Then you came back and cried to the Lord for help. But the Lord refused to listen to you. <sup>46</sup>So you stayed at Kadesh a long time.

Israel Wanders through the Desert

2 "Then we went back into the desert on the road that leads to the Red Sea. That is what the Lord told me to do. We traveled around the Seir* mountains for a long time. <sup>2</sup>Then the Lord said to me, <sup>3</sup>"You have traveled around these mountains long enough. Turn north. 'Tell these things to the people: You will pass through the land of Seir. This land belongs to your relatives, the descendants* of Esau. They will be afraid of you. Be very careful. <sup>5</sup>Don't fight them. I will not give you any of their land—not even a foot of it. Why? Because I gave the hill country of Seir to Esau to keep as his own. <sup>6</sup>You must pay the people of Esau for any food you eat or water you drink there. <sup>7</sup>Remember that the Lord your God has blessed you in everything you have done. He knows about your walking through this great desert. The Lord your God has been with you these 40 years. You have always had everything you needed.'

<sup>8</sup>"So we passed by our relatives, the people of Esau that live there in Seir. We left the road that leads from the Jordan Valley to the towns of Elath and Ezion-geber. We turned and went on the road that goes to the desert in Moab.

The Land of Ar

<sup>9</sup>"The Lord said to me, 'Don't bother the people of Moab. Don't start a war against them. I will not give you any of their land. They are the descendants of Lot,* and I gave them the city of Ar.'"

<sup>10</sup>(In the past, the Emite people lived in Ar. They were strong people, and there were many of them. They were very tall, like the Anakite* people. <sup>11</sup>The Anakites were part of the Rephaite people. People thought the Emites were also Rephaites. But the people of Moab called them Emites. <sup>12</sup>The Horite people also lived in Seir before, but Esau's people took their land. Esau's people destroyed the Horites and settled on their land. That is the same thing the people of Israel did to the people in the land that the Lord gave them for their own.)

<sup>13</sup>"The Lord told me, 'Now, go to the other side of Zered Valley.' So we crossed Zered Valley. <sup>14</sup>It was 38 years from the time we left Kadesh Barnea until the time we crossed Zered Valley. All the fighting men of that generation died. The Lord said this would happen. <sup>15</sup>The Lord continued to be against those men until they were all gone.

<sup>16</sup>"When all the fighting men were dead and gone, <sup>17</sup>the Lord said to me, <sup>18</sup>"Today you must cross the border at Ar and go into Moab. <sup>19</sup>You will go near the Ammonite people. Don't bother them. Don't fight with them, because I will not give you their land. Why? Because they are descendants* of Lot, and I have given that land to them.'" descendants of Lot Lot's sons were Moab and Ammon. See Gen. 19:30-38.

Anakite(s) Descendants of Anak, a family famous for tall and powerful fighting men. See Num. 13:33.

Seir Another name for Edom.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

<sup>20</sup>(That country is also known as the Land of Rephaim. The Rephaite people lived there in the past. The people of Ammon called them the Zamzummites. <sup>21</sup>There were many Zamzummites, and they were very strong. They were tall, like the Anakite* people. But the Lord helped the Ammonite people destroy the Zamzummites. The Ammonite people took that land and live there now. <sup>22</sup>God did the same thing for Esau's people. In the past, the Horite people lived in Seir (Edom). But Esau's people destroyed the Horites, and now Esau's descendants live there even today. <sup>23</sup>God did the same thing for some people from Crete. The Avvite people lived in the towns around Gaza. But some people came from Crete and destroyed the Avvites. Those people from Crete took that land and live there now.)

Fighting the Amorite People

<sup>24</sup>"The Lord told me, 'Get ready to travel. Go across Amon Valley. I will let you defeat Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon. I will let you take his country. So fight against him and take his land. <sup>25</sup>Today I will make all people everywhere afraid of you. They will hear the news about you, and they will be upset and shake with fear.'

<sup>26</sup>"From the desert of Kedemoth I sent messengers to Sihon, king of Heshbon. The messengers offered peace to Sihon. They said, <sup>27</sup>'Let us go through your land. We will stay on the road. We will not turn off the road to the right or to the left. <sup>28</sup>We will pay you in silver for any food we eat or any water we drink. We only want to march through your country. <sup>29</sup>Let us go through your land until we go across the Jordan River into the land that the Lord our God is giving us. Other people have let us go through their land—the people of Esau that live in Seir and the Moabite people that live in Ar.'

<sup>30</sup>"But Sihon, king of Heshbon, would not let us pass through his country. The Lord your God had made him very stubborn. The Lord did this so he could let you defeat King Sihon. And today, we know that really happened!

<sup>31</sup>"The Lord said to me, 'I am giving King Sihon and his country to you. Now, go take his land!'

<sup>32</sup>"Then King Sihon and all his people came out to fight against us at Jahaz. <sup>33</sup>But the Lord our God gave him to us. We defeated King Sihon, his sons, and all his people. <sup>34</sup>We captured all the cities that belonged to King Sihon at that time. We fully destroyed the people in every city—the men, women, and children. We did not leave anyone alive! <sup>35</sup>We took only the cows and the valuable things from those cities. <sup>36</sup>We defeated the town of Aroer on the edge of the Amon Valley and the other town in the middle of that valley. The Lord let us defeat all the cities between the Amon Valley and Gilead. No city was too strong for us. <sup>37</sup>But you did not go near the land that belongs to the people of Ammon. You did not go near the shores of the Jabbok River or the cities of the hill country. You did not go near any place that the Lord our God would not let us have.

Fighting the People of Bashan

3 "We turned and went on the road to Bashan. Og, the king of Bashan, and all his men came out to fight against us at Edrei. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said to me, 'Don't be afraid of Og. I have decided to give him to you. I will give you all his men and his land. You will defeat him the same as you did Sihon the Amorite king that ruled in Heshbon.'

<sup>3</sup>"So the Lord our God let us defeat Og, king of Bashan. We destroyed him and all his men. None of them were left. <sup>4</sup>Then we took all the cities that belonged to Og at that time. We took all the cities from Og's people—60 cities in the area of Argob, Og's kingdom in Bashan. <sup>5</sup>All these cities were very strong. They had high walls, gates, and strong bars on the gates. There were also many towns that did not have walls. <sup>6</sup>We destroyed them the same as we destroyed the cities of Sihon king of Heshbon. We fully destroyed every city and all the people in them, even the women and the babies. <sup>7</sup>But we kept all the cows and the valuable things from the cities for ourselves.

Anakite(s) Descendants of Anak, a family famous for tall and powerful fighting men. See Num. 13:33.

<sup>8</sup>“That is the way we took the land from the two Amorite kings. We took the land that is on the east side of the Jordan River. This land is from the Arnon Valley to Mount Hermon. <sup>9</sup>(The people from Sidon call Mount Hermon Sirion. But the Amorites called it Senir.) <sup>10</sup>We took all the cities in the high plain and all of Gilead. We took all of Bashan, all the way to Salecah and Edrei. Salecah and Edrei were cities of Og’s kingdom of Bashan.”

<sup>11</sup>Og was the king of Bashan. Og was one of the few Rephaite people that still lived. Og’s bed was made from iron. It was over 13 feet long and 6 feet wide.* The bed is still in the city of Rabbah, where the Ammonite people live.)

The Land East of the Jordan River

<sup>12</sup>“So, at that time, we took this land to be ours. I gave part of this land to the families groups of Reuben and Gad. I gave them the land from Aroer in the Arnon Valley to the hill country of Gilead with the cities in it. They got half of the hill country of Gilead. <sup>13</sup>I gave the other half of Gilead and the whole area of Bashan to half of the family group of Manasseh.”

(Bashan was Og’s kingdom. Part of Bashan was called Argob. It was also called the Land of Rephaim. <sup>14</sup>Jair, from the family group of Manasseh, took the whole area of Argob (Bashan). That area went all the way to the border of the Geshurite people and the Maacathite people. That area was named for Jair. So even today, people call Bashan the Towns of Jair.)

north of this area and the Dead Sea* (the Salt Sea) is to the south. It is at the bottom of the cliffs of Pisgah. They are to the east.

<sup>18</sup>“At that time I gave those family groups this command: ‘The Lord your God has given you the land on this side of the Jordan River to live in. But now your fighting men must take their weapons and lead the other Israelite family groups across the river. <sup>19</sup>Your wives, your little children, and your cows (I know you have many cows) will stay here in the cities I have given you. <sup>20</sup>But you must help your Israelite relatives until they take the land that the Lord is giving them on the other side of the Jordan River. Help them until the Lord gives them peace there, the same as you have peace here. Then you may come back to this land that I have given you.’

<sup>21</sup>“Then I told Joshua, ‘You have seen all the things the Lord your God has done to these two kings. The Lord will do the same thing to all the kingdoms you will enter. <sup>22</sup>Don’t fear the kings of these lands, because the Lord your God will fight for you.’

Moses Can’t Enter Canaan

<sup>23</sup>“I begged the Lord at that time. I said, <sup>24</sup>“Lord my Master, I am your servant. I know that you have shown me only a small part of the wonderful and powerful things you will do. There is no god in heaven or on earth that can do the great and powerful things you have done! <sup>25</sup>I ask you to let me go across the Jordan River and see the good land that is on the other side. Let me see the beautiful hill country and Lebanon.’

<sup>26</sup>“But the Lord was angry at me because of you. He refused to listen to me. The Lord said to me, ‘That’s enough! Don’t talk to me any more about this. <sup>27</sup>Go up to the top of Mount Pisgah. Look to the west, to the north, to the south, and to the east. You may see these things with your eyes, but you can never go across the Jordan River. <sup>28</sup>You must give instructions to Joshua. Encourage and give him strength. Why? Because Joshua must lead the people across the Jordan River. Joshua must lead them to take the land and live in it. This is the land that you will see.'

13 ... wide Literally, “9 cubits long and 4 cubits wide, following the measure of a man’s cubit.”

Lake Galilee Literally, “Kinnereth Lake.”

Dead Sea Literally, “Arabah Sea.”

<sup>20</sup>"So we stayed in the valley on the other side of Beth Peor.

Moses Tells the People to Obey God's Laws

4 "Now, Israel, listen to the laws and to the commands that I teach you. Obey them and you will live. Then you can go in and take the land that the Lord, the God of your ancestors,* is giving you. <sup>2</sup>You must not add to the things that I command you. And you must not take anything away. You must obey the commands of the Lord your God that I have given you.

<sup>3</sup>"You have seen what the Lord did at Baal Peor. The Lord your God destroyed all your people that followed the false god Baal* at that place. 'But all of you that stayed with the Lord your God are alive today.

<sup>5</sup>"Look, I taught you the laws and rules that the Lord my God commanded me. I taught you these laws so that you can obey them in the land you are ready to enter and take for your own. 'Obey these laws carefully. This will show the people of the other nations that you have wisdom and understanding. When the people of those nations hear all these laws, they will say, 'Truly, the people of this great nation (Israel) are wise and understanding.'

<sup>7</sup>"The Lord our God is near when we ask him to help us. No other nation has a god like that! <sup>8</sup>And no other nation is great enough to have laws and rules as good as the teachings I give you today. <sup>9</sup>But you must be careful! Be sure that as long as you live you never forget the things you have seen. You must teach those things to your children and grandchildren. <sup>10</sup>Remember the day you stood before the Lord your God at Mount Horeb (Sinai). The Lord said to me, 'Bring together the people to listen to the things I say. Then they will learn to respect me all the time they live on earth. And they will teach these things to their children.' <sup>11</sup>You came near and stood at the bottom of the mountain. The mountain burned with fire that reached up to the sky. There were thick black clouds and darkness. <sup>12</sup>Then the Lord spoke to you from the fire. You heard the sound of someone speaking, but you did not see any form. There was only a voice. <sup>13</sup>The Lord told you his Agreement. He told you the Ten Commandments and commanded you to follow them. The Lord wrote those laws of the Agreement on two stone tablets. <sup>14</sup>At that time, the Lord also commanded me to teach you laws and rules. Those are the laws you must follow in the land you are going to take and live in.

<sup>15</sup>"On the day the Lord spoke to you from the fire at Mount Horeb (Sinai), you did not see him—there was no shape for God. <sup>16</sup>So be careful! Don't sin and destroy yourselves by making a false god or a statue in the shape of any living thing. Don't make an idol that looks like a man or a woman. <sup>17</sup>Don't make an idol that looks like an animal on the earth or like a bird that flies in the sky. <sup>18</sup>And don't make an idol that looks like anything that crawls on the ground or like a fish in the sea. <sup>19</sup>And be careful when you look up to the sky and see the sun, the moon, and the stars—all the many things in the sky. Be careful that you are not tempted to worship and serve those things. The Lord your God let the other people in the world do those things. <sup>20</sup>But the Lord brought you out of Egypt. Egypt made life hard for you—Egypt was like a furnace for melting iron. But the Lord brought you out of Egypt to make you his own people. And you are his people!

<sup>21</sup>"The Lord became angry at me because of you. He made a special promise. The Lord said that I could not go across the Jordan River. He told me that I could not go into the good land that the Lord your God is giving you. <sup>22</sup>So I must die here in this land. I can't go across the Jordan River. But you will soon go across and take that good land to live in. <sup>23</sup>In that new land, you must be careful that you don't forget the Agreement the Lord your God made with you. You must obey the Lord's command. Don't make any idols in any form! <sup>24</sup>Why?

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Baal A false god that the Canaanite people worshiped.

Because the Lord your God hates his people worshipping other gods. And the Lord can be like a fire that destroys!

<sup>24</sup>“You will live in the country a long time. You will have children and grandchildren there. You will grow old there. Don’t make any idols! If you do that, then you will make God very angry! <sup>25</sup>I am warning you now. Heaven and earth are my witnesses! If you do that evil thing, then you will quickly be destroyed! You are crossing the Jordan River now to take that land. But if you make any idols, then will not live there very long. No, you will be fully destroyed! <sup>27</sup>The Lord will scatter you among the nations. And only a few of you will be left alive to go to the countries where the Lord will send you. <sup>28</sup>There you will serve gods made by men—things made of wood and stone that can’t see, or hear, or eat, or smell! <sup>29</sup>But there in these other lands you will look for the Lord your God. If you look for him with all your heart and soul, then you will find him. <sup>30</sup>When you are in trouble—when all those things happen to you—then you will come back to the Lord your God and obey him. <sup>31</sup>The Lord your God is a merciful God! He will not fail you. He will not destroy you completely. He will not forget the Agreement that he made with your ancestors.*

Think About the Great Things God Did

<sup>32</sup>“Has anything this great ever happened before? Never! Look at the past. Think about all the things that happened before you were born. Go all the way back to the time God made people on the earth. Look at all the things that have ever happened anywhere in the world. Has anyone ever heard about anything as great as this? No! <sup>33</sup>You people heard God speaking to you from a fire, and you are still alive! Has that ever happened to anyone else? No! <sup>34</sup>And has any other god ever tried to go and take a people for himself from inside another nation? No! But you yourselves have seen the Lord your God do all these wonderful things! He showed you his power and strength. You saw the troubles that tested the people. You saw miracles and wonders. You saw war and the terrible things that happened. <sup>35</sup>The Lord showed you these things so that you would know that he is God. There is no other god like him! <sup>36</sup>The Lord let you hear his voice from heaven so that he could teach you a lesson. On earth he let you see his great fire, and he spoke to you from it.

<sup>37</sup>“The Lord loved your ancestors.* That is why he chose you, their descendants.* And that is why the Lord brought you out of Egypt. He was with you and brought you out with his great power. <sup>38</sup>When you moved forward, the Lord forced out nations before you. These nations were greater and more powerful than you. But the Lord brought you into their land. He gave you their land to live in. And this land is still yours today.

<sup>39</sup>“So today you must remember and accept that the Lord is God. He is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other God! <sup>40</sup>And you must obey his laws and commands that I give you today. Then everything will go well with you and with your children that live after you. And you will live a long time in the land the Lord your God is giving you—it will be yours forever!”

Moses Chooses the Cities of Safety

<sup>41</sup>Then Moses chose three cities on the east side of the Jordan River. <sup>42</sup>If a person killed another person accidentally, he could run away to one of those three cities and be safe. If he did not hate the person he killed and did not want to kill him, then he could go to one of these cities and not be punished by death. <sup>43</sup>The three cities that Moses chose were: Bezer in the high plains for Reuben’s family group; Ramoth in Gilead for Gad’s family group; and Golan in Bashan for Manasseh’s family group.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

Introduction to the Law of Moses

“Moses gave God’s law to the people of Israel. “Moses gave these teachings, laws, and rules to the people after they came out from Egypt. “Moses gave them these laws while they were on the east side of the Jordan River, in the valley across from Beth Peor. They were in the land of Sihon, the Amorite king that lived at Heshbon. (Moses and the people of Israel had defeated Sihon when they came out of Egypt. “They took Sihon’s land to keep. They also took the land of Og, king of Bashan. These two Amorite kings lived on the east side of the Jordan River. “This land goes from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley all the way to Mount Sirion* (Mount Hermon). “This land also included all the Jordan Valley on the east side of the Jordan River. To the south, this land reached to the Dead Sea.* To the east, it reached to the foot of Mount Pisgah.)

The Ten Commandments

5 Moses called together all the people of Israel and said to them, “People of Israel, listen to the laws and rules that I tell you today! Learn these laws, and be sure to obey them. <sup>2</sup>The Lord our God made an agreement with us at Mount Horeb (Sinai). <sup>3</sup>The Lord did not make this agreement with our ancestors,* with us—yes, with all of us that are here alive today. “The Lord spoke with you face to face at that mountain. He spoke to you from the fire. <sup>3</sup>But you were afraid of the fire. And you did not go up the mountain. So I stood between the Lord and you to tell you what the Lord said. The Lord said: “I am the Lord your God. I led you out of Egypt where you were slaves. „So you must obey these commands:„

So on that day no person should work—not you, your sons and daughters, or your men and women slaves. Even your cows, donkeys, and other animals, and the foreigners living in your cities must not work! Your slaves should be able to rest the same as you. <sup>15</sup>Don’t forget that you were slaves in the land of Egypt. The Lord your God brought you out from Egypt with his great power. He made you free. That is why the Lord your God commands you to always make the Sabbath* a special day.

The People Are Afraid

<sup>22</sup>Moses said, “The Lord gave these commands to all of you when you were together there at the mountain. The Lord spoke with a loud voice that came from the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness. After he gave us these commands, he didn’t say any more. He wrote his words on two stone tablets and gave them to me.

<sup>23</sup>“You heard the voice from the darkness while the mountain was burning with fire. Then all the elders* and the other leaders of your family groups came to me. <sup>24</sup>They said, ‘The Lord our God has shown us his Glory and his greatness! We heard him speak from the fire! We have seen today that it is possible for a person to continue living even after God speaks to him. <sup>25</sup>But if we hear the Lord our God speak to us again, surely we will die! That terrible fire will destroy us! But we don’t want to die! <sup>26</sup>No person has ever heard the living God speak from the fire like we have and still lived! <sup>27</sup>Moses, you go near and hear all the things the Lord our God says. Then tell us all the things the Lord tells you. We will listen to you, and we will do everything you say.’

The Lord Speaks to Moses

<sup>28</sup>“The Lord heard the things you said. Then the Lord said to me, ‘I heard the things these people said. Everything they said is good. <sup>29</sup>I only wish that in their hearts they would always respect me and obey all my commands! Then everything would be fine with them and with their descendants* forever.

<sup>30</sup>“Go and tell the people to go back to their tents. <sup>31</sup>But you, Moses, stand here near me. I will tell you all the commands, laws, and rules that you must teach them. They must do these things in the land that I am giving them to live in.’

<sup>32</sup>“So, you people must be careful to do all the things the Lord commanded you. Don’t stop following God! <sup>33</sup>You must live the way the Lord your God commanded you. Then you will continue to live, and everything will be fine with you. You will live a long life in the land that will belong to you.

Remember to Love and Obey God

6 “These are the commands, the laws, and the rules that the Lord your God told me to teach you. Obey these laws in the land that you are entering to live in. <sup>2</sup>You and your descendants* must respect the Lord your God as long as you live. You must obey all his laws and commands that I give you. If you do this, then you will have a long life in that new land. <sup>3</sup>People of Israel, listen carefully and obey these laws. Then everything will be fine with you. You will have many children, and you will get the land filled with many good things*—just like the Lord, the God of your ancestors,* promised.

<sup>4</sup>“Listen, people of Israel! The Lord is our God. The Lord is one! <sup>5</sup>You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. <sup>6</sup>Always remember these commands that I give you today. <sup>7</sup>Be sure to teach them to your children. Talk about these commands when you sit in your house and when you walk on the road. Talk about them when you lie down and when you get up. <sup>8</sup>Write these commands and, tie them on your hands and wear them on your foreheads to help you remember my teachings. <sup>9</sup>Write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates.

<sup>10</sup>“The Lord your God made a promise to your ancestors,* Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The Lord promised to give you this land. The Lord will give you that land! And he will give you great and rich cities that you did not build. <sup>11</sup>The Lord will give you houses full of good things that you did not put there. The Lord will give you wells that you did not dig. The Lord will give you fields of grapes and olive trees that you did not plant. You will have plenty to eat.

<sup>12</sup>“But be careful! Don’t forget the Lord. You were slaves in Egypt, but the Lord brought you out of the land of Egypt. <sup>13</sup>Respect the Lord your God and serve only him. And you must use only his name to make promises. Don’t use the names of false gods! <sup>14</sup>You must not follow other gods. You must not follow the gods of the people that live around you. <sup>15</sup>The Lord your God is always with you. And the Lord hates his people worshiping other gods! So if you follow those other gods, the Lord will become very angry at you. He will destroy you from the face of the earth.

<sup>16</sup>“You must not test the Lord your God like you tested him at Massah. <sup>17</sup>You must be sure to obey the commands of the Lord your God. You must follow all the teachings and laws he has given you. <sup>18</sup>You must do the things that are right and good—things that please the Lord. Then everything will go well for you, and you can go in and take the good land that the Lord promised your ancestors.* <sup>19</sup>And you will force out all your enemies, just like the Lord said.

Teach Your Children the Things God Did

<sup>20</sup>“In the future, your son might ask you, ‘The Lord our God gave you teachings, laws, and rules. What do they mean?’ <sup>21</sup>Then you will say to your son, ‘We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, but the Lord brought us out of Egypt with his great power. <sup>22</sup>The Lord did great and amazing things. We saw him do these things to the Egyptian people, to Pharaoh, and to the people in Pharaoh’s house. <sup>23</sup>And the Lord brought us out from Egypt so that he could give us the land that he promised our ancestors.* <sup>24</sup>The Lord commanded us to follow all these teachings. We must respect the Lord our God. Then the Lord will always keep us alive and doing well, as we are today. <sup>25</sup>If we follow all this law carefully, then the Lord our God will see us and agree that we have done a very good thing.’

Israel, God’s Special People

7 “The Lord your God will bring you into the land that you are entering to take for your own. The Lord will force out many nations for you—the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites—seven nations greater and more powerful than you. <sup>2</sup>The Lord your God will put these nations under your power. And you will defeat them. You must destroy them completely. Don’t make an agreement with them. Don’t show them mercy. <sup>3</sup>Don’t marry any of those people, and don’t let your sons or daughters marry any of the people from those other nations. <sup>4</sup>Why? Because those people will turn your children away from following me. Then your children will serve other gods. And the Lord will become very angry at you. He will quickly destroy you.

Destroy False Gods

<sup>5</sup>“This is what you must do to those nations: You must smash their altars* and break their

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

memorial stones* into pieces. Cut down their Asherah poles* and burn their statues! <sup>6</sup>Why? Because you are the Lord's own people. From all the people on earth, the Lord your God chose you to be his special people—people that belong only to him. <sup>7</sup>Why did the Lord love and choose you? It was not because you are such a large nation. You had the fewest of all people! <sup>8</sup>But the Lord brought you out of Egypt with great power. He made you free from slavery. He freed you from the control of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. Why? Because the Lord loves you and because he wanted to keep the promise he made to your ancestors.*

<sup>9</sup>“So remember that the Lord your God is the only God, and he is faithful. He keeps his Agreement. He shows his love and kindness to all people that love him and obey his commands. He continues to show his love and kindness through a thousand generations. <sup>10</sup>But the Lord punishes people that hate him. He will destroy them. He will not be slow to punish people that hate him. <sup>11</sup>So you must be careful to obey the commands, laws, and rules that I give you today.

<sup>12</sup>“If you listen to these laws, and if you are careful to obey them, then the Lord your God will keep his Agreement of love with you. He promised this to your ancestors.* <sup>13</sup>He will love you and bless you. He will make your nation grow. He will bless your children. He will bless your fields with good crops. He will give you grain, new wine, and oil. He will bless your cows with baby calves and your sheep with lambs. You will have all these blessings in the land that he promised your ancestors* to give you.

<sup>14</sup>“You will be blessed more than all people. Every husband and wife will be able to have children. Your cows will be able to have calves. <sup>15</sup>And the Lord will take away all sickness from you. The Lord will not let you catch any of the terrible diseases that you had in Egypt. But the Lord will make your enemies catch those diseases. <sup>16</sup>You must destroy all the people that the Lord your God helps you defeat. Don't feel sorry for them. Don't worship their gods! Why? Because they are a trap—they will ruin your life.

The Lord Promises to Help His People

<sup>17</sup>“Don't say in your heart, ‘These nations are stronger than we are. How can we force them out?’ <sup>18</sup>You must not be afraid of them. You must remember what the Lord your God did to Pharaoh and to all the people of Egypt. <sup>19</sup>You saw the great troubles he gave them. You saw the amazing things he did. You saw the Lord use his great power and strength to bring you out of Egypt. The Lord your God will use that same power against all the people you fear.

<sup>20</sup>“The Lord your God will even send the hornet* to find all the people that escape from you and hide themselves. He will destroy all those people. <sup>21</sup>Don't be afraid of those people. Why? Because the Lord your God is with you. He is a great and awesome God. <sup>22</sup>The Lord your God will force those nations to leave your country little by little. You will not destroy them all at once. If you did, then the wild animals would grow to be too many for you. <sup>23</sup>But the Lord your God will let you defeat those nations. The Lord will confuse them in battle, until they are destroyed. <sup>24</sup>The Lord will help you defeat their kings. You will kill them, and the world will forget they ever lived. No man will be able to stop you. You will destroy them all!

<sup>25</sup>“You must throw the statues of their gods into the fire and burn them. You must not want to keep the silver or the gold that is on those statues. You must not take that silver or gold for yourselves. It will be like a trap to you—it will ruin your life. Why? Because the Lord your God hates those idols. <sup>26</sup>And you must not bring any of those terrible idols into your homes. You must hate those terrible things! You must destroy those idols!

memorial stones Stones that were set up to help people remember the false gods they worshiped.

Asherah poles Poles used to honor the goddess Asherah. People thought she could help them have many children.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

hornet A stinging insect, like a large wasp or bee. Here, it might mean God's angel or his great power.

Remember the Lord

8 “You must obey all the commands that I give you today. Why? Because then you will live and grow to become a great nation. You will get the land that the Lord promised to your ancestors.* <sup>2</sup>And you must remember the whole trip that the Lord your God has led you through these 40 years in the desert. The Lord was testing you. He wanted to make you humble. He wanted to know the things in your heart. He wanted to know if you would obey his commands. <sup>3</sup>The Lord humbled you and let you be hungry. Then he fed you with manna*—something you did not know about before, something your ancestors* had never seen. Why did the Lord do these things? Because he wanted you to know that it is not just bread that keeps people alive. People’s lives depend on what the Lord says. <sup>4</sup>These past 40 years, your clothes did not wear out, and your feet did not swell. Why? Because the Lord protected you!, <sup>5</sup>You must remember that the Lord your God did all those things for you. God was like a father teaching and correcting his son.

<sup>6</sup>“You must obey the commands of the Lord your God. Follow him and respect him. <sup>7</sup>The Lord your God is bringing you into a good land—a land with rivers and pools of water. Water flows out of the ground in the valleys and hills. <sup>8</sup>It is a land with wheat and barley, grape vines, fig trees, and pomegranates.* It is a land with olive oil and honey. <sup>9</sup>There you will have plenty of food. You will have everything you need. It is a land where the rocks are iron. You can dig copper out of the hills. <sup>10</sup>You will have all you want to eat. Then you will praise the Lord your God for the good land he has given you.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

manna The special food God sent to the people of Israel while they wandered through the desert for 40 years.

pomegranate A red fruit with many small seeds inside it. Each seed is covered with the soft, juicy part of the fruit.

Don’t Forget What the Lord Did

<sup>11</sup>“Be careful. Don’t forget the Lord your God! Be careful to obey the commands, laws, and rules that I give you today. <sup>12</sup>Then you will have plenty to eat, and you will build good houses and live in them. <sup>13</sup>Your cows, sheep, and goats will grow large. You will get plenty of gold and silver. You will have plenty of everything! <sup>14</sup>When that happens, you must be careful not to become proud. You must not forget the Lord your God. You were slaves in Egypt. But the Lord made you free and brought you out of that land. <sup>15</sup>The Lord led you through that great and terrible desert. Poisonous snakes and scorpions* were in that desert! The ground was dry, and there was no water anywhere. But the Lord gave you water out of the rock. <sup>16</sup>In the desert, the Lord fed you manna*—something your ancestors* had never seen. The Lord tested you. Why? Because the Lord made you humble so that things would go well for you in the end. <sup>17</sup>Don’t ever say to yourself, ‘I got all this wealth by my own power and ability.’ <sup>18</sup>Remember the Lord your God. Remember that he is the One who gives you power to do those things! Why does the Lord do this? Because he wants to keep the Agreement that he made with your ancestors*—just like he is doing today!

<sup>19</sup>“Don’t ever forget the Lord your God. Don’t ever follow other gods! Don’t worship and serve them. If you do that, then I warn you today: You will surely be destroyed! <sup>20</sup>The Lord is destroying other nations for you. But if you follow those other gods, then you will be destroyed just like them! Why? Because you stopped listening to the Lord your God!

The Lord Will Be with Israel

9 “Listen, you people of Israel! You will go across the Jordan River today. You will go into that land to force out nations greater and stronger than you. Their cities are big and have walls as high as the sky! <sup>2</sup>The people there are tall and strong. They are the Anakites.* people. You know about those people. You heard our spies say, 'No person can win against the Anakites.' <sup>1</sup>But you can be sure that it is the Lord your God who goes across the river before you—and God is like a fire that destroys! The Lord will destroy those nations. He will make them fall before you. You will force those nations out. You will quickly destroy them. The Lord has promised you that this will happen.

<sup>4</sup>"The Lord your God will force those nations out for you. But don't say to yourselves, 'The Lord brought us to live in this land because we are such good people!' [That is not the reason!], The Lord forced those nations out because they were evil—not because you were good. <sup>5</sup>You are going in to take their land, but not because you are good and live right. You are going in, and the Lord your God is forcing those people out because of the evil way they lived. And the Lord wants to keep the promise he made to your ancestors*—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>6</sup>The Lord your God is giving you that good land to live in, but you should know that it is not because you are good. The truth is that you are very stubborn people!

Remember the Lord's Anger

<sup>7</sup>"Don't forget that you made the Lord your God angry in the desert! You have refused to obey the Lord from the day you left the land of Egypt to the day you came to this place. <sup>8</sup>You made the Lord angry at Mount Horeb (Sinai). The Lord was angry enough to destroy you! <sup>9</sup>I went up the mountain to get the flat stones. The Agreement that the Lord made with you was written on those stones. I stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights. I did not eat any food or drink any water. <sup>10</sup>The Lord gave me the flat stones. God wrote his commands on the stones with his finger. God wrote everything he said to you from the fire when you were gathered together at the mountain.

Anakites Descendants of Anak, a family famous for tall and powerful fighting men. See Num. 13:33.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

<sup>11</sup>"So, at the end of 40 days and 40 nights, the Lord gave me two flat stones—the stones of the Agreement. <sup>12</sup>Then the Lord said to me, 'Get up and go down quickly from here. The people you brought out from Egypt have ruined themselves. They stopped obeying my commands so quickly! They melted gold and made an idol for themselves.'

<sup>13</sup>"The Lord also said to me, 'I have watched these people. They are very stubborn! <sup>14</sup>Let me destroy these people completely—no one will ever remember their names! Then I will make another nation from you that is stronger and greater than these people.'

The Golden Calf

<sup>15</sup>"Then I turned and came down from the mountain. The mountain was burning with fire. And the two flat stones of the Agreement were in my hands. <sup>16</sup>I looked and I saw you had sinned against the Lord your God. I saw the calf you made from melted gold! You stopped obeying the Lord so quickly! <sup>17</sup>So I took the two flat stones and threw them down. There before your eyes I broke the stones to pieces. <sup>18</sup>Then I bowed down before the Lord with my face to the ground for 40 days and 40 nights, like I did before. I did not eat any food or drink any water. I did this because you had sinned so badly. You did the thing that is evil to the Lord, and you made him angry. <sup>19</sup>I was afraid of the Lord's terrible anger. He was angry enough to destroy you. But the Lord listened to me again. <sup>20</sup>The Lord was very angry with Aaron—enough to destroy him! So I also prayed for Aaron at that time. <sup>21</sup>I took that terrible thing—the calf you made—and burned it in the fire. I broke it into small pieces. And I crushed the pieces until they were dust. Then I threw the dust into the river that came down from the mountain.

Moses Asks God to Forgive Israel

<sup>22</sup>"Also, at Taberah, Massah, and Kibroth Hattaavah you made the Lord angry. <sup>23</sup>And you did not obey when the Lord told you to leave Kadesh Barnea. He said, 'Go up and take the land I am giving you.' But you refused to obey the Lord your God. You did not trust him. You did not listen to his command. <sup>24</sup>All the time that I have known you, you have refused to obey the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>“So I bowed down before the Lord 40 days and 40 nights. Why? Because the Lord said he would destroy you. <sup>26</sup>I prayed to the Lord. I said: Lord my Master, don’t destroy your people. They belong to you. You freed them and brought them out of Egypt with your great power and strength. <sup>27</sup>Remember your promise to your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Forget how stubborn these people are. Don’t look at their evil ways or their sins. <sup>28</sup>If you punish your people, the Egyptians might say, ‘The Lord was not able to take his people into the land he promised them. And he hated them. So he took them into the desert to kill them.’ <sup>29</sup>But they are your people, Lord. They belong to you. You brought them out of Egypt with your great power and strength.

New Stone Tablets

10 “At that time, the Lord said to me, ‘You must cut out two flat stones like the first two stones. Then you must come up to me on the mountain. Also make a wooden box. <sup>2</sup>I will write on the flat stones the same words that were on the first stones—the stones you broke. Then you must put these new stones in the Box.’

<sup>3</sup>“So I made a box from acacia wood. I cut two flat stones like the first two stones. Then I went up on the mountain. I had the two flat stones in my hand. ‘And the Lord wrote on the stones the same words he had written before—the Ten Commandments he spoke to you from the fire, when you were gathered together at the mountain. Then the Lord gave the two flat stones to me. <sup>4</sup>I came back down from the mountain. I put the stones in the Box I had made. The Lord commanded me to put them there. And the stones are still there in that Box.”

<sup>6</sup>The people of Israel traveled from the wells of the people of Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died and was buried. Aaron’s son Eleazar served in Aaron’s place as priest. <sup>7</sup>Then the people of Israel went from Moserah to Gudgodah. And they went from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of rivers. <sup>8</sup>At that time the Lord separated the family group of Levi from the other family groups for his special work. They had the work of carrying the Lord’s Box of the Agreement.* They also served as priests before the Lord. And they had the work of blessing people in the Lord’s name. They still do this special work today. <sup>9</sup>That is why the Levites* did not get any share of land like the other family groups did. The Levites have the Lord for their share. That is what the Lord your God promised them.)

<sup>10</sup>“I stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights, like the first time. The Lord also listened to me at that time. The Lord decided not to destroy you. <sup>11</sup>The Lord said to me, ‘Go and lead the people on their trip. They will go in and live in the land that I promised their ancestors* to give them.’

What the Lord Really Wants

<sup>12</sup>“Now, people of Israel, listen! What does the Lord your God really want from you? The Lord wants you to respect him and do what he says. God wants you to love him and to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>13</sup>So obey the laws and commands of the Lord that I am giving you today. These laws and commands are for your own good.

<sup>14</sup>“Everything belongs to the Lord your God. The heavens, even the highest heavens, belong to the Lord. The earth and everything on it belong to the Lord your God. <sup>15</sup>The Lord loved your ancestors* very much. He loved them so much that he chose you, their descendants,* to be his people. He chose you instead of any other nation. And you are still his chosen people today.

<sup>16</sup>“Stop being stubborn. Give your hearts to the Lord. <sup>17</sup>Why? Because the Lord is your God. He is the God of gods and the Lord of lords. He is the great God. He is the amazing and powerful fighter. To the Lord every person is the same. The Lord does not accept money to change his mind. <sup>18</sup>He helps children that have no parents. He helps widows.* He loves even the strangers in our country. He gives them food and clothes. <sup>19</sup>So you must also love those strangers. Why? Because you yourselves were strangers in the land of Egypt.

<sup>20</sup>“You must respect the Lord your God and worship only him. Never leave him. When you make promises, you must use only his name. <sup>21</sup>The Lord is the one you should praise. He is your God. He has done great and amazing things for you. You have seen those things with your own eyes. <sup>22</sup>When your ancestors* went down into Egypt, there were only 70 people. Now the Lord your God has made you many, many people—as many as the stars in the sky.

Remember the Lord

11 “So you must love the Lord your God. You must do the things he tells you to do. You must always obey his laws, rules, and commands. <sup>2</sup>Remember today all the great things the Lord your God has done to teach you. It was you, not your children, that saw those things happen and lived through them. You saw how great the Lord is. You saw how strong he is, and you saw the powerful things he does. <sup>3</sup>You, not your children, saw the miracles he did. You saw the things he did in Egypt to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to his whole country. <sup>4</sup>You, not your children, saw the things the Lord did to the Egyptian army—to their horses and chariots.* They were chasing after you, but you saw the Lord cover them with the waters of the Red Sea. You saw the Lord completely destroy them. <sup>5</sup>It was you, not your children, that saw all the things the Lord your God did for you in the desert until you came to this place. <sup>6</sup>You saw what the Lord did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab from Reuben’s family. All the people of Israel watched as the ground opened up like a mouth and swallowed those men. And it swallowed their families, their tents, and all of their servants and animals. <sup>7</sup>It was you, not your children, that saw all those great things the Lord did.

<sup>8</sup>“So you must obey every command I tell you today. Then you will be strong. And you will be able to go across the Jordan River and take the land that you are ready to enter. <sup>9</sup>Then you will live a long life in that country. The Lord promised to give that land to your ancestors* and all their descendants.* It is a land filled with many good things.* <sup>10</sup>The land that you will get is not like the land of Egypt that you came from. In Egypt, you planted your seeds, and then you used your feet to pump water from the canals, to water your plants. You watered your fields, the same way you water a vegetable garden. <sup>11</sup>But the land that you will soon get is not like that. In Israel there are mountains and valleys. And the land gets its water from the rain that falls from the sky. <sup>12</sup>The Lord your God cares for that land! The Lord your God watches over that land, from the beginning to the end of the year.

<sup>13</sup>“The Lord says, ‘You must listen carefully to the commands I give you today: You must love the Lord your God, and serve him with all your heart and all your soul. If you do that, then <sup>14</sup>I will send rain for your land at the right time. I will send the autumn rain and the spring rain. Then you can gather your grain, your new wine, and your oil. <sup>15</sup>And I will make grass grow in your fields for your cows. You will have plenty to eat.’

<sup>16</sup>“But be careful! Don’t be fooled. Don’t turn away to serve and worship other gods. <sup>17</sup>If you do that, then the Lord will become very angry at you. He will shut the skies, and there will be no rain. The land will not make a harvest. And you will soon die in the good land that the Lord is giving you.

<sup>18</sup>“Remember these commands I give you. Keep them in your hearts. Write these commands and, tie them on your hands and wear them on your foreheads for a way to help you remember my laws.” <sup>19</sup>Teach these laws to your children. Talk about these things when you sit in your houses, when you walk on the road, when you lie down, and when you get up. <sup>20</sup>Write these commands on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates. <sup>21</sup>Then both you and your children will live a long time in the land that the Lord promised to give to your ancestors.* You will live there as long as the skies are above the earth.

<sup>22</sup>“Be careful to obey every command I have told you to follow: Love the Lord your God, follow all his ways, and be faithful to him. <sup>23</sup>Then, when you go into the land, the Lord will force all those other nations out. You will take the land from nations that are larger and more powerful than you. <sup>24</sup>All the land you walk on will be yours. Your land will reach from the desert in the south, all the way to Lebanon in the north. It will reach from the Euphrates River in the east, all the way to the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>25</sup>No person will be able to stand against you. The Lord your God will make the people fear you wherever you go in that land. That is what the Lord promised you before.

Israel's Choice: Blessings or Curses

<sup>26</sup>“Today I am giving you a choice. You may choose the blessing or the curse. <sup>27</sup>You will get the blessing if you listen and obey the commands of the Lord your God that I have told you today. <sup>28</sup>But you will get the curse if you refuse to listen and obey the commands of the Lord your God. So don't stop living the way I command you today. And don't follow other gods. You know me, but, you don't know those gods.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

<sup>29</sup>“The Lord your God will lead you to your land. You will soon go in and take that land. At that time, you must go to the top of Mount Gerizim and read the blessings to the people from there. And then, you must go to the top of Mount Ebal and read the curses to the people from there. <sup>30</sup>These mountains are on the other side of the Jordan River in the land of the Canaanite people that live in the Jordan Valley. These mountains are toward the west, not far from the oak trees of Moreh near the town of Gilgal. <sup>31</sup>You will go across the Jordan River. You will take the land that the Lord your God is giving you. This land will belong to you. When you are living in this land, <sup>32</sup>you must carefully obey all the laws and rules I give you today.

The Place for Worshiping God

12 “These are the laws and rules that you must obey in your new land. You must carefully obey these laws as long as you live in this land. The Lord is the God of your ancestors.* And the Lord is giving this land to you. <sup>2</sup>You will take that land from the nations that live there now. You must completely destroy all the places where the people of these nations worship their gods. These places are on high mountains, on hills, and under green trees. <sup>3</sup>You must smash their altars* and break their stone memorials* into pieces. You must burn their Asherah poles* and cut down the statues of their gods.

<sup>4</sup>“You must not worship the Lord your God in the same way that those people worship their gods. <sup>5</sup>The Lord your God will choose a special place among your family groups. The Lord will put his name there. That will be his special house. You must go to that place to worship him. <sup>6</sup>There you must bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, one tenth of your crops and animals,* your special gifts, any gifts

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

memorial(s) Stones that were set up to help people remember the false gods they worshiped.

Asherah poles Poles used to honor the goddess Asherah. People thought she could help them have many children.

one tenth ... animals Or, “tithes.” See Deut. 14:22-29.

you promised to the Lord, any special gift you want to give, and the first animals born in your herds and flocks. <sup>7</sup>You and your families will eat together at that place, and the Lord your God will be there with you. At that place, you will enjoy sharing the things you worked for. You will remember that the Lord your God blessed you and gave you those good things.

<sup>8</sup>“You must not continue to worship the way we have been worshiping. Until now, each of us has been worshiping God any way we wanted. <sup>9</sup>Why? Because we have not yet entered the peaceful land that the Lord your God is giving you. <sup>10</sup>But you will go across the Jordan River and live in that land. The Lord is giving that land to you. And the Lord will give you rest from all your enemies. You will be safe. <sup>11</sup>Then the Lord will choose a place to be his special house. The Lord will put his name there. And you must bring all the things I command you to that place. Bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, one tenth of your crops and animals,* your special gifts, any gifts you promised to the Lord, and the first animals born in your herd and flock. <sup>12</sup>Come to that place with all your people—your children, all your servants, and the Levites* that live in your towns. (These Levites will not have a share of the land for their own.) Enjoy yourselves together there with the Lord your God. <sup>13</sup>Be sure you don’t offer your burnt offerings in just any place you see. <sup>14</sup>The Lord will choose his special place among your family groups. Offer your burnt offerings and do all the other things I told you only in that place.

<sup>15</sup>“Wherever you live you may kill and eat any good animals, like gazelles and deer. You may eat as much of the meat as you want, as much as the Lord your God gives to you. Any person may eat this meat—people that are clean* and people that are unclean.* <sup>16</sup>But you must not eat the blood. You must pour the blood on the ground like water.

<sup>17</sup>“There are some things you must not eat in the places where you live. These things are: the part of your grain that belongs to God, the part of your new wine and oil that belongs to God, the first animals born in your herd or flock, any gift that you promised to God, any special gifts you want to give, or any other gifts for God. <sup>18</sup>You must eat those offerings only at the place where the Lord your God will be together with you—the special place that the Lord your God will choose. You must go there and eat together with your sons, your daughters, all your servants, and the Levites* that live in your towns. Enjoy yourselves there with the Lord your God. Enjoy the things you have worked for. <sup>19</sup>But be sure that you always share these meals with the Levites. Do this as long as you live in your land.

<sup>20-21</sup>“The Lord your God promised to make your country larger. When the Lord does this, you might live too far from the place he chooses to be his special house. If it is too far, and you are hungry for meat, then you may eat any meat you have. You may kill any animal from the herd or flock that the Lord has given you. Do this the way I have commanded you. You may eat this meat there where you live any time you want. <sup>22</sup>You may eat this meat the same as you would eat gazelle or deer meat. Any person can do this—people that are clean* and people that are unclean.* <sup>23</sup>But be sure not to eat the blood. Why? Because the life is in the blood. And you must not eat meat that still has life in it. <sup>24</sup>Don’t eat the blood. You must pour the blood onto the ground like water. <sup>25</sup>So don’t eat blood. You must do everything that the Lord says is right. Then good things will happen to you and to your descendants.*

<sup>26</sup>“If you decide to give something special to God, then you must go to the special place that the Lord your God will choose. And if you make a special promise, then you must go to that place to give that gift to God. <sup>27</sup>You must offer your burnt offerings in that place. Offer the meat and the blood of your burnt offerings

one tenth ... animals Or, “tithes.” See Deut. 14:22-29.

Levites People from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

on the altar* of the Lord your God. For your other sacrifices, you must pour the blood on the altar of the Lord your God. Then you may eat the meat. <sup>28</sup>Be careful to obey all the commands that I give you. When you do the things that are good and right—the things that please the Lord your God—then everything will go well for you and for your descendants* forever.

<sup>29</sup>“You are going to take your land from other people. The Lord your God will destroy those people for you. You will force those people out of that land, and you will live there. <sup>30</sup>After that happens, be careful! You will destroy those people. So don’t fall into the trap of worshipping their false gods. Be careful! Don’t go to those false gods for help. Don’t say, ‘Those people worshiped these gods, so I will worship that way too!’ <sup>31</sup>Don’t do that to the Lord your God! [Don’t worship God like that! Why?], Because those people do all kinds of bad things that the Lord hates. They even burn their children as sacrifices to their gods!

<sup>32</sup>“You must be careful to do everything I command you. Don’t add anything to the things I tell you, and don’t take anything away.

False Prophets

13 “A prophet or a person that explains dreams might come to you. He might tell you that he will show you a sign or a miracle. <sup>2</sup>And the sign or miracle he told you about might come true. Then he might ask you to follow other gods (gods you don’t know). He might say to you, ‘Let’s serve those gods!’ <sup>3</sup>Don’t listen to that person. Why? Because the Lord your God is testing you. The Lord wants to know if you love him with all your heart and all your soul. <sup>4</sup>You must follow the Lord your God! Respect him. Obey the Lord’s commands, and do what he tells you. Serve the Lord, and never leave him! <sup>5</sup>Also, you must kill that prophet or person that explains dreams. Why? Because he told you to turn against the Lord your God. And it was the Lord who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you were slaves. That person tried to pull you away from the life the Lord your God commanded you to live. So you must kill that person to remove that evil from your people.

<sup>6</sup>“Someone close to you might secretly persuade you to worship other gods. It might be your own brother, your son, your daughter, the wife you love, or your closest friend. That person might say, ‘Let’s go and serve other gods.’ (These are gods that you and your ancestors never knew. <sup>7</sup>They are the gods of the people that live in the other lands around you, some near and some far away.) <sup>8</sup>You must not agree with that person. Don’t listen to him. Don’t feel sorry for him. Don’t let him go free. And don’t protect him. <sup>9-10</sup>No! You must kill that person! You must kill him with stones. You be the first person to pick up stones and throw at him. Then all the people must throw stones to kill him. Why? Because that person tried to pull you away from the Lord your God. And it was the Lord who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you were slaves. <sup>11</sup>Then all the people of Israel will hear and be afraid. And they will not do those evil things any more.

Cities that Must Be Destroyed

<sup>12</sup>“The Lord your God has given you cities to live in. Sometimes you might hear some bad news about one of these cities. You might hear that <sup>13</sup>some bad people in your own nation are persuading the people of their city to do bad things. They might say to the people of their city, ‘Let’s go and serve other gods.’ (These gods would be gods that you never knew before.) <sup>14</sup>If you hear this kind of news, you must do all you can to learn if it is true. If you learn that it is true—if you prove that such a terrible thing really did happen—<sup>15</sup>then you must punish the people of that city. You must kill them all. And kill all their animals, too. You must destroy that city completely. <sup>16</sup>Then you must gather all the valuable things and take them to the center of the city and burn the city and everything in it. It will be a burnt offering to the Lord your God. The city must become an

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

empty pile of rocks forever. That city must never be built again. <sup>17</sup>Everything in that city must be given to God to be destroyed. So you must not keep any of the things for yourselves. If you follow this command, then the Lord will stop being so angry at you. The Lord will be kind to you. He will feel sorry for you. He will let your nation grow larger, like he promised your ancestors.* <sup>18</sup>This will happen if you listen to the Lord your God—if you obey all his commands that I give you today. You must do the things that the Lord your God says are right.

Israel, God's Special People

14 “You are the children of the Lord your God. When someone dies, you must not cut yourselves or shave your heads to show your sadness. <sup>2</sup>Why? Because you are different from other people. You are the Lord’s special people. From all the people in the world, the Lord your God chose you to be his own special people.

Food the Israelites Are Allowed to Eat

<sup>7</sup>You may eat any kind of fish that has fins and scales. <sup>8</sup>But don’t eat anything living in the water that does not have fins and scales. It is not a clean* food for you.

<sup>19</sup>“Don’t eat any animal that has died by itself. You may give the dead animal to the foreigner in your town, and he can eat it. Or you may sell the dead animal to a foreigner. But you yourselves must not eat the dead animal. Why? Because you belong to the Lord your God. You are his special people.

“Don’t cook a baby goat in its mother’s milk.

Giving One Tenth

<sup>22</sup>“Every year you must be sure to save one tenth of all the crops that grow in your fields. <sup>23</sup>Then you must go to the place the Lord chooses to be his special house. You will go there to be with the Lord your God. At that place you will eat the tenth of your crops—one tenth of your grain, your new wine, your oil, and the first animals born in your herds and flock. In this way, you will always remember to respect the Lord your God. <sup>24</sup>But that place might be too far for you to travel to. Maybe you will not be able to carry one tenth of all the crops that the Lord has blessed you with. If that happens, then <sup>25</sup>sell that part of your crops. Take the money with you and go to the special place that the Lord chose. <sup>26</sup>Use the money to buy anything you want—cows, sheep, wine or beer, or any other thing you want to eat. Then you and your family should eat and enjoy yourselves there in that place with the Lord

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

hooves The hard part of the foot of certain animals.

cud The food that is brought up from the stomach of some animals (like cows) and chewed again.

clean Pure or acceptable for eating or for worship.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable for eating or for worship.

your God. <sup>7</sup>But don't forget the Levites* that live in your town. (Share your food with them,) because they don't have a share of the land like you have.

<sup>8</sup>“At the end of every three years, you must gather one tenth of your harvest for that year. Store this food in your towns (where other people can use it). <sup>9</sup>This food is for the Levites,* because they don't have any land of their own. This food is also for other people in your towns that need it. That food is for foreigners, widows, and children that have no parents. If you do this, then the Lord your God will bless you in everything you do.

The Special Year of Cancelling Debts

15 “At the end of every seven years, you must cancel debts. <sup>2</sup>This is the way you must do this: Every person that has lent money to another Israelite must cancel that debt. He should not ask a brother (an Israelite) to pay back that debt. Why? Because the Lord said to cancel debts during that year. <sup>3</sup>You may require a foreigner to pay you back. But you must cancel any debt another Israelite owes you. <sup>4</sup>There should not be any poor people in your country. Why? Because the Lord is giving you this land. And the Lord will greatly bless you. <sup>5</sup>But this will happen only if you obey the Lord your God. You must be careful to obey every command that I have told you today. <sup>6</sup>Then the Lord your God will bless you, like he promised. And you will have enough money to make loans to many nations. But you will not need to borrow from anyone. You will rule over many nations. But none of those nations will rule over you.

<sup>7</sup>“When you are living in the land the Lord your God is giving you, there might be a poor person among your people. You must not be selfish. You must not refuse to give help to that poor person. <sup>8</sup>No, you must be willing to share with him. You must be willing to give that person all that he needs. <sup>9</sup>Don't ever refuse to help someone because the seventh year, the year for cancelling debts, is near. Don't let an evil thought like that enter your mind. You must never have bad thoughts about a person that needs help. You must not refuse to help him. If you don't help that poor person, then he will complain to the Lord against you. And the Lord will find you guilty of sin. <sup>10</sup>Give the poor person all that you can. Don't feel bad about giving to him. Why? Because the Lord your God will bless you for doing this good thing. He will bless you in all your work and in everything you do. <sup>11</sup>There will always be poor people in the land. That is why I command you to be ready to help your brother. Give to the poor people in your land that need help.

Letting Slaves Go Free

<sup>12</sup>“You might buy a Hebrew man or woman to serve you as a slave. You may keep that person as a slave for six years. But in the seventh year, you must let that person go free. <sup>13</sup>But when you let your slave go free, don't send him away with nothing. <sup>14</sup>You must give that person some of your animals, grain, and wine. The Lord your God blessed you and gave you plenty of good things. In the same way, you must give plenty of good things to your slave. <sup>15</sup>Remember, you were slaves in Egypt. And the Lord your God let you go free. So that is why I am giving you this command today.

<sup>16</sup>“But one of your slaves might say to you, ‘I will not leave you.’ He might say this because he loves you and your family and because he has a good life with you. <sup>17</sup>Make this servant put his ear against your door, and use a sharp tool to make a hole in his ear. This will show that he is your slave forever. You must do this even to the women slaves that want to stay with you.

<sup>18</sup>“Don't feel bad about letting your slave go free. Remember, he served you six years at only half the money you would have paid a hired person. The Lord your God will bless you in everything you do.

Levites People from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

Rules About Firstborn Animals

<sup>19</sup>“All the first male animals born in your herd and flock are special. You must give them to the Lord. Don’t use any of those animals for your work. And don’t cut wool from any of those sheep. <sup>20</sup>Every year you must take those animals to the place the Lord your God will choose. There with the Lord, you and your family will eat those animals.

<sup>21</sup>“But if an animal has something wrong with it—if it is crippled, or blind, or has something else wrong with it—then you must not sacrifice that animal to the Lord your God. <sup>22</sup>But you may eat the meat from that animal at home. Any person may eat it—people that are clean* and people that are unclean.* This meat is the same as gazelle or deer meat. <sup>23</sup>But you must not eat the blood from the animal. You must pour the blood out on the ground like water.

Passover

16 “Remember the month of Abib.* At that time, you must celebrate Passover* to honor the Lord your God. Why? Because in that month the Lord your God brought you out from Egypt by night. <sup>2</sup>You must go to the place the Lord will choose to be his special house. There you must offer the Passover sacrifice to honor the Lord. You must offer the cows and goats. <sup>3</sup>Don’t eat bread that has yeast in it with this sacrifice. You must eat unleavened bread* seven days. This bread is called the Bread of Trouble. It will help you remember the troubles you had in the Egypt. Remember how quickly you had to leave that country! You must remember that day as long as you live. <sup>4</sup>There must be no yeast in anyone’s house anywhere in the country for

clean Pure or acceptable to God for worship.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

Abib This name means “young heads of grain.” This is the first month of the Jewish calendar, also called Nisan. It was about the same time as March and April.

Passover Important Jewish holy day. They ate a special meal on this day every spring to remember that God freed them from slavery in Egypt.

unleavened bread Bread made without yeast.

seven days. Also, all the meat you sacrifice on the evening of the first day must be eaten before morning.

<sup>5</sup>“You must not sacrifice the Passover animal in any of the towns that the Lord your God gives you. <sup>6</sup>You must sacrifice the Passover animal only at the place that the Lord your God will choose to be his special house. There you must sacrifice the Passover animal in the evening when the sun goes down. Why? Because that was the time of year that you came out from Egypt. <sup>7</sup>And you must cook the Passover meat and eat it at the place the Lord your God will choose. Then, in the morning, you may go back home. <sup>8</sup>You must eat unleavened bread* six days. On the seventh day you must not do any work. On this day, the people will come together for a special meeting to honor the Lord your God.

Festival of Weeks

<sup>9</sup>“You must count seven weeks from the time you began to harvest the grain. <sup>10</sup>Then celebrate the Festival of Weeks for the Lord your God. Do this by bringing him some special gift you want to bring. Decide how much to give by thinking about how much the Lord your God has blessed you. <sup>11</sup>Go to the place the Lord will choose to be his special house. You and your people should enjoy yourselves together there with the Lord your God. Take all your people with you—your sons, your daughters, and all your servants. Also, take the Levites,* foreigners, orphans,* and widows* that live in your towns. <sup>12</sup>Remember, you were slaves in Egypt. So be sure to obey these laws.

Festival of Shelters

orphans Children whose parents have died.

widows Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

harvest in from your threshing floor* and from your winepress,* you should celebrate the Festival of Shelters. <sup>14</sup>Enjoy yourselves at this festival—you, your sons, your daughters, all your servants, and the Levites,* foreigners, orphans,* and widows* that live in your towns. <sup>15</sup>Celebrate this festival for seven days at the special place the Lord will choose. Do this to honor the Lord your God. The Lord your God blessed your harvest and all the work you did. So be very happy!

<sup>16</sup>“Three times a year all your men must come to meet with the Lord your God at the special place he will choose. They must come for the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Shelters. Every person that comes to meet with the Lord must bring a gift. <sup>17</sup>Each man should give as much as he can. He should decide how much to give by thinking about how much the Lord has given him.

Judges and Officers for the People

<sup>18</sup>“Choose men to be judges and officers in every town that the Lord your God gives you. Every family group must do this. And these men must be fair in judging the people. <sup>19</sup>You must always be fair. You must not favor some people over other people. You must not take money to change your mind in judgment. Money blinds the eyes of wise people and changes what a good person will say. <sup>20</sup>Fairness! You must try very hard to be fair all the time! Then you will live and keep the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

God Hates Idols

<sup>21</sup>“When you set up an altar* for the Lord your God, you must not place beside the altar any of the wooden poles that honor the goddess Asherah.* <sup>22</sup>And you must not set up special stones for worshiping false gods. The Lord your God hates those things.

Use Only Good Animals for Sacrifices

17 “You must not sacrifice to the Lord your God a cow or sheep if there is anything wrong with it. Why? Because the Lord your God hates it!

Punishment for Worshiping Idols

<sup>24</sup>You might hear about an evil thing that happens in one of the cities that the Lord your God is giving you. You might hear that a man or woman in your group has sinned against the Lord. You might hear that they have broken the Agreement of the Lord—<sup>3</sup>that they have worshiped other gods. Or maybe that they have worshiped the sun, the moon, or the stars. That is against the Lord’s command that I gave you. <sup>4</sup>If you hear bad news like this, then you must check it carefully. You must learn if it is true that this terrible thing has really happened in Israel. If you prove that it is true, <sup>5</sup>then you must punish the person that did that evil thing. You must take that man or woman out to a public place near the city gates and kill them with stones. <sup>6</sup>But a person should not be punished with death if only one witness says that person did the evil thing. But if two or three witnesses say it is true, then the person must be killed. <sup>7</sup>The witnesses must throw the first stones to kill that person. Then the other people should throw stones to finish killing him. In this way, you will remove that evil from your group.

Difficult Court Decisions

<sup>8</sup>“There might be some problems that are too hard for your courts to judge. It might be a murder case or an argument between two

threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

winepress A place where people pressed grapes to make wine. This was often a shallow hole carved in rock.

Levites People from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

orphans Children whose parents have died.

widows Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

Asherah A goddess that the Assyrians and Canaanites worshiped. They thought she could help them have many children.

people. Or it might be a fight in which someone was hurt. When these cases are argued in your towns, your judges there might not be able to decide what is right. Then you must go to the special place that the Lord your God will choose.<sup>9</sup>The priests are from the Levi family group. You must go to those priests and to the judge on duty at that time. Those men will decide what to do about that problem.<sup>10</sup>There at the Lord's special place they will tell you their decision. You must do whatever they say. Be sure to do all the things they tell you to do.<sup>11</sup>You must accept their decision and follow their instructions exactly. You must do exactly what they tell you to do - don't change anything!

<sup>12</sup>"You must punish any person that refuses to obey the judge or the priest that is there at that time serving the Lord your God. That person must die. You must remove that evil person from Israel.<sup>13</sup>All the people will hear about this punishment and be afraid. And they will not be stubborn any more.

How to Choose a King

<sup>14</sup>"You will enter the land that the Lord your God is giving you. You will take that land and live in it. Then you will say, 'We will put a king over us, like all the nations around us.'<sup>15</sup>When that happens, then you must be sure to choose the king that the Lord chooses. The king over you must be one of your own people. You must not make a foreigner your king.<sup>16</sup>The king must not get more and more horses for himself. And he must not send people to Egypt to get more horses. Why? Because the Lord has told you, 'You must never go back that way.'<sup>17</sup>Also, the king must not have too many wives. Why? Because that will make him turn away from the Lord. And the king must not make himself rich with silver and gold.

<sup>18</sup>"And when the king begins to rule, he must write a copy of the law for himself in a book. He must make that copy from the books that the priests and Levites* keep.<sup>19</sup>The king must keep that book with him. He must read from that book all his life. Why? Because the king must learn to respect the Lord his God. And the king must learn to fully obey everything the law commands.<sup>20</sup>Then the king will not think that he is better than any of his own people. And he will not turn away from the law, but he will follow it exactly. Then that king and his descendants* will rule the kingdom of Israel a long time.

Supporting the Priests and Levites

18 "The family group of Levi will not get any share of land in Israel. Those people will serve as priests. They will live by eating the sacrifices that are cooked on the fire and offered to the Lord. That is the share for the people from the Levi family group.<sup>2</sup>Those Levites* will not get any share of land like the other family groups. The Levites' share is the Lord himself, just like the Lord said to them.

<sup>3</sup>"When you kill a cow or a sheep for a sacrifice, you must give the priests these parts: the shoulder, both cheeks, and the stomach.<sup>4</sup>You must give the priests the first part of your harvest. You must give them the first part of your grain, your new wine, and your oil. You must give the Levites* the first wool cut from your sheep.<sup>5</sup>Why? Because the Lord your God looked at all your family groups and chose Levi and his descendants* to serve him as priests forever.

<sup>6</sup>"Every Levite* man has a special time to work at the temple. But if he wants to work there some other time too, then he may work anytime he wants. Any Levite that lives in any town anywhere in Israel may leave his home and come to the Lord's special place. He may do this any time he wants.<sup>7</sup>And this Levite may serve in the name of the Lord his God, the same as all his brother Levites that are on duty before the Lord.<sup>8</sup>And that Levite will get an equal share with the other Levites, in addition to the share his family normally gets.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Levite(s) People from the family group of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

Israel Must Not Copy the Other Nations

<sup>9</sup>“When you come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you, don’t learn to do the terrible things the people of the other nations there do. <sup>10</sup>Don’t sacrifice your sons or daughters in the fires on your altars.* Don’t try to learn what will happen in the future by talking to a fortune teller or by going to a magician, a witch, or a sorcerer. <sup>11</sup>Don’t let anyone try to put magic spells on other people. Don’t let any of your people become a medium* or a wizard.* And no person should try to talk with someone that has died. <sup>12</sup>The Lord your God hates people doing those things. That is why he is forcing those other nations out of this country for you. <sup>13</sup>You must be faithful to the Lord your God.

The Lord’s Special Prophet

<sup>14</sup>“You must force those other nations out of your land. The people of those nations listen to people that use magic and try to tell the future. But the Lord your God will not let you do those things. <sup>15</sup>The Lord your God will send to you a prophet.* This prophet will come from among your own people. He will be like me. You must listen to this prophet. <sup>16</sup>God will send you this prophet because that is what you asked him to do. When you were gathered together at Mount Horeb (Sinai), you were afraid of God’s voice and the great fire you saw on the mountain. So, you said, ‘Don’t let us hear the voice of the Lord our God again! Don’t let us see that great fire or we will die!’

<sup>17</sup>“The Lord said to me, ‘The thing they ask for is good. <sup>18</sup>I will send them a prophet* like you. This prophet will be one of their own people. I will tell him the things he must say.

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

medium A person that tries to talk with the spirits of dead people.

wizard A person that tries to use evil spirits to do magic.

prophet A person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach to the people.

And he will tell the people everything I command. <sup>19</sup>This prophet will speak for me. And when he speaks, if any person refuses to listen to my commands, then I will punish that person.’

How to Know False Prophets

<sup>20</sup>“But a prophet* might say something that I did not tell him to say. And he might tell people that he is speaking for me. If this happens, then that prophet must be killed. Also, a prophet might come that speaks for other gods. That prophet must also be killed. <sup>21</sup>You might be thinking, ‘How can we know if something a prophet says is not from the Lord?’ <sup>22</sup>If a prophet says he is speaking for the Lord, but the thing does not happen, then you will know that the Lord did not say it. You will know that this prophet was speaking his own ideas. You don’t need to be afraid of him.

Cities of Safety

19 “The Lord your God is giving you land that belongs to other nations. The Lord will destroy those nations. You will live where those people lived. You will take their cities and their houses. When that happens, <sup>23</sup>you must divide the land into three parts. Then in each part you must choose a city close to everyone in that area. And you must prepare roads to those cities. Then any person that kills another person may run to that city for safety.

“This is the rule for the person that kills someone and runs away to one of those three cities to be safe: It must be a person that killed the other person accidentally. It must be a person that did not hate the person he killed. <sup>3</sup>Here is an example: A man goes into the forest with another person to cut wood. The man swings his axe to cut down a tree, but the head of the axe separates from the handle. The axe head hits the other person and kills him. The man that swung the axe may then run to one of those three cities and be safe. <sup>4</sup>But if the city is too far away, he might not be able to run there fast enough. A close relative* of the person he close relative Literally, “avenger of blood.” When a person was killed, his relative had to be sure the killer was punished.

killed might run after him and catch him before he reaches the city. The close relative might be very angry and kill the man. But the man did not deserve death. He did not hate the person he killed. <sup>7</sup>The cities must be close to everyone. That is why I command you to choose three special cities.

<sup>8</sup>“The Lord your God promised your fathers that he would make your land larger. He will give you all the land that he promised to give to your ancestors.* <sup>9</sup>He will do this if you fully obey his commands that I give you today—if you love the Lord your God and always live the way he wants. Then, when the Lord makes your land larger, you should choose three more cities for safety. They should be added to the first three cities. <sup>10</sup>Then innocent people will not be killed in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. And you will not be guilty for any deaths.

<sup>11</sup>“But a man might hate another person. That man might hide, waiting to kill the person he hates. He might kill that person and run away into one of those cities of safety. <sup>12</sup>If that happens, then the elders (leaders) in that man’s home town must send someone to get him and take him away from the city of safety. Those leaders must give that man to the close relative.* The murderer must die. <sup>13</sup>You must not feel sorry for him. He was guilty of killing an innocent person. You must remove that guilt from Israel. Then everything will go well for you.

Property Lines

<sup>14</sup>“You must not move the stones that mark your neighbor’s property. People put those stones there in the past to mark each person’s property. Those stones mark the land that the Lord your God gave you.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

close relative Literally, “avenger of blood.” When a person was killed, his relative had to be sure the killer was punished.

Witnesses

<sup>15</sup>“If a person is accused of doing something against the law, one witness is not enough to prove that the person is guilty. There must be two or three witnesses to prove that the person really did wrong.

<sup>16</sup>“A witness might try to hurt another person by lying and saying that this person did wrong. <sup>17</sup>If that happens, then both of those people must go to the Lord’s special house and be judged by the priests and judges that are on duty at that time. <sup>18</sup>The judges must ask careful questions. They might find that the witness lied against the other person. If the witness lied, <sup>19</sup>then you must punish him. You must do to him the same thing he wanted to do to the other person. In this way, you will remove that evil from your group. <sup>20</sup>Other people will hear about this and be afraid. And those people will not do evil things like that again.

<sup>21</sup>“Punishment must be as severe as the crime. Don’t feel sorry about punishing a person that does wrong. If a person takes a life, then he must pay with his own life. The rule is: an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot.

Rules for War

20 “When you go out to battle against your enemies, and you see horses, chariots,* and many more people than you have, you must not be afraid of them. Why? Because the Lord your God is with you—and the Lord brought you out of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>“When you go to the battle, the priest must go to the soldiers and speak to them. <sup>3</sup>The priest will say, ‘Men of Israel, listen to me! Today you are going against your enemies in battle. Don’t lose your courage! Don’t be troubled or upset! Don’t be afraid of the enemy! <sup>4</sup>Why? Because the Lord your God is going with you. He will help you fight against your enemies. The Lord your God will help you win!’

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

<sup>5</sup>“Those [Levite] officers will say to the soldiers, ‘Is there any man here that has built a new house, but has not yet dedicated it? That man should go back home. He might be killed in the battle. And then another person will dedicate that man’s house. <sup>6</sup>Is there any man here that has planted a field of grapes, but has not yet gathered any of the grapes? That man should go back home. If that man dies in the battle, then another person will enjoy the fruit from his field. <sup>7</sup>Is there any man here that is engaged to be married? That man should go back home. If he dies in the battle, then another man will marry the woman he is engaged to.’

<sup>8</sup>“Those [Levite] officers must also say to the people, ‘Is there any man here that has lost his courage and is afraid? He should go back home. Then he will not cause the other soldiers to lose their courage too.’ <sup>9</sup>Then, after the officers have finished speaking to the army, they must choose captains to lead the soldiers.

<sup>10</sup>“When you go to attack a city, you must first offer peace to the people there. <sup>11</sup>If they accept your offer and open their gates, then all the people in that city will become your slaves and be forced to work for you. <sup>12</sup>But if the city refuses to make peace with you and fights against you, then you should surround the city. <sup>13</sup>And when the Lord your God lets you take the city, you must kill all the men in it. <sup>14</sup>But you may take for yourselves the women, the children, the cows, and everything else in the city. You may use all these things. The Lord your God has given these things to you. <sup>15</sup>That is what you must do to all the cities that are very far from you—the cities that are not in the land where you will live.

<sup>16</sup>“But when you take cities in the land that the Lord your God is giving you, you must kill everyone. <sup>17</sup>You must fully destroy all the people—the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The Lord your God has commanded you to do this. <sup>18</sup>Why? Because then they won’t be able to teach you to sin against the Lord your God. They will not be able to teach you to do any of the terrible things they do when they worship their gods.

<sup>19</sup>“When you are making war against a city, you might surround that city for a long time. You must not cut down the fruit trees around that city. You may eat the fruit from these trees, but you must not cut them down. These trees are not the enemy, so don’t make war against them! <sup>20</sup>But you may cut down the trees that you know are not fruit trees. You may use these trees to build weapons for making war against that city. You may use them until the city falls.

If a Person Is Found Murdered

21 “In the land that the Lord your God is giving you, a man might be found murdered in a field. But no one knows who killed him. <sup>2</sup>Then your leaders and judges must come out and measure the distance to the towns around the person that was killed. <sup>3</sup>When you learn which town is nearest to the dead man, the leaders of that town must take a cow from their herds. It must be a cow that never had a calf. And it must be a cow that has never been used for work. <sup>4</sup>The leaders of that town must then bring the cow down to a valley with running water. It must be a valley that has never been plowed or had anything planted in it. Then the leaders must break the cow’s neck there in that valley. <sup>5</sup>The priests, the descendants* of Levi, must also go there. (The Lord your God has chosen these priests to serve him and to bless people in his name. The priests will decide who is right in every argument where a person is hurt.) <sup>6</sup>All the leaders of the town nearest the murdered man must wash their hands over the cow that had its neck broken in the valley. <sup>7</sup>These leaders must say, ‘We did not kill this man. And we did not see it happen. <sup>8</sup>Lord, you saved Israel. We are your people. Now make us pure.* Don’t blame us for killing an innocent man.’ In this way, those men will not be blamed for killing an innocent man. <sup>9</sup>In this way, you will do the right thing. And you will remove that guilt from your group.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

make ... pure Or, “make atonement.” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

Women Captured In War

<sup>10</sup>“You might fight against your enemies, and the Lord your God might let you defeat them. You might carry your enemies away as captives. <sup>11</sup>You might see a beautiful woman among the captives. And you might want her to be your wife. <sup>12</sup>You must then bring her home to your house. She must shave her head and cut her nails. <sup>13</sup>She must take off the clothes she was wearing. She must stay in your house and cry for her father and her mother a full month. After that, you may have sexual relations with her and become her husband. And she will become your wife. <sup>14</sup>But if you are not pleased with her, then you must let her go any place she wants. You must not sell her. You must not treat her like a slave. Why? Because you had sexual relations with her.

The Oldest Son

<sup>15</sup>“A man might have two wives. And he might love one wife more than the other. Both wives might have children for him. And the first child might be the child of the wife he does not love. <sup>16</sup>When the man divides his property among his children, he can't give the son of the wife he loves the things that belong to the firstborn* child. <sup>17</sup>The man must accept the first child, the son of the wife he doesn't love. The man must give the first son a double share of all his things. Why? Because that child is his first child. The right of the firstborn* child belongs to that child.

Sons That Refuse to Obey

<sup>18</sup>“A man might have a son that is stubborn and refuses to obey. This son will not obey his father or mother. The parents punish the son, but the son still refuses to listen to them. <sup>19</sup>His father and mother must then take him to the leaders of the town at the town meeting place. <sup>20</sup>They must say to the leaders of the town: ‘Our son is stubborn and refuses to obey. He will not do anything we tell him to do. He eats too much, and he drinks too much.’ <sup>21</sup>Then the men in the town must kill the son with stones. By doing this you will remove this evil from yourselves. All the people of Israel will hear about this and be afraid.

Criminals Killed and Hung on a Tree

<sup>22</sup>“A person might be guilty of a sin that must be punished by death. After he is killed, people might hang his body on a tree. <sup>23</sup>You must not let that body stay on the tree all night. You must be sure to bury this man on the same day. Why? Because the person that hangs on a tree is cursed by God. You must not ruin the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

Other Laws

22 “If you see that your neighbor's cow or sheep is loose, you must not ignore it. You must be sure to take it back to its owner. <sup>2</sup>If the owner does not live near you, or if you don't know who it belongs to, then you may take the cow or sheep to your house. And you may keep it with you until the owner comes looking for it. Then you must give it back to him. <sup>3</sup>You must do the same thing when you find your neighbor's donkey, your neighbor's clothes, or anything else your neighbor loses. You must help your neighbor.

“If your neighbor's donkey or cow has fallen down on the road, you must not ignore it. You must help him lift it up again.

“A woman must not wear men's clothes. And a man must not wear women's clothes. The Lord your God hates anyone that does these things.

“You might be walking along a path and find a bird's nest in a tree or on the ground. If the mother bird is sitting with her baby birds or on the eggs, then you must not take the mother bird with the babies. <sup>7</sup>You may take the babies for yourself. But you must let the mother go. If you obey these laws, then things will go well for you, and you will live a long time.

“When you build a new house, you must firstborn The first born child. The firstborn son was very important in ancient times.

build a wall around your roof.* Then you will not be guilty for the death of a person that falls from the house.

Things That Must Not Be Put Together

<sup>9</sup>“You must not plant seeds of grain in the same fields as your grapevines. Why? Because then they belong to God, and you can’t use either the grapes or the grain that grows from the seeds you planted.

<sup>12</sup>“Tie several pieces of thread together. Then put these tassels* on the four corners of the robes you wear.

Marriage Laws

<sup>13</sup>“A man might marry a girl and have sexual relations with her. Then he might decide that he does not like her. <sup>14</sup>He might lie and say, ‘I married this woman, but when we had sexual relations, I found she was not a virgin.*’ By saying this against her, people might think bad things about her. <sup>15</sup>If this happens, the girl’s father and mother must bring the proof that the girl was a virgin to the town elders (leaders) at the meeting place of the town. <sup>16</sup>The girl’s father must say to the leaders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man to be his wife, but now he does not want her. <sup>17</sup>This man has told lies against my daughter. He said, ‘I did not find the proof that your daughter is a virgin.’ But here is the proof that my daughter was a virgin.’ Then they should show the cloth* to the town leaders. <sup>18</sup>Then the leaders of that town must take that man and punish him. <sup>19</sup>They must fine wall ... roof In ancient Israel the roofs of houses were flat, and people used them like an extra room. This law made the roof a safer place.

tassels These pieces of string were made from different materials, so they became holy. This helped the people remember God and his commands.

virgin A woman that has not had sexual relations with anyone.

cloth The blood-stained bed cover that the bride kept from her wedding night to prove she was a virgin when she married.

him 40 ounces of silver.* They must give the money to the girl’s father because her husband brought shame to an Israelite girl. And the girl must continue to be the man’s wife. He can’t divorce her all his life.

<sup>20</sup>“But the things that the husband said about his wife might be true. The wife’s parents might not have the proof that she was a virgin.* If this happens, <sup>21</sup>then the town leaders must bring the girl to the door of her father’s house. Then the men of the town must kill her with stones. Why? Because she has done a shameful thing in Israel. She has acted like a prostitute* in her father’s house. You must remove that evil from your people.

Sexual Sins

<sup>22</sup>“If a man is found having sexual relations with another man’s wife, then both of them must die—the woman and the man that had sexual relations with her. You must remove that evil from Israel.

<sup>23</sup>“A man might meet a virgin* girl engaged to another man. He might have sexual relations with her. If this happens in the city, <sup>24</sup>then you must bring them both out to the public place near the gate of that city, and you must kill them with stones. You must kill the man, because he used another man’s wife for sexual sin. And you must kill the girl, because she was in the city but did not call for help. You must remove that evil from your people.

<sup>25</sup>“But if a man finds an engaged girl out in the field and forces her to have sexual relations with him, then only the man must die. <sup>26</sup>You must do nothing to the girl. She did nothing that deserves the punishment of death. This is like a person attacking his neighbor and killing him. <sup>27</sup>The man found the engaged girl out in the field. He attacked her. And maybe she called for help, but there was no one to help her. (So she must not be punished.)

prostitute A woman paid by men for sexual sin.

<sup>28</sup>“A man might find a virgin* girl that is not engaged and force her to have sexual relations with him. If other people see this happen, <sup>29</sup>then he must pay the girl’s father 20 ounces of silver.* And the girl will become the man’s wife. Why? Because he used her for sexual sin. He can’t divorce her all his life.

<sup>30</sup>“A man must not bring shame to his father by having sexual relations with his father’s wife.

People That Can Join in Worship

23 “A man with crushed testicles or part of his sex organs cut off may not join with the men of Israel to worship the Lord. <sup>2</sup>If a man’s parents were not legally married, then that man may not join with the men of Israel to worship the Lord. And none of his descendants*—to the tenth generation—may join in that group!

<sup>3</sup>“An Ammonite or Moabite may not join with the men of Israel to worship the Lord. And none of their descendants*—to the tenth generation—may join in that group. <sup>4</sup>Why? Because the Ammonites and Moabites refused to give you bread and water on your trip at the time you came from Egypt. They also tried to hire Balaam to curse you. (Balaam was the son of Beor from the city of Pethor in Mesopotamia.) <sup>5</sup>But the Lord your God refused to listen to Balaam. The Lord changed the curse into a blessing for you. Why? Because the Lord your God loves you. <sup>6</sup>You must never try to make peace with the Ammonite or Moabite people. As long as you live, don’t be friendly to them.

People the Israelites Must Accept

<sup>7</sup>“You must not hate an Edomite. Why? Because he is your relative. You must not hate

virgin A woman that has not had sexual relations with anyone.

20 ... silver This money became the dowry, the money a man paid to a woman’s father to seal the marriage agreement. Often the father saved this money to take care of the woman if something happened to her husband.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

an Egyptian. Why? Because you were a stranger in his land. <sup>8</sup>The children of the third generation born to the Edomites and Egyptians may join with the men of Israel to worship the Lord.

Keeping the Army Camp Clean

<sup>9</sup>“When your army goes to fight against your enemies, stay away from everything that would make you unclean.* <sup>10</sup>If there is any man that is unclean because he had a wet dream during the night, then he must go out of the camp. He must stay away from the camp. <sup>11</sup>Then, when evening comes, the man must bathe himself in water. And when the sun goes down, he may come into the camp again.

<sup>12</sup>“You also must have a place outside the camp where you can go to have a bowel movement. <sup>13</sup>With your weapons, you must also carry a stick to dig with. Then, when you have a bowel movement, you must dig a hole and cover it up. <sup>14</sup>Why? Because the Lord your God is there with you in your camp to save you and to help you defeat your enemies. So the camp must be holy. Then the Lord will not see any terrible thing among you and turn away from you.

Other Laws

<sup>15</sup>“If a slave runs away from his master to you, you must not give this slave back to his master. <sup>16</sup>This slave may live with you wherever he likes. He may live in whatever city he chooses. You must not trouble him.

<sup>17</sup>“An Israelite man or woman must never become a temple prostitute.* <sup>18</sup>The money earned by a man* or woman prostitute must not be brought to the special house of the Lord your God. A person can’t use that money to pay for the things he promised to give to God. Why? Because the Lord your God hates people selling their bodies for sexual sin.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

temple prostitute The people that worshiped false gods in the land of Canaan had both men and women serving as priests by giving their bodies in sexual sin.

man Literally, “dog.” This probably means a man paid by other men that use him for sexual sin.

<sup>19</sup>“When you loan something to another Israelite, you must not charge interest. Don’t charge interest on money, on food, or on anything that may earn interest. <sup>20</sup>You may not charge interest to a foreigner. But you must not charge interest to another Israelite. If you follow these rules, then the Lord your God will bless you in everything you do in the land where you are going to live.

<sup>21</sup>“When you make a promise to the Lord your God, don’t be slow to pay all that you promised. Why? Because the Lord your God will demand that you pay it. You will sin if you don’t pay the things you promised. <sup>22</sup>If you don’t make a promise, then you are not sinning. <sup>23</sup>But you must do the things you say you will do. If you make a special promise to God, then you chose to make that promise. God did not force you to make that promise. So you must do the thing you promised!

<sup>24</sup>“When you go through another person’s field of grapes, you may eat as many grapes as you want. But you can’t put any of the grapes in your basket and take them with you. <sup>25</sup>When you go through another person’s field of grain, you may eat all the grain you can pick with your hands. But you can’t use a sickle to cut that person’s grain and take it with you.

24 “A man might marry a woman, and then find some secret thing about her that he does not like. If that man is not pleased with her, he must write the divorce papers and give them to her. Then he must send her from his house. <sup>2</sup>When she has left his house, she may go and become another man’s wife. <sup>3</sup>But suppose the new husband also does not like her and sends her away. If that man divorces her, then the first husband may not take her again to be his wife. Or if the new husband dies, then her first husband may not take her again to be his wife. She has become unclean* to him. If he married her again, he would be doing something the Lord hates. You must not sin like this in the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

<sup>4</sup>“When a man is newly married, he must not be sent into the army. And he must not be given any other special work. For one year he must be free to stay home and make his new wife happy.

<sup>5</sup>“When you lend a person something, you must not take any part of the stones he uses to grind flour as security.* Why? Because that would be the same as taking away his food.

<sup>6</sup>“A person might kidnap another Israelite—one of his own people. And that kidnapper might sell that person as a slave. If that happens, then that kidnapper must be killed. You must remove that evil from your group.

<sup>7</sup>“When you have a disease like leprosy,* be very careful to follow all the things the Levite priests teach you. You must follow carefully the things I told the priests to do. <sup>8</sup>Remember what the Lord your God did to Miriam* on your trip out of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>“When you give a person any kind of loan, you must not go into his house to get security.* <sup>10</sup>You must stand outside. Then the person that you gave the loan to will bring out the security to you. <sup>11</sup>If he is a poor man, (then he might give the clothes that keep him warm.) You must not keep that security overnight. <sup>12</sup>You must give back his security to him every evening. Then he will have clothes to sleep in. He will thank you, and the Lord your God will see that you did this good thing.

<sup>13</sup>“You must not cheat a hired servant that is poor and needy. It does not matter if he is an Israelite or if he is a foreigner living in one of your cities. <sup>14</sup>Give him his pay every day before sunset. Why? Because he is poor and depends on the money. If you don’t pay him, he will complain against you to the Lord. And you will be guilty of sin.

<sup>15</sup>“Parents must not be put to death for something their children did. And children must not be put to death for something their security Anything a person gives to show he will pay his loan. If the person does not pay back his loan, then the lender can keep that thing.

leprosy A very bad skin disease.

Miriam See Numbers 12:1-15.

unclean Not pure or not acceptable to God for worship.

parents did. A person should be put to death only for a bad thing that he himself did.

<sup>14</sup>“You must be sure that foreigners and orphans* are treated fairly. And you must never take clothes from a widow* for security.* <sup>18</sup>Remember, you were poor slaves in Egypt. And the Lord your God took you from that place and set you free. That is why I tell you to do these things for poor people.

<sup>19</sup>“You might be gathering your harvest in the field, and you might forget and leave some grain there. You must not go back to get it. It will be for the foreigners, the orphans,* and the widows.* If you leave some grain for them, then the Lord your God will bless you in everything you do. <sup>20</sup>When you beat your olive trees, you must not go back to check the branches. The olives you leave will be for the foreigners, the orphans, and the widows. <sup>21</sup>When you gather the grapes from your vineyard, you must not go back to gather the grapes you left. Those grapes will be for the foreigners, the orphans, and the widows. <sup>22</sup>Remember you were poor slaves in Egypt. That is why I tell you to do these things for poor people.

25 “When two people have an argument, they should go to the court. The judges will decide which person is right and which person is wrong. <sup>2</sup>If the judge decides a person must be beaten with a whip, then the judge must make that person lie face down. Someone will beat the guilty person while the judge watches. The number of times he must be hit depends on the crime. <sup>3</sup>You must never hit a person more than 40 times. If you beat a person more than 40 times, then that shows that person’s life is not important to you.

“When an animal is being used to separate grain, you must not cover its mouth to stop it from eating.

orphans Children whose parents have died.

widow(s) Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

security Anything a person gives to show he will pay his loan. If the person does not pay back his loan, then the lender can keep that thing.

<sup>5</sup>“If two brothers live together, and one of them dies and has no son, then the wife of the dead brother must not be married to a stranger outside the family. Her husband’s brother must take her as a wife and have sexual relations with her. Her husband’s brother must do the duty of a husband’s brother for her. <sup>6</sup>Then the first child that she gives birth to will take the place of the man’s dead brother. Then the dead brother’s name will not be taken out of Israel. <sup>7</sup>If the man does not want to take his brother’s wife, then the brother’s wife must go to the leaders at the town meeting place. His brother’s wife must say to the leaders, ‘My husband’s brother refuses to keep his brother’s name alive in Israel. He will not do the duty of a husband’s brother to me.’ <sup>8</sup>Then the leaders of the city must call the man and talk to him. If the man is stubborn and says, ‘I don’t want to take her,’ <sup>9</sup>then his brother’s wife must come to him in front of the leaders. She must take his shoe off his foot. Then she must spit in his face. She must say, ‘This is being done to the man that will not build up his brother’s family!’ <sup>10</sup>Then that brother’s family will be known in Israel as ‘the family of the man that had his shoe taken off.’

<sup>13</sup>“Don’t carry trick weights for cheating people., Don’t use weights that are too heavy or too light. <sup>14</sup>Don’t keep measures in your house that are too large or too small. <sup>15</sup>You must use weights and measures that are correct and accurate. Then you will live a long time in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. <sup>16</sup>The Lord your God hates people that cheat with false weights and measures. Yes, he hates all people that do wrong.

The Amalekites Must Be Destroyed

<sup>17</sup>“Remember what the people of Amalek did to you when you were coming from Egypt. <sup>18</sup>The Amalekites did not respect God. They attacked you when you were weak and tired.

They killed all your people that were slow and walking behind everyone else. <sup>19</sup>That is why you must destroy the memory of the Amalekites from the world. You will do this when you enter the land that the Lord your God is giving you. There he will give you rest from all the enemies around you. But don't forget to destroy the Amalekites!

The First Harvest

26 "You will soon enter the land that the Lord your God is giving you. You will take that land and live there. <sup>2</sup>You will gather the crops that grow in the land the Lord is giving you. You must take the first crops and put them in baskets. Then take that first part of your harvest to the place the Lord your God chooses to be his special house. <sup>3</sup>Go to the priest that is serving at that time. Tell him, 'The Lord promised our ancestors that he would give us some land. Today I come to announce to the Lord your God that I have come to that land!'

"Then the priest will take the basket from you. He will put it down in front of the altar* of the Lord your God. <sup>4</sup>Then there before the Lord your God you will say: 'My ancestor was a wandering Aramean.* He went down into Egypt and stayed there. When he went there, he had only a few people in his family. But in Egypt he became a great nation—a powerful nation with many people. <sup>5</sup>The Egyptians treated us badly. They made us slaves. They hurt us and forced us to work very hard. <sup>6</sup>Then we prayed to the Lord, the God of our ancestors,* and complained about them. And the Lord heard us. He saw our trouble, our hard work, and our suffering. <sup>7</sup>Then the Lord brought us out from Egypt with his great power and strength. He used great miracles and wonders. He did amazing things. <sup>8</sup>So he brought us to this place. He gave us this land—a land filled with many good things.* <sup>9</sup>Now,

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

Aramean A person from ancient Syria. Here this might be Abraham, Isaac, or probably Jacob (Israel).

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

filled ... things Literally, "flowing with milk and honey."

Lord, I bring you the first harvest from the land that you gave me.'

"Then you must put the harvest down before the Lord your God and bow down to worship him. <sup>11</sup>Then you must have a meal together and enjoy all the good things that the Lord your God has given to you and your family. You must share those things with the Levites* and the foreigners that live among you.

"Every third year is the Year of Tithes. In that year, you must give one tenth of your harvest to the Levites,* to the foreigners living in your country, and to the widows* and orphans.* Then in every city those people will have plenty to eat. <sup>13</sup>You must say to the Lord your God, 'I have taken out of my house the holy part of my harvest. I have given it to the Levites,* to the foreigners, and to the orphans and widows. I have followed all the commands you gave me. I have not refused to obey any of your commands. I have not forgotten them. <sup>14</sup>I have not eaten this food when I was sad.* I was not unclean when I collected this food.* I have not offered any of this food for dead people. I have obeyed you, Lord my God. I have done all the things you commanded me. <sup>15</sup>Look down from your holy home, from heaven, and bless your people Israel. And bless the land that you gave us. You promised our ancestors* to give us this land—a land filled with many good things.*'

Obey the Lord's Commands

<sup>16</sup>"Today the Lord your God commands you to obey all these laws and rules. Be careful to follow them with all your heart and soul. <sup>17</sup>Today you have said that the Lord is your God. You have promised to live the way he widows Women whose husbands have died. Often these women had no one to care for them.

orphans Children whose parents have died.

I have ... sad People ate this food to be happy about the many things God gave them, so it could not be from food used during a time of sadness.

I was ... food This would mean other people could not eat this food during the celebration to honor the Lord.

wants. You promised to follow his teachings, and to obey his laws and commands. You said you will do everything he tells you to do.<sup>18</sup> And today the Lord has accepted you to be his own people. He has promised you this. The Lord also said that you must obey all his commands.<sup>19</sup> The Lord will make you greater than all the nations he made. He will give you praise, fame, and honor. And you will be his own special people—just like he promised.”

Stones Memorials for the People

27 Moses and the elders (leaders) of Israel spoke to the people. Moses said, “Obey all the commands that I give you today.<sup>1</sup> You will soon go across the Jordan River into the land that the Lord your God is giving you. On that day, you must put up large stones. Cover those stones with plaster.*<sup>2</sup> Then write on those stones all these commands and teachings. You must do this when you go across the Jordan River. Then you may go into the land that the Lord your God is giving you—a land filled with many good things* The Lord, the God of your ancestors,* promised to give you this land.

“After you go across the Jordan River, you must do the things I command you today. You must set up the stones on Mount Ebal. You must cover these stones with plaster.*<sup>3</sup> Also, use some stones there to build an altar* to the Lord your God. Don’t use iron tools to cut the stones.<sup>4</sup> You must not use cut stones to build the altar for the Lord your God. Offer burnt offerings on this altar to the Lord your God.<sup>5</sup> And you must sacrifice and eat fellowship offerings there. Eat and enjoy yourselves there together with the Lord your God.<sup>6</sup> You must write all of these teachings on the stones that you set up. Write clearly so they are easy to read.”

plaster A type of mud or cement that people used to cover a wall and make it smooth.

filled ... things Literally, “flowing with milk and honey.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

The People Agree to the Curses of the Law

“Moses and the priests spoke to all the people of Israel. Moses said, “Be quiet and listen, Israel! Today you have become the people of the Lord your God.<sup>10</sup> So you must do everything that the Lord your God tells you. You must obey his commands and his laws that I am giving you today.”

“The same day, Moses also told the people,<sup>12</sup> “After you have gone across the Jordan River, these family groups will stand on Mount Gerizim to read the blessings to the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.<sup>13</sup> And these family groups will stand on Mount Ebal to read the curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan and Naphtali.

““And the Levites* will say to all the people of Israel with a loud voice: “Cursed is the person that makes a false god and puts it in its secret place. Those false gods are only statues that some worker makes from wood, stone, or metal. The Lord hates those things!”

“Then all the people will answer, ‘Amen!’* ”

““The Levites will say, “Cursed is the person that does things that show he does not respect his father or his mother!”

“Then all the people will answer, ‘Amen!’ ”

““The Levites will say, “Cursed is the person that moves his neighbor’s landmark*!”

“Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’ ”

““The Levites will say, “Cursed is the person that is mean to a blind man and tricks him into walking off the road!”

“Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’ ”

““The Levites will say, “Cursed is the person that does not give fair judgment for the foreigners, orphans,* and widows*!”

“Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’ ”

““The Levites will say, “Cursed is the person that has sexual relations with his

"Then all the people will say, 'Amen!'

<sup>26</sup>"The Levites will say, 'Cursed is the person that does not support this law and agree to obey it.'

"Then all the people will say, 'Amen!'

Blessings for Obeying the Law

28 "Now, if you will be careful to obey the Lord your God and follow all his commands that I tell you today, then the Lord your God will put you high above all the nations on earth. <sup>2</sup>If you will obey the Lord your God, then all these blessings will come to you and be yours:

<sup>3</sup> "The Lord will bless you in the city and in the field.

<sup>4</sup> The Lord will bless you and give you many children. He will bless your land and give you good crops.

He will bless your animals and let them have many babies.

He will bless all your calves and lambs.

<sup>5</sup> The Lord will bless your baskets and pans and fill them with food.

<sup>7</sup>"The Lord will help you defeat your enemies that come to fight against you. Your enemies will come against you one way, but they will run away from you seven different ways!

<sup>8</sup>"The Lord will bless you and fill your barns. He will bless everything you do. The Lord your God will bless you in the land that he is giving you. <sup>9</sup>The Lord will make you his own special people, like he promised. The Lord will do this if you follow the Lord your God and obey his commands. <sup>10</sup>Then all the people in that land will see that you are called by the name of the Lord. And they will be afraid of you.

<sup>11</sup>"And the Lord will give you many good things. He will give you many children. He will give your cows many calves. He will give you a good harvest in the land that the Lord promised your ancestors* to give you. <sup>12</sup>The Lord will open his storehouse where he keeps his rich blessings. The Lord will send rain at the right time for your land. The Lord will bless everything you do. You will have money to lend to many nations. And you will not need to borrow anything from them. <sup>13</sup>The Lord will make you be like the head, not the tail. You will be on top, not on the bottom. This will happen if you listen to the commands of the Lord your God that I tell you today. You must carefully obey these commands. <sup>14</sup>You must not turn away from any of the teachings that I give you today. You must not turn away to the right or to the left. You must not follow other gods to serve them.

father's wife Here this means the father's wife, even if she is not the mother of the son.

brings ... father Literally, "uncovers his father's nakedness."

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Curses for Not Obeying the Law

<sup>15</sup>“But if you don’t listen to things the Lord your God tells you—if you don’t obey all his commands and laws that I tell you today—then all these bad things will happen to you:

<sup>16</sup> “The Lord will curse you in the city and in the field.
<sup>17</sup> The Lord will curse your baskets and your pans
and they will have no food in them.

<sup>18</sup> The Lord will curse you, and you will not have many children.
He will curse your land and you will not get good crops.
He will curse your animals and they will not have many babies.
He will curse all your calves and lambs.

<sup>19</sup> The Lord will curse you at all times in everything you do.

<sup>20</sup>“If you do evil and turn away from the Lord, then he will make bad things happen to you. You will have frustration and trouble in everything you do. He will continue to do this until you are quickly and completely destroyed. He will do this because you turned away from him and left him. <sup>21</sup>The Lord will cause you to have terrible diseases until you are finished – destroyed from the land you are going to take. <sup>22</sup>The Lord will punish you with diseases, fever, and swelling. The Lord will send you terrible heat and you will have no rain. Your crops will die from the heat and disease.* All these bad things will happen until you are destroyed! <sup>23</sup>There will be no clouds in the sky,—the sky will look like polished brass. And the ground under you will be hard like iron. <sup>24</sup>The Lord will not send rain—only sand and dust will fall from the sky. It will come down on you until you are destroyed.

<sup>25</sup>“The Lord will let your enemies defeat you. You will go to fight against your enemies one way, but you will run away from them seven different ways. The bad things that happen to you will make all the people on earth afraid. <sup>26</sup>Your dead bodies will be food for the wild birds and animals. There will be no one to scare them away from your dead bodies.

<sup>27</sup>“The Lord will punish you with boils, like those he sent on the Egyptians. He will punish you with tumors, sores that run, and an itch that can’t be cured. <sup>28</sup>The Lord will punish you by making you crazy. He will make you blind and confused. <sup>29</sup>In daylight, you will have to feel your way like a blind man. You will fail in everything you do. Again and again people will hurt you and steal things from you. And there will not be anyone to save you.

<sup>30</sup>“You will be engaged to a woman, but another man will have sexual relations with her. You will build a house, but you will not live in it. You will plant a field of grapes, but you will not gather anything from it. <sup>31</sup>People will kill your cows in front of you. But you will not eat any of the meat. People will take your donkeys. And they will not give them back to you. Your enemies will get your sheep. And there will not be anyone to save you.

<sup>32</sup>“Other people will take your sons and your daughters. Day after day, you will look for your children. You will look for them until you become weak—but you will not find them. And God will not help you.

<sup>33</sup>“A nation that you don’t know will take all your crops and all the things you worked for. People will treat you badly and abuse you. <sup>34</sup>You will go crazy because of the things your eyes will see. <sup>35</sup>The Lord will punish you with sore boils that can’t be healed. These boils will be on your knees and legs. The boils will be on every part of your body—from the bottom of your feet to the top of your head.

<sup>36</sup>“The Lord will send you and your king away to a nation you don’t know. You and your ancestors* have never seen that nation. There you will serve false gods made of wood and stone. <sup>37</sup>In the countries where the Lord will send you, the people will be shocked at the bad things that happen to you. They will laugh at you and say bad things about you.

disease This might be mildew, a disease that turns the heads of grain yellow and stops them from growing seeds.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

The Curse of Failure

<sup>38</sup>“Your fields will produce plenty of grain. But your harvest will be small. Why? Because the locusts* will eat your harvest. <sup>39</sup>You will plant fields of grapes and work hard in them. But you will not gather the grapes or drink the wine from them. Why? Because the worms will eat them. <sup>40</sup>You will have olive trees everywhere on your land. But you will not have any of the oil to use. Why? Because the olives will drop to the ground and rot. <sup>41</sup>You will have sons and daughters. But you will not be able to keep them. Why? Because they will be captured and taken away. <sup>42</sup>Locusts will destroy all your trees and the crops in your fields. <sup>43</sup>The foreigners that live among you will get more and more power. And you will lose the power you had. <sup>44</sup>The foreigners will have money to loan you. But you will not have any money to loan them. They will control you like the head controls the body. You will be like the tail.

<sup>45</sup>“All these curses will come on you. They will keep chasing you and catching you, until you are destroyed. Why? Because you did not listen to the things the Lord your God told you. You did not obey the commands and laws that he gave you. <sup>46</sup>These curses will show people that God judged you and your descendants* forever. People will be amazed at the terrible things that happen to you.

<sup>47</sup>“The Lord your God gave you many blessings. But you did not serve him with joy and a glad heart. <sup>48</sup>So you will serve the enemies that the Lord will send against you. You will be hungry, thirsty, naked, and poor. The Lord will put a load on you that can't be removed. You will carry that load until he destroys you.*

locusts Insects like grasshoppers. Locusts can destroy a large crop very quickly.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

The ... you Literally, “The Lord will put an iron yoke on your neck until he destroys you.”

The Curse of an Enemy Nation

<sup>49</sup>“The Lord will bring a nation from far away to fight you. You will not understand their language. They will come quickly, like an eagle coming down from the sky. <sup>50</sup>Those people will be cruel. They will not care about old people. They will not show mercy to young children. <sup>51</sup>They will take your animals and the food you grow. They will take everything until they destroy you. They will not leave you any grain, wine, oil, cows, sheep, or goats. They will take everything, until they destroy you.

<sup>52</sup>“That nation will surround and attack your cities. You think that the tall, strong walls around your cities will protect you. But those walls will fall down. The enemy will surround all your cities everywhere in the land the Lord your God is giving you. <sup>53</sup>You will suffer very much. The enemy will surround your cities. They will not let you have any food. You will become very hungry. You will be so hungry that you will eat your own sons and daughters—you will eat the bodies of the children that the Lord your God gave you.

<sup>54</sup>“Even the most gentle and kind man among you will become cruel. He will be cruel to other people. He will be cruel to his wife that he loves so much. And he will be cruel to his children that are still alive. <sup>55</sup>He will have nothing left to eat, so he will eat his own children. And he will not share that meat with anyone—not even the other people in his own family! All those bad things will happen when your enemy comes to surround your cities and make you suffer.

<sup>56</sup>“Even the most gentle and kind woman among you will become cruel. She might be a lady so gentle and delicate that she never put her feet on the ground to walk anywhere. But she will become cruel to her husband that she loves so much. And she will be cruel to her own son and daughter. <sup>57</sup>She will hide and give birth to a baby. And she will eat the baby and everything that comes out of her body with it. All those bad things will happen when your enemy comes to surround your cities and make you suffer.

<sup>8</sup>“You must obey all the commands and teachings that are written in this book. And you must respect the wonderful and awesome name of the Lord your God. If you don’t obey, then <sup>9</sup>the Lord will give you and your descendants* many troubles. Your troubles and diseases will be terrible! <sup>10</sup>You saw many troubles and diseases in Egypt, and they made you afraid. The Lord will bring all those bad things against you! <sup>11</sup>The Lord will even bring troubles and diseases that are not written in this Book of Teachings. He will continue to do this until you are destroyed. <sup>12</sup>You might have as many people as the stars in the sky. But only a few of you will be left. Why? Because you did not listen to the Lord your God.

<sup>13</sup>“The Lord was happy to be good to you and to make your nation grow. In the same way, the Lord will be happy to ruin and destroy you. You are going to take that land to be yours. But people will take you out of that land! <sup>14</sup>The Lord will scatter you among all the people in the world. The Lord will scatter you from one end of the earth to the other. There you will serve false gods made of wood and stone. They are false gods that you or your ancestors* never worshiped.

<sup>15</sup>“You will not have any peace among these nations. You will have no place to rest. The Lord will fill your mind with worry. Your eyes will feel tired. You will be very upset. <sup>16</sup>You will live with danger and always be afraid. You will be afraid night and day. You will never feel sure about your life. <sup>17</sup>In the morning you will say, ‘I wish it were evening!’ In the evening you will say, ‘I wish it were morning!’ Why? Because of the fear that will be in your heart, and because of the bad things you will see. <sup>18</sup>The Lord will send you back to Egypt in ships. I said you would never have to go to that place again, but the Lord will send you there. In Egypt, you will try to sell yourselves as slaves to your enemies. But no person will buy you.”

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

The Agreement in Moab

29 The Lord made an agreement with the people of Israel at Mount Horeb (Sinai). In addition to that agreement, the Lord also commanded Moses to make another agreement with them while they were in Moab. This is that agreement.

<sup>2</sup>Moses called together all the Israelite people. He said to them, “You saw all the things the Lord did in the land of Egypt. You saw the things he did to Pharaoh, to Pharaoh’s officers, and to his whole country. <sup>3</sup>You saw the great troubles he gave them. You saw the miracles and amazing things he did. <sup>4</sup>But even today you still don’t understand what happened. The Lord has not let you really understand what you saw and heard. <sup>5</sup>The Lord led you through the desert for 40 years. And during all that time your clothes and your shoes did not wear out. <sup>6</sup>You did not have any food with you. You did not have any wine or anything else to drink. <sup>7</sup>But the Lord took care of you. He did this so that you would understand that he is the Lord your God.

<sup>8</sup>“You came to this place, and King Sihon from Heshbon and King Og from Bashan came out to fight against us. But we defeated them. <sup>9</sup>Then we took their land and gave it to the people in the family groups of Reuben and Gad, and to half the family group of Manasseh. <sup>10</sup>If you obey all the commands in this agreement, then you will continue to succeed in everything you do.

<sup>11</sup>“Today all of you are standing here before the Lord your God. Your leaders, your officials, your elders (leaders), and all the other men are here. <sup>12</sup>Your wives and children are here and also the foreigners that live among you—the people that cut your wood and bring you water. <sup>13</sup>You are all here to enter into an agreement with the Lord your God. The Lord is making this agreement with you today. <sup>14</sup>With this agreement, the Lord is making you his own special people. And he himself will become your God. He told you this. He promised this to your ancestors*—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>15</sup>The Lord is making this agreement with its promises not only with you people. <sup>16</sup>He is making this agreement with all of us that stand here today before the Lord our God. But this agreement is also for our descendants* that are not here with us today. <sup>16</sup>You remember how we lived in the land of Egypt. And you remember how we traveled through the countries that were on our way here. <sup>17</sup>You saw their hated things—the idols* they had made from wood, stone, silver, and gold. <sup>18</sup>Be sure that there is no man, woman, family, or family group here today that turns away from the Lord our God. No person should go and serve the gods of the other nations. People that do that are like a plant that grows bitter and poisonous fruit.

<sup>19</sup>“A person might hear these curses, but he might comfort himself and say, ‘I will continue doing what I want. Nothing bad will happen to me.’ That person might cause bad things to happen not only to himself but to everyone—even to the good people.* <sup>20-21</sup>The Lord will not forgive that person. No, the Lord will be angry and upset at that person. The Lord will punish that person. The Lord will separate that person from all the family groups of Israel. The Lord will completely destroy him. All the bad things that are written in this book will happen to him. Those things are a part of the Agreement that is written in this Book of Teachings.

<sup>22</sup>“In the future your descendants* and foreigners from faraway countries will see how the land has been ruined. They will see the diseases that the Lord has brought to it. <sup>23</sup>All the land will be useless—destroyed by burning sulfur and covered with salt. The land will have nothing planted in it. Nothing will be growing—not even weeds. The land will be destroyed like Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, the cities the Lord destroyed when he was very angry.

<sup>24</sup>“All the other nations will ask, ‘Why did the Lord do this to this land? Why was he so angry?’ <sup>25</sup>The answer will be: ‘The Lord is angry because the people of Israel left the Agreement of the Lord, the God of their ancestors.* They stopped following the Agreement that the Lord made with them when he brought them out of Egypt. <sup>26</sup>The people of Israel started serving other gods—gods they never worshiped before. The Lord told his people not to worship those gods. <sup>27</sup>That is why the Lord became very angry against the people of this land. So he brought to them all the curses that are written in this book. <sup>28</sup>The Lord became very angry and upset at them. So he took them out of their land. He put them in another land, where they are today.’

<sup>29</sup>“There are some things that the Lord our God has kept secret. Only he knows those things. But the Lord told us about these things! The Lord gave his teachings to us and our descendants.* He told us to obey them forever!

The Israelites Will Return to Their Land

30 “All these things I have said will happen to you. You will have good things from the blessings, and you will have bad things from the curses. The Lord your God will send you away to other nations. Then you will think about these things. <sup>2</sup>At that time, you and your descendants* will return to the Lord your God. You will follow him with all your heart and fully obey all his commands that I have given you today. <sup>3</sup>Then the Lord your God will be kind to you. The Lord will make you free again! He will bring you back from those nations where he sent you. ‘Even if you were sent to the farthest parts of the earth, the Lord your God will gather you and bring you back from there. <sup>4</sup>The Lord will bring you into the land your ancestors* had, and the land will become yours. The Lord will do good to you, and you will have more than your ancestors had. You will have more people in your nation than they ever had. <sup>5</sup>The Lord your God will

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

That ... people Literally, “thereby bringing to an end the soaked and the thirsty.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

make you and your descendants want to obey him.* Then you will love the Lord with all your heart. And you will live!

<sup>7</sup>“Then the Lord your God will make all those bad things happen to your enemies. Why? Because those people hate you and give you trouble. <sup>8</sup>And you will again obey the Lord. You will obey all his commands that I give you today. <sup>9</sup>The Lord your God will make you successful in everything you do. He will bless you with many children. He will bless your cows—they will have many baby calves. He will bless your fields—they will grow many good crops. The Lord will be good to you. The Lord will again enjoy doing good for you, the same as he enjoyed doing good for your ancestors.* <sup>10</sup>But you must do the things that the Lord your God tells you to do. You must obey his commands and follow the rules that are written in this Book of Teachings. You must obey the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Then these good things will happen to you.

Life or Death

<sup>11</sup>“This command that I give you today is not too hard for you. It is not far off. <sup>12</sup>This command is not in heaven so that you should say, ‘Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it to us, so that we can hear and do it?’ <sup>13</sup>This command is not on the other side of the sea so that you should say, ‘Who will go across the sea for us and bring it to us, so that we can hear it and do it?’ <sup>14</sup>No, the word is very near to you! It is in your mouth and in your heart. So you can obey it!

<sup>15</sup>“Today I have given you a choice between life and death, good and evil. <sup>16</sup>I command you today to love the Lord your God. I command you to follow him and to obey his commands, laws, and rules. Then you will live, and your nation will grow larger. And the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to take for your own. <sup>17</sup>But if you turn away from the Lord and refuse to listen—if you are led away to worship and serve other gods, <sup>18</sup>then you will be destroyed. I am warning you! If you turn away from the Lord, you will not live long in that land across the Jordan River that you are ready to enter and take for your own.

<sup>19</sup>“Today I am giving you a choice of two ways. And I ask heaven and earth to be witnesses of your choice. You can choose life, or you can choose death. The first choice will bring a blessing. The other choice will bring a curse. So choose life! Then you and your children will live. <sup>20</sup>You must love the Lord your God and obey him. Never leave him! Why? Because the Lord is your life. And the Lord will give you a long life in the land that he promised to give to your ancestors*—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”

Joshua Will Be the New Leader

31 Then Moses went and spoke these words to all the people of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Moses said to them, “I am now 120 years old. I can’t lead you any more. The Lord said to me: ‘You will not go across the Jordan River.’ <sup>3</sup>But, the Lord your God will lead you people into that land! The Lord will destroy these nations for you. You will take their land away from them. But the Lord said that Joshua must lead you.

<sup>4</sup>“The Lord destroyed Sihon and Og. The Lord destroyed those Amorite kings. And the Lord will do the same thing for you again! <sup>5</sup>The Lord will help you defeat these nations. But you must do to them everything I told you to do. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and be brave. Don’t be afraid of those people! Why? Because the Lord your God is with you. He will not fail you or leave you.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Moses called Joshua. All the people of Israel watched while Moses said to Joshua, “Be strong and brave. You will lead these people into the land that the Lord promised to give to their ancestors.* You will help the people of Israel take this land to be their own. <sup>8</sup>The Lord will lead you. He himself is with make ... him Literally, “circumcise the hearts of you and your seed.”

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

you. He will not fail you or leave you. Don't worry. Don't be afraid!"

Moses Writes the Teachings

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses wrote the Teachings and gave them to the priests. The priests are from the family group of Levi. They have the work of carrying the Lord's Box of the Agreement.* Moses also gave the Teachings to all the elders (leaders) of Israel. <sup>10</sup>Then Moses spoke to the leaders. He said, "At the end of every seven years, in the Year of Freedom, read these Teachings at the Festival of Shelters. <sup>11</sup>At that time, all the people of Israel must come to meet with the Lord your God at the special place he will choose. Then you must read the Teachings to the people so that they can hear them. <sup>12</sup>Bring together all the people—the men, the women, the little children, and the foreigners that live in your cities. They will hear the Teachings, and they will learn to respect the Lord your God. Then they will be able to do all the things in the Teachings. <sup>13</sup>If their descendants* don't know the Teachings, then they will hear them. And they will learn to respect the Lord your God. They will respect him as long as you live in your country. You will soon go across the Jordan River and take that land to be your own."

The Lord Calls Moses and Joshua

<sup>14</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "Now the time is near for you to die. Get Joshua and come to the Meeting Tent.* I will tell Joshua the things he must do." So Moses and Joshua went to the Meeting Tent.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord appeared at the Tent in a tall cloud. The tall cloud stood over the entrance of the Tent. <sup>16</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "You will die soon. And after you have gone to be with your ancestors,* these people will not continue to be faithful to me. They will break the Agreement I made with them. They will leave me and begin worshiping other gods—the false gods of the land where they are going. <sup>17</sup>At that time, I will become very angry at them, and I will leave them. I will refuse to help them, and they will be destroyed. Terrible things will happen to them, and they will have many troubles. Then they will say, 'These bad things happened to us because our God is not with us.' <sup>18</sup>And I will refuse to help them, because they have done evil and worshiped other gods.

<sup>19</sup>"So write down this song, and teach it to the people of Israel. Teach them to sing this song. Then this song will be a witness for me against the people of Israel. <sup>20</sup>I will take them into the land that I promised to give to their ancestors* —a land filled with many good things.* And they will have all they want to eat. They will have a rich life. But then they will turn to other gods and serve them. They will turn away from me and break my Agreement. <sup>21</sup>Then many terrible things will happen to them. They will have many troubles. At that time, their people will still know this song, and it will show them how wrong they are. I have not yet taken them into the land I promised to give them. But I already know what they are planning to do there."

<sup>22</sup>So that same day Moses wrote down the song. And he taught the song to the people of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>Then the Lord spoke to Joshua son of Nun. The Lord said, "Be strong and brave. You will lead the people of Israel into the land I promised them. And I will be with you."

Moses Warns the People of Israel

<sup>24</sup>Moses carefully wrote all these teachings in a book. When he finished, <sup>25</sup>he gave a command to the Levites.* (These men carry the Lord's Box of the Agreement.*) Moses said,

Box of the Agreement Or, "ark of the Covenant," the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

filled ... things Literally, "flowing with milk and honey."

Levites People from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

<sup>26</sup>“Take this Book of Teachings and put it by the side of the Box of the Agreement of the Lord your God. Then it will be a witness against you. <sup>27</sup>I know you are very stubborn. I know you want to live your own way. Look, you refused to obey the Lord while I was with you. So I know you will refuse to obey him after I die. <sup>28</sup>Bring together all the officers and leaders of your family groups. I will tell them these things. And I will call heaven and earth to be witnesses against them. <sup>29</sup>I know that after my death you will become evil. You will turn from the way I commanded you to follow. Bad things will happen to you in the future. Why? Because you want to do the things that the Lord says are evil. You will make him angry because of the bad things you do.”

The Song of Moses

<sup>30</sup>All the people of Israel were gathered together. And Moses sang this song for them. Moses sang the whole song:

32 “Skies, listen and I will speak!
Earth, hear the words of my mouth!

<sup>2</sup> My teaching will come down like the rain.
My words will flow like water on the ground,
like gentle rain on the soft grass, like rain on the green plants.

<sup>3</sup> I will speak the Lord’s name!
Praise God—God is great!

Why? Because all his ways are right!
God is true and faithful.
He is good and honest!

<sup>5</sup> But you people have been bad to the Lord.
You are like bad children that don’t obey.
You are crooked liars.

<sup>6</sup> You should not treat the Lord that way!
You are stupid, foolish people.
The Lord is your Father.

He is your Creator.
He made you,
and he supports you.

<sup>7</sup> “Remember the things that happened long ago.
Think about the things that happened many, many years ago.

Ask your father;
he will tell you.

Ask your leaders;
they will tell you.

<sup>8</sup> God Most-High separated the people on earth.
He gave each nation its own land.
God set up borders for those people.
There were as many nations as people in Israel.

<sup>9</sup> The Lord’s share is his people;
Jacob (Israel) belongs to the Lord.

<sup>10</sup> “The Lord found Jacob (Israel) in a desert land.
It was an empty, windy land.
The Lord surrounded Jacob to protect him.
He protected him like the pupil of his eye.

<sup>11</sup> The Lord was like an eagle to Israel.
An eagle pushes her babies from the nest
(to teach them to fly).
She flies with her babies to protect them.
She spreads her wings to catch them when they fall.
And she carries them on her wings (to a safe place).
The Lord is like that.

<sup>12</sup> “The Lord alone led Jacob (Israel).
No foreign gods helped him.

<sup>13</sup> The Lord led Jacob to conquer the hill country.
Jacob took the harvest in the fields.
The Lord gave Jacob honey from the rock;
he made olive oil flow from the hard rock.

<sup>14</sup> The Lord gave Israel, butter

- from the herd and milk from the flock.
He gave Israel, fat lambs and goats,
the best rams from Bashan,
and the finest wheat.
You, people of Israel, drank wine from the red juice of the grape.
- 15 "But Jeshurun* became fat and kicked like a fat bull,
He became full and heavy.
He was well fed!
And he left the God who made him!
He did not accept the Rock (the Lord) to be his Savior.
- 16 The Lord's people worshiped other gods and made the Lord jealous.
The Lord hates idols.
But his people built idols and made the Lord angry.
- 17 They sacrificed to demons that are not really gods.
They sacrificed to gods they did not know.
Those were new gods—gods that your ancestors* never worshiped.
- 18 You left the Rock (God) who made you;
you forgot the God who gave you life.
- 19 "The Lord saw this,
and he rejected his people.
Why? Because his children made him angry.
- 20 Then the Lord said,
'I will turn away from them;
I can see what their end will be.
They are very rebellious people.
They are like children that won't learn their lessons!
- 21 They began worshiping idols and made me jealous.
Those statues are not real gods!
They made me angry with

- worthless idols.
So, I will use people that are not yet
a nation,
and I will make Israel jealous!
I will use a foolish nation to make them angry.
- 22 My anger is like a burning fire.
It burns down to the deepest grave.
It burns the earth and the things it produces.
It burns the foundations of the mountains!
- 23 "I will bring troubles to the Israelites.
I will shoot my arrows on them.
- 24 They will become thin and weak from hunger.
Terrible diseases will destroy them.
I will send wild animals against them.
Poisonous snakes and lizards will bite them.
- 25 Soldiers will kill them in the streets.
And they will be afraid in their houses.
The soldiers will kill young men and women.
They will kill babies and old people.
- 26 I wanted to destroy the Israelites, so that people would forget them completely!
- 27 But I know what their enemy would say.
The enemy would not understand.
They would brag and say,
"The Lord did not destroy Israel.
We won with our own power!"
- 28 "The people of Israel, are foolish.
They don't understand.
- 29 If they were wise,
they would understand.
They would know what will happen to them!
- 30 Can one person chase away 1,000 men?
Can two men cause 10,000 men to run away?
That will happen only if the Lord gives them to their enemy!
That will happen only if their Rock* sells

Jeshurun Another name for Israel. This name means "good" or "honest."

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

<sup>31</sup> The ‘rock’ of our enemies is not strong like our Rock (the Lord).

Our enemies themselves know that!

<sup>32</sup> The vines and fields of those enemies will be destroyed, like Sodom and Gomorrah.*

Their grapes are like bitter poison.

punishment.

I have it locked up in my storehouse!

<sup>35</sup> I am saving that punishment for the time they slip and do bad things.

I will punish them because they did things that were wrong.

Their time of trouble is near.

Their punishment will come quickly.’

<sup>36</sup> “The Lord will judge his people.

They are his servants, and he will show them mercy.

He will see that their power is gone.

He will see that they are all helpless—the slaves and free people, too.

<sup>37</sup> Then the Lord will say,

‘Where are the false gods?

Where is the “rock” that you went to for safety?

<sup>38</sup> Those false gods ate the fat from your sacrifices.

And they drank the wine of your offerings.

So let those gods get up and help you!

Let them protect you!

<sup>39</sup> “Now, see that I and only I am God!

There is no other God!

I decide to kill people or to let people live.

I can hurt people, and I can make people well.

And no person can save another person from my power!

<sup>40</sup> I raise my hand toward heaven and make this promise:

If it is true that I live forever, then it is also true that these things will happen:

<sup>41</sup> I will sharpen my flashing sword.

I will use it to punish my enemies.

I will give them the punishment
they deserve.

<sup>42</sup> My enemies will be killed and taken as prisoners.

My arrows will be covered with their blood.

My sword will cut off the heads of their soldiers.’

<sup>43</sup> “The whole world should be happy for God’s people!

Why? Because he helps them,— he punishes the people that kill his servants.

He will give his enemies the punishment
they deserve.

And he will make his land and his people pure.*”

Moses Teaches the People His Song

“Moses came and spoke all the words of this song for the people of Israel to hear. Joshua son of Nun was with Moses. “When Moses finished giving these teachings to the people, “he said to them, “You must be sure to pay attention to all the commands I tell you today. And you must tell your children to fully obey the commands in this Law. “Don’t think these teachings are not important! They are your life! Through these teachings you will live a long time in the land across the Jordan River that you are ready to take.”

Moses on Mount Nebo

“The Lord spoke to Moses that same day. The Lord said, “Go to the Abarim Mountains. Go up on Mount Nebo in the land of Moab across from the city of Jericho. Then you can look at the land of Canaan that I am giving to Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities God destroyed because the people were so evil. See Gen. 19.

make ... pure Or, “make atonement for ...” The Hebrew word means “to cover,” “to hide,” or “to erase sins.”

the people of Israel to live in. <sup>50</sup>You will die on that mountain. You will go to be with your people, the same as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor. <sup>51</sup>Why? Because you both sinned against me. You were at the waters of Meribah near Kadesh. That was in the desert of Zin. There, in front of the people of Israel, you did not honor me and show that I am holy. <sup>52</sup>So now you may see the land that I am giving to the people of Israel. But you can't go into that land."

Moses Blesses the People

33 This is the blessing that Moses, the man of God, gave the people of Israel before he died. <sup>1</sup>Moses said:

"The Lord came from Sinai.

The Lord was like the light shining at dawn over Seir.

He was like a light shining from Mount Paran.

The Lord came with 10,000 holy ones.*

At his right hand were God's mighty soldiers.

All his holy people are in his hand.

They sit at his feet and learn his teachings!

Those teaching belong to all of Jacob's people.

<sup>5</sup> At that time, the people of Israel and their leaders met together.

And the Lord became the king of Jeshurun.*

Reuben's Blessing

<sup>6</sup> "Let Reuben live, and not die!

But let there be only a few people in his family group!"

Judah's Blessing

<sup>7</sup>Moses said these things about the people of Judah:

"Lord, listen to the leader from Judah when he calls for help.

Bring him to his people.

Make him strong, and help him defeat his enemies!"

Levi's Blessing

<sup>8</sup>Moses said these things about the people of Levi:

"Levi is your true follower.

He keeps the Urim and Thummim.*

At Massah you tested the people of Levi.

At the waters of Meribah,* you proved that they are yours.

<sup>9</sup> They cared more for you, Lord, than for their own families.

They did not care about their father and mother.

They did not recognize their brothers.

They did not give attention to their own children.

But they obeyed your commands.

They kept your Agreement.

<sup>10</sup> They will teach your rules to Jacob*

They will teach your Law to Israel.

They will burn incense* before you.

They will offer burnt offerings on your altar.*

<sup>11</sup> Lord, bless the things that belong to Levi.

Accept the things he does.

Destroy the men that attack him!

Defeat his enemies, so that they will never attack him again."

Urim and Thummim Used by the priest to learn God's answer to questions. They were probably like lots—stones, sticks, or bones that were thrown like dice to make decisions.

Massah ... Meribah See Num. 20:1-13 for the story.

Jacob Another name for Israel.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a sacrifice to God.

altar A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

holy ones Or, "angels."

Jeshurun Another name for Israel. This name means "good" or "honest."

Benjamin's Blessing

<sup>12</sup>Moses said these things about the people of Benjamin:

“The Lord loves Benjamin.
Benjamin will live safely near him.
The Lord protects him all the time.
And the Lord will live in his land.*”

Joseph's Blessing

<sup>13</sup>Moses said these things about the people of Joseph:

“May the Lord bless Joseph's land.
Lord, send them rain from the skies above and water from the ground below.
<sup>14</sup> Let the sun give them good fruit.
Let each month bring its best fruit.
<sup>15</sup> Let the hills and ancient mountains produce their best fruit.
<sup>16</sup> Let the earth give its best to the people of Joseph.
Joseph was separated from his brothers.
So may the Lord who was in the burning bush give his best to Joseph.
<sup>17</sup> Joseph is like a powerful bull.
His two sons are like the horns of a bull.
They will attack other people and push them to the ends of the earth!
Yes, Manasseh has thousands of people, and Ephraim has ten thousands.”

Zebulun's and Issachar's Blessing

<sup>18</sup>Moses said these things about the people of Zebulun:

“Be happy, Zebulun, when you go out.
And be happy, Issachar, in your tents at home.
<sup>19</sup> They will call the people to their mountain (Carmel).

And ... land Literally, “And he will dwell between his shoulders.” This probably means that the Lord's temple will be in Jerusalem, at the border between Benjamin and Judah's land.

There they will offer good sacrifices.
They will take riches from the sea and treasures from the shore.”

Gad's Blessing

<sup>20</sup>Moses said these things about the people of Gad:

“Praise God!
God gave Gad more land!
Gad is like a lion.
He lies down and waits.
Then he attacks and eats the whole animal.
<sup>21</sup> He chooses the best part for himself.
He takes the king's share.
The leaders of the people come to him.
He is good to the people of Israel.
He does what the Lord says is good.”

Dan's Blessing

<sup>22</sup>Moses said these things about the people of Dan:

“Dan is a lion's cub that jumps out from Bashan.”

Naphtali's Blessing

<sup>23</sup>Moses said these things about the people of Naphtali:

“Naphtali, you will have plenty of good things.
The Lord will truly bless you.
You will get the land near Lake Galilee.”

Asher's Blessing

<sup>24</sup>Moses said these things about the people of Asher:

“Asher is the most blessed of the sons.
Let him be the favorite of his brothers.
And let him wash his feet in oil.
<sup>25</sup> Your gates will have locks made from iron and bronze.
And you will be strong all your life.”

Moses Gives Praise to God

- <sup>26</sup> "There is none like God, Jeshurun*!
 God rides on the clouds in his glory through the skies to help you.
- <sup>27</sup> God lives forever.
 He is your place of safety.
 God's power continues forever!
 He is protecting you.
 God will force your enemies to leave your land.
 He will say,
 'Destroy the enemy!'
- <sup>28</sup> So Israel will live in safety, Jacob's well belongs to them.
 They will get a land of grain and wine.
 And that land will get plenty of rain.
- <sup>29</sup> Israel, you are blessed.
 No other nation is like you.
 The Lord saved you.
 The Lord is like a strong shield protecting you.
 The Lord is like a powerful sword.
 Your enemies will be afraid of you.
 And you will walk on all their holy places!"

Moses Dies

34 Moses climbed Mount Nebo. Moses went from the Jordan Valley in Moab to the top of Mount Pisgah. This was across the Jordan River from Jericho. The Lord showed Moses all the land from Gilead to Dan. <sup>2</sup>The Lord showed him all the land of Naphtali, Ephraim, and Manasseh. He showed him all the land of Judah as far as the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>3</sup>The Lord showed Moses the Negev* and the valley that goes from Zoar to Jericho, the city of palm trees. <sup>4</sup>The Lord said to Moses, "This is the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I said to them, 'I will give this land to your descendants.*' I have let you see the land, but you cannot go there."

Jeshurun This is another name for Jacob. The name means "good" or "honest."

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

<sup>5</sup>Then Moses, the Lord's servant, died there in the land of Moab. The Lord had told Moses this would happen. <sup>6</sup>The Lord buried Moses in Moab. This was in the valley across from Beth Peor. But even today no person knows exactly where Moses' grave is. <sup>7</sup>Moses was 120 years old when he died. He was as strong as ever, and his eyes were still good. <sup>8</sup>The people of Israel cried for Moses for 30 days. They stayed in the Jordan Valley in Moab until the time of sadness was finished.

Joshua Becomes the New Leader

<sup>9</sup>Moses had put his hands on Joshua and appointed him to be the new leader. Then Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom. So the people of Israel began to obey Joshua. They did the things that the Lord had commanded Moses.

<sup>10</sup>Israel never had another prophet* like Moses: The Lord knew Moses face to face. <sup>11</sup>The Lord sent Moses to do powerful miracles in the land of Egypt. Pharaoh, all his officers, and all the people in Egypt saw those miracles. <sup>12</sup>No other prophet ever did all the powerful and amazing things that Moses did. All the people of Israel saw the things he did.

prophet A person chosen by God to be a special servant.

Joshua

God Chooses Joshua to Lead Israel

1 Moses was the Lord's servant. Joshua son of Nun was Moses' helper. After Moses died, the Lord spoke to Joshua. The Lord said, <sup>2</sup>"My servant Moses is dead. Now you and these people must go across the Jordan River. You must go into the land I am giving to you, the people of Israel. <sup>3</sup>I promised Moses that I would give you this land. So, every place you go I will give you that land. <sup>4</sup>All the land of the Hittite people, from the desert and Lebanon all the way to the Great River (that is, the Euphrates River) will be yours. And all the land from here to the Mediterranean Sea in the west (that is, the place where the sun sets) will be within your borders. <sup>5</sup>I was with Moses. And I will be with you in the same way. No person will be able to stop you all your life. I will not abandon you. I will never leave you.

<sup>6</sup>Joshua, you must be strong and brave! You must lead these people so they can take their land. I promised their fathers I would give them this land. <sup>7</sup>But you must also be strong and brave about another thing. You must be sure to obey the commands my servant Moses gave you. If you follow his teachings exactly, then you will be successful in everything you do. <sup>8</sup>Always remember the things written in that book of law. Study that book day and night. Then you can be sure to obey the things that are written there. If you do this, then you will be wise and successful in everything you do. <sup>9</sup>Remember, I commanded you to be strong and brave. So don't be scared, because the Lord your God will be with you every place you go."

Joshua Takes Command

<sup>10</sup>So Joshua gave orders to the leaders of the people. He said, <sup>11</sup>"Go through the camp and tell the people to get ready. Say to the people, 'Get some food ready. Three days from now we will go across the Jordan River. We will go and take the land that the Lord your God is giving you.'"

<sup>12</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the family groups of Reuben, Gad and half of the family group of Manasseh. Joshua said, <sup>13</sup>"Remember what Moses, the Lord's servant, told you. He said that the Lord your God would give you a place to rest. The Lord will give you this land. <sup>14</sup>The Lord already gave you this land east of the Jordan River. Your wives, your children, and your animals can stay in this land. But your fighting men must cross the Jordan River with your brothers. You must dress for war and help your brothers [take their land]. <sup>15</sup>The Lord gave you a place to rest. The Lord will do the same for your brothers. But you must help your brothers until they take the land the Lord their God is giving to them. Then you can go back to your own land east of the Jordan River. That is the land that Moses, the Lord's servant, gave to you.

<sup>16</sup>Then the people answered Joshua, "Anything that you command us to do, we will do. Any place you send us, we will go. <sup>17</sup>We fully obeyed Moses. In the same way, we will obey everything you say. We only ask one thing from the Lord. We ask that the Lord your God will be with you the same as he was with Moses. <sup>18</sup>Then, if any person refuses to obey your commands or if any person turns against you, that person will be killed. Just be strong and brave!"

Spies In Jericho

2 Joshua son of Nun and all the people were camped at Acacia.* Joshua sent out two spies. No other people knew that Joshua sent out these men. Joshua said to the men, "Go and look at the land. Look closely at the city of Jericho."

So the men went to the city of Jericho. They went to the house of a prostitute and stayed there. This woman's name was Rahab.

<sup>8</sup>So the king of Jericho sent this message to Rahab: "Don't hide those men that came and stayed in your house. Bring them out. They have come to spy on our country."

"The woman had hidden the two men. But the woman said, "Those two men did come here, but I didn't know where they came from. <sup>9</sup>In the evening, when it was time to close the city gate, the men left. I don't know where they went. But if you go quickly, maybe you can catch them." <sup>6</sup>(Rahab said those things, but really, she had taken the men up to the roof,* and she was hiding them in the hay* she had piled up there.)

<sup>7</sup>So the king's men went out of the city, and the people closed the city gates. The king's men went to look for the two men from Israel. They went to the Jordan River and looked at all the places where people cross the river.

<sup>8</sup>The two men were ready to sleep for the night. But Rahab went to the roof and talked to the men. <sup>9</sup>Rahab said, "I know that the Lord has given this land to your people. You frighten us. All the people living in this country are afraid of you. <sup>10</sup>We are afraid because we have heard about the ways that the Lord helped you. We heard that he dried the water at the Red Sea when you came out of Egypt. We also heard what you did to the two Amorite kings, Sihon and Og. We heard how you destroyed those kings living east of the Jordan River. <sup>11</sup>We heard about those things and we became very afraid. And now, none of our men are brave enough to fight you. Why? Because the Lord your God rules the heavens above and the earth below! <sup>12</sup>So now, I want you to make a promise with me. I was kind to you and helped you. So promise before the Lord that you will be kind to my family. Please tell me that you will do this. <sup>13</sup>Tell me that you will allow my family to live—my father, mother, brothers, sisters, and all of their families. Promise that you will save us from death."

<sup>14</sup>The men agreed. They said, "We will trade our lives for your lives. Don't tell anyone what we are doing. Then, when the Lord gives us our land, we will be kind to you. You can trust us."

<sup>15</sup>The woman's house was built into the city wall. It was part of the wall. So the woman used a rope to let the men down through a window. <sup>16</sup>Then the woman said to them, "Go west, into the hills so the king's men will not accidentally find you. Hide there for three days. After the king's men come back you can go on your way.

<sup>17</sup>The men said to her, "We made a promise to you. But you must do one thing or we will not be responsible for our promise. <sup>18</sup>You are using this red rope to help us escape. We will come back to this land. At that time, you must tie this red rope in your window. You must bring your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your family into your house with you. <sup>19</sup>We will protect every person who stays in this house. If anyone in your house is hurt, then we will be responsible. But if any person goes out of your house, then that person might be killed. We will not be responsible for that person. It will be his own fault. <sup>20</sup>We are making this agreement with you. But if you tell anyone about what we are doing then we are free from this agreement."

house. Then the woman tied the red rope in the window.

Miracle at the Jordan River

3 Early the next morning, Joshua and all the people of Israel got up and left Acacia.* They traveled to the Jordan River. They camped at the Jordan River before they went across. <sup>2</sup>After three days, the leaders went through the camp. <sup>3</sup>The leaders gave orders to the people. They said, "You will see the priests and Levites* carrying the Box of the Agreement* of the Lord your God. At that time, you must follow them. 'But don't follow too closely. Stay about 1,000 yards* behind them. You have not been here before. But if you follow them, you will know where to go.'"

<sup>5</sup>Then Joshua said to the priests, "Take the Box of the Agreement,* and go across the river in front of the people." So the priests lifted the Box and carried it in front of the people.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to make you a great man for all the people of Israel to see. Then the people will know that I am with you the same as I was with Moses. <sup>8</sup>The priest will carry the Box of the Agreement.* Tell the priests this, 'Walk to the shore of the Jordan River and stop just before you step into the water.'"

<sup>9</sup>Then Joshua said to the people of Israel, "Come and listen to the words of the Lord your God. <sup>10</sup>Here is proof that the living God is truly with you. Here is proof that he will truly defeat your enemies. He will defeat the Canaanite people, the Hittite people, the Hivite people, the Perizzite people, the Girgashite people, the Amorite people, and the Jebusite people, he will force them to leave that land. <sup>11</sup>Here is the proof. The Box of the Agreement* of the Master of the whole world will go before you as you cross the Jordan River. <sup>12</sup>Now, choose twelve men. Choose one man from each of the twelve family groups of Israel. <sup>13</sup>The priests will carry the Box of the Lord.* The Lord is the Master of the whole world. They will carry that Box in front of you into the Jordan River. When they enter the water, the water of the Jordan River will stop flowing. The water will stop and fill behind that place like a dam."

<sup>14</sup>The priests carried the Box of the Agreement* and the people left the place they had camped. The people started going across the Jordan River. <sup>15</sup>(During harvest time the Jordan River overflows its banks. So the river was at its fullest.) The priests who were carrying the Box came to the shore of the river. They stepped into the water. <sup>16</sup>And at that time, the water stopped flowing. [The water filled behind that place like a dam. The water piled high a long way up the river—all the way to Adam (a town near Zarethan). The people crossed the river near Jericho. <sup>17</sup>The ground at that place became dry, and the priests carried the Box of the Agreement* of the Lord to the middle of the river and stopped. The priests waited there while all the people of Israel walked across the Jordan River on dry land.

Rocks to Remind the People

4 All the people crossed the Jordan River. After that, the Lord said to Joshua, <sup>2</sup>"Choose twelve men. Choose one man from

Acacia Or, Shittim. A town east of the Jordan River.

Levites People from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

Box of the Agreement Or, "ark of the Covenant," the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

1,000 yards Literally, "2,000 cubits."

Box of the Lord Also called the Box of the Agreement.

each family group. <sup>3</sup>Tell them to look in the river where the priests were standing. Tell them to find twelve rocks in that place. Carry those twelve rocks with you. Put the twelve rocks in the place where you stay tonight.”

<sup>4</sup>So Joshua chose one man from each family group. Then he called the twelve men together. <sup>5</sup>Joshua said to the men, “Go out into the river where the Holy Box* of the Lord your God is. Each of you must find one rock. There will be one rock for each of the twelve family groups of Israel. Carry that rock on your shoulder. <sup>6</sup>These rocks will be a sign for you. In the future, your children will ask you, ‘What do these rocks mean?’ <sup>7</sup>You will tell the children that the Lord stopped the water from flowing in the Jordan River. When the Holy Box of the Lord’s Agreement crossed the river, the water stopped flowing. Those rocks will help the people of Israel remember this thing forever.”

<sup>8</sup>So the people of Israel obeyed Joshua. They carried twelve rocks from the middle of the Jordan River. There was one rock for each of the twelve family groups of Israel. They did this the way the Lord commanded Joshua. The men carried the rocks with them. Then they put the rocks at the place where they made their camp. <sup>9</sup>(Joshua also put twelve rocks in the middle of the Jordan River. He put them at the place where the priests stood while carrying the Lord’s Holy Box.* Those rocks are still at that place today.)

<sup>10</sup>The Lord had commanded Joshua to tell the people what to do. Those were the things Moses had said Joshua must do. So the priests carrying the Holy Box continued standing in the middle of the river until all those things were done. The people hurried across the river. <sup>11</sup>The people finished crossing the river. After that, the priests carried the Box of the Lord to the front of the people.

<sup>12</sup>The men from the family groups of Reuben, Gad and half of the family group of Manasse obeyed Moses. These men crossed the river in front of the other people. These men were prepared for war. They were going to help the rest of the people of Israel take the land God had promised to give them. <sup>13</sup>About 40,000 soldiers, prepared for war, passed before the Lord. They were marching toward the plains of Jericho.

<sup>14</sup>That day the Lord made Joshua a great man to all the people of Israel. The people respected Joshua from that time on. They respected Joshua all his life, the same as they respected Moses.

<sup>18</sup>The priests obeyed Joshua. They carried the Box with them and came out of the river. When the priests’ feet touched the land on the other side of the river, the water in the river began flowing again. The water again overflowed its banks as it had before the people crossed.

<sup>19</sup>The people crossed the Jordan River on the tenth day of the first month. The people camped at Gilgal, east of Jericho. <sup>20</sup>The people carried with them the twelve rocks that they had taken from the Jordan River. And Joshua set up those rocks at Gilgal. <sup>21</sup>Then Joshua told the people, “In the future, your children will ask their parents, ‘What do these rocks mean?’ <sup>22</sup>You will tell the children, ‘Those rocks help us remember the way the people of Israel crossed the Jordan River on dry land. <sup>23</sup>The Lord your God caused the water in the Jordan River to stop flowing. The river was dry until the people finished crossing it, the same as at the Red Sea. Remember, the Lord stopped the water at the Red Sea so that the people could cross. <sup>24</sup>The Lord did this so that all the people in this country would know that the Lord is very powerful. Then those people will always be afraid of the Lord your God.”

5 So the Lord made the Jordan River dry until the people of Israel finished crossing it. The kings of the Amorites living west of the Jordan River and the Canaanites living by the Mediterranean Sea heard about this, and they became very scared. After that they were not brave enough to stand and fight against the people of Israel.

The Israelites Are Circumcised

<sup>2</sup>At that time, the Lord said to Joshua, "Make knives from flint rocks and circumcise* the men of Israel."

<sup>3</sup>So Joshua made knives from flint rocks. Then he circumcised* the people of Israel at Gibeath Haaraloth.*

<sup>4,7</sup>This is why Joshua circumcised* the men: After the people of Israel left Egypt, all the men that were able to be in the army were circumcised. While in the desert, many of the fighting men did not listen to the Lord. So the Lord promised that those men would not see the "land where much food grows." The Lord promised our ancestors* to give us that land, but, because of those men, God forced the people to wander in the desert for 40 years—that way all those fighting men would die. All those fighting men died, and their sons took their place. But none of the boys that were born in the desert on the trip from Egypt had been circumcised. So Joshua circumcised them.

<sup>8</sup>Joshua finished circumcising all the men. The people camped at that place until all the men were healed.

First Passover in Canaan

<sup>9</sup>At that time, the Lord said to Joshua, "When you were slaves in Egypt, you were ashamed. But today I have taken away that shame." So Joshua named that place Gilgal.* And that place is still named Gilgal today.

<sup>10</sup>While the people of Israel were still camped at Gilgal, on the plains of Jericho, they celebrated Passover. This was on the evening circumcise(d) To cut off the foreskin. This was done to every Jewish male to show he shared in the Agreement God made with Israel. See Gen. 17:9-14.

Gibeath Haaraloth This name means "Circumcision Hill."

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Gilgal This name is like the Hebrew word meaning, "to roll away."

of the 14th day of the month. <sup>11</sup>The day after the Passover, the people ate some food that grew in that land. They ate bread made without yeast and roasted grain. <sup>12</sup>After the people ate this food on that day, the special food from heaven stopped coming. After that the people of Israel did not get the special food from heaven. After that time they ate the food that grew in the land of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup>When Joshua was near Jericho he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him. The man had a sword in his hand. Joshua went to the man and asked, "Are you a friend to our people, or are you one of our enemies?"

<sup>14</sup>The man answered, "I am not an enemy. I am the commander of the Lord's army. I have just now come to you."

Then Joshua bowed his face to the ground. He did this to show respect. He asked, "I am your servant. Does my master have a command for me?"

<sup>15</sup>The commander of the Lord's army answered, "Take off your shoes. The place where you are standing now is holy." So Joshua obeyed him.

Jericho Captured

6 The city of Jericho was closed. The people in the city were afraid because the people of Israel were near. No one went in the city and no one came out of the city.

<sup>2</sup>Then the Lord* said to Joshua, "Look, I will let you defeat the city of Jericho. You will defeat the king and all the fighting men in the city. <sup>3</sup>March around the city with your army one time every day. Do this for six days. <sup>4</sup>Get seven priests to carry trumpets made from goats horns. Carry the Holy Box.* Tell the priests to march in front of the Holy Box. On the seventh day, march around the city seven times. On the seventh day, tell the priest to blow the trumpets when they march. <sup>5</sup>The priest will make one loud noise from the trumpets. When you hear that noise, tell all the people to begin shouting. When you do this, the walls of the city will fall. Then your people will go straight into the city.”

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement—the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

<sup>6</sup>So Joshua son of Nun called the priests together. Joshua said to them, “Carry the Holy Box* of the Lord. And tell seven priests to carry trumpets. Those priests should walk in front of the Box.”

<sup>8</sup>After Joshua finished speaking to the people, the seven priests began marching before the Lord. They carried the seven trumpets. They blew the trumpets while they marched. The priests carrying the Lord’s Holy Box followed them. <sup>9</sup>The soldiers with weapons marched in front of the priests. And the men walking behind the Holy Box were marching and blowing their trumpets. <sup>10</sup>Joshua had told the people not to give a war cry. He said, “Don’t shout. Don’t say a word until the day I tell you. Then you can shout!”

<sup>11</sup>So Joshua made the priests carry the Holy Box of the Lord around the city one time. Then they went back to the camp and stayed the night there.

<sup>12</sup>Early the next morning, Joshua got up. The priests carried the Lord’s Holy Box again. <sup>13</sup>And the seven priests carried the seven trumpets. They walked in front of the Lord’s Holy Box marching and blowing their trumpets. The soldiers with weapons marched in front of them. The priests walking behind the Lord’s Holy Box were marching and blowing their trumpets.

<sup>14</sup>So on the second day, they all marched around the city one time. And then they went back to the camp. They continued to do this every day for six days.

<sup>15</sup>On the seventh day they got up at dawn. And they marched around the city seven times.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement—the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

They marched in the same way they had marched on the days before, but on that day they marched around the city seven times.

<sup>16</sup>The seventh time they marched around the city, the priests blew their trumpets. At that time, Joshua gave the command: “Now, shout! The Lord is giving you this city!” <sup>17</sup>The city and everything in it belongs to the Lord.* Only Rahab the prostitute and all the people in her house will remain alive. These people must not be killed because Rahab helped the two spies. <sup>18</sup>Also remember that we must destroy everything else. Don’t take those things. If you take those things and bring them into our camp then you yourselves will be destroyed. And you will also bring trouble to all the people of Israel. <sup>19</sup>All the silver and gold and things made from bronze and iron belong to the Lord. Those things must be saved for him.”

<sup>20</sup>The priests blew the trumpets. The people heard trumpets and began shouting. The walls fell and the people ran straight into the city. So the people of Israel defeated that city. <sup>21</sup>The people destroyed everything in the city. They destroyed everything that was living there. They killed the young men and old men, young women and old women, cattle, sheep, and donkeys.

<sup>23</sup>So the two men went into the house and brought out Rahab. They also brought out her father, mother, brothers, all her family, and all the other people that were with her. They put all the people in a safe place outside the camp of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>Then the people of Israel burned the whole city. They burned everything in the city except the things made from silver, gold, bronze, and iron. They saved those things for the Lord. <sup>25</sup>Joshua saved Rahab the prostitute, her family, and all the other people that were with her.

belongs to the Lord This usually meant that these things were saved in the temple treasury or they were destroyed.

Joshua let them live because Rahab helped the spies that Joshua had sent out to Jericho. Rahab still lives among the people of Israel today.

<sup>26</sup>At that time, Joshua made this important promise. He said:

“Any person who tries to build this city, Jericho, again will be in danger from the Lord.
The man who lays the foundation of this city, will lose his oldest son.
The man who sets up the gates will lose his youngest son.”*

<sup>27</sup>So the Lord was with Joshua. And Joshua became famous all through that country.

Achan's Sin

7 But the people of Israel did not obey God. There was a man from the family group of Judah named Achan son of Carmi, grandson of Zimri. Achan kept some of the things that should have been destroyed. So the Lord became very angry at the people of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>After they defeated Jericho, Joshua sent some men to Ai.* Ai was near Beth Aven, east of Bethel. Joshua told them, “Go to Ai and look for weaknesses in that area.” So the men went to spy on that land.

<sup>3</sup>Later the men came back to Joshua. They said, “Ai is a weak area. We will not need all of our people to defeat that land. Send 2,000 or 3,000 men to fight there. There is no need to use the whole army. There are only a few men there to fight against us.”

<sup>4</sup>So about 3,000 men went to Ai. But the people of Ai killed about 36 men of Israel. And the people of Israel ran away. The people of Ai chased them from the city gates all the way to the quarries.* So the people of Ai beat them badly.

When the people from Israel saw this, they became very frightened and lost their courage.

“When Joshua heard about this, he tore his clothes (to show his sadness). He bowed down on the ground before the Holy Box. Joshua stayed there until evening. The leaders of Israel did the same thing. They also threw dirt on their heads (to show their sadness).

<sup>7</sup>Joshua said, “Lord my Master! You brought our people across the Jordan River. Why did you bring us this far and then allow the Amorite people to destroy us? We should have been satisfied and stayed on the other side of the Jordan River! <sup>8</sup>I promise by my life, Lord! There is nothing I can say now. Israel has surrendered to the enemy. <sup>9</sup>The Canaanite people and all the other people in this country will hear about what happened. Then they will attack us and kill all of us! Then what will you do to protect your great name?”

<sup>10</sup>The Lord said to Joshua, “Stand up! Why are you down on your face? <sup>11</sup>The people of Israel sinned against me. They broke the Agreement that I commanded them to obey. They took some of the things that I commanded them to destroy. They have stolen from me. They have lied. They have taken those things for themselves. <sup>12</sup>That is why the army of Israel turned away from the fight and ran. They did that because they have done wrong. They should be destroyed. I will not continue to help you. I will not continue to be with you unless you do this thing: You must destroy everything I commanded you to destroy.

<sup>13</sup>“Now go and make the people pure. Tell the people, ‘Make yourselves pure. Prepare for tomorrow. The Lord, God of Israel, says that some people are keeping things that he commanded to be destroyed. You will never be able to defeat your enemies until you throw away those things.

<sup>14</sup>“Tomorrow morning you must all stand before the Lord. All of the family groups will stand before the Lord. The Lord will choose one family group. Then only that family group will stand before the Lord. Then the Lord will choose one clan* from that family group. Then only that clan must stand before the Lord. Then

The man ... son See 1 Kings 16:34.

Ai The name of this town means “the ruins.”

quarries A place where people cut stones from the solid rock.

clan A group of families.

the Lord will look at each family in that clan. Then the Lord will choose one family. Then the Lord will look at each man in that family. <sup>15</sup>The man who is keeping those things that we should have destroyed will be caught. Then that man will be destroyed by fire. And everything that he owns will be destroyed with him. That man broke the Agreement with the Lord. He has done a very bad thing to the people of Israel!"

<sup>16</sup>Early the next morning, Joshua led all the people of Israel before the Lord. All of the family groups stood before the Lord. The Lord chose the family group of Judah. <sup>17</sup>So all the clans* of Judah stood before the Lord. The Lord chose the Zerah clan. Then all the families of the Zerah clan stood before the Lord. The family of Zimri was chosen. <sup>18</sup>Then Joshua told all the men in that family to come before the Lord. The Lord chose Achan the son of Carni. (Carni was the son of Zimri. And Zimri was the son of Zerah.)

<sup>19</sup>Then Joshua said to Achan, "Son, say your prayers. You should confess and give praise to the Lord God of Israel. Tell me what you did. Don't try to hide anything from me."

<sup>20</sup>Achan answered, "It is true! I sinned against the Lord God of Israel. This is what I did: <sup>21</sup>We captured the city of Jericho and all the things in it. Among those things I saw a beautiful coat from Babylon; about 5 pounds* of silver; and more than 1 pound* of gold. I wanted these things very much for myself. So I took them. You will find those things buried in the ground under my tent. The silver is under the coat."

<sup>22</sup>So Joshua sent some men to the tent. They ran to the tent and found those things hidden there in the tent. The silver was under the coat.

<sup>23</sup>The men brought the things out of the tent. They took those things to Joshua and all the people of Israel. They threw them on the ground before the Lord.

<sup>24</sup>Then Joshua and all the people led Achan son of Zerah to the valley of Achor. They also took the silver, the coat, the gold, Achan's sons and daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and everything he owned. They took all these things to the Valley of Achor with Achan. <sup>25</sup>Then Joshua said, "I don't know why you caused so much trouble for us! But now the Lord will bring trouble to you!" Then all the people threw stones at Achan until he died. They also killed his family. Then the people burned them and everything he owned. <sup>26</sup>After they burned Achan, they put many rocks over his body. Those rocks are still there today. So God brought trouble to Achan. That is why that place is called the Valley of Achor.* After this the Lord was not angry with the people.

Ai Destroyed

8 Then the Lord said to Joshua, "Don't be afraid. Don't give up. Lead all your fighting men to Ai.* I will help you defeat the king of Ai. I am giving you his people, his city, and his land. <sup>2</sup>You will do to Ai and its king the same thing you did to Jericho and its king. Only this time you will take all the wealth and keep it for yourselves. You will share the wealth with your people. Now, tell some of your soldiers to hide behind the city."

<sup>3</sup>So Joshua led his whole army toward Ai.* Then Joshua chose 30,000 of his best fighting men. He sent these men out at night. <sup>4</sup>Joshua gave them this command: "Listen carefully to what I tell you. You must hide in the area behind the city. Wait for the time to attack. Don't go far from the city. Continue to watch and be ready. <sup>5</sup>I will lead the men with me to march toward the city. The men in the city will come out to fight against us. We will turn and run away from them, like we did before. <sup>6</sup>Those men will chase us away from the city. Those men will think that we are running away from them like we did before. So we will run away. <sup>7</sup>Then you should come out of your hiding place and take control of the city. The Lord your God will give you the power to win.

<sup>8</sup>You must do what the Lord says. After you take control of the city, then you must burn it.

clan A group of families.
5 pounds Literally, "200 shekels."
1 pound Literally, "50 shekels."

Achor This name means "trouble."
Ai See Josh. 7:2. The name of this town means "the ruins."

Watch me! I will give you the command to attack.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Joshua sent those men to their hiding place and waited. They went to a place between Bethel and Ai. This was to the west of Ai. And Joshua stayed the night with his people.

<sup>10</sup>Early the next morning Joshua gathered the men together. Then Joshua and the leaders of Israel led the men to Ai. <sup>11</sup>All of the soldiers that were with Joshua marched to Ai. They camped in front of the city. The army made its camp north of the city. There was a valley between the army and Ai.

<sup>12</sup>Then Joshua chose about 5,000 men. Joshua sent these men to hide in the area west of the city, between Bethel and Ai. <sup>13</sup>So Joshua had prepared his men for the fight. The main camp was north of the city. The other men were hiding to the west. That night Joshua went down into the valley.

<sup>14</sup>Later, the king of Ai saw the army of Israel. The king and his people got up and hurried out to fight the army of Israel. The king of Ai went out the east side of the city, so he did not see the soldiers hiding behind the city.

<sup>18</sup>Then the Lord said to Joshua, “Hold your spear toward the city of Ai. I will give you that city.” So Joshua held his spear toward the city of Ai. <sup>19</sup>The men of Israel that were hiding saw his. They quickly came out from their hiding place and hurried toward the city. They entered the city and took control of it. Then the soldiers started fires to burn the city.

<sup>20</sup>The men from Ai looked back and saw their city burning. They saw the smoke rising into the sky. So they lost their strength and courage. They quit chasing the men of Israel. The men from Israel stopped running. They turned and went to fight against the men from Ai. There was no safe place for the men from Ai to run to. <sup>21</sup>Joshua and all his men saw that his army had taken control of the city. They saw the smoke rising from the city. This is when they stopped running. They turned and ran to fight against the men from Ai. <sup>22</sup>Then the men that were hiding came out of the city to help with the fight. The army of Israel was on both sides of the men of Ai—the men of Ai were trapped. Israel defeated them. They fought until none of the men from Ai were left alive—none of the enemy escaped. <sup>23</sup>But the king of Ai was left alive. Joshua’s men brought him to Joshua.

A Review of the Fighting

<sup>24</sup>During the fighting, the army of Israel chased the men from Ai into the fields and into the desert. So the army of Israel finished killing all the men from Ai. They finished killing the men in the fields and in the desert. Then all the men of Israel went back to Ai. Then they killed all the people that were left alive in that city. <sup>25</sup>All the people of Ai died that day. There were 12,000 men and women. <sup>26</sup>Joshua had held his spear toward Ai as a sign to his people to destroy the city. And Joshua did not stop until all the people in the city were destroyed. <sup>27</sup>The people of Israel kept for themselves the animals and the things the people of the city owned. This is the thing the Lord allowed them to do when he gave Joshua the commands.

<sup>28</sup>Then Joshua burned the city of Ai.* That city became an empty pile of rocks. It is still like that today. <sup>29</sup>Joshua hung the king of Ai on a tree. He left him hanging in a tree until evening. At sunset, Joshua told his men to take the king’s body down from the tree. They threw his body down at the city gate. Then they covered the body with many rocks. That pile of rocks is still there today.

Reading the Blessings and Curses

<sup>30</sup>Then Joshua built an altar for the Lord, the God of Israel. He built the altar on Mount Ebal. <sup>31</sup>The Lord’s servant Moses told the people of Israel how to build altars. So Joshua built the altar the way it was explained in the book of the Law of Moses. The altar was made from stones that were not cut. No tool had ever been used on those stones. They offered burnt offerings to the Lord on that altar. They also gave fellowship offerings.

<sup>22</sup>In that place Joshua wrote the law of Moses on stones. He did this for all the people of Israel to see. <sup>23</sup>The elders (leaders), officers, judges, and all the people of Israel were standing around the Holy Box. They were standing in front of the Levite priests who carried the Holy Box for the Lord's Agreement. The people of Israel and the other people with them were all standing there. Half of the people stood in front of Mount Ebal and the other half of the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim. The Lord's servant Moses had told the people to do this. Moses told them to do this for this blessing.

<sup>24</sup>Then Joshua read all the words from the law. Joshua read the blessings and the curses. He read everything the way it was written in the Book of the Law. <sup>25</sup>All the people of Israel were gathered together there. All the women and children and all the foreigners that lived with the people of Israel were there. And Joshua read every command that Moses had given.

Gibeonites Trick Joshua

9 All the kings west of the Jordan River heard about these things. These were the kings of the Hittite people, the Amorite people, the Canaanite people, the Perizzite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people. They lived in the hill country and in the plains. They also lived along the sea coast of the Mediterranean Sea as far as Lebanon. <sup>2</sup>All these kings came together. They made plans to fight against Joshua and the people of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>The people from the city of Gibeon heard about the way Joshua had defeated Jericho and Ai. <sup>4</sup>So those people decided to try to fool the people of Israel. This was their plan: They gathered together old wineskins* that were cracked and broken. They put these old wineskins on the backs of their animals. They put old sacks on their animals to look like they had traveled from far away. <sup>5</sup>The men put old shoes on their feet. The men wore old clothes. The men found some old bread that was dry and moldy. So the men looked like they had traveled from a faraway place. <sup>6</sup>Then the men went to the camp of the people of Israel. This camp was near Gilgal.

The men went to Joshua and said to him, "We have traveled from a faraway country. We want to make a peace agreement with you."

<sup>7</sup>The men of Israel said to these Hivite men, "Maybe you are trying to fool us. Maybe you live near us. We can't make a peace agreement with you until we know where you are from."

<sup>8</sup>The Hivite men said to Joshua, "We are your servants."

But Joshua asked, "Who are you? Where do you come from?"

<sup>9</sup>The men answered, "We are your servants. We have come from a faraway country. We came because we heard of the great power of the Lord your God. We heard about the things he did. We heard about everything he did in Egypt. <sup>10</sup>And we heard that he defeated the two kings of the Amorite people east of the Jordan River. This was Sihon, king of Heshbon, and Og, the king of Bashan, in the land of Ashtaroath. <sup>11</sup>So our elders (leaders) and our people said to us, 'Take enough food for your journey. Go and meet with the people of Israel! Tell them, "We are your servants. Make a peace agreement with us."'"

<sup>12</sup>"See our bread! When we left home it was warm and fresh. But now you can see that it is dry and old. <sup>13</sup>See our wineskins! When we left home they were new and filled with wine. Now you can see that they are cracked and old. See our clothes and sandals! You can see that the long journey has almost destroyed the things we wear."

<sup>14</sup>The men of Israel wanted to know if these men were telling the truth. So they tasted the bread—but they did not ask the Lord what they should do. <sup>15</sup>Joshua agreed to make peace with them. He agreed to let them live. The leaders of Israel agreed with this promise of Joshua.

<sup>16</sup>Three days later, the people of Israel learned that those men lived very near their camp. <sup>17</sup>So the people of Israel went to the place where those men lived. On the third day the people of Israel came to the cities of Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim. <sup>18</sup>But the army of Israel did not try to fight against those cities. They had made a peace agreement with those people. They had made a promise to the people before the Lord, the God of Israel.

All the people complained against the leaders that made the agreement. <sup>19</sup>But the leaders answered, "We have given our promise. We promised before the Lord, the God of Israel. We cannot fight against them now. <sup>20</sup>This is what we must do. We must let them live. We cannot hurt them or God will be angry at us because we broke the promise we made to them. <sup>21</sup>So let them live. But they will be our servants. They will cut wood for us and carry water for all of our people." So the leaders did not break their promise of peace to those people.

<sup>22</sup>Joshua called the Gibeonite people. He said, "Why did you lie to us? Your land was near our camp. But you told us you were from a faraway country. <sup>23</sup>Now, your people will have many troubles. All of your people will be slaves—they will have to cut wood and carry water for the house of God.*

<sup>24</sup>The Gibeonite people answered, "We lied to you because we were afraid you would kill us. We heard that God commanded his servant Moses to give you all of this land. And God told you to kill all the people that lived in this land. That is why we lied to you. <sup>25</sup>Now we are your servants. You can do whatever you think is right."

<sup>26</sup>So the people of Gibeon became slaves. But Joshua let them live. Joshua did not allow the people of Israel to kill them. <sup>27</sup>Joshua made the people of Gibeon become slaves of the people of Israel. They cut wood and carried water for the people of Israel and for the altar of the Lord—wherever the Lord chose it to be. Those people are still slaves today.

The Day the Sun Stood Still

10 At this time Adoni-Zedek was the king of Jerusalem. This king heard that Joshua had defeated Ai and completely destroyed it. The king learned that Joshua had done the same thing to Jericho and its king. The king also learned that the people of Gibeon had made a peace agreement with Israel. And those people lived very near Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>So Adoni-Zedek and his people were very scared. Gibeon was not a little town like Ai. Gibeon was a very big city—it was as big as any royal city.* And all the men in that city were good fighters. So the king was afraid. <sup>3</sup>Adoni-Zedek, the king of Jerusalem, talked with Hoham, king of Hebron. He also talked with Piram, king of Jarmuth, Japhia, king of Lachish, and Debir, king of Eglon. The king of Jerusalem begged these men, "Come with me and help me to attack Gibeon. Gibeon has made a peace agreement with Joshua and the people of Israel."

<sup>4</sup>So these five Amorite kings joined armies. (The five kings were the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.) Those armies went to Gibeon. The armies surrounded the city and began fighting against it.

<sup>5</sup>The people in the city of Gibeon sent a message to Joshua at his camp at Gilgal. The message said: "We are your servants! Don't leave us alone. Come and help us! Hurry! Save us! All the Amorite kings from the hill country have joined their armies. They are fighting against us."

<sup>6</sup>So Joshua marched out of Gilgal with his whole army. Joshua's best fighting men were with him. <sup>7</sup>The Lord said to Joshua, "Don't be afraid of those armies. I will allow you to defeat them. None of those armies will be able to defeat you."

house of God This might mean the "family of God" (Israel), or it might be the Holy Tent, or the temple."

royal city Strong well-protected cities that controlled smaller towns nearby.

<sup>9</sup>Joshua and his army marched all night to Gibeon. The enemy did not know that Joshua was coming. So Joshua surprised them when he attacked.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord caused those armies to be very confused when Israel attacked. So Israel defeated them and won a great victory. Israel chased the enemy from Gibeon. They chased them on the road going to Beth Horon. The army of Israel killed men all the way to Azekah and Makkedah. <sup>11</sup>The army of Israel chased the enemy down the road from Beth Horon to Azekah. While they were chasing the enemy, the Lord caused large hailstones to fall from the sky. Many of the enemy were killed by these large hailstones. There were more men killed by these hailstones than the people of Israel killed with their swords.

<sup>12</sup>That day the Lord allowed Israel to defeat the Amorite people. And that day Joshua stood before all the people of Israel and said to the Lord:

“Sun, stay in the sky over Gibeon and don’t move.
Moon, stay in the sky over the valley of Aijalon,
and don’t move.”

<sup>13</sup>So the sun did not move. And the moon also stopped until the people defeated their enemies. This story is written in the Book of Jashar. The sun stopped in the middle of the sky. It did not move for a full day. <sup>14</sup>That has never happened at any time before that day. And that has never happened since. That was the day the Lord obeyed a man. Truly the Lord was fighting for Israel!

cities safely. The Lord your God has given you the victory over them.”

<sup>20</sup>So Joshua and the people of Israel killed the enemy. But some of the enemy were able to go to their cities and hide. These men were not killed. <sup>21</sup>After the fighting, Joshua’s men came back to him at Makkedah. None of the people in that country were brave enough to say anything against the people of Israel.

<sup>22</sup>Joshua said, “Move the rocks that are covering the entrance to the cave. Bring those five kings to me.” <sup>23</sup>So Joshua’s men brought the five kings out of the cave. These five kings were the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

<sup>24</sup>So they brought the five kings to Joshua. Joshua called all his men to come to that place. Joshua said to the officers of his army, “Come here! Put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So the officers of Joshua’s army came close. They put their feet on the necks of the kings.

<sup>25</sup>Then Joshua said to his men, “Be strong and brave! Don’t be afraid. I will show you what the Lord will do to all of the enemies that you will fight in the future.”

<sup>27</sup>At sunset Joshua told his men to take the bodies down from the trees. Then they threw their bodies into that same cave where they had been hiding. They covered the entrance of the cave with large rocks. Those bodies are still in that cave today.

<sup>28</sup>That day Joshua defeated Makkedah. Joshua killed the king and the people in that city. There were no people left living. Joshua did the same thing to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Taking the Southern Cities

<sup>29</sup>Then Joshua and all the people of Israel traveled from Makkedah. They went to Libnah and attacked that city. <sup>30</sup>The Lord allowed the people of Israel to defeat that city and its king. The people of Israel killed every person in that city. No people were left alive. And the people did the same thing to that king as they had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>31</sup>Then Joshua and all the people of Israel left Libnah and went to Lachish. Joshua and his army camped around Lachish, and then they attacked that city. <sup>32</sup>The Lord allowed the people of Israel to defeat the city of Lachish. On the second day they defeated that city. The people of Israel killed every person in that city. This is the same thing he did to Libnah. <sup>33</sup>During this same time, Horem, the king of Gezer, came to help Lachish. But Joshua defeated him and his army also. There were no men left alive.

<sup>34</sup>Then Joshua and all the people of Israel traveled from Lachish to Eglon. They camped around Eglon and attacked it. <sup>35</sup>That day they captured the city and killed all the people in the city, the same thing as they did to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup>Then Joshua and all the people of Israel traveled from Eglon to Hebron. Then they attacked Hebron. <sup>37</sup>They captured the city and all the little towns near Hebron. The people of Israel killed every person in the city. No one was left alive there. This was the same thing they did to Eglon. They destroyed the city and killed all the people in it.

<sup>38</sup>Then Joshua and all the people of Israel went back to Debir and attacked that city. <sup>39</sup>They captured that city, its king, and all the little towns near Debir. They killed every person in that city. No one was left alive there. The people of Israel did to Debir and its king the same thing they did to Hebron and its king. This was the same thing they did to Libnah and its king.

<sup>40</sup>So Joshua defeated all the kings of the cities of the hill country, the Negev,* the western foothills, and the eastern foothills. The Lord God of Israel had told Joshua to kill all the people. So Joshua did not leave anyone alive in those places.

<sup>41</sup>Joshua captured all the cities from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza. He captured all the cities from the land of Goshen (in Egypt) to Gibeon.

<sup>42</sup>Joshua captured all those cities and their kings on one trip. Joshua did this because the Lord God of Israel was fighting for Israel. <sup>43</sup>Then Joshua and all the people of Israel returned to their camp at Gilgal.

Defeating the Northern Cities

11 Jabin, king of Hazor, heard about all these things that happened. So he decided to call together the armies of several kings. Jabin sent a message to Jobab, king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, the king of Acshaph, <sup>2</sup>and to the kings of the north, in the hill country and in the desert. Jabin sent the message to the kings of the Kinnereth,* the Negev,* and the western foothills. Jabin also sent the message to the king of Naphtali Dor in the west. <sup>3</sup>Jabin sent that message to the kings of the Canaanite people in the east and in the west. He sent the message to the Amorite people, the Hittite people, the Perizzite people, and the Jebusite people living in the hill country. He also sent the message to the Hivite people living below Mount Hermon near Mizpah. <sup>4</sup>So the armies of all these kings came together. There were many fighting men and many horses and chariots. It was a very, very large army—it looked like there were as many men as there were sands on the sea shore.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said to Joshua, “Don’t be afraid of that army. I will allow you to defeat them. By this time tomorrow, you will have killed them all. You will cut the legs of the horses and burn all their chariots.”

<sup>7</sup>Joshua and his whole army surprised the enemy. They attacked the enemy at the river of Merom. <sup>8</sup>The Lord allowed Israel to defeat them. The army of Israel defeated them and chased them to Greater Sidon, Misrephoth Maim, and the Valley of Mizpah in the east. The army of Israel fought until none of the enemy was left alive. <sup>9</sup>Joshua did what the Lord

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

Kinnereth The area near the Sea of Galilee.

said he would do—Joshua cut the legs of their horses and burned their chariots.

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua went back and captured the city of Hazor. Joshua killed the king of Hazor. (Hazor was the leader of all the kingdoms that fought against Israel.) <sup>11</sup>The army of Israel killed every person in that city. They completely destroyed all the people. There was nothing left alive. Then they burned the city.

<sup>12</sup>Joshua captured all of these cities. He killed all of their kings. Joshua completely destroyed everything in these cities. He did this the way Moses, the Lord's servant, had commanded. <sup>13</sup>But the army of Israel did not burn any cities that were built on hills. The only city built on a hill that they burned was Hazor. This is the city Joshua burned. <sup>14</sup>The people of Israel kept for themselves all the things they found in the cities. They kept all the animals that they found in the city. But they killed all the people there. They did not allow any people to be left alive. <sup>15</sup>Long ago the Lord commanded his servant Moses to do this. Then Moses commanded Joshua to do this. So Joshua obeyed God. Joshua did everything that the Lord had commanded Moses.

<sup>16</sup>So Joshua defeated all the people in that whole country. He had control over the hill country, the Negev, all the area of Goshen, the area of the western foothills, Jordan Valley, and the mountains of Israel and all the hills near them. <sup>17</sup>Joshua had control of all the land from Mount Halak near Seir to Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. Joshua captured all the kings in that land and killed them. <sup>18</sup>Joshua fought against those kings many years. <sup>19</sup>Only one city in all the land made a peace agreement with Israel. That was the Hivite city of Gibeon. All the other cities were defeated in war. <sup>20</sup>The Lord wanted those people to think they were strong. Then they would fight against Israel. This way he could destroy them without mercy. He could destroy them the way the Lord had commanded Moses to do.

country in the area of Hebron, Debir, Anab, and Judah. Joshua fought against these Anakite people. Joshua completely destroyed all those people and their towns. <sup>22</sup>There were no Anakite people left living in the land of Israel. The only Anakite people that were left alive lived in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod. <sup>23</sup>Joshua took control of the whole land of Israel, just like the Lord had told Moses long ago. The Lord gave that land to Israel just like he promised. Then Joshua divided the land among the family groups of Israel. Then the fighting ended – finally there was peace in the land.

Kings Defeated by Israel

12 The people of Israel took control of the land east of the Jordan River. They now had all the land from Arnon Ravine to Mount Hermon and all the land along the eastern side of the Jordan Valley. Here are all of the kings the people of Israel defeated to take this land:

<sup>3</sup>They also defeated, Og, king of Bashan. Og was from the Rephaite people. He ruled the land in Ashtaroth and Edrei. <sup>4</sup>Og ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah, and all of the area of Bashan. His land ended where the people of Geshur and Maacah lived. Og also ruled half of the land of Gilead. This land stopped at the land of Sihon, the king of Heshbon.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord's servant Moses and the people of Israel defeated all these kings. And Moses gave that land to the family group of Reuben, the family group of Gad, and half the family group of Manasseh. Moses gave them this land to be their own.

Anakite people Descendants of Anak. They were a family famous for tall and powerful fighting men. See Num. 13:33.

<sup>7</sup>The people of Israel also defeated kings in the land that was west of the Jordan River. Joshua led the people in this land. Joshua gave the people this land and divided it among the twelve family groups. This was the land that God promised to give to them. This land was between Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon and Mount Halak near Seir. <sup>8</sup>This included the hill country, the western foothills, the Jordan Valley, the eastern mountains, the desert, and the Negev.* This was the land where the Hittite people, the Amorite people, the Canaanite people, the Perizzite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people lived. Here is a list of the kings the people of Israel defeated:

- <sup>9</sup> The king of Jericho (one king), the king of Ai (near Bethel) (one king),
- <sup>10</sup> the king of Jerusalem (one king), the king of Hebron (one king),
- <sup>11</sup> the king of Jarmuth (one king), the king of Lachish (one king),
- <sup>12</sup> the king of Eglon (one king),
the king of Gezer (one king),
- <sup>13</sup> the king of Debir (one king),
the king of Geder (one king),
- <sup>14</sup> the king of Hormah (one king),
the king of Arad (one king),
- <sup>15</sup> the king of Libnah (one king),
the king of Adullam (one king),
- <sup>16</sup> the king of Makkedah (one king), the king of Bethel (one king),
- <sup>17</sup> the king of Tappuah (one king), the king of Hopher (one king),
- <sup>18</sup> the king of Aphek (one king),
the king of Lasharon (one king),
- <sup>19</sup> the king of Madon (one king),
the king of Hazor (one king),
- <sup>20</sup> the king of Shimron Meron (one king), the king of Acshaph (one king),
- <sup>21</sup> the king of Taanach (one king), the king of Megiddo (one king),
- <sup>22</sup> the king of Kedesh (one king), the king of Jokneam in Carmel (one king),
- <sup>23</sup> the king of Dor in the mountain of Dor (one king),

the king of Goyim in Gilgal (one king),

<sup>24</sup> the king of Tirzah (one king).

In all, there were 31 kings.

Land Not Yet Taken

13 When Joshua was very old, the Lord said to him, "Joshua you have grown old, but there is still much land for you to take control of. <sup>2</sup>You have not yet taken the land of Geshur and the land of the Philistines. <sup>3</sup>You have not yet taken the area from the Shihor River* at Egypt to the border of Ekron in the north. That land still belongs to the Canaanite people. You must still defeat the five Philistine leaders at Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. You must also defeat the Avvite people 'who live south of the Canaanite land. <sup>5</sup>You have not yet defeated the area of the Gebalite people. And also there is the area of Lebanon east of Baal Gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo-Hamath.

"People of Sidon are living in the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim. But I will force out all of these people for the people of Israel. Be sure to remember this land when you divide the land among the people of Israel. Do this like I told you. <sup>7</sup>"Now, divide the land among the nine family groups and half of the family group of Manasseh."

Dividing the Land

<sup>8</sup>The other half of the Manasseh family group and the family groups of Reuben and Gad already took their land. The Lord's servant, Moses gave them the land east of the Jordan River. <sup>9</sup>This is the land east of the Jordan River that Moses gave them:

That land covered the whole plain of Medeba as far as Dibon. The land started at Aroer at the Arnon Ravine. The land continued to the town in the middle of the ravine. <sup>10</sup>All the towns that Sihon the king of the Amorite people ruled were in that land. That king ruled in the city of Heshbon. The land continued to the area were the Amorite people lived. <sup>11</sup>Also the town of Gilead was in that land. And the area where the people of Geshur and Maacah lived was in that land. All of Mount Hermon and all of Bashan as far as Salecah was in that land. <sup>12</sup>All the kingdom of king Og was in that land. King Og ruled in Bashan. In the past he ruled in Ashtaroth and Edrei. Og was from the Rephahite people. In the past Moses had defeated those people and had taken their land. <sup>13</sup>The people of Israel did not force out the people of Geshur and Maacah. Those people still live among the people of Israel today.

<sup>14</sup>The family group of Levi is the only family group that did not get any land. Instead, the people of Levi get all the animals that are offered as burnt offerings to the Lord God of Israel. That is what the Lord promised them.

<sup>15</sup>Moses gave each family group from the family group of Reuben some land. This is the land they got:

<sup>16</sup>The land from Aroer near the Arnon Ravine to the town of Medeba. This included the whole plain and the town in the middle of the ravine. <sup>17</sup>The land continued to Heshbon. The land included all the towns on the plain. Those towns were Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, <sup>18</sup>Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, <sup>19</sup>Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley, <sup>20</sup>Beth Peor, the hills of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth. <sup>21</sup>So that land included all the towns on the plain and all the area that Sihon the king of the Amorite people had ruled. That king ruled at the town of Heshbon. But Moses had defeated him and the leaders of the Midianite people. Those leaders were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba. (All these leaders fought together with Sihon.) All these leaders lived in that country. <sup>22</sup>The people of Israel defeated Balaam son of Beor. (Balaam tried to use magic to tell the future.) The people of Israel killed many people during the fighting. <sup>23</sup>The land that was given to Reuben stopped at the shore of the Jordan River. So the land was given to the family groups of Reuben included all these towns and their fields that were listed.

<sup>24</sup>This is the land Moses gave to the family group of Gad. Moses gave this land to each family group:

<sup>25</sup>The land of Jazer and all the towns of Gilead. Moses also gave them half of the land of the Ammonite people as far as Aroer near Rabbah. <sup>26</sup>That land included the area from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim. That land included the area from Mahanaim to the land of Debir. <sup>27</sup>That land included the valley of Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth and Zaphon. All the other land that Sihon, the king of Heshbon, had ruled was included in this land. This is the land on the east side of the Jordan River. The land continued to the end of Lake Galilee. <sup>28</sup>All this land is the land Moses gave the family group of Gad. That land included all the towns that were listed. Moses gave that land to each family group.

<sup>29</sup>This is the land Moses gave to half of the family group of Manasseh. Half of all the families in the family group of Manasseh got this land:

<sup>30</sup>The land started at Mahanaim. The land included all of Bashan, all the land ruled by Og, king of Bashan, all the towns of Jair in Bashan. (In all, there were 60 cities.) <sup>31</sup>The land also included half of Gilead, Ashtaroth, and Edrei. (Gilead, Ashtaroth, and Edrei were the cities where king Og had lived.) All this land was given to the family of Makir son of Manasseh. Half of all those sons got this land.

<sup>32</sup>Moses gave all this land to these family groups. Moses did this while the people were camped on the plains of Moab. This was across the Jordan River, east of Jericho. <sup>33</sup>Moses did not give any land to the family group of Levi. The Lord, God of Israel, promised that he himself would be the gift for the family group of Levi.

14 Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders of all the family groups of Israel decided what land to give to the people. <sup>2</sup>The Lord had commanded Moses long ago the way he wanted the people to choose their land. The people of the nine and a half family groups threw lots* to decide which land

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

they would get. <sup>3</sup>Moses had already given the two and a half family groups their land east of the Jordan River. But the family group of Levi was not given any land like the other people. <sup>4</sup>[The twelve family groups were given their own land.] The sons of Joseph had divided into two family groups—Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>5</sup>And each family group received some land. But, the people from the family group of Levi were not given any land. They were given only some towns to live in. <sup>6</sup>And these towns were in every family group's land. <sup>7</sup>They were also given fields for their animals. <sup>8</sup>The Lord had told Moses how to divide the land among the family groups of Israel. The people of Israel divided the land the way the Lord had commanded.

Caleb Gets His Land

<sup>1</sup>One day some people from the family group of Judah went to Joshua at Gilgal. One of those people was Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite. Caleb said to Joshua, "You remember the things the Lord said at Kadesh Barnea. The Lord was speaking to Moses, his servant.* The Lord was talking about you and me. <sup>2</sup>Moses, the Lord's servant, sent me to look at the land where we were going. I was 40 years old at that time. When I came back I told Moses what I thought about the land. <sup>3</sup>The other men that went with me told the people things that made them afraid. But I truly believed that the Lord would allow us to take that land. <sup>4</sup>So that day Moses made a promise to me. Moses said, "That land where you went will become your land. Your children will own that land forever. I will give you that land because you truly believed in the Lord, my God."

<sup>5</sup>"Now, the Lord has kept me alive 45 years—like he said he would do. During that time we all wandered in the desert. Now, here I am, 85 years old. <sup>6</sup>I am still as strong today as I was the day Moses sent me out. I am as ready to fight as I was then. <sup>7</sup>So now, give me the hill country that the Lord promised me that day long ago. At that time, you heard that the strong Anakite people* lived there. And the cities were very big and well protected. But now, maybe the Lord will be with me, and I will take that land like the Lord said."

<sup>8</sup>Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh. Joshua gave him the city of Hebron as his own. <sup>9</sup>And that city still belongs to the family of Caleb son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite. That land still belongs to his people because he trusted and obeyed the Lord, God of Israel. <sup>10</sup>In the past that city was called Kiriath Arba. That city was named for the greatest man among the Anakite people—a man named Arba.

After this, there was peace in that land.

Land for Judah

15 The land that was given to Judah was divided among the families of that family group. That land went to the border of Edom and south all the way to the desert of Zin at the edge of Teman. <sup>2</sup>The southern border of Judah's land started at the south end of the Dead Sea. <sup>3</sup>The border went south to Scorpion Pass and continued on to Zin. Then the border continued south to Kadesh Barnea. The border continued past Hezron to Addar. From Addar the border turned and continued to Karka. <sup>4</sup>The border continued to Azmon, the brook of Egypt, and then to the Mediterranean Sea. All that land was on their southern border.

<sup>5</sup>Their eastern border was the shore of the Dead Sea to the area where the Jordan River flowed into the sea.

Their northern border started at the area where the Jordan River flowed into the Dead Sea. <sup>6</sup>Then the northern border went to Beth Hoglah and continued north of Beth Arabah. The border continued to the stone of Bohan. (Bohan was the son of Reuben). <sup>7</sup>Then the northern border went through the Valley of Achor to Debir. There the border turned to the north and went to Gilgal. Gilgal is across from the road that goes through the mountain of Adummim. That is on the south side of the his servant Literally, "the man of God."

Anakite people Descendants of Anak. They were a family famous for tall and powerful fighting men. See Num. 13:33.

brook. The border continued along the waters of En Shemesh. The border stopped at En Rogel. <sup>8</sup>Then the border went through the Valley of Ben Hinnom beside the southern side of the Jebusite city. (That Jebusite city was called Jerusalem.) At that place the border went to the top of the hill on the west side of Hinnom Valley. This was at the northern end of Rephaim Valley. <sup>9</sup>From that place the border went to the spring of water of Nephtoah. Then the border went to the cities near Mount Ephron. At that place the border turned and went to Baalah. (Baalah is also called Kiriath Jearim.) <sup>10</sup>At Baalah the border turned west and went to the hill country of Seir. The border continued along the north side of Mount Jearim (Kesalon) and continued down to Beth Shemesh. From there the border went past Timnah. <sup>11</sup>Then the border went to the hill north of Ekron. From that place the border turned to Shikkeron and went past Mount Baalah. The border continued on to Jabneel and ended at the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>12</sup>The Mediterranean Sea was the western border of the land of Judah. So the land of Judah was inside these four borders. The families of Judah lived in this area.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord had commanded Joshua to give Caleb son of Jephunneh part of the land in Judah. So Joshua gave Caleb the land God commanded. Joshua gave him the town of Kiriath Arba (Hebron). (Arba was the father of Anak.) <sup>14</sup>Caleb forced the three Anakite families living in Hebron to leave there. Those families were Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi. They were from the family of Anak. <sup>15</sup>Then Caleb fought against the people living in Debir. (In the past, Debir was also called Kiriath Sepher.) <sup>16</sup>Caleb said, "I want to attack Kiriath Sepher. I will give my daughter Acsah to the man that attacks and defeats that city. I will let that man marry my daughter."

<sup>17</sup>Othniel son of Kenaz defeated that city. So Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to Othniel to be his wife. <sup>18</sup>Acsah went to live with Othniel. Othniel told Acsah* to ask her father Caleb for some more land. [Acsah went to her father.] When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What do you want?"

<sup>19</sup>Acsah answered, "Give me a blessing.* You gave me dry desert land in the Negev.* Please give me some land with water on it." So Caleb gave her what she wanted. He gave her the upper and lower pools of water in that land.

The family group of Judah also got towns in the western foothills. Here is a list of those towns: <sup>33</sup>Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, <sup>34</sup>Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam, <sup>35</sup>Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, <sup>36</sup>Shaaraim, Adithaim, and Gederah (Gederothaim). In all, there were 14 towns and all their fields.

<sup>45</sup>The people of Judah also got the town of Ekron and all the small towns and fields near it. <sup>46</sup>They also got the area west of Ekron and all

Give ... blessing Or, "Please welcome me." Or, "Give me a stream of water."

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

Othniel told Acsah Or, "Acsah told Othniel."

the fields and towns near Ashdod.<sup>47</sup>All the area around Ashdod and the small towns there were part of the land of Judah. The people of Judah also got the area around Gaza and fields and the towns that were near it. Their land continued to the River of Egypt. And their land continued along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>58</sup>The people of Judah were also given these towns: Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor,<sup>59</sup>Maarath, Beth Anoth, and Eltekon. In all, there were six towns and all the fields around them.

<sup>60</sup>The people of Judah were also given the two towns of Rabbah, and Kiriath Beth (Kiriath Jearim).

<sup>61</sup>The people of Judah were also given towns in the desert. Here is a list of those towns: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah,<sup>62</sup>Nibshan, the city of Salt, and En Gedi. In all, there were six towns and all the fields around them.

<sup>63</sup>The army of Judah was not able to force out the Jebusite people living in Jerusalem. So today there are still Jebusite people living among the people of Judah in Jerusalem.

Land for Ephraim and Manasseh

16 This is the land that the family of Joseph got. This land started at the Jordan River near Jericho and continued to the waters of Jericho. (This was just east of Jericho.) The border went up from Jericho to the hill country of Bethel.<sup>2</sup>Then the border continued from Bethel (Luz) to the Arkite border at Ataroth.<sup>3</sup>Then the border went west to the border of the Japhletite people. The border continued to Lower Beth Horon. Then the border went to Gezer and continued to the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>5</sup>This is the land that was given to the people of Ephraim: Their eastern border started at Ataroth Addar near Upper Beth Horon.<sup>6</sup>And the western border started at Micmethath. The border turned to the east to Taanath-Shiloh and continued east to Janoah.<sup>7</sup>Then the border went down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah. The border continued until it touched Jericho and stopped at the Jordan River.<sup>8</sup>The border went from Tappuah west to Kanah River and ended at the sea. This is all the land that was given to the Ephraim people. Each family in that family group got a part of this land.<sup>9</sup>Many of the border towns of Ephraim were actually in Manasseh's borders, but the people of Ephraim got those towns and the fields around them.<sup>10</sup>But the Ephraimite people were not able to force the Canaanite people to leave the town of Gezer. So the Canaanite people still live among the Ephraimite people today. But the Canaanite people became slaves of the Ephraimite people.

17 Then land was given to the family group of Manasseh. Manasseh was Joseph's first son. Manasseh's first son was Makir, the father of Gilead.* Makir was a great soldier, so the areas of Gilead and Bashan were given to the Makir family.<sup>2</sup>Land was also given to the other families in the family group of Manasseh. Those families were Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hopher, and Shemida. All these men were the other sons of Manasseh, the son of Joseph. The families of these men got their share of the land.

<sup>3</sup>Zelophehad was the son of Hopher. Hopher was the son of Gilead. Gilead was the son of Makir, and Makir was the son of Manasseh. Zelophehad did not have any sons, but he had five daughters. The daughters were named Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. 'The daughters went to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and all the leaders. The daughters said, "The Lord told Moses to give us land the same as the men." So Eleazar obeyed the Lord and gave the daughters some land. So these daughters got land the same as the sons.

<sup>5</sup>So the family group of Manasse had ten areas of land west of the Jordan River and two more areas of land, Gilead and Bashan, on the other side of the Jordan River. <sup>6</sup>The daughters of Manasse got land the same as the sons. The land of Gilead was given to the rest of the families of Manasseh.

<sup>7</sup>The lands of Manasse were in the area between Asher and Micmethath. This is near Shechem. The border went south to the En Tappuah area. <sup>8</sup>The land around Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but the town itself did not. The town of Tappuah was at the border of Manasseh's land and it belonged to the people of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup>The border of Manasseh continued south to Kanah River. This area belonged to Manasseh's family group, but the cities belonged to the people of Ephraim. Manasseh's border was on the north side of the river and it continued west to the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>10</sup>The land to the south belonged to Ephraim. And the land to the north belonged to Manasseh. The Mediterranean Sea was the western border. The border touched Asher's land in the north and Issachar's land in the east.

<sup>11</sup>The people of Manasseh also had towns in the area of Issachar and Asher. Beth Shean, Ibleam and the small towns around them belonged to the people of Manasseh. People of Manasseh also lived in Dor, Endor, Taanach, Megiddo, and the small towns around those cities. They also lived in the three towns of Naphoth. <sup>12</sup>The people of Manasseh were not able to defeat those cities. So the Canaanite people continued to live there. <sup>13</sup>But the people of Israel grew strong. When this happened, they forced the people of Canaan to work for them. But they did not force the Canaanite people to leave that land.

<sup>14</sup>The family group of Joseph spoke to Joshua and said, "You gave us only one area of land. But we are many people. Why did you only give us one part of all the land that the Lord gave his people?"

<sup>15</sup>Joshua answered them, "If you have too many people, then go up to the hill country and take that land. That land now belongs to the Perizzite people and the Rephaite people. But if the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you, then go take that land."

<sup>16</sup>The people of Joseph said, "It is true that the hill country of Ephraim is not large enough for us. But the Canaanite people living there have powerful weapons—they have iron chariots!* And those people control the Valley of Jezreel, Beth Shean and all the small towns in that area."

<sup>17</sup>Then Joshua said to the people of Joseph, to Ephraim, and to Manasseh, "But there are many, many of you. And you are very powerful. You should get more than one share of the land. <sup>18</sup>You will take the hill country. It is a forest, but you can cut down the trees and make it a good place to live. And you will own all of it. You will force the Canaanite people to leave that land. You will defeat them even if they are strong and have powerful weapons."

Dividing the Rest of the Land

18 All of the Israelite people gathered together at Shiloh. At that place they set up the Meeting Tent.* The people of Israel controlled that country. They had defeated all the enemies in that land. <sup>2</sup>But at this time there were still seven family groups of Israel that had not yet gotten the land God had promised them.

<sup>3</sup>So Joshua said to the people of Israel, "Why do you wait so long to take your land? The Lord, the God of your fathers, has given this land to you. <sup>4</sup>So each of your family groups should choose three men. I will send those men chariots Small wagons used in war. They were much faster and could carry more weapons than soldiers on foot.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

out to study the land. They will draw a map of that land, and then they will come back to me. <sup>7</sup>They will divide the land into seven parts. The people of Judah will keep their land in the south. The people of Joseph will keep their land in the north. <sup>8</sup>But you should draw a map and divide the land into seven parts. Bring the map to me, and we will let the Lord our God decide which family group will get which land.* <sup>9</sup>The Levite people do not get a share of the land. Their share is to serve the Lord as priests. Gad, Reuben, and half the family group of Manasseh have already received the land that was promised to them. They are on the east side of the Jordan River. Moses, the Lord's servant, already gave them that land."

<sup>10</sup>So the men that were chosen went to look at the land. They planned to draw maps of the land and bring them back to Joshua. Joshua told them, "Go and study the land and draw maps of it. Then come back to me at Shiloh. Then I will throw lots* and let the Lord divide the land for you."

<sup>11</sup>So the men went into the land. The men studied the land and drew maps for Joshua. They studied each town and divided the land into seven parts. They drew their maps and then went back to Joshua at Shiloh. <sup>12</sup>Joshua threw lots* for them in front of the Lord at Shiloh. In this way, Joshua divided the land and gave each family group its part of the land."

Land for Benjamin

<sup>13</sup>The family group of Benjamin was given the land that was between the areas of Judah and Joseph. Each family in the family group of Benjamin got their land. This is the land that was chosen for Benjamin: <sup>14</sup>The northern border started at the Jordan River. The border went along the northern edge of Jericho. Then the border went west into the hill country. The border continued until it was just east of Beth Aven. <sup>15</sup>Then the border went south to Luz (Bethel). Then the border went down to Ataroth Addar. Ataroth Addar is on the hill south of Lower Beth Horon. <sup>16</sup>At the hill south of Beth Horon, the border turned south and went along the west side of the hill. The border went to Kiriath Baal (also called Kiriath Jearim). This town belonged to the people of Judah. This was the western border.

<sup>17</sup>The southern border started near Kiriath Jearim and went to the River of Nephtoah. <sup>18</sup>Then the border went down to the bottom of the hill near the valley of Ben Hinnom, north of the Rephaim Valley. The border continued down Hinnom Valley just south of the Jebusite city. Then the border went on to En Rogel. <sup>19</sup>There, the border turned north and went to En Shemesh. The border continued to Geliloth. (Geliloth is near the Adummim Pass in the mountains.) The border went down to the Great Stone that was named for Bohan, the son of Reuben. <sup>20</sup>The border continued to the northern part of Beth Arabah. Then the border went down into Arabah. <sup>21</sup>Then the border went to the northern part of Beth Hoglah and ended at the north shore of the Dead Sea. This is where the Jordan River flows into that sea. That was the southern border.

Land for Simeon

19 Then Joshua gave all the families in the family group of Simeon their share of the land. The land they got was inside the

we will ... land Literally, "I will throw lots here before the Lord our God.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

area that belonged to Judah. <sup>2</sup>This is what they got: Beersheba (also called Sheba), Moladah, <sup>3</sup>Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem, <sup>4</sup>Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, <sup>5</sup>Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah, <sup>6</sup>Beth Lebaoth and Sharuhen. There were 13 towns and all the fields around them.

<sup>7</sup>They also got the towns of Ain, Rimmon, Ether and Ashan. There were four towns and all the fields around them. <sup>8</sup>They also got all the fields around the cities as far as Baalath Beer (Ramah in the Negev). So that was the area that was given to the family group of Simeon. Each family got its land. <sup>9</sup>Simeon's share of land was within the area that Judah got. The people of Judah had more land than they needed, so the people of Simeon got part of their land.

Land for Zebulun

<sup>10</sup>The next family group that got their land was Zebulun. Each family in Zebulun got the land that was promised to them. The border of Zebulun went as far as Sarid. <sup>11</sup>Then the border went west to Maralah and just touched Dabbesheth. Then the border went along the ravine near Jokneam. <sup>12</sup>Then the border turned to the east. It went from Sarid to Kisloth Tabor. Then the border went on to Daberath and to Japhia. <sup>13</sup>Then the border continued to the east to Gath Hopher and Eth Kazin. The border ended at Rimmon. Then the border turned and went to Neah. <sup>14</sup>At Neah the border turned again and went north to Hannathon and then continued to the Valley of Iphtah El. <sup>15</sup>Inside this border were the cities of Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah and Bethlehem. In all, there were twelve towns and all the fields around them.

<sup>16</sup>So these are the towns and fields around them that were given to Zebulun. Each family in Zebulun got its part of the land.

Land for Issachar

Land for Asher

<sup>24</sup>The fifth part of land was given to the family group of Asher. Each family in that family group got its part of the land. <sup>25</sup>This is the land that was given to that family group: Helkath, Hali, Beten, Acshaph, <sup>26</sup>Allammelech, Amad and Mishal.

The western border continued to Mount Carmel and Shihor Libnath. <sup>27</sup>Then the border turned to the east. The border went to Beth Dagon. The border touched Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah El. Then the border went north of Beth Emek and Neiel. The border passed north of Cabul. <sup>28</sup>Then the border went to Abdon,* Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah. The border continued to the Greater Sidon area. <sup>29</sup>Then the border went back south to Ramah. The border continued to the strong city of Tyre. Then the border turned and went to Hosah. The border ended at the sea, near Aczib, <sup>30</sup>Ummah, Apeh, and Rehob.

In all there were 22 towns and the fields around them. <sup>31</sup>These cities and the fields around them were given to the family group of Asher. Each family in that family group got its share of the land.

Land for Naphtali

<sup>32</sup>The sixth part of land was given to the family group of Naphtali. Each family in that family group got its share of the land. <sup>33</sup>The border of their land started at the large tree near Zaananim. This is near Heleph. Then the border went through Adami Nekeb and Jabneel.

Abdon Or, "Ebron."

The border continued to Lakkum and ended at the Jordan River. <sup>34</sup>Then the border went to the west through Aznoth Tabor. The border stopped at Hukkok. The southern border touched Zebulun and the western border touched Asher. The border went to Judah, at the Jordan River to the east. <sup>35</sup>There were some very strong cities inside these borders. Those cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Kinnereth, <sup>36</sup>Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, <sup>37</sup>Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor, <sup>38</sup>Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath and Beth Shemesh. In all, there were 19 towns and all the fields around them.

<sup>39</sup>These cities and the fields around them were given to the family group of Naphtali. Each family in that family group got its land.

Land for Dan

<sup>47</sup>But the people of Dan had trouble taking their land. There were strong enemies there and the people of Dan could not easily defeat them. So the people of Dan went and fought against Leshem. They defeated Leshem and killed the people who lived there. So the people of Dan lived in the town of Leshem. They changed the name to Dan because that was the name of the father of their family group. <sup>48</sup>All of these cities and fields around them were given to the family group of Dan. Each family got its share of the land.

Land for Joshua

<sup>49</sup>So the leaders finished dividing the land and giving it to the different family groups. After they finished, all the people of Israel decided to give Joshua son of Nun some land too. This was land that was promised to him. <sup>50</sup>The Lord had commanded that he get this land. So they gave Joshua the town of Timnath

Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. This was the town that Joshua told them he wanted. So Joshua built the town stronger and lived there.

<sup>51</sup>So all of these lands were given to the different family groups of Israel. Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders of each family group met together at Shiloh to divide the land. They met before the Lord at the entrance of the Meeting Tent. * So they finished dividing the land.

Cities of Safety

20 Then the Lord said to Joshua: <sup>24</sup>"I used Moses to give you a command. Moses told you to build special cities of safety. <sup>25</sup>If any person kills another person, but it is an accident and he did not mean to kill that person, then he can go to a city of safety to hide.

<sup>26</sup>"This is what that person must do. When he runs away and goes to one of those cities, he must stop at the entrance of the city. He must stand at the gate and tell the leaders of the people what happened. Then the leaders can allow him to enter the city. They will give him a place to live among them. <sup>27</sup>But the one who is chasing that person might follow him to that city. If this happens, the leaders of the city must not give up. They must protect the person who came to them for safety. They must protect that person because he did not mean to kill the person he killed. It was an accident. He was not angry and did not decide to kill the person. It was something that just happened. <sup>28</sup>That person should stay in the city until he has been judged by the court in that city. And he should stay in that city until the time that the high priest dies. Then he can go back to his own home in the town he ran away from."

<sup>29</sup>So the people of Israel chose some cities to be called "Cities of Safety." These cities were:

Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali;

Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim;

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (tabernacle) where the people of Israel went to meet with God.

Kiriath Arba (Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> Bezer on the east side of the Jordan River near Jericho in the desert in the land of Reuben;

Ramoth in Gilead in the land of Gad; Golan in Bashan in the land of Manasseh.

<sup>9</sup>Any Jewish person or any foreigner living among them who kills someone, but it was an accident, was allowed to run away to one of those cities of safety. Then the person could be safe there and would not be killed by anyone who was chasing him. The person would be judged by the court in that city.

Towns for Priests and Levites

21 The family rulers of the Levite family group went to talk to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua son of Nun, and the rulers of the other family groups of Israel. <sup>2</sup>This happened at the town of Shiloh in the land of Canaan. The Levite rulers said to them, “The Lord gave Moses a command. He commanded that you give us towns to live in. And he commanded that you give us fields where our animals can eat.” <sup>3</sup>So the people of Israel obeyed this command from the Lord. They gave the Levite people these towns and the land around them for their animals:

<sup>4</sup>The Kohath family was from the family group of Levi. Part of the Kohathite family was given 13 towns in the areas that belonged to Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin. Those towns were given to the Kohathites that were descendants of Aaron the priest.

<sup>5</sup>The other Kohathite families were given ten towns in the areas that belonged to Ephraim, Dan, and half of Manasseh.

<sup>6</sup>The people from the Gershon family were given 13 towns. These towns were in the areas that belonged to Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the half of Manasseh that was in Bashan.

<sup>7</sup>The people from the Merari family were given twelve towns. These twelve towns came from the areas that belonged to Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.

<sup>8</sup>So the people of Israel gave the Levite people these towns and the fields around them. They did this to obey the command that the Lord had given Moses.

<sup>9</sup>These are the names of the towns that were in the areas that belonged to Judah and Simeon. <sup>10</sup>The first choice of towns was given to Levites from the Kohath family. <sup>11</sup>They gave them Kiriath Arba (This is Hebron. It was named for a man named Arba. Arba was the father of Anak.) They also gave them some land near the town for their animals. <sup>12</sup>But the fields and the small towns around the city of Kiriath Arba belonged to Caleb son of Jephunneh. <sup>13</sup>So they gave the city of Hebron to the Aaron’s descendants. (Hebron was a city of safety.) They also gave Aaron’s descendants the towns of Libnah, <sup>14</sup>Jattir, Eshtemoa, <sup>15</sup>Holon, Debir, <sup>16</sup>Ain, Juttah, and Beth Shemesh. They also gave them some of the land near these towns for their animals. They gave nine towns to these two groups.

<sup>17</sup>They also gave Aaron’s descendants cities that belonged to the family group of Benjamin. These cities were Gibeon, Geba, <sup>18</sup>Anathoth, and Almon. They gave them these four towns and some of the land near the towns for their animals. <sup>19</sup>In all, they gave 13 towns to the priests. (All priests were descendants of Aaron.) They also gave them some land near each town for their animals.

<sup>20</sup>The other people from the Kohathite family were given towns that were in the areas that belonged to the family group of Ephraim. They got these towns: <sup>21</sup>The city of Shechem from the hill country of Ephraim. (Shechem was a city of safety.) They also got Gezer, <sup>22</sup>Kibzaim, and Beth Horon. In all, Ephraim gave them four towns and some land around each town for their animals.

<sup>25</sup>Half of the family group of Manasseh gave them Taanach and Gath Rimmon. In all, this half of Manasseh gave them two towns and some land around each town for their animals.

<sup>28</sup>In all, the rest of the people from the Kohath family got ten towns and some land around each town for their animals.

<sup>29</sup>The Gershon family was also from the family group of Levi. They got these towns:

Half of the family group of Manasseh gave them Golan in Bashan. (Golan was a city of safety.) Manasseh also gave them Be Eshtarrah. In all, this half of Manasseh gave them two towns and some land around each town for their animals.

<sup>34</sup>The family group of Naphtali gave them Kedesh in Galilee. (Kedesh was a city of safety.) Naphtali also gave them Hammoth Dor and Kartan. In all, Naphtali gave them three towns and some land around each town for their animals.

<sup>35</sup>In all, the Gershon family got 13 towns and some land around each town for their animals.

<sup>36</sup>The other Levite group was the Merari family. The Merari family got these towns:

The family group of Zebulun gave them Jokneam, Kartah, <sup>37</sup>Dimnah, and Nahalal. In all, Zebulun gave them four towns and some land around each town for their animals.

<sup>40</sup>The family group of Gad gave them Ramoth in Gilead. (Ramoth was a city of safety.) They also gave them Mahanaim, <sup>41</sup>Heshbon, and Jazer. In all, Gad gave them four towns and some land around each town for their animals.

<sup>43</sup>So the Levites got a total of 48 towns and some land around each town for their animals.

All these towns were in areas that belonged to the other family groups. <sup>44</sup>Each of these towns had some land in it for their animals. That was true for every town.

<sup>45</sup>So the Lord kept the promise that he had made to the people of Israel. He gave the people all the land that he had promised. The people took the land and lived there. <sup>46</sup>And the Lord allowed them to have peace on all sides of their land, just like he had promised their ancestors.* None of their enemies defeated them. The Lord allowed the people of Israel to defeat every enemy. <sup>47</sup>The Lord kept every promise that he made to the people of Israel. There were no promises that he failed to keep. Every promise came true.

Three Family Groups Go Home

22 Then Joshua called a meeting of all the people from the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh. <sup>2</sup>Joshua said to them, "Moses was the Lord's servant. You obeyed all things that Moses told you to do. And also, you obeyed all of my commands. <sup>3</sup>And all this time you have supported all the other people of Israel. You carefully obeyed all the commands that the Lord your God gave you. <sup>4</sup>The Lord your God promised to give the people of Israel peace. And now, the Lord has kept his promise. So now you can go home. The Lord's servant Moses gave you the land on the east side of the Jordan River. Now you can go home to that land. <sup>5</sup>But remember—continue to obey the law that Moses gave you. You must love the Lord your God and obey his commands. You must continue to follow him and serve him the very best that you can."

<sup>6</sup>Then Joshua said good-bye to them and they left. They went home. <sup>7</sup>Moses had given the land of Bashan to half of the Manasseh family group. Joshua gave land on the west side of the Jordan River to the other half of the Manasseh family group. Joshua blessed them and sent them home. <sup>8</sup>He said, "You have become very rich. You have many animals.

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

You have gold and silver and expensive jewelry. You have many beautiful clothes. You have taken many things from your enemies. Divide these things among yourselves and go home."

<sup>9</sup>So the people from the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh left the other people of Israel. They were at Shiloh in Canaan. They left that place and went back to Gilead. They went home to their own land—the land that Moses gave them. The Lord had commanded Moses to give them this land.

<sup>10</sup>The people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh went to the place called Geliloth. This was near the Jordan River in the land of Canaan. At that place the people built a beautiful altar. <sup>11</sup>But the other people of Israel that were still at Shiloh heard about the altar that these three family groups built. They heard that the altar was at the border of Canaan at the place called Geliloth. It was near the Jordan River on Israel's side. <sup>12</sup>All the people of Israel became very angry at these three family groups. They met together and decided to fight against them.

<sup>13</sup>So the people of Israel sent some men to talk to the people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh. The leader of these men was Phinehas, son of Eleazar the priest. <sup>14</sup>They also sent ten of the leaders of the family groups there. There was one man from each family group of Israel that was at Shiloh.

<sup>15</sup>So these eleven men went to Gilead. They went to talk to the people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh. The eleven men said to them, <sup>16</sup>"All the people of Israel ask you: Why did you do this thing against the God of Israel? Why did you turn against the Lord? Why did you build an altar for yourselves? You know that this is against God's teachings! <sup>17</sup>Remember what happened at Peor? We are still suffering because of that sin. Because of that great sin, God caused many of the people of Israel to become very sick. And we are still suffering because of that sickness today. <sup>18</sup>And now you are doing the same thing! You are turning against the Lord! Will you refuse to follow the Lord? If you don't stop what you are doing, the Lord will be angry with every person in Israel.

<sup>19</sup>"If your land is not a good enough place to worship, then come over into our land. The Lord's Tent is in our land. You can have some of our land and live there. But don't turn against the Lord. Don't build another altar. We already have the altar of the Lord our God at the Meeting Tent.

<sup>20</sup>"Remember the man named Achan son of Zerah. He refused to obey the command about things that must be destroyed. That one man broke God's law, but all the people of Israel were punished. Achan died because of his sin. But also many other people died."

<sup>21</sup>The people from the family groups of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh answered the eleven men. They said, <sup>22</sup>"The Lord is our God! Again we say that the Lord is our God!* And God knows why we did this thing. We want you to know also. You can judge what we did. If you believe that we have done something wrong, then you can kill us. <sup>23</sup>If we broke God's law, then we ask the Lord himself to punish us. <sup>24</sup>Do you think we built this altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings and fellowship offerings? No! We did not build it for that reason. Why did we build this altar? We were afraid that in the future your people would not accept us as part of your nation. Then your people would say that we can't worship the Lord God of Israel. <sup>25</sup>God gave us land on the other side of the Jordan River. This means that the Jordan River separates us. We were afraid that when your children grew up and ruled your land, they would not remember that we were also your people. They would say to us, 'You people of Reuben and Gad aren't part of Israel!' Then your children would make our children stop worshipping the Lord.

<sup>26</sup>"So we decided to build this altar. But we did not plan to use it for burning offerings and sacrifices. <sup>27</sup>The real reason we wanted our altar was to show our people that we worship the same God as you. This altar will be the proof to you and to us and to all our future children that we worship the Lord. We give our sacrifices,

The ... God Or, "Yahweh is the true God! Yahweh is the true God!" Literally, "El Elohim Yahweh! El Elohim Yahweh."

grain offerings and fellowship offerings to the Lord. We wanted your children to grow up and know that we are also people of Israel like yourselves. <sup>2</sup>In the future, if it happens that your children say that we do not belong to Israel, then our children can say, 'Look! Our fathers who lived before us made an altar. That altar is exactly like the Lord's altar, at the Holy Tent. We do not use this altar for sacrifices—this altar is proof that we are part of Israel.'

<sup>28</sup>"Truly, we do not want to be against the Lord. We don't want to stop following him now. We know that the only true altar is the one that is in front of the Holy Tent. That altar belongs to the Lord our God."

<sup>29</sup>Phinehas the priest and the leaders with him heard these things the people from Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh said. They were satisfied that these people were telling the truth. <sup>30</sup>So Phinehas the priest said, "Now we know that the Lord is with us. And we know that you did not turn against him. We are happy that the people of Israel will not be punished by the Lord."

<sup>31</sup>Then Phinehas and the leaders left that place and went home. They left the people of Reuben and Gad in the land of Gilead and went back to Canaan. They went back to the people of Israel and told them what happened. <sup>32</sup>The people of Israel were also satisfied. They were happy and thanked God. They decided not to go and fight against the people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh. They decided not to destroy the land where those people live.

<sup>33</sup>The people of Reuben, and Gad gave the altar a name. They called it, "Proof That We Believe the Lord is God."

Joshua Encourages the People

23 The Lord gave Israel peace from their enemies around them. The Lord made Israel safe. Many years passed, and Joshua became very old. <sup>2</sup>At this time, Joshua called a meeting of all the older leaders, heads of families, judges, and officers of the people of Israel. Joshua said, "I have grown very old. <sup>3</sup>You have seen the things that the Lord did to our enemies. He did this to help us. The Lord your God fought for you. 'Remember that I told you your people could have that land between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea in the west. I promised to give you that land, but you don't control it yet. <sup>5</sup>But the Lord your God will force the people living there to leave. You will take that land. The Lord will force the people living there to leave! The Lord your God promised to do this for you.

<sup>6</sup>"You must be careful to obey all the things the Lord has commanded us. Obey everything that is written in the book of the Law of Moses. Don't turn away from that law. <sup>7</sup>There are still some people living among us that are not people of Israel. Those people worship their own gods. Don't become friends with those people. Don't serve or worship their gods. <sup>8</sup>You must continue to follow the Lord your God. You have done this in the past, and you must continue to do it.

<sup>9</sup>"The Lord helped you to defeat many great and powerful nations. The Lord forced those people to leave. No nation has been able to defeat you. <sup>10</sup>With the Lord's help, one man from Israel could defeat 1,000 enemy soldiers. Why? Because the Lord your God fights for you. The Lord promised to do this. <sup>11</sup>So you must continue to love the Lord your God.

<sup>12</sup>"Don't stop following the Lord. Don't become friends with those other people that are not part of Israel. Don't marry any of their people. But if you do become friends with these people, <sup>13</sup>then the Lord your God will not help you to defeat your enemies. These people will become like a trap for you. They will cause you pain—like smoke and dust in your eyes. And you will be forced to leave this good land. The Lord your God gave you this land. But you can lose it if you don't obey this command.

<sup>14</sup>"It is almost time for me to die. You know and truly believe that the Lord has done many great things for you. You know that he has not failed in any of his promises. The Lord has kept every promise that he has made to us. <sup>15</sup>Every good promise that the Lord your God made to us has come true. But in the same way, the Lord will make his other promise come true.

He promised that if you do wrong, then bad things will happen to you. He promised that he will force you to leave this good land that he gave you. <sup>16</sup>This will happen if you refuse to keep your agreement with the Lord your God. You will lose this land if you go and serve other gods. You must not worship those other gods. If you do, the Lord will become very angry at you. Then you will quickly be forced to leave this good land that he gave you.”

Joshua Says Good-bye

24 Joshua called all the family groups of Israel to meet together at Shechem. Then Joshua called the older leaders, the heads of the families, the judges, and the officers and the rulers and the judges of Israel. These men stood before God.

<sup>2</sup>Then Joshua spoke to all the people. He said, “I am telling you what the Lord, the God of Israel, says to you:

“A long time ago, your ancestors lived on the other side of the Euphrates River. I am talking about men like Terah, the father of Abraham and Nahor. At that time, those men worshiped other gods. <sup>3</sup>But I, the Lord, took your father Abraham out of the land on the other side of the River. I led him through the land of Canaan and gave him many, many children. I gave Abraham his son named Isaac. <sup>4</sup>And I gave Isaac two sons named Jacob and Esau. To Esau, I gave the land around the mountains of Seir. Jacob and his sons did not live there. They went to live in the land of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>“Then I sent Moses and Aaron to Egypt. I wanted them to bring my people out of Egypt. I caused many terrible things to happen to the people of Egypt. Then I brought your people out of Egypt. <sup>6</sup>So I brought your ancestors out of Egypt. They came to the Red Sea, and the men of Egypt were chasing them. There were chariots and men on horses. <sup>7</sup>So the people asked me, the Lord, for help. And I caused great trouble to come to the men of Egypt. I, the Lord, caused the sea to cover them. You yourselves saw what I did to the army of Egypt.

“After that, you lived in the desert for a long time. <sup>8</sup>Then I brought you to the land of the Amorite people. This was east of the Jordan River. Those people fought against you, but I allowed you to defeat them. I gave you the power to destroy those people. Then you took control of that land.

<sup>9</sup>“Then Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, prepared to fight against the people of Israel. The king sent for Balaam the son of Beor. He asked Balaam to curse* you. <sup>10</sup>But I, the Lord, refused to listen to Balaam. So Balaam asked for good things to happen to you! He blessed you many times. I saved you and brought you out of trouble.

<sup>11</sup>“Then you went across the Jordan River. You went to the Jericho. The people in the city of Jericho fought against you. Also, the Amorite people, the Perizzite people, the Canaanite people, the Hittite people, the Girgashite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people fought against you. But I allowed you to defeat all of them. <sup>12</sup>While your army traveled forward, I sent hornets* ahead of them. These hornets made the people leave. So you took the land without using your swords and bows.

<sup>13</sup>“I, the Lord, gave that land to you! You didn’t work for that land—I gave it to you! You did not build those cities—I gave them to you! And now you live in that land and in those cities. You have gardens of grapevines and olive trees, but you did not have to plant those gardens.”

curse To ask for bad things to happen to someone.
hornet(s) A large wasp.

<sup>14</sup>Then Joshua said to the people, “Now you have heard the Lord’s words. So you must respect the Lord and truly serve him. Throw away the false gods that your ancestors worshiped. That was something that happened a long time ago on the other side of the Euphrates River and in Egypt. Now you must serve only the Lord.

<sup>15</sup>“But maybe you don’t want to serve the Lord. You must choose for yourselves today. Today you must decide who you will serve. Will you serve the gods that your ancestors worshiped when they lived on the other side of the Euphrates River? Or will you serve the gods of the Amorite people that lived in this land? You must choose for yourselves. But as for me and my family, we will serve the Lord!”

<sup>16</sup>Then the people answered, “We will never stop following the Lord. We will never serve other gods! <sup>17</sup>We know that it was the Lord God who brought our people out of Egypt. We were slaves in that land. But the Lord did great things for us there. He brought us out of that land and protected us while we traveled through other lands. <sup>18</sup>The Lord helped us to defeat the people living in these lands. The Lord helped us to defeat the Amorite people who lived in this land where we are now. So we will continue to serve the Lord. Why? Because he is our God.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Joshua said, “That is not true. You will not be able to continue serving the Lord. The Lord God is holy. And God hates his people worshiping other gods. God will not forgive you if you turn against him like that. <sup>20</sup>But you will leave the Lord and serve other gods. And the Lord will cause terrible things to happen to you. The Lord will destroy you. The Lord God has been good to you, but if you turn against him he will destroy you.”

<sup>21</sup>But the people said to Joshua, “No! We will serve the Lord.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Joshua said, “Look around at yourselves and the people with you here. Do you all know and agree that you have chosen to serve the Lord? Are you all witnesses to this?”

The people answered, “Yes, it is true! We all see that we have chosen to serve the Lord.”

<sup>23</sup>Then Joshua said, “So throw away the false gods that you have among you. Love the Lord the God of Israel with all your heart.”

<sup>24</sup>Then the people said to Joshua, “We will serve the Lord our God. We will obey him.”

<sup>25</sup>So that day Joshua made an agreement for the people. Joshua made this agreement at the town called Shechem. It became a law for them to follow. <sup>26</sup>Joshua wrote these things in the book of the Law of God. Then Joshua found a large stone. This stone was proof of this agreement. He put the stone under the oak tree near the Lord’s Holy Tent.

<sup>27</sup>Then Joshua said to all the people, “This stone will help you remember the things we said today. This stone was here when the Lord was speaking to us today. So this stone will be something that helps you remember what happened today. The stone will be a witness against you. It will stop you from turning against the Lord your God.”

<sup>28</sup>Then Joshua told the people to go home. So every person went back to his own land.

Joshua Dies

<sup>29</sup>After that Joshua son of Nun died. Joshua was 110 years old. <sup>30</sup>Joshua was buried on his own land at Timnath Serah. This was in the hill country of Ephraim north of Mount Gaash.

<sup>31</sup>The people of Israel had served the Lord during the time Joshua was living. And after Joshua died, the people continued to serve the Lord. The people continued to serve the Lord while their leaders were alive. These were the leaders that had seen the things that the Lord had done for Israel.

Joseph Comes Home

<sup>32</sup>When the people of Israel left Egypt, they carried the bones from the body of Joseph with them. So the people buried the bones of Joseph at Shechem. They buried the bones on the land that Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of the man named Shechem. Jacob had bought that land for 100 pieces of pure silver. This land belonged to Joseph’s children.

<sup>3</sup>Aaron's son Eleazar died. Eleazar was buried at Gibeah. Gibeah was a town in the hill country of Ephraim. That town had been given to Eleazar's son Phinehas.

Judges

Judah Fights the Canaanites

1 Joshua died. Then the people of Israel prayed to the Lord. They said, "Which of our family groups should be the first to go and fight for us against the Canaanite people?"

<sup>2</sup>The Lord said to the Israelite people, "The family group of Judah will go. I will let them take this land."

<sup>3</sup>The men of Judah asked for help from their brothers from the family group of Simeon. The men of Judah said, "Brothers, the Lord promised to, give each of us some land. If you will come and help us fight for our land, then we will go and help you fight for your land." The men of Simeon agreed to help their brothers from Judah fight.

<sup>6</sup>The ruler of Bezek* tried to escape. But the men of Judah chased him and caught him. When they caught him, they cut off his thumbs and big toes. <sup>7</sup>Then the ruler of Bezek* said, "I cut the thumbs and big toes off of 70 kings. And those kings had to eat pieces of food that fell from my table. Now God has paid me back for the things I did to those kings." The men of Judah took the ruler of Bezek* to Jerusalem and he died there.

<sup>8</sup>The men of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it. The men of Judah used their swords to kill the people of Jerusalem. Then they burned the city. <sup>9</sup>Later, the men of Judah went down to fight against some more Canaanites. Those Canaanites lived in the hill country, in the Negev,* and in the western foothills.

<sup>10</sup>Then the men of Judah went to fight against the Canaanite people that lived in the city of Hebron. (Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba.) The men of Judah defeated the men named Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi.*

Caleb and His Daughter

<sup>11</sup>The men of Judah left that place. They went to the city of Debir to fight against the people there. (In the past, Debir was called Kiriath Sepher.) <sup>12</sup>Before the men of Judah started to fight, Caleb made a promise to the men. Caleb said, "I want to attack Kiriath Sepher. I will give my daughter Acsah to the man that attacks and captures that city. I will let that man marry my daughter."

<sup>13</sup>Caleb had a younger brother named Kenaz. Kenaz had a son named Othniel. Othniel captured the city of Kiriath Sepher. So Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to Othniel to be his wife.

<sup>14</sup>Acsah went to live with Othniel. Othniel

the ruler of Bezek This might be the name "Adoni-Bezek."

Sheshai ... Talmi These three men were the sons of a man named Anak. They were giants. See Numbers 13:22.

told Acsah* to ask her father for some land. „Acsah went to her father.„ When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What is wrong?”

<sup>15</sup>Acsah answered Caleb, “Give me a blessing.* You gave me dry desert land in the Negev.* Please give me some land with water on it.” So Caleb gave her what she wanted. He gave her the upper and lower pools of water in that land.

<sup>16</sup>The Kenite people left the City of Palm trees (Jericho) and went with the men of Judah. Those people went to the Desert of Judah to live with the people there. This was in the Negev* near the city Arad. (The Kenite people were from the family of Moses’ father-in-law.)

<sup>17</sup>Some Canaanite people lived in the city of Zephath. So the men of Judah and men from the family group of Simeon attacked those Canaanite people. They completely destroyed the city. So they named the city Hormah.*

<sup>18</sup>The men of Judah also captured the city of Gaza and the small towns around it. The men of Judah also captured the cities of Ashkelon and Ekron and all the small towns around them.

<sup>19</sup>The Lord was on the side of the men of Judah when they fought. They took the land in the hill country. But the men of Judah failed to take the land in the valleys, because the people living there had iron chariots.*

<sup>20</sup>Moses had promised to give the land near Hebron to Caleb. So that land was given to Caleb’s family. The men of Caleb forced the three sons of Anak* to leave that place.

The Men of Benjamin Settle in Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup>The family group of Benjamin could not force the Jebusite people to leave Jerusalem. So even today, the Jebusite people live with the people of Benjamin in Jerusalem.

Othniel ... Acsah Or, “Acsah told Othniel.”

Give me a blessing Or, “Please welcome me.” Or, “Give me a stream of water.”

Negev The desert area south of Judah.

Hormah This is like the word meaning “to destroy completely.”

iron chariots Small wagons used in war. They were faster and could carry more weapons than soldiers on foot.

the three sons of Anak These men were Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, mentioned above in verse 10.

The Men of Joseph Capture Bethel

<sup>22-23</sup>Men from the family group of Joseph went to fight against the city of Bethel. (In the past, Bethel was named Luz.) The Lord was on the side of the men from the family group of Joseph. The men from the family of Joseph sent some spies to the city of Bethel. (These men looked for ways to defeat the city of Bethel.) <sup>24</sup>While the spies were watching the city of Bethel, they saw a man come out of the city. The spies said to the man, “Show us a secret way into the city. We will attack the city. But if you help us, we will not hurt you.”

<sup>25</sup>The man showed the spies the secret way into the city. The men of Joseph used their swords to kill the people of Bethel. But they did not hurt the man that helped them. And they did not hurt the people in his family. That man and his family were allowed to go free.

<sup>26</sup>That man then went to the land where the Hittite people lived and built a city. He named the city Luz. And that city is still called Luz today.

The Other Family Groups Fight the Canaanites

<sup>27</sup>There were Canaanite people living in the cities of Beth-Shean, Taanach, Dor, Ibleam, Megiddo, and the small towns around those cities. The people from the family group of Manasseh could not force those people to leave those towns. So the Canaanite people stayed. They refused to leave their homes. <sup>28</sup>Later the people of Israel grew stronger and forced the Canaanite people to work as slaves for them. But the people of Israel could not force all of the Canaanite people to leave their land.

<sup>29</sup>The same thing happened with the people from the family group of Ephraim. There were Canaanite people living in Gezer. And the people of Ephraim did not make all of those Canaanite people leave their land. So the Canaanite people continued to live in Gezer with the people of Ephraim.

<sup>30</sup>The same thing happened with the people from the family group of Zebulun. Some Canaanite people lived in the cities of Kitron and Nahalol. The people of Zebulun did not force those people to leave their land. Those Canaanite people stayed and lived with the people of Zebulun. But the people of Zebulun made those people work for them as slaves.

<sup>31</sup>The same thing happened with the people from the family group of Asher. The people of Asher did not force the other people to leave the cities of Acco, Sidon, Ahlab, Aczib, Helbah, Aphek, and Rehob. <sup>32</sup>The people of Asher did not force those Canaanite people to leave their land. So the Canaanite people continued to live with the people of Asher.

<sup>33</sup>The same thing happened with the people from the family group of Naphtali. The people of Naphtali did not force the people to leave the cities of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath. So the people of Naphtali continued to live with the people in those cities. Those Canaanite people worked as slaves for the people of Naphtali.

<sup>34</sup>The Amorite people forced the people of the family group of Dan to live in the hill country. The people of Dan had to stay in the hills because the Amorite people would not let them come down to live in the valleys. <sup>35</sup>The Amorite people decided to stay in Mount Heres, Aijalon, and Shaalvim. Later, the family group of Joseph grew stronger. Then they made the Amorite people work as slaves for them. <sup>36</sup>The land of the Amorite people was from Scorpion Pass to Sela and up into the hill country past Sela.

The Angel of the Lord at Bokim

2 The angel of the Lord went up to the city of Bokim from the city of Gilgal. The angel spoke a message from the Lord to the people of Israel. This was the message: "I brought you out of Egypt. I led you to the land that I promised to give to your ancestors.* I said, 'I will never break my agreement with you.' <sup>2</sup>But in return, you must not make an agreement with the people that live in this land. You must destroy their altars.* I told you this, but you did not obey me. Why?

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

altars A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

<sup>34</sup>"Now I will tell you this, 'I will not force the other people to leave this land any longer. These people will become a problem for you. They will be like a trap to you. Their false gods will become like a net to trap you.'"

<sup>4</sup>After the angel gave the people of Israel this message from the Lord, the people cried loudly. <sup>5</sup>So the people of Israel named the place where they cried, Bokim.* At Bokim the people of Israel offered sacrifices to the Lord.

Disobedience and Defeat

<sup>6</sup>Then Joshua told the people to go home. So each family group went to take their area of land to live in it. <sup>7</sup>The people of Israel served the Lord as long as Joshua was alive. They continued serving the Lord during the lifetimes of the elders (leaders) that lived after Joshua had died. These old men had seen all the great things the Lord had done for the people of Israel. <sup>8</sup>Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, died at the age of 110 years. <sup>9</sup>The people of Israel buried Joshua. They buried Joshua on the land that he had been given. That was at Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

<sup>10</sup>After that whole generation died, the next generation grew up. This new generation did not know about the Lord and what the Lord had done for the people of Israel. <sup>11</sup>So the people of Israel did evil and served the false god Baal.* The Lord saw the people doing this evil thing. <sup>12</sup>The Lord had brought the people of Israel out of Egypt. And the ancestors* of these people had worshiped the Lord. But the people of Israel quit following the Lord. The people of Israel began to worship the false gods of the people that lived around them. That made the Lord angry. <sup>13</sup>The people of Israel quit following the Lord and began worshiping Baal and Astarte.*

Bokim This name means "People crying."

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Astarte The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord was angry with the people of Israel. So the Lord let enemies attack the people of Israel and take their possessions. The Lord let their enemies that lived around them defeat them. The people of Israel could not protect themselves from their enemies. <sup>15</sup>When the people of Israel went out to fight, they always lost. They lost because the Lord was not on their side. The Lord had already warned the people of Israel that they would lose if they served the gods of the people that lived around them. The people of Israel suffered very much.

<sup>16</sup>Then the Lord chose leaders called judges. These leaders saved the people of Israel from the enemies that took their possessions. <sup>17</sup>But the people of Israel did not listen to their judges. The people of Israel were not faithful to God—they followed other gods.* In the past, the ancestors* of the people of Israel obeyed the Lord's commands. But now the people of Israel changed and stopped obeying the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>Many times the enemies of Israel did bad things to the people. So the people of Israel would cry for help. And each time, the Lord felt sorry for the people. Each time he sent a judge to save the people from their enemies. The Lord was always with those judges. So each time, the people of Israel were saved from their enemies. <sup>19</sup>But when each judge died, the people of Israel again sinned and started worshipping the false gods. The people of Israel were very stubborn—they refused to change their evil ways.

<sup>20</sup>So the Lord became angry with the people of Israel, and he said, "This nation has broken the Agreement that I made with their ancestors.* They have not listened to me. <sup>21</sup>So I will no longer defeat the nations and clear the way for the people of Israel. Those nations were still in this land when Joshua died. And I will let those nations stay in this land. <sup>22</sup>I will use those nations to test the people of Israel. I will see if the people of Israel can keep the Lord's commands like their ancestors did."

were not faithful ... other gods Literally, "acted like a prostitute to other gods."

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

<sup>23</sup>The Lord allowed those nations to stay in the land. The Lord did not force those nations to quickly leave the country. He did not help Joshua's army defeat them.

3 <sup>1,2</sup>The Lord did not force all the people of those other nations to leave Israel's land. The Lord wanted to test the people of Israel. None of the people of Israel living at this time had fought in the wars to take the land of Canaan. So the Lord let those other nations stay in their country. (The Lord did this to teach the people of Israel that had not fought in those wars.) Here are the names of the nations the Lord left in the land: <sup>3</sup>the five rulers of the Philistine people, all of the Canaanite people, the people of Sidon, and the Hivite people that lived in the Lebanon mountains from Mount Gaal Hermon to Lebo Hamath. <sup>4</sup>The Lord left those nations in the land to test the people of Israel. He wanted to see if the people of Israel would obey the Lord's commands that he had given to their ancestors* through Moses.

<sup>5</sup>The people of Israel lived with the Canaanite people, the Hittite people, the Amorite people, the Perizzite people, the Hivite people, and the Jebusite people. <sup>6</sup>The people of Israel began to marry the daughters of those people. The people of Israel allowed their own daughters to marry the sons of those people. And the people of Israel began to worship the gods of those people.

Othniel, the First Judge

<sup>7</sup>The Lord saw that the people of Israel did evil things. The people of Israel forgot about the Lord their God and served the false gods Baal* and Asherah.* <sup>8</sup>The Lord was angry with the people of Israel. The Lord allowed Cushan-Rishathaim, the king of Aram Naharaim* to defeat the people of Israel and to

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.

Aram Naharaim A land in northern Syria. This name means "Aram of the Two Rivers." The two rivers were the Euphrates and the Tigris Rivers.

rule over them. The people of Israel were under that king's rule for eight years. <sup>9</sup>But the people of Israel cried to the Lord for help. The Lord sent a man to save them. That man's name was Othniel. He was the son of a man named Kenaz. Kenaz was Caleb's younger brother. Othniel saved the people of Israel. <sup>10</sup>The Spirit of the Lord came on Othniel, and he became a judge for the people of Israel. Othniel led the people of Israel to war. The Lord help Othniel to defeat Cushan-Rishathaim, the king of Aram. <sup>11</sup>So the land was at peace for 40 years, until Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Ehud, the Judge

<sup>12</sup>Again the Lord saw the people of Israel do evil things. So the Lord gave Eglon king of Moab power to defeat the people of Israel. <sup>13</sup>Eglon got help from the Ammonite people and the Amalekite people. They joined him and attacked the people of Israel. Eglon and his army defeated the people of Israel and forced them to leave the City of Palm Trees (Jericho). <sup>14</sup>Eglon king of Moab ruled over the people of Israel for 18 years.

<sup>15</sup>The people cried to the Lord. The Lord sent a man to save the people of Israel. That man's name was Ehud. Ehud was a left-handed man. Ehud was the son of a man named Gera from the family group of Benjamin. The people of Israel sent Ehud to give some tax money to Eglon king of Moab. <sup>16</sup>Ehud made a sword for himself. That sword had two edges and was about 18 inches* long. Ehud tied the sword to his right thigh and hid it under his clothes.

<sup>17</sup>So Ehud came to Eglon king of Moab and gave him the tax money. (Eglon was a very fat man.) <sup>18</sup>After Ehud had given the money to Eglon, he sent the men that had carried the money back home. <sup>19</sup>Ehud started to leave. When he was near the idols in the city Gilgal, he turned around. Then Ehud said to Eglon, "I have a secret message for you, O king."

The king said, "Be quiet!" Then he sent all of servants out of the room. <sup>20</sup>Ehud went to King Eglon. Eglon was now sitting all alone in the room on the top of his summer palace.*

Then Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." The king stood up from his throne, he was very close to Ehud. <sup>21</sup>As the king stood up from his throne,* Ehud reached with his left hand and took out the sword that was tied to his right thigh. Then Ehud pushed the sword into the king's belly. <sup>22</sup>The sword went into Eglon's belly so far that even the handle sank in. The king's fat covered the whole sword. So Ehud left the sword in Eglon. <sup>23</sup>Ehud went out of the room and closed and locked the doors behind him.

<sup>24</sup>The servants came back just after Ehud left. The servants found the doors to the room locked. So the servants said, "The king must be relieving himself in his restroom." <sup>25</sup>So the servants waited for a long time. Finally they became worried. They got the key and unlocked the doors. When the servants entered, they saw their king lying on the floor dead.

<sup>26</sup>While the servants were waiting for the king, Ehud had time to escape. Ehud passed by the idols and went toward the place named Seirah. <sup>27</sup>Ehud arrived at the place named Seirah. Then he blew a trumpet there in the hill country of Ephraim. The people of Israel heard the trumpet and went down from the hills, with Ehud leading them. <sup>28</sup>Ehud said to the people of Israel, "Follow me! The Lord has helped us to defeat our enemies, the people of Moab."

So the people of Israel followed Ehud. They followed Ehud down to take control of the places where the Jordan River could easily be crossed. Those places led to the land of Moab. The people of Israel did not allow any one to go across the Jordan River. <sup>29</sup>The people of Israel killed about 10,000 strong and brave men from Moab. Not one Moabite man escaped. <sup>30</sup>So on that day the people of Israel began to rule over the people of Moab. And there was peace in the land for 80 years.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

he was ... throne This section of the text is found in the ancient Greek translation, but it was accidentally left out of the Hebrew text.

Shamgar, the Judge

<sup>1</sup>After Ehud saved the people of Israel, another man saved Israel. That man's name was Shamgar son of Anath.* Shamgar used an oxgoad* to kill 600 Philistine men.

Deborah, the Woman Judge

4 After Ehud died, the people again did the things the Lord said are evil. <sup>2</sup>So the Lord allowed Jabin king of Canaan to defeat the people of Israel. Jabin ruled in a city named Hazor. A man named Sisera was the commander of King Jabin's army. Sisera lived in a town called Harosheth Haggoyim. <sup>3</sup>Sisera had 900 iron chariots, and he was very cruel to the people of Israel for 20 years. So they cried to the Lord for help.

<sup>4</sup>There was a woman prophet named Deborah. She was the wife of a man named Lappidoth. She was judge of Israel at that time. <sup>5</sup>One day, Deborah was sitting under the Palm Tree of Deborah. And the people of Israel came up to her to ask her what to do about Sisera. The Palm Tree of Deborah is between the cities of Ramah and Bethel, in the hill country of Ephraim. <sup>6</sup>Deborah sent a message to a man named Barak. She asked him to come to meet with her. Barak was the son of a man named Abinoam. Barak lived in the city of Kedesh, which is in the area of Naphtali. Deborah said to Barak, "The Lord God of Israel commands you: 'Go and gather 10,000 men from the family groups of Naphtali and Zebulun. Lead those men to Mount Tabor. 'I will make Sisera, the commander of King Jabin's army, come to you. I will make Sisera, his chariots and his army come to the Kishon River.* I will help you to defeat Sisera there.'"

<sup>7</sup>Then Barak said to Deborah, "I will go and do this if you will go with me. But if you will not go with me, then I won't go."

Anath This is the name of the Canaanite goddess of war. Here the name seems to be that of Shamgar's father, but it may be the name of his mother.

oxgoad A sharp stick used to make cattle go the right way.

Kishon River This river flows about ten miles from Mount Tabor.

"Of course I will go with you," Deborah answered. "But because of your attitude, you will not be honored when Sisera is defeated. The Lord will allow a woman to defeat Sisera."

So Deborah went with Barak to the city of Kedesh. <sup>10</sup>At the city of Kedesh, Barak called the family groups of Zebulun and Naphtali together. Barak gathered 10,000 men to follow him from those family groups. Deborah also went with Barak.

<sup>11</sup>Now there was a man named Heber, that was from the Kenite people. Heber had left the other Kenite people. (The Kenite people were descendants* of Hobab. Hobab was Moses' father-in-law.* Heber had made his home by the oak tree in a place named Zaanannim. Zaanannim is near the city of Kedesh.

<sup>12</sup>Someone told Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam was at Mount Tabor. <sup>13</sup>So Sisera got together his 900 iron chariots. Sisera also got together all the men with him. They marched from the city of Harosheth Haggoyim to the Kishon River.

<sup>14</sup>Then Deborah said to Barak, "Today the Lord will help you defeat Sisera. Surely you know that the Lord has already cleared the way for you." So Barak led the 10,000 men down from Mount Tabor. <sup>15</sup>Barak and his men attacked Sisera. During the battle, the Lord confused Sisera and his army and chariots. They did not know what to do. So Barak and his men defeated Sisera's army. But Sisera left his chariot and ran away on foot. <sup>16</sup>Barak continued fighting Sisera's army. Barak and his men chased Sisera's chariots and army all the way to Harosheth Haggoyim. Barak and his men used their swords to kill all of Sisera's men. Not one of Sisera's men was left alive.

<sup>17</sup>But Sisera ran away. He came to the tent where a woman named Jael lived. Jael was the wife of a man named Heber. He was one of the Kenite people. Heber's family was at peace with Jabin king of Hazor. So Sisera ran to Jael's tent. <sup>18</sup>Jael saw Sisera coming, so she went out to meet him. Jael said to Sisera, "Sir,

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

father-in-law Or possibly, "son-in-law."

come into my tent. Come in. Don't be afraid." So Sisera went into Jael's tent, and she covered him with a carpet.

<sup>19</sup>Sisera said to Jael, "I am thirsty. Please give me a little water to drink." Jael had a bottle made from animal skin. She kept milk in that bottle. Jael gave Sisera a drink of that milk. Then she covered Sisera up.

<sup>20</sup>Then Sisera said to Jael, "Go stand at the entrance to the tent. If someone comes by and asks you, 'Is anyone in there?', tell him, 'No.'"

<sup>21</sup>But Jael found a tent peg and a hammer. Jael quietly went to Sisera. Sisera was very tired, so he was sleeping. Jael put the tent peg to the side of Sisera's head and hit it with a hammer. The tent peg went through the side of Sisera's head and into the ground! Sisera died.

<sup>22</sup>Just then Barak came by Jael's tent, looking for Sisera. Jael went out to meet Barak and said, "Come in here, and I will show you the man that you are looking for." So Barak entered the tent with Jael. There Barak found Sisera lying dead on the ground, with the tent peg through the side of his head.

<sup>23</sup>On that day God defeated Jabin king of Canaan for the people of Israel. <sup>24</sup>So the people of Israel became stronger and stronger until they defeated Jabin king of Canaan. The people of Israel finally destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

The Song of Deborah

5 On the day that the people of Israel defeated Sisera, Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang this song:*

The people volunteered to go to battle—
Bless the Lord!

ong This song is very old, and the meaning of many of the lines in this poem is hard for us to understand.

The men of Israel ... battle This might also mean "When leaders led in Israel," or "When men wore long hair in Israel." Soldiers often dedicated their hair as a special gift to God."

Pay attention, rulers!

I will sing,

I myself will sing to the Lord.

I will make music to the Lord, to the God of the people of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> Lord, in the past you came from the land of Seir,* you marched from the land of Edom.*

You marched and the earth shook.

The skies rained.

The clouds dropped water.

<sup>5</sup> The mountains shook before the Lord, the God of Mount Sinai,

before the Lord, the God of Israel!

<sup>6</sup> In the days of Shamgar* son of Anath,* in the days of Jael, the main roads were empty.

Caravans* and travelers went on the back roads.

<sup>7</sup> There were no soldiers.

In Israel, there were no soldiers, until you came, Deborah, until you came to be a mother to Israel.

<sup>8</sup> They chose to follow new gods.

So they had to fight at their city gates.*

No one could find a shield or a spear among the 40,000 soldiers of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> My heart is with the commanders of Israel.

These commanders volunteered to fight for Israel.

Bless the Lord!

<sup>10</sup> You people that ride on white donkeys, you people that sit on saddle blankets,*

Seir Another name for the land of Edom.

Edom This land was south and east of Israel.

Shamgar Shamgar was one of the judges. He is mentioned in Judges 3:31.

Anath This is the name of a goddess of love and war. "Shamgar son of Anath" might be translated "Shamgar, the great soldier" or "Shamgar from the town of Anath."

Caravans Groups of traders. Usually many traders traveled together with their things packed on donkeys or camels.

They chose ... gates These two lines are hard to understand in Hebrew.

saddle blankets We are not sure of the meaning of this Hebrew word.

and you people that travel on the road, pay attention!

11 At the sound of the cymbals,* at the watering holes for the animals—there they tell about the victories of the Lord,
the victories of the Lord's soldiers in Israel,
at the time the Lord's people went to fight at the city gates.

12 Wake up, wake up, Deborah!
Wake up, wake up, sing a song!
Get up, Barak!
Go capture your enemies, son of Abinoam!

13 At that time, the men that had survived came down to the leaders.
The Lord's people came down to me with soldiers.*

country of Amalek.*
Benjamin, those men followed you and your people.
From the family group of Makir,* the commanders came down.
And from the family group of Zebulun, came those men that lead with a Deborah.

The family group of Issachar was true to Barak.
Those men marched into the valley on

The soldiers of Reuben bragged about the walls of the sheep pen*?

The brave soldiers of Reuben thought hard about war, but they stayed home listening to the on the other side of the Jordan River.

As for you, people of Dan,
why did you stay by your ships?
The family group of Asher stayed at the seashore.
They camped at their safe harbors.

18 But the men of Zebulun and the men of Naphtali risked their lives to fight on those hills.

19 The kings came.
They fought.
The kings of Canaan fought at the city of Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo.
But they didn't carry any treasures home!

From their paths, the stars fought with Sisera.

that ancient river, the Kishon River.
My soul, march on with strength!*

22 The horses' hooves hammered the said the angel of the Lord.

"Curse its people, because they did not come to help the That’s it!

Sisera is taking a piece of fancy cloth—or maybe two pieces—for Sisera the Conqueror to wear.”

- <sup>31</sup> May all of your enemies die this way, Lord!
But may all the people that love you be like the bright shining sun!
There was peace in the land for 40 years.

The Midianites Fight Israel

6 Again the people of Israel did things the Lord said were evil. So for seven years the Lord allowed the people of Midian to defeat the people of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>The people of Midian were very powerful and were cruel to the people of Israel. So the people of Israel made many hiding places in the mountains. They hid their food in caves and places that were hard to find. <sup>3</sup>They did that because the Midianite and Amalekite people from the east always came and destroyed their crops. <sup>4</sup>Those people camped in the land and destroyed the crops that the people of Israel had planted. Those people ruined the crops of the people of Israel as far as the land near the city of Gaza. Those people did not leave anything for the people of Israel to eat. They did not even leave them any sheep, or cattle, or donkeys. <sup>5</sup>The people of Midian came up and camped in the land. They brought their families and their animals with them. They were as many as swarms of locusts! There were so many of those people and their camels that it was not possible to count them. All of these people came into the land and ruined it. <sup>6</sup>The people of Israel became very poor because of the people of Midian. So the people of Israel cried to the Lord for help.

<sup>7</sup>The people* of Midian did all those bad things. So the people of Israel cried out to the Lord for help. <sup>8</sup>So the Lord sent a prophet to them. The prophet said to the people of Israel, “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘You were slaves in the land of Egypt. I made you free and brought you out of that land. <sup>9</sup>I saved you from the powerful people of Egypt. Then the people of the land of Canaan hurt you. So I again saved you. I made those people leave their land. And I gave their land to you.’<sup>10</sup>Then I said to you, ‘I am the Lord your God. You will live in the land of the Amorite people, but you must not worship their false gods.’ But you did not obey me.”

The Angel of the Lord Visits Gideon

<sup>11</sup>At that time, the angel of the Lord came to a man named Gideon. The angel of the Lord came and sat down under an oak tree at a place called Ophrah. This oak tree belonged to a man named Joash. Joash was from the Abiezer family. Joash was the father of Gideon. Gideon was beating some wheat* in a winepress.* The angel of the Lord sat down near Gideon. Gideon was hiding so the Midianite could not see the wheat. <sup>12</sup>The angel of the Lord appeared to Gideon and said to him, “The Lord be with you, great soldier!”

<sup>13</sup>Then Gideon said, “I promise sir, if the Lord is with us, then why are we having so many troubles? We heard that he did wonderful things for our ancestors.* Our ancestors told us that the Lord took them out of Egypt. But the Lord left us. The Lord has allowed the people of Midian to defeat us.”

<sup>14</sup>The Lord turned toward Gideon and said, “Use your power. Go save the people of Israel from the people of Midian. I am sending you to save them!”

<sup>15</sup>But Gideon answered and said, “Pardon me, sir. How can I save Israel? My family is the weakest in the family group of Manasseh. And I am the youngest one in my family.”

<sup>16</sup>The Lord answered Gideon and said, “I am with you! So you can defeat the people of Midian! It will seem like you are fighting against only one man.”

beating some wheat This was the way people separated the grains of wheat from the other parts of the plants.

winepress A place for squeezing the juice from grapes. Sometimes this was only a shallow hole in a large rock in the ground.

ancestors Literally, “fathers,” meaning a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

<sup>17</sup>Then Gideon said to the Lord, “If you are pleased with me, give me proof that you really are the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Please wait here. Don’t go away until I come back to you. Let me bring my offering and set it down in front of you.”

And the Lord said, “I will wait until you come back.”

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon went in and cooked a young goat in boiling water. Gideon also took about 20 pounds* of flour and made bread without yeast. Then Gideon put the meat into a basket and the water from the boiled meat into a pot. Gideon brought out the meat, the water from the boiled meat, and the bread without yeast. Gideon gave that food to the Lord under the oak tree.

<sup>20</sup>The angel of God said to Gideon, “Put the meat and the bread without yeast on that rock over there. Then pour the water out.” Gideon did as he was told.

<sup>21</sup>The angel of the Lord had a walking stick in his hand. The angel of the Lord touched the meat and the bread with the end of the stick. Then fire jumped up from the rock! The meat and the bread were completely burned up! Then the angel of the Lord disappeared.

<sup>22</sup>Then Gideon realized that he had been talking to the angel of the Lord. So Gideon shouted, “Lord All-Powerful! I have seen the angel of the Lord face to face!”

<sup>23</sup>But the Lord said to Gideon, “Calm down!* Don’t be afraid! You will not die!”*

<sup>24</sup>So Gideon built an altar* in that place to worship the Lord. Gideon named that altar, “The Lord is Peace.” That altar still stands in the city of Ophrah. Ophrah is where the Abiezer family lives.

Gideon Tears Down the Altar of Baal.

<sup>25</sup>That same night the Lord spoke to Gideon. The Lord said, “Take the full-grown bull that belongs to your father, the one that is seven

20 pounds Literally, “1 ephah.”

Calm down Literally, “Peace.”

You will not die! Gideon thought he would die because he had seen the Lord face to face.

years old. Your father has an altar* to the false god Baal.* There is also a wooden pole beside the altar. That pole was made to honor the false god Asherah.* Use the bull to pull down the Baal altar, and cut down the Asherah pole.<sup>26</sup> Then build the right kind of altar for the Lord your God. Build that altar on this high ground. Then kill and burn the full-grown bull on this altar. Use the wood from the Asherah pole to burn your offering.”

<sup>27</sup>So Gideon got ten of his servants and did what the Lord had told him to do. But Gideon was afraid that his family and the men of the city might see what he was doing. Gideon did what the Lord told him to do. But he did it at night, and not in the daytime.

<sup>28</sup>The men of the city got up the next morning. And they saw that the altar for Baal* had been destroyed! They also saw that the Asherah* pole had been cut down. The Asherah pole had been sitting next to the altar for Baal. Those men also saw the altar that Gideon had built. And they saw the bull that had been sacrificed on that altar.

<sup>29</sup>The men of the city looked at each other and asked, “Who pulled down our altar? Who cut down our Asherah* pole? Who sacrificed this bull on this new altar?” They asked many questions and tried to learn who did those things.

Someone told them, “Gideon son of Joash did this.”

<sup>30</sup>So the men of the city came to Joash. They said to Joash, “You must bring your son out. He pulled down the altar* for Baal.* And he cut down the Asherah* pole that was by that altar. So your son must die.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Joash spoke to the crowd that was standing around him. Joash said, “Are you going to take Baal’s side? Are you going to rescue Baal? If anyone takes Baal’s side, let him be put to death by morning. If Baal really is a god, let him defend himself when someone pulls down his altar.”<sup>32</sup> Joash said, “If Gideon pulled Baal’s altar down, then let Baal argue with him.” So on that day Joash gave Gideon a new name. He called him Jerub-Baal.*

Gideon Defeats the People of Midian

<sup>33</sup>The people of Midian, Amalek, and other people from the east joined together to fight against the people of Israel. Those people went across the Jordan River and camped in Jezreel Valley.<sup>34</sup> The Spirit of the Lord came to Gideon and gave him great power. Gideon blew a trumpet to call the Abiezer family to follow him.<sup>35</sup> Gideon sent messengers to all the people of the family group of Manasseh. Those messengers told the people of Manasseh to get their weapons and prepare for battle. Gideon also sent messengers to the family groups of Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali. The messengers took the same message. So those family groups also went up to meet Gideon and his men.

<sup>36</sup>Then Gideon said to God, “You said that you would help me save the people of Israel. Give me proof!” I will put a sheepskin on the threshing floor.* If there is dew only on the sheepskin, while all of the ground is dry, then I will know that you will use me to save Israel, like you said.”

<sup>37</sup>And that is exactly what happened. Gideon got up early the next morning and squeezed the sheepskin. He was able to drain a bowl full of water from the sheepskin.

<sup>38</sup>Then Gideon said to God, “Don’t be angry with me. Let me ask just one more thing. Let me test you one more time with the sheepskin. This time let the sheepskin be dry, while the ground around it gets wet with dew.”

<sup>39</sup>That night God did that very thing. Just the sheepskin was dry, but the ground around it was wet with dew.

7 Early in the morning Jerub-Baal (Gideon) and all his men set up their camp at the

altar(s) A table or raised area used for offering sacrifices.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.

Jerub-Baal This is like the Hebrew words meaning, “Let Baal argue.” The same verb is translated “take one’s side” and “defend” in verse 31.

threshing floor The place where people beat wheat to separate the grain from the other parts of the plants.

spring of Harod. The people of Midian were camped in the valley at the bottom of the hill called Moreh. This was north of Gideon and his men.

<sup>2</sup>Then the Lord said to Gideon, "I am going to help your men to defeat the people of Midian. But you have too many men for the job. I don't want the people of Israel to forget me and brag that they saved themselves. <sup>3</sup>So now, make an announcement to your men. Tell them, 'Anyone that is afraid may leave Mount Gilead. He may go back home.'"

At that time, 22,000 men left Gideon and went back home. But 10,000 still remained.

<sup>4</sup>Then the Lord said to Gideon, "There are still too many men. Take the men down to the water, and I will test them for you there. If I say, 'This man will go with you,' he will go. But if I say, 'That one will not go with you,' then he will not go."

<sup>5</sup>So Gideon led the men down to the water. At the water the Lord said to Gideon, "Separate the men like this: The men that drink the water by using their tongue to lap it up like a dog will be in one group. And the men that bend down to drink will be in the other group."

<sup>6</sup>There were 300 men that used their hands to bring water to their mouth and lapped it like a dog does. All the other people bent down and drank the water. <sup>7</sup>The Lord said to Gideon, "I will use the 300 men that lapped the water like a dog. I will use those men to save you, and I will allow you to defeat the people of Midian. Let the other men go to their homes."

<sup>8</sup>So Gideon sent the other men of Israel home. Gideon kept the 300 men with him. Those 300 men kept the supplies and the trumpets of the other men that went home.

The people of Midian were camped in the valley below Gideon's camp. <sup>9</sup>During the night the Lord spoke to Gideon. The Lord said to him, "Get up. I will let you defeat the Midianite army. Go down to their camp. <sup>10</sup>If you are afraid to go alone, then take Purah your servant with you. <sup>11</sup>Go into the camp of the people of Midian. Listen to the things those people are saying. After that, you will not be afraid to attack them."

So Gideon and Purah his servant went down to the edge of the enemy camp. <sup>12</sup>The people of Midian, the people of Amalek, and all the other people from the east were camped in that valley. There were so many of those people that they seemed like a swarm of locusts.* It seemed like those people had as many camels as there are grains of sand on the seashore.

<sup>13</sup>Gideon came to the enemy camp, and he heard a man talking. That man was telling his friend about a dream that he had. The man was saying, "I dreamed that a round loaf of bread came rolling into the camp of the people of Midian. That loaf of bread hit the tent so hard that the tent turned over and fell flat."

<sup>14</sup>The man's friend knew the meaning of the dream. That man's friend said, "Your dream can only have one meaning. Your dream is about that man from Israel. It is about Gideon son of Joash. It means that God will let Gideon defeat the whole army of Midian."

<sup>15</sup>After he heard the men talking about the dream and what it meant, Gideon bowed down to God. Then Gideon went back to the camp of the people of Israel. Gideon called out to the people, "Get up! The Lord will help us defeat the people of Midian." <sup>16</sup>Then Gideon divided the 300 men into three groups. Gideon gave each man a trumpet and an empty jar. A burning torch was inside each jar. <sup>17</sup>Then Gideon told the men, "Watch me and do what I do. Follow me to the edge of the enemy camp. When I get to the edge of the camp, do exactly what I do. <sup>18</sup>You men surround the enemy camp. I and all the men with me will blow our trumpets. When we blow our trumpets, you blow your trumpets, too. Then shout these words: 'For the Lord and for Gideon!'"

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon and the 100 men that were with him went to the edge of the enemy camp. They came there just after the enemy changed guards. It was during the middle watch of the night. Gideon and his men blew their trumpets and smashed their jars. <sup>20</sup>Then all three groups of Gideon's men blew their trumpets and smashed their jars. The men held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands. As those men blew their trumpets, they shouted, "A sword for the Lord, and a sword for Gideon!"

<sup>3</sup>Then soldiers from the family groups of Naphtali, Asher, and all of Manasseh were told to chase the people of Midian. <sup>4</sup>Gideon sent messengers through all the hill country of Ephraim. The messengers said, "Come down and attack the people of Midian. Take control of the river as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan River. Do this before the people of Midian get there."

So they called all men from the family group of Ephraim. They took control of the river as far as Beth Barah. <sup>5</sup>The men of Ephraim caught two of the Midianite leaders. These two leaders were named Oreb and Zeeb. The men of Ephraim killed Oreb at a place named the Rock of Oreb. They killed Zeeb at a place named the Winepress of Zeeb. The men of Ephraim continued chasing the people of Midian. But they first cut off the heads of Oreb and Zeeb and took the heads to Gideon. Gideon was at the place where people cross the Jordan River.

8 The men of Ephraim were angry at Gideon. When the men of Ephraim found Gideon, they asked Gideon, "Why did you treat us this way? Why didn't you call us when you went to fight against the people of Midian?"

<sup>1</sup>But Gideon answered the men of Ephraim, "I have not done as well as you men have done. You people of Ephraim have a much better harvest than my family, the Abiezers. At harvest time, you leave more grapes in the field than my family gathers! Isn't that true?" <sup>3</sup>In the same way, you have a better harvest now. God allowed you to capture Oreb and Zeeb, the leaders of Midian! How can I compare my success with what you did?" When the men of Ephraim heard Gideon's answer, they were not as angry as they had been.

Gideon Captures Two Kings of Midian

"Then Gideon and his 300 men came to the Jordan River and went across to the other side. But they were tired and hungry." <sup>5</sup>Gideon said to the men of the city of Succoth, "Give my soldiers something to eat. My soldiers are very tired. We are still chasing Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian."

"But the leaders of the city of Succoth said to Gideon, "Why should we give your soldiers something to eat? You haven't caught Zebah and Zalmunna yet."

<sup>7</sup>Then Gideon said, "You won't give us food. The Lord will help me capture Zebah and Zalmunna. After that, I will come back here. And I will beat your skin with thorns and briers from the desert."

<sup>8</sup>Gideon left the city of Succoth and went to the city of Penuel. Gideon asked the men of Penuel for food, just as he had asked the men of Succoth. But the men of Penuel gave Gideon the same answer that the men of Succoth had given. <sup>9</sup>So Gideon said to the men of Penuel, "After I win the victory, I will come back here and pull this tower down."

<sup>10</sup>Zebah and Zalmunna and their army were in the city of Karkor. Their army had 15,000 soldiers in it. These soldiers were all that were left of the army of the people of the east. 120,000 strong soldiers of that army had already been killed. <sup>11</sup>Gideon and his men used Tent Dwellers' Road. That road is east of the cities of Nobah and Jogbehah. Gideon came to the city of Karkor and attacked the enemy. The enemy army did not expect the attack. <sup>12</sup>Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of the people of Midian, ran away. But Gideon chased and caught those kings. Gideon and his men defeated the enemy army.

hungry Following the Septuagint reading here. The Hebrew text reads, "chasing."

<sup>13</sup>Then Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle. Gideon and his men returned by going through a mountain pass called the Pass of Heres. <sup>14</sup>Gideon captured a young man from the city of Succoth. Gideon asked the young man some questions. The young man wrote down some names for Gideon. The young man wrote down the names of the leaders and elders of the city of Succoth. He gave the names of 77 men.

<sup>15</sup>Then Gideon came to the city of Succoth. He said to the men of that city, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna. You made fun of me by saying, 'Why should we give food to your tired soldiers? You have not caught Zebah and Zalmunna yet.'" <sup>16</sup>Gideon took the elders of the city of Succoth, and he beat them with thorns and briers from the desert to punish them. <sup>17</sup>Gideon also pulled down the tower in the city of Penuel. Then he killed the men that lived in that city.

<sup>18</sup>Then Gideon said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "You killed some men on Mount Tabor. What were those men like?"

Zebah and Zalmunna answered, "Those men were like you. Each one of them seemed like a prince."

<sup>19</sup>Gideon said, "Those men were my brothers! My mother's sons! As the Lord lives, if you had not killed them, then I wouldn't kill you now."

<sup>20</sup>Then Gideon turned to Jether. Jether was Gideon's oldest son. Gideon said to him, "Kill these kings." But Jether was only a boy and was afraid. So he would not take out his sword.

<sup>21</sup>Then Zebah and Zalmunna said to Gideon, "Come on, kill us yourself. You are a man and strong enough to do the job." So Gideon got up and killed Zebah and Zalmunna. Then Gideon took the decorations shaped like the moon off their camels' necks.

Gideon Makes an Ephod

<sup>22</sup>The people of Israel said to Gideon, "You saved us from the people of Midian. So now, rule over us. We want you, your son and your grandson to rule over us."

<sup>23</sup>But Gideon told the people of Israel, "The Lord will be your ruler. I will not rule over you. And my son will not rule over you."

<sup>24</sup>Some of the people that the men of Israel defeated were Ishmaelites. And the Ishmaelite men wore gold earrings. So Gideon said to the people of Israel, "I want you to do this one thing for me. I want each of you to give me a gold earring from the things you took in the fighting."

<sup>25</sup>So the people of Israel said to Gideon, "We will gladly give you what you want." So they put a coat down on the ground. Each man threw an earring onto the coat. <sup>26</sup>When those earrings were gathered up, they weighed about 43 pounds.* This did not include the other gifts the people of Israel gave to Gideon. They also gave him jewelry shaped like the moon and jewelry shaped like teardrops. And they gave him purple robes. These were things that the kings of the people of Midian had worn. They also gave him the chains from the camels of the Midianite kings.

<sup>27</sup>Gideon used the gold to make an ephod.* He put the ephod in his home town, the town called Ophrah. All the people of Israel worshiped the ephod. In this way, the people of Israel were not faithful to God—they worshiped the Ephod.* The ephod became a trap that caused Gideon and his family to sin.

The Death of Gideon

<sup>28</sup>The people of Midian were forced to be under the rule of the people of Israel. The people of Midian did not cause trouble any more. And the land was at peace for 40 years, as long as Gideon was alive.

<sup>29</sup>Jerub-Baal (Gideon) son of Joash went home. <sup>30</sup>Gideon had 70 sons of his own. He had so many sons because he had many wives. <sup>31</sup>Gideon had a concubine* that lived in the city

43 pounds Literally, "1,700 shekels."

ephod We do not know exactly what this was. It may have been a special vest or coat, like the High Priest of Israel wore (see Exodus 28). Or it may have been an idol.

were not faithful ... Ephod Literally, "acted like a prostitute to it."

concubine A slave woman that was like a wife to a man.

of Shechem. He had a son with that concubine. He named that son Abimelech.

<sup>32</sup>So Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age. Gideon was buried in the tomb that Joash, his father, owned. That tomb is in the city of Ophrah, where the Abiezer family lives. <sup>33</sup>As soon as Gideon died, the people of Israel again were not faithful to God—they followed Baal.* They made Baal-Berith* their god. <sup>34</sup>The people of Israel did not remember the Lord their God, even though the Lord had saved them from all their enemies that were living all around the people of Israel. <sup>35</sup>The people of Israel were not loyal to the family of Jerub-Baal (Gideon), even though he had done many good things for them.

Abimelech Becomes King

9 Abimelech was the son of Jerub-Baal (Gideon). Abimelech went to his uncles that lived in the city of Shechem. He said to his uncles and all of his mother's family, "Ask the leaders of the city of Shechem this question: 'Is it better for you to be ruled by the 70 sons of Jerub-Baal, or to be ruled by only one man? Remember, I am your relative.'"

<sup>1</sup>Abimelech's uncles spoke to the leaders of Shechem and asked them that question. The leaders of Shechem decided to follow Abimelech. The leaders said, "After all, he is our brother." <sup>2</sup>So the leaders of Shechem gave Abimelech 70 pieces of silver. That silver was from the temple of the god Baal-Berith.* Abimelech used the silver to hire some men. These men were worthless, reckless men. They followed Abimelech wherever he went.

<sup>3</sup>Abimelech went to his father's house at Ophrah. Abimelech murdered his brothers. Abimelech killed the 70 sons of his father, Jerub-Baal (Gideon). He killed them all at the same time.* But Jerub-Baal's youngest son hid from Abimelech and escaped. The youngest son's name was Jotham.

were not faithful ... Baal Literally, "they acted like a prostitute to Baal."

Baal-Berith The name of this god means "Lord of the Agreement."

all at the same time Literally, "on one stone."

<sup>6</sup>Then all of the leaders in Shechem and the house of Millo* came together. All those people gathered beside the big tree of the pillar in Shechem and made Abimelech their king.

Jotham's Story

<sup>7</sup>Jotham heard that the leaders of the city of Shechem had made Abimelech king. When he heard this, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim.* Jotham shouted out this story to the people, Listen to me you leaders of the city of Shechem. Then let God listen to you.

<sup>8</sup>One day the trees decided to choose a king to rule over them. The trees said to the olive tree, "You be king over us."

<sup>9</sup>But the olive tree said, "Men and gods praise me for my oil. Should I stop making my oil just to go and sway over the other trees?"

<sup>10</sup>Then the trees said to the fig tree, "Come and be our king."

<sup>11</sup>But the fig tree answered, "Should I stop making my good, sweet fruit just to go and sway over the other trees?"

<sup>13</sup>But the vine answered, "My wine makes men and kings happy. Should I stop making my wine just to go and sway over the trees?"

<sup>14</sup>Finally all the trees said to the thornbush, "Come and be our king."

<sup>15</sup>But the thorn bush said to the trees, "If you really want to make me king over you, come and find shelter in my shade. But if you do not want to do this, then let fire come out of the thorn bush. Let the fire burn even the cedar trees of Lebanon."

Millo This was probably a well protected part of the city. It might have been in the city itself, or somewhere near the city.

Mount Gerizim This mountain is right beside the city of Shechem.

<sup>16</sup>Now if you were completely honest when you made Abimelech king, then may you be happy with him. And if you have been fair to Jerub-Baal and his family, fine. And if you have treated Jerub-Baal as you should, fine. <sup>17</sup>But think what my father did for you. My father fought for you. He risked his life when he saved you from the people of Midian. <sup>18</sup>But now you have turned against my father's family. You have killed my father's 70 sons all at the same time.* You made Abimelech king over the city of Shechem. You made him king because he is your relative. But he is only the of son my father's slave girl! <sup>19</sup>So, if you have been completely honest to Jerub-Baal and his family today, then may you be happy with Abimelech as your king. And may he be happy with you people. <sup>20</sup>But if you have not acted right, then may Abimelech destroy you leaders of Shechem and house of Millo.* And may Abimelech be destroyed too!"

<sup>21</sup>After Jotham had said all of this, he ran away. He escaped to the city named Beer. Jotham stayed in that city because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech.

Abimelech Fights Against Shechem

<sup>22</sup>Abimelech ruled the people of Israel for three years. <sup>23-24</sup>Abimelech had killed Jerub-Baal's 70 sons—and they were Abimelech's own brothers! The leaders of Shechem had supported him in doing this bad thing. So God caused trouble between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem. And the leaders of Shechem began planning ways to hurt Abimelech. <sup>25</sup>The leaders of the city of Shechem did not like Abimelech anymore. Those people put men on the hilltops to attack and rob everyone that went by. Abimelech found out about those attacks.

<sup>26</sup>A man named Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers moved to the city of Shechem. The leaders of the city of Shechem decided to trust and follow Gaal.

<sup>27</sup>One day the people of Shechem went out to the fields to pick grapes. The people squeezed the grapes to make wine. And then they had a party at the temple of their god. The people ate and drank and said bad things about Abimelech.

<sup>28</sup>Then Gaal son of Ebed said, "We are the men of Shechem. Why should we obey Abimelech? Who does he think he is? Abimelech is one of Jerub-Baal's sons, right? And Abimelech made Zebul his officer, right? We should not obey Abimelech! We should follow our own people, men from Hamor.* (Hamor was the father of Shechem.) <sup>29</sup>If you make me the commander of these people, then I will destroy Abimelech. I will say to him, 'Get your army ready and come out to battle.'"

<sup>30</sup>Now Zebul was the governor of the city of Shechem. Zebul heard what Gaal son of Ebed said, and Zebul became very angry. <sup>31</sup>Zebul sent messengers to Abimelech in the city of Arumah.* This is the message:

Gaal son of Ebed and Gaal's brothers have come to the city of Shechem. They are making trouble for you. Gaal is turning the whole city against you. <sup>32</sup>So now you and your men should come tonight and hide in the fields outside the city. <sup>33</sup>Then, when the sun comes up in the morning, attack the city. Gaal and his men will come out of the city to fight you. When those men come out to fight, do what you can to them.

<sup>34</sup>So Abimelech and all his soldiers got up during the night and went to the city. Those soldiers separated into four groups. They hid near the city of Shechem. <sup>35</sup>Gaal son of Ebed went out and was standing at the entrance to the gate of the city of Shechem. While Gaal was standing there, Abimelech and his soldiers came out of their hiding places.

men from Hamor This refers to native born citizens of Shechem. Hamor was the father of Shechem in a story in Genesis 34. The city of Shechem is said to have been named after Hamor's son.

in the city of Arumah Or "Tornah," the town where Abimelech lived as king. It was probably about eight miles south of Shechem.

all at the same time Literally, "on one stone."

Millo This was probably a well protected part of the city. It might have been in the city itself, or somewhere near the city.

<sup>36</sup>Gaal saw the soldiers. Gaal said to Zebul, "Look, there are people coming down from the mountains."

But Zebul said, "You are only seeing the shadows of the mountains. The shadows just look like people."

<sup>37</sup>But again Gaal said, "Look, there are some people coming down from that place over there, by Land's Navel. And there! I saw someone's head over by Magician's Tree."<sup>38</sup> Zebul said to Gaal, "Why aren't you bragging now? You said, 'Who is Abimelech? Why should we obey him?' You made fun of these men. Now go out and fight them."

<sup>39</sup>So Gaal led the leaders of Shechem out to fight Abimelech. <sup>40</sup>Abimelech and his men chased Gaal and his men. Gaal's men ran back toward the gate of the city of Shechem. Many of Gaal's men were killed before they could get back to the gate.

<sup>41</sup>Then Abimelech returned to the city of Arumah. Zebul forced Gaal and his brothers to leave the city of Shechem.

<sup>42</sup>The next day the people of Shechem went out to the fields to work. Abimelech found out about that. <sup>43</sup>So Abimelech separated his men into three groups. He wanted to attack the people of Shechem by surprise. So he hid his men in the fields. When he saw the people coming out of the city he jumped up and attacked them. <sup>44</sup>Abimelech and his group ran to a place near the gate to Shechem. The other two groups ran out to the people in the fields and killed them. <sup>45</sup>Abimelech and his men fought against the city of Shechem all that day. Abimelech and his men captured the city of Shechem and killed the people of that city. Then Abimelech tore down the city and threw salt over the ruins.

<sup>46</sup>There were some people that lived at the Tower of Shechem.* When the people of that place heard what had happened to Shechem, they gathered together in the safest room* of the temple of the god El-Berith.*

<sup>47</sup>Abimelech heard that all the leaders of the Tower of Shechem had gathered together. <sup>48</sup>So Abimelech and all his men went up to Mount Zalmon.* Abimelech took an axe and cut off some branches. He carried those branches on his shoulders. Then Abimelech said to the men with him, "Hurry! Do the same thing that I have done." <sup>49</sup>So all those men cut branches and followed Abimelech. They piled the branches against the safest room* of the temple of the god El-Berith.* Then they set the branches on fire and burned the people in the room. So about 1,000 men and women that lived at the Tower of Shechem died.

Abimelech's Death

<sup>50</sup>Then Abimelech and his men went to the city of Thebez. Abimelech and his men captured that city. <sup>51</sup>But inside the city there was a strong tower. All the leaders and other men and women of that city ran to the tower. When the people were inside the tower, they locked the door behind them. Then they climbed up to the roof of the tower. <sup>52</sup>Abimelech and his men came to the tower to attack it. Abimelech went up to the door of the tower. He wanted to burn the tower. <sup>53</sup>But, while Abimelech was standing at the door of the tower, a woman on the roof dropped a grinding stone on his head. The grinding stone crushed Abimelech's skull. <sup>54</sup>Abimelech quickly said to the servant that carried his weapons, "Take out your sword and kill me. I want you to kill me so that people won't say, 'A woman killed Abimelech.'" So the servant stabbed Abimelech with his sword, and Abimelech died. <sup>55</sup>The people of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead. So they all went back home.

safest room We are not sure of the meaning of this Hebrew word.

El-Berith The name of this god means "God of the Agreement."

Mount Zalmon This is probably another name for Mount Ebal, a mountain near Shechem.

Land's Navel ... Magician's Tree Two places in the hills near Shechem.

Tower of Shechem This was probably a place near Shechem, but not actually part of the city.

<sup>6</sup>In that way, God punished Abimelech for all the bad things he did. Abimelech sinned against his own father by killing his 70 brothers. <sup>7</sup>God also punished the men of the city of Shechem for the bad things they did. So the things Jotham said came true. (Jotham was Jerub-Baal's youngest son. Jerub-Baal was Gideon.)

Tola the Judge

10 After Abimelech died, God sent another judge to save the people of Israel. That man's name was Tola. Tola was the son of a man named Puah. Puah was the son of a man named Dodo. Tola was from the family group of Issachar. Tola lived in the city of Shamir. The city of Shamir was in the hill country of Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>Tola was a judge for the people of Israel for 23 years. Then Tola died and was buried in the city of Shamir.

Jair the Judge

<sup>3</sup>After Tola died, another judge was sent by God. That man's name was Jair. Jair lived in the area of Gilead. Jair was a judge for the people of Israel for 22 years. <sup>4</sup>Jair had 30 sons. Those 30 sons rode 30 donkeys.* Those 30 sons controlled 30 towns in the area of Gilead. Those towns are called the Towns of Jair to this very day. <sup>5</sup>Jair died and was buried in the city of Kamon.

The Ammonites Fight Against Israel

<sup>6</sup>Again the people of Israel did things the Lord said are evil. They began worshiping the false gods Baal* and the Astarte.* They also worshiped the gods of the people of Aram, the gods of the people of Sidon, the gods of the people of Moab, the gods of the people of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistine people. The people of Israel left the Lord and stopped serving him.

<sup>7</sup>So the Lord became angry with the people of Israel. The Lord allowed the Philistine people and the Ammonite people to defeat them. <sup>8</sup>In that same year those people destroyed the people of Israel that lived on the east side of the Jordan River, in the area of Gilead. That is the land where the Amorite people had lived. Those people of Israel suffered for 18 years. <sup>9</sup>The Ammonite people then went across the Jordan River. They went to fight against the people of Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim. The Ammonite people brought many troubles to the people of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>So the people of Israel cried to the Lord for help. They said, "God, we have sinned against you. We left our God and worshiped the false god Baal.*"

<sup>11</sup>The Lord answered the people of Israel, "You cried to me when the people of Egypt, the Amorite people, the Ammonite people, and the Philistine people hurt you. I saved you from these people. <sup>12</sup>You cried to me when the people of Sidon, the Amalekite people, and the Midianite* hurt you. I also saved you from those people. <sup>13</sup>But you have left me. You have worshiped other gods. So I refuse to save you again. <sup>14</sup>You like worshiping those gods. So go call to them for help. Let those gods save you when you are in trouble."

<sup>15</sup>But the people of Israel said to the Lord, "We have sinned. Do whatever you want to do to us. But please save us today." <sup>16</sup>Then the people of Israel threw away the foreign gods. They started worshiping the Lord again. So the Lord felt sorry for them when he saw them suffering.

Jephthah is Chosen as a Leader

<sup>7</sup>The Ammonite people gathered together for war. Their camp was in the area of Gilead. The people of Israel gathered together. Their

30 sons rode 30 donkeys This showed these men were important leaders, possibly the mayors of the 30 towns in Gilead.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Astarte The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love.

Midianite This is the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has, "The Maonite people."

camp was at the city of Mizpah. <sup>18</sup>The leaders of the people that live in the area of Gilead said, "Who will lead us to attack the people of Ammon? That man will become the head of all the people that live in the area of Gilead."

11 Jephthah was from the family group of Gilead. He was a strong soldier. But Jephthah was the son of a prostitute. His father was a man named Gilead. <sup>2</sup>Gilead's wife had several sons. When those sons grew up, they did not like Jephthah. Those sons forced Jephthah to leave his home town. They said to him, "You will not get any of our father's property. You are the son of another woman." <sup>3</sup>So Jephthah went away because of his brothers. He lived in the land of Tob. In the land of Tob, some rough men began to follow Jephthah.

<sup>4</sup>After a time the Ammonite people fought with the people of Israel. <sup>5</sup>The Ammonite people were fighting against Israel, so the elders (leaders) in Gilead went to Jephthah. They wanted Jephthah to leave the land of Tob and come back to Gilead.

<sup>6</sup>The elders said to Jephthah, "Come and be our leader so that we can fight the Ammonite people."

<sup>7</sup>But Jephthah said to the elders (leaders) of the land of Gilead, "You forced me to leave my father's house. You hate me! So why are you coming to me now that you are having trouble?"

<sup>8</sup>The elders (leaders) from Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is the reason that we have come to you now. Please come with us and fight against the Ammonite people. You will be the commander over all the people living in Gilead."

<sup>9</sup>Then Jephthah said to the elders (leaders) from Gilead, "If you want me to come back to Gilead and fight the Ammonite people, fine. But if the Lord helps me win, then I will be your new leader."

<sup>10</sup>The elders (leaders) from Gilead said to Jephthah, "The Lord is listening to everything we are saying. And we promise to do all that you tell us to do."

<sup>11</sup>So Jephthah went with the elders (leaders) from Gilead. Those people made Jephthah their leader and their commander. Jephthah repeated all of his words in front of the Lord at the city of Mizpah.

Jephthah Sends Messengers to the Ammonite King

<sup>12</sup>Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonite people. The messengers gave the king this message: "What is the problem between the Ammonite people and the people of Israel? Why have you come to fight in our land?"

<sup>13</sup>The king of the Ammonite people said to the messengers of Jephthah, "We are fighting Israel because the people of Israel took our land when they came up from Egypt. They took our land from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River to the Jordan River. Now tell the people of Israel to give our land back to us in peace."

<sup>14</sup>So the messengers of Jephthah took this message back to Jephthah.* Then Jephthah sent the messengers to the king of the Ammonite people again. <sup>15</sup>They took this message:

This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take the land of the people of Moab or the land of the people of Ammon.

<sup>16</sup>When the people of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, the people of Israel went into the desert. The people of Israel went to the Red Sea. Then they went to Kadesh. <sup>17</sup>The people of Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom. The messengers asked for a favor. They said, "Let the people of Israel cross through your land." But the king of Edom didn't let us go through their land. We also sent the same message to the king of Moab. But the king of Moab would not let us go through his land either. So the people of Israel stayed at Kadesh.

So the messengers ... Jephthah This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew text does not have this sentence.

<sup>18</sup>Then the people of Israel went through the desert and around the edges of the land of Edom and the land of Moab. The people of Israel traveled east of the land of Moab. They made their camp on the other side of the Arnon River. They did not cross the border of the land of Moab. (The Arnon River was the border of the land of Moab.)

<sup>19</sup>Then the people of Israel sent messengers to Sihon the king of the Amorite people. Sihon was the king of the city of Heshbon. The messengers asked Sihon, 'Let the people of Israel pass through your land. We want to go to our land.' <sup>20</sup>But Sihon, the king of the Amorite people would not let the people of Israel cross his borders. Sihon gathered all of his people and made a camp at Jahaz. Then the Amorite people fought with the people of Israel. <sup>21</sup>But the Lord, the God of Israel, helped the people of Israel to defeat Sihon and his army. So the land of the Amorite people became the property of the people of Israel. <sup>22</sup>So the people of Israel got all of the land of the Amorite people. That land went from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River. That land also went from the desert to the Jordan River.

<sup>23</sup>It was the Lord, the God of Israel, who forced the Amorite people to leave their land. And the Lord gave the land to the people of Israel. Do you think you can make the people of Israel leave this land? <sup>24</sup>Surely you can live in the land which Chemosh* your god has given to you. So we will live in the land that the Lord our God has given to us! <sup>25</sup>Are you any better than Balak son of Zippor?* He was the king of the land of Moab. Did he argue with the people of Israel? Did he actually fight with the people of Israel? <sup>26</sup>The people of Israel have lived in the city of Heshbon and the towns around it for 300 years. The people of Israel have lived in the city of Aroer and the towns around it for 300 years. The people of Israel have lived in all of the cities along the side of the Arnon River for 300 years. Why have you not tried to take these cities in all that time? <sup>27</sup>The people of Israel have not sinned against you. But you are doing a very bad thing against the people of Israel. May the Lord, the true Judge, decide whether the people of Israel are right or the Ammonite people!"

Jephthah's Promise

<sup>29</sup>Then the Spirit of the Lord came on Jephthah. Jephthah passed through the area of Gilead and Manasseh. He went to the city of Mizpah in Gilead. From the city of Mizpah in Gilead, Jephthah passed through to the land of the Ammonite people.

<sup>30</sup>Jephthah made a promise to the Lord. He said, "If you will let me defeat the Ammonite people, <sup>31</sup>I will give you the first thing that comes out of my house when I come back from the victory. I will give it to the Lord as a burnt offering."

<sup>32</sup>Then Jephthah went to the land of the Ammonite people. Jephthah fought the Ammonite people. The Lord helped him defeat them. <sup>33</sup>He defeated them from the city of Aroer to the city of Minnith. Jephthah captured 20 cities. Then he fought the Ammonite people to the city of Abel Keramim. The people of Israel defeated the Ammonite people. It was a very great defeat for the Ammonite people.

<sup>34</sup>Jephthah went back to Mizpah. Jephthah went to his house and his daughter came out of the house to meet him. She was playing a tambourine and dancing. She was his only daughter. Jephthah loved her very much. Jephthah did not have any other sons or daughters. <sup>35</sup>When Jephthah saw that his daughter was the first thing to come out of his house, he tore his clothes to show his sadness. Then he said, "Oh, my daughter! You have ruined me! You have made me very, very sad! I made a promise to the Lord, and I cannot change it!"

Chemosh The national god of the land of Moab, even though Milcom was the god of the Ammonite people.

Balak son of Zippor See the story of Balak in Numbers 22-24.

<sup>2</sup>Then his daughter said to Jephthah, "Father, you have made a promise to the Lord. So keep your promise. Do what you said you would do. After all, the Lord did help you defeat your enemies, the Ammonite people."

<sup>3</sup>Then Jephthah's daughter said to her father, "But do this one thing for me first. Let me be alone for two months. Let me go to the mountains. I will not marry and have children, so let me and my friends go and cry together."

<sup>4</sup>Jephthah said, "Go and do that." Jephthah sent her away for two months. Jephthah's daughter and her friends stayed in the mountains. They cried for her because she would not marry and have children.

<sup>5</sup>At the end of two months, Jephthah's daughter returned to her father. Jephthah did what he promised to the Lord. Jephthah's daughter never had sexual relations with anyone. So this became a custom in Israel. <sup>6</sup>Every year the women of Israel remembered the daughter of Jephthah from Gilead. The women of Israel cried four days every year for Jephthah's daughter.

Jephthah and Ephraim

12 The men from the family group of Ephraim called all their soldiers together. Then they went across the river to the city of Zaphon. They said to Jephthah, "Why didn't you call us to help you fight the Ammonite people? We will burn your house down with you in it."

<sup>1</sup>Jephthah answered them, "The Ammonite people have been giving us many problems. So I and my people fought against them. I called you, but you didn't come to help us. <sup>2</sup>I saw that you would not help us. So I risked my own life. I went across the river to fight against the Ammonite people. The Lord helped me to defeat them. Now why have you come to fight against me today?"

<sup>3</sup>Then Jephthah called the men of Gilead together. They fought against the men from the family group of Ephraim. They fought against the men of Ephraim because those men had insulted the men of Gilead. They had said, "You men of Gilead are nothing but survivors of the men of Ephraim. You don't even have your own land! Part of you belong to Ephraim, and part of you belong to Manasseh." The men of Gilead defeated the men of Ephraim.

<sup>4</sup>The men of Gilead captured the places where people cross the Jordan River. Those places led to the country of Ephraim. Any time a survivor from Ephraim came to the river and said, "Let me cross," the men of Gilead would ask him, "Are you from Ephraim?" If he said, "No," they would say, "Say the word 'Shibboleth.'" The men of Ephraim could not say that word correctly. They pronounced the word "Sibboleth." So if the person said, "Sibboleth," then the men of Gilead knew he was from Ephraim. So they would kill him at the crossing place. They killed 42,000 men from Ephraim.

<sup>5</sup>Jephthah was a judge for the people of Israel for six years. Then Jephthah from Gilead died. They buried him in his town in Gilead.

Ibzan, the Judge

<sup>1</sup>After Jephthah, a man named Ibzan was a judge for the people of Israel. Ibzan was from the city of Bethlehem. <sup>2</sup>Ibzan had 30 sons and 30 daughters. He told his 30 daughters to marry men that were not his relatives. And he found 30 women that were not his relatives, and his sons married these women. Ibzan was a judge for the people of Israel for seven years. <sup>3</sup>Then Ibzan died. He was buried in the city of Bethlehem.

Elon, the Judge

<sup>1</sup>After Ibzan, a man named Elon was a judge for the people of Israel. Elon was from the family group of Zebulun. He was a judge for the people of Israel for ten years. <sup>2</sup>Then Elon from the family group of Zebulun died. He was buried in the city of Aijalon, Zebulun.

Abdon, the Judge

<sup>13</sup>After Elon died, a man named Abdon son of Hillel was a judge for the people of Israel. Abdon was from the city of Pirathon. <sup>14</sup>Abdon had 40 sons and 30 grandsons. They rode on 70 donkeys.* Abdon was a judge for the people of Israel for eight years. <sup>15</sup>Then Abdon son of Hillel died. He was buried in the city of Pirathon. Pirathon is in the land of Ephraim. This is in the hill country where the Amalekite people lived.

The Birth of Samson

13 Again the Lord saw the people of Israel doing evil things. So the Lord allowed the Philistine people to rule over them for 40 years.

<sup>2</sup>There was a man from the city of Zorah. The man's name was Manoah. He was from the family group of Dan. Manoah had a wife. But she was not able to have any children. <sup>3</sup>The angel of the Lord appeared to Manoah's wife. He said, "You have not been able to have children. But you will become pregnant and have a son. <sup>4</sup>Don't drink any wine or any other strong drink. Don't eat any food that is unclean.* <sup>5</sup>Why? Because you are pregnant, and you will have a son. He will be dedicated to God in a special way: He will be a Nazirite.* So you must never cut his hair. He will be God's special person from before he is born. He will save the people of Israel from the power of the Philistine people."

<sup>6</sup>Then the woman went to her husband and told him what had happened. She said, "A man from God came to me. He looked like an angel from God. He made me afraid. I didn't ask him where he was from. He didn't tell me his name. <sup>7</sup>But he said to me, 'You are pregnant and will have a son. Don't drink any wine or other strong drink. Don't eat any food that is unclean.* Why? Because the boy will be dedicated to God in a special way. The boy will be God's special person from before he is born until the day he dies.'"

<sup>8</sup>Then Manoah prayed to the Lord. He said, "Lord, I beg you to send the man of God to us again. We want him to teach us what we should do for the boy that will soon be born."

<sup>9</sup>God heard Manoah's prayer. The angel of God came to the woman again. She was sitting in a field and her husband Manoah was not with her. <sup>10</sup>So the woman ran to tell her husband, "The man is back! The man that came to me the other day is here!"

<sup>11</sup>Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he said, "Are you the same man that spoke to my wife before?"

The angel said, "I am."

<sup>12</sup>So Manoah said, "I hope that what you say will happen. Tell me what kind of life will the boy live? What will he do?"

<sup>13</sup>The angel of the Lord said to Manoah, "Your wife must do everything I told her. <sup>14</sup>She must not eat anything that grows on a grapevine. She must not drink any wine or strong drink. She must not eat any food that is unclean.* She must do everything that I have commanded her to do."

<sup>15</sup>Then Manoah said to the angel of the Lord, "We would like for you to stay a while. We want to cook a young goat for you to eat."

<sup>16</sup>The angel of the Lord said to Manoah, "Even if you keep me from leaving, I will not eat your food. But if you want to prepare something, then offer a burnt offering to the Lord." (Manoah did not understand that the man was really the angel of the Lord.)

<sup>17</sup>Then Manoah asked the angel of the Lord, "What is your name? We want to know so that we can honor you when what you have said really happens."

<sup>18</sup>The angel of the Lord said, "Why do you ask my name? It is too amazing [for you to believe].*"

They rode on 70 donkeys This showed they were important leaders, possibly mayors of their towns.

unclean Or, "unacceptable." Not pure or not able to be used in worshipping God. See Leviticus 11-15 for the Old Testament rules about clean and unclean things.

Nazirite A person that made a special promise to God. See Numbers 6:1-21 for the rules about the Nazirite promise.

It is too amazing ... to believe Or, "It is Pelei." This means "amazing," "wonderful." This is like the name, "Wonderful Counselor" in Isaiah 9:6.

<sup>19</sup>Then Manoah sacrificed a young goat on a rock. He offered the goat and a grain offering as a gift to the Lord and to the Person Who Does Amazing Things.* <sup>20</sup>Manoah and his wife were watching what happened. As the flames went up to the sky from the altar,* the angel of the Lord went up to heaven in the fire!

When Manoah and his wife saw that, they bowed down with their faces to the ground. <sup>21</sup>Manoah finally understood that the man was really the angel of the Lord. The angel of the Lord did not appear to Manoah again. <sup>22</sup>Manoah said to his wife, "We have seen God! Surely we will die because of this!"

<sup>23</sup>But his wife said to him, "The Lord does not want to kill us. If the Lord wanted to kill us, he would not have accepted our burnt offering and grain offering. He would not have shown us all these things. And he would not have told us these things."

<sup>24</sup>So the woman had a boy. She named him Samson. Samson grew and the Lord blessed him. <sup>25</sup>The Spirit of the Lord began to work in Samson while he was in the city of Mahaneh Dan. That city is between the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol.

Samson's Marriage

14 Samson went down to the city of Timnah. He saw a young Philistine woman there. <sup>2</sup>When he got back home he said to his father and mother, "I saw a Philistine woman in Timnah. I want you to get her for me. I want to marry her."

<sup>3</sup>His father and his mother answered, "But surely there is a woman from the people of Israel that you can marry. Do you have to marry a woman from the Philistine people? Those people are not even circumcised."*

Lord ... Things Or, "The Lord Who Does Amazing Things." Both of these are names for God, but Manoah didn't know the man was really the Angel of the Lord.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.

circumcise(d) Cutting the foreskin from a man. In Israel this was proof that a man had made a special agreement to obey God's laws and teachings.

But Samson said, "Get that woman for me! She is the one I want!" (Samson's parents did not know that the Lord wanted this to happen. The Lord was looking for a way to do something against the Philistine people. The Philistine people were ruling over the people of Israel at that time.)

<sup>5</sup>Samson went down with his father and mother to the city of Timnah. They went as far as the grape fields near that city. At that place, a young lion suddenly roared and jumped at Samson! <sup>6</sup>The Spirit of the Lord came on Samson with great power. He tore the lion apart with his bare hands. It seemed easy to him. It was as easy as tearing apart a young goat. But Samson did not tell his father or mother what he had done.

<sup>7</sup>So Samson went down to the city and talked to the Philistine woman. She pleased him. <sup>8</sup>Several days later, Samson came back to marry the Philistine woman. On his way, he went over to look at the dead lion. He found a swarm of bees in the dead lion's body. They had made some honey. <sup>9</sup>Samson got some of the honey with his hands. He walked along eating the honey. When he came to his parents, he gave them some of the honey. They ate it too. But Samson did not tell his parents that he had taken the honey from the body of the dead lion.

<sup>10</sup>Samson's father went down to see the Philistine woman. The custom was for the bridegroom to give a party. So Samson gave a party. <sup>11</sup>When the Philistine people saw that he was having a party, they sent 30 men to be with him.

<sup>12</sup>Then Samson said to the 30 men, "I want to tell you a story. This party will last for seven days. Try to find the answer during that time. If you can answer the riddle in that time, I will give you 30 linen shirts and 30 changes of clothes. <sup>13</sup>But if you can't find the answer, then you must give me 30 linen shirts and 30 changes of clothes." So the 30 men said, "Tell us your riddle, we want to hear it."

Out of the eater came something to eat.

Out of the strong one came something sweet.

The 30 men tried for three days to find the answer, but they couldn't.

<sup>15</sup>On the fourth day,* the men came to Samson's wife. They said, "Did you invite us here just to make us poor? You must trick your husband into telling us the answer to the riddle. If you don't get the answer for us, we will burn you and all the people in your father's house to death."

<sup>16</sup>So Samson's wife went to him and began crying. She said, "You just hate me! You don't really love me! You told my people a riddle, and you won't tell me the answer."

<sup>17</sup>Samson's wife cried for the rest of the seven days of the party. So he finally gave her the answer to the riddle on the seventh day. He told her because she kept bothering him. Then she went to her people and told them the answer to the riddle.

<sup>18</sup>So before the sun went down on the seventh day of the party, the Philistine men had the answer. They came to Samson and said,

"What is sweeter than honey?
What is stronger than a lion?"

Then Samson said to them,

"If you had not plowed with my cow, you would not have solved my riddle!"

<sup>19</sup>Samson was very angry. The Spirit of the Lord came on Samson with great power. He went down to the city of Ashkelon. In that city he killed 30 Philistine men. Then he took all of the clothes and property from the dead bodies. He brought those clothes back and gave them to the men that had answered his riddle. Then he went to his father's house. <sup>20</sup>Samson did not take his wife. The best man at the wedding kept her.

Samson Makes Trouble for the Philistine People

15 At the time of the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife. He took a young goat with him as a gift. He said, "I am going to my wife's room."

But her father would not let Samson go in. <sup>1</sup>Her father said to Samson, "I thought you hated her. So I let her marry the best man at the wedding. Her younger sister is more beautiful. Take her younger sister."

<sup>2</sup>But Samson said to him, "Now I have a good reason to hurt you Philistine people. No one will blame me now."

<sup>3</sup>So Samson went out and caught 300 foxes. He took two foxes at a time and tied their tails together to make pairs. Then he tied a torch between the tails of each pair of foxes. <sup>4</sup>Samson lit the torches that were between the foxes' tails. Then he let the foxes run through the grain fields of the Philistine people. In this way, he burned up the plants growing in their fields and the stacks of grain they had cut. He also burned up their fields of grapes and their olive trees.

Someone told them, "Samson, the son-in-law of the man from Timnah, did this. He did this because his father-in-law gave Samson's wife to the best man at his wedding." So the Philistine people burned Samson's wife and her father to death.

<sup>6</sup>Then Samson said to the Philistine people, "You did this bad thing to me. So now I will do bad things to you. Then I will be finished with you!"

<sup>7</sup>Then Samson attacked the Philistine people. He killed many of them. Then he went and stayed in a cave. The cave was in a place named the Rock of Etam.

<sup>8</sup>Then the Philistine people went to the land of Judah. They stopped near a place named Lehi. Their army camped there and prepared for war. <sup>9</sup>The men of the family group of Judah asked them, "Why have you Philistine people come here to fight us?"

fourth day This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has, "seventh day."

They answered, “We have come to get Samson. We want to make him our prisoner. We want to punish him for the things he did to our people.”

<sup>11</sup>Then 3000 men from the family group of Judah went to Samson. They went to the cave near the Rock of Etam. They said to him, “What have you done to us? Don’t you know that the Philistine people rule over us?”

Samson answered, “I only punished them for the things they did to me.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they said to Samson, “We have come to tie you up. We will give you to the Philistine people.”

Samson said to the men from Judah, “Promise me that you yourselves will not hurt me.”

<sup>13</sup>The men from Judah said, “We agree. We will just tie you up and give you to the Philistine people. We promise that we will not kill you.” So they tied Samson with two new ropes. They led him up from the cave in the rock.

<sup>14</sup>When Samson came to the place called Lehi, the Philistine people came to meet him. They were shouting from joy. Then the Spirit of the Lord came on Samson with great power. Samson broke the ropes. The ropes seemed weak like burnt strings. The ropes fell off his arms as if they had melted. <sup>15</sup>Samson found a jawbone of a donkey that had died. He took the jawbone and killed 1,000 Philistine men with it.

<sup>16</sup>Then Samson said,

With a donkey’s jawbone

I killed 1,000 men!

With a donkey’s jawbone

I piled* them into a tall pile.

<sup>17</sup>When Samson finished speaking, he threw the jawbone down. So that place was named Ramath Lehi.*

<sup>18</sup>Samson was very thirsty. So he cried out to the Lord. He said, “I am your servant. You gave me this great victory. Please don’t let me die from thirst now? Please don’t let me be captured by men that are not even circumcised?”

<sup>19</sup>There is a hole in the ground at Lehi. God made that hole crack open, and water came out. Samson drank that water and felt better. He felt strong again. So he named that water spring En Hakkore.* It is still there in the city of Lehi today.

<sup>20</sup>So Samson was a judge for the people of Israel for 20 years. That was during the time of the Philistine people.

Samson Goes to the City of Gaza

16 One day Samson went to the city of Gaza. He saw a prostitute there. He went in to stay the night with her. <sup>2</sup>Someone told the people of Gaza, “Samson has come here.” They wanted to kill him. So they surrounded that place. They hid and waited for Samson. They stayed near the city gate all night. They were very quiet all that night. They said to each another, “When morning comes, we will kill Samson.”

<sup>3</sup>But Samson only stayed with the prostitute until midnight. Samson got up at midnight. Samson grabbed the doors of the city gate. Samson pulled the doors loose from the wall. Samson took the doors, the two posts, and the bars that lock the door shut. Samson put those things on his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill near the city of Hebron.

Samson and Delilah

<sup>4</sup>Later, Samson fell in love with a woman named Delilah. She was from Sorek Valley.

<sup>5</sup>The rulers of the Philistine people went to Delilah. They said, “We want to know what makes Samson so strong. Try to trick him into telling you his secret. Then we will know how to capture him and tie him up. Then we will be able to control him. If you do this, each one of us will give you 28 pounds* of silver.”

<sup>6</sup>So Delilah said to Samson, “Tell me why you are so strong. How could someone tie you up and make you helpless?”

piled In Hebrew, the word “pile” is like the word, “donkey.”
Ramath Lehi This name means “Jawbone Heights.”

En Hakkore This means “The spring of the one that calls.”
28 pounds Literally, “1,100_shekels.”

<sup>7</sup>Samson answered, "Someone would have to tie me up with seven new bowstrings that have not been dried yet. If someone did that, I would be weak like any other man."

<sup>8</sup>Then the rulers of the Philistine people brought seven new bowstrings to Delilah. Those bowstrings had not been dried. Delilah tied up Samson with the bowstrings. <sup>9</sup>Some men were hiding in the next room. Delilah said to Samson, "Samson, the Philistine men are going to capture you!" But Samson easily broke the bowstrings. They broke like ashes from a piece of string burned in a lamp. So the Philistine people did not find out the secret of Samson's strength.

<sup>10</sup>Then Delilah said to Samson, "You lied to me! You made me look foolish. Please tell me the truth, how could someone tie you up?"

<sup>11</sup>Samson said, "Someone would have to tie me up with new ropes. They would have to tie me with ropes that have not been used before. If someone did that, I would become as weak as any other man."

<sup>12</sup>So Delilah took some new ropes and tied up Samson. Some men were hiding in the next room. Then Delilah called out to him, "Samson, the Philistine men are going to capture you!" But he broke the ropes easily. He broke them like they were threads.

<sup>13</sup>Then Delilah said to Samson, "You lied to me again! You made me look foolish. Now, tell me how someone could tie you up."

Samson said, "If you use the loom* to weave the seven braids* of hair on my head and tighten it with a pin, I will become as weak as any other man.

Later, Samson went to sleep. So Delilah used the loom to weave the seven braids of hair on his head.* <sup>14</sup>Then Delilah fastened the loom to the ground, with a tent peg. Again she called out to him, "Samson, the Philistine men are going to capture you!" Samson pulled up the tent peg, the loom,* and the shuttle!*

loom A machine for making cloth from thread.

braids Hair that has been twisted together like a rope.

So Delilah ... head This is found in the ancient Greek translation. It is not in the Hebrew text.

shuttle The tool used to pull the threads back and forth on a loom to make cloth.

<sup>15</sup>Then Delilah said to Samson, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when you don't even trust me? You refuse to tell me your secret. This is the third time you made me look foolish. You haven't told me the secret of your great strength." <sup>16</sup>She kept bothering Samson day after day. He got so tired of her asking him about his secret that he felt like he was going to die. <sup>17</sup>Finally, Samson told Delilah everything. He said, "I have never had my hair cut. I was dedicated to God before I was born. If someone shaved my head, then I would lose my strength. I would become as weak as any other man."

<sup>18</sup>Delilah saw that Samson had told her his secret. She sent a message to the rulers of the Philistine people. She said, "Come back again. Samson has told me everything." So the rulers of the Philistine people came back to Delilah. They brought the money that they had promised to give her.

<sup>19</sup>Delilah got Samson to go to sleep while he was lying in her lap. Then she called in a man to shave off the seven braids* of Samson's hair. In this way she made Samson weak. Samson's strength left him. <sup>20</sup>Then Delilah called out to him, "Samson, the Philistine men are going to capture you!" He woke up and thought, "I will escape like I did before and free myself." But Samson did not know that the Lord had left him.

<sup>21</sup>The Philistine men captured Samson. They tore out his eyes, and took him down to the city of Gaza. Then they put chains on him to keep him from running away. They put Samson in prison and made him work grinding grain. <sup>22</sup>But Samson's hair began to grow again.

<sup>23</sup>The rulers of the Philistine people came together to celebrate. They were going to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon.* They said, "Our god helped us defeat Samson our enemy." <sup>24</sup>When the Philistine people saw Samson, they praised their god. They said,

"This man destroyed our people!

Dagon The Canaanite people worshiped this false god hoping he would give them a good harvest of grain. This was probably the most important god for the Philistine people.

This man killed many of our people!
But our god helped us take our enemy!"

<sup>25</sup>The people were having a good time at the celebration. So they said, "Bring Samson out. We want him to make fun of him." So they brought Samson from the prison and made fun of him. They made Samson stand between the columns in the temple of the god Dagon. <sup>26</sup>A servant was holding Samson's hand. Samson said to him, "Put me where I can feel the columns that hold this temple up. I want to lean against them."

<sup>27</sup>The temple was crowded with men and women. All the rulers of the Philistine people were there. There were about 3,000 men and women on the roof* of the temple. They were laughing and making fun of Samson. <sup>28</sup>Then Samson said a prayer to the Lord. He said, "Lord All-Powerful, remember me. God, please give me strength one more time. Let me do this one thing to punish these Philistines for tearing out my two eyes!" <sup>29</sup>Then Samson held the two columns in the center of the temple. These two columns supported the whole temple. He braced himself between the two columns. One column was at his right side and the other at his left side. <sup>30</sup>Samson said, "Let me die with these Philistines!" Then he pushed as hard as he could. And the temple fell on the rulers and all the people in it. In this way, Samson killed many more Philistine people when he died than when he was alive.

<sup>31</sup>Samson's brothers and all the people in his father's family went down to get his body. They brought him back and buried him in his father's tomb. That tomb is between the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. Samson was a judge for the people of Israel for 20 years.

Micah's Idols

17 There was a man named Micah that lived in the hill country of Ephraim. <sup>1</sup>Micah said to his mother, "Do you remember that someone stole 28 pounds* of silver from you. I heard you say a curse about that. Well, I have the silver. I took it."

His mother said, "The Lord bless you, my son."

<sup>2</sup>Micah gave the 28 pounds* of silver back to his mother. Then she said, "I will give this silver as a special gift to the Lord. I will give it to my son so he can make a statue and cover it with the silver. So now, son, I give the silver back to you."

<sup>3</sup>But Micah gave the silver back to his mother. So she took about 5 pounds* of the silver and gave them to a silversmith.* The silversmith used the silver to make a statue covered with silver. The statue was put in Micah's house. <sup>4</sup>Micah had a temple for worshiping idols. He made an ephod* and some house idols. Then Micah chose one of his sons to be his priest. (<sup>5</sup>At that time, the people of Israel did not have a king. So each person did what he himself thought was right.)

<sup>6</sup>There was a young man that was a Levite.* He was from the city of Bethlehem, Judah. He had been living among the family group of Judah. <sup>7</sup>That young man left Bethlehem, Judah. He was looking for another place to live. As he was traveling, he came to Micah's house. Micah's house was in the hill country of the land of Ephraim. <sup>8</sup>Micah asked him, "Where have you come from?"

The young man answered, "I am a Levite* from the city of Bethlehem, Judah. I am looking for a place to live."

<sup>9</sup>Then Micah said to him, "Live with me. Be my father and my priest. I will give you 4 ounces* of silver each year. I will also give you clothes and food."

28 pounds Literally, "1,100<sub>1</sub>shekels<sub>1</sub>."

5 pounds Literally, "200<sub>1</sub>shekels<sub>1</sub>."

silversmith A person that makes things from silver.

ephod We do not know exactly what this was. It may have been a special vest or coat, like the High Priest of Israel wore (see Exodus 28). Or it may have been an idol.

Levite A person from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

4 ounces Literally, "10<sub>1</sub>shekels<sub>1</sub>."

roof In ancient Israel, a roof was often flat and used like another room.

The Levite* did what Micah asked. "The young Levite agreed to live with Micah. The young man became like one of Micah's own sons. "Micah chose him to be his priest. So the young man became a priest and lived in Micah's house. "And Micah said, "Now I know that the Lord will be good to me. I know this because I have a man from the family group of Levi to be my priest."

The Family Group of Dan Captures the City of Laish

18 At that time, the people of Israel did not have a king. And at that time, the family group of Dan was still looking for a place to live. They did not have their own land yet. The other family groups of Israel already had their land. But the family group of Dan had not taken their land yet.

"So the family group of Dan sent five soldiers to look for some land. They went to search for a good place to live. Those five men were from the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. They were chosen because they were from all the families of Dan. They were told, "Go, look for some land."

The five men came to the hill country of Ephraim. They came to Micah's house and spent the night there. "When the five men came close to Micah's house, they heard the voice of the young Levite man. They recognized his voice, so they stopped at Micah's house. They asked the young man, "Who brought you to this place? What are you doing here? What is your business here?"

"The young man told them about the things Micah had done for him. "Micah hired me," the young man said. "I am his priest."

"So they said to him, "Please ask God something for us. We want to know something: Will our search for a place to live be successful?"

"The priest said to the five men, "Yes. Go in peace. The Lord will lead you on your way."

Levite A person from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

"So the five men left. They came to the city of Laish. They saw that the people of that city lived in safety. They were ruled by the people of Sidon. Everything was peaceful and quiet. The people had plenty of everything. And they didn't have any enemies nearby to hurt them. Also, they lived a long way from the city of Sidon and they did not have any agreements with the people of Aram.*

"The five men went back to the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. Their relatives asked them, "What did you learn?"

"The five men answered, "We have found some land, and it is very good. We should attack them. Don't wait! Let's go and take that land! "When you come to that place, you will see that there is plenty of land. There is plenty of everything there. You will also see that the people are not expecting an attack. Surely God has given that land to us."

"So 600 men from the family group of Dan left the cities of Zorah and Eshtaol. They were ready for war. "On their way to the city of Laish, they stopped near the city of Kiriath-Jearim in the land of Judah. They set up a camp there. That is why the place west of Kiriath-Jearim is named Mahaneh-Dan* to this very day. "From that place, the 600 men traveled on to the hill country of Ephraim. Then they came to Micah's house.

"So the five men that had explored the land around Laish spoke. They said to their relatives, "There is an ephod* in one of these houses. And there are also household gods, a carved statue, and a silver idol. You know what to do—go get them." "So they stopped at Micah's house, where the young Levite man lived. They asked the young man how he was. "The 600 men from the family group of Dan stood at the entrance of the gate. They all had their weapons and were ready for war. "The five spies went into the house. The priest stood they did not have ... Aram Or, "they did not have any dealings with people."

Mahaneh-Dan This name means "The Camp of Dan."

ephod We do not know exactly what this was. It may have been a special vest or coat, like the High Priest of Israel wore (see Exodus 28). Or it may have been an idol.

just outside by the gate with the 600 men that were ready for war. The men took the carved idol, the ephod,* the house idols, and the silver idol. The young Levite priest said, "What are you doing?"

<sup>19</sup>The five men answered, "Be quiet! Don't say a word. Come with us. Be our father and our priest. You must choose. Is it better for you to be a priest for just one man? Or is it better for you to be a priest for a whole family group of Israelite people?"

<sup>20</sup>This made the Levite man happy. So he took the ephod*, the house idols, and the idol. He went with those men from the family group of Dan.

<sup>24</sup>Micah answered, "You men from Dan took my idols. I made those idols for myself. You have also taken my priest. What do I have left now? How can you ask me, 'What's the problem?'"

<sup>25</sup>The men from the family group of Dan answered, "You had better not argue with us. Some of our men have hot tempers. If you shout at us, those men might attack you. You and your families might get killed."

<sup>26</sup>Then the men of Dan turned around and went on their way. Micah knew that those men were too strong for him. So he went back home.

<sup>27</sup>So the men of Dan took the idols that Micah made. They also took the priest that had been with Micah. Then they came to Laish.

They attacked the people living in Laish. Those people were at peace. They were not expecting an attack. The men of Dan killed those people with their swords. Then they burned the city.

<sup>28</sup>The people that lived in Laish did not have anyone to rescue them. They lived too far from the city of Sidon for those people to help. And the people of Laish did not have any agreements with the people of Aram—so those people did not help them. The city of Laish was in a valley which belonged to the town of Beth Rehob. The people from Dan built a new city in that place. And that city became their home. <sup>29</sup>The people of Dan gave that city a new name. In the past, that city was named Laish. But they named the city, Dan. They named the city after their ancestor* Dan. Dan was one of the sons of Israel.

<sup>30</sup>The people of the family group of Dan set up the idols in the city of Dan. They made Jonathan son of Gershom their priest. Gershom was the son of Moses.* Jonathan and his sons were priests for the family group of Dan until the time when the Israelite people were taken as prisoners (to Babylon). <sup>31</sup>The people of Dan worshiped the idols that Micah had made. They worshiped those idols the whole time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

A Levite Man and His Woman Servant

19 At that time, the people of Israel did not have a king.

There was a Levite* man that lived far back in the hill country of Ephraim. That man had a woman as a servant that was like a wife to him. That woman servant* was from the city of Bethlehem in the country of Judah. <sup>2</sup>But his woman servant had an argument with the Levite man. She left him and went back to her father's house in Bethlehem, Judah. She stayed ancestor Literally, "father." This means a person that people are descended from.

Moses Or, "Manasseh."

Levite A person from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

woman servant Or, "concubine," a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

ephod We do not know exactly what this was. It may have been a special vest or coat, like the High Priest of Israel wore (see Exodus 28). Or it may have been an idol.

there for four months. <sup>3</sup>Then her husband went after her. He wanted to speak kindly to her so that she would come back to him. He took with him his servant and two donkeys. The Levite man came to her father's house. Her father saw the Levite man and came out to greet him. The father was very happy. <sup>4</sup>The woman's father led the Levite man into his house. The Levite's father-in-law invited him to stay. So the Levite man stayed for three days. He ate, drank, and slept in his father-in-law's house.

<sup>5</sup>On the fourth day, they got up early in the morning. The Levite* man was getting ready to leave. But the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Eat something first. After you eat, then you can go." <sup>6</sup>So the Levite man and his father-in-law sat down to eat and drink together. After that, the young woman's father said to the Levite man, "Please stay tonight. Relax and enjoy yourself. Wait until this afternoon to leave." So the two men ate together. <sup>7</sup>The Levite got up to leave, but his father-in-law persuaded him to stay the night again.

<sup>8</sup>Then, on the fifth day, the Levite man got up early in the morning. He was ready to leave. But the woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Eat something first. Relax and stay until this afternoon." So they both ate together again.

<sup>9</sup>Then the Levite man, his woman servant,* and his servant got up to leave. But the young woman's father said, "It is almost dark. The day is almost gone. So stay the night here and enjoy yourself. Tomorrow morning you can get up early and go on your way."

<sup>10</sup>But the Levite man did not want to stay another night. He took his two donkeys and his woman servant.* He traveled as far as the city of Jebus. (Jebus is another name for Jerusalem).

<sup>11</sup>The day was almost over. They were near the city of Jebus. So the servant said to his master, the Levite* man, "Let's stop at this Jebusite city. Let's stay the night here."

<sup>12</sup>But his master, the Levite man, said, "No. We won't go inside a strange city. Those people are not Israelite people. We will go to the city of Gibeah."* <sup>13</sup>The Levite man said, "Come on. Let's try to make it to Gibeah or Ramah. We can stay the night in one of those cities."

<sup>14</sup>So the Levite* man and the people with him traveled on. The sun was going down just as they entered the city of Gibeah. Gibeah is in the area that belongs to the family group of Benjamin. <sup>15</sup>So they stopped at Gibeah. They planned to stay the night in that city. They came to the city square* in the city and sat down there. But no one invited them home to stay the night.

<sup>16</sup>That evening an old man came into the city from the fields. His home was in the hill country of Ephraim. But now he was living in the city of Gibeah. (The men of Gibeah were from the family group of Benjamin.) <sup>17</sup>The old man saw the traveler, (the Levite man) in the public square. The old man asked, "Where are you going? Where did you come from?"

<sup>18</sup>The Levite* man answered, "We are traveling from the city Bethlehem, Judah. We are going home. I am from far back in the hill country of Ephraim. I have been to Bethlehem, Judah. And now, I am going to my house.*" <sup>19</sup>We already have straw and food for our donkeys. There is also bread and wine for me, the young woman and my servant. We don't need anything."

<sup>20</sup>The old man said, "You are welcome to stay at my house. I will give you anything you need. Only, don't stay the night in the public square!" <sup>21</sup>Then the old man took the Levite* man and the people with him to his house. He fed their donkeys. They washed their feet. Then they had something to eat and drink.

<sup>22</sup>While the Levite* man and those that were with him were enjoying themselves, some of the men from that city surrounded the house.

Levite A person from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

woman servant Or, "concubine," a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

Gibeah Gibeah was a few miles north of Jebus.

square A public place near the city gates. The people of the city had meetings there, and visitors often camped there.

my house This is from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has, "the Lord's house."

They were very bad men. They began beating on the door. They shouted at the old man that owned the house. They said, "Bring out the man that came to your house. We want to have sex with him."

<sup>23</sup>The old man went outside and spoke to those bad men. He said, "No, my friends, don't do such bad things! That man is a guest in my house.* Don't do this terrible sin." <sup>24</sup>Look, here is my daughter. She has never had sex before. I will bring her out to you now. You can use her any way you want. But don't do such a terrible sin against this man."

<sup>25</sup>But those bad men would not listen to the old man. So the Levite* man took his woman servant* and put her outside with those evil men. Those evil men hurt her and raped her all night long. Then, at dawn, they let her go. <sup>26</sup>At dawn, the woman came back to the house where her master was staying. She fell down at the front door. She lay there until it was daylight.

<sup>27</sup>The Levite* man got up early the next morning. He wanted to go home. He opened the door to go outside. And a hand fell across the threshold of the door. There was his woman servant.* She had fallen down against the door. <sup>28</sup>The Levite man said to her, "Get up, let's go!" But she did not answer—she was dead.

The Levite man put his woman servant* on his donkey and went home. <sup>29</sup>When he arrived at his house, he took a knife and cut his woman servant* into 12 parts. Then he sent those 12 parts of the woman to all the areas where the people of Israel lived. <sup>30</sup>Everyone that saw this said, "Nothing like this has ever happened in Israel before. We haven't seen anything like this from the time we came out of Egypt. Discuss this and tell us what to do."

Than man ... my house At this time, it was a custom that if you invited people to be your guests, then you had to protect and care for those people.

Levite A person from the tribe of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

woman servant Or, "concubine," a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

The War Between Israel and Benjamin

20 So all the people of Israel joined together. They all came together to stand before the Lord in the city of Mizpah. People came from everywhere in Israel.* Even the Israelite people from Gilead* were there. <sup>2</sup>The leaders of all the family groups of Israel were there. They took their places in the public meeting of God's people. There were 400,000 soldiers with swords in that place. <sup>3</sup>The people from the family group of Benjamin heard that the people of Israel were meeting together in Mizpah. The people of Israel said, "Tell us how this terrible thing happened."

<sup>4</sup>So the husband of the woman that had been murdered told them the story. He said, "My woman servant* and I came to the city of Gibeah in the area of Benjamin. We spent the night there. <sup>5</sup>But during the night the leaders of the city of Gibeah came to the house where I was staying. They surrounded the house, and they wanted to kill me. They raped my woman servant,* and she died. <sup>6</sup>So I took my woman servant* and cut her into pieces. Then I sent one piece to each of the family groups of Israel. I sent the 12 pieces to the lands we have received. I did that because the people of Benjamin have done this terrible thing in Israel. <sup>7</sup>Now, all you men of Israel, speak up. Give your decision about what we should do."

<sup>8</sup>Then all the people stood up at the same time. They said together, "None of us will go home. No, not one of us will go back to his house. <sup>9</sup>Now this is what we will do to the city of Gibeah: We will throw lots* to let God show us what to do to those people. <sup>10</sup>We will choose ten men from every 100 from all the family groups of Israel. And we will choose 100 men from every 1,000. We will choose 1,000 men from every 10,000. Those men we have chosen will get supplies for the army. Then the army will go to the city of Gibeah in the area of Benjamin. The army will punish those people from everywhere in Israel Literally, "from Dan to Beersheba.

Gilead This area was east of the Jordan River.

lot(s) Sticks, stones, or pieces of bone used like dice for making decisions. See Proverbs 16:33.

for the terrible thing they did among the people of Israel.”

<sup>11</sup>So all the men of Israel gathered together at the city of Gibeah. They were all agreed to what they were doing. <sup>12</sup>The family groups of Israel sent men to the family group of Benjamin with a message. The message was: “What about this terrible thing that some of your men have done? <sup>13</sup>Send those bad men from the city of Gibeah to us. Give us those men so that we can put them to death. We must remove the evil from among the people of Israel.”

But the people from the family group of Benjamin would not listen to the messengers from their relatives, the other people of Israel. <sup>14</sup>The people from the family group of Benjamin left their cities and went to the city of Gibeah. They went to Gibeah to fight against the other family groups of Israel. <sup>15</sup>The people from the family group of Benjamin got 26,000 soldiers together. All those soldiers were trained for war. They also had 700 trained soldiers from the city of Gibeah. <sup>16</sup>There were also 700 trained soldiers that were left-handed. Each one of them could use a sling* with great skill. They all could use a sling to throw a stone at a hair and not miss!

<sup>17</sup>All the family groups of Israel, except Benjamin, gathered together 400,000 fighting men. Those 400,000 men had swords. Each one was a trained soldier. <sup>18</sup>The people of Israel went up to the city of Bethel. At Bethel they asked God, “Which family group will be first to attack the family group of Benjamin?”

The Lord answered, “The family group of Judah will go first.”

<sup>19</sup>The next morning the people of Israel got up. They made a camp near the city of Gibeah. <sup>20</sup>Then the army of Israel went out to fight the army of Benjamin. The army of Israel got ready for a battle against the army of Benjamin at the city of Gibeah. <sup>21</sup>Then the army of Benjamin came out of the city of Gibeah. The army of Benjamin killed 22,000 men in the army of Israel during the battle that day.

<sup>22</sup>The people of Israel went to the Lord. They cried until evening. They asked the Lord, “Should we go to fight the people of Benjamin again? Those people are our relatives.”

The Lord answered, “Go fight against them.” The men of Israel encouraged each other. Then they again went out to fight, like they did the first day.

<sup>23</sup>Then the army of Israel came near the army of Benjamin. This was the second day of the war. <sup>24</sup>The army of Benjamin came out of the city of Gibeah to attack the army of Israel on the second day. This time, the army of Benjamin killed another 18,000 men from the army of Israel. All of those men in the army of Israel were trained soldiers.

<sup>25</sup>Then all the people of Israel went up to the city of Bethel. At that place they sat down and cried to the Lord. They did not eat anything all day, until evening. They also offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the Lord. <sup>27</sup>The men of Israel asked the Lord a question. (In those days God’s Box of the Agreement* was there at Bethel. <sup>28</sup>Phinehas was the priest that served God there. Phinehas was the son of Eleazar. Eleazar was the son of Aaron.) The people of Israel asked, “The people of Benjamin are our relatives. Should we again go to fight against them? Or should we stop fighting?”

The Lord answered, “Go. Tomorrow I will help you to defeat them.”

<sup>29</sup>Then the army of Israel hid some men all around the city of Gibeah. <sup>30</sup>The army of Israel went to fight against the city of Gibeah on the third day. They got ready for battle, like they did before. <sup>31</sup>The army of Benjamin came out of the city of Gibeah to fight the army of Israel. The army of Israel backed up and let the army of Benjamin chase them. In this way, the army of Benjamin was tricked into leaving the city far behind them.

The army of Benjamin began to kill some of the men in the army of Israel, like they did before. They killed about 30 men from Israel. They killed some of those men in the fields, and they killed some of those men on the roads. One road led to the city of Bethel. The other road led to the city of Gibeah. <sup>32</sup>The men of Benjamin said, "We are winning like before!"

Box of the Agreement Or, “ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

The men of Israel were running away, but it was a trick. They wanted to lead the men of Benjamin away from their city and onto the roads. <sup>33</sup>So all the men ran away. They stopped at a place named Baal Tamar. Some of the men of Israel were hiding west of Gibeah. They ran from their hiding places and attacked Gibeah. <sup>34</sup>10,000 of Israel's best trained soldiers attacked the city of Gibeah. The fighting was very heavy. But the army of Benjamin did not know what terrible thing was going to happen to them.

<sup>35</sup>The Lord used the army of Israel and defeated the army of Benjamin. On that day, the army of Israel killed 25,100 soldiers from Benjamin. All those soldiers had been trained for war. <sup>36</sup>So the people of Benjamin saw that they were defeated.

The army of Israel had moved back. They moved back because they were depending on the surprise attack. They had men hiding near Gibeah. <sup>37</sup>The men that were hiding rushed into the city of Gibeah. They spread out and killed everyone in the city with their swords. <sup>38</sup>Now the men of Israel had made a plan with the men that were hiding. The men that were hiding were supposed to send a special signal. The men were supposed to make a big cloud of smoke.

<sup>39-41</sup>The army of Benjamin had killed about 30 Israelite soldiers. So the men of Benjamin were saying, "We are winning, like before." But then a big cloud of smoke began to rise from the city. The men of Benjamin turned around and saw the smoke. The whole city was on fire. Then the army of Israel stopped running away. They turned around and began to fight. The men of Benjamin were afraid. Now they knew what terrible thing had happened to them.

But they could not escape the fighting. And the men of Israel came out of the cities and killed them. <sup>43</sup>The men of Israel surrounded the men of Benjamin and began chasing them. They did not let them rest. They defeated them in the area east of Gibeah. <sup>44</sup>So 18,000 brave and strong fighters from the army of Benjamin were killed.

<sup>45</sup>The army of Benjamin turned around and ran toward the desert. They ran to a place called the Rock of Rimmon. But the army of Israel killed 5,000 soldiers from Benjamin along the roads. They kept chasing the men of Benjamin. They chased them as far as a place named Gidom. The army of Israel killed 2,000 more men from Benjamin in that place.

<sup>46</sup>On that day, 25,000 men of the army of Benjamin were killed. All those men fought bravely with their swords. <sup>47</sup>But 600 men from Benjamin ran into the desert. They went to the place called the Rock of Rimmon. They stayed in that place for four months. <sup>48</sup>The men of Israel went back to the land of Benjamin. They killed the people in every city they came to. They also killed all the animals. They destroyed everything they could find. They burned every city they came to.

Getting Wives for the Men of Benjamin

21 At Mizpah, the men of Israel made a promise. This was their promise: "Not one of us will let his daughter marry a man from the family group of Benjamin."

<sup>1</sup>The people of Israel went to the city of Bethel. There they sat before God until evening. They cried loudly as they sat there. <sup>2</sup>They said to God, "Lord, you are the God of the people of Israel. Why has this terrible thing happened to us? Why has one family group of the people of Israel been taken away?"

<sup>3</sup>Early the next day, the people of Israel built an altar.* They put burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to God on that altar. <sup>4</sup>Then the people of Israel said, "Are there any family groups of Israel that did not come here to meet with us before the Lord?" They asked this question because they had made a serious promise. They had promised that anyone that did not come together with the other family groups at the city of Mizpah would be killed.

<sup>6</sup>Then the people of Israel felt sorry for their relatives, the people of Benjamin. They said, "Today, one family group has been separated from Israel. <sup>7</sup>We made a promise before the Lord. We promised not to allow our daughters to marry a man from Benjamin. How can we make sure that the men of Benjamin will have wives?"

<sup>8</sup>Then the people of Israel asked, "Which one of the family groups of Israel did not come here to Mizpah? We have come together before the Lord. Surely one family was not here!" Then they found that no one from the city of Jabesh Gilead had met together with the other people of Israel. <sup>9</sup>The people of Israel counted everyone to see who was there and who was not. They found that no one from Jabesh Gilead was there. <sup>10</sup>So the people of Israel sent 12,000 soldiers to the city of Jabesh Gilead. They told those soldiers, "Go to Jabesh Gilead, and use your swords to kill every person that lives there, even the women and children. <sup>11</sup>You must do this! You must kill every man in Jabesh Gilead. Also kill every woman that has had sexual relations with a man. But do not kill any woman that has never had sex with a man." So the soldiers did those things.* <sup>12</sup>Those 12,000 soldiers found 400 young women in the city of Jabesh Gilead, that had never had sex with a man. The soldiers brought those women to the camp at Shiloh. Shiloh is in the land of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup>Then the people of Israel sent a message to the men of Benjamin. They offered to make peace with the men of Benjamin. The men of Benjamin were at the place named the Rock of Rimmon. <sup>14</sup>So the men of Benjamin came back to Israel. The people of Israel gave them the women from Jabesh Gilead that they had not killed. But there were not enough women for all the men of Benjamin.

<sup>15</sup>The people of Israel felt sorry for the men of Benjamin. They felt sorry for them because the Lord had separated them from the other family groups of Israel. <sup>16</sup>The elders (leaders) of the people of Israel said, "The women of the family group of Benjamin have been killed. Where can we get wives for the men of Benjamin that are still alive?" <sup>17</sup>The men of Benjamin that are still alive must have children to continue their families. This must be done so that a family group in Israel will not die out. <sup>18</sup>But we cannot allow our daughters to marry the men of Benjamin. We have made this promise: 'Anyone that gives a wife to a man of Benjamin is under a curse.' <sup>19</sup>We have an idea. This is the time for the festival of the Lord at the city of Shiloh. This festival is celebrated every year there." (The city of Shiloh is north of the city of Bethel, and east of the road that goes from Bethel to Shechem. And it is also to the south of the city of Lebonah.)

<sup>20</sup>So the elders (leaders) told the men of Benjamin about their idea. They said, "Go and hide in the vineyards. <sup>21</sup>Watch for the time during the festival when the young women from Shiloh come out to join the dancing. They run out from where you are hiding in the vineyards. Each of you should take one of the young women from the city of Shiloh. Take those young women to the land of Benjamin and marry them. <sup>22</sup>The fathers or brothers of those young women will come and complain to us. But we will say, 'Be kind to the men of Benjamin. Let them marry those women. They took women from you, but they did not make war against you. They took the women, so you didn't break your promise to God. You promised that you would not give them women to marry—you did not give the women to the men of Benjamin, they took the women from you! So you did not break your promise.'"

<sup>23</sup>So that is what the men of the family group of Benjamin did. While the young women were dancing, each man caught one of them. They took those young women away and married them. They went back to their land. The men of Benjamin built cities again in that land, and they lived in those cities. <sup>24</sup>Then the people of Israel went home. They went to their own land and family group.

But do not kill ... those things This is in the ancient Greek translation, but not in the Hebrew.

<sup>25</sup>In those days the people of Israel did not have a king. Everyone did what he thought was right.

Ruth

Famine in Judah

1 Long ago, during the time the judges* ruled, there was a bad time when there was not enough food to eat. A man named Elimelech left Bethlehem, Judah. He, his wife and his two sons moved to the hill country of Moab.* <sup>2</sup>The man's wife was named Naomi and his two sons were named Mahlon and Kilion. These people were from the Ephrathah family of Bethlehem, Judah. The family traveled to the hill country of Moab and stayed there.

<sup>3</sup>Later, Naomi's husband, Elimelech, died. So only Naomi and her two sons were left. <sup>4</sup>Her sons married women from the country of Moab. One wife's name was Orpah, and the other wife's name was Ruth. They lived in Moab about ten years, <sup>5</sup>and Mahlon and Kilion also died. So Naomi was left alone without her husband or her two sons.

Naomi Goes Home

<sup>6</sup>While Naomi was in the hill country of Moab, she heard that the Lord had helped his people. He had given food to his people in Judah. So Naomi decided to leave the hill country of Moab and go back home. Her daughters-in-law also decided to go with her. <sup>7</sup>They left the place they had been living and started walking back to the land of Judah.

<sup>8</sup>Then Naomi told her daughters-in-law, "Each of you should go back home to your mother. You have been very kind to me and my dead sons. So I pray the Lord will be just as kind to you. <sup>9</sup>I pray that the Lord helps each of you to find a husband and a nice home." Naomi kissed her daughters-in-law. And they all started crying.

<sup>11</sup>But Naomi said, "No, daughters, go back to your own homes. Why should you go with me? I cannot help you. I don't have any more sons in me to be your husbands. <sup>12</sup>Go back home! I am too old to have a new husband. Even if I thought I could be married again, I could not help you. If I became pregnant tonight and had two sons, it would not help. <sup>13</sup>You would have to wait until they grew to become men before you could marry them. I can't make you wait that long for husbands. That would make me very sad! And I am already sad enough—the Lord has done many things to me!"

<sup>15</sup>Naomi said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her own people and her own gods. So you should do the same thing."

<sup>16</sup>But Ruth said, "Don't force me to leave you! Don't force me to go back to my own people. Let me go with you. Every place you go, I will go. Every place you sleep, I will sleep. Your people will be my people. Your God will be my God. <sup>17</sup>And where you die, I will die. And that is where I will be buried. I ask the Lord to punish me if I do not keep this promise: Only death will separate us.**

The Homecoming

<sup>20</sup>But Naomi told the people, "Don't call me Naomi,* call me Marah.* Use this name because God, All-Powerful has made my life very sad. <sup>21</sup>I had everything I wanted when I left. But now, the Lord brings me home with nothing. The Lord has made me sad, so why should you call me 'Happy'?* God, All-Powerful has given much trouble to me."

<sup>22</sup>So Naomi and her daughter-in-law Ruth (the woman from Moab) came back from the hill country of Moab. These two women came to Bethlehem, Judah at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Ruth Meets Boaz

2 There was a strong and powerful man living in Bethlehem. His name was Boaz. Boaz was one of Naomi's close relatives* from Elimelech's family.

<sup>1</sup>One day Ruth (the woman from Moab) said to Naomi, "I think I will go to the fields. Maybe I can find someone that would be kind to me and let me gather the grain he leaves in his field."

I ask the Lord ... separate us Literally, "May the Lord do this to me, and even more, unless death separates us!"

Naomi This name means "Happy" or "Pleasant."

Marah This name means "Bitter" or "Sad."

Happy This is the name Naomi.

close relatives In ancient Israel, if a man died without children, one of his close relatives would take the dead man's wife so she could have children. The close relative would care for this family, but this family, and their property would not belong to him. Everything would still be in the dead man's name.

So Ruth went to the fields. She followed the workers that were cutting the grain, and she gathered the grain that was left.* It happened that part of the field belonged to Boaz, the man from Elimelech's family.

<sup>3</sup>Later, Boaz came to the field from Bethlehem. Boaz greeted his workers. He said, "The Lord be with you!"

And the workers answered, "And may the Lord bless you!"

<sup>4</sup>Then Boaz spoke to his servant that was in charge of the workers. He asked, "Whose girl is that?"

<sup>5</sup>The servant answered, "She is that Moabite woman that came with Naomi from the hill country of Moab. <sup>6</sup>She came early this morning and asked me if she could follow the workers and gather the grain that was left on the ground. And she has been working ever since. That is her house over there."*

<sup>7</sup>Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, child. Stay here in my field to gather grain for yourself. There is no need for you to go to any other person's field. Continue following behind my women workers. <sup>8</sup>Watch to see which fields they go to, and follow them. I have warned the young men not to bother you. When you are thirsty, go and drink from the same water jug my men drink from."

<sup>9</sup>Then Ruth bowed very low to the ground. She said to Boaz, "I am surprised you even noticed me! I am a stranger, but you have been very kind to me."

<sup>10</sup>Boaz answered her, "I know about all the help you have given to Naomi, your mother-in-law. I know you helped her even after your husband died. And I know that you left your father and mother and your own country and came here to this country. You did not know any people from this country, but you came here with Naomi. <sup>11</sup>The Lord will reward gathered the grain that was left There was a law that a farmer must leave some grain in his field during harvest. This grain was left so the poor people could find something to eat. See Leviticus 19:9; 23:22.

That is her house over there Literally, "She only took a short rest in the shelter," or "She only rested a short time in that shelter."

you for all the good things you have done. You will be paid in full by the Lord, the God of Israel. You have come to him for safety,* and he will protect you.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Ruth said, “You are very kind to me, sir. I am only a servant. I am not even equal to one of your servants. But you have said kind words to me and comforted me.”

So Ruth sat down with the workers. Boaz gave her some roasted grain. Ruth ate until she was full, and there was some food left. <sup>15</sup>Then Ruth got up and went back to work.

Then Boaz told his servants, “Let Ruth gather even around the piles of grain. Don’t stop her. <sup>16</sup>And make her work easier by dropping some full heads of grain for her. Let her gather that grain. Don’t tell her to stop.”

Naomi Hears About Boaz

<sup>17</sup>Ruth worked in the fields until evening. Then she separated the grain from the chaff.* There was about 1/2 bushel* of barley. <sup>18</sup>Ruth carried the grain into town to show her mother-in-law what she had gathered. She also gave her the food that was left from lunch.

<sup>19</sup>Her mother-in-law asked her, “Where did you gather all this grain? Where did you work? Bless the man that noticed you.”

Then Ruth told her who she had worked with. She said, “The man I worked with today is a man named Boaz.”

Naomi told her daughter-in-law, “Lord bless him! The Lord continues to be kind to all people; the living and the dead.” <sup>20</sup>Then Naomi told her daughter-in-law, “Boaz is one of our relatives. Boaz is one of our protectors.”**

You have come to him for safety Literally, “You have come under his wings for safety.”

chaff Parts of grain a farmer throws away. Farmers cracked the hulls from seeds and let the wind blow these hulls (chaff) away.

protectors Or, “Redeemers.” A person that cared for and protected the family of a dead relative. Often this person bought back (redeemed) the poor relatives from slavery, making them free again.

<sup>21</sup>Then Ruth said, “Boaz also told me to come back and continue working. Boaz said that I should work closely with his servants until the harvest is finished.”

<sup>22</sup>Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, Ruth, “It is good for you to continue working with his women servants. If you work in another field, some man might hurt you.” <sup>23</sup>So Ruth continued working closely with the women servants of Boaz. She gathered grain until the barley harvest was finished. She also worked there through the end of the wheat harvest. Ruth continued living with Naomi, her mother-in-law.

The Threshing Floor

3 Then Naomi, Ruth’s mother-in-law, said to her, “My daughter, maybe I should find a husband and a nice home for you. That would be good for you. Maybe Boaz is the right man. Boaz is our close relative.* You worked with his women servants. Tonight he will be working at the threshing floor.* <sup>3</sup>Go wash and get dressed. Put on a nice dress, and go down to the threshing floor. But don’t let Boaz see you until he has finished eating supper. <sup>4</sup>After he eats, he will lie down to rest. Watch him so that you will know where he lies down. Go there and lift the cover off his feet.* Then lie down there with Boaz. He will tell you what you should do about marriage.”

<sup>6</sup>So Ruth went down to the threshing floor.*<sup>6</sup> Ruth did everything that her mother-in-law told her to do. <sup>7</sup>After eating and drinking, Boaz was very satisfied. Boaz went to lie down near the pile of grain. Then Ruth went to him very quietly and lifted the cover from his feet. Ruth lay down by his feet.

close relative This is a close relative that could marry Ruth, so she could have children. This man would care for this family, but this family and their property would not belong to him. They would belong to Ruth’s dead husband.

threshing floor The place where workers beat grain to separate the seeds of grain from the chaff.

lift the cover off his feet Literally, “uncover his legs.” This showed Ruth was asking the man to be her Protector or Redeemer.

<sup>8</sup>About midnight, Boaz rolled over in his sleep and woke up. He was very surprised. There was a woman lying near his feet. <sup>9</sup>Boaz said, "Who are you?"

She said, "I am Ruth, your servant girl. Spread your cover over me.* You are my protector.*

<sup>10</sup>Then Boaz said, "May the Lord bless you, young woman. You have been very kind to me. Your kindness to me is greater than the kindness you showed to Naomi in the beginning. You could have looked for a young man to marry, rich or poor. But you did not. <sup>11</sup>Now, young woman, don't be afraid. I will do the things you ask. All the people in our town know that you are a very good woman. <sup>12</sup>And it is true, I am a close relative.* But there is a man that is a closer relative to you than I. <sup>13</sup>Stay here tonight. In the morning we will see if he will help* you. If he decides to help you, then that is fine. If he refuses to help, then I promise, as the Lord lives, I will marry you and buy back Elimelech's land for you.* So lie here until morning."

Boaz said to her, "We will keep it a secret that you came here to me last night." <sup>15</sup>Then Boaz said, "Bring me your coat. Now, hold it open."

So Ruth held her coat open, and Boaz measured about a bushel of barley* as a gift to Naomi, her mother-in-law. Boaz then wrapped it in Ruth's coat, and put it on her back. Then he went to the city.

Spread ... me Or, "Spread your wing over me." This showed Ruth was asking for help and protection. See Ruth 2:12.

protector, close relative This is a close relative that could marry Ruth, so she could have children. This man would care for this family, but this family and their property would not belong to him. They would belong to Ruth's dead husband.

help Or, "redeem." This meant the close relative would care for and protect the dead man's family and property, but that property would not be his.

I will marry ... land for you Literally, "I will redeem you."

bushel of barley Literally, "six measures of barley."

<sup>16</sup>Ruth went to the home of her mother-in-law, Naomi. Naomi went to the door and, asked, "Who's there?"

Ruth went in the house, telling Naomi everything that Boaz did for her. <sup>17</sup>She said, "Boaz gave me this barley as a gift for you. Boaz said that I must not go home without bringing a gift for you."

<sup>18</sup>Naomi said, "Daughter, be patient until we hear what happens. Boaz will not rest until he has finished doing what he should do. We will know what will happen before the day is ended."

Boaz and the Other Relative

4 Boaz went to the place where people gather near the city gates. Boaz sat there until the close relative* Boaz had mentioned passed by. Boaz called to him, "Come here, friend! Sit here!"

<sup>2</sup>Then Boaz gathered some witnesses. Boaz gathered ten of the elders* of the city. He told them, "Sit here!" So they sat down.

<sup>3</sup>Then Boaz spoke to the close relative.* He said, "Naomi came back from the hill country of Moab. She is selling the land that belonged to our relative Elimelech. 'I decided to tell you about this in front of the people living here and in front of the elders* of my people. If you want to buy back the land, then buy it! If you don't want to redeem the land, then tell me. I know that I am the next person after you that can redeem the land. If you don't buy the land back, then I will.'"

<sup>4</sup>Then Boaz said, "If you buy the land from Naomi, you also get the dead man's wife, Ruth the Moabite woman. When Ruth has a child, the child will get the land. That way, the land will stay in the dead man's family."

<sup>5</sup>The close relative* answered, "I cannot buy back the land. That land should belong to me. But I cannot buy it. If I do, I might lose my own land. So you can buy the land." <sup>7</sup>(Long ago in Israel, when people bought or redeemed property, one person took off his shoe and gave it to the other person. This was their proof of purchase.) <sup>9</sup>So the close relative* said, "Buy the land." And then the close relative took off his shoe, and gave it to Boaz.

<sup>9</sup>Then Boaz said to the elders* and all the people, "You are witnesses today that I am buying from Naomi everything that belonged to Elimelech, Kilion, and Mahlon. <sup>10</sup>I am also buying Ruth to be my wife. I am doing this so the dead man's property will stay with his family. This way, the dead man's name will not be separated from his family and his land. You are witnesses this day."

<sup>11</sup>So all the people and elders* that were near the city gates were witnesses. They said,

This woman will be coming into your home.

May the Lord make her like Rachel and Leah.

Rachel and Leah built the house of Israel.*

We pray you will become powerful in Ephrathah!*

May you become famous in Bethlehem!

In the same way, may the Lord give you many children through Ruth.

And may your family be great like his.

<sup>13</sup>So Boaz married Ruth. The Lord allowed Ruth to become pregnant, and she had a son. <sup>14</sup>The women of the town told Naomi,

Bless the Lord who gave you this protector.*

And may he become famous in Israel.

<sup>15</sup> May he give you strength and care for you in your old age.

This happened because of your daughter-in-law.

She loves you.

And she is better for you than seven sons."

<sup>16</sup>Naomi took the boy, held him in her arms, and cared for him. <sup>17</sup>The neighbors gave the boy his name. These women said, "This boy was born for Naomi." The neighbors named him Obed. Obed was Jesse's father. And Jesse was the father of King David.

Ruth and Boaz's Family

Perez was the father of Hezron.

<sup>19</sup> Hezron was the father of Ram.

Ram was the father of Amminadab.

<sup>20</sup> Amminadab was the father of Nahshon.

Nahshon was the father of Salmon.

Boaz was the father of Obed.

<sup>22</sup> Obed was the father of Jesse.

Jesse was the father of David.

close relative, protector This is a close relative that could marry Ruth, so she could have children. This man would care for this family, but this family and their property would not belong to him. They would belong to Ruth's dead husband.

elders Older men who were city leaders; they helped make decisions for the people.

built ... Israel The Hebrew word "built" is like the word meaning "gave birth to sons."

Ephrathah Another name for Bethlehem.

Perez One of Boaz's ancestors.

Elkanah and His Family Worship at Shiloh

1 There was a man named Elkanah. He was from Ramah in the hill country of Ephraim. Elkanah was from the Zuph family. Elkanah was the son of Jeroham.* Jeroham was Elihu's son. Elihu was Tohu's son. And Tohu was the son of Zuph, from the family group of Ephraim.

<sup>2</sup>Elkanah had two wives. One was named Hannah. The other was named Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

<sup>3</sup>Every year Elkanah left his town Ramah and went up to Shiloh. Elkanah worshiped the Lord All-Powerful at Shiloh and offered sacrifices* to the Lord there. Shiloh was where Hophni and Phinehas served as priests of the Lord. Hophni and Phinehas were the sons of Eli. <sup>4</sup>Every time Elkanah offered his sacrifices, he always gave one share of the meat to his wife Peninnah. Elkanah also gave shares of the meat to Peninnah's children. <sup>5</sup>Elkanah always gave an equal share* of the meat to Hannah. Elkanah did this even though the Lord did not let Hannah have any children. Elkanah did this because Hannah was the wife he really loved.

Peninnah Upsets Hannah

Jeroham Or, "Jerahmeel."

equal share Or, "double share."

was not able to have children. <sup>7</sup>This happened every year. Every time their family went to the Lord's house at Shiloh, Peninnah made Hannah upset. One day Elkanah was giving sacrifices.* Hannah became upset and began to cry. Hannah would not eat anything. <sup>8</sup>Her husband, Elkanah, said to her, "Hannah, why are you crying? Why won't you eat? Why are you sad? You have me—I am your husband. You should think I am better than ten sons."

Hannah's Prayer

<sup>9</sup>After eating and drinking, Hannah got up quietly and went to pray to the Lord. Eli the priest was sitting on a chair near the door of the Lord's holy Building.* <sup>10</sup>Hannah was very sad. She cried very much. She prayed to the Lord. <sup>11</sup>She made a special promise to God. She said, "Lord All-Powerful, see how very sad I am. Remember me! Don't forget me. If you will give me a son, then I will give him to you all his life. This son will be a Nazirite. He will not drink wine or strong drink.* And no one will ever cut his hair with a razor.*"

holy Building This could mean the Holy Tent at Shiloh where people went to worship the Lord or a larger building where they put the Holy Tent.

This ... drink This is in the ancient Greek translation and one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran, but not in the standard Hebrew text.

And ... razor People who made special promises not to cut their hair and not to drink wine were called Nazirites. See Numbers 6:5. These people gave their lives to the Lord.

thought Hannah was drunk. <sup>14</sup>Eli said to Hannah, "You have had too much to drink! It is time to put away the wine!"

<sup>15</sup>Hannah answered, "Sir, I have not drunk any wine or beer. I am deeply troubled. I was telling the Lord about all my problems. <sup>16</sup>Don't think I am a bad woman. I have been praying so long because I have so many troubles and I am very sad."

<sup>19</sup>Early the next morning Elkanah's family got up. They worshiped the Lord and then went back home to Ramah.

Samuel's Birth

Elkanah had sexual relations with his wife Hannah. The Lord remembered Hannah. <sup>20</sup>Hannah became pregnant and had a son. Hannah named her son Samuel.* She said, "His name is Samuel because I asked the Lord for him."

<sup>21</sup>That year Elkanah went to Shiloh, to offer sacrifices and to keep the promises he made to God. He took his family with him. <sup>22</sup>But Hannah did not go. She told Elkanah, "When the boy is old enough to eat solid food, I will take him to Shiloh. Then I will give him to the Lord. He will become a Nazirite.** He will stay there at Shiloh.

<sup>23</sup>Hannah's husband Elkanah said to her, "Do what you think is best. You may stay home until the boy is old enough to eat solid food. May the Lord do what you have said." So Hannah stayed at home to nurse her son until

Samuel This name means "His name is El (God)." But in Hebrew, if you take away one letter, it is like the word "ask" or the name "Saul." There are many places in 1 Samuel where there are word plays with the names Saul and Samuel and the word "ask."

Nazirite A person who has made a special promise to God. This name is from the Hebrew word meaning "to separate from."

He will become a Nazirite This is not in the standard Hebrew text, but it is in the ancient Greek translation and in one of the Hebrew scrolls from Qumrao.

he was old enough to eat solid food.

Hannah Takes Samuel to Eli at Shiloh

<sup>24</sup>When the boy was old enough to eat solid food, Hannah took him to the Lord's house at Shiloh. Hannah also took a bull that was three years old, 20 pounds* of flour, and a bottle of wine.

<sup>25</sup>They went before the Lord. Elkanah killed the bull as a sacrifice to the Lord like he usually did.* Then Hannah brought the boy to Eli. <sup>26</sup>Hannah said to Eli, "Pardon me, sir. I am the same woman that stood near you praying to the Lord. I promise that I am telling the truth. <sup>27</sup>I prayed for this child. And the Lord answered my prayer. The Lord gave me this child. <sup>28</sup>And now I give this child to the Lord. He will belong to the Lord all his life."

Then Hannah left the boy there* and worshiped the Lord.

Hannah Gives Thanks

2 Hannah said:
 "My heart is happy in the Lord!
 I feel very strong* in my God!
 I defeated all my enemies.*
 I am very happy in my victory!"

- <sup>2</sup> "There is no Holy God like the Lord.
 There is no God but you!
 There is no Rock* like our God.
- <sup>3</sup> Don't continue bragging!

20 pounds Literally, "an Ephah."

They went ... he usually did This is from the ancient Greek translation and one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran. It is not in the standard Hebrew text.

left the boy there This is from one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran. It is not in the standard Hebrew text.

strong Literally, "In the Lord my horn is lifted high." The horn is a symbol of strength.

I defeated all my enemies Literally, "My mouth is wide open over my enemies."

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

- Don't speak proud words!
 Why? Because the Lord God knows everything,
 God leads and judges people.
- 4 The bows of strong soldiers break!
 And weak people become strong!
- 5 People who had plenty of food in the past,
 must now work to get food.
 But people who were hungry in the past,
 now grow fat on food!
 The woman who was not able to have children
 now has seven children!
 But the woman who had many children is sad because her children are gone.
- 6 The Lord causes people to die, and he causes them to live.
 The Lord brings people down to Sheol, (the place of death),
 and he raises them to life again.
- 7 The Lord makes people poor, and he makes people rich.
 The Lord makes people humble, and he makes people great.
- 8 The Lord raises poor people from the dust.
 The Lord picks the poor people from the ashes.
 The Lord lets the poor people sit with princes.
 The Lord lets the poor people sit on a throne of honor.
 The whole world,
 even to its foundations,
 belongs to the Lord.
 The Lord set the world on those pillars.
- 9 The Lord protects his holy people.
 He keeps them from stumbling.
 But bad people will be destroyed.
 They will fall in the darkness.
 Their power will not help them win.
- 10 The Lord destroys his enemies.
 God Most-High will thunder in heaven against people.
 The Lord will judge all the earth.

The Lord will give power to his king.
 He will make his special king strong."

"Elkanah (and his family) went home to Ramah. The boy stayed in Shiloh and served the Lord under Eli the priest.

Eli's Evil Sons

"Eli's sons were bad men. They did not care about the Lord. <sup>13</sup>They did not care about how priests were supposed to treat people. This is what priests should do for people: Every time a person brings a sacrifice, the priests should boil the meat in a pot. The priest's servant should come with a special fork in his hand. The fork has three points. <sup>14</sup>The priest's servant should put the fork into the pot or the kettle. Whatever the fork takes out of the pot—that meat should belong to the priest. That is what the priests should have done for all the Israelites that came to offer sacrifices, at Shiloh.

<sup>15</sup>But Eli's sons did not do that. Even before the fat was burned on the altar, their servants would go to the people offering sacrifices. The priest's servant would say,
 "Give the priest some meat to roast. The priest won't accept boiled meat from you."

<sup>16</sup>Maybe the man offering the sacrifice would say, "Burn the fat* first, and then you can take anything you want." If that happened, the priest's servant would answer: "No, give me the meat now. If you don't give it to me, I'll take it from you!"

<sup>17</sup>In this way, Hophni and Phinehas showed that they did not respect the offerings made to the Lord. This was a very bad sin!

<sup>18</sup>But Samuel served the Lord. Samuel wore a special linen apron. <sup>19</sup>Every year Samuel's mother made a little robe for Samuel. She took the little robe to Samuel when she went up to Shiloh, with her husband for the sacrifice every year.

Burn the fat The fat was the part of the animal that belonged only to God. The priests were supposed to burn the fat on the altar as a gift to God.

<sup>20</sup>Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife. Eli said, "May the Lord repay you with children through Hannah. These children will take the place of the boy Hannah prayed for, and gave to the Lord."

Then Elkanah and Hannah went home, and <sup>21</sup>the Lord was kind to Hannah. She had three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew up near the Lord.

Eli Fails to Control His Evil Sons

<sup>22</sup>Eli was very old. He heard again and again about the things his sons were doing to all the Israelites at Shiloh. Eli also heard about his sons sleeping with the women who served at the door of the Meeting Tent.

<sup>23</sup>Eli said to his sons, "The people here told me about the bad things you have done. Why do you do these bad things? <sup>24</sup>Sons, don't do these bad things. The Lord's people are saying bad things about you. <sup>25</sup>If a person sins against another person, God may help him. But if a person sins against the Lord, then who can help that person?"

But Eli's sons refused to listen to Eli. So the Lord decided to kill Eli's sons.

<sup>26</sup>The boy Samuel kept growing. He pleased God and the people.

The Terrible Prophecy About Eli's Family

<sup>27</sup>A man of God came to Eli. The man of God said, "The Lord says these things, 'Your ancestors* were slaves of Pharaoh's family. But I appeared to your ancestors* at that time. <sup>28</sup>I chose your family group from all the family groups of Israel. I chose your family group to be my priests. I chose them to offer sacrifices on my altar. I chose them to burn incense* and wear the Ephod.* I also let your family group have the meat from the sacrifices that the people of Israel give to me. <sup>29</sup>So why don't you respect those sacrifices and gifts. You honor your sons more than me. You become fat on the best parts of the meat—and the people of Israel bring that meat to me.'

<sup>30</sup>"The Lord God of Israel promised that your father's family would serve him forever. But now the Lord says this, 'That will never be! I will honor people that honor me. But bad things will happen to people that refuse to respect me. <sup>31</sup>The time is coming when I will destroy all your descendants.* No one in your family will live to be an old man. <sup>32</sup>Good things will happen to Israel, but you will see bad things happening at home.* No one in your family will live to be an old man. <sup>33</sup>There will be one man that I will save to serve [as priest] at my altar. He will live to be very old. He will live until his eyes wear out and his strength is gone. The rest of your descendants* will die by the sword. <sup>34</sup>I will give you a sign [to show these things will come true]. Your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will die on the same day. <sup>35</sup>I will choose a faithful priest for myself. This priest will listen to me and do what I want. I will make this priest's family strong. He will always serve before my chosen king.* <sup>36</sup>Then all the people who are left in your family will come and bow down before this priest. These people will beg for a little money or a piece of bread. They will say, "Please give me a job as priest so I can have food to eat."'"

God Calls Samuel

3 The boy Samuel served the Lord under Eli. At that time, the Lord did not speak directly to people very often. There were very few visions.*

<sup>1</sup>Eli's eyes were so weak he was almost blind. One night he lay down in bed. <sup>2</sup>Samuel

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

but ... home This phrase is not in the ancient Greek translation or the Hebrew scrolls from Qumran.

chosen king Literally, "anointed one."

visions Like dreams. God gave messages to his people by letting them see and hear things in visions.

ancestors Literally, "father's house." This means the people that a person is descended from.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Ephod A special coat worn by the priests.

lay in bed in the Lord's Holy Building.* God's Holy Box* was in that Holy Building. The Lord's lamp was still burning. The Lord called Samuel. Samuel answered, "Here I am."<sup>5</sup> Samuel thought Eli was calling him. So, Samuel ran to Eli. Samuel said to Eli, "Here I am. You called me."

But Eli said, "I didn't call you. Go back to bed."

Samuel went back to bed. <sup>6</sup>Again the Lord called, "Samuel!" Again Samuel ran to Eli. Samuel said, "Here I am. You called me."

Eli said, "I didn't call you. Go back to bed."

<sup>7</sup>Samuel did not yet know the Lord. The Lord had not spoken directly to him yet.*

<sup>8</sup>The Lord called Samuel the third time. Again Samuel got up and went to Eli. Samuel said, "Here I am. You called me."

Then Eli understood that the Lord was calling the boy. <sup>9</sup>Eli told Samuel, "Go to bed. If he calls you again, say, 'Speak, Lord. I am your servant, and I am listening.'"

So Samuel went back to bed. <sup>10</sup>The Lord came and stood there. He called as he did before. He said, "Samuel, Samuel!"

Samuel said, "Speak. I am your servant, and I am listening."

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to Samuel, "I will soon do something in Israel. This thing will shock people who hear about it. <sup>12</sup>I will do everything I said I would do against Eli and his family. I will do everything from the beginning to the end. <sup>13</sup>I told Eli I would punish his family forever. I will do this because Eli knew that his sons said and did bad things against God. And Eli failed to control them. <sup>14</sup>That is why I promised Eli's family that sacrifices and grain offering will never take away their sins."

<sup>15</sup>Samuel lay down in bed until the morning came. He got up early and opened the doors of the Lord's house. Samuel was afraid to tell Eli about the vision.*

<sup>16</sup>But Eli said to Samuel, "Samuel, my son!"

Samuel answered, "Yes, sir."

<sup>17</sup>Eli asked, "What did the Lord say to you? Don't hide it from me. God will punish you if you hide anything from the message God spoke to you."

Eli said, "He is the Lord. Let him do what he thinks is good."

<sup>19</sup>The Lord was with Samuel while he grew up. The Lord did not let any of Samuel's messages prove false. <sup>20</sup>Then all Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, knew Samuel was a true prophet of the Lord. <sup>21</sup>And the Lord continued to appear to Samuel at Shiloh. The Lord revealed himself to Samuel as the word of the Lord.*

4 News about Samuel spread through all of Israel. Eli was very old. His sons kept doing bad things before the Lord.*

The Philistines Defeat the Israelites

At that time, the Philistines gathered for war against Israel. The Israelites went out to fight against the Philistines. The Israelites made their camp at Ebenezer. The Philistines made their camp at Aphek. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines prepared to attack Israel. The battle began.

The Philistines defeated the Israelites. The Philistines killed about 4,000 soldiers from Israel's army. <sup>3</sup>The Israelite soldiers came back to their camp. The elders (leaders) of Israel asked, "Why did the Lord let the Philistines defeat us? Let's bring the Lord's Box of the Agreement* from Shiloh. In this way, God will go with us into battle. He will save us

word ... Lord Sometimes this means simply, "a message from God." But sometimes it seems that this means a special way or form that God used when he spoke with his prophets.

Eli ... Lord This phrase is in the ancient Greek translation, but not in the Hebrew.

Box of the Agreement Or, "ark of the Coveoant," the box containing the flat stooes with the Ten Commandments written oo them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

Holy Building This could mean the Holy Tent at Shiloh where people went to worship the Lord, or a larger building where they put the Holy Tent.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement, the box cootainig the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them.

The ... yet Literally, "The word of the Lord had oot yet been revealed to him."

from our enemies.”

“So the people sent men to Shiloh. The men brought back the Lord All-Powerful’s Box of the Agreement.* On top of the Box are the Cherub angels. And they are like the throne that the Lord sits on. Eli’s two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, came with the Box.

“When the Lord’s Box of the Agreement* came into the camp, all the Israelites gave a great shout. That shout made the ground shake. “The Philistines heard Israel’s shout. They asked, “Why all this shouting in the Hebrew* camp?”

Then the Philistines learned that the Lord’s Holy Box* was brought to Israel’s camp. “The Philistines became afraid. The Philistines said, “Gods have come to their camp! We’re in trouble. This has never happened before! “We are worried. Who can save us from these powerful gods? These gods are the same gods that gave the Egyptians those diseases and terrible sicknesses. “Be brave, Philistines! Fight like men! In the past, the Hebrew people were our slaves. So fight like men or you will become their slaves!”

“The Philistines fought hard and defeated the Israelites. Every Israelite soldier ran away to his tent. It was a terrible defeat for Israel. 30,000 Israelite soldiers were killed. “The Philistines took God’s Holy Box.* And they killed Eli’s two sons, Hophni and Phinehas.

“That day a man from the family group of Benjamin ran from the battle. He tore his clothes and put dust on his head to show his great sadness. “Eli was sitting on a chair when this man came to Shiloh. Eli was on a chair near the city gates. He was worried about God’s Holy Box,* so he was sitting there watching. Then the Benjamite man entered Shiloh and told the bad news. All the people in town cried loudly. “Eli was 98 years old and blind. Eli heard the sound of the crying. Eli asked, “Why all this loud noise?”

Box of the Agreement Or, “ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

Hebrew Or, “Israelite.”

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement.

The Benjamite man ran to Eli and told him what happened. “The Benjamite man told Eli, “I ran away from the battle today.”

Eli asked, “What happened, son?”

“The Benjamite man answered, “Israel ran away from the Philistines. The Israelite army has lost many soldiers. Your two sons are both dead. And the Philistines took God’s Holy Box.*”

“When the Benjamite man mentioned God’s Holy Box,* Eli fell backward off his chair near the gate and broke his neck. Eli was old and fat, so he died. Eli had led Israel for 20 years.*

The Glory Is Gone

“Eli’s daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant. It was nearly time for her baby to be born. She heard the news that God’s Holy Box* was taken. She also heard that Eli, her father-in-law, and Phinehas, her husband, were both dead. As soon as she heard the news, her pain started. And she began giving birth to her baby. “The women who were helping her said, “Don’t worry! You have given birth to a son.”

But Eli’s daughter-in-law did not answer or pay attention. Eli’s daughter-in-law said, “Israel’s glory is gone!”* So she named the baby Ichabod.* And then she died. “She named her baby Ichabod because God’s Holy Box* was taken and because both her father-in-law and husband were dead. “She said, “Israel’s glory is gone.” She said that because the Philistines took God’s Holy Box.

God’s Holy Box Causes Trouble

5 After the Philistines had taken God’s Holy Box,* they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. “The Philistines carried God’s Holy

20 years This is from the ancient Greek translation and Josephus. The standard Hebrew text has “40 years.”

Eli’s ... gone This phrase is not in the ancient Greek translation.

Ichabod This name means “No glory!”

Box into Dagon's* temple. They put God's Holy Box next to Dagon. <sup>3</sup>The people of Ashdod got up the next morning. They found Dagon lying on his face. Dagon had fallen down before the Lord's Box.

The people of Ashdod put the statue of Dagon* back into its place. <sup>4</sup>But the next morning, when the people of Ashdod got up, they found Dagon on the ground again! Dagon had fallen down before the Lord's Holy Box.* Dagon's head and hands were broken off and lying on the threshold.* Only Dagon's body was still in one piece. <sup>5</sup>That is why, even today, Dagon's priests or other people who enter Dagon's Temple at Ashdod refuse to walk on the threshold.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord made life hard for the people of Ashdod and their neighbors. The Lord gave them much trouble. He caused them to get tumors.* The Lord also sent mice to them. The mice ran all over their ships and their land. The people in the city were very afraid. <sup>7</sup>The people of Ashdod saw what was happening. They said, "The Holy Box* of the God of Israel can't stay here! God is punishing us and Dagon* our god."

<sup>8</sup>The people of Ashdod called the five Philistine rulers together. The people of Ashdod asked the rulers, "What must we do with the Holy Box* of the God of Israel?"

The rulers answered, "Move the Holy Box* of the God of Israel to Gath." So the Philistines moved God's Holy Box.

<sup>9</sup>But after the Philistines had moved God's Holy Box* to Gath, the Lord punished that city. The people became very scared. God caused many troubles for all the people—young and old. God caused the people in Gath to have tumors.* <sup>10</sup>So the Philistines sent God's Holy Box to Ekron.

Dagon The Canaanite people worshiped this false god hoping he would give them a good harvest of grain. This was probably the most important god for the Philistine people.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement, the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

threshold The floor where a door opens.

tumors Bad growths on the skin.

But when God's Holy Box* came into Ekron, the people of Ekron complained. They said, "Why are you bringing the Box of the God of Israel to our city Ekron? Do you want to kill us and our people?" <sup>11</sup>The people of Ekron called all the Philistine rulers together. The people of Ekron said to the rulers, "Send the Box of the God of Israel back to its place before it kills us and our people!"

The people of Ekron were very scared! God made life very hard for them in that place. <sup>12</sup>Many people died. And the people that did not die, had tumors.* The people of Ekron cried loudly to heaven.

God's Holy Box Is Sent Back Home

6 The Philistines kept the Holy Box* in their land seven months. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines called their priests and magicians. The Philistines said, "What must we do with the Lord's Box? Tell us how to send the Box back home!"

<sup>3</sup>The priests and magicians answered, "If you send back the Holy Box* of the God of Israel, don't send it away empty. You must offer gifts so the God of Israel will take away your sins. Then you will be healed. You will be made pure. You should do these things so God will stop punishing you.*"

<sup>4</sup>The Philistines asked, "What kind of gifts should we send for Israel's God to forgive us?"

The priests and magicians answered, "There are five Philistine leaders. One leader for each city. All of you people and your leaders had the same problems. So you must make five gold models to look like five tumors. And you must make five gold models to look like five mice. <sup>5</sup>So, make models of the tumors. And make models of the mice that are ruining the country. Give these gold models to the God of Israel as payment. Then maybe the God of Israel will stop punishing you, your gods, and your land. <sup>6</sup>Don't be stubborn like Pharaoh and the Egyptians. God punished the Egyptians.

You should do ... punishing you This is from the ancient Greek translation and one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran. The standard Hebrew has "Then you will know why God did not stop punishing you."

That is why the Egyptians let the Israelites leave Egypt.

<sup>7</sup>"You must build a new wagon and get two cows that just had calves. These must be cows that never have worked in the fields. Tie the cows to the wagon and take the calves back home. Put the calves in their pen. Don't let them follow their mothers.* <sup>8</sup>Put the Lord's Holy Box* on the wagon. You must put the golden models in the bag beside the Box. The golden models are your gifts for God to forgive your sins. Send the wagon straight on its way. <sup>9</sup>Watch the wagon. If the wagon goes toward Beth Shemesh in Israel's own land, then the Lord has given us this great sickness. But if the cows don't go to Beth Shemesh, then we know Israel's God has not punished us. We will know our sickness just happened.

<sup>10</sup>The Philistines did what the priests and magicians said. The Philistines took two cows that had just had calves. The Philistines tied the cows to the wagon. The Philistines kept the calves at home in pens. <sup>11</sup>Then the Philistines put the Lord's Holy Box* on the wagon. They also put the bag with the golden models of the tumors and mice on the wagon. <sup>12</sup>The cows went straight to Beth Shemesh. The cows stayed on the road, mooing all the way. The cows did not turn right or left. The Philistine rulers followed the cows as far as the city limits of Beth Shemesh.

<sup>13</sup>The people of Beth Shemesh were harvesting their wheat in the valley. They looked up and saw the Holy Box.* They were very happy to see the Box again. They ran to get it. <sup>14</sup><sup>15</sup>The wagon came to the field that belonged to Joshua of Beth Shemesh. In this field the wagon stopped near a large rock. The people of Beth Shemesh cut up the wagon. Then they killed the cows. They sacrificed the cows to the Lord.

Don't ... their mothers The Philistines thought that if the cows did not try to find their calves but went straight to Beth Shemesh, then this would prove that God was leading them. This would show God accepted the gifts.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement, the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

The Levites* took down the Lord's Holy Box.* They also took down the bag that had the golden models. The Levites put the Lord's Box and the bag on the large rock. That day the people of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings to the Lord.

<sup>16</sup>The five Philistine rulers watched the people of Beth Shemesh do all these things. Then the five Philistine rulers went back to Ekron that same day.

<sup>17</sup>In this way, the Philistines sent golden models of tumors as gifts for their sins to the Lord. They sent one golden model of a tumor for each Philistine town. These Philistine towns were Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. <sup>18</sup>And the Philistines also sent golden models of mice. The number of these golden mice was the same number as the towns that belonged to the five Philistine rulers. These towns had walls around them. And each town had villages around it.

The people of Beth Shemesh put the Lord's Holy Box* on a rock. That rock is still in the field of Joshua from Beth Shemesh. <sup>19</sup>But there were no priests there when the men of Beth Shemesh saw the Holy Box of the Lord. So God killed 70 men from Beth Shemesh. The people of Beth Shemesh cried because the Lord punished them so severely. <sup>20</sup>So the people of Beth Shemesh said, "Where is a priest that can care for this Holy Box? Where should the Box go from here?"

<sup>21</sup>There was a priest at Kiriath Jearim. The people of Beth Shemesh sent messengers to the people of Kiriath Jearim. The messengers said, "The Philistines have brought back the Lord's Holy Box.* Come down and take it to your city."

7 The men of Kiriath Jearim came and took the Lord's Holy Box.* They took the Lord's Box to Abinadab's house on the hill. They did a special ceremony to prepare Abinadab's son, Eleazar, to guard the Lord's Box. <sup>2</sup>The Box stayed at Kiriath Jearim a long time. It stayed there 20 years.

Levites People from the family group of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

The Lord Saves the Israelites

The people of Israel began to follow the Lord again. <sup>3</sup>Samuel told the people of Israel, "If you are really coming back to the Lord—with all your heart—then you must throw away your foreign gods. You must throw away your idols of Astarte.* And you must give yourselves fully to the Lord. You must serve only the Lord! Then the Lord will save you from the Philistines."

<sup>4</sup>So the Israelites threw away their statues of Baal* and Astarte.* The Israelites served only the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>Samuel said, "All Israel must meet at Mizpah. I will pray to the Lord for you."

<sup>6</sup>The Israelites met together at Mizpah. They got water and poured it out before the Lord. In this way, they began a time of fasting. They did not eat any food that day and they confessed their sins. They said, "We have sinned against the Lord." So Samuel served as a judge of Israel at Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup>The Philistines heard that the Israelites were meeting at Mizpah. The Philistine rulers went to fight against the Israelites. The Israelites heard the Philistines were coming, and they became afraid. <sup>8</sup>The Israelites said to Samuel, "Don't stop praying to the Lord our God for us! Ask the Lord to save us from the Philistines!"

<sup>9</sup>Samuel took a baby lamb. He burned the lamb as a whole burnt offering to the Lord. Samuel prayed to the Lord for Israel. The Lord answered Samuel's prayer. <sup>10</sup>While Samuel was burning the sacrifice, the Philistines came to fight Israel. But the Lord caused loud thunder near the Philistines. This confused the Philistines. The thunder scared the Philistines, and they became confused. Their leaders were not able to control them. So the Israelites defeated the Philistines in battle. <sup>11</sup>The men of Israel ran out of Mizpah and chased the Philistines. They chased them all the way to Beth Car. They killed Philistine soldiers all along the way.

Peace Comes to Israel

<sup>12</sup>After this, Samuel set up a special stone. He did this to help people remember the things God did. Samuel put the stone between Mizpah and Shen. Samuel named the stone "Stone of Help."* Samuel said, "The Lord helped us all the way to this place!"

<sup>13</sup>The Philistines were defeated. They did not enter the land of Israel again. The Lord was against the Philistines during the rest of Samuel's life. <sup>14</sup>The Philistines had taken towns from Israel. The Philistines took the towns in the area from Ekron to Gath. But the Israelites won back those towns. And Israel also took back the land around these towns.

There was also peace between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>15</sup>Samuel led Israel all his life. <sup>16</sup>Samuel went from place to place judging the people of Israel. Every year he traveled around the country. He went to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah. So he judged and ruled the people of Israel in all these places. <sup>17</sup>But Samuel's home was in Ramah. So Samuel always went back to Ramah. Samuel judged and ruled Israel from that town. And Samuel built an altar to the Lord in Ramah.

Israel Asks for a King

8 When Samuel became old, he made his sons judges* for Israel. <sup>2</sup>Samuel's first son was named Joel. His second son was named Abijah. Joel and Abijah were judges in Beersheba. <sup>3</sup>But Samuel's sons did not live the same way he did. Joel and Abijah accepted bribes. They took money secretly and changed their decisions in court. They cheated people in court. <sup>4</sup>So all the elders (leaders) of Israel met together. They went to Ramah to meet with

Astarte The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Stone of Help Or, "Ebenezer."

judge(s) Special people that had the work of leading, judging, and protecting the people of Israel. This was before there were kings in Israel.

Samuel. <sup>5</sup>The elders (leaders) said to Samuel, "You're old, and your sons don't live right. They are not like you. Now, give us a king to rule us like all the other nations."

<sup>6</sup>So, the elders (leaders) asked for a king to lead them. Samuel thought this was a bad idea. So Samuel prayed to the Lord. <sup>7</sup>The Lord told Samuel, "Do what the people tell you. They have not rejected you. They have rejected me! They don't want me to be their king! <sup>8</sup>They are doing the same thing they have always done. I took them out of Egypt. But they left me and served other gods. They are doing the same to you. <sup>9</sup>So listen to the people and do what they say. But give them a warning. Tell the people what a king will do to them! Tell them how a king rules people."

<sup>10</sup>Those people asked for a king. So Samuel told those people everything the Lord said. <sup>11</sup>Samuel said, "If you have a king ruling over you, this is what he will do: He will take away your sons. He will force your sons to serve him. He will force them to be soldiers—they must fight from his chariots and become horse soldiers in his army. Your sons will become guards running in front of the king's chariot. <sup>12</sup>A king will force your sons to become soldiers. Some of them will become officers over 1,000 men. And others will become officers over 50 men. A king will force some of your sons to plow his fields and gather his harvest. He will force some of your sons to make weapons for war. He will force them to make things for his chariots!

<sup>13</sup>"A king will take your daughters. He will force some of your daughters to make perfume for him. And he will force some of your daughters to cook and bake for him.

<sup>14</sup>"A king will take your best fields, vineyards, and olive groves. He will take those things from you and give them to his officers. <sup>15</sup>He will take one-tenth of your grain and grapes. He will give these things to his officers and servants. <sup>16</sup>This king will take your men and women servants. He will take your best cattle and your donkeys. He will use them all for his own work. <sup>17</sup>And he will take one-tenth of your flocks.

"And you yourselves will become slaves of this king. <sup>18</sup>When that time comes, you will cry because of the king you chose. But the Lord will not answer you at that time."

<sup>19</sup>But the people would not listen to Samuel. They said, "No! We want a king to rule over us. <sup>20</sup>Then we will be the same as all the other nations. Our king will lead us. He will go with us and fight our battles."

<sup>21</sup>After Samuel heard all that the people said, he repeated their words to the Lord. <sup>22</sup>The Lord answered, "Listen to them! Give them a king."

Then Samuel told the people of Israel, "Alright! You will have a new king. Now, all of you people go back home."

Saul Looks for His Father's Donkeys

9 Kish was an important man from the family group of Benjamin. Kish was the son of Abiel. Abiel was the son of Zeror. Zeror was the son of Becorath. Becorath was the son of Aphiah, a man from Benjamin.

<sup>2</sup>Kish had a son named Saul. Saul was a handsome young man. There was no one more handsome than Saul. Saul stood a head taller than any other man in Israel.

<sup>3</sup>One day, Kish's donkey became lost. So Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the servants and go look for the donkeys." "Saul began looking for the donkeys. Saul walked through the hills of Ephraim. Then Saul walked through the area around Shalisha. But Saul and the servant could not find Kish's donkeys. So Saul and the servant went to the area around Shaalim. But the donkeys were not there either. So Saul traveled through the land of Benjamin. But he and the servant still could not find the donkeys.

<sup>4</sup>Finally, Saul and the servant came to the town named Zuph. Saul said to his servant, "Let's go back. My father will stop thinking about the donkeys and start worrying about us."

<sup>5</sup>But the servant answered, "A man of God is in this town. People respect him. All the things he says come true. So let's go into this town. Maybe this man of God will tell us where we should go next."

<sup>7</sup>Saul said to his servant, "We can go into town. But what can we give the man? The food in our bags is gone. We have no gift to give the man of God. What do we have to give him?"

<sup>8</sup>Again the servant answered Saul. "Look, I have a little bit of money.* Let's give it to the man of God. Then he will tell us where we should go."

<sup>9</sup>"Saul said to his servant, "Good idea! Let's go!" They went to the town where the man of God was.

Saul and the servant were walking up the hill to the town. On the way they met some young women. The young women were coming out to get water. Saul and the servant asked the young women, "Is the seer here?" (In the past, people in Israel called a prophet a "seer." So if they wanted to ask something from God, they would say, "Let's go to the seer.")

<sup>12</sup>The young women answered, "Yes, the seer* is here. He is just up the road. He came to town today. Some people are meeting together today to share in a fellowship offering at the place for worship.* <sup>13</sup>Go into town and you will find him. If you hurry, you can find him before he goes up to eat at the place for worship. The seer* blesses the sacrifice. So the people will not begin eating until he gets there. So, if you hurry, you can find the seer."

<sup>14</sup>Saul and the servant started walking up the hill to town. Just as they entered the town, they saw Samuel walking toward them. Samuel was just coming out of town on his way to the place for worship.*

<sup>15</sup>The day before, the Lord had told Samuel, <sup>16</sup>"Tomorrow at about this same time I will send a man to you. He will be from the family group of Benjamin. You must anoint* him. Then he will become the new leader over my people Israel. This man will save my people from the Philistines. I have seen the suffering of my people. I have listened to the cries from my people."

<sup>17</sup>Samuel saw Saul and the Lord said to him, "This is the man I told you about. He will control my people."

<sup>18</sup>Saul came to Samuel near the gate. Saul asked Samuel, "Please tell me, where is the seer's* house."

<sup>19</sup>Samuel answered, "I am the seer.* Go ahead of me to the place for worship.* You and your servant will eat with me today. I will let you go home tomorrow morning. I will answer all your questions. <sup>20</sup>And don't worry about the donkeys that you lost three days ago. They have been found. Now, all of Israel wants you. They want you and all of the people in your father's family."

<sup>21</sup>Saul answered, "But I am a member of the family group of Benjamin. It is the smallest family group in Israel. And my family is the smallest in the family group of Benjamin. Why do you say Israel wants me?"

<sup>22</sup>Then Samuel took Saul and his servant to the eating area. About 30 people had been invited to eat together and share the sacrifice. Samuel gave Saul and his servant the most important place at the table. <sup>23</sup>Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the meat I gave you. It is the share I told you to save."

<sup>24</sup>The cook took the thigh* and put it on the table in front of Saul. Samuel said, "This is the meat I saved for you. Eat it because it was saved for you for this special time." So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>25</sup>After they finished eating, they came down from the place for worship* and went back to town. Samuel made a bed for Saul on the roof* and Saul slept. <sup>26</sup>Early the next morning, Samuel shouted to Saul on the roof. Samuel said, "Get up. I will send you on your way." Saul got up, and then he went out of the house with Samuel. <sup>27</sup>Saul, his servant, and a little bit of money Literally, "1/10 shekel of silver."

This was about 1/10 ounce of silver.

seer Another name for a prophet. This shows prophets often saw their message from God in some special way.

place for worship Literally, "high place."

anoint To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

thigh This was probably the left thigh that was reserved for important guests. The right thigh was reserved for the priest that sacrificed the animal. This priest helped kill the animal and put the fat from the animal on the altar as a gift to God.

roof In Israel the roofs were flat, and people used them to store things.

<sup>1</sup>The cook took the thigh* and put it on the table in front of Saul. Samuel said, "This is the meat I saved for you. Eat it because it was saved for you for this special time." So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>2</sup>After they finished eating, they came down from the place for worship* and went back to town. Samuel made a bed for Saul on the roof* and Saul slept. <sup>3</sup>Early the next morning, Samuel shouted to Saul on the roof. Samuel said, "Get up. I will send you on your way." Saul got up, and then he went out of the house with Samuel. <sup>4</sup>Saul, his servant, and Samuel were walking together near the edge of town. Samuel said to Saul, "Tell your servant to go on ahead of us. I have a message for you from God." So the servant walked ahead of them.

Samuel Anoints Saul

10 Samuel took a jar of the special oil. Samuel poured the oil on Saul's head. Samuel kissed Saul and said, "The Lord has anointed (chosen) you to be the leader over the people that belong to him. You will control the Lord's people. You will save them from the enemies that are all around them. The Lord has anointed (chosen) you to be ruler over his people. Here is a sign that will prove this is true:* <sup>2</sup>After you leave me today, you will meet two men near Rachel's tomb on the border of Benjamin at Zelzah. The two men will say to you, "Someone found the donkeys you were looking for. Your father stopped worrying about his donkeys. Now he is worrying about you. He is saying: What will I do about my son?"

<sup>3</sup>Samuel said, "Then you will go until you come to the large oak tree at Tabor. Three men

roof In Israel the roofs were flat, and people used them to store things.

will meet you there. Those three men will be on their way to worship God at Bethel. One man will be carrying three young goats. The second man will be carrying three loaves of bread. And the third man will have a bottle of wine. <sup>4</sup>These three men will say 'Hello' to you. They will offer you two loaves of bread. You will accept those two loaves of bread from them. <sup>5</sup>"Then you will go to Gibeath-Elohim. There is a Philistine fort in that place. When you come to this town, a group of prophets will come out. These prophets will come down from the place for worship.* They will be prophesying.* They will be playing harps, tambourines, flutes, and lyres. <sup>6</sup>Then Lord's Spirit will come on you with great power. You will be changed. You will be a different man. You will begin to prophesy with these prophets. <sup>7</sup>After these things happen, then do whatever you choose to do. God will be with you.

<sup>8</sup>"Go before me to Gilgal. I will come to you in that place. Then I will offer burnt offering and fellowship offerings. But you must wait seven days. Then I will come to you and tell you what to do."

Saul Becomes Like the Prophets

<sup>9</sup>Just as Saul turned to leave Samuel, God turned Saul's life around. All those things happened that day. <sup>10</sup>Saul and his servant went to Gibeath-Elohim. At that place, Saul met a group of prophets. God's Spirit came on Saul with great power, and Saul prophesied with the prophets. <sup>11</sup>People who knew Saul before saw him prophesying* with the prophets. These people asked each other, "What has happened to Kish's son? Is Saul also one of the prophets?"

<sup>12</sup>A man living in Gibeath-Elohim said "Yes! And it seems that he is their leader!" That is why this became a famous saying: "Is Saul also one of the prophets?"

prophesying Usually, this means "speaking for God." But here this probably means that some power took control of that person.

Yes! ... leader! Literally, "And who is their father?" Often the man that taught and led other prophets was called "father."

Samuel Announces Saul as King

<sup>17</sup>Samuel told all the people of Israel to meet together with the Lord at Mizpah. <sup>18</sup>Samuel said, "The Lord, the God of Israel says, 'I led Israel out of Egypt. I saved you from Egypt's control and from other kingdoms that tried to hurt you.' <sup>19</sup>But today you have rejected your God. Your God saves you from all your troubles and problems. But you said, 'No, we want a king to rule us.' Now come, stand before the Lord in your families and family groups."

<sup>20</sup>Samuel brought all the family groups of Israel near. Then Samuel began to choose the new king. First, the family group of Benjamin was chosen. <sup>21</sup>Samuel told each family in the family group of Benjamin to pass by. Matri's family was chosen. Then Samuel told each man in Matri's family to walk by. Saul son of Kish was chosen.

But when the people looked for Saul, they could not find him. <sup>22</sup>Then they asked the Lord, "Has Saul come here yet?"

The Lord said, "Saul is hiding behind the supplies."

<sup>23</sup>The people ran and took Saul out from behind the supplies. Saul stood up among the people. Saul was a head taller than any other person.

<sup>24</sup>Samuel said to all the people, "See the man the Lord has chosen. There is no person like Saul among the people."

Then the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

<sup>25</sup>Samuel explained the rules of the kingdom to the people. He wrote the rules in a book. He put the book before the Lord. Then Samuel told the people to go home.

<sup>26</sup>Saul also went to his home in Gibeah. God touched the hearts of brave men, and these brave men began to follow Saul. <sup>27</sup>But some troublemakers said, "How can this man save us?" They said bad things about Saul and refused to bring gifts to him. But Saul said nothing.

Nahash, King of the Ammonites

Nahash, the king of the Ammonites, had been hurting the family groups of Gad and Reuben. Nahash poked out the right eye of each of the men. Nahash did not allow anyone to help them. Nahash king of the Ammonites poked out the right eye of every Israelite man living in the area east of the Jordan River. But 7,000 Israelite men ran away from the Ammonites and came to Jabesh Gilead.*

11 About a month later, Nahash the Ammonite and his army surrounded Jabesh Gilead. All the people of Jabesh said to Nahash, "If you will make a treaty with us, we will serve you."

<sup>2</sup>But Nahash the Ammonite answered, "I will make a treaty with you people only if I can poke out the right eye of each person. Then all Israel will be ashamed!"

<sup>3</sup>The leaders of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Let us have seven days. We will send messengers through all Israel. If no one comes to help us, we will come up to you and surrender to you."

Saul Saves Jabesh Gilead

<sup>4</sup>The messengers came to Gibeah where Saul lived. They told the news to the people. The people cried loudly. <sup>5</sup>Saul had been out in the field with his cows. Saul came in from the field and heard the people crying. Saul asked, "What's wrong with the people? Why are they crying?"

Then the people told Saul what the messengers from Jabesh said. <sup>6</sup>Saul heard their story. Then God's Spirit came on Saul with great power. Saul became very angry. <sup>7</sup>Saul took a pair of cows and cut them in pieces. Then he gave the pieces of those cows to messengers. He ordered the messengers to carry the pieces through all the land of Israel. He told them to give this message to the people of Israel: "Come follow Saul and Samuel. If any person does not come and help them, then Nahash ... Gilead This part is not in the standard Hebrew text, but is found in some ancient translations and in one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran.

this same thing will happen to his cows!"

A great fear from the Lord came on the people. They all came together like one person. <sup>8</sup>Saul gathered the men together at Bezek. There were 300,000 men from Israel and 30,000 men from Judah.

<sup>9</sup>Saul and his army told the messengers from Jabesh, "Tell the people at Jabesh in Gilead that by noon tomorrow, you will be saved."

The messengers told Saul's message to the people at Jabesh. The people at Jabesh were very happy. <sup>10</sup>Then the people of Jabesh said to Nahash the Ammonite, "Tomorrow we will come to you. Then you can do anything you want to us."

<sup>11</sup>The next morning Saul separated his soldiers into three groups. At sunrise, Saul and his soldiers entered the Ammonite camp. Saul attacked while they were changing guards that morning. Saul and his soldiers defeated the Ammonites before noon. The Ammonite soldiers all ran away in different directions—no two soldiers stayed together.

<sup>12</sup>Then the people said to Samuel, "Where are the people that said they didn't want Saul to rule as king? Bring those people and we will kill them!"

<sup>13</sup>But Saul said, "No! Don't kill anyone today! The Lord saved Israel today!"

<sup>14</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let's go to Gilgal. At Gilgal we will again make Saul the king."

<sup>15</sup>All the people went to Gilgal. There, before the Lord, the people made Saul king. They offered fellowship offerings to the Lord. Saul and all the Israelites had a great celebration.

Samuel Talks to the Israelites

12 Samuel said to all Israel: "I have done everything you wanted me to do. I have put a king over you. <sup>2</sup>Now you have a king to lead you. I am old and gray. My sons are with you. I have been your leader since I was young boy. <sup>3</sup>Here I am. If I have done anything wrong, you must tell those things to the Lord and his chosen king. Did I steal anyone's cow or donkey? Did I hurt or cheat anyone? Did I ever take money, or even a pair of shoes, to do something wrong? If I did any of these things, then I will make it right."

<sup>4</sup>The Israelites answered, "No! You never did anything bad to us. You never cheated us or took things from us!"

<sup>5</sup>Samuel said to the Israelites, "The Lord is witness to what you said. The Lord's chosen king is also witness today. They are both witnesses that you did not find wrong in me." The people answered, "Yes! The Lord is witness!"

<sup>6</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, "The Lord is witness. He chose Moses and Aaron. He brought your ancestors* out of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>Now, stand there and I will tell you about the good things the Lord did for you and your ancestors. <sup>8</sup>Jacob went to Egypt. Later, the Egyptians made life hard for his descendants.* So they cried to the Lord for help. The Lord sent Moses and Aaron. Moses and Aaron took your ancestors out of Egypt and led them to live in this place.

<sup>9</sup>"But your ancestors* forgot the Lord their God. So the Lord let them become the slaves of Sisera. Sisera was the commander of the army at Hazor. Then the Lord let them become the slaves of the Philistines and the king of Moab. They all fought against your ancestors. <sup>10</sup>But your ancestors cried to the Lord for help. They said, 'We have sinned. We left the Lord, and we served the false gods Baal* and Astarte.*' But now save us from our enemies, and we will serve you."

ancestors Literally, "fathers," meaning a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Astarte The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love.

You said, 'No! We want a king to rule over us!' You said that, even though the Lord your God was already your king! <sup>13</sup>Now, here is the king you chose. The Lord put this king over you. <sup>14</sup>The Lord your God will continue to save you. But God will save you only if you do these things: You must honor the Lord and serve him. You must not fight against his commands. And you and the king ruling over you must follow the Lord your God. If you do those things, then God will save you. <sup>15</sup>But if you don't obey the Lord and if you fight against his commands, then he will be against you. The Lord will destroy you and your king!

<sup>16</sup>"Now stand still and see the great thing the Lord will do before your eyes. <sup>17</sup>Now is the time of the wheat harvest.* I will pray to the Lord. I will ask him to send thunder and rain. Then you will know you did a very bad thing against the Lord when you asked for a king."

<sup>18</sup>So Samuel prayed to the Lord. That same day the Lord sent thunder and rain. And the people became very afraid of the Lord and Samuel. <sup>19</sup>All the people said to Samuel, "Pray to the Lord your God for us, your servants. Don't let us die! We have sinned many times. And now we have added to those sins—we have asked for a king."

<sup>20</sup>Samuel answered, "Don't be afraid. It is true! You did all those bad things. But don't stop following the Lord. Serve the Lord with all your heart. <sup>21</sup>Idols are only statues—they can't help you! So don't worship them. Idols can't help you or save you. They are nothing!

<sup>22</sup>"But the Lord won't leave his people. No, the Lord was pleased to make you his own people. So, for his own good name, he won't leave you. <sup>23</sup>It would be very wrong for me to stop praying for you. If I stopped praying for you, then I would be sinning against the Lord. I will teach you the way that is good and right. <sup>24</sup>But you must honor the Lord. You must truly serve the Lord with all your heart. Remember the wonderful things he did for you! <sup>25</sup>But if you are stubborn and do evil, then God will throw you and your king away—like sweeping out dirt with a broom."

Saul Makes His First Mistake

13 At that time, Saul had been king one year. After Saul had ruled over Israel two years, <sup>2</sup>he chose 3,000 men from Israel. There were 2,000 men that stayed with him at Micmash in the hill country of Bethel. There were 1,000 men that stayed with Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin. Saul sent the other men in the army back home.

<sup>3</sup>Jonathan defeated the Philistines at their camp in Geba. The Philistines heard about this. They said, "The Hebrews have rebelled."

Saul said, "Let the Hebrew people hear what happened." So Saul told the men to blow trumpets through all the land of Israel. "All the Israelites heard the news. They said, "Saul has killed the Philistine leader. Now the Philistines really hate the Israelites!"

The Israelite people were called to join Saul at Gilgal. <sup>5</sup>The Philistines gathered to fight Israel. The Philistines had 3,000* chariots and 6,000 horse soldiers. There were as many Philistine soldiers as sand on the shore. The Philistines camped at Micmash. (Micmash is east of Beth-Aven.)

<sup>6</sup>The Israelites saw that they were in trouble. They felt trapped. They ran away to hide in caves and cracks in the rock. They hid among the rocks, in wells, and in other holes in the ground. <sup>7</sup>Some Hebrews even went across the Jordan River to the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul was still at Gilgal. All the men in his army were shaking with fear.

<sup>8</sup>Samuel said he would meet Saul at Gilgal. Saul waited there seven days. But Samuel had not yet come to Gilgal, and the soldiers began to leave Saul. <sup>9</sup>So Saul said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings." Then Saul offered the burnt offering. <sup>10</sup>As soon as Saul finished offering that sacrifice, Samuel arrived. Saul went out to meet him.

<sup>11</sup>Samuel asked, "What have you done?"

Now is the time ... harvest This time was a dry time and no rains fell then.

3,000 The Hebrew has, "30,000."

Saul answered, "I saw the soldiers leaving me, and you were not here on time, and the Philistines were gathering at Micmash. <sup>12</sup>I thought to myself, "The Philistines will come here and attack me at Gilgal. And I haven't asked the Lord to help us yet! So I forced myself, and I offered the burnt offering."

<sup>13</sup>Samuel said, "You did a foolish thing! You did not obey the command from the Lord your God! If you had obeyed God's command, then God would have let your family rule Israel forever. <sup>14</sup>But now your kingdom will not continue. The Lord was looking for a man who wanted to obey him! The Lord has found that man—and the Lord will choose him to become the new leader of his people. You didn't obey the Lord's command, so the Lord will choose a new leader." Then Samuel got up and left Gilgal.

The Battle at Micmash

<sup>15</sup>Saul and the rest of his army left Gilgal. They went to Gibeah in Benjamin. Saul counted the men that were still with him. There were about 600 men. <sup>16</sup>Saul, his son Jonathan, and the soldiers went to Geba in Benjamin.

The Philistines were camped at Micmash. <sup>17</sup>The Philistines decided to punish the Israel people living in that area. So their powerful army left that place to begin the attack. The Philistine army split into three groups. One group went north on the road to Ophrah in the area of Shual. <sup>18</sup>The second group went southeast on the road to Beth Horon. And the third group went east on the road to the border. That road looks over the Valley of Zeboim toward the desert.

<sup>19</sup>None of the Israelite people could make things from iron. There weren't any blacksmiths\* in Israel. The Philistines did not teach the Israelites how to make things from iron because the Philistines were afraid the Israelites would make iron swords and spears. <sup>20</sup>Only the Philistines could sharpen iron tools. So if the Israelites needed to sharpen their plows, hoes, axes, or sickles, they had to go to the Philistines. <sup>21</sup>The Philistine blacksmiths charged  $\frac{1}{3}$  ounce\* of silver for sharpening plows and hoes. And they charged  $\frac{1}{6}$  ounce\* of silver for sharpening picks, axes, and the iron tip on oxgoads.\* <sup>22</sup>So, on the day of battle, none of the Israelite soldiers with Saul had iron swords or spears. Only Saul and his son Jonathan had iron weapons.

Jonathan and His Helper Attack the Philistines

14 That day, Saul's son Jonathan was talking with the young man that carried his weapons. Jonathan said, "Let's go to the Philistine camp on the other side of the valley." But Jonathan did not tell his father.

<sup>3</sup>There was a large rock on each side of the pass. Jonathan planned to go through that pass and go to the Philistine camp. The large rock on one side was named Bozez. The large rock on the other side was named Seneh. <sup>4</sup>One large rock stood looking north toward Micmash. The other large rock stood looking south toward Geba.

<sup>5</sup>Jonathan said to his young helper who carried his weapons, "Come, let's go to the:

camp of those foreigners.* Maybe the Lord will use us to defeat these people! Nothing can stop the Lord—It doesn't matter if we have many soldiers or just a few soldiers."

<sup>7</sup>The young man who carried Jonathan's weapons said to him, "Do what you think is best. I am with you all the way."

<sup>8</sup>Jonathan said, "Let's go! We'll cross the valley, and go to those Philistine guards. We'll let them see us. <sup>9</sup>If they say to us, 'Stay there until we come to you,' we will stay where we are. We won't go up to them. <sup>10</sup>But if the Philistine men say, 'Come up to us,' we'll climb up to them. Why? Because that will be a sign from God. That will mean that the Lord will allow us to defeat them."

<sup>11</sup>So Jonathan and his helper let the Philistines see them. The Philistine guards said, "Look! Hebrews are coming out of the holes they were hiding in!" <sup>12</sup>The Philistines in the fort shouted to Jonathan and his helper, "Come up to us. We'll teach you a lesson!"

Jonathan said to his helper, "Follow me up the hill. The Lord has given the Philistines to Israel!"

<sup>13-14</sup>So Jonathan used his hands and feet to climb the hill. His helper climbed just behind him. Jonathan and his helper defeated those Philistines. In the first attack, they killed 20 Philistines in an area about the size of one-half acre. Jonathan fought the men that attacked from the front. And Jonathan's helper came behind him and killed the men that were only wounded.

<sup>15</sup>All the Philistine soldiers became scared—the soldiers in the field, the soldiers in the camp, and the soldiers at the fort. Even the bravest soldiers were scared. The ground began to shake and the Philistine soldiers became terribly frightened!

foreigners Literally, "uncircumcised." This showed these people were not Israelites and had not shared in their special agreement with God.

They counted the men. Jonathan and his helper were gone.

<sup>18</sup>Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring God's Holy Box!" (At that time God's Holy Box was there with the Israelites.) <sup>19</sup>Saul was talking to Ahijah the priest. Saul was waiting for advice from God. But the noise and confusion in the Philistine camp was growing and growing. Saul was becoming impatient. Finally, Saul said to Ahijah the priest, "That's enough! Put your hand down, and stop praying!"

<sup>20</sup>Saul gathered his army together and went to the battle. The Philistine soldiers were really confused! They were even fighting each other with their swords! <sup>21</sup>There were Hebrews who served the Philistines in the past and who stayed in the Philistine camp. But now these Hebrews joined the Israelites with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup>All the Israelites who had hidden in the hill country of Ephraim heard the Philistine soldiers were running away. So these Israelites also joined in the battle and began chasing the Philistines.

<sup>23</sup>So the Lord saved the Israelites that day. The battle moved on past Beth Aven. The whole army was with Saul—he had about 10,000 men. The battle spread to every city in the hill country of Ephraim.*

Saul Makes Another Mistake

<sup>24</sup>But Saul made a big mistake that day.* The Israelites were tired and hungry. This was because Saul forced the people to make this promise: Saul said, "If any man eats food before evening comes and before I finish defeating my enemies, then that man will be punished!" So no Israelite soldier ate any food.

<sup>25-26</sup>Because of the fighting, the people went into some woods. They saw a honeycomb on the ground. The Israelites came to the place where the honeycomb was. [The men were hungry,] but they didn't eat any of that honey. They were afraid to break that promise.<sup>27</sup> But Jonathan didn't know about that promise. Jonathan didn't hear his father force the people to make that promise. Jonathan had a walking stick in his hand. He dipped the end of the stick into the honeycomb. He pulled out some honey and ate it. And he felt much better.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement, the box containing the flat stones with the Ten Commandments written on them and other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai desert.

But Saul ... that day These words are in the ancient Greek translation, but not in the Hebrew.

<sup>28</sup>One of the soldiers told Jonathan, "Your father forced the soldiers to make a special promise. Your father said any man who eats today will be punished! [So the men have not eaten anything.] That is why the men are weak."

<sup>29</sup>Jonathan said, "My father has made trouble for the land! See how much better I feel after just tasting a little of this honey! <sup>30</sup>It would have been much better for the men to eat the food that they took from their enemies today. We could have killed many more Philistines!"

<sup>31</sup>That day the Israelites defeated the Philistines. They fought them all the way from Micmash to Aijalon. So the people were very tired and hungry. <sup>32</sup>They had taken sheep, cows, and calves from the Philistines. Now the people of Israel were so hungry they killed the animals on the ground and ate them. And the blood was still in the animals!

<sup>33</sup>A person said to Saul, "Look! The men are sinning against the Lord. They're eating meat that still has blood in it!"

Saul said, "You have sinned! Roll a large stone over here now!" <sup>34</sup>Then Saul said, "Go to the men and tell them each person must bring his bull and sheep to me. Then the men must kill their bulls and sheep here. Don't sin against the Lord! Don't eat meat that still has blood in it."

That night every person brought his animals and killed them there. <sup>35</sup>Then Saul built an altar for the Lord. Saul himself began building that altar for the Lord!

<sup>36</sup>Saul said, "Let's go after the Philistines tonight. We will take everything from them! We will kill them all!"

The army answered, "Do whatever you think is best."

But the priest said, "Let's ask God."

<sup>37</sup>So Saul asked God, "Should I go chase the Philistines? Will you let us defeat the Philistines?" But God did not answer Saul that day.

<sup>38</sup>So Saul said, "Bring all the leaders to me! Let's find who did the sin today. <sup>39</sup>By the Lord that saves Israel, I make this promise. Even if my own son Jonathan did the sin, he must die." No one in the army said a word.

<sup>40</sup>Then Saul said to all the Israelites, "You stand on this side. I and my son Jonathan will stand on the other side."

The soldiers answered, "As you wish, sir!"

<sup>41</sup>Then Saul prayed, "Lord, God of Israel, I am your servant. Why didn't you answer me today? If I or my son Jonathan sinned, Lord, God of Israel, give Urim.* If your people Israel have sinned, give Thummim.*

Saul and Jonathan were chosen, and the people went free. <sup>42</sup>Saul said, "Throw them again to show who is guilty-me, or my son Jonathan." Jonathan was chosen.

<sup>43</sup>Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done."

Jonathan told Saul, "I only tasted a little honey from the end of my stick. Should I die for doing that?"

<sup>44</sup>Saul said, "I hope God does many bad things to me if I don't keep my promise! Jonathan must die!"

<sup>45</sup>But the soldiers said to Saul, "Jonathan led Israel to a great victory today! Must Jonathan die? Never! We promise by the living God that not even one hair of Jonathan's head will fall to the ground! God helped Jonathan fight against the Philistines today!" So the people saved Jonathan. He was not put to death.

Urim, Thummim Used by the priest to learn God's answer to questions. They were probably like lots-stones or sticks, or bones that were thrown like dice to make decisions.

Saul Fights Israel's Enemies

<sup>4</sup>Saul took full control of Israel and showed he was king. Saul fought all the enemies that lived around Israel. Saul fought Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the king of Zobah, and the Philistines. Everywhere Saul went, he defeated Israel's enemies. <sup>4a</sup>Saul was very brave. He defeated the Amalekites. Saul saved Israel from the enemies who tried to take things from the people of Israel.

<sup>4b</sup>Saul's sons were Jonathan, Ishvi and Malki-Shua. Saul's older daughter was named Merab. Saul's younger daughter was named Michal. <sup>4c</sup>Saul's wife was named Ahinoam. Ahinoam was the daughter of Ahimaaz.

The commander of Saul's army was named Abner son of Ner. Ner was Saul's uncle. <sup>5</sup>Saul's father Kish and Abner's father Ner were sons of Abiel.

<sup>6</sup>All Saul's life he was brave and fought hard against the Philistines. Any time Saul saw a man who was strong or brave, he took this man and put him into the group of soldiers that stayed near the king and protected him.

Saul Destroys the Amalekites

15 One day, Samuel said to Saul, "The Lord sent me to anoint* you king over his people Israel. Now listen to the Lord's message. <sup>1</sup>The Lord All-Powerful says: 'When the Israelites came out of Egypt, the Amalekites tried to stop them from going to Canaan. I saw what the Amalekites did. <sup>2</sup>Now, go fight against the Amalekites. You must completely destroy the Amalekites and everything that belongs to them. Don't let anything live; you must kill all the men and women. You must kill all the children and little babies. You must kill all their cows and sheep and all their camels and donkeys.'"

<sup>3</sup>Saul gathered the army together at Telaim. There were 200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 other men. That includes the men from Judah. <sup>4</sup>Then Saul went to the city of Amalek, and waited in the valley. "Saul said to the Kenite people, "Go away, leave the Amalekites. Then I won't destroy you with the Amalekites. You showed kindness to the Israelites when they came out of Egypt." So the Kenite people left the Amalekites.

<sup>5</sup>Saul defeated the Amalekites. He fought them all the way from Havilah to Shur, at the border of Egypt. <sup>6</sup>Saul took Agag alive. Agag was the king of the Amalekites. Saul killed all the men in Agag's army. <sup>7</sup>But Saul and the Israelite soldiers let Agag live. They also kept the best sheep and fat cows and lambs. They kept everything that was worth keeping. And they destroyed everything that was worth nothing.

Samuel Tells Saul About His Sin

<sup>1</sup>The Lord's word came to Samuel. <sup>2</sup>The Lord said, "Saul has stopped following me. So I am sorry that I made Saul king. He is not doing the things I tell him." Samuel was upset. He cried and prayed to the Lord all night.

<sup>3</sup>Samuel got up early the next morning and went to meet Saul. But the people told Samuel, "Saul went to the town in Judah named, Carmel. Saul went there to set up a stone monument to honor himself. Then Saul traveled around to several places and finally went down to Gilgal."

So Samuel went to the place where Saul was. Saul had just offered the first part of the things that he took from the Amalekites. Saul was offering them as a burnt offering to the Lord.* <sup>3a</sup>Samuel went to Saul. Saul said, "Hello! May the Lord bless you! I have obeyed the Lord's commands."

<sup>3b</sup>But Samuel said, "Then what is that sound I hear? Why do I hear sheep and cattle?"

<sup>3c</sup>Saul answered, "The soldiers took them from the Amalekites. The soldiers saved the best sheep and cattle to burn as sacrifices* to the Lord your God. But we destroyed

Saul had just offered ... Lord This is from the ancient Greek Translation. It is not in the standard Hebrew text.

everything else.”

<sup>16</sup>Samuel said to Saul, “Stop! Let me tell you what the Lord said to me last night.”

Saul answered, “Tell me.”

<sup>17</sup>Samuel said, “In the past, you thought you were not important. But then you became the leader of the family groups of Israel. The Lord chose you to be king over Israel. <sup>18</sup>The Lord sent you on a special mission. The Lord said, ‘Go and destroy all those bad people, the Amalekites. Destroy them! Fight them until they are finished!’ <sup>19</sup>But you didn’t listen to the Lord! Why? You wanted to keep those things! So you did what the Lord said is bad!”

<sup>20</sup>Saul said, “But I did obey the Lord! I went where the Lord sent me. I destroyed all the Amalekites! I only brought back their king Agag. <sup>21</sup>And the soldiers took the best sheep and cattle to sacrifice* to the Lord your God at Gilgal!”

<sup>22</sup>But Samuel answered, “Which pleases the Lord more: burnt offerings and sacrifices,* or people obeying the Lord’s command? It is better to obey God than to offer sacrifices to him. It is better to listen to God than to offer the fat from rams. <sup>23</sup>Refusing to obey is like the sin of sorcery.* Being stubborn and doing what you want is like the sin of worshiping idols. You refused to obey the Lord’s command. For this reason, the Lord now refuses to accept you as king.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned. I did not obey the Lord’s commands, and I did not do what you told me. I was afraid of the people, and I did what they said. <sup>25</sup>Now I beg you, forgive my sin. Come back with me, so I may worship the Lord.”

<sup>26</sup>But Samuel said to Saul, “I won’t go back with you. You refused the Lord’s command, and now the Lord refuses you as king of Israel.”

<sup>27</sup>When Samuel turned to leave, Saul caught Samuel’s robe. The robe tore. <sup>28</sup>Samuel said to Saul, “You tore my robe. In the same way, the Lord has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today. The Lord has given the kingdom to one of your friends. This man is a better person than you. <sup>29</sup>The Lord is the God of Israel. The Lord lives forever. The Lord does not lie or change his mind. The Lord is not like a man that changes his mind.”

<sup>30</sup>Saul answered, “Alright, I sinned! But please come back with me. Show me some respect in front of the leaders and the people of Israel. Come back with me so I may worship the Lord your God.” <sup>31</sup>Samuel went back with Saul, and Saul worshiped the Lord.

<sup>32</sup>Samuel said, “Bring Agag, the king of the Amalekites, to me.”

Agag came to Samuel. Agag was tied with chains. Agag thought, “Surely he won’t kill me.”

<sup>33</sup>But Samuel said to Agag, “Your sword took babies from their mothers. So now, your mother will have no children.” And Samuel cut Agag to pieces before the Lord at Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup>Then Samuel left and went to Ramah. And Saul went up to his home in Gibeah. <sup>35</sup>After that Samuel never saw Saul again all his life. Samuel was very sad for Saul. And the Lord was very sorry that he had made Saul king of Israel.

Samuel Goes to Bethlehem

16 The Lord said to Samuel, “How long will you feel sorry for Saul? I refused Saul as king of Israel. Fill your horn* with oil and go. I am sending you to a man named Jesse. Jesse lives in Bethlehem. I have chosen one of his sons to be the new king.”

<sup>2</sup>But Samuel said, “If I go, Saul will hear the news. Then he will try to kill me.”

The Lord said, “Go to Bethlehem. Take a young calf with you. Say, ‘I have come to make a sacrifice* to the Lord.’ <sup>3</sup>Invite Jesse to the sacrifice. Then I will show you what to do. You must anoint* the person I show you.”

sojourn When a person tries to use the power of demons and bad spirits to do magic.

horn A hollow horn from an animal was often used like a bottle.

anoint To pour olive oil on a person’s head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

<sup>4</sup>Samuel did what the Lord told him to do. Samuel went to Bethlehem. The elders (leaders) of Bethlehem shook with fear. They met Samuel and asked, "Do you come in peace?"

<sup>5</sup>Samuel answered, "Yes, I come in peace. I come to make a sacrifice* to the Lord. Prepare yourselves and come to the sacrifice with me." Samuel prepared Jesse and his sons. Then Samuel invited them to come and share the sacrifice.

<sup>6</sup>When Jesse and his sons arrived, Samuel saw Eliab. Samuel thought, "Surely that is the person that the Lord chose! He is standing here in front of the Lord."

<sup>7</sup>But the Lord said to Samuel, "Eliab is handsome. But don't think about that. Eliab is tall. But don't think about that. God does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outside of a person, but the Lord looks at the heart. Eliab is not the right man."

<sup>8</sup>Then Jesse called his second son, Abinadab. Abinadab walked by Samuel. But Samuel said, "No, this is not the person that the Lord chose."

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesse told Shammah to walk by Samuel. But Samuel said, "No, the Lord did not choose this person, either."

<sup>10</sup>Jesse showed seven of his sons to Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, "The Lord did not choose any of these men."

<sup>11</sup>Then Samuel asked Jesse, "Are these all the sons you have?"

Jesse answered, "No, I have another son—my youngest, but he is taking care of the sheep."

Samuel said, "Send for him. Bring him here. We will not sit down to eat until he arrives."

<sup>12</sup>Jesse sent someone to get his youngest son. This son was a good-looking, red-haired* young man. He was very handsome.

The Lord said to Samuel, "Get up and anoint* him. He is the one."

Samuel went back to Ramah.

A Bad Spirit Bothers Saul

<sup>14</sup>The Lord's Spirit left Saul. Then the Lord sent a bad spirit to Saul. It caused him much trouble. <sup>15</sup>Saul's servants said to him, "A bad spirit from God is bothering you. <sup>16</sup>Give us the command, and we will look for someone who can play the harp. If the bad spirit from the Lord comes on you, this person will play. Then the bad spirit will leave you alone and you will feel better."

<sup>17</sup>So Saul said to his servants, "Find a person that plays well, and bring him to me."

<sup>18</sup>One of the servants said, "There is a man named Jesse living in Bethlehem. I saw Jesse's son. He knows how to play the harp. He is also a brave man and fights well. He is smart. He is handsome. And the Lord is with him."

<sup>19</sup>So Saul sent messengers to Jesse. They told Jesse what Saul said: "You have a son named David. He cares for your sheep. Send him to me."

<sup>20</sup>So Jesse got some things as a gift for Saul. Jesse got a donkey, some bread and a bottle of wine, and a young goat. Jesse gave those things to David, and sent him to Saul. <sup>21</sup>So David went to Saul, and stood in front of him. Saul loved David very much. David became the helper who carried Saul's weapons. <sup>22</sup>Saul sent a message to Jesse. "Let David stay and serve me. I like him very much."

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

red-haired Or, "tanned." The Hebrew word means "red."

anoint To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

horn A hollow horn from an animal was often used like a bottle.

Goliath Challenges Israel

17 The Philistines gathered their armies together for war. They met at Socoh in Judah. Their camp was between Socoh and Azekah, at a town called Ephes Dammim.

<sup>1</sup>Saul and the Israelite soldiers also gathered together. Their camp was in the Valley of Elah. Saul's soldiers were lined up and ready to fight the Philistines. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines were on one hill, and the Israelites were on the other hill. The valley was between these two hills.

<sup>3</sup>The Philistines had a champion fighter named Goliath. Goliath was from Gath. Goliath was over 9 feet* tall. Goliath came out of the Philistine camp. <sup>4</sup>He had a bronze helmet on his head. He wore a coat of scale armor. This armor was made of bronze and weighed about 125 pounds.* <sup>5</sup>Goliath wore bronze protectors on his legs. He had a bronze javelin* tied on his back. <sup>6</sup>The wooden part of Goliath's spear was like a weaver's rod. The spear's blade weighed 15 pounds.* Goliath's helper walked in front of him carrying Goliath's shield.

<sup>7</sup>Goliath came out and shouted to the Israelite soldiers. He said, "Why are all of your soldiers lined up ready for battle? You are Saul's servants. I am a Philistine. So choose one man and send him to fight me. <sup>8</sup>If this man kills me, then we Philistines will become your servants. But if I win and kill your man, then you will become our servants. Then you will serve us!"

<sup>10</sup>The Philistine also said, "Today I stand and make fun of the army of Israel! Let me have one of your men to fight!"

<sup>11</sup>Saul and the Israelite soldiers heard the things Goliath said. And they were very afraid.

David Comes to the Valley of Elah

<sup>12</sup>David was the son of Jesse. Jesse was from the Ephrath family, in Bethlehem, Judah. Jesse had eight sons. In Saul's time Jesse was an old man. <sup>13</sup>Jesse's three oldest sons went with Saul to the war. The first son was Eliab. The second son was Abinadab. And the third son was Shammah. <sup>14</sup>David was the youngest son. The three oldest sons were in Saul's army. <sup>15</sup>But David left Saul from time to time to take care of his father sheep at Bethlehem.

<sup>16</sup>The Philistine (Goliath) came out every morning and evening and stood before the Israelite army. Goliath made fun of Israel like this for 40 days.

<sup>17</sup>One day, Jesse said to his son David, "Take this basket* of cooked grain and these ten loaves of bread to your brothers in the camp. <sup>18</sup>Also take these ten pieces of cheese for the officer who commands your brothers' group of 1,000 soldiers. See how your brothers are doing. Bring back something to show me your brothers are all right. <sup>19</sup>Your brothers are with Saul and all the Israelite soldiers in the Valley of Elah. They are fighting against the Philistines."

David Offers to Fight Goliath

At that time, the Philistine champion fighter named Goliath from Gath, came out from the Philistine army. Goliath shouted things against.

over 9 feet Literally, "6 cubits and 1 span." Josephus, the ancient Greek translation, and one of the ancient Hebrew scrolls from Qumran all have "4 cubits and 1 span," or about 6 feet 9 inches.

125 pounds Literally, "5,000 shekels."

javelin A small spear.

15 pounds Literally, "600 shekels."

basket Literally, "ephah."

Israel as usual. David heard. <sup>24</sup>The Israelite soldiers saw Goliath and ran away. They were all scared of him.

<sup>25</sup>One of the Israelite men said, "Did you see that guy! Look at him! Goliath comes out and makes fun of Israel again and again. Whoever kills that guy will get rich! King Saul will give him much money. Saul will also give his daughter in marriage to this man who kills Goliath. And Saul will make this man's family free in Israel."

<sup>26</sup>David asked the men standing near him, "What did he say? What is the reward for killing this Philistine and taking away this shame from Israel? Who is this Goliath anyway? He is only some foreigner.* Goliath is nothing but a Philistine. Why does he think he can speak against the army of the living God?"

<sup>27</sup>So the Israelite told David about the reward for killing Goliath. <sup>28</sup>David's oldest brother Eliab heard David talking with the soldiers. Eliab became angry at David. Eliab asked David, "Why did you come here? Who did you leave those few sheep with in the desert? I know why you came down here! You didn't want to do what you were told to do. You just wanted to come down here to watch the battle!"

<sup>29</sup>David said, "What did I do now? I didn't do anything wrong! I was only talking."

<sup>30</sup>David turned to some other people and asked them the same questions. They gave David the same answers as before.

<sup>31</sup>Some men heard David talking. They told Saul about David. Saul ordered the men to bring David to him. <sup>32</sup>David said to Saul, "Don't let any person be discouraged. I am your servant. I will go fight this Philistine!"

<sup>33</sup>Saul answered, "You can't go out and fight against this Philistine (Goliath). You're not even a soldier!* And Goliath has been fighting in wars since he was a boy."

foreigner Literally, "uncircumcised." This shows Goliath was a foreigner and did not share in the agreement God made with the people of Israel.

You're not even a soldier! Or, "You are only a boy?" The Hebrew word for "boy" often means "servant" or "the helper that carries a soldier's weapons."

<sup>34</sup>But David said to Saul, "I am your servant. And I have been keeping my father's sheep. If a lion or bear came and took a sheep from the flock, <sup>35</sup>then I chased it. I attacked that wild animal and took the sheep from its mouth. If it attacked me, I caught it by its fur, fought it and killed it. <sup>36</sup>I have killed a lion and a bear! I will kill that foreigner,* Goliath, the same way! Goliath will die because he made fun of the army of the living God. <sup>37</sup>The Lord saved me from the lion and the bear. The Lord will also save me from this Philistine (Goliath)."

Saul said to David, "Go and may the Lord be with you." <sup>38</sup>Saul put his own clothes on David. Saul put a bronze helmet on David's head and armor* on David's body. <sup>39</sup>David put on the sword and tried to walk around. So David tried to wear Saul's uniform. But David was not used to all those heavy things.

David said to Saul, "I can't fight in these things. I'm not used to them." So David took them all off. <sup>40</sup>David took his walking stick in his hand. David chose five smooth stones from the valley. He put the five stones in his shepherd's bag. He held his sling* in his hand. Then he went to meet the Philistine (Goliath).

David Kills Goliath

<sup>45</sup>David said to the Philistine (Goliath), "You come to me using sword, spear, and javelin.* But I come to you in the name of the armor The heavy clothes made from leather and metal that a soldier wore to protect himself.

sling A strip of leather for throwing rocks.

red-haired Or, "tanned" The Hebrew word means "red."

javelin A small spear.

Lord All-Powerful, the God of the armies of Israel! You have said bad things about him. <sup>46</sup>Today the Lord will let me defeat you! I will kill you. Today I will cut off your head and feed your body to the birds and wild animals. We will do that to all the other Philistines too! Then all the world will know there is a God in Israel! <sup>47</sup>All the people gathered here will know that the Lord does not need swords or spears to save people. The battle belongs to the Lord! And the Lord will help us defeat all of you Philistines."

<sup>48</sup>Goliath the Philistine came near to attack David. David ran quickly to meet Goliath. <sup>49</sup>David took out a stone from his bag. He put it in his sling* and swung the sling. The stone flew from the sling and hit Goliath in the forehead. The stone sank deep into his head, and Goliath fell to the ground—face down.

<sup>50</sup>So David defeated the Philistine with only a sling* and one stone! He hit the Philistine and killed him. David did not have a sword. <sup>51</sup>So David ran and stood beside the Philistine. David took Goliath's own sword out of its sheath.* And David used the sword to cut off Goliath's head. And that is the way David killed the Philistine.

When the other Philistines saw their hero was dead, they turned and ran. <sup>52</sup>The soldiers of Israel and Judah shouted and started chasing the Philistines. The Israelites chased the Philistines all the way to the city limits of Gath and to the gates of Ekron. They killed many of the Philistines. Their bodies lay on the Shaaraim road all the way to Gath and Ekron. <sup>53</sup>After chasing the Philistines, the Israelites came back to the Philistine camp. The Israelites took many things from that camp.

Saul Begins to Fear David

<sup>55</sup>Saul watched David go out to fight Goliath. Saul spoke to Abner, commander of the army. "Abner, who is that young man's father?"

Abner answered, "I swear I don't know, sir."

<sup>58</sup>Saul asked him, "Young man, who is your father?"

David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse, from Bethlehem."

David and Jonathan Become Close Friends

18 After David had finished talking with Saul, Jonathan became very close to David. Jonathan loved David as he loved himself.

Saul Notices David's Success

<sup>4</sup>Saul sent David to fight in different battles. David was very successful. Then Saul put David over the soldiers. This pleased everyone, even Saul's officers! <sup>5</sup>David would go out to fight against the Philistines. After the battle, he would come back home. And women in every town in Israel would come out to meet David. They laughed and danced and played drums and lutes.* <sup>6</sup>They did this right in front of Saul! <sup>7</sup>The women sang,

"Saul has killed thousands of enemies.

David has killed tens of thousands of enemies!"

<sup>8</sup>The women's song upset Saul and he became very angry. Saul thought, "The women sheath The case for carrying swords.

lutes A musical instrument with strings like a harp.

say David killed tens of thousands of enemies. And they say I killed only thousands of enemies.” So Saul watched David closely from then on.

Saul Is Afraid of David

<sup>10</sup>The next day, a bad spirit from God took a powerful hold on Saul. Saul became wild* in his house. David played the harp like he usually did. <sup>11</sup>But Saul had a spear in his hand. Saul thought, “I’ll pin David to the wall.” Saul threw the spear two times. But David escaped.

<sup>16</sup>But all the people of Israel and Judah loved David. They loved him because he led them into battle and fought for them.

Saul Wants His Daughter to Marry David

<sup>17</sup>But Saul wanted to kill David. Saul thought of a way to trick David. Saul said to David, “Here is my oldest daughter, Merab. I will let you marry her. Then you can become a powerful soldier. You will be like a son to me! Then you go and fight the Lord’s battles!” This was a trick. Saul was really thinking, “Now I won’t have to kill David. I will let the Philistines kill him for me!”

<sup>18</sup>But David said, “I am not from an important family! And I am not an important man! I can’t marry the king’s daughter.”

<sup>19</sup>So when the time came for Saul’s daughter Merab to marry David, Saul let her marry Adriel from Meholah.

<sup>20</sup>Saul’s other daughter Michal loved David. The people told Saul that Michal loved David. This made Saul happy. <sup>21</sup>Saul thought, “I will use Michal to trap David. I will let Michal marry David. And then I will let the Philistines kill him.” So Saul said to David a second time, “You can marry my daughter today.”

<sup>22</sup>Saul gave an order to his officers. Saul told them, “Speak to David in private. Say, ‘Look, the king likes you. His officers like you. You should marry his daughter.’”

<sup>23</sup>Saul’s officers said those things to David. But David answered, “Do you think it is easy to become the king’s son-in-law? I don’t have the money to pay for the king’s daughter! I am just a poor, ordinary man.”

<sup>26</sup>Saul’s officers told those things to David. David wanted to become the king’s son-in-law, so he did something immediately. <sup>27</sup>David and his men went out to fight the Philistines. They killed 200* Philistines. David took these Philistine foreskins and gave them to Saul. David did this because he wanted to become the king’s son-in-law.

Saul let David marry his daughter Michal. <sup>28</sup>Saul saw the Lord was with David. But Saul also saw that his daughter, Michal, loved David. <sup>29</sup>So Saul became even more afraid of David. Saul was against David all that time.

Jonathan Helps David

19 Saul told his son Jonathan and his officers to kill David. But Jonathan liked David very much. <sup>23</sup>Jonathan warned David. “Be careful! Saul is looking for a wild Or, “prophesied.” The Hebrew word means that the person lost control of the things he said and did. Usually this meant that God was using the person to give a special message to other people.

chance to kill you. In the morning, go into the field and hide. I will go out into the field with my father. We will stand in the field where you are hiding. I will talk to my father about you. Then I will tell you what I learn."

<sup>4</sup>Jonathan talked to Saul his father. Jonathan said good things about David. Jonathan said, "You are the king. David is your servant. David hasn't done anything wrong to you. So don't do anything wrong to him. David has always been good to you. <sup>5</sup>David risked his life when he killed the Philistine (Goliath). The Lord won a great victory for all Israel. You saw it, and you were happy. Why do you want to hurt David? He's innocent. There is no reason to kill him!"

<sup>6</sup>Saul listened to Jonathan. Saul made a promise. Saul said, "As surely as the Lord lives, David won't be put to death."

<sup>7</sup>So Jonathan called David. Then he told David everything that was said. Then Jonathan brought David to Saul. So David was with Saul like before.

Saul Again Tries to Kill David

<sup>8</sup>War came again. And David went out to fight the Philistines. He defeated the Philistines and they ran away from him. <sup>9</sup>But a bad spirit from the Lord came on Saul. Saul was sitting in his house. Saul had his spear in his hand. David was playing the harp. <sup>10</sup>Saul tried to throw his spear into David's body and pin him to the wall. But the spear missed David and hit the wall. David jumped out of the way and the spear stuck in the wall. That night, David ran away.

<sup>11</sup>Saul sent men to David's house. The men watched David's house. They stayed there all night. They were waiting to kill David in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, warned him. She said, "You must run away tonight and save your life. If you don't, then you will be killed tomorrow." <sup>12</sup>Then Michal let David down out of a window. David escaped and ran away. <sup>13</sup>Michal took the household god and lay it on the bed. Michal put clothes on that statue. She also put goats' hair on its head.

<sup>14</sup>Saul sent messengers to take David prisoner. But Michal said, "David is sick."

<sup>15</sup>The men went and told Saul, but he sent the messengers back to see David. Saul told these men, "Bring David to me! Bring him lying on his bed if you must! And I will kill him."

<sup>16</sup>The messengers went to David's house. They went inside to get David, but they saw it was only a statue on the bed. And they saw its hair was only goat's hair.

<sup>17</sup>Saul said to Michal, "Why did you trick me this way? You let my enemy escape! David has run away!"

Michal answered Saul, "David told me he would kill me if I didn't help him escape!"

David Goes to the Camps at Ramah

<sup>18</sup>David escaped. David ran away to Samuel at Ramah. David told Samuel everything that Saul had done to him. Then David and Samuel went to the camps, where the prophets stayed. David stayed there.

<sup>19</sup>Saul heard that David was there in the camps near Ramah. <sup>20</sup>Saul sent men to arrest David. But when those men came to the camps, there was a group of prophets prophesying.* Samuel was standing there leading the group. God's Spirit came on Saul's messengers and they began prophesying.

<sup>21</sup>Saul heard about this, so he sent other messengers. But they also began prophesying. So Saul sent messengers a third time. And they also began prophesying. <sup>22</sup>Finally, Saul himself went to Ramah. Saul came to the big well by the threshing floor* at Secu. Saul asked, "Where are Samuel and David?"

The people answered, "In the camps near Ramah."

<sup>23</sup>Then Saul went out to the camps near Ramah. God's Spirit also came on Saul, and Saul began prophesying.* Saul prophesied more and more all the way to the camps at Ramah. <sup>24</sup>Then Saul took off his clothes. So even Saul was prophesying there in front of prophesying Usually, this means "speaking for God." But here this probably means that some power took control of the person.

threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

Samuel. Saul lay there naked all day and all night.

That is why people say, "Is Saul also one of the prophets?"

David and Jonathan Make an Agreement

20 David ran away from the camps near Ramah. David went to Jonathan and asked him, "What have I done wrong? What is my crime? Why is your father trying to kill me?"

<sup>1</sup>Jonathan answered, "My father isn't trying to kill you! My father doesn't do anything without first telling me. It doesn't matter if it is very important or just a small thing, my father always tells me. Why would my father refuse to tell me he wants to kill you? No, it is not true!"

<sup>2</sup>But David answered, "Your father knows very well that I am your friend. Your father has said to himself, 'Jonathan must not know about it. If he knows, he will tell David.' But surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I am very close to death!"

<sup>3</sup>Jonathan said to David, "I will do anything you want me to do."

<sup>4</sup>Then David said, "Look, tomorrow is the New Moon Celebration.* I am supposed to eat with the king. But let me hide in the field until the evening. <sup>5</sup>If your father notices I am gone, tell him, 'David wanted to go home to Bethlehem. His family is having its own feast for this monthly sacrifice. David asked me to let him run down to Bethlehem and join his family.' <sup>6</sup>If your father says, 'Fine,' then I am safe. But if your father becomes angry, then you know that he wants to hurt me. <sup>7</sup>Jonathan, be kind to me. I am your servant. You have made an agreement with me before the Lord. If I am guilty, then you yourself may kill me! But don't take me to your father."

<sup>8</sup>Jonathan answered, "No, never! If I learn that my father plans to hurt you, then I will warn you."

<sup>9</sup>David said, "Who will warn me if your father says bad things to you?"

<sup>10</sup>Then Jonathan said, "Come, let's go out into the field." So Jonathan and David went together into the field.

<sup>11</sup>Jonathan said to David, "I make this promise before the Lord, the God of Israel. I promise that I will learn how my father feels about you. I will learn if he feels good about you or not. Then, in three days, I will send a message to you in the field. <sup>12</sup>If my father wants to hurt you, I will let you know. I will let you leave in safety. May the Lord punish me if I don't do this. May the Lord be with you as he has been with my father. <sup>13</sup>Be kind to me as long as I live. And after I die, <sup>14</sup>don't ever stop showing your kindness to my family. The Lord will destroy all your enemies from the earth. <sup>15</sup>If at that time Jonathan's family must be separated from David, then let it happen. May the Lord punish David's enemies."

<sup>16</sup>Then Jonathan asked David to repeat his promise of love for him. Jonathan did this because he loved David the same as he loved himself.

<sup>17</sup>Jonathan said to David, "Tomorrow is the New Moon Feast. Your seat will be empty, so my father will see that you are gone. <sup>18</sup>On the third day, go to the same place you hid when this trouble began. Wait by that hill. <sup>19</sup>On the third day, I will go to that hill and act like I am shooting at a target. I will shoot some arrows. <sup>20</sup>Then I will tell the boy to go find the arrows. If everything is fine, then I will tell the boy, 'You went too far! The arrows are closer to me. Come back and get them.' If I say that, then you can come out of hiding. I promise, as surely as the Lord lives, you are safe. There is no danger. <sup>21</sup>But if there is trouble, then I will say to the boy, 'The arrows are farther away. Go get them.' If I say that, then you must leave. The Lord is sending you away. <sup>22</sup>Remember this agreement between you and me. The Lord is our witness forever!"

New Moon Celebration The first day of the Jewish month. This was a special day of rest and worship.

Saul's Attitude at the Feast

The time for the New Moon Feast* came, and the king sat down to eat. <sup>25</sup>The king sat where he usually sat, near the wall. Jonathan sat across from Saul. Abner sat next to Saul. But David's place was empty. <sup>26</sup>That day Saul said nothing. He thought, "Maybe something happened to David so that he is not clean.*"

<sup>27</sup>On the next day, the second day of the month, David's place was empty again. Then Saul said to his son Jonathan, "Why didn't Jesse's son come to the New Moon Feast yesterday or today?"

<sup>28</sup>Jonathan answered, "David asked me to let him go to Bethlehem. <sup>29</sup>He said, 'Let me go. Our family is having a sacrifice* in Bethlehem. My brother ordered me to be there. Now if I am your friend, please let me go and see my brothers.' That is why David has not come to the king's table."

<sup>30</sup>Saul was very angry with Jonathan. He said to Jonathan, "You are the son of a slave woman that refuses to obey. And you are just like her. I know you are on David's side! You bring shame to yourself and to your mother. <sup>31</sup>As long as Jesse's son lives, you'll never be king and have a kingdom. Now, bring David to me! He is a dead man!"

<sup>32</sup>Jonathan asked his father, "Why should David be killed? What wrong did he do?"

<sup>33</sup>But Saul threw his spear at Jonathan and tried to kill him. So Jonathan knew that his father wanted very much to kill David. <sup>34</sup>Jonathan became angry and left the table. Jonathan was so upset and angry at his father that Jonathan refused to eat any food on the second day of the feast. Jonathan was angry because Saul humiliated him and because Saul wanted to kill David.

New Moon Feast The first day of the Jewish month was a special day of rest and worship. This feast is probably like the fellowship offerings in Lev. 7:16-21.

clean Or, "acceptable." Pure or able to be used in worshiping God. See Leviticus 11-15 for the Old Testament rules about clean and unclean things.

David and Jonathan Say Good-bye

<sup>35</sup>The next morning Jonathan went out to the field. He went to meet David as they had agreed. Jonathan brought a little boy with him. <sup>36</sup>Jonathan said to the boy, "Run. Go find the arrows I shoot." The boy began to run, and Jonathan shot the arrows over his head. <sup>37</sup>The boy ran to the place where the arrows fell. But Jonathan called, "The arrows are farther away!" <sup>38</sup>Then Jonathan shouted, "Hurry! Go get them! Don't just stand there!" The boy picked up the arrows and brought them back to his master. <sup>39</sup>The boy knew nothing about what went on. Only Jonathan and David knew. <sup>40</sup>Jonathan gave his bow and arrows to the boy. Then Jonathan told the boy, "Go back to town."

<sup>41</sup>The boy left. And David came out from the place he was hiding on the other side of the hill. David bowed with his face to the ground in front of Jonathan. David bowed three times. Then David and Jonathan kissed each other. They both cried together, but David cried more than Jonathan.

<sup>42</sup>Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace. We used the Lord's name and promised to be friends. We said that the Lord will be the witness between us and our descendants* forever."

David Goes to See Ahimelech the Priest

21 Then David went away, and Jonathan went back to the town. <sup>2</sup>David went to the town named Nob to see Ahimelech the priest.

Ahimelech went out to meet David. Ahimelech was shaking with fear. Ahimelech asked David, "Why are you alone? Why is no person with you?"

<sup>3</sup>David answered Ahimelech, "The king gave me a special order. He told me, 'Don't let anyone know about this mission. No person must know what I told you to do.' I told my men where to meet me. 'Now, what food do you have with you? Give me five loaves of bread, or anything you can find.'"

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

<sup>5</sup>The priest said to David, "I don't have any plain bread here. But I do have some Holy Bread* here. Your officers can eat it if they have not had sexual relations with any women."*

<sup>6</sup>David answered the priest, "We have not been with any women. My men keep their bodies holy every time we go out to fight, even on ordinary missions.* And this is especially true today, when our work is so special."

<sup>7</sup>There was no bread except the Holy Bread.* So the priest gave David that bread. This was the bread that the priests put on the holy table before the Lord. Each day they took this bread away and put fresh bread in its place.

<sup>8</sup>One of Saul's officers was there that day. He was Doeg the Edomite. Doeg had been kept there before the Lord.* Doeg was the leader of Saul's shepherds.*

<sup>9</sup>David asked Ahimelech, "Do you have a spear or sword here? The king's business is very important. I had to leave quickly, and I didn't bring my sword or any other weapon."

<sup>10</sup>The priest answered, "The only sword here is the sword of Goliath the Philistine. It is the sword you took from him when you killed him in the Valley of Elah. That sword is behind the ephod,* wrapped in a cloth. You may take it if you want to."

David said, "Give it to me. There is no sword like Goliath's sword!"

Holy Bread This was the special bread that was put in the Holy Tent. It is also called, "shewbread" or "the bread of the Presence." Normally, only the priests should eat this bread. See Lev. 24:5-9.

sexual ... women This would make the man unclean and not able to eat any food that had been made holy by offering it to God. See, for example, Lev. 7:21.

My men ... missions See 2 Sam. 11:11 and the rules in Deut. 23:9-14.

kept there before the Lord This might mean that Doeg was there as part of a special promise to God or some other religious reason. Or it might mean he was being held there because of some crime, such as accidentally killing a man.

shepherds Or, "messengers."

ephod We do not know exactly what this was. It may have been a special coat like the one worn by the high priest.

David Goes to Gath

<sup>11</sup>That day David ran away from Saul. David went to Achish king of Gath. <sup>12</sup>Achish's officers did not like this. They said, "This is David, the king of the land of Israel. He is the person the Israelites sing about. They sing and dance for him. The Israelites sing this song:

"Saul has killed thousands of enemies.

David has killed tens of thousands of enemies!"

<sup>13</sup>David remembered these things. David was very much afraid of Achish, king of Gath. <sup>14</sup>So David pretended to be crazy in front of Achish and his officers. While David was with them he acted like a crazy man. He spat on the doors of the gate. He let spit fall down his beard.

<sup>15</sup>Achish said to his officers, "Look at the man! He is crazy! Why did you bring him to me? <sup>16</sup>I have enough crazy men. I don't need you to bring this man to my house to act crazy in front of me! Don't let this man come into my house again!"

David Goes to Different Places

22 David left Gath. David ran away to the cave* of Adullam. David's brothers and relatives heard that David was at Adullam. They went to see David there. <sup>2</sup>Many people joined David. All the men who were in trouble, or in debt, or not satisfied, gathered around David. And David became their leader. David had about 400 men with him.

<sup>3</sup>David left Adullam and went to Mizpah in Moab. David said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come and stay with you until I learn what God is going to do to me." <sup>4</sup>David left his parents with the king of Moab. David's parents stayed with the king of Moab as long as David was in the fort.

<sup>5</sup>But the prophet Gad said to David, "Don't stay in the fort. Go to the land of Judah." So David left and went to Hereth Forest.

cave Or possibly, "fortress."

Saul Destroys Ahimelech's Family

<sup>6</sup>Saul heard that the people had learned about David and his men. Saul was sitting under the tree on the hill at Gibeah. Saul had his spear in his hand. All Saul's officers were standing around him. <sup>7</sup>Saul said to his officers that were standing around him, "Listen, men of Benjamin! Do you think the son of Jesse (David) will give you fields and vineyards? Do you think David will promote you and make you officers over 1,000 men and officers over 100 men? <sup>8</sup>You men are plotting against me! You made secret plans. Not one of you told me about my son Jonathan. Not one of you told me that he made an agreement with the son of Jesse! Not one of you cares about me! Not one of you told me that my son Jonathan encouraged David. Jonathan told my servant David to hide and attack me! And that is what David is doing now!"

<sup>9</sup>Doeg the Edomite was standing there with Saul's officers. Doeg said, "I saw Jesse's son (David) at Nob. David came to see Ahimelech son of Ahitub. <sup>10</sup>Ahimelech prayed to the Lord for David. Ahimelech also gave David food. And Ahimelech gave David the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

<sup>11</sup>Then King Saul ordered some men to bring the priest to him. Saul told them to bring Ahimelech son of Ahitub and all his relatives. Ahimelech's relatives were priests at Nob. All of them came to the king. <sup>12</sup>Saul said to Ahimelech, "Listen now, son of Ahitub."

Ahimelech answered, "Yes, sir."

<sup>13</sup>Saul said to Ahimelech, "Why did you and Jesse's son (David) make secret plans against me? You gave David bread and a sword! You prayed to God for him. And right now, David is waiting to attack me!"

<sup>14</sup>Ahimelech answered, "David is very faithful to you. Not one of your other officers is as faithful as David. David is your own son-in-law. And David is the captain of your bodyguards. Your own family respects David. <sup>15</sup>That was not the first time I prayed to God for David. Not at all. Don't blame me or any of my relatives. We are your servants. I know nothing about what is happening."

<sup>16</sup>But the king said, "Ahimelech, you and all your relatives must die!" <sup>17</sup>Then the king told the guards at his side, "Go and kill the priests of the Lord. Do this because they are on David's side also. They knew David was running away, but they didn't tell me!"

But the king's officers refused to hurt the priests of the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>So the king gave the order to Doeg. Saul said, "Doeg, you go kill the priests." So Doeg the Edomite went and killed the priests. That day Doeg killed 85 men priests. <sup>19</sup>Nob was the city of the priests. Doeg killed all the people of Nob. Doeg used his sword and killed men, women, children, and small babies. And Doeg killed their cows, donkeys, and sheep.

<sup>20</sup>But Abiathar escaped. Abiathar was the son of Ahimelech. Ahimelech was the son of Ahitub. Abiathar ran away and joined David. <sup>21</sup>Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the Lord's priests. <sup>22</sup>Then David told Abiathar, "I saw Doeg the Edomite at Nob that day. And I knew he would tell Saul! I am responsible for the death of your father's family. <sup>23</sup>The man (Saul) who wants to kill you also wants to kill me. Stay with me. Don't be afraid. You will be safe with me."

David at Keilah

23 People told David, "Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah. They are robbing grain from the threshing floors.*"

<sup>2</sup>David asked the Lord, "Should I go and fight these Philistines?"

The Lord answered David, "Go and attack the Philistines. Save Keilah."

<sup>3</sup>But David's men said to him, "Look, we are here in Judah and we are scared. Just think how scared we will be if we go to where the Philistine army is."

<sup>4</sup>David again asked the Lord. And the Lord answered David, "Go down to Keilah. I will help you defeat the Philistines." <sup>5</sup>So David and priests Literally, "men that wore the linen ephod."

threshing floors Places where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

his men went to Keilah. David's men fought the Philistines. David's men defeated the Philistines and took their cows. In this way, David saved the people of Keilah. (When Abiathar ran away to David, Abiathar took an ephod* with him.)

<sup>7</sup>People told Saul that David was now at Keilah. Saul said, "God has given David to me! David has trapped himself. He went into a town that has gates and bars to lock the gates." <sup>8</sup>Saul called all his army together for battle. They prepared to go down to Keilah to attack David and his men.

<sup>9</sup>David learned Saul was making plans against him. David then said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod."*

<sup>10</sup>David prayed, "Lord God of Israel, I have heard that Saul plans to come to Keilah and destroy the town because of me. <sup>11</sup>Will Saul come to Keilah? Will the people of Keilah give me to Saul? Lord God of Israel, I am your servant! Please tell me!"

The Lord answered, "Saul will come."

<sup>12</sup>Again David asked, "Will the people of Keilah give me and my men to Saul?"

The Lord answered, "They will."

<sup>13</sup>So David and his men left Keilah. There were about 600 men who went with David. David and his men kept moving from place to place. Saul learned that David escaped from Keilah. So Saul did not go to that city.

Saul Chases David

<sup>14</sup>David went to the desert and stayed in the fortresses* there. David also went to the hill country in the Desert of Ziph. Every day Saul looked for David, but the Lord didn't let Saul take David.

<sup>15</sup>David was at Horesh in the Desert of Ziph. He was afraid because Saul was coming to kill him. <sup>16</sup>But Saul's son Jonathan went to see David at Horesh. Jonathan helped David to have a stronger faith in God. <sup>17</sup>Jonathan told

fortress(es) A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

David, "Don't be afraid. My father Saul won't hurt you. You will become the king of Israel. And I will be second to you. Even my father knows this."

<sup>18</sup>Jonathan and David both made an agreement before the Lord. Then Jonathan went home. And David stayed at Horesh.

The People of Ziph Tell Saul About David

<sup>19</sup>The people from Ziph came to Saul at Gibeah. They told Saul, "David is hiding in our area. He is at the fortresses* of Horesh. He is on Hakilah hill, south of Jeshimon. <sup>20</sup>Now, King, come down any time you want. It is our duty to give David to you."

<sup>21</sup>Saul answered, "The Lord bless you for helping me. <sup>22</sup>Go and learn more about him. Find where David is staying. Find who has seen David there. Saul thought 'David is clever.' <sup>23</sup>Find all the hiding places David uses. And come back to me and tell me everything. Then I will go with you. If David is in the area, I will find him. I will find him even if I must look through all the families* in Judah."

<sup>24</sup>Then the people from Ziph went back to Ziph. Saul went there later.

David and his men were in the Desert of Maon. They were in the desert area south of Jeshimon. <sup>25</sup>Saul and his men went to look for David. But people warned David. They told him that Saul was looking for him. David then went down to "The Rock" in the Desert of Maon. Saul heard that David had gone to the Desert of Maon. So Saul went to that place to find David.

<sup>26</sup>Saul was on one side of the mountain. David and his men were on the other side of the same mountain. David was hurrying to get away from Saul. Saul and his soldiers were going around the mountain to capture David and his men.

<sup>27</sup>But a messenger came to Saul. The messenger said, "Come quickly! The Philistines are attacking us!"

<sup>28</sup>So Saul stopped chasing David and went to fight the Philistines. That is why people call families Or, "thousands of people."

this place "Slippery Rock."* <sup>29</sup>David left the Desert of Maon and went to the fortresses* near En Gedi.

David Shames Saul

24 After Saul had chased the Philistines away, people told Saul, "David is in the desert area near En Gedi."

<sup>3</sup>So Saul chose 3,000 men from all over Israel. Saul took these men and began looking for David and his men. They looked near Wild Goat Rocks. <sup>5</sup>Saul came to the sheep pens beside the road. There was a cave near there. Saul went into the cave to relieve himself. David and his men were hiding far back in the cave. <sup>6</sup>The men said to David, "Today is the day the Lord talked about! The Lord told you, 'I will give your enemy to you, then you can do anything you want with your enemy.'"

Then David crawled near Saul. David cut off a corner of Saul's robe. Saul did not see David. <sup>8</sup>Later, David felt bad about cutting off a corner of Saul's robe. <sup>9</sup>David said to his men, "May the Lord stop me from doing anything like this to my master! Saul is the Lord's chosen king. I should not do anything against Saul—he is the Lord's chosen king!" <sup>10</sup>David said these things to stop his men. David did not let his men attack Saul.

Saul left the cave and went his way. <sup>11</sup>David came out of the cave. David shouted to Saul, "My lord the king!"

Saul looked back. David bowed with his face to the ground. <sup>12</sup>David said to Saul, "Why do you listen when people say, 'David plans to hurt you'? <sup>13</sup>I don't want to hurt you! You can see that with your own eyes! The Lord let me have you today in the cave. But I refused to kill you. I was merciful to you. I said, 'I won't hurt my master. Saul is the Lord's chosen king!'"

<sup>14</sup>Look at this piece of cloth in my hand. I cut off the corner of your robe. I could have killed you, but I didn't! Now, I want you to understand this. I want you to know that I am not planning anything against you! I did nothing wrong to you! But you are hunting me and trying to kill me. <sup>15</sup>Let the Lord be the judge! The Lord might punish you for the wrong you did me. But I myself won't fight you. <sup>16</sup>There is an old saying:

'Bad things come from bad people.'

I haven't done anything bad! I am not a bad person!, So I won't hurt you. <sup>17</sup>Who are you chasing? Who is the king of Israel coming to fight against? You are not chasing someone who will hurt you! It is like you are chasing a dead dog or a flea. <sup>18</sup>Let the Lord be the judge. Let him decide between you and me. The Lord will support me and show that I am right. The Lord will save me from you."

<sup>19</sup>David finished saying these words. And Saul asked, "Is that your voice, David my son?" Then Saul began to cry. Saul cried very much. <sup>20</sup>Saul said, "You are right, and I am wrong. You have been good to me. But I have been bad to you. <sup>21</sup>You told me about the good things you did. The Lord brought me to you, but you did not kill me. <sup>22</sup>If a man catches his enemy, he doesn't let him go! He doesn't do good things for his enemy. May the Lord reward you because you were good to me today. <sup>23</sup>I know that you will become the new king. You will rule the kingdom of Israel. <sup>24</sup>Now make a promise to me. Use the Lord's name and promise that you will not kill my descendants.* Promise me that you won't destroy my name from my father's family."

<sup>25</sup>So David made a promise to Saul. David promised that he would not kill Saul's family. Then Saul went back home. David and his men went up to the fort.

David and Nabal

25 Samuel died. All the Israelites met together and showed their sadness about Samuel's death. They buried Samuel at his home in Ramah.

Slippery Rock Or "Sela Hammahlekoth."

fortress(es) A building or city with tall, strong walls for protection.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Then David moved to the Desert of Paran.

<sup>2</sup>There was a man that lived in Maon. This man was very rich. He had 3,000 sheep and 1,000 goats. He was in Carmel taking care of some business. He was in Carmel cutting the wool from his sheep. <sup>3</sup>This man's name was Nabal.* His wife was named Abigail. Abigail was a wise and beautiful woman. But Nabal was cruel and mean. Nabal was from Caleb's family.

<sup>4</sup>David was in the desert, and he heard that Nabal was cutting the wool from his sheep. <sup>5</sup>So David sent ten young men to talk to Nabal. David told them, "Go to Carmel. Find Nabal and tell him 'Hello' for me." <sup>6</sup>David gave them this message for Nabal, "I hope you and your family are fine. I hope that everything you own is fine. <sup>7</sup>I heard that you are cutting wool from your sheep. Your shepherds were with us for a while. And we did nothing wrong to them. We never took anything from your shepherds while they were at Carmel. <sup>8</sup>Ask your servants and they will tell you this is true. Please be kind to my young men. We come to you now, at this happy time. Please give these young men anything you can. Please do this for me, your friend* David."

<sup>9</sup>David's men went to Nabal. They gave David's message to Nabal. <sup>10</sup>But Nabal was mean to them. Nabal said, "Who is David? Who is this son of Jesse? There are many slaves that have run away from their masters these days! <sup>11</sup>I have bread and water. And I have the meat I killed for my servants who cut the wool from my sheep. But I won't give them to men I don't even know!"

<sup>12</sup>David's men went back and told David everything that Nabal said. <sup>13</sup>Then David said to his men, "Put on your swords!" So David and his men put on their swords. About 400 men went with David. And 200 men stayed with the supplies.

Abigail Prevents Trouble

<sup>14</sup>One of Nabal's servants spoke to Nabal's wife Abigail. The servant said, "David sent messengers from the desert to meet our master (Nabal). But Nabal was mean to David's messengers. <sup>15</sup>These men were very good to us. We were out in the fields with the sheep. David's men were with us the whole time. And they never did anything wrong to us! They did not steal anything from us the whole time! <sup>16</sup>David's men protected us night and day! They were like a wall around us—they protected us while we were with them caring for the sheep. <sup>17</sup>Now think about it and decide what you can do. Nabal was foolish to say the things he did! Terrible trouble is coming to our master (Nabal) and all his family."

<sup>18</sup>Abigail hurried and took 200 loaves of bread, two full winebags, five cooked sheep, about a bushel* of cooked grain, about 2 quarts* of raisins, and 200 cakes of pressed figs. She put them on donkeys. <sup>19</sup>Then Abigail told her servants, "Go on. I will follow you." But she did not tell her husband.

<sup>20</sup>Abigail rode her donkey and came down to the other side of the mountain. She met David and his men coming from the other direction.

<sup>21</sup>Before David met Abigail, David was saying, "I protected Nabal's property in the desert. I made sure none of his sheep were missing. I did all that for nothing! I did good things to him, but he has been bad to me. <sup>22</sup>May God punish me if I let just one man in Nabal's family live till tomorrow morning."

<sup>23</sup>But when Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey. She bowed down before David. She bowed her face to the ground. <sup>24</sup>Abigail lay at David's feet. She said, "Sir, please let me talk to you. Listen to what I say. Blame me for what happened. <sup>25</sup>I didn't see the men you sent. Sir, don't pay any attention to that worthless man (Nabal). He is the same as his name. His name means 'Foolish,' and he is truly foolish. <sup>26</sup>The Lord has kept you from killing innocent people. Surely as the Lord

Nabal This name means "foolish."
friend Literally, "son."

about a bushel Literally, "5 seahs."
2 quarts Literally, "1 omer."

lives, and surely as you live, I hope your enemies and all people who want to harm you become like Nabal. <sup>27</sup>Now, I am bringing this gift to you. Please give these things to the men that follow you. <sup>28</sup>Please forgive me for doing wrong. I know the Lord will make your family strong – many kings will come from your family! The Lord will do this because you fight his battles. People will never find anything bad about you as long as you live! <sup>29</sup>If a person chases you to kill you, the Lord your God will save your life! But the Lord will throw away your enemies' lives like a stone from a sling!* <sup>30</sup>The Lord promised to do many good things for you. And the Lord will keep all his promises! God will make you leader over Israel. <sup>31</sup>And you won't fall into this trap. You won't be guilty of doing bad things! You won't be guilty of killing innocent people! Please remember me at the time the Lord brings you success."

<sup>32</sup>David answered Abigail, "Praise the Lord, the God of Israel. God sent you to meet me. <sup>33</sup>God bless you for your good judgment. You kept me from killing innocent people today. <sup>34</sup>Surely as the Lord, the God of Israel lives, if you hadn't come quickly to meet me, then not one man in Nabal's family would have lived until tomorrow morning."

<sup>35</sup>Then David accepted Abigail's gifts. David told her, "Go home in peace. I have heard your words, and I will do what you have asked."

Nabal's Death

<sup>36</sup>Abigail went back to Nabal. Nabal was in the house. Nabal had been eating like a king. Nabal was drunk and feeling good. So Abigail told Nabal nothing until the next morning. <sup>37</sup>The next morning, Nabal was sober. So his wife told him everything. And Nabal had a heart attack. He became as stiff as a rock! <sup>38</sup>About ten days later, the Lord caused Nabal to die.

<sup>39</sup>David heard that Nabal was dead. David said, "Praise to the Lord! Nabal said bad things about me, but the Lord supported me. The Lord kept me from doing wrong. And the Lord caused Nabal to die because he did wrong."

Then David sent a message to Abigail. David asked her to become his wife. <sup>40</sup>David's servants went to Carmel and said to Abigail, "David sent us to get you. David wants you to become his wife."

<sup>41</sup>Abigail bowed her face to the ground. She said, "I am your woman servant. I am ready to serve you. I am ready to wash the feet of my master's (David's) servants."*

<sup>43</sup>David also had married Abinoam of Jezreel. Both Abinoam and Abigail were David's wives. "Saul's daughter, Michal, was also David's wife. But Saul had given her to Palti son of Laish from Gallim.

David and Abishai Enter Saul's Camp

26 The people of Ziph went to see Saul at Gibeah. They said to Saul, "David is hiding on the hill of Hakilah. This hill is across from Jeshimon."

<sup>2</sup>Saul went down to the desert of Ziph. Saul took the 3,000 soldiers he had chosen from all over Israel. Saul and these men looked for David in the desert of Ziph. <sup>3</sup>Saul put up his camp on the hill of Hakilah. The camp was beside the road across from Jeshimon.

David was staying in the desert. David learned that Saul had followed him there. <sup>4</sup>David then sent out spies.* And David learned that Saul had come to Hakilah.

<sup>5</sup>Then David went to the place where Saul had put up his camp. David saw where Saul and Abner were sleeping. (Abner son of Ner was the commander of Saul's army.) Saul was sleeping in the middle of the camp. All the army was around Saul.

wash ... servants In David's time when a person washed the feet of people, it was a sign the person was humble.

spies People who secretly go to learn about the enemy's strengths and weaknesses.

sling A strip of leather for throwing rocks.

David talked to Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruiah. (Abishai was Joab's brother.) He asked them, "Who will go down into the camp with me to Saul?"

Abishai answered, "I will go with you."

<sup>7</sup>Night came. David and Abishai went into Saul's camp. Saul was asleep in the middle of the camp. His spear was stuck in the ground near his head. Abner and the army were asleep around Saul. <sup>8</sup>Abishai said to David, "Today God has let you defeat your enemy. Let me pin Saul to the ground with his spear. I will only do it once!"

<sup>9</sup>But David said to Abishai, "Don't kill Saul! Any person that hurts the Lord's chosen king must be punished! <sup>10</sup>Surely as the Lord lives, the Lord himself will punish Saul. Maybe Saul will die naturally, or maybe Saul will be killed in battle. <sup>11</sup>But I pray that the Lord never lets me hurt the Lord's chosen king! Now pick up the spear and water jug that are near Saul's head. Then let's go."

<sup>12</sup>So David took the spear and water jug that were near Saul's head. Then David and Abishai left Saul's camp. No person saw it happen. No person knew about it. Not one person even woke up! Saul and all of his soldiers slept because the Lord put them into a deep sleep.

David Shames Saul Again

<sup>13</sup>David crossed over to the other side. David stood on top of the mountain across the valley from Saul's camp. David and Saul's camp were far apart. <sup>14</sup>David shouted to the army and to Abner son of Ner. "Answer me, Abner!"

Abner answered, "Who are you? Why are you calling the king?"

<sup>15</sup>David said, "You are a man, aren't you? And you are better than any other man in Israel. Is that right? Then why didn't you guard your master, the king? An ordinary man came into your camp to kill your master, the king. <sup>16</sup>You made a big mistake! Surely as the Lord lives, you and your men should die. Why? Because you didn't protect your master, the Lord's chosen king. Look for the king's spear and the water jug that was near Saul's head? Where are they?"

<sup>17</sup>Saul knew David's voice. Saul said, "Is that your voice, David my son?"

David answered, "Yes, it is my voice, my master and king." <sup>18</sup>David also said, "Sir, why are you chasing me? What wrong have I done? What am I guilty of? <sup>19</sup>My master and king, listen to me! If the Lord caused you to be angry against me, then let him accept an offering. But if men caused you to be angry against me, then let the Lord cause bad things to happen to them. Men have forced me to leave the land the Lord gave me. Men have told me, 'Go live with the foreigners. Go and serve other gods.' <sup>20</sup>Now don't make me die far from the Lord's presence. The king of Israel has come out looking for a flea. You are like a man hunting a partridge in the mountains!"*

<sup>21</sup>Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Come back, David my son. Today you showed me that my life is important to you. So I will not try to hurt you. I have acted foolishly. I have made a big mistake."

<sup>22</sup>David answered, "Here is the king's spear. Let one of your young men come here and get it. <sup>23</sup>The Lord pays every man for the things he does—he rewards him if he does right, and he punishes him if he does wrong. The Lord let me defeat you today, but I wouldn't hurt the Lord's chosen king. <sup>24</sup>Today I showed you that your life is important to me! In the same way, the Lord will show that my life is important to him! The Lord will save me from every trouble."

<sup>25</sup>Then Saul said to David, "God bless you, David my son. You will do great things and you will succeed."

David went on his way, and Saul went back home.

David Lives with the Philistines

27 But David thought to himself, "Saul will catch me someday. The best thing man ... mountains When men hunted partridges in the mountains, they chased them until the birds became too tired to go on. Then they killed the birds. Saul was chasing David the same way. This is also a word play. The Hebrew word for "partridge" is like the word for "calling" in verse 14.

I can do is to escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will give up looking for me in Israel. That way I will escape from Saul."

<sup>2</sup>So David and his 600 men left Israel. They went to Achish son of Maach. Achish was king of Gath. <sup>3</sup>David, his men, and their families lived in Gath with Achish. David had his two wives with him. They were Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel. Abigail was the widow* of Nabal. <sup>4</sup>People told Saul that David had run away to Gath. And Saul stopped looking for him.

<sup>5</sup>David said to Achish, "If you are pleased with me, then give me a place in one of the country towns. I am only your servant. I should live there, not here with you in this royal city."

<sup>6</sup>That day Achish gave David the town of Ziklag. And Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah ever since. <sup>7</sup>David lived with the Philistines one year and four months.

David Fools King Achish

<sup>8</sup>David and his men went to fight the Amalekites and the people living in Geshur. David's men defeated them and took their wealth. People lived in the area from Telem near Shur all the way to Egypt. <sup>9</sup>David fought the people in that area. David didn't leave any person alive. David took all their sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels, and clothes. Then he brought it back to Achish.

<sup>10</sup>David did this many times. Each time Achish asked David where he fought and took those things. David said, "I fought against the southern part of Judah," or "I fought against the southern part of Jerahmeel," or "I fought against the southern part of the Kenizzites."*

<sup>11</sup>David never brought a man or woman alive to Gath. David thought, "If we let any person live, that person might tell Achish, what I really did!"

David did this all the time he lived in the Philistine land. <sup>12</sup>Achish began to trust David.

Achish said to himself, "Now David's own people hate him. The Israelites hate David very much. Now David will serve me forever."

The Philistines Prepare for War

28 Later the Philistines gathered their armies to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, "Do you understand that you and your men must go with me to fight against Israel,?"

<sup>2</sup>David answered, "Certainly! Then you can see for yourself what I can do!"

Achish said, "Fine, I will make you my bodyguard. You will protect me forever."

Saul and the Woman at Endor

<sup>2</sup>The Philistines prepared for war. They came to Shunem and made their camp at that place. Saul gathered all the Israelites and made his camp at Gilboa. <sup>3</sup>Saul saw the Philistine army, and he was scared. His heart pounded with fear. <sup>4</sup>Saul prayed to the Lord, but the Lord did not answer him. God did not talk to Saul in dreams. God did not use the Urim,* to give him an answer. And God did not use prophets to speak to Saul. <sup>5</sup>Finally, Saul said to his officers, "Find me a woman who is a medium.* Then I can go ask her what will happen in this war."

His officers answered, "There is a medium* in Endor."

<sup>6</sup>Saul put on different clothes. Saul did this so no person would know who he was. At night, Saul went with two of his men to see the woman. Saul said to the woman, "Show the future for me through a ghost. Call up the person I name."

widow A woman whose husband has died.

Judah, Jerahmeel, Kenizzites All these places belonged to Israel. David made Achish think he had fought against his own people, the Israelites.

medium(s) A person that tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.

Urim Urim and Thummim: In some way people were able to get answers from God through them. It is not clear how this happened. See Numbers 27:20-22.

<sup>9</sup>But the woman said to Saul, "Surely you know what Saul has done. He has forced the mediums* and fortune-tellers to leave the land of Israel. You are trying to trap me and kill me."

<sup>10</sup>Saul used the Lord's name and made a promise to the woman. "Surely as the Lord lives, you won't be punished for doing this."

<sup>11</sup>The woman asked, "Who do you want me to bring up for you?"

Saul answered, "Bring up Samuel."

<sup>12</sup>And it happened! The woman saw Samuel and screamed loudly. She said to Saul, "You tricked me! You are Saul."

<sup>13</sup>The king said to the woman, "Don't be afraid! What do you see?"

The woman said, "I see a spirit coming up out of the ground.*"

<sup>14</sup>Saul asked, "What does he look like?"

The woman answered, "He looks like an old man wearing a robe."

Then Saul knew it was Samuel. Saul bowed down. His face touched the ground. <sup>15</sup>Samuel said to Saul, "Why did you bother me? Why did you bring me up?"

Saul answered, "I am in trouble! The Philistines have come to fight against me, and God left me. God won't answer me any more. He won't use prophets or dreams to answer me. That's why I called you. I want you to tell me what to do!"

<sup>16</sup>Samuel said, "The Lord left you. Now he is with your neighbor. So why do you call on me?" <sup>17</sup>The Lord did what he said he would do. He used me to tell you about those things. The Lord pulled the kingdom from your hands. And he gave the kingdom to one of your neighbors. That neighbor is David. <sup>18</sup>You did not obey the Lord. You did not destroy the Amalekites and show them how angry the Lord was at them. That is why the Lord did this to you today. <sup>19</sup>The Lord will give you and Israel to the Philistines. The Lord will let the Philistines defeat the army of Israel. And tomorrow, you and your sons will be here with me!"

<sup>20</sup>Saul quickly fell to the ground and lay there. Saul was afraid because of the things Samuel said. Saul was also very weak because he did not eat any food all that day and night.

<sup>21</sup>The woman came to Saul. She saw Saul was really scared. She said, "Look, I am your servant. I have obeyed you. I risked my life and did what you told me to do. <sup>22</sup>Now please listen to me. Let me give you some food. You must eat. Then you will have enough strength to go on your way."

<sup>23</sup>But Saul refused. He said, "I won't eat."

Saul's officers joined the woman and begged him to eat. Finally, Saul listened to them. He got up from the ground and sat on the bed. <sup>24</sup>The woman had a fat calf at the house. She quickly killed the calf. She took some flour and pressed it with her hands. Then she baked some bread without yeast. <sup>25</sup>The woman put the food before Saul and his officers. Saul and his officers ate. Then that same night they got up and left.

The Philistine Rulers Refuse David's Help

29 The Philistines gathered all their soldiers at Aphek. The Israelites camped by the spring at Jezreel. <sup>2</sup>The Philistine rulers were marching with their groups of 100 men and 1,000 men. David and his men were marching at the back with Achish.

Achish told the Philistine captains, "This is David. David was one of Saul's officers. David has been with me for a long time. I found nothing wrong in David since the time he left Saul and came to me."

<sup>4</sup>But the Philistine captains were angry with Achish. They said, "Send David back! David must go back to the city you gave him. He can't go with us into battle. If he is here, then we will have an enemy in our own camp. He would please his king (Saul) by killing our own men. <sup>5</sup>David is the same person the Israelites sing and dance about in this song:

"Saul has killed thousands of enemies.

medium(s) A person that tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.

ground Or, "Sheol, the place of death."

David has killed tens of thousands of enemies!"

"So Achish called David. Achish said, "Surely as the Lord lives, you are loyal to me. I would be pleased to have you serve in my army. Since the day you came to me, I have found nothing wrong in you. Also the Philistine rulers think you are a good man." <sup>7</sup>Go back in peace. Don't do anything against the Philistine rulers."

"David asked, "What wrong have I done? What evil have you found in me from the day I came to you until now. Why won't you allow me to fight the enemies of my lord the king?"

"Achish answered, "I know that I like you. You are like an angel from God. But the Philistine captains still say, 'David can't go with us into battle.' <sup>10</sup>Early in the morning, you and your men should go back. Go back to the city I gave you. Don't pay attention to the bad things the captains say about you. You are a good man. So leave as soon as the sun comes up."

"So David and his men got up early in the morning. They went back to the country of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

The Amalekites Attack Ziklag

30 On the third day, David and his men arrived at Ziklag. They saw that the Amalekites had attacked Ziklag. The Amalekites invaded the Negev area. They attacked Ziklag and burned the city. <sup>2</sup>They took the women in Ziklag as prisoners. They took all the people, both young and old. They did not kill any of the people. They only took them away.

<sup>3</sup>David and his men came to Ziklag. And they found the city burning. Their wives, sons, and daughters were gone. The Amalekites took them. "David and the other men in his army cried loudly until they were too weak to cry any more. <sup>5</sup>The Amalekites had taken David's two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow* of Nabal from Carmel.

"All the men in the army was sad and angry because their sons and daughters were taken as prisoners. The men were talking about killing David with stones. This made David very upset. But David found strength in the Lord his God. <sup>7</sup>David said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod."*

"Then David prayed to the Lord. "Should I chase the people who took our families? Will I catch them?"

The Lord answered, "Chase them. You will catch them. You will save your families."

David and His Men Find the Egyptian Slave

"David took the 600 men with him and went to Besor Ravine. Some of the men stayed at this place. <sup>10</sup>There were 200 men that stayed there because they were too tired and weak to continue. So David and 400 men continued to chase the Amalekites.

"David's men found an Egyptian in a field. They took the Egyptian to David. They gave the Egyptian some water to drink and some food to eat. <sup>12</sup>They gave the Egyptian a piece of fig cake and two clusters of raisins. He felt better after eating. He had not eaten any food or drunk any water for three days and nights.

"David asked the Egyptian, "Who is your master? Where do you come from?"

The Egyptian answered, "I am an Egyptian. I am the slave of an Amalekite. Three days ago I became sick and my master left me. <sup>14</sup>We had attacked the Negev where the Kerethites* live. We attacked the land of Judah, and in the Negev area where Caleb's people live. We also burned Ziklag."

"David asked the Egyptian, "Will you lead me to the people that took our families?"

The Egyptian answered, "You promise before God that you won't kill me or give me back to my master. If you do that, then I will help you find them."

widow A woman whose husband has died.

ephod This was probably the special robe worn by priests.

Kerethites Or "people from Crete." This is probably the Philistines.

Philistine ... man The Philistine rulers are pleased with David. It is the Philistine commanders of the army who are against him.

David Defeats the Amalekites

<sup>16</sup>The Egyptian led David to the Amalekites. They were lying around on the ground, eating and drinking. They were celebrating with the many things they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from Judah. <sup>17</sup>David defeated them and killed them. They fought from sunrise until the evening of the next day. None of the Amalekites escaped, except 400 young men that jumped onto their camels and rode away.

All Men Will Share Equally

<sup>21</sup>David came to the 200 men that had stayed at Besor Ravine. These were the men that were too tired and weak to follow David. These men came out to meet David and the soldiers that went with him. The men at the Besor Ravine greeted David and his army as they came near. <sup>22</sup>But there were bad men and trouble-makers in the group that went with David. Those trouble-makers said, "These 200 men didn't go with us. So we won't give any of them the things we took. These men may only take their wives and children."

<sup>23</sup>David answered, "No, my brothers. Don't do that! Think about what the Lord gave us! The Lord let us defeat the enemy that attacked us. <sup>24</sup>No one will listen to what you say! The share will be the same for the man who stayed with the supplies and for the man who went into battle. Everyone will share alike." <sup>25</sup>David made this an order and rule for Israel. This rule continues even today.

<sup>26</sup>David arrived in Ziklag. Then he sent some of the things he took from the Amalekites, to his friends, the leaders of Judah.

David said, "Here is a present for you from the things we took from the Lord's enemies."

The Death of Saul

31 The Philistines fought against Israel, and the Israelites ran away from the Philistines. Many Israelites were killed at Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines fought hard against Saul and his sons. The Philistines killed Saul's sons Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malki-Shua.

<sup>3</sup>The battle became worse against Saul. The archers* shot arrows at Saul, and Saul was hurt very badly. <sup>4</sup>Saul said to the servant that carried his armor, "Take your sword and kill me. Then those foreigners won't come to hurt me and make fun of me." But Saul's armor carrier refused. Saul's helper was very scared.

So Saul took his own sword and killed himself. <sup>5</sup>The armor carrier saw that Saul was dead. So he also killed himself with his own sword. He died there with Saul. <sup>6</sup>So Saul, his three sons, and his armor carrier all died together that day.

The Philistines Find Saul's Body

<sup>7</sup>The Israelites that lived on the other side of the valley saw the Israelite army running away. They saw that Saul and his sons were dead. So those Israelites left their cities and ran away. Then the Philistines came and took those cities.

<sup>8</sup>The next day, the Philistines came to take things from the dead bodies. They found Saul and his three sons dead on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>The Philistines cut off Saul's head and took his archers Soldiers that used bows and arrows.

armor. They carried the news to the Philistine people and to the temple of their idols.* <sup>10</sup>They put Saul's armor in the temple of Astarte.* The Philistines also hung Saul's body on the wall of Beth Shan.

<sup>11</sup>The people living in Jabesh Gilead heard about the things that the Philistines did to Saul.

<sup>12</sup>So all the soldiers of Jabesh went to Beth Shan. They marched all night! Then they took Saul's body off the wall at Beth Shan. They also took down the bodies of Saul's sons. Then they took those bodies to Jabesh. There the people of Jabesh burned the bodies of Saul and his three sons. <sup>13</sup>Then these people took the bones of Saul and his three sons, and buried them under the tree in Jabesh. Then the people of Jabesh showed their sadness. The people of Jabesh did not eat for seven days.*

idols Statues of false gods.

Astarte The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love.

The ... days This was a way to show their deep sorrow at the death of Saul. They never forgot that Saul saved their city. See 1 Samuel 11.

2 Samuel

David Learns About Saul's Death

1 After David had defeated the Philistines, he came back to Ziklag and stayed there two days. This happened after Saul died. <sup>2</sup>On the third day, a young man came to Ziklag. This man came from the camp where Saul was. The man's clothes were torn, and he had dirt on his head.* The man came to David. The man bowed down on the ground before David.

<sup>3</sup>David asked the man, "Where do you come from?"

The man answered David, "I escaped from the camp of the Israelites."

<sup>4</sup>David said to the man, "Please tell me, who won the battle?"*

The man answered, "The people have run away from the battle. Many of the people have fallen and are dead. Saul and his son Jonathan are both dead also."

<sup>5</sup>David said to the young man, "How do you know Saul and his son Jonathan are both dead?"

<sup>6</sup>The young man that told David said, "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa. There I saw Saul leaning on his spear. The Philistine chariots* and the men riding on horses were coming closer and closer to Saul. <sup>7</sup>Saul looked back and saw me. He called to me. I answered him, 'Here I am!' <sup>8</sup>Then Saul asked me, 'Who are you?' I told him, 'I am an Amalekite.'

he had ... head Torn clothes and dirt on the head were a sign the man was very sad.

who ... battle Literally, "What is the situation?"

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

<sup>9</sup>"Saul said to me, 'Please kill me. I am badly hurt. And I am almost dead already.' <sup>10</sup>So I stopped and killed him. He was hurt so bad that I knew he could not live. Then I took the crown from his head and the bracelet from his arm. And I have brought the crown and bracelet here to you, my lord."

<sup>11</sup>Then David tore his clothes to show he was very sad. All the men with David did the same thing. <sup>12</sup>They were very sad and cried. They did not eat until evening. They cried because Saul and his son Jonathan were dead. David and his men cried for the Lord's people that were dead, and they cried for Israel. They cried because Saul, his son Jonathan, and many Israelites had been killed with swords.

David Orders the Amalekite Killed

<sup>13</sup>David talked to the young man that told him about Saul's death. David asked, "Where are you from?"

The young man answered, "I am the son of a foreigner. I am an Amalekite."

<sup>14</sup>David said to the young man, "Why were you not afraid to kill the Lord's chosen king?"

The young Israelite killed the Amalekite. <sup>16</sup>David said to the Amalekite, "You are responsible for your own death!* You have spoken against yourself. You said, 'I have killed the Lord's chosen king.'"

You ... death Literally, "Your blood be on your own head!"

2 SAMUEL 1:17-2:7

David's Sad Song About Saul and Jonathan

<sup>17</sup>David sang a sad song about Saul and his son Jonathan. <sup>18</sup>David told [his men,] to teach the song to the people of Judah. [This song is called,] "The Bow." This song is written in the [Book of Jashar].*

<sup>19</sup> "O Israel, your beauty has been destroyed on the high places.

The strong men have fallen.

<sup>20</sup> Don't tell it in Gath.*

Don't announce it in the streets of Ashkelon.*

The daughters of the Philistines may be happy.

The daughters of the uncircumcised* may rejoice.

<sup>21</sup> May there be no dew or rain on the mountains of Gilboa.

May there be no offerings coming from those fields.

The strong men's shield became dirty there.

Saul's shield was not polished with oil.*

<sup>22</sup> Jonathan's bow killed its share of enemies.

And Saul's sword killed its share of enemies.

They have touched the blood of dead men.

They have touched the fat of strong men.

<sup>23</sup> We loved Saul and Jonathan;

We enjoyed them while they lived.

Saul and Jonathan are together even in death.

They went faster than eagles,

They were stronger than lions.

<sup>24</sup> You daughters of Israel, cry for Saul!

Saul gave you red dresses;

Saul put gold decorations on your dresses.

<sup>25</sup> Strong men have fallen in the battle. Jonathan is dead on Gilboa's hills.

<sup>26</sup> I cry for you, my brother Jonathan!

I enjoyed your friendship so much.

Your love to me was stronger than the love of women.

<sup>27</sup> Strong men have fallen in battle.

The weapons of war are gone."

David and His Men Move to Hebron

2 Later David prayed to the Lord. 1 He said, "Should I go up into any of the cities of Judah?"

The Lord said to David, "Go."

David asked, "Where should I go?"

The Lord answered, "To Hebron."

<sup>2</sup>So David went up there. His two wives went with him. They were Ahinoam Jezreel and Abigail the widow* of Nab Carmel. <sup>3</sup>David also brought his men and families. All of them made their homes in cities of Hebron.

David Thanks the People of Jabesh

"The men of Judah came and anointed David king over Judah. Then they told David, "The men of Jabesh Gilead were the ones buried Saul."

<sup>1</sup>David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead. These messengers told David words to, the men in Jabesh: "The Lord has anointed you, because you have shown kindness to our lord Saul by burying [his ashes].* <sup>2</sup>The Lord will now be kind and true to you. I will also be kind to you because you [have buried Saul's] ashes. <sup>3</sup>Now be strong and brave, because your lord is dead and the family group of David has anointed* me to be their king."

Book of Jashar An ancient lost book about the wars of Israel.

Gath Gath was the capital of the Philistines.

Ashkelon One of the five Philistine cities.

uncircumcised Men that were not circumcised. This meant they were Philistines, not Jews.

Saul's ... oil Or, "Saul's shield was not anointed with oil."

widow A woman whose husband has died.

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

his ashes The bodies of both Saul and Jonathan burned. See 1 Samuel 31:12.

Ish-Bosheth Becomes King

<sup>8</sup>Abner son of Ner was the captain of Saul's army. Abner took Saul's son Ish-Bosheth to Mahanaim. <sup>9</sup>At that place, Abner made Ish-Bosheth king of Gilead, Asher, Jezreel, Ephraim, and Benjamin. Ish-Bosheth became the king of all Israel. <sup>10</sup>Ish-Bosheth was Saul's son. Ish-Bosheth was 40 years old when he began to rule over Israel. He ruled two years. But the family group of Judah followed David. <sup>11</sup>David was king in Hebron over the family group of Judah for seven years and six months.

Ish-Bosheth's Men and David's Men Have a Contest

<sup>12</sup>Abner son of Ner and the servants of Ish-Bosheth, Saul's son, left Mahanaim. They went to Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>Joab, Zeruiah's son, and the servants of David also went to Gibeon. They met Abner and Ish-Bosheth's servants at the pool of Gibeon. Abner's group sat on one side of the pool. Joab's group sat on the other side of the pool.

<sup>14</sup>Abner said to Joab, "Let us have the young men get up and have a contest here."

Joab said, "Yes, let them have a contest."

<sup>15</sup>Then the young men got up. The two groups counted their men for the contest. Twelve men were chosen from the family group of Benjamin for Ish-Bosheth, Saul's son. Twelve men were chosen from David's servants. <sup>16</sup>Each man grabbed his enemy's head and stabbed his enemy's side with his sword. So the men fell down together. That is why the place is called "The Field of the Sharp Knives."* The place is in Gibeon. <sup>17</sup>That day the contest became a terrible battle. David's servants defeated Abner and the Israelites.

Abner Kills Asahel

<sup>18</sup>Zeruiah had three sons, Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Asahel was a fast runner. He was as fast as a deer in the field. <sup>19</sup>Asahel chased Abner. Asahel went straight toward Abner.

<sup>20</sup>Abner looked back and asked, "Are you Asahel?"

Asahel said, "I am."

<sup>22</sup>Abner again said to Asahel, "Stop chasing me! If you don't stop, I will kill you! If I kill you, I will not be able to look at your brother Joab's face again."

<sup>23</sup>But Asahel refused to stop chasing Abner. So Abner used the back end of his spear and thrust it into Asahel's stomach. The spear went so deep into Asahel's stomach that it came out of his back. Asahel died right there.

Joab and Abishai Chase Abner

Asahel's body lay on the ground. The men ran to him and stopped. <sup>24</sup>But Joab and Abishai continued chasing Abner.* The sun was just going down when they arrived at Ammah Hill. (Ammah Hill is in front of Giah on the way to Gibeon Desert.) <sup>25</sup>The men from the family group of Benjamin came to Abner. They all stood together at the top of the hill.

<sup>26</sup>Abner shouted to Joab. Abner said, "Must we fight and kill each other forever? Surely you know that this will only end in sadness. Tell the people to stop chasing their own brothers."

<sup>27</sup>Then Joab said, "It is a good thing you said that. As surely as God is alive, if you had not said anything, then people would still be chasing their brothers in the morning." <sup>28</sup>Then Joab blew a trumpet, and his people stopped chasing the Israelites. They did not try to fight the Israelites any more.

<sup>29</sup>Abner and his men went all night through the Arabah. They crossed the Jordan River. They marched all day and arrived at Mahanaim.

<sup>30</sup>Joab came back after he had stopped chasing Abner. When Joab had gathered the armor Clothing that had metal or hard things in it to protect the person wearing it in war.

Joab, Abishai Joab and Abishai were the brothers of Asahel, the man that Abner killed. See verse 18.

The Field of the Sharp Knives The name in Hebrew is "Helkaah-Hazzurim."

people together, 19 of David's servants were missing. Asahel was also missing. <sup>31</sup>But David's servants had killed 350 members of Abner's followers from the family group of Benjamin. <sup>32</sup>The servants of David took Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father at Bethlehem.

Joab and his men marched all night. The sun came up when they reached Hebron.

War Between Israel and Judah

3 There was war for a long time between Saul's family and David's family.* David became stronger and stronger. And Saul's family became weaker and weaker.

David's Six Sons Born at Hebron

<sup>1</sup>David had these sons that were born at Hebron. The first son was Ammon. Ammon's mother was Ahinoam from Jezreel. <sup>2</sup>The second son was Kileab. Kileab's mother was Abigail, the widow* of Nabal from Carmel. The third son was Absalom. Absalom's mother was Maacah daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur. <sup>4</sup>The fourth son was Adonijah. Adonijah's mother was Haggith. The fifth son was Shephatiah. Shephatiah's mother was Abital. <sup>6</sup>The sixth son was Ithream. Ithream's mother was David's wife Eglah. David had these six sons, born at Hebron.

Abner Decides to Join David

<sup>6</sup>While there was war between Saul's family and David's family, Abner made himself stronger in Saul's army.

<sup>7</sup>Saul had a woman servant* named Rizpah. She was like a wife for him. Rizpah was the daughter of Aiah. Ish-Bosheth said to Abner, "Why did you have sexual relations with my father's servant woman?"

between ... David's family The Judah family group followed David. They were at war with the other family groups that were following Saul.

widow A woman whose husband has died.

woman servant Or, "concubine," a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

<sup>8</sup>Abner was very angry because of what Ish-Bosheth said. Abner said, "I have been loyal to Saul and his family. I did not give you to David— I did not let him defeat you. I am not a traitor working for Judah.* But now you are saying that I did this bad thing. <sup>9</sup><sup>10</sup>I promise that I will now make sure that the things God said will happen. The Lord said he would take the kingdom from Saul's family and give it to David. The Lord will make David king of Israel and Judah. He will rule from Dan to Beersheba.* And may God do bad things to me if I don't help do those things."

<sup>11</sup>Ish-Bosheth could not say anything to Abner. Ish-Bosheth was too afraid of him.

<sup>12</sup>Abner sent messengers to David. Abner said, "You control this country. Make an agreement with me, and I will help you become the ruler of all the people of Israel."

<sup>13</sup>David answered, "Good! I will make an agreement with you. But I ask you only one thing: I will not meet with you until you bring Saul's daughter Michal to me."

David Gets His Wife Michal Back

<sup>14</sup>David sent messengers to Saul's son Ish-Bosheth. David said, "Give me my wife Michal. She was promised to me. I killed 100 Philistines to get her."*

<sup>15</sup>Then Ish-Bosheth told the men to go and take Michal from a man named Paltiel son of Laish. <sup>16</sup>Michal's husband Paltiel went with Michal. Paltiel was crying while he followed Michal to Bahurim. But Abner said to Paltiel, "Go back home." So Paltiel went back home.

Abner Promises to Help David

<sup>17</sup>Abner sent this message to the leaders of Israel. He said, "You have been wanting to make David your king. <sup>18</sup>Now do it! The Lord was talking about David when he said, 'I will

I am ... Judah Literally, "Am I a dog's head of Judah?"

Dan to Beersheba This means all the people of Israel.

Dan was the town farthest north, and Beersheba was in the south.

I killed ... to get her Literally, "I paid for her with 100 Philistine foreskins."

save my people the Israelites from the Philistines and all their other enemies. I will do this through my servant David.”

<sup>19</sup>Abner said these things to David in Hebron. And he said these things to the people of the Benjamin family group. The things Abner said sounded good to the Benjamin family group and to all the people of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>Then Abner came up to David at Hebron. Abner brought 20 men with him. David gave a party for Abner and for all the men that came with him.

<sup>21</sup>Abner said to David, “Lord, my king, I will go and bring all the Israelites to you. Then they will make an agreement with you. And you will rule over all Israel, like you wanted.”

Then David let Abner leave. And Abner left in peace.

Abner's Death

<sup>22</sup>Joab and David's officers came from battle. They had many valuable things that they had taken from the enemy. David had let Abner leave in peace. So Abner was not with David at Hebron. <sup>23</sup>Joab and all his army arrived at Hebron. The army said to Joab, “Abner son of Ner came to King David. And David let Abner leave in peace.” <sup>24</sup>Joab came to the king and said, “What have you done? Abner came to you, but you sent him away without hurting him! Why?” <sup>25</sup>You know Abner son of Ner. He came to trick you. He came to learn all about the things you are doing.”

David Cries for Abner

<sup>28</sup>Later David heard the news. David said, “My kingdom and I are innocent of the death of Abner son of Ner. The Lord knows this. <sup>29</sup>Joab and his family are responsible for this, and all his family are to be blamed. I hope many troubles will come to Joab's family. I hope that his family always has someone with the sickness of leprosy, and someone that must use crutches, and someone that will be killed in war, and someone without food to eat.”

<sup>31-32</sup>David said to Joab and to all the people with Joab, “Tear your clothes and put on clothes of sadness.* Cry for Abner.” They buried Abner in Hebron. David went to the funeral. King David and all the people cried at Abner's grave.

“Did Abner die like a foolish man?

<sup>34</sup> His hands were not tied.

His feet were not put in chains.

You have fallen before evil men.

You have fallen dead.”

Then all the people cried again for Abner.

<sup>35</sup>All the people came to encourage David to eat food while it was still day. But David made a special promise. He said, “May God punish me and add trouble to me if I eat bread or any other food before the sun goes down.”

<sup>36</sup>All the people saw what happened, and they agreed with the things that King David was doing. <sup>37</sup>That day all the people of Judah and all the Israelites understood that it was not King David that killed Abner son of Ner.

<sup>38</sup>King David said to his servants, “You know that a very important leader has died today in Israel. <sup>39</sup>And this was the day that I was anointed* to be the king. These sons of Zeruiah have caused much trouble for me. May the Lord give these men the punishment they should have.”

Tear ... sadness This was a way to show great sadness.
anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

Baanah and Recab, Captains of Saul's Army

4 Saul's son (Ish-Bosheth) heard that Abner had died at Hebron. Ish-Bosheth and all his people became very scared. <sup>2</sup>Two men that were captains in the army came to Saul's son (Ish-Bosheth). One man was named Baanah and the second man was named Recab. Baanah and Recab were the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth. They came from the family group of Benjamin. The town Beeroth belonged to the family group of Benjamin. <sup>3</sup>The people of Beeroth ran away to Gittaim. And they still live there today.

Jonathan's Son Mephibosheth

<sup>4</sup>Saul's son Jonathan had a son that was crippled. Jonathan's son was five years old when the news came that Saul and Jonathan were dead at Jezreel. This son's nurse picked him up and ran away. But when the nurse hurried to run away, Jonathan's son fell out of his nurse's arms. (This is how Jonathan's son, Mephibosheth, became crippled. This son's name is Mephibosheth.

Baanah and Recab Kill Ish-Bosheth

<sup>5</sup>Recab and Baanah, sons of Rimmon from Beeroth, went to Ish-Bosheth's house at noon. Ish-Bosheth was resting because it was hot. <sup>6</sup>Recab and Baanah came into the middle of the house like they were going to get some wheat. Ish-Bosheth was lying on his bed in his bedroom. Recab and Baanah stabbed and killed Ish-Bosheth. Then they cut off his head and took it with them. They traveled all night by the way through the Arabah. <sup>8</sup>They arrived at Hebron. And they gave Ish-Bosheth's head to David.

Recab and Baanah said to the King David, "Here is the head of your enemy Ish-Bosheth son of Saul. He tried to kill you. The Lord has punished Saul and his family for you today."

<sup>9</sup>David answered Recab and his brother Baanah. David said, "Surely, as the Lord lives, he has saved me from all trouble. <sup>10</sup>But a person thought he would bring me good news. He told me, 'Look! Saul is dead.' He thought I would reward him for bringing me the news. But I took hold of this man and killed him at Ziklag. <sup>11</sup>So I must require your death because evil men have killed a good man on his own bed in his own house."

<sup>12</sup>David commanded the young men to kill Recab and Baanah. Then the young men cut off the hands and feet of Recab and Baanah and hung them by the pool of Hebron. Then they took the head of Ish-Bosheth and buried it in the same place where Abner was buried at Hebron.

The Israelites Make David King

5 Then all the family groups of Israel came to David at Hebron. They said to David, "Look, we are one family!" <sup>2</sup>In the past, when Saul was king over us, you were the one that led us in battle, for Israel. The Lord said to you, 'You will become shepherd of my people the Israelites. You will become ruler over Israel.'

<sup>3</sup>All the leaders of Israel came to King David at Hebron. King David made an agreement with these leaders in Hebron in front of the Lord. Then the leaders anointed* David king over Israel.

<sup>4</sup>David was 30 years old when he began to rule. He ruled 40 years. <sup>5</sup>He ruled over Judah in Hebron seven years and six months. And he ruled over all Israel and Judah in Jerusalem 33 years.

David Wins the Town of Jerusalem

<sup>6</sup>The king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites. (The Jebusites were the people that lived in the land). The Jebusites said to David, "You can't come into our city. * Even blind and crippled people can stop you." (They said this because they thought that David would not be able to enter into their city. <sup>7</sup>But one family Literally, "Your flesh and blood."

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

You can't come ... city The city of Jerusalem was built on a hill. And the city had high walls around it. So it was very hard to capture.

David did take the fort of Zion. This fort became the City of David.*

<sup>8</sup>That day David said to his men, "If you want to defeat the Jebusites, go through the water tunnel* and reach those 'crippled' and 'blind' enemies."

This is why people say, "The blind and the crippled can't come into the house.*"

<sup>9</sup>David lived in the fort and called it "The City of David."* David built the area called the Millo.* He also built more buildings inside the city. <sup>10</sup>David became stronger and stronger because the Lord All-Powerful was with him.

<sup>11</sup>Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David. Hiram also sent cedar trees, carpenters and men that build things from stone. They built a house for David. <sup>12</sup>At that time, David knew that the Lord had really made him king of Israel. And David knew that the Lord had made his kingdom very important to God's people, the people of Israel.

David Goes to War Against the Philistines

<sup>17</sup>When the Philistines heard that the Israelites had anointed* David king over Israel, all the Philistines went to look for David (to kill him). But David heard (the news). He went down to a fort. <sup>18</sup>The Philistines came and camped in the Valley of Rephaim.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

water tunnel There was a water tunnel that went under the ground into the ancient city of Jerusalem. David and his men used this tunnel to enter the city.

house This might mean, "house, palace, or temple."

Millo Probably one of the strong places that made up the ancient fort of Zion.

woman servants Or, "concubines," slave woman who were like wives to a man.

anoint To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

<sup>19</sup>David asked the Lord, saying, "Should I go to war against the Philistines? Will you help me defeat the Philistines?"

The Lord said to David, "Go, because I will certainly help you defeat the Philistines."

<sup>23</sup>David prayed to the Lord. This time the Lord told David, "Don't go there. Go around them to the back of their army. Attack them near the balsam trees. <sup>24</sup>Climb up into the trees. From the top of the balsam trees, you will hear the Philistines marching to war. Then you must act quickly, because at that time the Lord will go and defeat the Philistines for you."

<sup>25</sup>David did the things the Lord commanded him to do. He defeated the Philistines. He chased them all the way from Geba to Gezer.

God's Holy Box Is Moved to Jerusalem

6 David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, 30,000 men. <sup>2</sup>Then David and all his people went to Baalah in Judah* and took God's Holy Box* from Baalah in Judah* (and moved it to Jerusalem). People go to the Holy Box to worship the Lord. (The Holy Box is like the Lord's throne.) There are statues of Cherub angels* on top of the Holy Box. And the Lord sits as king on these angels. <sup>3</sup>David's men put God's Holy Box on a new wagon. They

Baal-Perazim In Hebrew this name means "The Lord breaks through."

Baalah in Judah Another name for Kirith-Jearim. See 1 Chronicles 13:6.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement. Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

brought the Holy Box* out of Abinadab's house on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, sons of Abinadab, led the new wagon.

<sup>4</sup>Uzzah and Ahio led the new wagon out of Abinadab's house on the hill. This wagon had God's Holy Box* on it. Ahio walked in front of the Holy Box. <sup>5</sup>David and all the Israelites were playing all kinds of musical instruments, before the Lord. These musical instruments were made of cypress wood. There were lyres,* harps, drums, rattles and cymbals.* <sup>6</sup>When David's men came to the threshing floor* of Nacon, the cows fell, and God's Holy Box began to fall off the wagon. Uzzah caught the Holy Box. <sup>7</sup>The Lord was angry against Uzzah and killed him.* Uzzah showed he did not honor God when he touched the Holy Box. Uzzah died there by God's Holy Box. <sup>8</sup>David was upset because the Lord had killed Uzzah. David called that place "Perez-Uzzah."* That place is still called Perez-Uzzah today.

<sup>9</sup>David became afraid of the Lord that day. David said, "How can I bring God's Holy Box* here now?"

<sup>10</sup>So David would not move the Lord's Holy Box* into the City of David.* David put the Holy Box at the house of Obed-Edom from Gath. David carried the Holy Box off the road to the house of Obed-Edom of Gath.* <sup>11</sup>The Lord's Holy Box stayed in Obed-Edom's house for three months. The Lord blessed Obed-Edom and all his family.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement. Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

lyres Musical instruments that are like small harps.

cymbals Brass plates that were hit together to make a ringing noise.

threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

The ... him Only the Levites could carry God's Holy Box or other furniture from the Holy Tent. Uzzah was not a Levite. Read Numbers 1:50.

Perez-Uzzah This name in Hebrew means "The Punishment of Uzzah."

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

Obed-Edom of Gath A person from the family group of Levi that lived near Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup>The people told David, "The Lord has blessed the family of Obed-Edom and all his things, because God's Holy Box* is there." So David went and brought God's Holy Box from Obed-Edom's house. David did this with joy. <sup>13</sup>When the men, that carried the Lord's Holy Box had walked six steps, they stopped and, David sacrificed a bull and a fat calf. <sup>14</sup>Then David danced before the Lord. David had on a holy coat.*

<sup>15</sup>David and all the Israelites shouted with joy, and blew the trumpet while they brought the Lord's Holy Box* to the city. <sup>16</sup>Saul's daughter Michal was looking out the window. At the time the Lord's Holy Box came into the city, David was jumping and dancing before the Lord. Michal saw this, and she was disgusted with David.

<sup>17</sup>David put up a tent for the Holy Box.* The Israelites put the Lord's Holy Box in its place, under the tent. Then David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord.

<sup>18</sup>After David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord All-Powerful. <sup>19</sup>David also gave a share of bread, a raisin cake, and some date bread to every man and woman, to all the people of Israel. Then all the people went home.

Michal Scolds David

<sup>20</sup>David went back to bless his home. But Saul's daughter Michal came out to meet him. Michal said, "The king of Israel did not honor himself today! You took off your clothes in front of your servants' girls.* You were like a foolish man that takes off his clothes without shame!"

<sup>21</sup>Then David said to Michal, "The Lord chose me, not your father or any person from his family. The Lord chose me to be leader of his people the Israelites. That is why I will celebrate in front of the Lord. <sup>22</sup>Maybe I will lose honor from you., Maybe I will be humble holy coat Or, "ephod," a vest usually worn by priests.

You took off ... girls David had on only a holy coat (ephod). We don't know how much of his body was covered.

to myself. But the girls you talk about honor me.”

<sup>2</sup>Saul’s daughter Michal never had a child. She died without having any children.

David Wants to Build a Temple

7 When King David was living in his house, the Lord gave him peace from all his enemies around him. <sup>2</sup>King David said to Nathan the prophet, “Look, I am living in a house made of cedar wood. But God’s Holy Box* is still kept in a tent!”

<sup>3</sup>Nathan said to King David, “Go and do what you really want to do. The Lord is with you.”

<sup>4</sup>But that night, the Lord’s word came to Nathan. The Lord said, <sup>5</sup>“Go and tell my servant David, ‘This is what the Lord says: You are not the person to build a house for me to live in. <sup>6</sup>I did not live in a house at the time I took the Israelites out of Egypt. No, I traveled around in a tent. I used the tent for my home. <sup>7</sup>I never said a word to any of the family groups of Israel about their building a house of cedar wood for me.’

<sup>8</sup>“You must say this to my servant David: ‘This is what the Lord All-Powerful says: I took you from the pasture. I took you when you were following the sheep. I took you to become leader of my people the Israelites. <sup>9</sup>I have been with you every place you went. I have defeated your enemies for you. I will make you as famous as any of the great people on the earth. <sup>10,11</sup>And I will choose a place for my people the Israelites. I will plant the Israelites so that they can live in their own place. Then they will not be moved any more. In the past, I sent judges to lead my people of Israel. And evil people bothered them. That will not happen now. I will give you peace from all your enemies. I also tell you that I will make your family be kings.*

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement. Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

make your family be kings Literally, “make a house for you.”

<sup>12</sup>“Your days will be finished, and you will be buried with your fathers. At that time, I will make one of your own children become the king. <sup>13</sup>He will build a house for my name. I will make his kingdom strong forever. <sup>14</sup>I will be his father, and he will be my son. When he sins, then I will use other people to punish him. They will be my whips. <sup>15</sup>But I will not stop loving him. I will continue to be kind to him. I took away my love and kindness from Saul. I pushed Saul away when I turned to you. I will not do that to your family. <sup>16</sup>Your family and your kingdom will continue forever for you.”

David Prays to God

<sup>18</sup>Then David the king went in and sat in front of the Lord. David said, “Lord, my Master, why am I so important to you? Why is my family important? Why have you made me so important? <sup>19</sup>I am nothing but a servant. (And you have been so kind to me.) But you have also said these kind things about my future family. Lord, my Master, you don’t always talk like this to people, do you? <sup>20</sup>How can I continue talking to you? Lord, my Master, you know that I am only a servant. <sup>21</sup>You have done these wonderful things because you have said you would do them and because it is something you wanted to do. And you have decided to let me know all these great things. <sup>22</sup>This is why you are great, Lord God! There is no one like you. There is no god like you. We have heard all this ourselves.

<sup>23</sup>“And there is no nation on earth like your people, the people of Israel. They are a special people. (They were slaves.) But you took them from Egypt and made them free. You made them your people. You did great and wonderful things for the Israelites. You did wonderful things for your land. <sup>24</sup>You made the people of Israel your very own people forever. And Lord, you became their God.

vision Like a dream. God gave messages to his special people by letting them see and hear things in visions.

<sup>25</sup>“Now, Lord God, you talked about me. I am your servant. You also talked about my family. Make your promises come true forever. Do the things you have promised. <sup>26</sup>Then your name will be honored forever. And people will say, ‘The Lord God All Powerful rules! May the family of your servant David continue before you.’

<sup>27</sup>“You, Lord All-Powerful, the God of Israel, have shown things to me. You said, ‘I will make your family great.’ This is why I, your servant, decided to pray this prayer to you. <sup>28</sup>Now, Lord God, you are God, and your words are true. And you have promised this good thing to me, your servant. <sup>29</sup>Please, bless my family. Let it continue before you forever. Lord God, you have said these wonderful things. With your blessing, let my family be blessed forever.”

David Wins Many Wars

S Later, David defeated the Philistines. He took control of their capital city. <sup>2</sup>David also defeated the people of Moab. He forced them to lie on the ground. Then he used a rope to measure them. When two men were measured, David ordered them killed. But every third man was allowed to live. The people of Moab became servants of David. They paid tribute* to him.

<sup>3</sup>Hadadezer son of Rehob was king of Zobah. David defeated Hadadezer when he tried to take control of the area near the Euphrates River. <sup>4</sup>David took from Hadadezer 1,700 horse soldiers. He also took 20,000 foot soldiers. David crippled all the chariot horses except 100. He saved those 100 horses to pull chariots.

<sup>5</sup>Syrians from Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah. But David defeated those 22,000 Syrians. <sup>6</sup>Then David put groups of soldiers in Damascus, Syria. The Syrians became David’s servants and brought tribute.* The Lord gave victory to David in every place he went.

tribute Money that a people gave to a king that defeated them.

<sup>7</sup>David took the shields of gold that had belonged to Hadadezer’s servants. David took these shields and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>David also took many, many things made of brass from Betah and Berothai. (Betah and Berothai were cities that had belonged to Hadadezer.)

<sup>13</sup>David defeated 18,000 Syrians in Salt Valley. He was famous when he came home. <sup>14</sup>David put groups of soldiers in Edom. He put these groups of soldiers through all the land of Edom. All the people of Edom became servants for David. The Lord gave victory to David in every place he went.

David’s Rule

<sup>15</sup>David ruled over all Israel. David’s decisions were fair and right for all his people. <sup>16</sup>Joab son of Zeruiah was captain, over the army. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the historian. <sup>17</sup>Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests. Seraiah was secretary. <sup>18</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was ruler, over the Kerethites and Pelethites.* And David’s sons were important leaders.*

dedicated To give for a special use.

Kerethites and Pelethites These were David’s special bodyguards. An ancient Aramaic translation has “the archers and stone-throwers.”

important leaders Literally, “priests.”

David Wants to Show Kindness to Saul's Family

9 David asked, "Is there any person still left in Saul's family? I want to show kindness to this person for Jonathan's sake."

<sup>1</sup>There was a servant named Ziba from Saul's family. David's servants called Ziba to David. The king (David) said to Ziba, "Are you Ziba?"

Ziba said, "Yes, I am Ziba, your servant."

<sup>2</sup>The king said, "Is there any person left in Saul's family? I want to show God's kindness to this person."

Ziba said to the king (David), "Jonathan has a son still living. He is crippled in both feet."

<sup>3</sup>The king said to Ziba, "Where is this son?"

Ziba said to the king, "He is at the house of Makir son of Ammiel in Lo Debar."

<sup>4</sup>Then King David sent servants to bring Jonathan's son from the house of Makir son of Ammiel in Lo Debar. <sup>5</sup>Jonathan's son Mephibosheth came to David, and bowed with his face low to the floor.

David said, "Mephibosheth!"

Mephibosheth said, "Here I am. I am your servant."

<sup>6</sup>David said to Mephibosheth, "Don't be afraid. I will be kind to you. I will do this for your father Jonathan's sake. I will give back to you all the land of your grandfather Saul. And you will always be able to eat at my table."

<sup>7</sup>Mephibosheth bowed to David again. Mephibosheth said, "You are being very kind to me, your servant. And I am no better than a dead dog!"

<sup>8</sup>Then King David called Saul's servant Ziba. David said to Ziba, "I have given Saul's family and all he owns to your master's grandson (Mephibosheth). <sup>9</sup>You will farm the land for Mephibosheth. Your sons and servants will do this for Mephibosheth. You will harvest the crops. Then your master's grandson (Mephibosheth) will have food to eat. But Mephibosheth, your master's grandson, will always be able to eat at my table."

Ziba had 15 sons and 20 servants. <sup>11</sup>Ziba said to the king (David), "I am your servant. I will do all the things my lord, the king, commands me."

So Mephibosheth ate at David's table like he was, one of the king's sons. <sup>12</sup>Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica. All the people in Ziba's family became Mephibosheth's servants. <sup>13</sup>Mephibosheth was crippled in both feet. Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem. Every day Mephibosheth ate at the king's table.

Hanun Shames David's Men

10 Later Nahash, king of the Ammonites died. Hanun his son became king after him. <sup>2</sup>David said, "Nahash was kind to me. So I will be kind to his son Hanun." So David sent his officers to comfort Hanun about his father's death.

So David's servants went to the land of the Ammonites. <sup>3</sup>But the Ammonite leaders said to Hanun, their lord, "Do you think that David is trying to honor your father by sending some men to comfort you? No! David sent these men to secretly spy and learn things about your city. They plan to make war against you."

<sup>4</sup>So Hanun took David's servants and shaved off one half of their beards. He cut their clothes in the middle down to their hips. Then he sent them away.

<sup>5</sup>When the people told David, he sent messengers, to meet his officers. He did this because these men were very ashamed. King David said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards grow again. Then come back to Jerusalem."

War Against the Ammonites

<sup>6</sup>The Ammonites saw that they had become David's enemies. So the Ammonites hired Syrians from Beth Rehob and Zobah. There were 20,000 Syrian foot soldiers. The Ammonites also hired the king of Maacah with 1,000 men and 12,000 men from Tob.

<sup>7</sup>David heard about this. So he sent Joab and all the army of powerful men. <sup>8</sup>The Ammonites came out and got ready for the battle. They stood at the city gate. The Syrians from Zobah and Rehob, and the men from Tob and Maacah did not stand together with the Ammonites in the field.

<sup>9</sup>Joab saw that the Ammonites stood against him both in the front and in the back. So he chose some of the best men from the Israelites. Joab made these best men ready for battle against the Syrians. <sup>10</sup>Then Joab gave the other men to his brother Abishai to lead against the Ammonites. <sup>11</sup>Joab said to Abishai, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, you will help me. If the Ammonites are too strong for you, I will come and help you. <sup>12</sup>Be strong, and let us fight bravely for our people and for the cities of our God. The Lord will do what he decides is right."

<sup>13</sup>Then Joab and his men attacked the Syrians. The Syrians ran away from Joab and his men. <sup>14</sup>The Ammonites saw that the Syrians were running away, so they ran away from Abishai and went back to their city.

So Joab came back from the battle with the Ammonites and went back to Jerusalem.

The Syrians Decide to Fight Again

<sup>15</sup>The Syrians saw that the Israelites had defeated them. So they came together into one big army. <sup>16</sup>Hadadezer* sent messengers to bring the Syrians that lived on the other side of the Euphrates River. These Syrians came to Helam. Their leader was Shobach, the captain of Hadadezer's army.

<sup>17</sup>David heard about this. So he gathered all the Israelites together. They crossed over the Jordan River and went to Helam.

There the Syrians prepared for battle and attacked. <sup>18</sup>But David defeated the Syrians, and the Syrians ran away from the Israelites. David killed many Syrians: 700 chariot drivers, and 40,000 horse riders. David also killed Shobach the captain of the Syrian army.

<sup>19</sup>The kings that served Hadadezer* saw that the Israelites had defeated them. So they made peace with the Israelites and served them. The Syrians were afraid to help the Ammonites again.

David Meets Bathsheba

11 In the spring, at the time when kings go out to war, David sent Joab, his servants, and all the Israelites out to destroy the Ammonites. Joab's army also attacked Rabbah.*

But David stayed in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>In the evening, he got up from his bed. He walked around on the roof of the king's house. While David was on the roof, he saw a woman bathing. The woman was very beautiful. <sup>3</sup>So David sent for his servants and asked them who the woman was. A servant answered, "That woman is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam. She is the wife of Uriah the Hittite."

<sup>4</sup>David sent messengers to go and bring Bathsheba to him. When she came to David, he had sexual relations with her. She washed herself, and then went back to her house. <sup>5</sup>But Bathsheba became pregnant. She sent word to David. She told him, "I am pregnant."

David Tries to Hide His Sin

So Joab sent Uriah to David. <sup>7</sup>Uriah came to David. David talked with Uriah. David asked Uriah how Joab was, how the soldiers were, and how the war was. <sup>8</sup>Then David said to Uriah, "Go home and rest."

Uriah left the king's house. The king also sent a gift to Uriah. <sup>9</sup>But Uriah did not go home. Uriah slept outside the door of the king's house. He slept there like all the king's servants did. <sup>10</sup>The servants told David, "Uriah did not go home."

Then David said to Uriah, "You came from a long trip. Why did you not go home?"

<sup>11</sup>Uriah said to David, "The Holy Box* and the soldiers of Israel and Judah are staying in Rabbah The capital city of the Ammonites.

rest Literally, "wash your feet"

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement. Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

Hadadezer The ancient Greek has Hadarezer.

tents. My lord Joab, and my lord's (King David's) servants are camping out in the field. So it is not right for me to go home to drink, and sleep with my wife."

<sup>12</sup>David said to Uriah, "Stay here today. Tomorrow I will send you back to the battle."

Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day. He stayed until the next morning. <sup>13</sup>Then David called Uriah to come and see him. Uriah ate and drank with David. David made Uriah drunk. But Uriah still did not go home. That evening, Uriah went to sleep with the king's servants outside the king's door.

David Plans Uriah's Death

<sup>14</sup>The next morning, David wrote a letter to Joab. David made Uriah carry the letter. <sup>15</sup>In the letter, David wrote: "Put Uriah on the front lines where the fighting is the hardest. Then leave him there alone, and let him be killed in battle."

<sup>16</sup>Joab watched the city and saw where the bravest Ammonites were. He chose Uriah to go to that place. <sup>17</sup>The men of the city* came out to fight against Joab. Some of David's men were killed. Uriah the Hittite was one of those men.

<sup>18</sup>Then Joab sent a report to David about all the things that happened in the war. <sup>19</sup>Joab told the messenger to tell King David the things that had happened in the war. <sup>20</sup>"Maybe the king will become upset. Maybe the king will ask, 'Why did Joab's army go near the city to fight? Don't you know that there are men that shoot arrows off the city wall?' <sup>21</sup>Do you remember who killed Abimelech son of Jerub-Besheth? It was a woman on the city wall that threw the top part of a grinding stone on Abimelech. That woman killed him in Thebez. Why did you go near the wall?' If King David says these words, then you must answer: 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite also died.'" the city gate. <sup>24</sup>The men on the city wall shot arrows at your servants. Some of your servants were killed. Your servant Uriah the Hittite also died."

<sup>25</sup>David said to the messenger, "This is what you will say to Joab: 'Don't be upset about this thing.* The sword kills all people the same. Make a stronger attack against the city Rabbah. Then you will win this city.' Encourage Joab with these words."

David Marries Bathsheba

<sup>26</sup>Bathsheba heard that her husband Uriah was dead. Then she cried for her husband. <sup>27</sup>After she had finished her time of being sad, David sent servants to take her to his house. She became David's wife. And she gave birth to a son for David. The Lord did not like the bad thing David had done.

Nathan Speaks to David

12 The Lord sent Nathan to David. Nathan went to David. Nathan said, "There were two men in a city. One man was rich. But the other man was poor. <sup>2</sup>The rich man had very many sheep and cattle. <sup>3</sup>But the poor man had nothing, except one little female lamb that he bought. The poor man fed the lamb. The lamb grew up with this poor man and his children. The lamb ate from the poor man's food and drank from the poor man's cup. The lamb slept on the poor man's chest. The lamb was like a daughter to the poor man.

<sup>4</sup>"Then a traveler stopped to visit the rich man. The rich man wanted to give food to the traveler. But the rich man did not want to take anything from his own sheep or cattle to feed the traveler. No, the rich man took the lamb from the poor man. The rich man killed the lamb, and cooked it for his visitor."

<sup>5</sup>David became very angry against the rich man. He said to Nathan, "As the Lord lives, surely the man that did this should die! <sup>6</sup>He must pay four times the price of the lamb because he did this terrible thing and because he had no mercy."

Don't be upset ... thing Literally, "Don't think this thing evil in your sight"

Nathan Tells David About His Sin

<sup>7</sup>Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man! This is what the Lord God of Israel says: 'I anointed* you king of Israel. I saved you from Saul. <sup>8</sup>I let you take his family and his wives. And I made you king of Israel and Judah. As if that were not enough, I gave you more and more. <sup>9</sup>So why did you ignore the Lord's command? Why did you do the thing which he says is wrong? You killed Uriah the Hittite with a sword. And you took his wife to become your wife. Yes, you killed Uriah with the sword of the Ammonites. <sup>10</sup>So, the sword will never leave your family. You took Uriah the Hittite's wife. In this way, you showed that you did not care for me.'

<sup>11</sup>"This is what the Lord says: 'I am bringing trouble against you. This trouble will come from your own family. I will take your wives from you and I will give them to a person that is very close to you. This person will sleep with your wives, and everyone will know it!'<sup>12</sup>You slept with Bathsheba, in secret. But I will do this thing so all the people of Israel can see it.'"*

Nathan said to David, "The Lord has taken away your sin. You will not die. <sup>14</sup>But you did cause the Lord's enemies to greatly hate him because of this, sin you did., So for this reason, the son that was born to you will die."

David and Bathsheba's Baby Dies

<sup>15</sup>Then Nathan went home. And the Lord caused the baby boy that was born to David and Uriah's wife to become very sick. <sup>16</sup>David prayed to God for the baby. David refused to eat or drink. He went into his house and stayed there. He lay on the ground all night.

<sup>17</sup>The leaders of David's family came and tried to pull David up from the ground. But David refused to get up. He refused to eat food with these leaders. <sup>18</sup>On the seventh day, the baby died. David's servants were afraid to tell David that the baby was dead. They said, "Look, we tried to talk to David while the baby was alive. But he refused to listen to us. If we tell David that the baby is dead, maybe he will do something bad to himself."

<sup>19</sup>But David saw his servants whispering. Then David understood that the baby was dead. So David asked his servants, "Is the baby dead?"

The servants answered, "Yes, he is dead."

<sup>20</sup>Then David got up from the floor. He washed himself. He changed his clothes and got dressed. Then he went into the Lord's house to worship. Then he went home and asked for something to eat. His servants gave him some food, and he ate.

<sup>21</sup>David's servants said to him, "Why are you doing this thing? When the baby was still living you refused to eat. You cried. But when the baby died you got up and ate food."

<sup>22</sup>David said, "While the baby was still living, I refused to eat and I cried because I thought, 'Who knows? Maybe the Lord will feel sorry for me and let the baby live.' <sup>23</sup>But now the baby is dead. So why should I refuse to eat? Can I bring the baby back to life? No! Some day I will go to him, but he can't come back to me."

Solomon Is Born

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

and everyone will know it Literally, "in the sight of the sun."

so all ... can see it Literally, "before all of Israel and before the sun."

Jedidiah This name means "loved by the Lord."

David Captures Rabbah

<sup>26</sup>Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites. He captured the king's city. <sup>27</sup>Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah. I have captured the City of Waters. <sup>28</sup>Now bring the other people together and attack this city (Rabbah). Capture this city before I capture it. If I capture this city, it will be called by my name."

<sup>29</sup>Then David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah. He fought against Rabbah and captured the city. <sup>30</sup>David took the crown off their king's head.* The crown was gold and weighed about 75 pounds.* This crown had precious stones in it. They put the crown on David's head. David took many valuable things out of the city.

<sup>31</sup>David also brought out the people of the city Rabbah. David made them work with saws, iron picks, and axes. He also forced them to build things with bricks. David did the same thing to all the Ammonite cities. Then David and all his army went back to Jerusalem.

Amnon Loves Tamar

13 David had a son named Absalom. Absalom's sister was named Tamar. Tamar was very beautiful. One of David's other sons, Amnon,* <sup>2</sup>loved Tamar. Tamar was a virgin.* Amnon did not think he should do anything bad to her. But Amnon wanted her very much. Amnon made himself very sick just thinking about her.*

<sup>3</sup>Amnon had a friend named Jonadab son of Shimeah. (Shimeah was David's brother.) Jonadab was a very clever man. Jonadab said to Amnon, "Every day you look thinner and thinner! You are the king's son! You have plenty to eat, so why are you losing weight? Tell me!"

Amnon told Jonadab, "I love Tamar. But she is the sister of my half-brother Absalom."

<sup>5</sup>Jonadab said to Amnon, "Go to bed. Act like you are sick. Then your father will come to see you. Tell him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come in and give me food to eat. Let her make the food in front of me. Then I will see it, and eat it from her hand.'"

<sup>6</sup>So Amnon lay down in bed and acted like he was sick. King David came in to see Amnon. Amnon said to King David, "Please let my sister Tamar come in. Let her make two cakes for me while I watch. Then I can eat from her hands."

<sup>7</sup>David sent messengers to Tamar's house. The messengers told Tamar, "Go to your brother Amnon's house and make some food for him."

Tamar Makes Food for Amnon

<sup>8</sup>So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house. Amnon was in bed. Tamar took some dough and pressed it together with her hands. She made some cakes while Amnon was watching. Then she baked the cakes. <sup>9</sup>After Tamar had finished baking the cakes,, she took the pan and poured out the cakes for Amnon. But Amnon refused to eat.

Amnon said to his servants,, "All of you people, leave me alone!" So all his servants went out from Amnon's room.

<sup>10</sup>Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the inner room. Then I will eat from your hand."

Amnon Rapes Tamar

Tamar went to her brother Amnon in the inner room. She brought the cakes that she had made. <sup>11</sup>She went to Amnon, so he could eat from her hands. But Amnon caught hold of Tamar. He said to her, "Sister, come and sleep with me."

<sup>12</sup>Tamar said to Amnon, "No, brother! Don't force me! This should never be done in Israel!

their king's head Or, "Milcom's head." Milcom was a false god that the Ammonite people worshiped.

was ... about 75 pounds Literally, "the weight was one gold talent."

Amnon Amnon was half-brother to Absalom and Tamar.

They all had David as their father, but Amnon had a different mother. See 2 Samuel 3:2,3.

virgin A pure woman that has not had sexual relations with anyone.

Amnon made himself very sick ... her Or, "So Amnon planned to act like he was sick."

Don't do this shameful thing! <sup>13</sup>I could never get rid of my shame. You will become like those foolish Israelite men that do shameful things. Please talk with the king. He will let you marry me."

<sup>14</sup>But Amnon refused to listen to Tamar. He was stronger than Tamar. He forced her to have sexual relations with him. <sup>15</sup>After that, Amnon hated Tamar. Amnon hated her much more than he had loved her before. Amnon said to Tamar, "Get up and leave!"

<sup>16</sup>Tamar said to Amnon, "No! You are doing a greater evil now than before—you are trying to send me away."

But Amnon refused to listen to Tamar. <sup>17</sup>Amnon called his young servant and said, "Get this girl out of this room now! Lock the door after her."

<sup>18</sup>So Amnon's servant led Tamar out of the room and locked the door after her.

Tamar had on a long robe with many colors.* The king's virgin daughters wore robes like this one. <sup>19</sup>Tamar took ashes and put them on her head. She tore her robe of many colors. She put her hand on her head and cried loudly.*

<sup>20</sup>Absalom, Tamar's brother, said to Tamar, "So your brother Amnon has raped you.* Amnon is your brother. So for now, sister, be quiet. Don't let this upset you too much."* So Tamar did not say anything. She went to live at Absalom's house.*

Absalom's Revenge

<sup>23</sup>Two years later, Absalom had some men come to Baal-Hazor to cut the wool from his sheep. Absalom invited all the king's sons to come and watch. <sup>24</sup>Absalom went to the king and said, "I have some men coming to cut the wool from my sheep. Please come with your servants and watch."

<sup>25</sup>King David said to Absalom, "No, son. We will not all go. It will be too much trouble for you."

Absalom begged David to go. David did not go, but he did give his blessing.

<sup>26</sup>Absalom said, "If you don't want to go, then please let my brother Amnon go with me."

King David asked Absalom, "Why should he go with you?"

<sup>27</sup>Absalom kept begging David. Finally, David let Amnon and all the king's sons go with Absalom.

Amnon Is Murdered

<sup>28</sup>Then Absalom gave a command to his servants. He said to them, "Watch Amnon. When he is drunk, I will tell you, 'Kill Amnon.' At that time, kill him! Don't be afraid. I have commanded you. Be strong and brave."

<sup>29</sup>Absalom's young men killed Amnon like Absalom commanded. But all of David's other sons escaped. Each son got on his mule and escaped.

David Hears About Amnon's Death

<sup>30</sup>While the king's sons were on their way, the news came to David. The message was, "Absalom has killed all of the king's sons! Not one of the sons was left alive."

<sup>31</sup>King David tore his clothes and lay on the ground.* All of David's servants standing near him also tore their clothes.

<sup>32</sup>But Jonadab son of Shimeah (David's brother) said to David, "Don't think all the young men, the king's sons, are killed. No, it is only Amnon that is dead. Absalom planned this because Amnon had raped his sister Tamar. <sup>33</sup>My lord the king, don't think that all of the king's sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead."

tore his clothes ... ground This showed that he was very sad and upset.

There was a guard standing on the city wall. He saw many people coming from the other side of the hill. <sup>35</sup>So Jonadab said to King David, "Look, I was right! The king's sons are coming."

<sup>36</sup>When Jonadab said these things, the king's sons arrived. They were crying loudly. David and all his servants began crying. They all cried very hard. <sup>37</sup>David cried for his son (Amnon) every day.

Absalom Escapes to Geshur

Absalom ran away to Talmai son of Ammihud, king of Geshur.* <sup>38</sup>After Absalom had run away to Geshur, he stayed there for three years. <sup>39</sup>King David was comforted after Amnon died, but he missed Absalom greatly.

Joba Sends a Wise Woman to David

14 Joba son of Zeruah knew that King David missed Absalom very much. <sup>2</sup>So Joba sent messengers to Tekoa to bring a wise woman from there. Joba said to this wise woman, "Please pretend to be very sad. Put on clothes of sadness. Don't dress up. Act like a woman that has been crying many days for someone that died. <sup>3</sup>Go to the king and talk to him using these words that I tell you." Then Joba told the wise woman what to say.

<sup>4</sup>Then the woman from Tekoa talked to the king. She fell to the ground. Her face touched the ground. She bowed and said, "King, help me!"

The woman said, "I am a widow. My husband is dead. <sup>6</sup>I had two sons. These two sons were out in the field fighting. There was no person to stop them. One son killed the other son. <sup>7</sup>Now all the family is against me. They said to me, 'Bring the son that killed his brother. Then we will kill him, because he killed his brother.' <sup>8</sup>If I let them kill my son, then they will kill the person that should get his father's things. My son will be like the last spark of a fire. And that last spark will burn out and be finished. Then my dead husband's name and property will be gone from the earth."

<sup>9</sup>Then the king said to the woman, "Go home. I will take care of things for you."

<sup>10</sup>The woman of Tekoa said to the king, "Let the blame be on me, O king my lord! But you and your kingdom are innocent."

<sup>11</sup>King David said, "Bring the person that says anything bad to you. Then this person will not bother you again."

<sup>12</sup>The woman said, "Please remember the Lord your God. Then those people that want to punish murderers will not punish my son."

David said, "As the Lord lives, no person will hurt your son. Not even one hair from your son's head will fall to the ground."

<sup>13</sup>The woman said, "Please let me say some things to you, my lord the king."

The king said, "Speak."

<sup>14</sup>Then the woman said, "Why have you planned these things against the people of God? Yes, when you say these things, you show you are guilty. Why? Because you have not brought back the son that you forced to leave home. <sup>15</sup>It is true that we will all die some day. We are like water that is spilled on the ground. No person can gather this water back from the ground. But God does not take away life. No, he has a plan for people that are forced out from their homes—they are not forced away from him! <sup>16</sup>My lord the king, I came to say these words to you. Why? Because the people made me afraid. I said to these people, 'Please let me talk to the king. Maybe the king will listen to me.' <sup>17</sup>The king will hear, and save me from the man that wants to kill both me and my son, and keep us from getting the things God has given us. <sup>18</sup>I know* that the words of my lord the king will give me rest, because you will be like God's angel. You will know which is good and which is bad. The Lord your God will be with you."

Talmai ... king of Geshur Talmai was Absalom's grandfather. See 2 Samuel 3:3.

know Literally, "say."

<sup>18</sup>King David answered the woman, “You must answer the question I will ask you.”

The woman said, “My lord the king, please ask your question.”

<sup>19</sup>The king said, “Did Joab tell you to say all these things?”

The woman answered, “As you live, my lord the king, you are right! Your servant Joab did tell me to say these things. <sup>20</sup>Joab did these things, so that you would see things differently.* My lord, you are wise like God’s angel. You know everything that happens on earth.”

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup>The king said to Joab, “Look, I will do the thing I promised. Now please bring back the young man Absalom.”

<sup>22</sup>Joab bowed with his face on the ground. He blessed King David, and said, “Today I know that you are pleased with me. I know because you have done what I asked.”

<sup>23</sup>Then Joab got up and went to Geshur and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>But King David said, “Absalom can go back to his own house. He can’t come to see me.” So Absalom went back to his own house. Absalom could not go to see the king.

<sup>25</sup>Absalom was highly praised for his good looks. No man in Israel was as handsome as Absalom. There was not a blemish on Absalom—from his head to his feet. <sup>26</sup>At the end of every year, Absalom cut off the hair of his head and weighed it. The hair weighed about five pounds.*

<sup>27</sup>Absalom had three sons and one daughter. This daughter’s name was Tamar. Tamar was a beautiful woman.

Absalom Forces Joab to Come See Him

<sup>28</sup>Absalom lived in Jerusalem for two full years without being allowed to visit King David. <sup>29</sup>Absalom sent messengers to Joab. These messengers asked Joab to send Absalom to the king. But Joab would not come to Absalom. Absalom sent a message, a second time. But Joab still refused to come.

<sup>30</sup>Then Absalom said to his servants, “Look, Joab’s field is next to my field. He has barley growing in that field. Go burn the barley.”

So Absalom’s servants went and started a fire in Joab’s field. <sup>31</sup>Joab got up and came to Absalom’s house. Joab said to Absalom, “Why did your servants burn my field?”

<sup>32</sup>Absalom said to Joab, “I sent a message to you. I asked you to come here. I wanted to send you to the king. I wanted you to ask him why he asked me to come home from Geshur. I can’t see him, so, it would have been better for me to stay in Geshur. Now let me see the king. If I have sinned, then he can kill me!”

Absalom Visits King David

<sup>33</sup>Then Joab came to the king and told him Absalom’s words. The king called for Absalom. Then Absalom came to the king. Absalom bowed low on the ground before the king. And the king kissed Absalom.

Absalom Makes Many Friends

15 After this, Absalom got a chariot* and horses for himself. He had 50 men run in front of him while he drove the chariot. <sup>2</sup>Absalom got up early and stood near the gate.* If there was any man that had a problem and came to King David for judgment, Absalom would call to this man. Absalom would say, “What city are you from?” The man would answer, “I am from such and such family group in Israel.” <sup>3</sup>Then Absalom would say to this man, “Look, you are telling the truth. But King David will not listen to you.”

<sup>4</sup>Absalom also said, “Oh, I wish someone would make me a judge in this country! Then I could help every man that comes with a problem for judgment. I could help him get a fair solution to his problem.”

that you would ... differently Literally, “that the appearance of things would be changed.”

five pounds Literally, “200 shekels by the king’s weight.”

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

gate This was where people came to do all their business. This was also where many court cases were held.

<sup>5</sup>When a person came near to bow to Absalom, Absalom would reach out and take hold of the person. Then he would kiss that person. <sup>6</sup>Absalom did that to all the Israelites that came to King David for judgment. In this way, Absalom won the hearts of all the people of Israel.

Absalom Makes Plans to Take David's Kingdom

<sup>7</sup>After four years,* Absalom said to King David, "Please let me go to complete my special promise that I made to the Lord at Hebron. <sup>8</sup>I made that promise while I was still living in Geshur, Syria. I said, 'If the Lord brings me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord.'"

Absalom went to Hebron. <sup>10</sup>But Absalom sent spies through all the family groups of Israel. These spies told the people, "When you hear the trumpet, then say, 'Absalom has become the king at Hebron!'"

<sup>11</sup>Absalom invited 200 men to go with him. Those men went out of Jerusalem with him. But they did not know the thing that he was planning. <sup>12</sup>Ahithophel was one of David's advisers. Ahithophel was from the town of Giloh. While Absalom was offering sacrifices,* he called Ahithophel to come from his city (Giloh). Absalom's plans were working very well and more and more people began to support him.

David Learns About Absalom's Plans

<sup>13</sup>A man came in to tell the news to David. The man said, "The people of Israel are beginning to follow Absalom."

<sup>14</sup>Then David said to all his servants that were with him in Jerusalem, "We must escape! If we don't escape, then Absalom will not let us get away. Let's hurry before Absalom catches us. He will destroy us all. And he will kill the people of Jerusalem."

four years Some ancient writings say "40 years."

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

<sup>15</sup>The king's servants said to the king, "We will do anything you tell us."

David and His People Escape

<sup>19</sup>The king said to Ittai from Gath, "Why are you also going with us? Turn back and stay with the new king (Absalom). You are a foreigner. This is not your home land. <sup>20</sup>Only yesterday you came to join me. Must you now go with me to different places? No! Turn back, and take your brothers with you. May kindness and loyalty be shown to you."

<sup>21</sup>But Ittai answered the king, "As the Lord lives, and as long as you live, I will stay with you. I will be with you, in life or death!"

So Ittai from Gath and all his people with their children crossed over the Kidron Brook. <sup>23</sup>All the people* were crying loudly. King David crossed over the Kidron Brook. Then all the people went on to the desert. <sup>24</sup>Zadok and all the Levites with him were carrying the Box of God's Agreement.* They put down God's Holy Box.* Abiathar said prayers* until all the people had gone out from Jerusalem.

<sup>25</sup>King David said to Zadok, "Take God's Holy Box* back to Jerusalem. If the Lord is kind to me, then he will bring me back. And the Lord will let me see Jerusalem and his temple.*

<sup>26</sup>But if the Lord says that he is not pleased with me, then he can do anything he wants against me.”

<sup>27</sup>The king said to Zadok the priest, “You are a seer.* Go back to the city in peace. Take your son Ahimaaz and Abiathar’s son Jonathan with you. <sup>28</sup>I will be waiting near the places where people cross over into the desert. I will wait there until I hear from you.”

<sup>29</sup>So Zadok and Abiathar took God’s Holy Box* back to Jerusalem and stayed there.

David’s Prayer Against Ahithophel

<sup>30</sup>David went up the Mount of Olives. He was crying. He covered his head and he went without shoes on his feet. All the people with David also covered their heads. They went with David, crying.

<sup>32</sup>David came to the top of the mountain. This was where he often worshiped God. At that time, Hushai the Arkite came to him. Hushai’s coat was torn, and there was dirt on his head.*

<sup>33</sup>David said to Hushai, “If you go with me, then you will be just one more person to care for. <sup>34</sup>But if you go back to Jerusalem, you can make Ahithophel’s advice become useless. Tell Absalom, ‘I am your servant, O King. I served your father, but now I will serve you.’ <sup>35</sup>The priests Zadok and Abiathar will be with you. You must tell them everything you hear in the king’s house. <sup>36</sup>Zadok’s son Ahimaaz and Abiathar’s son Jonathan will be with them. You will send them to tell me everything you hear.”

temple Here this means the Holy Tent at Shiloh where people went to worship the Lord.

seer Another name for a prophet.

God’s Holy Box Also called “The Ark of the Covenant,” the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

coat was torn ... head This showed he was very sad.

<sup>37</sup>Then David’s friend Hushai went into the city. And Absalom arrived at Jerusalem.

Ziba Meets David

16 David passed a short way over the top of the Mount of Olives. There Ziba, Mephibosheth’s servant, met David. Ziba had two donkeys with saddles on them. The donkeys also carried 200 loaves of bread, 100 bunches of raisins, 100 summer fruits, and a wineskin full of wine. <sup>2</sup>King David said to Ziba, “What are these things for?”

Ziba answered, “The donkeys are for the king’s family to ride on. The bread and the summer fruit are for the servants to eat. And when any person feels weak in the desert, he can drink the wine.”

Ziba answered the king, “Mephibosheth is staying in Jerusalem because he thinks, ‘Today the Israelites will give my grandfather’s* kingdom back to me.’”

<sup>4</sup>Then the king said to Ziba, “All right. Everything that belonged to Mephibosheth, I now give to you.”

Ziba said, “I bow to you. I hope I will always be able to please you.”

Shimei Curses David

<sup>5</sup>David came to Bahurim. A man from Saul’s family came out from Bahurim. This man’s name was Shimei son of Gera. Shimei came out saying bad things to David. And he kept saying bad things again and again.

<sup>6</sup>Shimei began throwing stones at David and his servants. But the people and the soldiers gathered around David—they were all around him. <sup>7</sup>Shimei cursed David. He said, “Get out, get out, you no-good murderer!”* <sup>8</sup>The Lord is punishing you. Why? Because you killed people in Saul’s family. You stole Saul’s place as king. But now the Lord has given the kingdom to your son Absalom. Now the same

grandfather’s Literally, “father’s.”

murderer Literally, “man of blood.”

bad things are happening to you. Why? Because you are a murderer.”*

<sup>9</sup>Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse you, my lord the king? Let me go over and cut off Shimei’s head.”

<sup>10</sup>But the king answered, “What can I do, sons of Zeruiah? Sure, Shimei is cursing me. But the Lord told him to curse me.”

<sup>11</sup>David also said to Abishai and all his servants, “Look, my very own son (Absalom) is trying to kill me. This man (Shimei) from the family group of Benjamin has more right to kill me. Let him alone. Let him keep on saying bad things to me. The Lord told him to do this.

<sup>12</sup>Maybe the Lord will see the wrong things that are happening to me. Then maybe the Lord will give me something good for every bad thing that Shimei says today.”

<sup>13</sup>So David and his men went on their way, down the road. But Shimei kept following David. Shimei walked on the other side of the road by the side of the hill. Shimei kept saying bad things to David on his way. Shimei also threw stones and dirt at David.

<sup>14</sup>King David and all his people came to Bahurim. The king and his people were tired. But they rested at Bahurim.

<sup>15</sup>Absalom, Ahithophel, and all the people of Israel came to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>David’s friend, Hushai the Arkite, came to Absalom. Hushai said to Absalom, “Long live the king! Long live the king!”

<sup>17</sup>Absalom answered, “Why are you not loyal to your friend David,? Why did you not leave Jerusalem, with your friend?”

<sup>18</sup>Hushai said, “I belong to the person that the Lord chooses. These people and the people of Israel chose you. I will stay with you. <sup>19</sup>In the past, I served your father. So, now I should serve David’s son. I will serve you.”

Absalom Asks Ahithophel for Advice

<sup>20</sup>Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Please tell us what we should do.”

<sup>21</sup>Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Your father left some of his wives* here to take care of the house. Go and have sexual relations with them. Then all the Israelites will hear that your father hates you. And all of your people will be encouraged to give you more support.”

<sup>22</sup>Then they put up a tent for Absalom on the roof of the house.* And Absalom had sexual relations with his father’s wives.* All the Israelites saw it. <sup>23</sup>At that time, the advice of Ahithophel was very important, to both David and Absalom. It was as important as God’s word to a man.

Ahithophel’s Advice About David

17 Ahithophel also said to Absalom, “Let me now choose 12,000 men. Then I will chase David tonight. <sup>2</sup>I will catch him while he is tired and weak. I will scare him. And all his people will run away. But I will kill only King David. <sup>3</sup>Then I will bring all the people back to you. If David is dead, then all the people will come back in peace.”

<sup>4</sup>This plan seemed good to Absalom and all the leaders of Israel. <sup>5</sup>But Absalom said, “Now call Hushai the Arkite. I also want to hear what he says.”

Hushai Destroys Ahithophel’s Advice

<sup>6</sup>Hushai came to Absalom. Absalom said to Hushai, “This is the plan Ahithophel gave. Should we follow it? If not, tell us.”

<sup>7</sup>Hushai said to Absalom, “Ahithophel’s advice is not good this time.” Hushai added, “You know that your father and his men are strong men. They are angry like a bear that is robbed of its babies in the field. Your father is a skilled fighter. He will not stay all night, with the people. <sup>8</sup>He is probably already hiding in some cave or in some other place. If your father attacks your men first, then people will hear the news. And they will think, ‘Absalom’s followers are losing!’ <sup>10</sup>Then even the people roof of the house The houses had flat roofs which were often used as an extra room.

murderer Literally, “man of blood.”

that are brave like a lion will become scared. Why? Because all the Israelites know that your father is a strong fighter and that his men are brave.

<sup>11</sup>“This is what I suggest: You must gather all the Israelites together from Dan to Beersheba.* Then there will be many people, like the sand by the sea. Then you yourself must go into the battle. <sup>12</sup>We will catch David in the place where he is hiding. We will fall on David like dew falls on the ground. We will kill David and all of his men. No man will be left alive. <sup>13</sup>But if David escapes into a city, all the Israelites will bring ropes to that city. And we will pull that city into the valley. There will not be even a small stone left in that city.”

<sup>14</sup>Absalom and all the Israelites said, “The advice of Hushai the Arkite is better than the advice of Ahithophel.” They said this, because it was the Lord’s plan. The Lord had planned to destroy the good advice of Ahithophel. In this way, the Lord could punish Absalom.

Hushai Sends a Warning to David

<sup>15</sup>Hushai told those things to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. Hushai told them about the things that Ahithophel suggested to Absalom and the leaders of Israel. Hushai also reported to Zadok and Abiathar about the things that he himself had suggested. Hushai said,<sup>16</sup>“Quickly! Send a message to David. Tell him not to stay tonight at the places where people cross into the desert. But cross over the Jordan River, at once. If he crosses the river, then the king and all his people will not be caught.”

<sup>17</sup>The priests’ sons, Jonathan and Ahimaaz waited at En-Rogel. They did not want to be seen going into the town, so a servant girl came out to them. She gave them the message. Then Jonathan and Ahimaaz went and told those things to King David.

<sup>18</sup>But a boy saw Jonathan and Ahimaaz. The boy ran to, tell Absalom. Jonathan and Ahimaaz ran away quickly. They arrived at a man’s house in Bahurim. The man had a well in his courtyard.* Jonathan and Ahimaaz went down into this well. <sup>19</sup>The man’s wife spread a sheet over the well. Then she covered the well with grain. The well looked like a pile of grain, so no person could know that Jonathan and Ahimaaz were hiding there. <sup>20</sup>Absalom’s servants came to the woman at the house. They asked, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?”

The woman said to Absalom’s servants, “They have already crossed over the brook.”

Absalom’s servants then went to look for Jonathan and Ahimaaz. But they could not find them. So Absalom’s servants went back to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>After Absalom’s servants left, Jonathan and Ahimaaz came up out of the well. They went and told King David. They said to David, “Hurry, cross over the river. Ahithophel has said these things against you.”

<sup>22</sup>Then David and all his people crossed over the Jordan River. Before the sun came up, all of David’s people had already crossed the Jordan River.

Ahithophel Kills Himself

<sup>23</sup>Ahithophel saw that the Israelites did not accept his advice. Ahithophel put a saddle on his donkey. He went home to his city. He made plans for his family. Then he hung himself. After Ahithophel died, the people buried him in his father’s tomb.*

Absalom Crosses the Jordan River

Absalom and all his Israelites crossed over the Jordan River. <sup>25</sup>Absalom made Amasa captain of the army. Amasa took Joab’s place.* Amasa was the son of Ithra the Ishmaelite.

courtyard An open area outside the house. Many houses were built around courtyards so people could work, cook, or eat outside.

tomb A cave or a building where dead people are buried.

Amasa took Joab’s place Joab still supported David. Joab was one of the three captains in David’s army when David was running away from Absalom. See 2 Samuel 18:2.

Dan to Beersheba This means all the people of Israel. Dan was the town farthest north, and Beersheba was in the south.

Amasa's mother was Abigail, the daughter of Nahash sister of Zeruiah.* (Zeruiah was Joab's mother.)

<sup>26</sup> Absalom and the Israelites made their camp in the land of Gilead.

Shobi, Makir, and Barzillai

<sup>27</sup> David arrived at Mahanaim. Shobi, Makir, and Barzillai were at that place. (Shobi son of Nahash was from the Ammonite town of Rabbah. Makir son of Ammiel was from Lo Debar. And Barzillai was from Rogelim, Gilead.) <sup>28-29</sup> They said, "The people in the desert are tired, hungry and thirsty." So they brought many things for David and his people to eat. They brought beds, bowls, and clay pots. They also brought wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, dried seeds, honey, butter, sheep, and cheese from cows' milk.

David Gets the Battle Ready

18 David counted his people. He chose captains over 1,000 and captains over 100 to lead these people. <sup>1</sup> David separated the people into three groups. And then David sent the people out. Joab led a third of the people. Abishai (the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother) led another third of the people. And Ittai from Gath led the last third of the people.

King David said to the people, "I will also go with you."

<sup>2</sup> But the people said, "No! You must not go with us. Why? Because if we run away in the battle, Absalom's men will not care. Even if half of us are killed, Absalom's men will not care. But you are worth 10,000 of us! It is better for you to stay in the city. Then, if we need help, you can help us."

"The king said to his people, "I will do the things that you think are best."

Then the king stood at the side of the gate. The army went out. They went out in groups of 100 and 1,000.

Amasa's mother ... Zeruiah Literally, "Ithra had sexual relations with Abigail, the daughter of Nahash sister of Zeruiah."

"Be Gentle With Young Absalom!"

<sup>3</sup> The king gave a command to Joab, Abishai, and Ittai. He said, "Do this for me: Be gentle with young Absalom!"

All the people heard the king's orders about Absalom to the captains.

David's Army Defeats Absalom's Army

<sup>4</sup> David's army went out into the field against Absalom's Israelites. They fought in the forest of Ephraim. <sup>5</sup> David's army defeated the Israelites. There were 20,000 men killed that day. <sup>6</sup> The battle spread through all the country. But that day more men died in the forest than by the sword.

<sup>7</sup> It happened that Absalom met David's servants. Absalom rode on his mule to escape. The mule went under the branches of a large oak tree. The branches were thick, and Absalom's head got caught in the tree. His mule ran out from under him, so Absalom was hanging above the ground.*

<sup>8</sup> A man saw this happen. He told Joab, "I saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree."

<sup>9</sup> Joab said to the man, "Why did you not kill him and let him fall to the ground? I would have given you a belt and ten pieces of silver!"

<sup>10</sup> The man said to Joab, "I would not try to hurt the king's son even if you gave me 1,000 pieces of silver. Why? Because we heard the king's command to you, Abishai, and Ittai. The king said, 'Be careful not to hurt young Absalom.' <sup>11</sup> If I had killed Absalom, the king himself would find out. And you would punish me."

<sup>12</sup> Joab said, "I will not waste time here with you!"

Absalom was still alive and hanging in the oak tree. Joab took three spears. He threw the spears at Absalom. The spears went through Absalom's heart. <sup>13</sup> Joab had ten young men that helped him in battle. These ten men came around Absalom and killed him.

<sup>14</sup> Joab blew the trumpet and called the people to stop chasing Absalom's Israelites.

above the ground Literally, "between heaven and earth."

<sup>17</sup>Then Joab's men took Absalom's body and threw it into a large hole in the forest. They filled the large hole with many stones.

All the Israelites that followed Absalom, ran away and went home.

<sup>18</sup>When Absalom lived, he had put up a pillar in King's Valley. Absalom said, "I have no son to keep my name alive." So he named the pillar after himself. That pillar is called "Absalom's Monument" even today.

Joab Sends the News to David

<sup>19</sup>Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said to Joab, "Let me now run and bring the news to King David. I'll tell him the Lord has destroyed the enemy for him."

<sup>20</sup>Joab answered Ahimaaz, "No, you will not bring the news to David, today. You can bring the news another time, but not today. Why? Because the king's son is dead."

<sup>21</sup>Then Joab said to a man from Cush, "Go, tell the king about the things you have seen."

The Cushite bowed to Joab. Then the Cushite ran to tell David.

<sup>22</sup>But Ahimaaz son of Zadok begged Joab again, "No matter what happens, please let me also run after the Cushite!"

Joab said, "Son, why do you want to carry the news? You will not get any reward for the news you bring."

<sup>23</sup>Ahimaaz answered, "No matter what happens, I will run."

Joab said to Ahimaaz, "Run!"

Then Ahimaaz ran through Jordan Valley. He passed the Cushite.

David Hears the News

<sup>24</sup>David was sitting between the two gates of the city. The watchman went up to the roof over the gate walls. The watchman looked up and saw a man running alone. <sup>25</sup>The watchman shouted to tell King David.

King David said, "If the man is alone, he is bringing news."

The man was running nearer and nearer the city. <sup>26</sup>The watchman saw another man running. The watchman called to the gate-keeper,

"Look! Another man is running alone."

The king said, "He is also bringing news."

<sup>27</sup>The watchman said, "I think the first man runs like Ahimaaz son of Zadok."

The king said, "Ahimaaz is a good man. He must be bringing good news."

<sup>28</sup>Ahimaaz called to the king, "All is fine!" Ahimaaz bowed to the king. His face was close to the ground. Ahimaaz said, "Praise the Lord your God! The Lord has defeated the men that were against you, my lord the king."

Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent me, I saw some great excitement. But I don't know what it was."

<sup>31</sup>The Cushite arrived. He said, "News for my lord the king. Today the Lord has punished the people that were against you!"

The Cushite answered, "I hope your enemies and all people that come against you to hurt you will be like this young man (Absalom)."

<sup>33</sup>Then the king knew Absalom was dead. The king was very upset. He went to the room over the city gate. He cried there. He went to his room. And on his way there, he said, "O my son Absalom, my son Absalom! I wish I had died for you. O Absalom, my son, my son!"

Joab Scolds David

19 People told the news to Joab. They told Joab, "Look, the king is crying and very sad for Absalom."

<sup>1</sup>David's army, had won the battle that day. But it became a very sad day for all the people. It was a very sad day, because the people heard, "The king is very sad for his son."

<sup>2</sup>The people came into the city quietly. They were like people that had been defeated in battle and had run away. "The king had covered his face. He was crying loudly, "O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!"

<sup>5</sup>Joab came into the king's house. Joab said to the king, "Today you cover your face. You also cover the faces of all your servants—with shame. Today your servants saved your life. They saved the lives of your sons, daughters, wives and women servants." <sup>6</sup>Your servants are ashamed because you love those people that hate you, and you hate those people that love you. Today you have made it clear that your officers and men are nothing to you. Today I can see that if Absalom had lived, and all of us were killed, you would be very pleased. <sup>7</sup>Now get up and speak to your servants and encourage them. I swear by the Lord that if you don't go out to do this, there will be no man that stays with you tonight. That will be worse than all the trouble you have had from your youth until today."

David Talks to the People

<sup>8</sup>Then the king went to the city gate.* The news spread that the king was at the gate. So all the people came to see the king.

David Is King Again

All the Israelites that followed Absalom, had run away home. <sup>9</sup>All the people in all the family groups of Israel began to argue. They said, "King David saved us from the Philistines and our other enemies. David ran away from Absalom. <sup>10</sup>We chose Absalom to rule us, but he is now dead in battle. We should make David the king again."

<sup>11</sup>King David sent a message, to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. David said, "Speak to the leaders of Judah. Say, 'Why are you the last family group to bring King David back to his house? See, all the Israelites are talking about bringing the king back to his house. <sup>12</sup>You are my brothers, you are my family. Then why are you the last family group to bring back the king?' <sup>13</sup>And say to Amasa, 'You are part of my family. May God punish me if I don't make you captain of the army in Joab's place.'"

woman servant Or, "concubine," a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

city gate This was where the public meetings were held.

<sup>14</sup>David touched the hearts of all the people of Judah, so that they agreed like one man. The people of Judah sent a message to the king. They said, "Come back with all your servants."

<sup>15</sup>Then King David came to the Jordan River. The people of Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king. They came so they could bring the king over the Jordan River.

Shimei Asks David to Forgive Him

<sup>16</sup>Shimei son of Gera was from the family group of Benjamin. He lived in Bahurim. Shimei hurried down to meet King David. Shimei came with the people of Judah. <sup>17</sup>Also, 1,000 people from the family group of Benjamin came with Shimei. Ziba the servant from Saul's family also came. Ziba brought his 15 sons and 20 servants with him. All these people hurried to the Jordan River to meet King David.

<sup>18</sup>The people went across the Jordan River to help bring the king's family back to Judah. The people did anything the king wanted. While the king was crossing the river, Shimei son of Gera came to meet him. Shimei bowed down on the ground in front of the king. <sup>19</sup>Shimei said to the king, "My lord, don't think about the wrong things I did. My lord the king, don't remember the bad things I did when you left Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>You know that I sinned. That is why today I am the first person from Joseph's family* to come down and meet you, my lord the king."

<sup>21</sup>But Abishai son of Zeruiah said, "We must kill Shimei because he asked for bad things to happen to the Lord's chosen king."

<sup>22</sup>David said, "What should I do with you, sons of Zeruiah? Today you are against me. No person will be put to death in Israel. Today I know I am king over Israel."

<sup>23</sup>Then the king said to Shimei, "You will not die." The king made a promise to Shimei that he himself would not kill Shimei.*

Joseph's family This probably means the Israelites that followed Absalom. Many times the name Ephraim (a son of Joseph) is used for all of the family groups in northern Israel.

The king ... not kill Shimei David did not kill Shimei but, a few years later, David's son Solomon ordered Shimei to be put to death. See 1 Kings 2:44-46.

Mephibosheth Goes to See David

<sup>24</sup>Mephibosheth, Saul's grandson* came down to meet King David. Mephibosheth had not cared for his feet, cut his beard or washed his clothes all the time the king had left Jerusalem until he came back in peace. <sup>25</sup>Mephibosheth came from Jerusalem to meet the king. The king said to Mephibosheth, "Mephibosheth, why did you not go with me when I ran away from Jerusalem?"

<sup>26</sup>Mephibosheth answered, "O king my lord, my servant (Ziba) fooled me. I said to Ziba, 'I am crippled. So put a saddle on a donkey. Then I will ride on the donkey and go with the king.*' <sup>27</sup>But my servant tricked me. He said bad things about me to you. But my lord the king is like an angel from God. Do the thing you think is good. <sup>28</sup>You could have killed all my grandfather's* family. But you did not do this. You put me with those people that eat at your own table. So I don't have a right to complain to the king about anything."

<sup>29</sup>The king said to Mephibosheth, "Don't say anything more about your problems. This is what I decide: You and Ziba can divide the land."

<sup>30</sup>Mephibosheth said to the king, "Let Ziba take all the land. Why? Because my lord the king has arrived in peace to his own house."

David Asks Barzillai to Go to Jerusalem with Him

<sup>31</sup>Barzillai of Gilead came down from Rogelim. He came to the Jordan River with King David. He went with the king to lead him across the river. <sup>32</sup>Barzillai was a very old man. He was 80 years old. He had given the king food and other things when David was staying at Mahanaim. Barzillai could do this because, he was a very rich man. <sup>33</sup>David said to Barzillai, "Come across the river, with me. I will take care of you if you will live in Jerusalem with me."

grandson Literally, "son."

I said ... king Possibly Mephibosheth was saying that his servant Ziba had taken the donkey and left Mephibosheth.

Read 2 Samuel 16:1-4.

grandfather's Literally, "father's."

<sup>34</sup>But Barzillai said to the king, "Do you know how old I am? Do you think I can go with you to Jerusalem?" <sup>35</sup>I am 80 years old! I am too old to tell which is bad and which is good. I am too old to taste the things I eat or drink. I am too old to hear any more the voices of men and women that sing. Why should you want to be bothered with me? <sup>36</sup>I don't need rewards from you. I will cross the Jordan River with you. <sup>37</sup>But please, let me go back. Then I can die in my own city and be buried in the grave of my father and mother. But here, Kimham can be your servant; let him go back with you, my lord the king. Do with him anything you want." <sup>38</sup>The king answered, "Kimham will go back with me. I will be kind to him for you. I will do anything for you."

David Goes Back Home

<sup>39</sup>The king kissed Barzillai and blessed him. Barzillai went back home. And the king and all the people went back across the river.

<sup>40</sup>The king crossed the Jordan River to Gilgal. Kimham went with him. All the people of Judah and half the people of Israel led David across the river.

The Israelites Argue with the People of Judah

<sup>41</sup>All the Israelites came to the king. They said to the king, "Our brothers, the people of Judah, stole you away and brought you and your family across the Jordan River with your men. Why?"

<sup>42</sup>All the people of Judah answered the Israelites, "Because the king is our close relative. Why are you angry with us about this thing? We have not eaten food at the king's expense. The king did not give us any gifts."

<sup>43</sup>The Israelites answered, "We have ten shares in David.* So we have more right to David than you do. But you ignored us. Why? We were the ones that first talked about bringing our king back."

ten shares in David Judah and Benjamin were two of the family groups that later became the kingdom of Judah after the kingdom split. The other ten family groups were in the kingdom of Israel.

„But the people of Judah made a very ugly answer to the Israelites. The words of the people of Judah were more ugly than the words of the Israelites.

Sheba Leads Israel Away From David

20 It happened that there was a bad man named Sheba son of Bicri. Sheba was from the family group of Benjamin. He blew the trumpet and said, “We have no share in David. We have nothing in the son of Jesse. All Israel, let us all go home to our tents.”

<sup>3</sup>David came to his house in Jerusalem. David had left ten of his wives* to take care of the house. David put these women in a special house.* People guarded this house. The women stayed in this house until they died. David gave them food, but he did not have sexual relations with them. They lived like widows until they died.

“The king said to Amasa, “Tell the people of Judah to meet with me in three days. And you must also be here.” <sup>4</sup>Then Amasa went to call the people of Judah together. But he took longer than the time that the king had told him.

David Tells Abishai to Kill Sheba

“David said to Abishai, “Sheba son of Bicri is more dangerous to us than Absalom was. So take my servants and chase Sheba. Hurry before Sheba gets into cities with walls. If Sheba gets into cities with walls, he will escape from us.”

<sup>7</sup>Joab’s men, the Kerethites, the Pelethites, and the soldiers, went out of Jerusalem. They chased Sheba son of Bicri.

wives Literally, “concubines,” womeo servants that were like wives.

David put ... special house David’s son Absalom ruined David’s cocubines by having sexual relations with them. See 2 Samuel 16:21-22.

Joab Kills Amasa

<sup>8</sup>When Joab and the army came to the great rock at Gibeon, Amasa came out to meet them. Joab was wearing his uniform. Joab had on a belt. His sword was in its sheath.* Joab went ahead to meet Amasa, and his sword fell out of its sheath. Joab picked up the sword and held it in his hand. <sup>9</sup>Joab asked Amasa, “Brother, is everything all right with you?”

Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. <sup>10</sup>Amasa did not notice the sword that was in Joab’s hand. Joab pushed the sword into Amasa’s stomach and caused Amasa’s inside parts to spill on the ground. Joab did not have to stab Amasa again—he was already dead.

David’s Men Continue to Look for Sheba

Then Joab and his brother Abishai continued to chase after Sheba son of Bicri. <sup>11</sup>One of Joab’s young men stood by Amasa’s body. This young man said, “Everyone that supports Joab and David should follow Joab. Help him chase Sheba.”

<sup>12</sup>Amasa lay in his own blood in the middle of the road. All the people were stopping to look at the body. So the young man took Amasa’s body from the road and put it in the field. Then he put a cloth over Amasa’s body. <sup>13</sup>After Amasa’s body was taken off the road, all the people followed Joab. They went with Joab to chase Sheba son of Bicri.

Sheba Escapes to Abel Beth Maacah

<sup>14</sup>Sheba son of Bicri went through all the family groups of Israel to Abel Beth Maacah. All the Berites also came together and followed Sheba.

<sup>15</sup>Joab and his men came to Abel Beth Maacah. Joab’s army surrounded the town. They piled dirt up against the city wall. After doing that, they could come close to the wall. Then Joab’s men began breaking down the wall. They wanted to make the wall fall down.

sheath A leather or metal case for carrying a sword or knife.

<sup>16</sup>A wise woman shouted out from the city. She said, "Listen to me! Tell Joab to come here. I want to talk with him."

<sup>17</sup>Joab came near to talk with the woman. The woman asked him, "Are you Joab?"

Joab answered, "Yes, I am."

Then the woman said to Joab, "Listen to what I say."

Joab said, "I am listening."

<sup>18</sup>Then the woman said, "In the past, people would say, 'Ask for advice at Abel.' Then the problem would be answered. <sup>19</sup>I am one of the peaceful, loyal people of Israel. You are trying to destroy an important city of Israel. Why must you destroy something that belongs to the Lord?"

<sup>20</sup>Joab answered, "No, no! I don't want to destroy anything.* <sup>21</sup>But there is a man from the hill country of Ephraim. He is named Sheba son of Bicri. He has turned against King David. If you will bring him to me, I will leave the city alone."

The woman said to Joab, "All right! His head will be thrown over the wall to you."

<sup>22</sup>Then the woman spoke very wisely to all the people of the city. The people cut off the head of Sheba son of Bicri. Then the people threw Sheba's head over the city wall to Joab.

So Joab blew the trumpet and the army left the city. Every man went home to his tent. And Joab went back to the king in Jerusalem.

The People on David's Staff

<sup>23</sup>Joab was captain of all the army of Israel. Benaiah son of Jehoiada led the Kerethites and Pelethites. <sup>24</sup>Adoniram led the men that were forced to do hard work. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the historian. <sup>25</sup>Sheva was the secretary. Zadok and Abiathar were the priests. <sup>26</sup>And Ira the Jairite was David's chief servant.*

No no ... anything Literally, "Far, far be it! I don't want to swallow up or destroy."

chief servant Literally, "priest."

Saul's Family Punished

21 There was a time of hunger in David's time. This time of hunger continued for three years. David prayed to the Lord.

The Lord answered, "Saul and his family of murderers* are the reason for this time of hunger. This time of hunger has come because Saul killed the Gibeonites." <sup>2</sup>(The Gibeonites were not Israelites. They were a group of those Amorites that were still left alive. The Israelites had promised them that they would not hurt the Gibeonites.* But Saul felt very strongly for the people of Israel and Judah. So he tried to kill the Gibeonites.)

King David, called the Gibeonites together. He talked to them. <sup>3</sup>David said to the Gibeonites, "What can I do for you? What can I do to take away Israel's sin, so you can bless the Lord's people?"

<sup>4</sup>The Gibeonites said to David, "Saul and his family don't have enough silver and gold to pay for what they did. But we don't have the right to kill any person in Israel."

David said, "But, what can I do for you?"

<sup>5</sup>The Gibeonites said to David, "Saul made plans against us. He tried to destroy all our people that are left in the land of Israel. <sup>6</sup>Saul was the Lord's chosen king. So bring seven of his sons to us. Then we will hang them in front of the Lord at Saul's Mount Gibeah."

King David said, "I will give those sons to you." <sup>7</sup>But the king protected Jonathan's son Mephibosheth. (Jonathan was Saul's son.) David had made a promise in the Lord's name: to Jonathan.* So the king did not let them hurt Mephibosheth. <sup>8</sup>But the king did take Armoni and Mephibosheth,* Rizpah's and Saul's sons. The king took these two sons of Rizpah and the five sons of Merab, Saul's daughter. (Adriel, family of murderers Literally, "house of blood."

The Israelites ... Gibeonites This happened in Joshua's time when the Gibeonites tricked the Israelites. Read Joshua 9:3-15.

David had made ... to Jonathan David and Jonathan promised each other that they would not harm each other's families. Read 1 Samuel 20:12-23, 42.

Mephibosheth This is another man named Mephibosheth, not Jonathan's son.

son of Barzillai the Meholathite, was the father of Merab's five sons.)<sup>9</sup> David gave these seven sons, to the Gibeonites. Then the Gibeonites hung these seven sons, on the Mount Gibeah, before the Lord. All these seven sons, died together. They were put to death during the first days of harvest. (The barley harvest was just beginning.)

Rizpah Watches Over Her Sons' Bodies

<sup>10</sup>Aiah's daughter Rizpah took the cloth of sadness and put it on the rock.* That cloth stayed on the rock from the time the harvest began until the time rain fell on it. During the day Rizpah did not let the birds of the sky touch her sons' bodies. At night Rizpah did not let the animals of the field touch her sons' bodies.

David Moves and Buries the Bones of Saul and Jonathan

<sup>11</sup>People told David what Aiah's daughter Rizpah, Saul's woman servant,* was doing. <sup>12</sup>Then David took the bones of Saul and Jonathan from the men of Jabesh Gilead. (The men of Jabesh had stolen these bones from the public street of Beth Shan. This public street in Beth Shan is where the Philistines had hung the bodies of Saul and Jonathan. The Philistines had hung these bodies after they killed Saul at Gilboa.)

<sup>13</sup>David brought the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from Gilead. Then the people gathered the bodies of the seven sons of Saul that were hanged. <sup>14</sup>They buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in Zela, Benjamin. The people buried the bodies in the grave of Saul's father Kish. The people did all the things the king commanded.

Then God listened to the prayers of the people in the land.

War with the Philistines

<sup>15</sup>The Philistines had war with David again. David and his men went out to fight the Philistines. But David became tired and weak. <sup>16</sup>Ishbi-Benob was one of the giant's sons. Ishbi-Benob's spear weighed about 7½ pounds.* Ishbi-Benob had a new sword. He planned to kill David. <sup>17</sup>But Abishai son of Zeruiah killed the Philistine and saved David's life.

Then David's men made a vow* to David. They said to him, "You can't go out with us to battle any more. If you go into battle again and are killed, then Israel will lose its greatest leader.*" <sup>18</sup>Later, there was another war with the Philistines at Gob. Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, another of the giant's sons.

<sup>19</sup>Then another war with the Philistines came at Gob again. Elhanan the son of Jaare-Oregim from the family group of Benjamin killed Goliath the Gittite.* Goliath's spear was as large as a weaver's rod.

<sup>20</sup>War came again at Gath. There was a very large man. This man had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. (He had 24 fingers and toes in all.) This man was also a son of the giant. <sup>21</sup>This man challenged Israel. But Jonathan killed this man. (Jonathan was the son of Shimei, David's brother.)

<sup>22</sup>These four men were sons of the giant from Gath. They all were killed by David and his men.

David's Song of Praise to the Lord

22 The Lord had saved David from Saul and all his other enemies. David sang this song:

7½ pounds Literally, "300 shekels of brass."

vow A special promise to God. Often the person who makes a vow gives special sacrifices or gifts to God after doing some special thing for a certain period of time.

then Israel ... greatest leader Literally, "you will cause the lamp of Israel to go out."

Goliath the Gittite In 1 Chronicles 20:5, this Philistine is called Lahmi the brother of Goliath.

rock This might mean the rock that the bodies were lying on, or a rock that marked the place where her sons were buried.

woman servant Or, "coconcubine," a slave woman who was like a wife to a man.

- 2 The Lord is my rock, my fort, my Savior.
 3 I will run to God for help.
 He is my Rock of safety.
 God is my shield.
 His power saves me.*
 The Lord is my high tower and my place of safety.
 My Savior saves me from harm.
- 4 The Lord should be praised.
 I will call to the Lord for help.
 The Lord will save me from my enemies.
- 5 The waves of death came around me.
 Troubles came like a flood.
 They made me afraid.
- 6 Ropes from the grave wrapped around me.
 I was trapped by death.
- 7 I was in trouble,
 but I called to the Lord.
 Yes, I called to my God.
 He was in his temple.
 He heard my voice.
 My cry came to his ears.
- 8 Then the earth was shocked,
 the earth shook,
 the foundations of heaven shook.
 Why? Because the Lord was angry!
- 9 Smoke came out of his nostrils, Burning sparks of fire came out of his mouth.
- 10 The Lord split open the heavens and came down!
 He stood on a thick, dark cloud!
- 11 The Lord rode on the cherub angel and flew.
 Yes, people saw him riding on the wings of the wind!
- 12 The Lord wrapped the dark clouds around him like a tent.
 He gathered the thick clouds of water from the skies.
- 13 His light was so bright that coals of fire began to burn!
- 14 The Lord thundered from heaven!
 God Most High spoke!
 15 The Lord sent out arrows and scattered the enemy.
 The Lord sent out lightning, and the people ran away in fear.
- 16 The covers of the world's foundations were torn off.
 Then people could see the bottom of the sea.
 They came off because the Lord spoke,
 Because of the hot wind from his nose.
- 17 The Lord reached down from the sky.
 The Lord caught me.
 He pulled me out of deep waters.
- 18 He saved me from my strong enemy.
 He saved me from people that hated me.
 My enemies were too strong for me,
 so he saved me.
- 19 I was in trouble when my enemies attacked me.
 But the Lord helped me;
- 20 The Lord brought me to safety!
 He saved me because he loves me.
- 21 The Lord rewards me because I did right.
 The Lord rewards me because my hands are clean from evil.
- 22 Why? Because I obeyed the ways of the Lord!
 I did not sin against my God.
- 23 I always remember the Lord's decisions.
 I will follow his laws!
- 24 The Lord knows that I am not guilty.
 I keep myself from my sin.
- 25 That is why the Lord has rewarded me:
 I live right!
 I follow a clean life for the Lord to see.
- 26 If a person loves you, then you will show your loving kindness to him.
 If a person is true to you,
 then you will be true to him.
- 27 If a person lives a good life for you, then you will be good to him.
 But if a person turns against you, then you will turn against him.*

His power saves me Literally, "He is the horn of my salvation."

But ... turn against him Or, "If a person is crooked, you will be crafty."

28 You will save people in trouble,
 But you look down on proud people.
 You will bring proud people down.

29 Lord, you are my lamp.
 The Lord makes the darkness around me become light.

30 You help me to defeat a group of soldiers.*
 By God's power, I can jump over a wall!

31 God's way is perfect.
 The Lord's word has been tested.
 The Lord is a shield for everyone that runs to him for safety.

32 There is no God except the Lord.
 There is no Rock except our God.

33 God is my strong fort.
 He helps blameless people live like he wants.*

34 The Lord makes my feet fast like a deer's feet!
 He makes me steady in high places.

35 The Lord trains me for war, so my arms can bend a brass bow.

36 You protect me like a shield.
 Your help has made me great.

37 You have made my path wider,
 so that my feet don't slip.

38 I have chased my enemies,
 I have destroyed them!
 I would not go back until my enemies were destroyed.

39 I have destroyed my enemies.
 I have completely destroyed them!
 They can't rise again.
 Yes, my enemies fell under my feet.

40 Why? Because you make me strong for the battle.
 You have defeated my enemies.

41 You have caused my enemies to run away.
 So I can defeat those people that hate me.

42 My enemies looked for help.
 But there was no one to save them.

43 I beat my enemies into pieces.
 They became like dust on the ground.
 I kept stamping on my enemies until they were like mud in the streets.

44 You have also saved me when my people argued against me.
 You kept me as ruler of the nations.
 People I don't know will serve me!

45 People from other lands will obey me!
 When they hear about me,
 they will quickly obey me.

46 The people from other lands will become afraid.
 They will come out of their hiding places shaking with fear.

47 The Lord lives.
 Praise my Rock!*
 Lift God high!
 He is the Rock that saves me.

48 He is the God who punishes my enemies, for me.
 He brings people under my rule.

49 He frees me from my enemies.
 Yes, you lift me above my enemies.
 You save me from the man that wants to hurt me.

50 Lord God, this is why I give thanks to you among the nations.

51 The Lord helps his king win battles.
 The Lord shows love and kindness to his chosen king.
 He will be kind to David and to his children forever.

David's Last Words

23 These are the last words of David son of Jesse. David sang this song:

The man that was made great by God, speaks.
 He is the chosen king of the God of Jacob.
 He is the sweet singer of Israel.
 2 The Lord's Spirit spoke through me.

defeat a group of soldiers Literally, "run through a group of soldiers."

live like he wants Literally, "walk in his ways."

Rock A name for God. It shows he is like a fortress or a strong place of safety.

His word was on my tongue.

<sup>3</sup> The God of Israel spoke.

The Rock of Israel said to me,

“The person that rules fairly over people—the person that rules with respect for God—

<sup>4</sup> that person will be like the morning light at dawn.

That person will be like a morning without clouds.

That person will be like sunshine after a rain—
the rain that makes the tender grass grow out of the ground.”

<sup>5</sup> In the past, God did not make my family strong.

But then God made an agreement with me forever.

God made sure this agreement was good in every way.

God has made this agreement strong,
and he will not break it.

This agreement is my salvation.

This agreement is all I want.

Truly, the Lord will make my family grow strong.

<sup>6</sup> But all bad people will be like thorns.

People don't hold thorns.

They throw them away.

<sup>7</sup> If a person touches them, it is like being pierced by bronze and iron spears.

Those people will be like thorns.

They will be thrown in the fire, and they will be completely burned!

David's Army

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of David's soldiers:

Josheb-Basshebeth the Tahkemonite.
Josheb-Basshebeth was captain of the chariot officers. He was also called, Adino the Eznite.
Josheb-Basshebeth killed 800 men at one time.

<sup>9</sup>Next, there was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahoite. Eleazar was one of the three soldiers that were with David at the time they challenged the Philistines. The Philistines came together for a battle at a time when the Israelites had gone away. <sup>10</sup>Eleazar fought the Philistines until he was very tired. But he kept holding on to the sword tightly and continued fighting. The Lord gave a great victory to the Israelites that day. The people came back after Eleazar had won the battle. But they came only to take valuable things from the enemy.

<sup>11</sup>Next, there was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines came together to fight.
They fought in a field of lentils.* The people ran away from the Philistines. <sup>12</sup>But Shammah stood in the middle of the field. He fought for the field. He killed the Philistines. That time the Lord gave a great victory.

The Three Heroes

<sup>13</sup>One time three of the Thirty Heroes* came down to David at the time of harvest. These three men came to the cave of Adullam. The Philistine army had made its camp in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>14</sup>At that time, David was in the fort. There were some Philistines soldiers in Bethlehem.

<sup>15</sup>David had a strong desire for some water from his home town. David said, “Oh, I wish some person would give me water from the well near the city gate in Bethlehem!” David did not really want this, he was only talking.

<sup>16</sup>But the Three Heroes* broke through the Philistines army. These three men took water out of the well near the city gate in Bethlehem.
Then the Three Heroes brought the water to David. But David refused to drink the water.
He poured it on the ground before the Lord.
<sup>17</sup>David said, “Lord, I can't drink this. It would be like drinking the blood of the men that risked their lives for me.” This is why David refused to drink the water. These three soldiers did many things like that.

<sup>18</sup>Abishai, brother of Joab, son of Zeruiah was leader of the Three Heroes.* Abishai used his spear against 300 enemies, and killed them. He became as famous as the Three.
<sup>19</sup>Abishai received more honor than the Three.

lentils A kind of bean.

Thirty Heroes These men were David's famous group of very brave soldiers.

Three Heroes These were David's three bravest soldiers.

He became their leader. But he was not a member of the Three.

<sup>20</sup>There was Benaiah son of Jehoiada. He was the son of a powerful man. He was from Kabzeel. Benaiah did many brave things. Benaiah killed the two sons of Ariel from Moab. Benaiah also went down into a pit when it was snowing and killed a lion. <sup>21</sup>Benaiah killed an Egyptian that was a strong fighter. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand. But Benaiah only had a staff in his hand. Benaiah caught the spear in the Egyptian's hand and took it away from him. Then Benaiah killed the Egyptian with the Egyptian's own spear. <sup>22</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada did many things like that. Benaiah was as famous as the Three Heroes.* <sup>23</sup>Benaiah received more honor than the Thirty Heroes,* but he did not become a member of the Three Heroes. David made Benaiah leader of his guards.

The Thirty Heroes

<sup>24</sup>Asahel, the brother of Joab, was one of the Thirty Heroes.* (Other men in the group of Thirty Heroes were: Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem, <sup>25</sup>Shammah the Harodite, Elikah the Harodite, <sup>26</sup>Helez the Palitite, Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, <sup>27</sup>Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite, <sup>28</sup>Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, <sup>29</sup>Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai son of Ribai from Gibeath of the family group of Benjamin, <sup>30</sup>Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai from the brooks of Gaash, <sup>31</sup>Abi-albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite, <sup>32</sup>Eliabha the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan, <sup>33</sup>Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite, <sup>34</sup>Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maacathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, <sup>35</sup>Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite, <sup>36</sup>Igal son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite, <sup>37</sup>Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, helpers to Joab son of Zeruiah, <sup>38</sup>Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, <sup>39</sup>and Uriah the Hittite. There were 37 in all.

Three Heroes These were David's three bravest soldiers.

Thirty Heroes These men were David's famous group of very brave soldiers.

David Wants a Count of His Army

24 The Lord was angry against Israel again. The Lord caused David to turn against the Israelites. David said, "Go count the people of Israel and Judah."

<sup>2</sup>King David said to Joab, the captain of the army, "Go through all the family groups of Israel from Dan to Beersheba,* and count the people. Then I will know how many people there are."

<sup>3</sup>But Joab said to the king, "May the Lord your God give you 100 times as many people, no matter how many there are! And may your eyes see this thing happen. But why do you want to do this?"

<sup>4</sup>King David very strongly commanded Joab and the captains of the army to count the people. So Joab and the captains of the army went out from the king to count the people of Israel. <sup>5</sup>They crossed over the Jordan River. They made their camp in Aroer. Their camp was on the right side of the city. (The city is in the middle of the valley of Gad. The city is also on the way to Jazer.)

<sup>6</sup>Then they went to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi. They went to Dan-Jaan and around to Sidon. <sup>7</sup>They went to the fort of Tyre. They went to all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites. They went to southern Judah, to Beersheba. <sup>8</sup>Nine months and 20 days later, they had gone through all the land. They came to Jerusalem after nine months and 20 days.

<sup>9</sup>Joab gave the list of the people to the king. There were 800,000 men in Israel that could use the sword. And there were 500,000 men in Judah.

The Lord Punishes David

<sup>10</sup>Then David felt ashamed after he had counted the people. David said to the Lord, "I have sinned greatly in what I did! Lord, I beg you, forgive me for my sin. I have been very foolish."

Dan to Beersheba This means all the people of Israel. Dan was the town farthest north, and Beersheba was in the south.

<sup>11</sup>When David got up in the morning, the Lord's word came to Gad, David's seer*. <sup>12</sup>The Lord told Gad, "Go and tell David, 'This is what the Lord says: I offer you three things. Choose the one that I will do to you.'"

<sup>13</sup>Gad went to David and told him. Gad said to David, "Choose one of these three things: Should seven years of hunger come to you and your land? Or should your enemies chase you for three months? Or should there be three days of disease in your country? Think about it, and decide which of these things I should tell the Lord, who sent me."

<sup>14</sup>David said to Gad, "I am really in trouble! But the Lord is very merciful. So let the Lord punish us. Don't let my punishment come from people."

<sup>15</sup>So the Lord sent disease on Israel. It began in the morning and continued until the chosen time to stop. From Dan to Beersheba* 70,000 people died. <sup>16</sup>The angel raised his arm toward Jerusalem to destroy it. But the Lord felt very sorry about the bad things that had happened. The Lord said to the angel that destroyed the people, "That's enough! Put down your arm." The Lord's angel was by the threshing floor* of Araunah* the Jebusite.

David Buys Araunah's Threshing Floor

<sup>17</sup>David saw the angel that killed the people. David spoke to the Lord. David said, "I've sinned! I've done wrong! But these people only followed me like sheep. They did nothing wrong. Please let your punishment be against me and my father's family."

<sup>18</sup>That day Gad came to David. Gad told David, "Go and build an altar* to the Lord on the threshing floor* of Araunah* the Jebusite."

<sup>19</sup>Then David did the things Gad told him to. David obeyed the things the Lord commanded. David went to see Araunah. <sup>20</sup>When Araunah looked, he saw the king (David,) and his servants coming to him. Araunah went out and bowed, putting his face close to the ground. <sup>21</sup>Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to me?"

David answered, "To buy the threshing floor* from you. Then I can build an altar* to the Lord. Then the disease will stop."

<sup>22</sup>Araunah said to David, "My lord the king can take anything you want for a sacrifice.* Here are some cows for the burnt offering, and the threshing boards* and the yokes* for the wood. <sup>23</sup>O King, I give everything to you!" Araunah also said to the king, "May the Lord your God be pleased with you."

<sup>24</sup>But the king said to Araunah, "No! I tell you the truth, I will buy the land from you at a price. I will not offer burnt offerings to the Lord my God that cost me nothing."

So David bought the threshing floor* and the cows for 50 shekels of silver. <sup>25</sup>Then David built an altar* to the Lord there. David offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings.

The Lord answered his prayer for the country. The Lord stopped the disease in Israel.

seer Another name for a prophet.

Dan to Beersheba This means all the people of Israel.

Dan was the town farthest north, and Beersheba was in the south.

threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

Araunah Also spelled "Ornan."

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

threshing boards A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

yoke(s) A pole that was put on the shoulders of men or animals to help them carry or pull things. This often showed that a person was a slave.

1 Kings

1 At this time King David was very, very old. He could not keep warm. His servants covered him with blankets, but still he was cold. <sup>2</sup>So his servants said to him, "We will find a young woman to care for you. She will lie close to you and keep you warm." <sup>3</sup>So the king's servants began looking everywhere in the country of Israel for a young woman. They were looking for a beautiful girl to keep the king warm. They found a girl named Abishag. She was from the city Shunem. They brought the young woman to the king. "The girl was very beautiful. She cared for the king and served him. But King David did not have sexual relations with her.

<sup>4</sup>King David's son Adonijah became very proud. He said, "I will be the king." (Adonijah's mother was named Haggith.) Adonijah wanted to become king very much. So he got a chariot for himself and horses and 50 men to run ahead of him. <sup>6</sup>King David never corrected his son Adonijah. David never asked him, "Why are you doing these things?" Adonijah was the son that was born after Absalom. Adonijah was a very handsome man.

<sup>7</sup>Adonijah talked with Joab son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest. They told him he was doing the right thing. <sup>8</sup>But several men did not agree with the things Adonijah was doing. They did not think he was ready to become king. These men were Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei Rei, and King David's special guard. So these men did not join with Adonijah.

<sup>9</sup>Then Adonijah killed some animals for sacrifices. He killed some sheep, some cows, and some fat calves. Adonijah made these sacrifices at the Stone of Zoheleth near En Rogel. Adonijah invited many men to come to this special worship with him. Adonijah invited the other sons of King David, and all the rulers and leaders of Judah. <sup>10</sup>But Adonijah did not invite Nathan the prophet or Benaiah or his father's special guard or his brother Solomon.

<sup>11</sup>When Nathan heard about this, he went to Bathsheba, the mother of Solomon. Nathan asked her, "Have you heard about what Haggith's son Adonijah is doing? He has made himself king and the real king, David, does not know about it. <sup>12</sup>Your life and the life of your son Solomon may be in danger. But I will tell you what you should do to save yourself. <sup>13</sup>Go to King David and say to him, 'My King, you promised me that my son Solomon would be the next king after you. So why has Adonijah become king?' <sup>14</sup>Then while you are still talking to him, I will come in and tell the king that what you have said [about Adonijah, is true."

<sup>15</sup>So Bathsheba went in to see the king in his bedroom. The king was very old. Abishag, the girl from Shunem, was caring for him there. <sup>16</sup>Bathsheba bowed down before the king. The king asked, "What do you want?"

<sup>17</sup>Bathsheba answered, "My king, you made a promise to me in the name of the Lord, your God. You said, 'Solomon your son will become king after me. Solomon will rule on my throne.' <sup>18</sup>But now Adonijah has become king. And you did not know it. <sup>19</sup>Adonijah has killed many animals for sacrifice. He has killed cows, fat calves, and sheep. And he invited all of your sons. He also invited Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of your army. But he did not invite Solomon, your son who serves you.<sup>20</sup> My king, all the people of Israel are watching you. They are waiting for you to decide who will be king after you.<sup>21</sup> After you die, you will be buried with your fathers. At that time the people will say that Solomon and I are criminals.”

<sup>22</sup>While Bathsheba was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet came to see him.

<sup>23</sup>The servants told the king, “Nathan the prophet is here.” So Nathan entered and went to the king. Nathan bowed down on the ground before the king.

<sup>24</sup>Then Nathan said, “My king, have you announced that Adonijah will be the new king after you? Have you decided that Adonijah will rule the people after you? <sup>25</sup>Today he has made special sacrifices. He has killed many cows, fat calves, and sheep. And he invited all your other sons, the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest. They are now eating and drinking with him. And they are saying, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’ <sup>26</sup>But he did not invite me, or Zadok the priest, or Benaiah, son of Jehoiada, or your son Solomon. <sup>27</sup>Did you do this? We serve and obey you. Why didn’t you tell us you chose him to be the king after you?”

<sup>28</sup>Then King David said, “Tell Bathsheba to come in!” So Bathsheba came in before the king.

<sup>29</sup>Then the king made a promise: “The Lord God has saved me from every danger. And the Lord God truly lives. And by his power I promise you <sup>30</sup>that today I will do the thing that I promised to you in the past. I made this promise by the power of the Lord God of Israel. I promised that your son Solomon would be the king after me. And I promised that he would take my place on my throne after me. I will keep my promise.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Bathsheba bowed down on the ground before the king. She said, “Long live King David!”

<sup>32</sup>Then King David said, “Tell Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, to come in here.” So the three men came before the king. <sup>33</sup>Then the king said to them, “Take my servants with you and let my son Solomon sit on my own mule. Bring him to Gihon Spring. <sup>34</sup>At that place, Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet should anoint* him king over Israel. Blow the trumpet and announce, ‘This is the new king, Solomon!’ <sup>35</sup>Then come back here with him. Solomon will sit on my throne and be the new king in my place. I have chosen Solomon to be the ruler over Israel and Judah.”

<sup>36</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king, “This is good! And may your God make it happen. <sup>37</sup>The Lord has always helped you, our king. Let the Lord also help Solomon. And let King Solomon be an even greater king than you.”

<sup>38</sup>So Zadok, Nathan, Benaiah, and the king’s officers obeyed King David. They put Solomon on King David’s mule and went with him to Gihon. <sup>39</sup>Zadok the priest carried the oil from the tent with him. Zadok poured the oil on Solomon’s head to show that he was the king. They blew the trumpet and all the people shouted, “Long live King Solomon!” <sup>40</sup>All the people followed Solomon into the city. They were playing flutes and making happy noises. They made so much noise that the ground shook.

<sup>41</sup>At this time, Adonijah and all the guests with him were finishing their meal. They heard the sound from the trumpet. Joab asked, “What is that noise? What is happening in the city?”

<sup>42</sup>While Joab was still speaking, Jonathan, the son of Abiathar the priest came there. Adonijah said, “Come here! You are a good man.* So you must be bringing good news to me.”

<sup>43</sup>But Jonathan answered, “No! It is not good news for you! Our King David has made Solomon the new king. <sup>44</sup>And King David sent Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and all the king’s officers with him. They put Solomon on the king’s own

good man Or “important man.” This Hebrew word means a person from an important family.

mule. <sup>45</sup>Then Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anointed* Solomon at Gihon Spring. And then they went into the city. People followed them and now the people in the city are very happy. That is the noise that you hear. <sup>46</sup>Solomon is now sitting on the king's throne. <sup>47</sup>All the king's servants have come to tell King David that he has done a good thing. They are saying, 'King David, you are a great king! And now we pray that your God will make Solomon a great king too. May your God make Solomon even more famous than you. And let him be an even greater king than you were!'"

Jonathan continued telling Adonijah about the things that were happening, "And King David has lain down on his bed. <sup>48</sup>King David said, 'Praise the Lord God of Israel. The Lord put one of my sons upon my throne and allowed me to see it.'" <sup>49</sup>Then all of Adonijah's guests were afraid and they left quickly. <sup>50</sup>Adonijah was also afraid of Solomon. So he went to the altar and held the horns of the altar.* <sup>51</sup>Then someone told Solomon, "Adonijah is very afraid of you. Adonijah is at the altar. He is holding to the horns of the altar* and refuses to leave. Adonijah says, 'Tell King Solomon to promise me that he will not kill me.'"

<sup>52</sup>So Solomon answered, "If Adonijah shows that he is a good man, then I promise that not even a hair on his head will be hurt. But if he does anything wrong, then he will die." <sup>53</sup>Then King Solomon sent some men to get Adonijah. The men brought Adonijah to King Solomon. Adonijah came to King Solomon and bowed down. Then Solomon said, "Go home."

2 It was almost time for David to die. So David talked to Solomon and told him, <sup>1</sup>"My time to die is near. Be a good and strong leader. <sup>2</sup>Obey all the things that the Lord your God commands. Follow the commands that the Lord has given us. Obey all his laws and do the things he told us. Obey the things that are written in the Law of Moses. If you obey all these things, then you will be successful in all that you do and everywhere you go. <sup>4</sup>And if you obey the Lord, then the Lord will keep his promise about me. This is the promise the Lord made about me: 'Your sons must obey my commands and live the way I tell them. Your sons must have faith in me with all their heart and soul. If your sons do these things, then a man from your family will always be the ruler over the people of Israel.'

<sup>5</sup>"Also, you remember what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me. He killed the two commanders of Israel's armies. He killed Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. You remember that he killed them during a time of peace. The blood from these men splashed on the sword belt and army boots he was wearing. So I must punish him. <sup>6</sup>But you are the king now. So you should punish him in the way you think is the most wise. <sup>7</sup>But you must be sure that he is killed. <sup>8</sup>Don't let him die peacefully of old age!"

<sup>9</sup>"Be kind to the children of Barzillai of Gilead. Allow them to be your friends and eat at your table. They helped me when I ran away from your brother Absalom.

<sup>10</sup>"And remember, Shimei son of Gera, is here with you. He is from the family group of Benjamin in Bahurim. Remember that he said very bad things against me on the day that I ran away to Mahanaim. Then he came down to meet me at the Jordan River. But I promised before the Lord, 'Shimei, I will not kill you.' <sup>11</sup>Don't leave him unpunished. You are a wise man; you will know what you must do to him. <sup>12</sup>But don't let him die peacefully of old age."

<sup>13</sup>Then David died. He was buried in the City of David. <sup>14</sup>David ruled over Israel 40 years. He ruled seven years in Hebron and 33 years in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>Now Solomon ruled on the throne of David his father. And there was no doubt that he was the king.*

And there was no doubt ... king Or, "His kingdom was firmly established."

<sup>13</sup>At this time, Adonijah son of Haggith went to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother. Bathsheba asked him, "Do you come in peace?"

Adonijah answered, "Yes. This is a peaceful visit. <sup>14</sup>I have something to say to you."

Bathsheba said, "Then speak."

<sup>15</sup>Adonijah said, "You remember that at one time the kingdom was mine. All the people of Israel thought I was their king. But things changed. Now my brother is the king. The Lord chose him to be king. <sup>16</sup>So now I have one thing to ask you. Please do not refuse me."

Bathsheba answered, "What do you want?"

<sup>17</sup>Adonijah said, "I know that King Solomon will do anything you ask him. So please ask him to give Abishag the woman from Shunem to me. I want to marry her."

<sup>18</sup>Then Bathsheba said, "Fine. I will speak to the king for you."

<sup>19</sup>So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to talk with him. King Solomon saw her and he stood to meet her. Then he bowed down to her and sat on the throne. He told some servants to bring another throne* for his mother. Then she sat down at his right side.

<sup>20</sup>Bathsheba said to him, "I have one small thing to ask you. Please do not refuse me."

The king answered, "You can ask anything you want, mother. I will not refuse you."

<sup>21</sup>So Bathsheba said, "Allow Abishag, the woman from Shunem, to marry your brother Adonijah."

<sup>22</sup>King Solomon answered his mother, "Why do you ask me to give Abishag to him? Why don't you ask me to allow him to become king also, since he is my older brother? Abiathar the priest and Joab will support him!"

<sup>23</sup>Then Solomon made a promise with the Lord. He said, "I promise that I will make Adonijah pay for asking me this! I promise that it will cost him his life! <sup>24</sup>The Lord has allowed me to become the king of Israel. He has given me the throne* that belonged to my father David. The Lord has kept his promise and gave the kingdom to me and my people. I promise before the living God who has done these things, that Adonijah will die today!"

<sup>26</sup>Then King Solomon said to Abiathar the priest, "I should kill you but I will allow you to go back to your home in Anathoth. I will not kill you now because you helped to carry the Holy Box* of the Lord while marching with my father David. And I know that you shared in all of the hard times the same as my father." <sup>27</sup>Solomon told Abiathar that he could not continue to serve as a priest of the Lord. This happened the way the Lord said it would. God said this about Eli the priest and his family at Shiloh. (And Abiathar was from Eli's family.)

<sup>28</sup>Joab heard about this and he was afraid. He had supported Adonijah, but not Absalom. Joab ran to the tent of the Lord and held the horns of the altar.* <sup>29</sup>Someone told King Solomon that Joab was in the tent of the Lord at the altar. So Solomon ordered Benaiah to go and kill him.

<sup>30</sup>Benaiah went into the tent of the Lord and said to Joab, "The king says, 'Come out!'"

But Joab answered, "No, I will die here."

So Benaiah went back to the king and told him what Joab had said. <sup>31</sup>Then the king commanded Benaiah, "Do as he says! Kill him there. Then bury him. Then my family and I will be free of the guilt of Joab. This guilt was caused because Joab killed innocent people.

<sup>32</sup>Joab killed two men who were much better than himself. They were Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. Abner was the commander of Israel's army and Amasa was the commander of Judah's army. (And at that time,) my father David did not know that Joab had killed them. So the Lord will punish Joab for those men he killed. <sup>33</sup>He will be guilty for their deaths. And his family will also be guilty forever. But there will be peace from God for David, his descendants,* his family, and his throne forever.”

<sup>38</sup>So Shimei answered, “What you have said is good, my king. I will obey you.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem for a long time. <sup>39</sup>But three years later, two of Shimei’s slaves ran away. They went to the king of Gath. His name was Achish son of Maacah. Shimei heard that his slaves were in Gath. <sup>40</sup>So Shimei put his saddle on his donkey and went to King Achish at Gath. He went to find his slaves. He found them there and brought them back to his home.

<sup>41</sup>But someone told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned. <sup>42</sup>So Solomon sent to get him. Solomon said, “I made you promise in the name of the Lord that if you left Jerusalem you would die. I warned you that if you went anywhere else it would be your own fault that you died. And you agreed to what I said. You said that you would obey me. <sup>43</sup>Why did you break your promise? Why did you not obey my command? <sup>44</sup>You know the many wrong things you did against my father David. Now the Lord will punish you for those wrong things. <sup>45</sup>But the Lord will bless me. He will make David’s throne safe forever.”

<sup>46</sup>Then the king ordered Benaiah to kill Shimei, and he did. Now Solomon was in full control of his kingdom.

Solomon the King

3 Solomon made an agreement with Pharaoh the king of Egypt by marrying his daughter. Solomon brought her to the City of David.* At this time, Solomon was still building his palace and the temple of the Lord. Solomon was also building a wall around Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>The temple had not yet been finished. So people were still making animal sacrifices* on altars at the high places.* <sup>3</sup>Solomon showed that he loved the Lord. He did this by obeying all the things his father David had told him to do. <sup>4</sup>But Solomon did something David did not tell him to do. <sup>5</sup>Solomon still used the high places to offer sacrifices and to burn incense.*

<sup>6</sup>King Solomon went to Gibeon to offer a sacrifice. He went there because that was the most important high place.* Solomon offered 1,000 offerings on that altar. <sup>7</sup>While Solomon was at Gibeon, the Lord came to him during the night in a dream. God said, “Ask for anything you want. I will give it to you.”

<sup>8</sup>Solomon answered, “You were very kind to your servant, my father David. He followed you. He was good and lived right. And you showed the greatest kindness to him when you allowed his son to rule on his throne <sup>9</sup>(after him). <sup>10</sup>Lord my God, you have allowed me to be the king in my father’s place. But I am like a little child. I do not have the wisdom I need to do the things I must do. <sup>11</sup>I, your servant, am here among your chosen people. There are many, many people. There are too many to count. <sup>12</sup>So a ruler must make many decisions among them.” <sup>13</sup>So I ask that you give me wisdom so that I can rule and judge the people in the right way. This will allow me to know the difference between right and wrong. Without this great wisdom, it is impossible to rule these great people.”

the ... David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

high place(s) Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

descendants A person’s children and all of their future families.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord was happy that Solomon asked him for this. <sup>11</sup>So God said to him, "You did not ask for long life for yourself. And you did not ask for riches for yourself. You did not ask for the death of your enemies. You asked for the wisdom to listen and make the right decisions. <sup>12</sup>So, I will give you the thing you asked. I will make you wise and intelligent. I will make your wisdom so great, that there has never in the past been anyone like you. And in the future, there will never be anyone like you. <sup>13</sup>Also, to reward you, I will give you those things that you did not ask for. All your life, you will have riches and honor. There will be no other king in the world as great as you. <sup>14</sup>I ask you to follow me and obey my laws and commands. Do this the way your father David did. If you do this, then I will also give you a long life."

<sup>15</sup>Solomon woke up. He knew that God had talked to him in the dream. Then Solomon went to Jerusalem and stood before the Box of the Lord's Agreement.* Solomon offered a burnt offering for the Lord. And he made fellowship offerings to the Lord. After that, he gave a party for all of the leaders and officials that helped him rule.

<sup>16</sup>One day two women that were prostitutes* came to Solomon. They stood before the king. <sup>17</sup>One of the women said, "Sir, this woman and I live in the same house. We were both pregnant and almost ready to give birth to our babies. I gave birth to my baby while she was there with me. <sup>18</sup>Three days later, this woman also gave birth to her baby. There was no other person in the house with us. There were only the two of us. <sup>19</sup>One night, while this woman was asleep with her baby, the baby died. <sup>20</sup>So, during the night, she took my son from my bed while I was asleep. She carried him to her bed. Then she put the dead baby in my bed. <sup>21</sup>The next morning, I woke up and was ready to feed my baby. But I saw that the baby was dead. Then I looked at it more closely. I saw that it was not my baby."

<sup>22</sup>But the other woman said, "No! The living baby is mine. The dead baby is yours!"

But the first woman said, "No! You are wrong! The dead baby is yours and the living baby is mine!" So the two women argued in front of the king.

<sup>23</sup>Then King Solomon said, "Each of you says that the living baby is your own. And each of you says that the dead baby belongs to the other woman."

<sup>24</sup>Then King Solomon sent his servant to get a sword. <sup>25</sup>And King Solomon said, "This is what we will do. Cut the living baby in two pieces. Give each woman half of the baby."

<sup>26</sup>The second woman said, "That is fine. Cut the baby into two pieces. Then neither of us will have him."

But the first woman, the real mother, was full of love for her son. She said to the king, "Please, Sir, don't kill the baby! Give it to her."

<sup>27</sup>Then King Solomon said, "Don't kill the baby! Give it to the first woman. She is the real mother."

<sup>28</sup>The people of Israel heard about King Solomon's decision. They respected and honored him very much because he was wise. They saw that he had the wisdom of God* in making the right decisions.

4 King Solomon ruled over all the people of Israel. <sup>2</sup>These are the names of his leading officials that helped him rule:

Azariah son of Zadok

(Azariah was the priest);

<sup>3</sup> Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha (Elihoreph and Ahijah had the jobs of writing notes about the things that happened in the courts);

Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud

(Jehoshaphat wrote notes about the history of the people);

<sup>4</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada (Benaiah was the commander of the

 Zadok and Abiathar (Zadok and Abiathar were priests);
 5 Azariah son of Nathan (Azariah was in charge of the district governors);
 Zabud son of Nathan (Zabud was a priest and an adviser to King Solomon);
 6 Ahishar (Ahishar was responsible for everything in the king's home);
 Adoniram son of Abda (Adoniram was in charge of the slaves).

<sup>7</sup>Israel was divided into twelve areas called districts. Solomon chose governors to rule over each district. These governors were ordered to gather food from their districts and give the food to the king and his family. Each of the twelve governors were responsible for giving food to the king one month of each year.
<sup>8</sup>These are the names of the twelve governors:

- Ben-Hur was governor over the hill country of Ephraim;
 9 Ben-Deker was governor over Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh, and Elon Bethhanan;
 10 Ben-Hesed was governor over Arubboth, Socoh, and Hepher;
 11 Ben-Abinadab was governor over Naphoth Dor
 (He was married to Taphath, daughter of Solomon);
 12 Bana son of Ahilud was governor over Taanach and Megiddo and all of Beth Shan next to Zarethan (This was below Jezreel, from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah across Jokmeam);
 13 Ben-Geber was governor over Ramoth
 Gilead
 (He was governor over all the towns and villages of Jair son of Manasseh in Gilead.
 He was also governor over the district of Argob in Bashan. In this area there were 60 cities with big walls around them. These cities also had bronze bars on the gates.);

- 14 Ahinadab son of Iddo was governor over Mahanaim;
 15 Ahimaaaz was governor over Naphtali (He was married to Basemath the daughter of Solomon.);
 16 Baana son of Hushai was governor over Asher and Aloth;
 17 Jehoshaphat son of Paruah was governor over Issachar;
 18 Shimei son of Ela was governor over Benjamin;
 19 Geber son of Uri was governor over
 Gilead (Gilead was the country where Sihon the king of the Amorite people lived and the country where Og the king of Bashan lived).
 But Geber was the only governor over that district.

<sup>20</sup>There were many, many people in Judah and Israel. The number of people was like sands on the seashore. The people lived happy lives: They ate, drank, and enjoyed themselves.

<sup>21</sup>Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistine people. His kingdom went as far as the border of Egypt. These countries sent gifts to Solomon and they obeyed him all of his life.*

<sup>22</sup>This is the amount of food that Solomon needed each day (for himself and for all of the people that ate at his table):

150 bushels* of fine flour, 300 bushels* of flour,

- 23 10 cows that were fed good grain, 20 cows that were raised in the fields,
 And 100 sheep.
 Also three different kinds of deer and special birds.

<sup>24</sup>Solomon ruled over all the countries west of the Euphrates River. This was the land from Tiphshah to Gaza. And Solomon had peace on all sides of his kingdom. <sup>25</sup>During Solomon's life all of the people in Judah and Israel, all the way from Dan to Beersheba, lived in peace and security. The people were at peace sitting under their own fig trees and grape vines.

<sup>30</sup>Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the men in the East. And his wisdom was greater than all the men in Egypt. <sup>31</sup>He was wiser than any of the men on earth. He was even wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite man. He was wiser than Heman, Calcol, and Darda. (These were the sons of Mahol.) King Solomon became famous in all of the countries around Israel and Judah. <sup>32</sup>During his life, King Solomon wrote* 3,000 wise teachings. He also wrote* 1,500 songs.

<sup>33</sup>Solomon also knew very much about nature. Solomon taught about many different kinds of plants—everything from the great cedar trees of Lebanon to the vines that grow out of the walls. King Solomon also taught about animals, birds, and snakes.* <sup>34</sup>People from all nations came to listen to King Solomon's wisdom. The kings of all nations sent their wise men to listen to King Solomon.

Solomon Builds the Temple

5 Hiram was the king of Tyre. Hiram had always been David's friend. So when Hiram heard that Solomon had become the new king after David, he sent his servants to Solomon. <sup>2</sup>This is what Solomon said to king Hiram: <sup>3</sup>"You remember that my father, King David, had to fight many wars all around him. So he was never able to build a temple to honor the Lord his God. King David was waiting until the Lord allowed him to defeat all his enemies. <sup>4</sup>But now the Lord my God has given me peace on all sides of my country. Now I have no enemies. My people are in no danger.

<sup>5</sup>"The Lord made a promise to my father David. The Lord said, 'I will make your son king after you. And your son will build a temple to honor me.' Now, I plan to build that temple to honor the Lord my God. <sup>6</sup>And so I ask you to help me. Send your men to Lebanon. There, they should cut down cedar trees for me. My servants will work with yours. I will pay you any price that you decide as your servants' wages. But I need your help. Our carpenters* are not as good as the carpenters of Sidon."

<sup>7</sup>When Hiram heard what Solomon asked, he was very happy. King Hiram said, "I thank the Lord today for giving David a wise son over this great nation!" <sup>8</sup>Then Hiram sent a message to Solomon. The message said, "I heard the thing that you asked. I will give you all the cedar trees and the fir trees you want. <sup>9</sup>My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea. Then I will tie them together and float them down the shore to the place you choose. There I will separate the logs, and you can take the trees."

<sup>10-11</sup>Solomon gave to Hiram about 120,000 bushels* of wheat to feed his household and about 120,000 gallons* of pure olive oil every year.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord gave wisdom to Solomon as he had promised. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon. These two kings made a treaty between themselves.

<sup>11</sup>King Solomon forced 30,000 men of Israel to help in this work. <sup>12</sup>King Solomon chose a man named Adoniram to be the boss. Solomon divided the men into three groups. There were 10,000 men in each group. Each group worked one month in Lebanon and then went home for two months. <sup>13</sup>Solomon also forced 80,000 men to work in the hill country. These men had the job of cutting rocks. And there were 70,000 men to carry the rocks. <sup>14</sup>There were also 3,300 men who were the bosses over the people who did the work. <sup>15</sup>King Solomon commanded them to cut out big, expensive stones to be the foundation for the temple. These stones were carefully cut. <sup>16</sup>Then Solomon's and Hiram's builders and the men from Byblos carved the stones. They prepared the stones and the logs for building the temple.

Solomon Builds the Temple

6 So Solomon began to build the temple. This was 480 years* after the people of Israel left Egypt. This was during the fourth year of King Solomon's rule over Israel. It was in the month of Ziv, the second month of the year. <sup>2</sup>The temple was 90 feet* long, 30 feet* wide, and 45 feet* high. <sup>3</sup>The porch of the temple was 30 feet* long and 15 feet* wide. The porch ran along the front of the main part of the temple itself. Its length was equal to the width of the temple. <sup>4</sup>There were narrow windows in the temple. These windows were narrow on the outside and larger on the inside.* <sup>5</sup>Then Solomon built a row of rooms around the main part of the temple. These rooms were built on top of each other. (This row of rooms was three stories tall.) <sup>6</sup>The rooms touched the temple wall, but their beams were not built into that wall. (That temple wall became thinner at the top.) So the wall which made one side of those rooms was thinner than the wall below it. The rooms on the bottom floor were 7½ feet* wide. The rooms on the middle floor were 9 feet* wide. The rooms above that were 10½ feet* wide. <sup>7</sup>The workers used large stones to build the walls. The workers cut the stones at the place where they got them out of the ground. So there was no noise of hammers, axes, or any other iron tools in the temple.

<sup>8</sup>The entrance to the bottom rooms was on the south side of the temple. Inside, there were stairs that went up to the second floor rooms and from there to the third floor rooms.

<sup>9</sup>So, Solomon finished building the temple. Every part in the temple was covered with cedar boards. <sup>10</sup>Solomon also finished building the rooms around the temple. Each story was 7½ feet* tall. The cedar beams in those rooms touched the temple.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to Solomon, <sup>12</sup>"If you obey all my laws and commands, I will do the thing for you that I promised your father David. <sup>13</sup>And I will live among the children of Israel in this temple that you are building. I will never leave the people of Israel."

Details About the Temple

<sup>15</sup>The stone walls inside the temple were covered with cedar boards. The cedar boards went from the floor to the ceiling. The stone floor was covered with pine boards. <sup>16</sup>They built a room 30 feet* long deep inside the back part of the temple. They covered the walls in this room with cedar boards. The cedar boards went from the floor to the ceiling. This room was called the Most Holy Place. <sup>17</sup>In front of the Most Holy Place, was the main part of the temple. This room was 60 feet* long. <sup>18</sup>They covered the walls in this room with cedar boards—none of the stones in the walls could be seen. They carved pictures of flowers and gourds* into the cedar.

<sup>19</sup>Solomon prepared the room deep inside the back part of the temple. This room was for the Lord's Box of the Agreement.* <sup>20</sup>This room was 30 feet* long, 30 feet* wide, and 30 feet* high. <sup>21</sup>Solomon covered this room with pure gold. He built an [incense] altar in front of this room. He covered the altar with gold, and wrapped gold chains around it. There were two statues of Cherub angels* in that room. Those statues were covered with gold. <sup>22</sup>All of the temple was covered with gold. Also, the altar in front of the Most Holy Place was covered with gold.

<sup>23</sup>The workers made two statues of Cherub angels* with wings. The workers made the statues from olive wood. These Cherub angels were put in the Most Holy Place. Each angel was 15 feet* tall. <sup>24,26</sup>Both Cherub angels were the same size and built the same way. Each Cherub angel had two wings. Each wing was 7½ feet* long. From the end of one wing to the end of the other wing was 15 feet.* And each Cherub angel was 15 feet* tall. <sup>27</sup>These Cherub angels were put in the Most Holy Place. They stood beside each other. Their wings touched each other in the middle of the room. The other two wings touched each side wall. <sup>28</sup>The two Cherub angels were covered with gold.

<sup>29</sup>The walls around the main room and the inner room were carved with pictures of Cherub angels,* palm trees, and flowers. <sup>30</sup>The floor of both rooms was covered with gold.

<sup>31</sup>The workers made two doors from olive wood. They put those doors at the entrance of the Most Holy Place. The frame around the doors was made with five sides.* <sup>32</sup>They made the two doors from olive wood. The workers carved pictures of Cherub angels,* palm trees, and flowers on the doors. Then they covered the doors with gold.

<sup>33</sup>They also made doors for the entrance to the main room. They used olive wood to make a square door frame. <sup>34</sup>Then they used fir* to make the doors. <sup>35</sup>There were two doors. Each door had two parts, so the two doors folded. They carved pictures of Cherub angels,* [palm] trees, and flowers on the doors. Then they covered them with gold.

<sup>36</sup>Then they built the inner yard. They built walls around this yard. Each wall was made from three rows of cut stones and one row of cedar timbers.

<sup>37</sup>They started working on the temple in the month of Ziv, the second month of the year. This was during the fourth year that Solomon ruled over the people of Israel. <sup>38</sup>The temple was finished in the month of Bul, the eighth month of the year. This was during the eleventh year that Solomon ruled over the people. It took seven years to build the temple. The temple was built exactly the way it was planned.

Solomon's Palace

7 King Solomon also built a palace* for himself. It took 13 years to finish building Solomon's palace. <sup>2</sup>He also built the building called "the Forest of Lebanon." It was 150 feet* long, 75 feet* wide, and 45 feet* high. It had four rows of cedar columns. On top of each column was a cedar capital.* <sup>3</sup>There were cedar beams going across the rows of columns. They put cedar boards on top of these beams for the ceiling. There were 15 beams for each section of columns. There was a total of 45 beams.

gourds A plant with long vines. Its fruit grows in the shape of a jar and becomes hard like wood.

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

15 feet Literally, "10 cubits."

7½ feet Literally, "5 cubits."

The frame ... five sides We are not sure of the meaning here.

fir A type of tree, like a pine tree.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

150 feet Literally, "100 cubits."

75 feet Literally, "50 cubits."

45 feet Literally, "30 cubits."

capital(s) The decorated caps of stone or wood on the top of columns.

“There were three rows of windows on each of the side walls. The windows were across from each other. <sup>5</sup>There were three doors at each end. All the door openings and frames were square.

<sup>6</sup>Solomon also built the “Porch of Columns.” It was 75 feet* long and 45 feet* wide. Along the front of the porch, there was a covering supported by columns.

<sup>7</sup>Solomon also built a throne room where he judged people. He called this the “Hall of Judging.” The room was covered with cedar from the floor to the ceiling.

<sup>8</sup>The house where Solomon lived was inside of the Hall of Judging. This house was built the same as the Hall of Judging. He also built the same kind of house for his wife, the daughter of the king of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>All of these buildings were made with expensive blocks of stone. These stones were cut to the right size with a saw. They were cut in the front and in the back. These expensive stones went from the foundation up to the top layer of the wall. Even the wall around the yard was made with expensive blocks of stone. <sup>10</sup>The foundations were made with large, expensive stones. Some of the stones were 15 feet* long and others were 12 feet* long. <sup>11</sup>On top of those stones there were other expensive stones and cedar beams. <sup>12</sup>There were walls around the palace yard, the temple yard, and the porch of the temple. Those walls were built with three rows of stone and one row of cedar timbers.

<sup>13</sup>King Solomon sent a message to a man named Hiram* in Tyre. Solomon brought Hiram* to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>Hiram’s* mother was an Israelite from the family group of Naphtali. His dead father was from Tyre. Hiram* made things from bronze.* He was a very skilled and experienced worker. So King Solomon asked him to come and Hiram* accepted. So King Solomon put Hiram* in charge of all the bronze work. Hiram* built all the things made from bronze.

<sup>15</sup>Hiram* made two bronze* columns. Each column was 27 feet* tall and 18 feet* around. The columns were hollow and the metal was 3 inches* thick. <sup>16</sup>Hiram* also made two bronze capitals* that were 7½ feet* tall. Hiram* put these capitals on top of the columns. <sup>17</sup>Then he made two nets of chains to cover the capitals on top of the two columns. <sup>18</sup>Then he made two rows of decorations that looked like pomegranates.* They put these bronze pomegranates on the nets of each column in order to cover the capitals at the top of the columns. <sup>19</sup>The capitals on top of the 7½ feet* tall columns were shaped like flowers. <sup>20</sup>The capitals were on top of the columns. They were above the bowl shaped net. At that place, there were 20 pomegranates in rows all around the capitals. <sup>21</sup>Hiram* put these two bronze columns at the porch of the temple. One column was put on the south side and one was put on the north side of the entrance. The south column was named Jakin. The north column was named Boaz. <sup>22</sup>They put the flower-shaped capitals on top of the columns. So the work on the two columns was finished.

<sup>23</sup>Then Hiram* made a round tank from bronze.* They called this tank “The Sea.” The tank was about 45 feet* around. It was 15 feet* across and 7½ feet* deep. <sup>24</sup>There was a rim around the outer edge of the tank. Under this rim there were two rows of bronze gourds* surrounding the tank. The bronze gourds were made in one piece as part of the tank. <sup>25</sup>The tank rested on the backs of 12 bronze bulls. All 12 of these bulls were looking out, away from the tank. Three were looking north, three east,

18 feet Literally, “12 cubits.”

3 inches Literally, “1 handbreadth.”

capital(s) The decorated bronze caps on the top of columns.

7½ feet Literally, “5 cubits.”

pomegranate A red fruit with many tiny seeds inside it.

Each seed is covered with a soft, tasty part of the fruit.

gourds A plant with long vines. Its fruit grows in the shape of a jar and becomes hard like wood.

75 feet Literally, “50 cubits.”

45 feet Literally, “30 cubits.”

15 feet Literally, “10 cubits.”

12 feet Literally, “8 cubits.”

Hiram Or, “Hiram.”

three south, and three west. <sup>26</sup>The sides of the tank were 4 inches* thick. The rim around the tank was like the rim of a cup or like the petals on a flower. The tank held about 11,000 gallons.*

<sup>27</sup>Then Hiram* made ten bronze* carts. Each one was 6 feet* long, 6 feet* wide, and 4½ feet* high. <sup>28</sup>The carts were made from square panels set in frames. <sup>29</sup>On the panels and frames were bronze lions, bulls, and Cherub angels.* Above and below the lions and bulls there were designs of flowers hammered into the bronze. <sup>30</sup>Each cart had four bronze wheels with bronze axles. At the corners there were bronze supports for a large bowl. The supports had designs of flowers hammered into the bronze. <sup>31</sup>There was a frame on top for the bowl. It was 18 inches* tall above the bowls. The opening for the bowl was round, 27 inches* in diameter. There were designs carved into the bronze on the frame. The frame was square, not round. <sup>32</sup>There were four wheels under the frame. The wheels were 27 inches* in diameter. The axles between the wheels were made as one piece with the cart. <sup>33</sup>The wheels were like the wheels on a chariot.* Everything on the wheels—the axles, the rims, the spokes, and the hubs were made from bronze.

<sup>34</sup>The four supports were on the four corners of each cart. They were made as one piece with the cart. <sup>35</sup>There was a strip of bronze around the top of each cart. It was made as one piece with the cart. <sup>36</sup>The sides of the cart and the frames had pictures of Cherub angels,* lions, and palm trees carved into the bronze. These pictures were carved all over the carts—wherever there was room. And there were flowers carved on the frame around the cart. <sup>37</sup>Hiram* made ten carts. And they were all the same. Each cart was made from bronze. The bronze was melted and poured into a mold. So all of the carts were the same size and shape.

<sup>38</sup>Hiram* also made ten bowls. There was one bowl for each of the ten carts. Each bowl was six feet across. And each bowl could hold about 230 gallons* <sup>39</sup>Hiram* put five of the carts on the south side of the temple and the other five carts on the north side. He put the large tank in the southeast corner of the temple. <sup>40</sup>Hiram* also made pots, small shovels, and small bowls. Hiram* finished making all of the things King Solomon wanted him to make. Here is a list of the things that Hiram* made for the Temple of the Lord:

<sup>41</sup>two columns; two capitals* shaped like bowls for the top of the columns; two nets to go around the capitals; <sup>42</sup>400 pomegranates for the two nets (There were two rows of pomegranates for each net to cover the two bowls for the capitals on top of the columns.); <sup>43</sup>ten carts with a bowl on each cart; <sup>44</sup>the large tank with 12 bulls under it; <sup>45</sup>the pots, small shovels, small bowls, and all the dishes for the Lord's temple.

Hiram* made all the things that King Solomon wanted. They were all made from polished bronze. <sup>46-47</sup>Solomon never weighed the bronze that was used to make these things. There was too much to weigh. So the total weight of all the bronze was never known. The king ordered these things to be made near the Jordan River between Succoth and Zarethan. They made these things by melting the bronze and pouring it into molds in the ground.

<sup>48</sup>Solomon also commanded that many things be made from gold for the temple. These are the things that Solomon made from gold for the temple:

4 inches Literally, "4 fingers."

11,000 gallons Literally, "2,000 baths."

Hiram Or, "Hiram."

bronze A metal. The Hebrew word can mean "copper," "bronze," and "brass."

6 feet Literally, "4 cubits."

4½ feet Literally, "3 cubits."

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

18 inches Literally, "1 cubit."

27 inches Literally, "1½ cubits."

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

230 gallons Literally, "40 baths."

capital(s) The decorated caps of stone or wood on the top of columns.

the golden altar; the golden table (the bread offered to God was on this table); *the lampstands of pure gold (there were five on the south side and five on the north side in front of the Most Holy Place); the gold flowers, lamps, and tongs; <sup>30</sup>the cups; the tools used to keep the lamps bright; the bowls; the pans; the dishes of pure gold used for carrying coals; and the doors at the entrance to the temple.

<sup>31</sup>So King Solomon finished the work he wanted to do for the Lord's temple. Then King Solomon got all the things that his father David had saved for this special purpose. He brought these things into the temple. He put the silver and gold in the treasuries in the Lord's Temple.

The Box of the Agreement in the Temple

8 Then King Solomon called together all the elders of Israel, the heads of the family groups, and the leaders of the families of the Israel. He asked them to come to him in Jerusalem. Solomon wanted them to join in bringing the Box of the Agreement* from the City of David* into the temple. <sup>2</sup>So all the men of Israel came together with King Solomon. This was during the time of the special holiday (the Festival of Shelters) during the month of Ethanim. This was the seventh month of the year.

<sup>3</sup>All of the elders of Israel arrived at that place. Then the priests took the Holy Box.* <sup>4</sup>They carried the Holy Box* of the Lord along with the Meeting Tent* and the holy things that were in the tent. The Levites* helped the priests carry these things. <sup>5</sup>King Solomon and all the people of Israel met together before the Box of the Agreement.* <sup>6</sup>They offered many sacrifices., They killed so many sheep and cattle that no person was able to count them all. <sup>7</sup>Then the priests put the Box of the Agreement of the Lord in its right place. This was inside the Most Holy Place in the temple. The Box of the Agreement was put under the wings of the Cherub angels.* <sup>8</sup>The wings of the Cherub angels were spread out over the Holy Box. They covered the Holy Box and its carrying poles. <sup>9</sup>These carrying poles were very long. Any person that stood in the Holy Place in front of the Most Holy Place could see the ends of the poles. But no one outside could see them. The poles are still in there today. <sup>10</sup>The only thing inside the Holy Box were the two tablets. These were the two tablets that Moses put in the Holy Box at the place called Horeb. Horeb was the place that the Lord made his Agreement with the people of Israel after they came out of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>The priests put the Holy Box in the Most Holy Place., When the priests came out of the Holy Place, the Cloud* filled the Lord's Temple. <sup>11</sup>The priests could not continue their work because the temple was filled with the Glory of the Lord.* <sup>12</sup>Then Solomon said,

"The Lord caused the sun to shine in the sky,
But he said that he would live in a dark cloud.

<sup>13</sup> I have truly built a wonderful temple for you,
A place for you to live forever."

<sup>14</sup>All of the people of Israel were standing there. So King Solomon turned to them and asked God to bless them.

Levites People from the family group of Levi. The Levites helped the priests in the temple and also worked for the civil government.

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

Cloud The special sign that showed that God was with the people of Israel.

Glory of the Lord One of the forms God used when he appeared to people. This was like a bright, shining light.

Box of the Agreement Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement. Also called "The Ark of the Covenant," the box containing the stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them and the other things that proved God was with the people of Israel during their time in the Sinai Desert.

Meeting Tent The Holy Tent (Tabernacle) where the people of Israel met to worship God.

<sup>15</sup>Then King Solomon prayed a long prayer to the Lord. This is what he said:

"The Lord, the God of Israel, is great.
The Lord himself has done the things that he promised to my father David.

The Lord told my father,

<sup>16</sup> 'I brought my people, Israel, out of Egypt.

But I had not yet chosen a city from among the family groups of Israel for a temple to honor me.

And I had not chosen a man to be leader over my people, Israel.

But now I have chosen Jerusalem where I will be honored.

And I have chosen David to rule over my people, Israel.'

<sup>17</sup>"My father David wanted very much to build a temple to honor the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>18</sup>But the Lord said to my father David,
'I know that you want very much to build a temple to honor me. And this is good that you want to build my temple. <sup>19</sup>But you are not the one that I have chosen to build the temple.
Your son will build my temple!'

<sup>20</sup>"So the Lord has kept the promise that he gave. I am the king now in place of David my father. Now I rule the people of Israel like the Lord promised. And I built the temple for the Lord, the God of Israel. <sup>21</sup>I have made a place in the temple for the Holy Box.* Inside that Holy Box is the Agreement that the Lord made with our ancestors. The Lord made that Agreement when he brought our ancestors out of Egypt."

<sup>22</sup>Then Solomon stood in front of the Lord's altar.* All of the people were standing in front of him. King Solomon spread his hands and looked toward the sky. <sup>23</sup>He said:

"O Lord, God of Israel, there is no other god like you in the skies or on the earth. You made the Agreements with your people because you love them. And you keep your Agreement. You are kind and loyal to people that follow you.
<sup>24</sup>You made a promise to your servant David, my father. And you have kept that promise.
You made that promise with your own mouth.
And with your great power you have made that promise come true today. <sup>25</sup>Now, Lord, God of Israel, keep the other promises you made to your servant David, my father. You said, 'David, your sons must carefully obey me, just like you did. If they do this, then you will always have someone from your family ruling the people of Israel.' <sup>26</sup>And again, O Lord, God of Israel, I ask you to please continue to keep that promise to my father.

<sup>27</sup>"But, God, will you really live here with us on the earth? All the sky and the highest place in heaven cannot contain you. Certainly this house which I have built cannot contain you either. <sup>28</sup>But please listen to my prayer and my request. I am your servant, and you are the Lord my God. Hear this prayer that I am praying to you today. <sup>29</sup>In the past you said, 'I will be honored there.' So please watch this temple night and day. Please listen to the prayer that I pray to you at this temple. <sup>30</sup>Lord, I and your people Israel will turn to this place and pray to you. Please hear those prayers! We know that you live in heaven. We ask you to hear our prayer there and forgive us.

<sup>31</sup>"If a person does something wrong against another person, he will be brought here to the altar. If that person is not guilty, then he will make an oath. He will promise that he is innocent. <sup>32</sup>Then listen in heaven and judge the man. If the person is guilty, then please show us that he is guilty. And if the person is innocent, then please show us that he is not guilty.

<sup>33</sup>"Sometimes your people Israel will sin against you, and their enemies will defeat them.
Then the people will come back to you and praise you. The people will pray to you in this temple. <sup>34</sup>Please hear them in heaven. Then forgive the sins of your people Israel, and allow

Holy Box The Box of the Agreement. Also called "The Ark them to have their land again. You gave this land to their ancestors.

<sup>35</sup>“Sometimes they will sin against you, and you will stop the rain from falling on their land. Then they will pray toward this place and praise your name. You make them suffer, and they will be sorry for their sins. <sup>36</sup>So please listen in heaven to their prayer. Then forgive us for our sins. Teach the people to live right. Then, O Lord, please send rain to the land you gave them.

<sup>37</sup>“The land might become very dry and no food will grow on it. Or maybe a great sickness will spread among the people. Maybe all of the food that is growing will be destroyed by insects. Or your people might be attacked in some of their cities by their enemies. Or many of your people might become sick. <sup>38</sup>When any of these things happen, if even one man is sorry for his sins, and spreads his hands in prayer toward this temple, <sup>39</sup>please listen to his prayer. Listen to it while you are in your home in heaven. Then forgive the people and help them. Only you know the things that people are really thinking. So judge each person and be fair to him. <sup>40</sup>Do this so that your people will fear and respect you all the time that they live in this land that you gave to our ancestors.

<sup>41-42</sup>“People from other places will hear about your greatness and your power. They will come from far away to pray at this temple. <sup>43</sup>From your home in heaven please listen to their prayers. Please do all that those people from other places ask you. Then those people will fear and respect you the same as your people in Israel. Then all people everywhere will know that I built this temple to honor you.

<sup>44</sup>“Sometimes you will command your people to go and fight against their enemies. Then your people will turn toward this city which you have chosen and the temple that I have built for your honor. And they will pray to you. <sup>45</sup>At that time, listen to their prayers from your home in heaven, and help them.

<sup>46</sup>“Your people will sin against you. I know this because every person sins. And you will be angry with your people. You will let their enemies defeat them. Their enemies will make them prisoners and carry them to some faraway land. <sup>47</sup>In that faraway land, your people will think about what happened. They will be sorry for their sins, and they will pray to you. They will say, ‘We have sinned and done wrong.’ <sup>48</sup>They will be in that faraway land. But if they turn toward this land that you gave to their ancestors,* and toward this city you chose, and toward this temple I built to honor you, <sup>49</sup>then please listen from your home in heaven. <sup>50</sup>Forgive your people of all their sins. And forgive them for turning against you. Make their enemies be kind to them. <sup>51</sup>Remember that they are your people. Remember that you brought them out of Egypt. It was like you saved them by pulling them out of a hot oven!

<sup>52</sup>“Lord God, please listen to my prayers and to the prayers of your people Israel. Listen to their prayers any time that they ask you for help. <sup>53</sup>You have chosen them from all the peoples of the earth to be your own special people. Lord, you promised to do that for us. You used your servant Moses at the time you brought our ancestors* out of Egypt.”

<sup>54</sup>Solomon prayed that prayer to God. He was on his knees in front of the altar.* Solomon prayed with his arms raised toward heaven. Then Solomon finished praying and stood. <sup>55</sup>Then, in a loud voice, he asked God to bless all the people of Israel. Solomon said:

<sup>56</sup>“Praise the Lord! He promised that he would give rest to his people, Israel. And he has given us rest! The Lord used his servant Moses and made many good promises to the people of Israel. And the Lord has kept every one of those promises. <sup>57</sup>I ask that the Lord our God will be with us. I ask that he will be with us the same as he was with our ancestors.* I ask that the Lord never leaves us. <sup>58</sup>In this way, we will turn to him and follow him. Then we will obey all the laws, decisions, and commands that he gave our ancestors. <sup>59</sup>I ask that the Lord our God will always remember

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.

this prayer and the things I have asked. I pray that the Lord will do these things for his servant, the king, and for his people, Israel. I pray that he will do this every day. <sup>60</sup>If the Lord will do these things, then all the people of the world will know that the Lord is the only true God. <sup>61</sup>You people must be loyal and true to the Lord our God. You must always follow and obey all of his laws and commands. You must continue to obey in the future like you do now."

<sup>62</sup>Then King Solomon and all the people of Israel with him offered sacrifices to the Lord. <sup>63</sup>Solomon killed 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. These were for the fellowship offerings. This is the way the king and the Israelites dedicated the temple—they showed that they had given the temple to the Lord.

<sup>64</sup>Also, that day King Solomon dedicated the yard in front of the temple. He offered burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat from the animals that were used as fellowship offerings. King Solomon made these offerings there in the yard. He did this because the bronze altar in front of the Lord was too small to hold them all.

<sup>65</sup>So there at the temple, King Solomon and all the people of Israel celebrated the holiday.* All Israel was there, from as far away as Hamath Pass in the north, to the border of Egypt in the south. Many, many people were there. They ate, drank, and enjoyed themselves together with the Lord for seven days. Then they stayed for another seven days. They celebrated for a total of 14 days!<sup>66</sup> The next day, Solomon told the people to go home. All the people thanked the king, said good-bye, and went home. They were happy because of all the good things that the Lord had done for David his servant and for his people Israel.

God Comes to Solomon Again

9 So Solomon finished building the Lord's temple and his own palace. Solomon finished building all the things that he wanted to build. <sup>2</sup>Then the Lord appeared to Solomon again, just as he had done before in the town of Gibeon. <sup>3</sup>The Lord said to him: "I heard your prayer. I heard the things that you asked me to do. You built this temple. And I have made it a holy place. So I will be honored there forever. I will watch over it and think of it always. <sup>4</sup>You must serve me the same way your father David did. He was fair and sincere. And you must obey my laws and do all the things that I commanded you.

<sup>5</sup>"If you do all these things, then I will make sure that the king of Israel is always someone from your family. This is the promise I made to your father David. I told him that Israel would always be ruled by one of his descendants.*

<sup>6</sup>"But if you or your children stop following me, and don't obey the laws and commands I have given you, and if you serve and worship other gods, then I will force Israel to leave the land I have given to them. Israel will be an example to other people. Other people will make jokes about Israel. I made the temple holy. It is the place where people honor me. But if you don't obey me, then I will tear it down. <sup>7</sup>This temple will be destroyed. Every person who sees it will be amazed. They will ask, 'Why did the Lord do this terrible thing to this land and to this temple?' <sup>8</sup>Other people will answer, 'This happened because they left the Lord their God. He brought their ancestors out of Egypt. But they decided to follow other gods. They began to worship and serve those gods. That is why the Lord caused all these bad things to happen to them.'"

holiday This was probably Passover.

Then they stayed ... 14 days This is not in the ancient Greek translation.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Solomon gave him. When Hiram saw those towns, he was not pleased. <sup>13</sup>King Hiram said, "What are these towns that you have given me, my brother?" King Hiram named that land the Land of Cabul.* And that area is still called Cabul today. <sup>14</sup>Hiram had sent to King Solomon about 9,000 pounds* of gold to use in building the temple.

<sup>15</sup>King Solomon forced slaves to work for him to build the temple and the palace. Then King Solomon used these slaves to build many other things. He built the Millo.* He also built the city wall around Jerusalem. Then he built again the cities of Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer.

<sup>16</sup>In the past, the king of Egypt fought against the city of Gezer and burned it. He killed the Canaanite people who lived there. Solomon married Pharaoh's daughter. So Pharaoh gave that city to Solomon as a wedding present. <sup>17</sup>Solomon built that city again. Solomon also built the city of Lower Beth Horon. <sup>18</sup>King Solomon also built the cities of Baalath, and Tamar in the Judean desert. <sup>19</sup>King Solomon also built cities where he could store grain and things. And he built places for his chariots and his horses. King Solomon also built many things that he wanted in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the places he ruled.

<sup>20</sup>There were people in the land that were not Israelites. Those people were the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. <sup>21</sup>The Israelites had not been able to destroy those people. But Solomon forced them to work for him as slaves. They are still slaves today. <sup>22</sup>Solomon did not force any Israelites to be his slaves. The people of Israel were soldiers, government officials, officers, captains, and chariot commanders and drivers.

<sup>23</sup>There were 550 supervisors over Solomon's projects. They were bosses over the men who did the work. <sup>24</sup>Pharaoh's daughter moved from the City of David to the big house that Solomon built for her. Then Solomon built the Millo.*

<sup>25</sup>Three times each year Solomon offered burned sacrifices and fellowship offerings on the altar. This is the altar that Solomon built for the Lord. King Solomon also burned incense before the Lord. So he supplied the things needed for the temple.

<sup>26</sup>King Solomon also built ships at Ezion Geber. This town is near Elath on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. <sup>27</sup>King Hiram had some men who knew much about the sea. Those men often traveled in ships. King Hiram sent those men to serve in Solomon's navy and work with Solomon's men. <sup>28</sup>Solomon's ships went to Ophir. The ships brought about 31,500 pounds* of gold back from Ophir to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

10 The queen of Sheba heard about Solomon. So she came to test him with hard questions. <sup>2</sup>She traveled to Jerusalem with a very large group of servants. There were many camels carrying spices, jewels, and much gold. She met Solomon and asked him all the questions that she could think of. <sup>3</sup>Solomon answered all the questions. None of her questions were too hard for him to explain. <sup>4</sup>The queen of Sheba saw that Solomon was very wise. She also saw the beautiful palace* he had built. <sup>5</sup>The queen saw the food at the king's table. She saw his officials meeting together. She saw the servants in the palace and the good clothes that they wore. She saw his parties and the sacrifices that he offered in the temple. All these things really amazed her—they just 'took her breath away'!

<sup>6</sup>So the queen said to the king, "I heard many things in my own country about the things you do and about your wisdom. All these things are true! I did not believe these things until I came and saw them with my own eyes. Now I see that there is even more than I heard about. Your wisdom and your wealth is much greater than people told me. <sup>8</sup>Your wives* and officers are very fortunate! They can serve you and hear your wisdom every day! <sup>9</sup>Praise the Lord your God! He was pleased to make you king of Israel. The Lord God loves Israel. So he made you the king. You follow the law and treat people fairly."

<sup>10</sup>Then the queen of Sheba gave the king about 9,000 pounds* of gold. She also gave him many spices and jewels. The queen of Sheba gave to Solomon more spices than anyone has ever brought into Israel.

<sup>11</sup>Hiram's ships brought gold from Ophir. Those ships also brought very much wood* and jewels. <sup>12</sup>Solomon used the wood to build supports in the temple and the palace. He also used the wood to make harps* and lyres* for the singers. No other person has ever brought that kind of wood to Israel, and no person has seen that kind of wood since that time.

<sup>13</sup>Then King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba gifts that a king always give to the ruler of another country. Then he gave her anything else she asked for. After this, the queen and her servants went back to her own country.

<sup>14</sup>Every year King Solomon got about 79,920 pounds* of gold. <sup>15</sup>Besides the gold from the cargo ships,* he also got gold from the traders and merchants,* and from the kings of Arabia and governors of the land.

<sup>16</sup>King Solomon made 200 large shields of hammered gold. Each shield contained about 15 pounds* of gold. <sup>17</sup>He also made 300 smaller shields of hammered gold. Each shield contained about 4 pounds* of gold. The king put them in the building called the "Forest of Lebanon."

wives This comes from the ancient Greek translation. The Hebrew has "men."

9,000 pounds Literally, "120 talents."

wood This is a special kind of wood called "Atnug" wood.

No one knows exactly what type of wood this was.

harps Musical instruments with several strings.

lyres Musical instruments that are like small harps.

79,920 pounds Literally, "666 talents."

cargo ships Literally, "ships of Tarshish."

traders and merchants Businessmen who make their living buying and selling things.

15 pounds Literally, "600 shekels."

4 pounds Literally, "3 minas."

<sup>18</sup>King Solomon also built a large ivory throne. He covered it with pure gold. <sup>19</sup>There were six steps leading up to the throne. The back of the throne was round at the top. There were armrests on both sides of the chair. And in the sides of the chair under the two armrests there were pictures of lions. <sup>20</sup>There were also two lions on each of the six steps. There was one lion at each end. There was nothing like this in any other kingdom. <sup>21</sup>All of Solomon's cups and glasses were made of gold. And all of the weapons* in the building called the "Forest of Lebanon" were made from pure gold. Nothing in the palace was made from silver. There was so much gold that, in Solomon's time people did not think silver was important!

<sup>22</sup>The king also had many cargo ships* that he sent out to trade things with other countries. These were Hiram's ships. Every three years the ships would come back with a new load of gold, silver, ivory, and animals.

<sup>23</sup>Solomon was the greatest king on earth. He had the most riches and wisdom of all kings. <sup>24</sup>People everywhere wanted to see King Solomon. They wanted to hear the great wisdom that God had given him. <sup>25</sup>Every year people came to see the king. And every person brought a gift. They brought things made from gold and silver, clothes, weapons, spices, horses, and mules.

<sup>26</sup>So Solomon had many, many chariots and horses. He had 1,400 chariots* and 12,000 horses. Solomon built special cities for these chariots. So the chariots were kept in those cities. King Solomon also kept some of the chariots with him in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>The king made Israel very rich. In the city of Jerusalem, silver was as common as rocks and cedar wood was as common as the many, many fig trees growing on the hills. <sup>28</sup>Solomon brought horses from Egypt and Kue. His traders bought them in Kue and brought them to Israel. <sup>29</sup>A chariot* from Egypt cost about 15 pounds* of silver, and a horse cost about 3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> pounds* of silver.

weapons The Hebrew word can mean, "dishes, tools, or weapons."

chariot(s) Small wagons used in war.

3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> pounds Literally, "150 shekels."

Solomon sold horses and chariots to the kings of the Hittites and the Arameans.

Solomon's and His Many Wives

11 King Solomon loved women! He loved many women that were not from the nation of Israel. These included the daughter of Pharaoh, Moabite women, Ammonite women, Edomite women, Sidonian women, and Hittite women. <sup>1</sup>In the past, the Lord had said to the people of Israel, "You must not marry people from other nations. If you do, then those people will cause you to follow their gods." But Solomon fell in love with these women. <sup>2</sup>Solomon had 700 wives. (These women were all daughters of leaders from other nations.) He also had 300 slave women that were like wives to him. His wives caused him to turn away from God. <sup>3</sup>When Solomon was old, his wives caused him to follow other gods. Solomon did not follow the Lord completely the way that his father David had done. <sup>4</sup>Solomon worshiped Astarte.* This was the god of the people of Sidon. And Solomon worshiped Milcom.* This was that horrible idol of the Ammonite people. <sup>5</sup>So Solomon did wrong before the Lord. Solomon did not follow the Lord completely the way his father David had done.

<sup>7</sup>Solomon built a place for worshiping Chemosh. Chemosh was that horrible idol of the Moabite people. Solomon built that worship place on a hill next to Jerusalem. On that same hill, Solomon built a worship place for Molech. Molech was that horrible idol of the Ammonite people. <sup>8</sup>Then Solomon did the same thing for all of his wives from other countries. His wives burned incense* and gave sacrifices to their gods.

<sup>9</sup>Solomon turned away from following the Lord, the God of Israel. So the Lord became angry at Solomon. The Lord had come to Solomon twice. <sup>10</sup>The Lord told Solomon that he must not follow other gods. But Solomon did not obey the Lord's command. <sup>11</sup>So the Lord said to Solomon, "You have chosen to break your agreement with me. You have not obeyed my commands. So I promise that I will tear your kingdom away from you. I will give it to one of your servants." <sup>12</sup>But I loved your father David. So I will not take your kingdom away from you while you are living. I will wait until your son becomes king. Then I will take it from him. <sup>13</sup>Still, I will not tear away all of the kingdom from your son. I will leave him one family group to rule. I will do this for David. He was a good servant. And I will also do this for Jerusalem. I chose that city!"

Solomon's Enemies

<sup>14</sup>At that time, the Lord caused Hadad the Edomite to become Solomon's enemy. Hadad was from the family of the king of Edom. <sup>15</sup>This is how it happened: Earlier David defeated Edom. Joab was the commander of David's army. Joab went into Edom to bury dead people. Joab killed all the men still living there. <sup>16</sup>Joab and all Israel stayed in Edom for six months. During that time they killed all of the men of Edom. <sup>17</sup>But at that time Hadad was only a young boy. So Hadad ran away to Egypt. Some of his father's servants went with him. <sup>18</sup>They left Midian and went to Paran. In Paran some other people joined them. Then the whole group went to Egypt. They went to Pharaoh the king of Egypt and asked for help. Pharaoh gave Hadad a house and some land. Pharaoh also supported him and gave him food to eat.

<sup>19</sup>Pharaoh liked Hadad very much. Pharaoh gave Hadad a wife. The woman was Pharaoh's sister-in-law. (Pharaoh's wife was queen Tahpenes.) <sup>20</sup>So the sister of Tahpenes married Hadad. They had a son named Genubath. Queen Tahpenes allowed Genubath to grow up in Pharaoh's house with his children.

<sup>21</sup>In Egypt, Hadad heard that David had died. He also heard that Joab, the commander of the army was dead. So Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me go home to my own country."

Astarte The Canaanite people thought that this false goddess could make people able to have babies. She was their goddess of love.

Milcom The god of the Ammonite people.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

<sup>22</sup>But Pharaoh answered, "I have given you everything you need here! Why do you want to go back to your own country?"

Hadad answered, "Please, just let me go home."

<sup>26</sup>Jeroboam son of Nebat was one of Solomon's servants. Jeroboam was from the family group of Ephraim. He was from the town of Zeredah. Jeroboam's mother was named Zeruah. His father was dead. He turned against the king.

<sup>27</sup>This is the story of why Jeroboam turned against the king. Solomon was building the Millo* and fixing the wall of the city of David his father. <sup>28</sup>Jeroboam was a strong man. Solomon saw that this young man was a good worker. So Solomon made him the boss over all of the workers from the family group of Joseph.* <sup>29</sup>One day Jeroboam was traveling out of Jerusalem. Ahijah the prophet from Shiloh met him on the road. Ahijah was wearing a new coat. These two men were alone in the country. <sup>30</sup>Ahijah took his new coat and tore it into twelve pieces.

<sup>31</sup>Then Ahijah said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces of this coat for yourself. The Lord the God of Israel says: 'I will tear the kingdom away from Solomon, and I will give you ten of the family groups.' <sup>32</sup>And I will allow David's family to control only one family group. I will let them keep this group. I will do this for my servant David and for Jerusalem. Jerusalem is the city which I chose from all the family groups of Israel. <sup>33</sup>I will take the kingdom from Solomon because he stopped following me. He worships Astarte, the Sidonian god; Chemosh, the Moabite god; and Milcom, the Ammonite god. Solomon stopped doing the things that are right and good. He does not obey my laws and my commands. He is not living the way that his father David lived. <sup>34</sup>So I will take the kingdom away from Solomon's family. But I will let Solomon be their ruler for the rest of his life. I will do this for my servant David. I chose David because he obeyed all my commands and all my laws. <sup>35</sup>But I will take the kingdom away from his son. And Jeroboam, I will allow you to rule over the ten family groups. <sup>36</sup>I will allow Solomon's son to continue to rule over one family group. I will do this so that my servant David will always have a rule before me in Jerusalem. Jerusalem is the city that I chose to be my own. <sup>37</sup>But I will make you rule over everything you want. You will rule over all of Israel. <sup>38</sup>I will do these things for you if you will live right and obey all my commands. If you obey the laws and commands like David, then I will be with you. I will make your family a family of kings, like I did for David. I will give Israel to you. <sup>39</sup>I will punish David's children because of (the things Solomon did). But I will not punish them forever.'"

Solomon's Death

<sup>40</sup>Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam ran away to Egypt. He went to Shishak the king of Egypt. Jeroboam stayed there until Solomon died.

Millo The Millo was probably a raised platform of land southeast of the temple area in Jerusalem.

family ... Joseph The people from the family groups of Ephraim and Manasseh, Joseph's sons.

died ... ancestors Literally, "slept with his ancestors."

Civil War

12<sup>1,2</sup> Jeroboam son of Nebat was still in Egypt where he had run away from Solomon. When he heard about Solomon's death, he returned to his city, Zeredah, in the hills of Ephraim.

King Solomon died and was buried with his ancestors.* After that, his son Rehoboam became the new king. <sup>3</sup>All of the people of Israel went to Shechem. They went to make Rehoboam the king. Rehoboam also went to Shechem to become king. The people said to Rehoboam, "Your father forced us to work very hard. Now, make it easier for us. Stop the heavy work that your father forced us to do. Then we will serve you."

<sup>4</sup>Rehoboam answered, "Come back to me in three days and I will answer you." So the people left.

<sup>6</sup>There were some older men who had helped Solomon make decisions when he was alive. So King Rehoboam asked these men what he should do. He said, "How do you think I should answer these people?"

<sup>7</sup>The elders answered, "If you are like a servant to them today, then they will truly serve you. If you speak kindly to them, then they will work for you always."

<sup>8</sup>But Rehoboam did not listen to this advice. He asked the young men that were his friends. <sup>9</sup>Rehoboam said, "The people said, 'Give us easier work than your father gave us.' How do you think I should answer these people? What should I tell them?"

<sup>10</sup>The king's young friends said, "Those people came to you and said, 'Your father forced us to work very hard. Now make our work easier.' So you should brag and, tell them, 'My little finger is stronger than my father's whole body. <sup>11</sup>My father forced you to work hard. But I will make you work much harder! My father used whips to force you to work. I will beat you so hard that you will think scorpions* have stung you!"

<sup>12</sup>Rehoboam had told the people, "Come back to me in three days." So after three days all the people of Israel came back to Rehoboam. <sup>13</sup>At that time, King Rehoboam spoke hard words to them. He did not listen to the advice from the elders. <sup>14</sup>He did what his friends told him to do. Rehoboam said, "My father forced you to work hard. So I will give you even more work. My father beat you with whips. But I will beat you so hard that you will think scorpions* have stung you!" <sup>15</sup>So the king did not do what the people wanted. The Lord caused this to happen. The Lord did this in order to keep the promise he made to Jeroboam son of Nebat. The Lord used Ahijah the prophet to make this promise. Ahijah was from Shiloh.

<sup>16</sup>All the people of Israel saw that the new king refused to listen to them. So the people said to the king: "Are we part of David's family? No! Do we get any of Jesse's land? No! So Israel, let's go to our own homes. Let David's son rule his own people!" So the people of Israel went home. <sup>17</sup>But Rehoboam still ruled over the Israelites who lived in the cities of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>A man named Adoniram was the boss over all the workers. King Rehoboam sent Adoniram to talk to the people. But the people of Israel threw stones at him until he died. Then King Rehoboam ran to his chariot* and escaped to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>So Israel rebelled (turned against) the family of David. And they are still against David's family today.

<sup>20</sup>All the people of Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back. So they called him to a meeting and made him king over all of Israel. The family group of Judah was the only family group that continued to follow the family of David.

<sup>21</sup>Rehoboam went back to Jerusalem. He gathered together the families of Judah and the family group of Benjamin. This was an army of 180,000 men. Rehoboam wanted to fight against the people of Israel. He wanted to take his kingdom back.

died ... ancestors Literally, "slept with his ancestors."

scorpions Insects that have tails with stingers in them. If a scorpion stings a person, it really hurts badly."

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

<sup>22</sup>But the Lord spoke to a man of God.* His name was Shemaiah. The Lord said, <sup>23</sup>“Talk to Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and also to all the people of Judah and Benjamin. <sup>24</sup>Say to them, ‘The Lord says that you must not go to war against your brothers. Every one of you should go home. I made all these things happen!’” So the men in Rehoboam’s army obeyed the Lord’s command. They all went home.

<sup>25</sup>Shechem was a city in the hill country of Ephraim. Jeroboam made Shechem a very strong city and lived there. Later he went to the city of Penuel and made it stronger.

<sup>26,27</sup>Jeroboam said to himself, “If the people continue going to the Lord’s temple in Jerusalem, then they will want to be ruled by David’s family. The people will follow Rehoboam, king of Judah again. Then they will kill me.” <sup>28</sup>So the king asked his advisers what he should do. They gave him their advice. So Jeroboam made two golden calves. King Jeroboam said to the people, “You should not go Jerusalem to worship. Israel, these are the gods that brought you out of Egypt.”* <sup>29</sup>King Jeroboam put one golden calf in Bethel.* He put the other golden calf in the city of Dan.* <sup>30</sup>But this was a very great sin. The people of Israel traveled to the cities of Bethel and Dan to worship the calves. But this was a very great sin.

<sup>31</sup>Jeroboam also built temples at the high places.* He also chose priests from among the different family groups of Israel. (He did not choose priests only from the family group of Levi.) <sup>32</sup>And King Jeroboam started a new holiday. This holiday was like the Passover, Festival in Judah. But this holiday was on the 15th day of the eighth month—not the 15th day of the first month. During that time the king offered sacrifices on the altar in the city of Bethel. And he made the sacrifices to the calves that he had made. King Jeroboam also chose priests in Bethel to serve at the high places* that he made. <sup>33</sup>So King Jeroboam chose his own time for a holiday for the Israelites. It was the 15th day of the eighth month. During that time he offered sacrifices and burned incense* on the altar that he built. This was in the city of Bethel.

God Speaks Against Bethel

13 The Lord commanded a man of God* from Judah to go to the city of Bethel. King Jeroboam was standing at the altar offering incense when the man of God arrived. <sup>2</sup>The Lord had commanded the man of God to speak against the altar. He said,

“Altar, the Lord says to you: ‘David’s family will have a son named Josiah. These priests are now worshiping at the high places.* But altar, Josiah will put those priests on you and he will kill them. Now those priests burn incense upon you. But Josiah will burn human bones on you. Then you can’t be used again!’”

<sup>3</sup>The man of God gave proof to the people that these things would happen. He said, “This is proof that the Lord told me about. The Lord said, ‘This altar will break apart. And the ashes on it will fall onto the ground.’”

“King Jeroboam heard the message from the man of God* about the altar in Bethel. He took his hand off of the altar and pointed at the man. He said, “Arrest that man!” But when the king said this, his arm became paralyzed. He could not move it. <sup>4</sup>Also, the altar broke into pieces. All its ashes fell onto the ground. This was the proof that the things the man of God said were from God. “Then King Jeroboam said to the man of God, “Please pray to the Lord your God for me. Ask the Lord to heal my arm.”

So the man of God* prayed to the Lord. And the king’s arm was healed. It became like it was before. <sup>7</sup>Then the king said to the man of

man of God Another name for a prophet.

Israel ... Egypt This is exactly the same thing that Aaron said at the time he made the golden calf in the desert. See Ex. 32:4.

Bethel, Dan Bethel was a city in the south part of Israel, near Judah. Dan was in the north part of Israel.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

incense Special dried tree sap. burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a sacrifice to God.

God, "Please come home with me. Come and eat with me. I will give you a gift."

<sup>8</sup>But the man of God* said to the king, "I will not go home with you! Even if you gave me half of your kingdom, I would not go! I will not eat or drink anything in this place. <sup>9</sup>The Lord commanded me not to eat or drink anything. The Lord also commanded me not to travel on the same road that I used when I came here." <sup>10</sup>So he traveled on a different road. He did not travel on the same road that he used when he came to Bethel.

<sup>11</sup>There was an old prophet* living in the city of Bethel. His sons came and told him about what the man of God* did in Bethel. They told their father what the man of God had said to King Jeroboam. <sup>12</sup>The old prophet said, "Which road did he use when he left?" So the sons showed their father which way the man of God from Judah had taken. <sup>13</sup>The old prophet told his sons to put a saddle on his donkey. So they put the saddle on the donkey. Then the prophet left on his donkey.

<sup>14</sup>The old prophet went after the man of God.* The old prophet found the man of God sitting under an oak tree. The old prophet asked, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

The man of God answered, "Yes, I am."

<sup>15</sup>So the old prophet said, "Please come home and eat with me."

<sup>16</sup>But the man of God* answered, "I can't go home with you. I can't eat or drink with you in this place. <sup>17</sup>The Lord said to me, 'You must not eat or drink anything in that place. And you must not go back on the same road you came on.'"

<sup>18</sup>Then the old prophet said, "But I am also a prophet like you." Then the old prophet told a lie. He said, "An angel from the Lord came to me. The angel told me to bring you to my home and allow you to eat and drink with me."

<sup>19</sup>So the man of God* went to the old prophet's house and ate and drank with him.

<sup>20</sup>While they were sitting at the table, the Lord spoke to the old prophet. <sup>21</sup>And the old prophet spoke to the man of God from Judah. He said, "The Lord said that you did not obey him! You did not do the thing the Lord commanded. <sup>22</sup>The Lord commanded you not to eat or drink anything in this place. But you came back and ate and drank. So your body will not be buried in your family grave."

<sup>26</sup>The old prophet had tricked the man and, brought him back. He heard about what happened and he said, "That is the man of God* who did not obey the Lord's command. So the Lord sent a lion to kill him. The Lord said that he would do this." <sup>27</sup>Then the prophet said to his sons, "Put a saddle on my donkey." So his sons put a saddle on his donkey. <sup>28</sup>The old prophet went and found the body lying on the road. The donkey and the lion were still standing near it. The lion had not eaten the body, and it did not hurt the donkey.

<sup>29</sup>The old prophet put the body on his donkey. He carried the body back to the city to cry for him and bury him. <sup>30</sup>The old prophet buried the man in his own family grave. The old prophet cried for him. The old prophet said, "Oh, my brother, I am sorry for you." <sup>31</sup>So the old prophet buried the body. Then he said to his sons, "When I die, bury me in this same grave. Put my bones next to his. <sup>32</sup>The things which the Lord spoke through him will certainly come true. The Lord used him to speak against the altar at Bethel and against the high places* in the other towns in Samaria."

man of God Another name for a prophet.

prophet A person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach to the people.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

<sup>3</sup>King Jeroboam did not change. He continued doing evil things. He continued to choose people from different family groups to become priests.* Those priests served at the high places.* Any person who wanted to be a priest was allowed to become a priest. <sup>34</sup>That was the sin that caused the destruction and ruin of his kingdom.

Jeroboam's Son Dies

14 At that time, Jeroboam's son, Abijah, became very sick. Jeroboam said to his wife, "Go to Shiloh. Go see the prophet Ahijah. Ahijah is the man that said that I would become king of Israel. Dress yourself so people won't know that you are my wife. <sup>3</sup>Give the prophet ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey. Then ask him what will happen to our son. The prophet Ahijah will tell you."

<sup>4</sup>So the king's wife did what he said. She went to Shiloh. She went to the home of Ahijah the prophet. Ahijah was very old and had become blind. <sup>5</sup>But the Lord said to him, "Jeroboam's wife is coming to ask you about her son. He is sick." The Lord told Ahijah what he should say.

Jeroboam's wife came to Ahijah's house. She was trying to not let people know who she was. <sup>6</sup>Ahijah heard her coming to the door. So Ahijah said, "Come in, Jeroboam's wife. Why are you trying to make people think you are someone else? I have some bad news for you. <sup>7</sup>Go back and tell Jeroboam that this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says. The Lord says, 'Jeroboam, I chose you from among all the people of Israel. I made you the ruler of my people. <sup>8</sup>David's family was ruling the kingdom of Israel. But I took the kingdom away from them and I gave it to you. But you are not like my servant David. He always obeyed my commands. He followed me with his whole heart. He did only the things that I accepted. <sup>9</sup>But you have done many great sins.

Your sins are much worse than the sins of any person that ruled before you. You have quit following me. You made idols and other gods. This has made me very angry. <sup>10</sup>So, Jeroboam, I will bring troubles to your family. I will kill all of the men in your family. I will destroy your family completely, like fire completely destroys dung. <sup>11</sup>Any person from your family that dies in the city will be eaten by dogs. And any person from your family that dies in the fields will be eaten by birds. The Lord has spoken.'"

<sup>12</sup>Then the prophet Ahijah continued talking to Jeroboam's wife. He said, "Now go home. As soon as you enter your city, your son will die. <sup>13</sup>All Israel will cry for him and bury him. Your son will be the only person in Jeroboam's family that will be buried. This is because he is the only one in Jeroboam's family that pleased the Lord God of Israel. <sup>14</sup>The Lord will put a new king over Israel. That new king will destroy Jeroboam's family. This will happen very soon. <sup>15</sup>Then the Lord will hit Israel. The people of Israel will be very scared—they will shake like tall grass in the water. The Lord will pull up Israel from this good land. This is the land that he gave their ancestors. He will scatter them on the other side of the Euphrates River. This will happen because the Lord is angry with the people. The people made him angry when they made special poles to worship Asherah.* <sup>16</sup>Jeroboam sinned. And then Jeroboam made the people of Israel sin. So the Lord will let the people of Israel be defeated."

<sup>17</sup>Jeroboam's wife went back to Tirzah. As soon as she walked into the house, the boy died. <sup>18</sup>All Israel buried him and cried for him. This happened exactly the way the Lord said it would. The Lord used his servant, the prophet Ahijah, to say these things.

<sup>19</sup>King Jeroboam did many other things. He fought wars and continued to rule the people. All the things he did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. <sup>20</sup>Jeroboam ruled as king for 22 years. Then he died and people ... priests The Law taught that only people from the family group of Levi could become priests.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, there people thought she was the wife of Baal.

was buried with his ancestors.* His son Nadab became the new king after him.

<sup>21</sup>At the time that Solomon's son, Rehoboam, became king of Judah, he was 41 years old. Rehoboam ruled in the city of Jerusalem for 17 years. This is the city in which the Lord chose to be honored. He chose this city from all the other cities of Israel. Rehoboam's mother was Naamah from Ammon.

<sup>22</sup>The people of Judah also sinned, and did, things that the Lord said were wrong. The people did more things to make the Lord angry at them. These people were worse than their fathers that lived before them. <sup>23</sup>The people built high places, stone memorials, and sacred poles.* They built them on every high hill and under every green tree. <sup>24</sup>There were men who served other gods by selling their bodies for sex.* So the people of Judah did many bad things. The people that had lived in the land before them did those same evil things. And God took the land away from those people and gave it to the people of Israel.

<sup>25</sup>During the fifth year that Rehoboam was king, King Shishak of Egypt fought against Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>Shishak took the treasures from the Lord's temple and from the king's palace. He even took the gold shields that David had taken from the officers of Hadadezer, king of Aram. David had taken these shields to Jerusalem. But Shishak took all the gold shields. <sup>27</sup>So king Rehoboam made more shields to put in their places. But these shields were made from bronze, not gold. He gave the shields to the men who were guarding the palace gates. <sup>28</sup>Every time the king went to the Lord's temple, the guards went with him. They carried the shields. After they were finished, they put the shields back on the wall in the guard room.

<sup>29</sup>All the things that king Rehoboam did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah. <sup>30</sup>Rehoboam and Jeroboam were always fighting a war against each other.

<sup>31</sup>Rehoboam died and was buried with his ancestors.* He was buried with his ancestors in the City of David.* (His mother was Naamah from Ammon.) Rehoboam's son, Abijah became the new king after him.

Abijah, King of Judah

15 Jeroboam son of Nebat was ruling over Israel. During Jeroboam's 18th year as king, his son Abijah became the new king of Judah. <sup>2</sup>Abijah ruled for three years. His mother's name was Maacah. She was Absalom's daughter.

<sup>3</sup>He did all the same sins that his father did before him. Abijah was not faithful to the Lord his God like David, his grandfather. <sup>4</sup>The Lord loved David. So for him, the Lord gave Abijah a kingdom in Jerusalem. And the Lord allowed him to have a son. The Lord also allowed Jerusalem to be safe. He did this for David. <sup>5</sup>David had always done the right things that the Lord wanted. He had always obeyed the Lord's commands. The only time David did not obey the Lord was the time David sinned against Uriah the Hittite.

<sup>6</sup>Rehoboam and Jeroboam were always fighting a war against each other.* <sup>7</sup>All of the other things that Abijah did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah.

There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam during the whole time that Ahijah was king. <sup>8</sup>When Abijah died he was buried in the City of David.* Abijah's son Asa became the new king after him.

Asa, King of Judah

lied ... ancestors Literally, "slept with his ancestors."

high places, stone memorials, sacred poles

People used these things to worship false gods.

men ... sex Sexual sins like this were a part of the way people worshiped the Canaanite gods.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

Rehoboam ... other This verse is not in the ancient Greek translation.

<sup>11</sup>Asa did the good things that the Lord said are right, like his ancestor* David did. <sup>12</sup>During that time there were men who served other gods by selling their bodies for sex. Asa forced those men to leave the country. Asa also took away the idols that his ancestors had made. <sup>13</sup>Asa also removed his grandmother, Maacah, from being queen. Maacah had made one of those terrible images of the goddess Asherah. Asa cut down this terrible image. He burned it in Kidron Valley. <sup>14</sup>Asa did not destroy the high places,* but he was faithful to the Lord all his life. <sup>15</sup>Asa's father had given some things to God. Asa had also given some gifts to God. They gave gifts of gold, silver, and other things. Asa put all those things in the temple.

<sup>16</sup>During the time that king Asa was king of Judah, he was always fighting a war against Baasha, the king of Israel. <sup>17</sup>Baasha fought against Judah. Baasha wanted to stop people from going into or coming from Asa's country, Judah. So He made the city Ramah very strong.

<sup>18</sup>So Asa took silver and gold from the treasuries of the Lord's temple and the king's palace. He gave the silver and gold to his servants and sent them to Ben-Hadad, the king of Aram. (Ben-Hadad was the son of Tabrimmon. Tabrimmon was the son of Hezion.) He was ruling in the city of Damascus. <sup>19</sup>Asa sent this message, "My father and your father had a peace agreement. Now I want to make a peace agreement between me and you. I am sending you a gift of gold and silver. Break your treaty with Baasha the king of Israel. Then Baasha will leave my land."

<sup>20</sup>King Ben-Hadad agreed with king Asa. So he sent his army to fight against the towns of Israel. Ben-Hadad defeated the towns of Ijon, Dan, Abel Bethmaacah, and all the towns around Lake Galilee. He defeated all the area of Naphtali. <sup>21</sup>Baasha heard about these attacks. So he stopped making Ramah strong. He left that town and returned to Tirzah. <sup>22</sup>Then king Asa gave an order to all of the people of Judah.

Every person had to help. They went to Ramah and took all the stones and wood that Baasha was using to make that city strong. They carried those things to Geba in the land of Benjamin and to Mizpah. Then King Asa built those two towns much stronger.

<sup>23</sup>All the other things about Asa, the great things he did, and the cities he built are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah. When Asa became old, he had a disease on his feet. <sup>24</sup>Asa died and he was buried in the City of David,* his ancestor. Then Jehoshaphat, Asa's son, became the new king after him.

Nadab, King of Israel

<sup>25</sup>During Asa's second year as king of Judah, Nadab, son of Jeroboam, became king of Israel. Nadab ruled over Israel for two years. <sup>26</sup>Nadab did bad things against the Lord. He sinned the same way his father Jeroboam had sinned. And Jeroboam also caused the people of Israel to sin.

<sup>27</sup>Baasha was the son of Ahijah. They were from the family group of Issachar. Baasha made a plan to kill King Nadab. This was during the time that Nadab and all Israel were fighting against the town of Gibbethon. This was a Philistine town. At that place Baasha killed Nadab. <sup>28</sup>This happened during the third year that Asa was the king of Judah. And Baasha became the next king of Israel.

Baasha, King of Israel

<sup>29</sup>At the time Baasha became the new king, he killed everyone in Jeroboam's family. Baasha left no person in Jeroboam's family alive. This happened the way the Lord said it would. The Lord spoke through his servant Ahijah from Shiloh. <sup>30</sup>This happened because King Jeroboam had done many sins. And Jeroboam had caused the people of Israel to do many sins. Jeroboam made the Lord, the God of Israel, very angry.

<sup>31</sup>The other things that Nadab did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of ancestor Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

Israel. <sup>32</sup>All during the time that Baasha ruled over Israel, he was fighting wars against Asa, king of Judah.

<sup>33</sup>Baasha, son of Ahijah, became king of Israel during the third year that Asa ruled over Judah. Baasha ruled in Tirzah for 24 years. <sup>34</sup>But Baasha did the things that the Lord said were wrong. He did the same sins that his father Jeroboam had done. Jeroboam caused the people of Israel to sin.

16 Then the Lord spoke to Jehu son of Hanani. The Lord was speaking against King Baasha. <sup>2</sup>"I made you an important person. I made you a prince over my people Israel. But you have followed the ways of Jeroboam. You have caused my people Israel to sin. They have made me angry with their sins. <sup>3</sup>So I will destroy you, Baasha, and your family. I will do the same to you that I did to the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat. <sup>4</sup>The people in your family will die in the streets of the city. And dogs will eat their bodies. Some of the people in your family will die in the fields. And the birds will eat their bodies."

<sup>5</sup>All the other things about Baasha and the great things he did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. <sup>6</sup>Baasha died and was buried in Tirzah. His son Elah became the new king after him.

<sup>7</sup>So the Lord gave a message to Jehu the prophet. This message was against Baasha and his family. Baasha had done much evil against the Lord. This made the Lord very angry. Baasha did the same things that Jeroboam's family had done before him. The Lord was also angry because Baasha killed all of Jeroboam's family.

Elah, King of Israel

<sup>8</sup>Elah became king during the 26th year that Asa was the king of Judah. Elah was the son of Baasha. He ruled in Tirzah for two years.

King Elah was in Tirzah. He was drinking and getting drunk at Arza's home. Arza was the man in charge of the palace* at Tirzah. <sup>10</sup>Zimri went into that house and killed King Elah. This was during the 27th year that Asa was king in Judah. Then Zimri became the new king of Israel after Elah.

Zimri, King of Israel

<sup>11</sup>After Zimri became the new king, he killed all of Baasha's family. He did not let any of the men in Baasha's family live. Zimri also killed Baasha's friends. <sup>12</sup>So Zimri destroyed Baasha's family. This happened the way the Lord said it would when the Lord used the prophet Jehu to speak against Baasha. <sup>13</sup>This happened because of all the sins of Baasha and his son, Elah. They sinned and caused the people of Israel to sin. The Lord was angry because they had many idols.

<sup>14</sup>The other things that Elah did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>Zimri became king of Israel during the 27th year that Asa was king of Judah. Zimri ruled in Tirzah seven days. This is what happened: The army of Israel was camped near the Philistines from Gibbethon. They were prepared for war.<sup>16</sup>The men in the camp heard that Zimri had made secret plans against the king. They heard that he killed the king. So all Israel made Omri king over Israel that day in the camp. Omri was the commander of the army. <sup>17</sup>So Omri and all Israel left Gibbethon and attacked Tirzah. <sup>18</sup>Zimri saw that the city had been captured. So he went into the palace* and started a fire. He burned the palace and himself. <sup>19</sup>So Zimri died because he had sinned. Zimri did the things the Lord said were wrong. He sinned in the same way that Jeroboam had sinned. And Jeroboam caused the people of Israel to sin.

<sup>20</sup>The story about Zimri's secret plans and the other things that Zimri did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. And the things that happened when Zimri turned against King Elah are also written in that book.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

Omri, King of Israel

<sup>1</sup>The people of Israel were divided into two groups. Half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath and wanted to make him king. The other half of the people followed Omri. <sup>2</sup>But Omri's followers were stronger than the followers of Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni was killed and Omri became king.

<sup>3</sup>During the 31st year that Asa was the king of Judah, Omri became king of Israel. Omri ruled over Israel for 12 years. Six of those years he ruled in the town of Tirzah. <sup>4</sup>But Omri bought the hill of Samaria. He bought it from Shemer for about 150 pounds* of silver. Omri built a city on that hill. He called the city Samaria after the name of its owner, Shemer.

<sup>5</sup>Omri did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Omri was worse than all the kings that were before him. <sup>6</sup>He did all the same sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat did. Jeroboam caused the people of Israel to sin. So they made the Lord, the God of Israel, very angry. The Lord was angry because they worshiped worthless idols.

<sup>7</sup>The other things about Omri and the great things he did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. <sup>8</sup>Omri died and was buried in Samaria. His son Ahab became the new king after him.

Ahab, King of Israel

<sup>9</sup>Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel during the 38th year that Asa was king of Judah. Ahab ruled Israel in the town of Samaria for 22 years. <sup>10</sup>Ahab did the things that the Lord said were wrong. And Ahab was worse than all the kings that were before him. <sup>11</sup>It was not enough for Ahab to do the same sins that Jeroboam son of Nebat had done. So Ahab also married Jezebel daughter of Ethbaal. Ethbaal was the king of the people of Sidon. Then Ahab began to serve and worship Baal.* <sup>12</sup>Ahab built a temple in Samaria for worshiping Baal. He put an altar in that temple. <sup>13</sup>Ahab also set up a special pole for worshiping Asherah.* Ahab did more things to make the Lord the God of Israel angry than all the other kings who were before him.

<sup>14</sup>During the time of Ahab, Hiel from Bethel built the town of Jericho again. At the time Hiel started work on the city, his oldest son, Abiram died. And when Hiel built the gates of the city, his youngest son, Segub, died. This happened the way that the Lord said it would happen when he spoke through Joshua son of Nun.*

Elijah and The Time Without Rain

17 Elijah was a prophet from the town of Tishbe in Gilead. Elijah said to King Ahab, "I serve the Lord God of Israel. By his power, I promise that no dew or rain will fall during the next few years. The rain will fall only if I command it to fall."

<sup>2</sup>Then the Lord said to Elijah, <sup>3</sup>"Leave this place and go east. Hide near Cherith creek. This creek is east of the Jordan River. <sup>4</sup>You can drink from the creek. I have commanded ravens* to bring food to you in that place." <sup>5</sup>So Elijah did what the Lord told him to do. He went to live near Cherith creek, east of the Jordan River. <sup>6</sup>Ravens brought Elijah food every morning and every evening. Elijah drank water from the creek.

<sup>7</sup>There was no rain, so after a time the creek became dry. <sup>8</sup>Then the Lord said to Elijah, <sup>9</sup>"Go to Zarephath in Sidon. Live there. There is a woman whose husband is dead that lives in that place. I have commanded her to give you food."

<sup>10</sup>So Elijah went to Zarephath. He went to the town gate and saw a woman there. Her husband was dead. The woman was gathering wood for a fire. Elijah said to her, "Will you bring me a little water in a cup so I can drink?" <sup>11</sup>The woman was going to get his water, and Elijah said, "Bring me a piece of bread too, please."

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.

he spoke ... Nun At the time that Joshua destroyed Jericho, he said that whoever built the city again would lose his oldest and youngest sons. See Joshua 6:26.

ravens Black birds.

150 pounds Literally, "2 talents."

Baal Baal was the main god of Sidon. People thought he could make people have many children and good crops.

<sup>12</sup>The woman answered, "I promise you before the Lord your God that I have no bread. I have only a little flour in a jar. And I have only a little olive oil in a jug. I came to this place to gather a couple of pieces of wood for a fire. I will take it back home and cook our last meal. My son and I will eat it and then die from hunger."

<sup>13</sup>Elijah said to the woman, "Don't worry. Go home and cook your food as you said. But first make a small loaf of bread from the flour that you have. Bring that bread to me. Then cook for yourself and your son." <sup>14</sup>The Lord God of Israel says, "That jar of flour will never become empty. The jug will always have oil in it. This will continue until the day the Lord sends rain to the land."

<sup>15</sup>So the woman went to her home. She did what Elijah told her to do. Elijah, the woman, and her son had enough food for many days. <sup>16</sup>The jar of flour and the jug of oil were never empty. This happened just like the Lord said it would. The Lord spoke through Elijah.

<sup>17</sup>Some time later the woman's son became sick. He became more and more sick. Finally the boy stopped breathing. <sup>18</sup>And the woman said to Elijah, "You are a man of God.* Can you help me? Or did you come here only to cause me to remember all of my sins? Did you come here only to cause my son to die?"

<sup>19</sup>Elijah said to her, "Give your son to me." Elijah took the boy from her and carried him upstairs. He laid him on the bed in the room where he was staying. <sup>20</sup>Then Elijah prayed, "O Lord my God. This widow* is letting me stay in her house. Will you do this bad thing to her? Will you cause her son to die?" <sup>21</sup>Then Elijah lay on top of the boy three times. Elijah prayed, "O Lord my God. Allow this boy to live again!"

<sup>22</sup>The Lord answered Elijah's prayer. The boy began breathing again. He was alive! <sup>23</sup>Elijah carried the boy downstairs. Elijah gave the boy to his mother and said, "Look, your son is alive!"

<sup>24</sup>The woman answered, "Now I know that you really are a man from God. I know that the Lord truly speaks through you!"

Elijah and the Prophets of Baal

18 During the third year that no rain fell, the Lord said to Elijah, "Go and meet with King Ahab. I will soon send rain." <sup>2</sup>So Elijah went to meet Ahab.

At that time, there was no food in Samaria. <sup>3</sup>So King Ahab told Obadiah to come to him. Obadiah was the man in charge of the king's palace.* (Obadiah was a true follower of the Lord. <sup>4</sup>One time Jezebel was killing all the Lord's prophets. So Obadiah took 100 prophets and hid them in two caves. Obadiah put 50 prophets in one cave and 50 prophets in another cave. Then Obadiah brought them food and water.) <sup>5</sup>King Ahab said to Obadiah, "Come with me. We will look at every spring and every creek in the land. We will see if we can find enough grass to keep our horses and mules alive. Then we will not have to kill our animals." <sup>6</sup>Each person chose the part of the country where they would go look for water. Then the two men went through the whole country. Ahab went in one direction by himself. Obadiah went in another direction by himself. <sup>7</sup>While Obadiah was traveling, he met Elijah. Obadiah knew Elijah when he saw him. Obadiah bowed down before Elijah. He said, "Elijah? Is it really you, master?"

<sup>8</sup>Elijah answered, "Yes, it is me. Go and tell your master the king that I am here."

<sup>9</sup>Then Obadiah said, "If I tell Ahab that I know where you are, he will kill me! I have done nothing wrong to you! Why do you want me to die?" <sup>10</sup>As sure as the Lord your God lives, the king has been looking for you everywhere! He has sent people to every country to find you. If the ruler of a country said that you were not in his country, then Ahab forced the ruler to promise that you were not in his country. <sup>11</sup>Now you want me to go and tell him that you are here? <sup>12</sup>If I go tell King Ahab that you are here, then the Lord

man of God Another name for a prophet.

widow A woman whose husband has died.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

might carry you to some other place. King Ahab will come here, and he will not be able to find you. Then he will kill me! I have followed the Lord since I was a boy. <sup>13</sup>You heard what I did! Jezebel was killing the Lord's prophets, and I hid 100 prophets in caves. I put 50 prophets in one cave and 50 prophets in another cave. I brought them food and water. <sup>14</sup>Now you want me to go and tell the king that you are here. The king will kill me!"

<sup>15</sup>Elijah answered, "As sure as the Lord All-Powerful lives, I promise that I will stand before the king today."

<sup>16</sup>So Obadiah went to King Ahab. He told him where Elijah was. King Ahab went to meet Elijah.

<sup>17</sup>When Ahab saw Elijah he said, "Is it you? You are the man that causes trouble in Israel!"

<sup>18</sup>Elijah answered, "I have not caused Israel trouble. You and your father's family caused all this trouble. You caused the trouble when you stopped obeying the Lord's commands and began following the false gods. <sup>19</sup>Now, tell all Israel to meet me at Mount Carmel. Also bring to that place the 450 prophets of Baal.* And bring the 400 prophets of the false goddess Asherah.* Queen Jezebel supports those prophets."*

<sup>20</sup>So Ahab called all the Israelites and those prophets to Mount Carmel. <sup>21</sup>Elijah came to all the people. He said, "When will you people decide who to follow? If the Lord is the true God, then you should follow him. But if Baal is the true God, then you should follow him!"

The people said nothing. <sup>22</sup>So Elijah said, "I am the only prophet of the Lord here. I am alone. But there are 450 prophets of Baal.* <sup>23</sup>So bring two bulls. Let the prophets of Baal take one bull. Let them kill it and cut it into pieces. Then let them put the meat on the wood. But don't start the fire burning. Then I will do the same with the other bull. And I will not start the fire burning. <sup>24</sup>You prophets of Baal will pray to your god. And I will pray to the Lord. The god that answers the prayer and starts his wood burning is the true God."

All the people agreed that this was a good idea.

<sup>25</sup>Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal,* "There are many of you. So you go first. Choose a bull and prepare it. But don't start your fire."

<sup>26</sup>So the prophets took the bull that was given to them. They prepared it. They prayed to Baal* until noon. They prayed, "Baal, please answer us!" But there was no sound. No one answered. The prophets danced around the altar that they had built. (But the fire never started.)

<sup>27</sup>At noon Elijah began to make fun of them. Elijah said, "If Baal is really a god, then maybe you should pray louder! Maybe he is thinking! Or maybe he is busy! Or maybe he is traveling! He could be sleeping! Maybe you should pray louder and wake him!" <sup>28</sup>So the prophets prayed louder. They cut themselves with swords and spears. (This was the way they worshiped.) They cut themselves until the blood flowed over them. <sup>29</sup>The afternoon passed but the fire still had not started. The prophets continued to act wild* until the time came for the evening sacrifice. But there was still no answer from Baal.* Nothing happened to the wood.*

<sup>30</sup>Then Elijah said to all the people, "Now, come to me." So all the people gathered around Elijah. The Lord's altar in Bethel had been torn down. So Elijah fixed it. <sup>31</sup>Elijah found twelve stones. There was one stone for each of the twelve family groups. These twelve family groups were named for the twelve sons of Jacob. Jacob was the man that the Lord had called Israel. <sup>32</sup>Elijah used these stones to fix the altar to honor the Lord. Elijah dug a small ditch around the altar. It was wide enough and deep enough to hold about 7 gallons* of water. <sup>33</sup>Then Elijah put the wood on the altar. He cut the bull into pieces. He laid the pieces on the wood. <sup>34</sup>Then Elijah said, "Fill four jars with water. Pour the water on the pieces of meat and on the wood." Then Elijah said, "Do it again." Then he said, "Do it a third time." <sup>35</sup>The water flowed off of the altar and filled the ditch.

<sup>36</sup>It was time for the afternoon sacrifice. So the prophet Elijah went near the altar and prayed, "O Lord, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I ask you now to prove that you are the God of Israel. And prove that I am your servant. Show these people that you commanded me to do all these things." <sup>37</sup>Lord, answer my prayer. Show these people that you, O Lord, are God. Then the people will know that you are bringing them back to you."

<sup>38</sup>So the Lord sent down fire. The fire burned the sacrifice, the wood, the stones, and the ground around the altar. The fire also dried up all the water in the ditch. <sup>39</sup>All the people saw this happen. The people bowed down on the ground and began saying, "The Lord is God! The Lord is God!"

<sup>40</sup>Then Elijah said, "Get the prophets of Baal! Don't let any of them escape!" So the people captured all the prophets. Then Elijah led them down to Kishon Creek. At that place he killed all the prophets.

The Rain Comes Again

The servant went to the place where he could see the sea. Then the servant came back and said, "I saw nothing." Elijah told him to go and look again. This happened seven times. <sup>44</sup>The seventh time, the servant came back and said, "I saw a small cloud the size of a man's fist.* The cloud was coming from the sea."

Elijah told the servant, "Go to King Ahab and tell him to get his chariot* ready and go home now. If he doesn't leave now, the rain will stop him."

<sup>45</sup>After a short time, the sky was covered with dark clouds. The wind began to blow, and a heavy rain began to fall. Ahab got in his chariot and started traveling back to Jezreel. <sup>46</sup>The power of the Lord came to Elijah. Elijah tightened his clothes around him, so he could run. Then Elijah ran ahead of King Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

Elijah at Mount Sinai

19 King Ahab told Jezebel all the things that Elijah did. Ahab told her how Elijah had killed all the prophets with a sword. <sup>2</sup>So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah. Jezebel said, "I promise that before this same time tomorrow, I will kill you like you killed those prophets. If I don't succeed, then may the gods kill me."

<sup>3</sup>When Elijah heard this, he was afraid. So he ran away to save his life. He took his servant with him. They went to Beersheba, Judah. Elijah left his servant in Beersheba. <sup>4</sup>Then Elijah walked for a whole day into the desert. Elijah sat down under a bush. He asked to die. Elijah said, "I have had enough, Lord! Let me die. I am no better than my ancestors.*"

<sup>5</sup>Then Elijah lay down under the tree and slept. An angel came to Elijah and touched him. The angel said, "Get up! Eat!" <sup>6</sup>Elijah saw very near him a cake baked over coals and a jar of water. Elijah ate and drank. Then he went back to sleep.

<sup>7</sup>Later the Lord's angel came to him again. The angel said, "Get up! Eat! If you don't, you will not be strong enough to make the long trip." <sup>8</sup>So Elijah got up. He ate and drank. The food made Elijah strong enough to walk for 40 days and nights. He walked to Mount Horeb, the mountain of God. <sup>9</sup>There Elijah went into a cave and stayed all night.

Then the Lord spoke to Elijah. The Lord said, "Elijah, why are you here?"

<sup>10</sup>Elijah answered, "Lord God All-Powerful, I have always served you. I have always served you the best that I can. But the people of Israel have broken their agreement with you. They destroyed your altars. They killed your prophets. I am the only prophet that is still living. And now they are trying to kill me!"

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord said to Elijah, "Go, stand in front of me on the mountain. I will pass by you."* Then a very strong wind blew. The wind caused the mountains to break apart. It broke large rocks in front of the Lord. But that wind was not the Lord! After that wind, there was an earthquake. But that earthquake was not the Lord. <sup>12</sup>After the earthquake, there was a fire. But that fire was not the Lord. After the fire, there was a quiet, gentle voice.*

<sup>13</sup>When Elijah heard the voice* he used his coat to cover his face. Then he went and stood at the entrance to the cave. Then a voice said to him, "Elijah, why are you here?"

<sup>14</sup>Elijah answered, "Lord God All-Powerful, I have always served you the best that I can. But the people of Israel have broken their agreement with you. They destroyed your altars. They killed your prophets. I am the only prophet that is still living. And now they are trying to kill me."

<sup>15</sup>The Lord said, "Go back on the road that leads to the desert around Damascus. Go into Damascus, and anoint* Hazael as king over Aram. <sup>16</sup>Then anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel. Next, anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah. He will be the prophet that takes your place. <sup>17</sup>Hazael will kill many bad people., Jehu will kill anyone that escapes from Hazael's sword. And Elisha will kill anyone that escapes from Jehu's sword. <sup>18</sup>Elijah, you are not the only faithful person in Israel. Those men will kill many people. But, even after that., there will still be 7,000 people living in Israel that never bowed down to Baal!! I will let those 7,000 people live—and none of those people ever kissed a Baal idol.

Elisha Becomes a Prophet

<sup>19</sup>So Elijah left that place and went to find Elisha son of Shaphat. Elisha was plowing 12 acres of land. Elisha was working on the last acre when Elijah came. Elijah went to Elisha. Then Elijah put his coat* on Elisha. <sup>20</sup>Elisha immediately left his cows and ran after Elijah. Elisha said, "Let me kiss my mother and father good-bye, and I will follow you."

Elijah answered, "That is fine. Go. I won't stop you.*"

<sup>21</sup>Then Elisha had a special meal with his family. Elisha went and killed his cows. He used the pieces of wood that tied the cows together for the fire. Then he boiled the meat and gave it to the people. The people ate the meat. Then Elisha went and followed Elijah. Elisha became Elijah's helper.

Ben-Hadad and Ahab Go To War

20 Ben-Hadad was king of Syria. He gathered together all of his army. There were 32 kings with him. They had horses and chariots.* They attacked Samaria and fought against it. <sup>2</sup>The king sent messengers into the city to King Ahab of Israel. <sup>3</sup>This was the message, "Ben-Hadad says, 'You must give me your silver and gold. You must also give me your wives and children.'"

<sup>4</sup>The king of Israel answered, "O king, my master. I agree that I belong to you now. And everything I have belongs to you."

<sup>5</sup>Then the messengers came back to Ahab. They said, "Ben-Hadad says, 'I told you before that you must give me all of your silver and gold and your wives and your children. <sup>6</sup>Now I want to send my men to look everywhere in

Go, stand ... you This is like the time God appeared to Moses. See Ex. 33:12-23.

voice Or, "sound."

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

coat This was a special robe that showed that Elijah was a prophet. Giving this coat to Elisha showed that Elisha was taking Elijah's place as a prophet.

I won't stop you Literally, "What have I done to you?" or "What will I do to you?"

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

your palace* and in the homes of the men who rule under you. My men will take anything they want.”

<sup>7</sup>So King Ahab called a meeting of all the elders (leaders) of his country. Ahab said, “Look, Ben-Hadad is looking for trouble. First he told me that I must give him my wives, my children, my silver and my gold. I agreed to give those things to him. And now he wants to take everything.”

<sup>8</sup>But the elders (leaders) and all the people said, “Don’t obey him. Don’t do what he says.”

<sup>9</sup>So Ahab sent a message to Ben-Hadad. Ahab said, “I will do what you said at first. But I cannot obey your second command.”

King Ben-Hadad’s men carried the message to the king. <sup>10</sup>Then they came back with another message from Ben-Hadad. The message said, “I will completely destroy Samaria. I promise that there will be nothing left of that city! There won’t be enough of that city left for my men to find any souvenirs* to take home. May God destroy me if I don’t do this!”

<sup>12</sup>King Ben-Hadad was drinking in his tent with the other rulers. At that time the messengers came and gave him the message from King Ahab. King Ben-Hadad commanded his men to prepare to attack the city. So the men moved into their places for the battle.

<sup>13</sup>At the same time, a prophet went to King Ahab. The prophet said, “King Ahab, the Lord says to you, ‘Do you see that big army! I, the Lord, will allow you to defeat that army today. Then you will know that I am the Lord.’”

<sup>14</sup>Ahab said, “Who will you use to defeat them?”

The prophet answered, “The Lord says, ‘The young helpers of the government officials.’”

Then the king asked, “Who should command the main army?”

The prophet answered, “You will.”

<sup>15</sup>So Ahab gathered the young helpers of the government officials. There were 232 of these young men. Then the king called together the army of Israel. The total number was 7,000.

<sup>16</sup>At noon, King Ben-Hadad and the 32 kings helping him were drinking and becoming drunk in their tents. At this time, King Ahab’s attack began. <sup>17</sup>The young helpers attacked first. King Ben-Hadad’s men told him that soldiers had come out of Samaria. <sup>18</sup>So Ben-Hadad said, “They might be coming to fight. Or they might be coming to ask for peace. Capture them alive.”

<sup>19</sup>The young men of King Ahab were leading the attack. The army of Israel was following them. <sup>20</sup>But each man of Israel killed the man that came against him. So the men from Aram began to run away. The army of Israel chased them. King Ben-Hadad escaped on a horse from one of the chariots.* <sup>21</sup>King Ahab led the army and took all horses and chariots from the army of Aram. So King Ahab caused a great defeat of the Syrian army.

<sup>22</sup>Then the prophet went to King Ahab and said, “The king of Syria, Ben-Hadad, will come to fight against you again next spring. So you should go home now and make your army stronger. And make careful plans to defend against him.”

Ben-Hadad Attacks Again

<sup>23</sup>King Ben-Hadad’s officers said to him, “The gods of Israel are mountain gods. We fought in a mountain area. So the people of Israel won. So let’s fight them on the flat land. Then we will win.” <sup>24</sup>This is what you should do. Don’t allow the 32 kings to command the armies. Let the commanders lead their armies.

<sup>25</sup>“Now you gather an army like the army that was destroyed. Gather horses and chariots like that army. Then let’s fight the Israelites on flat land. Then we will win.” Ben-Hadad followed their advice. He did what they said.

<sup>26</sup>So in the spring, Ben-Hadad gathered the people of Aram. He went to Aphek to fight against Israel.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

souvenirs Things that help people remember places they have been. Literally, the Hebrew has, “handfuls of dust.”

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

<sup>7</sup>The Israelites also prepared for war. The people of Israel went to fight the army of Aram. They made their camp opposite the camp of Aram. Compared to the enemy, Israel looked like two small flocks of goats, but the Aramean soldiers covered the whole area.

<sup>8</sup>A man of God* came to the king of Israel with this message: "The Lord said, 'The people of Aram said that I, the Lord, am God of the mountains. They think that I am not also the God of the valleys. So I will allow you to defeat this big army. Then you will know that I am the Lord in every place!'"

<sup>9</sup>The armies were camped across from each other for seven days. On the seventh day the battle began. The Israelites killed 100,000 soldiers of Aram in one day. <sup>10</sup>The survivors ran away to the city of Aphek. The wall of the city fell on 27,000 of those soldiers. Ben-Hadad also ran away to the city. He hid in a room. <sup>11</sup>His servants said to him, "We heard that the kings of Israel are merciful. Let's dress in rough cloth with ropes on our heads.* Then let's go to the king of Israel. Maybe he will let us live."

<sup>12</sup>They dressed in rough cloth with ropes on their heads.* They came to the king of Israel. They said, "Your servant, Ben-Hadad, says, 'Please let me live.'"

Ahab answered, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."*

<sup>13</sup>Ben-Hadad's men wanted King Ahab to say something to show that he would not kill King Ben-Hadad. When Ahab called Ben-Hadad his brother, the advisers quickly said, "Yes! Ben-Hadad is your brother."

Ahab said, "Bring him to me." So Ben-Hadad came to King Ahab. King Ahab asked him to get in the chariot with him.

<sup>14</sup>Ben-Hadad said to him, "Ahab, I will give you the towns that my father took from your father. And you can put shops in Damascus, like my father did in Samaria."

Ahab answered, "If you agree to this, then I will allow you to go free." So the two kings made a peace agreement. Then King Ahab let King Ben-Hadad go free.

A Prophet Speaks Against Ahab

<sup>15</sup>One of the prophets told another prophet, "Hit me!" He told him to do this because the Lord had commanded it. But the other prophet refused to hit him. <sup>16</sup>So the first prophet said, "You did not obey the Lord's command. So a lion will kill you when you leave this place." The second prophet left that place and a lion killed him.

<sup>17</sup>The first prophet went to another man and said, "Hit me!"

This man hit him. The prophet was hurt. <sup>18</sup>So the prophet wrapped his face with a cloth. This way, no person could see who he was. The prophet went and waited for the king by the road. <sup>19</sup>The king came by and the prophet said to him, "I went to fight in the battle. One of our men brought an enemy soldier to me. The man said, 'Guard this man. If he runs away, then you will have to give your life in his place. Or you will have to pay a fine of 75 pounds* of silver.' <sup>20</sup>But I became busy doing other things. So the man ran away."

The king of Israel answered, "You have said that you are guilty of letting the soldier escape. So you know the answer. You must do what the man said."

<sup>21</sup>Then the prophet took the cloth from his face. The king of Israel saw him and knew that he was one of the prophets. <sup>22</sup>Then the prophet said to the king, "The Lord says to you, 'You set free the man that I said should die. So you will take his place—you will die! And your people will take the enemies' place—your people will die!'"

<sup>23</sup>Then the king went back home to Samaria. He was worried and upset.

man of God Another name for a prophet.

rough cloth ... heads This showed they were being humble and that they wanted to surrender.

brother People that signed peace agreements often called each other "brother." It was like they became one family.

75 pounds Literally, "a talent."

Naboth's Field of Grapes

21 King Ahab's palace* was in the city of Samaria. Near the palace there was a field of grapes. A man named Naboth owned this field. <sup>2</sup>One day Ahab said to Naboth, "Give me your field. I want to make it a vegetable garden. Your field is near my palace.* I will give you a better grape field in its place. Or, if you prefer, I will pay you its value in money.

<sup>3</sup>Naboth answered, "I will never give my land to you. This land belongs to my family."

<sup>4</sup>So Ahab went home. He was angry and upset at Naboth. He did not like the things that man from Jezreel said. (Naboth had said, "I will not give you my family's land." Ahab lay down on his bed. He turned his face away and refused to eat.

<sup>5</sup>Ahab's wife, Jezebel, went to him. Jezebel said to him, "Why are you upset? Why do you refuse to eat?"

<sup>6</sup>Ahab answered, "I asked Naboth, the man from Jezreel, to give me his field. I told him that I would pay him the full price. Or if he preferred, I would give him another field. But Naboth refused to give his field to me."

<sup>7</sup>Jezebel answered, "But you are the king over Israel! Get out of your bed. Eat something and you will feel better. I will get Naboth's field for you."

<sup>8</sup>Then Jezebel wrote some letters. She signed Ahab's name to the letters. She used Ahab's own seal to seal the letters. Then she sent them to the elders (leaders) and important men who lived in the same town as Naboth. <sup>9</sup>This is what the letter said:

Announce that there will be a day when the people will eat nothing. Then call all the people of the town together for a meeting. At the meeting, we will talk about Naboth. <sup>10</sup>Find some men that will tell lies about Naboth. Those people should say that they heard Naboth speak against the king and against God. Then take Naboth out of the city and kill him with rocks.

<sup>11</sup>So the elders (leaders) and important men of Jezreel obeyed that command. <sup>12</sup>The leaders announced that there would be a day when all the people would eat nothing. On that day they called all the people together for a meeting. They put Naboth in a special place before the people. <sup>13</sup>Then two men told the people that they heard Naboth speak against God and against the king. So the people carried Naboth out of the city. Then they killed him with rocks. <sup>14</sup>Then the leaders sent a message to Jezebel. The message said: "Naboth has been killed."

<sup>15</sup>When Jezebel heard this, she said to Ahab, "Naboth is dead. Now you can go and take the field that you wanted." <sup>16</sup>So Ahab went to the field of grapes and took it for his own.

<sup>17</sup>At this time the Lord spoke to Elijah. (Elijah was the prophet from Tishbe.) The Lord said, <sup>18</sup>"Go to King Ahab in Samaria. Ahab will be at Naboth's field of grapes. He is there to take the field as his own. <sup>19</sup>Tell Ahab that I, the Lord, say to him, 'Ahab! You killed the man Naboth. Now you are taking his land. So I tell you this! In the same place that Naboth died, you will also die. The dogs that licked Naboth's blood will lick your blood in the same place!'"

<sup>20</sup>So Elijah went to Ahab. Ahab saw Elijah and said, "You have found me again. You are always against me."

Elijah answered, "Yes, I found you again. You have always used your life for sinning against the Lord. <sup>21</sup>So the Lord says to you, 'I will destroy you. I will kill you and every male in your family. <sup>22</sup>Your family will be the same as the family of King Jeroboam son of Nebat. And your family will become like the family of King Baasha. Both of these families were completely destroyed. I will do this to you because you have made me angry. You have caused the people of Israel to sin.' <sup>23</sup>And the Lord also says, 'Dogs will eat the body of your wife Jezebel in the city of Jezreel. <sup>24</sup>Any person in your family that dies in the city will be eaten by dogs. Any person that dies in the fields, will be eaten by birds.'"

<sup>25</sup>There is no other person that has done so many wrong things or sinned so much as Ahab.

His wife Jezebel caused him to do those things.
<sup>26</sup>Ahab did a very bad sin and worshiped those blocks of wood (idols). This was the same thing that the Amorite people did. And the Lord took the land from them and gave it to the people of Israel.

<sup>27</sup>After Elijah finished speaking, Ahab was very sad. He tore his clothes to show that he was sad. Then he put on special clothes of sadness. Ahab refused to eat. He slept in those special clothes. Ahab was very sad and upset.

<sup>28</sup>The Lord said to Elijah the prophet, <sup>29</sup>"I see that Ahab has become humble before me. So, I will not cause the trouble to come to him during his life. I will wait until his son is king. Then I will cause the trouble to come to Ahab's family."

Micaiah Gives a Warning to Ahab

22 During the next two years, there was peace between Israel and Aram. <sup>2</sup>Then, during the third year, King Jehoshaphat of Judah went to visit King Ahab of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>At this same time, Ahab asked his officials, "Remember that the king of Aram took Ramoth in Gilead from us? Why have we done nothing to get Ramoth back? It should be our town." <sup>4</sup>So Ahab asked King Jehoshaphat, "Will you join with us and fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth?"

Jehoshaphat answered, "Yes, I will join you. My soldiers and my horses are ready to join with your army. <sup>5</sup>But first we should ask the Lord for advice."

<sup>6</sup>So Ahab called a meeting of the prophets. There were about 400 prophets at that time. Ahab asked the prophets, "Should I go and fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth? Or should I wait for another time?"

The prophets answered, "You should go and fight now. The Lord will allow you to win."

<sup>7</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Are there any other of the Lord's prophets here? If there are, we should ask him what God says."

<sup>8</sup>King Ahab answered, "There is one other prophet. His name is Micaiah son of Imlah. But I hate him. When he speaks for the Lord, he never says anything good for me. He always says things that I don't like."

Jehoshaphat said, "King Ahab, you should not say those things!"

<sup>10</sup>At that time, the two kings were wearing their royal robes. They were sitting on the thrones. This was at the judging place near the gate of Samaria. All the prophets were standing before them. The prophets were prophesying.*

<sup>11</sup>One of the prophets was named Zedekiah. He was the son of Kenaanah. Zedekiah made some iron horns.* Then he said to Ahab, "The Lord says, 'You will use these iron horns to fight against the army of Aram. You will defeat them and destroy them.'" <sup>12</sup>All the other prophets agreed with what Zedekiah said. The prophet said, "Your army should march now. They should fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth. You will win the fight. The Lord will allow you to win."

<sup>13</sup>While this was happening, the officer went to find Micaiah. The officer found Micaiah and said to him, "All the other prophets have said that the king will succeed. So I tell you that the safest thing that you can do is to say the same thing."

<sup>14</sup>But Micaiah answered, "No! I promised that by the power of the Lord I will say the things that the Lord tells me to say!"

<sup>15</sup>Then Micaiah stood before King Ahab. The king asked him, "Micaiah, should King Jehoshaphat and I join armies? And should we go now to fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth?"

Micaiah answered, "Yes! You should go and fight them now. The Lord will let you win."

<sup>16</sup>But Ahab answered, "You are not speaking by the power of the Lord. You are saying your own words. So tell me the truth! How many times do I have to tell you? Tell me what the Lord says!"

<sup>17</sup>So Micaiah answered, "I can see what will happen. The army of Israel will be scattered prophesying Speaking for God.

iron horns These were a symbol of great strength.

over the hills. They will be like sheep without anyone to lead them. This is what the Lord says, "These men have no leader. They should go home and not fight."

<sup>18</sup>Then Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "See! I told you! This prophet never says anything good about me. He always says things that I don't want to hear."

<sup>19</sup>But Micaiah continued to speak for the Lord. Micaiah said, "Listen! These are the words that the Lord says! I saw the Lord sitting on his throne in heaven. His angels were standing near him. <sup>20</sup>The Lord said, 'Will any of you trick King Ahab? I want him to go and fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth. Then he will be killed.' The angels did not agree about what they should do. <sup>21</sup>Then one angel went to the Lord and said, 'I will trick him!' <sup>22</sup>The Lord answered, 'How will you trick King Ahab?' The angel answered, 'I will confuse all of Ahab's prophets. I will tell the prophets to speak lies to King Ahab. The messages from the prophets will be lies.' So the Lord said, 'Good! Go and trick King Ahab. You will succeed.'"

<sup>23</sup>Micaiah finished his story. Then he said, "So this is what has happened here. The Lord has caused your prophets to lie to you. The Lord himself has decided that great trouble should come to you."

<sup>24</sup>Then the prophet Zedekiah went to Micaiah. Zedekiah hit Micaiah on the face. Zedekiah said, "Do you really believe that the Lord's power has left me and is now speaking through you?"

<sup>25</sup>Micaiah answered, "Soon trouble will come. At that time, you will go and hide in a small room. And you will know that I am speaking the truth!"

<sup>26</sup>Then King Ahab ordered one of his officers to arrest Micaiah. King Ahab said, "Arrest him and take him to Amon the governor of the city and prince Joash. <sup>27</sup>Tell them to put Micaiah in prison. Give him only bread and water to eat. Keep him there until I come home from the fight."

<sup>28</sup>Micaiah said loudly, "All you people listen to what I say! King Ahab, if you come home alive from that fight, then the Lord has not spoken through me."

<sup>29</sup>Then King Ahab and King Jehoshaphat went to fight against the army of Aram at Ramoth. This was in the area called Gilead. <sup>30</sup>Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "We will prepare for the fight. I will wear clothes that make me look like I am not the king. But you wear your special clothes that show you are a king." So the king of Israel began the battle dressed like a person that was not a king.

<sup>31</sup>The king of Aram had 32 chariot commanders. That king ordered these 32 chariot commanders to find the king of Israel. The king of Aram told the commanders that they must kill the king. <sup>32</sup>So during the battle, these commanders saw King Jehoshaphat. The commanders thought that he was the king of Israel. So they went to kill him. Jehoshaphat began shouting. <sup>33</sup>The commanders saw that he was not King Ahab, so they did not kill him. <sup>34</sup>But a soldier shot an arrow into the air—he was not aiming at any special person. But his arrow hit Ahab, the king of Israel. The arrow hit the king in a small place where his armor did not cover his body. So King Ahab said to his chariot driver, "An arrow has hit me! Drive the chariot out of this area. We must go away from the fighting."

prostitute(s) A woman paid by men for sexual sin. Sometimes this also means a person that is not faithful to God and stops following him.

These things happened the way the Lord said they would happen.

<sup>3</sup>All the things that King Ahab did during the time he ruled are written in the history of the kings of Israel. And that book also tells about the ivory that the king used to make his palace* more beautiful. And the book tells about the city that the king built.

Jehoshaphat, King of Judah

<sup>4</sup>During the fourth year that Ahab was king of Israel, <sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat became king of Judah. Jehoshaphat was the son of Asa. <sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat was 35 years old when he became king. Jehoshaphat ruled in Jerusalem for 25 years. Jehoshaphat's mother was named Azubah. Azubah was the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat was good. He did like his father before him. He obeyed all the things that the Lord wanted. But Jehoshaphat did not destroy the high places.* The people continued offering sacrifices* and burning incense* at those places.

<sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat made a peace agreement with the king of Israel. <sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat was very brave and fought many wars. All the things he did are written in the history of the kings of Judah. <sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat forced all the men and women that sold their bodies for sex to leave the places of worship. Those people had served in those places of worship during the time his father Asa was king.

<sup>4</sup>During this time, the land of Edom had no king. The land was ruled by a governor. The governor was chosen by the king of Judah.

<sup>4</sup>King Jehoshaphat built ships that were able to sail on the ocean. Jehoshaphat sent the ships to the land of Ophir. He wanted the ships to bring back gold. But the ships were destroyed at Ezion Geber. The ships were never able to get the gold. <sup>4</sup>King Ahaziah of Israel went to help Jehoshaphat. Ahaziah told Jehoshaphat that he would get them some men who were skilled with ships. But Jehoshaphat refused to accept Ahaziah's men.

Ahaziah, King of Israel

<sup>5</sup>Ahaziah was the son of Ahab. He became king of Israel during the 17th year that King Jehoshaphat ruled Judah. Ahaziah ruled in Samaria for two years. <sup>5</sup>Ahaziah sinned against the Lord. He did the same things as his father, Ahab, his mother Jezebel, and Jeroboam, son of Nebat had done. All these rulers led the people of Israel into more sin. <sup>5</sup>Ahaziah worshiped and served the false god Baal, like his father did before him. So Ahaziah caused the Lord God of Israel to be very angry. The Lord was angry at Ahaziah like he had been angry at his father before him.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

sacrifice(s) A gift to God. Usually it was a special animal that was killed and burned on an altar.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

died ... ancestors Literally, "slept with his ancestors."

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

A Message for Ahaziah

1 After Ahab died, Moab broke away from Israel's rule.

<sup>2</sup>One day, Ahaziah was on the roof* of his house in Samaria. Ahaziah fell down through the wooden bars on top of his house. He was hurt very badly. Ahaziah called messengers and told them, "Go to the priests of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron. Ask them if I will get well from my injuries."

<sup>3</sup>But the Lord's angel said to Elijah the Tishbite, "King Ahaziah has sent some messengers from Samaria. Go meet those men. Say to them, 'There is a God in Israel! So why are you men going to ask questions from Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?' Tell King Ahaziah these things: You sent messengers to ask questions from Baal-Zebub. Since you did this thing, the Lord says: You will not get up from your bed. You will die!" Then Elijah left and told these words to Ahaziah's servants.

<sup>4</sup>The messengers came back to Ahaziah. Ahaziah said to the messengers, "Why did you come back so soon?"

<sup>5</sup>The messengers said to Ahaziah, "A man came up to meet us. He told us to go back to the king who sent us, and tell him what the Lord says. The Lord says, 'There is a God in Israel! So why did you send messengers to ask questions from Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Since you did this thing, you will not get up from your bed. You will die!'"

<sup>7</sup>Ahaziah said to the messengers, "What did the man look like who met you and told you these things?"

<sup>8</sup>The messengers answered Ahaziah, "This man wore a hairy coat* and a leather belt around his waist."

Then Ahaziah said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite!"

Fire Destroys the Captains Sent From Ahaziah

<sup>9</sup>Ahaziah sent a captain and 50 men to Elijah. The captain went to Elijah. At that time, Elijah was sitting on top of a hill. The captain said to Elijah, "Man of God,* the king says, 'Come down.'"

<sup>10</sup>Elijah answered the captain of 50, "If I am a man of God,* let fire come down from heaven and destroy you and your 50 men!"

So fire came down from heaven and destroyed the captain and his 50 men.

<sup>11</sup>Ahaziah sent another captain and 50 men to Elijah. The captain said to Elijah, "Man of God,* the king says, 'Come down quickly!'"

<sup>12</sup>Elijah told the captain and his 50 men, "If I am a man of God,* let fire come down from heaven and destroy you and your 50 men!"

Then God's fire came down from heaven and destroyed the captain and his 50 men.

<sup>13</sup>Ahaziah sent a third captain with 50 men. The third captain of 50 came to Elijah. The captain fell down on his knees. The captain roof In ancient Israel, houses had flat roofs that were used like an extra room.

This man wore a hairy coat Or, "This man was a hairy man."

man of God Another name for a prophet.

begged Elijah, saying to him, "Man of God,* I ask you, please let my life and the lives of your 50 servants be valuable to you! <sup>14</sup>Fire came down from heaven and destroyed the first two captains and their 50 men. But now, have mercy and let us live!"

<sup>15</sup>The Lord's angel said to Elijah, "Go with the captain. Don't be afraid of him."

So Elijah went with the captain to see King Ahaziah.

<sup>16</sup>Elijah told Ahaziah, "There is a God in Israel. So why did you send messengers to ask questions from Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron. Since you did this thing, you will not get up from your bed. You will die!"

Jehoram Takes Ahaziah's Place

<sup>17</sup>Ahaziah died, just like the Lord said through Elijah. Ahaziah did not have a son. So Jehoram became the new king after Ahaziah. Jehoram began to rule in the second year that Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat was king of Judah.

<sup>18</sup>The other things that Ahaziah did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel.

The Lord Makes Plans to Take Elijah

2 It was near the time for the Lord to take Elijah by a whirlwind up into heaven. Elijah went with Elisha to Gilgal.

<sup>2</sup>Elijah said to Elisha, "Please stay here, because the Lord told me to go to Bethel."

But Elisha said, "I promise, as the Lord lives and as you live, I won't leave you." So the two men went down to Bethel.

<sup>3</sup>The group of prophets* at Bethel came to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that the Lord will take your master away from you today?"

Elisha said, "Yes, I know it. Don't talk about it."

<sup>4</sup>Elijah said to Elisha, "Please stay here, because the Lord told me to go to Jericho."

But Elisha said, "I promise, as the Lord lives and as you live, I won't leave you!" So the two men went to Jericho.

<sup>5</sup>The group of prophets* at Jericho came to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that the Lord will take your master away from you today?"

Elisha answered, "Yes, I know it. Don't talk about it."

<sup>6</sup>Elijah said to Elisha, "Please stay here, because the Lord told me to go to the Jordan River."

Elisha answered, "I promise, as the Lord lives and as you live, I won't leave you!" So the two men went on.

<sup>7</sup>There were 50 men from the group of prophets* that followed them. Elijah and Elisha stopped at the Jordan River. The 50 men stood far away from Elijah and Elisha. <sup>8</sup>Elijah took off his coat, folded it, and hit the water with it. The water separated to the right and to the left. Then Elijah and Elisha crossed the river on dry ground.

<sup>9</sup>After they crossed the river, Elijah said to Elisha, "What do you want me to do for you before God takes me away from you?"

Elisha said, "I ask you for a double share of your spirit on me."

<sup>10</sup>Elijah said, "You have asked a hard thing. If you see me when I am taken from you, then that will happen. But if you don't see me when I am taken from you, then it won't happen."

God Takes Elijah into Heaven

<sup>11</sup>Elijah and Elisha were walking and talking together. Suddenly, some horses and a chariot* came and separated Elijah from Elisha. The horses and the chariot were like fire! Then Elijah went up into heaven in a whirlwind.

<sup>12</sup>Elisha saw it, and shouted, "My father! My father! The Chariot of Israel and his horse soldiers!*"

Elisha never saw Elijah again. Elisha grabbed his own clothes and tore them, to show his sadness.<sup>13</sup> Elijah's coat had fallen to the ground, so Elisha picked it up. Elisha hit the water and said, "Where is the Lord, the God of Elijah?"

<sup>14</sup>Just as Elisha hit the water, the water separated to the right and to the left! And Elisha crossed the river.

The Prophets Ask for Elijah

<sup>15</sup>When the group of prophets* at Jericho saw Elisha, they said, "Elijah's spirit is now on Elisha!" They came to meet Elisha. They bowed very low to the ground before Elisha. <sup>16</sup>They said to him, "Look, we have 50 good men. Please let them go and look for your master. Maybe the Lord's Spirit has taken Elijah up and dropped him on some mountain or into some valley."

But Elisha answered, "No, don't send men to look for Elijah!"

<sup>17</sup>The group of prophets* begged Elisha until he was embarrassed. Then Elisha said, "Fine, send the men to look for Elijah."

The group of prophets* sent the 50 men to look for Elijah. They looked three days, but they could not find Elijah. <sup>18</sup>So the men went to Jericho, where Elisha was staying. They told him that they could not find Elijah. Elisha said to them, "I told you not to go."

Elisha Makes the Water Good

<sup>19</sup>The men of the city said to Elisha, "Sir, you can see this city is in a nice place. But the water is bad. That is why the land cannot grow crops."

<sup>20</sup>Elisha said, "Bring me a new bowl and put salt in it."

The people brought the bowl to Elisha. <sup>21</sup>Then Elisha went out to the place where the water began flowing from the ground. Elisha threw the salt into the water. He said, "The Lord said, 'I am making this water pure! From now on this water will not cause any more death or keep the land from growing crops.'"

group of prophets Literally, "sons of the prophets." These people were prophets and people studying to become prophets.

<sup>22</sup>The water became pure. And the water is still good today. It happened just like Elisha said.

Some Boys Make Fun of Elisha

<sup>23</sup>Elisha went from that city to Bethel. Elisha was walking up the hill to the city, and some boys were coming down out of the city. They began making fun of Elisha. They said to him, "Go up, you bald headed man! Go up, you bald headed man!"

<sup>24</sup>Elisha looked back and saw them. He asked the Lord to cause bad things to happen to them. Then two bears came out of the forest and attacked the boys. There were 42 boys ripped apart by the bears.

Jehoram Becomes King of Israel

3 Jehoram son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria. He began to rule during Jehoshaphat's 18th year as king of Judah. Jehoram ruled 12 years. <sup>1</sup>Jehoram did the things that the Lord said were wrong. But Jehoram was not like his father and mother, because he put away the pillar that his father had made for worshipping Baal.* <sup>2</sup>But he continued to do the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat. Jeroboam caused the Israelites to sin. Jehoram did not stop the sins of Jeroboam.

Moab Breaks Away from Israel

<sup>4</sup>Mesha was the king of Moab. Mesha owned many sheep. Mesha gave the wool of 100,000 lambs and 100,000 rams* to the king of Israel. <sup>5</sup>But when Ahab died, the king of Moab broke away from the rule of the king of Israel.

rams Male sheep.

sent messengers to Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah. Jehoram said, "The king of Moab has broken away from my rule. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?"

Jehoshaphat said, "Yes, I will go with you. I am the same as you; my people are the same as your people; and my horses are the same as your horses."

The Three Kings Ask Elisha

Jehoshaphat asked Jehoram, "Which way should we go?"

Jehoram answered, "We should go through the Desert of Edom."

So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. They traveled around for seven days. There was not enough water for the army or for their animals.

Finally, the king of Israel (Jehoram) said, "Oh! The Lord really called us three kings together to let the Moabites defeat us!"

"But Jehoshaphat said, 'Surely one of the Lord's prophets is here. Let's ask the prophet what the Lord says we should do.'"

One of the servants of the king of Israel said, "Elisha son of Shaphat is here. Elisha was Elijah's servant."*

Jehoshaphat said, "The Lord's word is with Elisha!"

The Three Kings Ask Elisha

So the king of Israel (Jehoram), Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to see Elisha.

Elisha said to the king of Israel (Jehoram), "I have nothing to do with you! Go to your father's prophets, and to your mother's prophets!"

The king of Israel said to Elisha, "No, we have come to see you, because the Lord called us three kings together to let the Moabites defeat us. We need your help."

Elisha said, "I serve the Lord All-Powerful. I promise, as sure as he lives; I tell you the truth: I would not look at you or notice you if Jehoshaphat king of Judah were not here. <sup>15</sup>But now bring me a person who plays the harp."

When the person played the harp, the Lord's power* came on Elisha. <sup>16</sup>Then Elisha said, "This is what the Lord says: Dig holes in the valley. <sup>17</sup>This is what the Lord says: You won't see wind, you won't see rain. But that valley will be filled with water. Then you and your cows and other animals will have water to drink. <sup>18</sup>It is easy for the Lord to do. He will also let you defeat the Moabites. <sup>19</sup>You will attack every strong city and every good city. You will cut down every good tree. You will stop all springs of water. You will ruin every good field with the stones you throw at it."

<sup>20</sup>In the morning, at the time for the morning sacrifice, water began flowing through the road from Edom and filled the valley.

<sup>21</sup>The people in Moab heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. So the people in Moab gathered together all the men old enough to wear armor.* They waited at the border, ready for the battle. <sup>22</sup>The people of Moab got up early that morning. The rising sun was shining on the water in the valley, and it looked like blood to the people of Moab. <sup>23</sup>The people of Moab said, "Look at the blood! The kings must have fought against each other. They must have destroyed each other. Let's go take the valuable things from the dead bodies!"

<sup>24</sup>The Moabite people came to the Israelite camp. But the Israelites came out and attacked the Moabite army. The Moabite people ran away from the Israelites. The Israelites went on into the land to fight the Moabites. <sup>25</sup>The Israelites beat down the cities. They threw their stones* at every good field in Moab. They stopped up all the springs of water. And they cut down all the good trees. The Israelites fought all the way to Kir-Hareseth. The soldiers surrounded Kir-Hareseth and attacked it, too!

power Literally, "hand."

armor The special clothes soldiers wore to protect themselves in war.

threw their stones These were probably the stones soldiers threw with slings in war.

was Elijah's servant Literally, "poured water over Elijah's hands."

<sup>26</sup>The king of Moab saw that the battle was too strong for him. So he took 700 men with swords to break through to kill the king of Edom. But they could not break through to the king of Edom. <sup>27</sup>Then the king of Moab took his oldest son, who would have become king after him. On the wall around the city, the king of Moab offered his son as a burnt offering. This made the people of Israel very upset. So the people of Israelite left the king of Moab, and went back to their own land.

A Prophet's Widow Asks Elisha for Help

4 A man from the group of prophets* had a wife. [This man died.] His wife cried out to Elisha, "My husband was like a servant to you. Now my husband is dead! You know he honored the Lord. But he owed money to a man. And now that man is coming to take my boys to make them his slaves!"

<sup>1</sup>Elisha answered, "How can I help you? Tell me, what do you have in your house?"

The woman said, "I don't have anything in the house. I have only a jar of olive oil."

<sup>2</sup>Then Elisha said, "Go and borrow bowls from all your neighbors. They must be empty. Borrow plenty of bowls. <sup>3</sup>Then go to your house and close the doors. Only you and your sons will be in the house. Then pour the oil into all these bowls. Fill those bowls, and put them in a separate place."

<sup>4</sup>So the woman left Elisha, went into her house, and shut the door. Only she and her sons were in the house. Her sons brought the bowls to her and she poured oil. <sup>5</sup>She filled many bowls. Finally, she said to her son, "Bring me another bowl."

But all of the bowls were full. One of the sons said to the woman, "There aren't any more bowls." At that time, the oil in the jar was finished!

<sup>6</sup>Then the woman came and told the man of God* (Elisha). Elisha told her, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt. After you have sold the oil and paid your debt, you and your sons can live on the money that is left."

A Woman in Shunem Gives Elisha a Room

<sup>7</sup>One day Elisha went to Shunem. An important woman lived in Shunem. This woman asked Elisha to stop and eat at her house. So every time Elisha went through that place, he stopped there to eat food.

<sup>8</sup>The woman said to her husband, "Look, I can see that Elisha is a holy man of God. He passes by our house all the time. <sup>9</sup>Please, let's make a little room on the roof* for Elisha. Let's put a bed in this room. Let's put a table, a chair, and a lampstand there. Then when he comes to our house, he can have this room for himself."

<sup>10</sup>One day Elisha came to the woman's house. He went to this room and rested there. <sup>11</sup>Elisha said to his servant Gehazi, "Call this Shunammite woman."

The servant called the Shunammite woman, and she stood in front of Elisha. <sup>12</sup>Elisha told his servant, "Now say to this woman, 'Look, you have done your best to take care of us. What can we do for you? Do you want us to speak to the king for you, or to the captain of the army?'"

The woman answered, "I am fine living here among my own people."

<sup>13</sup>Elisha said to Gehazi, "What can we do for her?"

Gehazi answered, "I know! She doesn't have a son, and her husband is old."

<sup>14</sup>Then Elisha said, "Call her."

So Gehazi called the woman. She came and stood at his door. <sup>15</sup>Elisha said to the woman, "About this time next spring, you will be hugging your own baby boy."

The woman said, "No sir! Man of God,* don't lie to me!"

group of prophets Literally, "sons of the prophets."

These people were prophets and people studying to become prophets.

man of God Another name for a prophet.

room on the roof In ancient Israel, houses had flat roofs that were used like an extra room.

The Woman in Shunem Has a Son

<sup>17</sup>But the woman did become pregnant. She gave birth to a son that next spring, just like Elisha said.

<sup>18</sup>The boy grew. One day, the boy went out into the fields to see his father and the men cutting the grain. <sup>19</sup>The boy said to his father, "Oh, my head! My head hurts!"

The father said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother!"

<sup>20</sup>The servant took the boy to his mother. The boy sat on his mother's lap until noon. Then he died.

The Woman Goes to See Elisha

<sup>21</sup>The woman lay the boy on the bed of the man of God* (Elisha). Then she shut the door and went out. <sup>22</sup>She called to her husband and said, "Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys. Then I will go quickly to get the man of God (Elisha) and come back."

<sup>23</sup>The woman's husband said, "Why do you want to go to the man of God (Elisha) today? It isn't the New Moon* or Sabbath day*."

She said, "Don't worry. Everything will be all right."

<sup>24</sup>Then she put a saddle on a donkey and said to her servant, "Let's go, and hurry! Go slow only when I tell you!"

<sup>25</sup>The woman went to Mount Carmel to get the man of God* (Elisha).

The man of God* (Elisha) saw the Shunammite woman coming from far away. Elisha said to his servant Gehazi, "Look, there's the Shunammite woman! <sup>26</sup>Please run now to meet her! Say to her, 'What's wrong? Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is the child all right?'"

Gehazi asked the Shunammite woman these things. She answered, "Everything is fine."

<sup>27</sup>But the Shunammite woman went up the hill to the man of God* (Elisha). She bowed down and held Elisha's feet. Gehazi came near to pull the Shunammite woman away. But the man of God (Elisha) said to Gehazi, "Let her alone! She's very upset, and the Lord didn't tell me about it. The Lord hid this news from me."

<sup>28</sup>Then the Shunammite woman said, "Sir, I didn't ask for a son. I told you, 'Don't fool me!'"

<sup>29</sup>Then Elisha said to Gehazi, "Get ready to go. Take my walking stick and go! Don't stop to talk to anyone! If you meet any person, don't even say hello to him. If any person says hello to you, don't answer him. Put my walking stick on the child's face."

<sup>30</sup>But the child's mother said, "I promise, as the Lord lives and as you live, I won't leave without you!"

So Elisha got up and followed the Shunammite woman.

<sup>31</sup>Gehazi arrived at the Shunammite woman's house, before Elisha and the Shunammite woman. Gehazi laid the walking stick on the child's face. But the child did not talk or show any sign that he heard anything. Then Gehazi came back to meet Elisha. Gehazi told Elisha, "The child won't wake up!"

The Shunammite Woman's Son Lives Again

<sup>32</sup>Elisha came into the house. And there was the child, lying dead on his bed. <sup>33</sup>Elisha entered the room and shut the door. Elisha and the child were alone in the room now. Then Elisha prayed to the Lord. <sup>34</sup>Elisha went to the bed, and lay on the child. Elisha put his mouth on the child's mouth. Elisha put his eyes on the child's eyes. Elisha put his hands on the child's hands. Elisha stretched himself on top of the child. Then the child's body became warm.

<sup>35</sup>Elisha came out of the room and walked around in the house. Then he went back into room, and put himself on the child. Then the child sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

<sup>36</sup>Elisha called Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite woman!"

Gehazi called the Shunammite woman, and she came to Elisha. Elisha said, "Pick up your son."

man of God Another name for a prophet.

New Moon This was the first day of the Hebrew month.

There were special meetings on these days to worship God.

Sabbath day Saturday. A special day of rest and worship for the Jews.

<sup>37</sup>Then the Shunammite woman went into the room, and bowed down at Elisha's feet. Then she picked up her son and went out.

Elisha and the Poisoned Soup

<sup>38</sup>Elisha came to Gilgal again. There was a time of hunger in the land. The group of prophets* was sitting in front of Elisha. Elisha said to his servant, "Put the large pot on the fire, and make some soup for the group of prophets."

<sup>39</sup>One man went out into the field to gather herbs. He found a wild vine. He picked wild gourds from this vine and filled a pocket of his robe with them. Then he came and put the wild gourds into the pot. But the group of prophets* did not know what kind of gourds they were.

<sup>40</sup>Then they poured some of the soup for the men to eat. But when they began to eat the soup, they shouted out to Elisha, "Man of God*! There's poison in the pot!" They could not eat from the pot because the food was not safe to eat.

<sup>41</sup>But Elisha said, "Bring some flour." They brought flour to Elisha, and he threw it into the pot. Then Elisha said, "Pour the soup for the people so they can eat."

And there was nothing wrong with the soup!

Elisha Feeds the Group of Prophets

<sup>42</sup>A man from Baal-Shalishah came and brought bread from the first harvest to the man of God* (Elisha). This man brought 20 loaves of barley bread and fresh grain in his sack. Then Elisha said, "Give this food to the people, so that they can eat."

<sup>43</sup>Elisha's servant said, "What? There are 100 men here. How can I give this food to all those men?"

But Elisha said, "Give the food to the people to eat. The Lord says, 'They will eat and will have food left over.'"

group of prophets Literally, "sons of the prophets."

These people were prophets and people studying to become prophets.

man of God Another name for a prophet.

<sup>44</sup>Then Elisha's servant put the food in front of the group of prophets.* The group of prophets had enough to eat, and they even had food left over! This happened just like the Lord said.

Naaman's Problem

5 Naaman was the captain of the army of the king of Aram. Naaman was very important to his king.* Naaman was very important because the Lord used him to lead Aram to victory. Naaman was a great and powerful man, but he was also sick with leprosy.*

<sup>2</sup>The Aramean army sent many groups of soldiers to fight in Israel. The soldiers took people to be their slaves. One time they took a little girl from the land of Israel. This little girl became a servant of Naaman's wife. <sup>3</sup>This girl said to Naaman's wife, "I wish that my master (Naaman) would meet the prophet (Elisha) who lives in Samaria. That prophet could heal Naaman of his leprosy.*"

<sup>4</sup>Naaman went to his master (the king of Aram). Naaman told the king of Aram, the things that the Israelite girl said.

<sup>5</sup>Then the king of Aram said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel."

So Naaman went to Israel. Naaman took some gifts with him. Naaman took 750 pounds* of silver, 6,000 pieces of gold and ten changes of clothes. <sup>6</sup>Naaman took the letter from the king of Aram to the king of Israel. The letter said: "... Now, this letter is to show that I am sending my servant Naaman to you. Cure his leprosy.*"

<sup>7</sup>When the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes to show he was sad and upset. The king of Israel said, "Am I God? No! I don't have the power over life and death. So why did the king of Aram send a man sick with leprosy* for me to heal? Think about it, and you will see that it is a trick. The king of Aram is trying to start a fight!"

king Literally, "master."

leprosy A very bad skin disease.

750 pounds Literally, "10 talents."

<sup>9</sup>Elisha, the man of God,* heard that the king of Israel was upset and tore his clothes. Elisha sent this message to the king: "Why did you tear your clothes? Let Naaman come to me. Then he will know there is a prophet in Israel!"

<sup>9</sup>So Naaman came with his horses and his chariots* to Elisha's house and stood outside the door. <sup>10</sup>Elisha sent a messenger to Naaman. The messenger said, "Go, and wash in the Jordan River seven times. Then your skin will be healed, and you will be pure and clean."

<sup>11</sup>Naaman became angry and left. He said, "I thought Elisha would at least come out and stand in front of me and call on the name of the Lord his God. I thought he would wave his hand over my body and heal the leprosy*!"

<sup>12</sup>Abana and Parpar, the rivers of Damascus, are better than all the water in Israel! Why can't I wash in those rivers in Damascus and become clean?" So Naaman turned away. He was angry!

<sup>13</sup>But Naaman's servants went to him and talked to him. They said, "Father,* if the prophet told you to do some great thing, you would do it! Right? So you should obey him even if he tells you something easy. And he said, 'Wash, and you will be pure and clean.'"

<sup>14</sup>So Naaman did the things that the man of God* (Elisha) said. Naaman went down and dipped himself in the Jordan River seven times. And Naaman became pure and clean! Naaman's skin became soft like the skin of a baby.

<sup>15</sup>Naaman and all his group came back to the man of God* (Elisha). He stood before Elisha and said, "Look, I now know there is no God in all the earth except in Israel! Now please accept a gift from me!"

<sup>16</sup>But Elisha said, "I serve the Lord. And I promise, as the Lord lives, I will not accept any gift."

Naaman tried hard to make Elisha take the gift, but Elisha refused. <sup>17</sup>Then Naaman said,

"If you won't accept this gift, then at least do this for me. Let me have enough dirt from Israel to fill the baskets on two of my mules.* Why? Because I will never again offer any burnt offering or sacrifice to any other gods. I will offer sacrifices only to the Lord! <sup>18</sup>And I now pray the Lord will forgive me for this thing: In the future, my master (the king of Aram) will go into the temple of Rimmon to worship that false god. The king will want to lean on me for support, so I must bow down in the temple of Rimmon. I now ask the Lord to forgive me when that happens."

<sup>19</sup>Then Elisha said to Naaman, "Go in peace."

So Naaman left Elisha and went a short way. <sup>20</sup>But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God,* said, "Look, my master (Elisha) has let Naaman the Aramean go without accepting the gift that he brought! As the Lord lives, I will run after Naaman and get something from him!" <sup>21</sup>So Gehazi ran to Naaman.

Naaman saw someone running after him. He stepped down from the chariot* to meet Gehazi. Naaman said, "Is everything all right?"

<sup>22</sup>Gehazi said, "Yes, everything is all right. My master (Elisha) has sent me. He said, 'Look, two young men from the group of prophets* in the hill country of Ephraim came to me. Please give them 75 pounds* of silver and two changes of clothes!'"

<sup>23</sup>Naaman said, "Please, take 150 pounds*!" Naaman persuaded Gehazi to take the silver. Naaman put 150 pounds* of silver in two bags and took two changes of clothes. Then Naaman gave these things to two of his servants. The servants carried these things for Gehazi. <sup>24</sup>When Gehazi came to the hill, he took these things from the servants. Gehazi sent the servants away, and they left. Then Gehazi hid those things in the house.

<sup>25</sup>Gehazi came in and stood before his master [Elisha]. Elisha said to Gehazi, "Where have you been Gehazi?"

Gehazi said, "I did not go anywhere."

<sup>26</sup>Elisha said to Gehazi, "That is not true! My heart was with you when the man [Naaman] turned from his chariot* to meet you. This is not the time to take money, clothes, olives, grapes, sheep, cows, or men and women servants. <sup>27</sup>Now, you and your children will catch Naaman's disease. You will have leprosy* forever!"

When Gehazi left Elisha, Gehazi's skin was as white as snow! Gehazi was sick with leprosy.*

Elisha and the Axhead

6 The group of prophets* said to Elisha, "We are staying in that place over there. But it is too small for us. <sup>1</sup>Let's go to the Jordan River and cut some wood. Each of us will get a log and we will build us a place to live there."

Elisha answered, "Fine, go and do it."

<sup>1</sup>One person said, "Please go with us."

Elisha said, "Fine, I will go with you."

<sup>2</sup>So Elisha went with the group of prophets.* When they arrived at the Jordan River, they began to cut down some trees. <sup>3</sup>But when one man was cutting down a tree, the iron axhead slipped from the axe and fell into the water. The man shouted, "Oh, master! I borrowed that axe!"

<sup>4</sup>The man of God* (Elisha) said, "Where did it fall?"

The man showed Elisha the place where the axhead fell. Then Elisha cut a stick and threw the stick into the water. The stick made the iron axhead float. <sup>5</sup>Elisha said, "Pick up the axhead." Then the man reached out and took the axhead.

Aram's King Tries to Trap Israel's King

<sup>8</sup>The king of Aram was making war against Israel. He had a council meeting with his army officers. He said, "Hide in this place and attack the Israelites when they come by."

<sup>9</sup>But the man of God* (Elisha) sent a message to the king of Israel. Elisha said, "Be careful! Don't go by that place! The Aramean soldiers are hiding there!"

<sup>10</sup>The king of Israel sent a message to his men at the place that the man of God* (Elisha) warned him about. And the king of Israel saved quite a few men.*

<sup>11</sup>The king of Aram was very upset about this. The king of Aram called his army officers and said to them, "Tell me who is spying, for the king of Israel."

<sup>12</sup>One of the officers of the king of Aram said, "My lord and king, not one of us is a spy! Elisha, the prophet from Israel, can tell the king of Israel many secret things—even, the words that you speak in your bedroom!"

<sup>13</sup>The king of Aram said, "Find Elisha and I will send men to catch him!"

The servants told the king of Aram, "Elisha is in Dothan!"

<sup>14</sup>Then the king of Aram sent horses, chariots,* and a large army to Dothan. They arrived at night and surrounded the city. <sup>15</sup>Elisha's servant got up early that morning. The servant went outside, and he saw an army with horses and chariots all around the city!

Elisha's servant said to Elisha, "Oh, my master, what can we do?"

<sup>16</sup>Elisha said, "Don't be afraid! The army that fights for us is larger than the army that fights for Aram!"

<sup>17</sup>Then Elisha prayed and said, "Lord, I ask you, open my servant's eyes so he can see."

The Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and the servant saw the mountain was full of horses and chariots* of fire. They were all around Elisha!

<sup>18</sup>These horses and chariots* of fire came down to Elisha. Elisha prayed to the Lord and said, "I pray that you will cause these people to become blind."

quite a few men Literally, "not one or two."

Then the Lord caused the Aramean army to become blind, as Elisha asked. <sup>19</sup>Elisha said to the Aramean army, "This is not the right way. This is not the right city. Follow me. I will lead you to the man you are looking for." Then Elisha led the Aramean army to Samaria.

<sup>20</sup>When they arrived at Samaria,* Elisha said, "Lord, open these men's eyes so they can see."

Then the Lord opened their eyes, and the Aramean army saw they were in the city of Samaria!<sup>21</sup> The king of Israel saw the Aramean army. The king of Israel said to Elisha, "My father, should I kill them? Should I kill them?"

<sup>22</sup>Elisha answered, "No, don't kill them. You would not kill people that you captured in war with your sword and with your bow and arrows. Give the Aramean army some bread and water. Let them eat and drink. Then let them go home to their master."

<sup>23</sup>The king of Israel prepared much food for the Aramean army. The Aramean army ate and drank. Then the king of Israel sent the Aramean army back home. The Aramean army went home to their master. The Arameans did not send any more soldiers into the land of Israel to make raids.

A Terrible Time of Hunger Hits Samaria

<sup>24</sup>After this happened, Ben-Hadad king of Aram gathered all his army and went to surround and attack the city Samaria. <sup>25</sup>The soldiers would not let people bring food into the city. So there was a time of terrible hunger in Samaria. It was so bad in Samaria that a donkey's head was sold for 80 pieces of silver. And 1 pint* of dove's dung sold for five pieces of silver.

<sup>26</sup>The king of Israel was walking on the wall around the city. A woman shouted out to him. The woman said, "My lord and king, please help me!"

<sup>27</sup>The king of Israel said, "If the Lord does not help you, how can I help you? I have nothing to give to you—there is no grain, from the threshing floor* or wine, from the winepress."<sup>28</sup> Then the king of Israel said to the woman, "What is your trouble?"

The woman answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give me your son so that we can kill him and eat him today. Then we will eat my son tomorrow.'<sup>29</sup> So we boiled my son and ate him. Then the next day, I said to this woman, 'Give me your son so we can kill him and eat him.' But she has hidden her son!"

<sup>30</sup>When the king heard the woman's words, he tore his clothes to show he was upset. As the king passed by on the wall, the people saw the king was wearing under his clothes the rough cloth that showed he was sad and upset.

<sup>31</sup>The king said, "May God punish me if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat is still on his body at the end of this day!"

<sup>32</sup>The king sent a messenger to Elisha. Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders (leaders) were sitting with him. Before the messenger arrived, Elisha said to the elders, "Look, that son of a murderer (the king of Israel) is sending men to cut off my head! When the messenger arrives, shut the door! Hold the door and don't let him enter! I hear the sound of his master's feet coming behind him!"

<sup>33</sup>While Elisha was still talking with the elders (leaders), the messenger came to him. This was the message: "This trouble has come from the Lord! Why should I wait for the Lord any longer?"

7 Elisha said, "Listen to the message from the Lord! The Lord says: 'About this time tomorrow, there will be plenty of food, and it will be cheap again. A person will be able to buy a basket* of fine flour or two baskets* of barley for only one shekel* in the market place by the city gates of Samaria.'"

threshing floor A place where grain is beaten or walked on to remove the hulls from the grain.

basket(s) Literally, "seah(s)."

shekel Or, "2/3 of an ounce."

Samaria This was the capital city of Israel—the enemy of Aram.

1 pint Literally, "1/4 cab."

<sup>2</sup>Then the officer that was close to the king* answered the man of God* (Elisha). The officer said, "Even if the Lord made windows in heaven, this could not happen!"

Elisha said, "You will see it with your own eyes. But you will not eat any of that food."

Lepers Find the Aramean Camp Is Empty

<sup>3</sup>There were four men sick with leprosy* near the city gate. They said to each other, "Why are we sitting here waiting to die? 'There is no food in the Samaria. If we go into the city, we will die there. If we stay here, we will die, too. So let us go to the Aramean camp. If they let us live, then we will live. If they kill us, then we will just die.

<sup>4</sup>So that evening the four lepers* went to the Aramean camp. They came to the edge of the Aramean camp. No people were there! <sup>5</sup>The Lord had caused the Aramean army to hear the sound of chariots,* horses, and a large army. So the Aramean soldiers said to each other, "The king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites and Egyptians to come against us!"

<sup>6</sup>The Arameans ran away early that evening. They left everything behind. They left their tents, horses, and donkeys, and they ran for their lives.

The Lepers Take Things from the Aramean Camp

<sup>7</sup>When these lepers* came to where the camp began, they went into one tent. They ate and drank. Then the four lepers* carried silver, gold, and clothes out of the camp. They hid the silver, gold, and clothes. Then they came back and entered another tent. They carried things out from this tent. They went out and hid these things. <sup>8</sup>Then these lepers* said to each other, "We are doing wrong! Today we have good news. But we are silent. If we wait until the sun comes up, we will be punished. Now let us go and tell the people who live in the king's house."

The Lepers Tell the Good News

<sup>9</sup>So these lepers* came and called to the gate-keepers of the city. The lepers told the gate-keepers, "We went to the Aramean camp. But we did not hear any people. No people were there. The horses and donkeys were still tied up, and the tents were still standing. But the people were all gone!"

<sup>10</sup>Then the gate-keepers of the city shouted out and told the people in the king's house. <sup>11</sup>It was night, but the king got up from bed. The king said to his officers, "I will tell you what the Aramean soldiers are doing to us. They know we are hungry. They left the camp to hide in the field. They are thinking, 'When the Israelites come out of the city, we will capture them alive. And then we will enter the city.'"

<sup>12</sup>One of the king's officers said, "Let some men take five of the horses that are still left in the city. The horses will soon die anyway, just like all the people of Israel that are still left in the city.* Let's send these men to see what happened."

<sup>13</sup>So the men took two chariots* with horses. The king sent these men after the Aramean army. The king told them, "Go and see what happened."

<sup>14</sup>The men went after the Aramean army as far as the Jordan River. All along the road there were clothes and weapons. The Arameans had thrown these things down when they hurried away. The messengers went back to Samaria and told the king.

<sup>15</sup>Then the people ran out to the Aramean camp and took valuable things from there. There was plenty for everyone. So it happened just like the Lord said. A person could buy a basket* of fine flour or two baskets* of barley for only one shekel.*

that was close to the king Literally, "on whose arm the king leaned."

man of God Another name for a prophet.

leprosy A very bad skin disease.

lepers People sick with leprosy.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

The horses ... city The Hebrew is hard to understand here.

basket(s) Literally, "seah(s)."

shekel Or, "2/5 of an ounce."

"The king chose his officer that was close to him to guard the gate. But the people ran to get food from the enemy camp. The people knocked the officer down and walked on him, and he died. So all those things happened just like the man of God* (Elisha) said when the king came to Elisha's house. <sup>18</sup>Elisha had said, "A person will be able to buy a basket* of fine flour or two baskets* of barley for only one shekel* in the market place by the city gates of Samaria." <sup>19</sup>But that officer had answered the man of God, "Even if the Lord made windows in heaven, this could not happen!" And Elisha had told the officer, "You will see it with your own eyes. But you will not eat any of that food." <sup>20</sup>It happened to the officer just that way. The people knocked him down at the gate and walked on him, and he died.

Elisha Tells the Shunammite Woman to Move

8 Elisha talked to the woman whose son he had brought back to life. Elisha said, "You and your family should move to another country. Why? Because the Lord has decided that there will be a time of hunger here. This time of hunger will be in this country for seven years."

<sup>2</sup>So the woman did what the man of God* said. She went with her family to stay in the land of the Philistines for seven years. <sup>3</sup>After the seven years were finished, the woman came back from the land of the Philistines.

The woman went to speak with the king. She wanted to ask him to help her get back her house and land.

"The king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God* (Elisha). The king said to Gehazi, "Please tell me all the great things Elisha has done."

<sup>1</sup>Gehazi was telling the king about Elisha bringing a dead person back to life. At that time, the woman whose son Elisha brought back to life went to the king. She wanted to ask him to help her get back her house and land. Gehazi said, "My lord and king, this is the woman! And this is the son that Elisha brought back to life!"

<sup>4</sup>The king asked the woman what she wanted. And the woman told him.

Then the king chose an officer to help the woman. The king said, "Give to the woman all that belongs to her. And give her all the harvest of her land from the day she left the country until now."

Ben-Hadad Sends Hazael to Elisha

<sup>1</sup>Elisha went to Damascus. Ben-Hadad king of Aram was sick. A person told Ben-Hadad, "The man of God* has come here."

<sup>2</sup>Then the King Ben-Hadad said to Hazael, "Take a gift, and go to meet the man of God.* Ask him to ask the Lord if I will get well from my sickness."

<sup>3</sup>So Hazael went to meet Elisha. Hazael brought a gift with him. He brought all kinds of good things from Damascus. It took 40 camels to carry everything. Hazael went to Elisha. Hazael said, "Your follower* Ben-Hadad king of Aram sent me to you. He asks if he will get well from his sickness."

<sup>4</sup>Then Elisha said to Hazael, "Go and tell Ben-Hadad, 'You will live.*' But really the Lord told me, 'He will surely die.'"

Elisha Makes a Prophecy About Hazael

<sup>1</sup>Elisha kept looking at Hazael, until Hazael felt embarrassed. Then the man of God* cried. <sup>2</sup>Hazael said, "Sir, why are you crying?"

Elisha answered, "I am crying because I know the bad things you will do to the Israelites. You will burn their strong cities. You will kill their young men with swords. You will kill their babies. You will split open their pregnant women."

<sup>3</sup>Hazael said, "I am not a powerful man!* I can't do these great things!"

follower Literally, "son."

You will live Some ancient Hebrew copies say, "You will surely not get well."

I am not a powerful man Literally, "I am only a dog."

man of God Another name for a prophet.

basket(s) Literally, "seah(s)."

shekel Or, "2/5 of an ounce."

Elisha answered, "The Lord showed me that you will be king over Aram."

<sup>16</sup>Then Hazael left Elisha, and went to his king.* Ben-Hadad said to Hazael, "What did Elisha say to you?"

Hazael answered, "Elisha told me that you will live."

Hazael Murders Ben-Hadad

<sup>15</sup>But the next day, Hazael took a cover and dipped it in water. Then he put the cover on Ben-Hadad's face and smothered him. Ben-Hadad died. So Hazael became the new king.

Jehoram Begins His Rule

<sup>16</sup>Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah. Jehoram began to rule in the fifth year that Joram son of Ahab was king of Israel. <sup>17</sup>Jehoram was 32 years old when he began to rule. He ruled eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>But Jehoram lived like the kings of Israel and did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Jehoram lived like the people from Ahab's family. Jehoram lived like this because his wife was Ahab's daughter. <sup>19</sup>But the Lord would not destroy Judah because of the promise to his servant David. The Lord had promised David that one from his family would always be king.

<sup>20</sup>In Jehoram's time Edom broke away from Judah's rule. The people of Edom chose a king for themselves.

<sup>21</sup>Then Jehoram and all his chariots* went to Zair. The Edomite army surrounded them. Jehoram and his officers attacked them and escaped. Jehoram's soldiers all ran away and went home. <sup>22</sup>So the Edomites broke away from the rule of Judah. And they have been free from the rule of Judah until today.

At the same time, Libnah also broke away from Judah's rule.

<sup>23</sup>All the things Jehoram did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah.

king Literally, "master."

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

<sup>24</sup>Jehoram died and, was buried with his ancestors* in the City of David.* Jehoram's son Ahaziah became the new king.

Ahaziah Begins His Rule

<sup>25</sup>Ahaziah son of Jehoram became the king of Judah in the 12th year that Joram son of Ahab was king of Israel. <sup>26</sup>Ahaziah was 22 years old when he began to rule. He ruled one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah. She was the daughter of Omri king of Israel. <sup>27</sup>Ahaziah did the things the Lord said were wrong. Ahaziah lived like the people from Ahab's family. Ahaziah lived like this because he was Ahab's son-in-law.

Joram Is Hurt in the War Against Hazael

<sup>28</sup>Ahaziah went with Joram, Ahab's son, to fight against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram. King Joram went back to Israel so he could get well from the wounds that he received at that place. Joram went to the area of Jezreel. Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went to Jezreel to see Ahab's son, Joram.

Elisha Tells a Young Prophet to Anoint Jehu

9 Elisha the prophet called one of the group of prophets.* Elisha said to this man, "Get ready and take this small bottle of oil in your hand. Go to Ramoth-Gilead. <sup>2</sup>When you arrive there, find Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Then go in and make him get up from among his brothers. Take him to an inner room. <sup>3</sup>Take the small bottle of oil and pour the oil on Jehu's head. Say, 'This is what the Lord says: I have anointed* you to be the new king over

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

group of prophets Literally, "sons of the prophets." These people were prophets and people studying to become prophets.

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

Israel.' Then open the door and run away. Don't wait!"

"So this young man, the prophet, went to Ramoth-Gilead. When the young man arrived, he saw, the captains of the army sitting. The young man said, "Captain, I have a message for you."

Jehu said, "We all are here. Which one of us is the message for?"

The young man said, "The message is for you, captain."

Jehu got up and went into the house. Then the young prophet poured the oil on Jehu's head. The young prophet said to Jehu, "The Lord God of Israel says, 'I am anointing* you to be the new king over the Lord's people, Israel. You must destroy the family of Ahab your king. In this way I will punish Jezebel for the deaths of my servants, the prophets, and the deaths of all the Lord's servants that were murdered. So all Ahab's family will die. I will not let any male child in Ahab's family live. It doesn't matter if that male child is a slave or a free person in Israel. I will make Ahab's family like the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and like the family of Baasha son of Ahijah. The dogs will eat Jezebel in the area of Jezreel. Jezebel will not be buried."

Then the young prophet opened the door and ran away.

The Servants Announce Jehu as King

"Jehu went back to his king's officers. One of the officers said to Jehu, "Is everything all right? Why did this crazy man come to you?"

Jehu answered the servants, "You know the man and the crazy things he says."

"The officers said, "No! Tell us the truth. What did he say?" Jehu told the officers the things that the young prophet said. Jehu said, "He said, 'This is what the Lord says: I have anointed you to be the new king over Israel.'"

"Then each officer quickly took his robe off and put it on the steps in front of Jehu. Then they blew the trumpet and made the announcement, "Jehu is king!"

Jehu Goes to Jezreel

"So Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi, made plans against Joram.

At that time, Joram and the Israelites had been trying to defend Ramoth-Gilead from Hazael king of Aram. But King Joram had to come back to Israel to get well from the injuries the Arameans gave him. (The Arameans wounded Joram when he fought against Hazael king of Aram.)

So Jehu told the officers, "If you agree that I am the new king, then don't let any person escape from the city to tell the news in Jezreel."

Joram was resting in Jezreel. So Jehu rode in a chariot* and went to Jezreel. Ahaziah king of Judah had also come to Jezreel to see Joram.

A guard was standing on the tower in Jezreel. He saw Jehu's large group coming. He said, "I see a large group of people!"

Joram said, "Send someone on a horse to meet them. Tell this man to say, 'Do you come in peace?'"

So a man rode on a horse to meet Jehu. The rider on the horse said, "King Joram says, 'Do you come in peace?'"

Jehu said, "You have nothing to do with peace! Come and follow me."

The guard told Joram, "The messenger went to the group, but he has not come back yet."

Then Joram sent out a second man on a horse. This man came to Jehu's group and said, "King Joram says, 'Peace.*'"

Jehu answered, "You have nothing to do with peace! Come and follow me."

The guard told Joram, "The second man went to the group, but he has not come back yet. The man driving the chariot drives like Jehu son of Nimshi. He drives crazy!"

Joram said, "Make my chariot* ready!"

So the servant made Joram's chariot ready. Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out. Each king went out in his chariot* to meet Jehu. They met Jehu at the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

anoint(ing) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

Peace A way of saying "hello."

<sup>22</sup>Joram saw Jehu and asked, "Do you come in peace, Jehu?"

Jehu answered, "There is no peace as long as your mother Jezebel does many acts of prostitution and witchcraft.*"

<sup>23</sup>Joram turned the horses to run away. Joram said to Ahaziah, "It is a trick, Ahaziah!"

<sup>24</sup>But Jehu pulled his bow with all his strength and shot Joram in his back.* The arrow went through Joram's heart. Joram fell dead in his chariot.*

<sup>25</sup>Jehu said to his chariot driver Bidkar, "Take Joram's body up and throw it into the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. Remember that when you and I rode together with Joram's father Ahab, the Lord said this would happen to him. <sup>26</sup>The Lord said, 'Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth and his sons. So I will punish Ahab in this field.' The Lord said that. So take Joram's body and throw it into the field, just like the Lord said!"

<sup>27</sup>Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, so he ran away. He went by the garden house. Jehu followed after him. Jehu said, "Shoot Ahaziah in his chariot,* too!"

So Jehu's men shot Ahaziah, on the road to Gur near Ibleam. Ahaziah ran away to Megiddo, but he died there. <sup>28</sup>Ahaziah's servants carried Ahaziah's body in a chariot to Jerusalem. They buried Ahaziah in his tomb with his ancestors* in the City of David.*

<sup>29</sup>Ahaziah became king over Judah during Joram's* eleventh year as king of Israel.

The Terrible Death of Jezebel

<sup>30</sup>Jehu went to Jezreel, and Jezebel heard the news. She put her make-up on and fixed her hair. Then she stood by the window and looked out. <sup>31</sup>Jehu entered the city. Jezebel said,

"Hello, you Zimri*! Just like him, you killed your master!"

<sup>32</sup>Jehu looked up at the window. He said, "Who is on my side? Who?"

Two or three eunuchs* looked out from the window, at Jehu. <sup>33</sup>Jehu said to them, "Throw Jezebel down!"

Then the eunuchs* threw Jezebel down. Some of Jezebel's blood splashed on the wall and on the horses. The horses walked on Jezebel's body. <sup>34</sup>Jehu went into the house and ate and drank. Then he said, "Now see about this cursed woman. Bury her, because she is a king's daughter."

<sup>35</sup>The men went to bury Jezebel. But they could not find her body. They could only find her skull, her feet, and the palms of her hands. <sup>36</sup>So the men came back and told Jehu. Then Jehu said, "The Lord told his servant Elijah the Tishbite to give this message. Elijah said: 'Dogs will eat the body of Jezebel in the area of Jezreel. <sup>37</sup>Jezebel's body will be like dung on the field in the area of Jezreel. People won't be able to recognize Jezebel's body!'"

Jehu Writes the Leaders of Samaria

10 Ahab had 70 sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria to the rulers and leaders of Jezreel. He also sent the letters to the people that raised Ahab's sons. In the letters Jehu, said, <sup>23</sup>"As soon as you get this letter, choose the person that is the best and most worthy among your father's sons. You have chariots* and horses. And you are living in a strong city. You also have weapons. Put the son you choose on his father's throne. Then fight for your father's family."

"But the rulers and leaders of Jezreel were very much afraid. They said, "The two kings (Joram and Ahaziah) could not stop Jehu. So we can't stop him either!"

<sup>5</sup>The man that took care of Ahab's house, the man that controlled the city, the elders, and witchcraft Using magic or the power of Satan to do things.

in his back Literally, "between his arms."

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

Joram's Literally, "Joram son of Ahab."

Zimri Zimri was the man that killed Elah and the family of Baasha in Israel many years before. Read 1 Kings 16:8-12.

eunuchs Men that had their sexual organs removed. Often important officials of the king were eunuchs.

the people who raised Ahab's children, sent a message to Jehu. "We are your servants. We will do anything you tell us. We will not make any man king. Do what you think is good."

The Leaders of Samaria Kill Ahab's Children

<sup>6</sup>Then Jehu wrote a second letter to these leaders. Jehu said, "If you support me and obey me, then cut off the heads of Ahab's sons. And bring them to me at Jezreel about this time tomorrow."

Ahab had 70 sons. They were with the leaders of the city that raised them. <sup>7</sup>When the leaders of the city received the letter, they took the king's sons and killed all 70 of them. Then the leaders put the heads of the king's sons in baskets. They sent the baskets to Jehu at Jezreel. <sup>8</sup>The messenger came to Jehu and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons!"

Then Jehu said, "Lay the heads in two piles at the city gate until morning."

<sup>9</sup>In the morning, Jehu went out and stood before the people. He said to the people, "You are innocent. Look, I made plans against my master. I killed him. But who killed all these sons of Ahab? You killed them! <sup>10</sup>You should know that everything the Lord says will happen. And the Lord used Elijah to say these things about Ahab's family. Now the Lord has done the things he said he would do."

Jehu Kills Ahaziah's Relatives

<sup>12</sup>Jehu left Jezreel and went to Samaria. On the way, Jehu stopped at a place called Shepherd's Camp. He went to the house on the road to Beth-Eked, where the shepherds cut wool from their sheep. <sup>13</sup>Jehu met with the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah. Jehu said to them, "Who are you?"

They answered, "We are the relatives of Ahaziah, king of Judah. We have come down to visit the king's children and the queen mother's* children.

<sup>14</sup>Then Jehu said to his men, "Take them alive!"

Jehu's men captured Ahaziah's relatives alive. There were 42 people. Jehu killed them at the well near Beth-Eked. Jehu did not leave any person alive.

Jehu Meets Jehonadab

<sup>15</sup>After Jehu left there, he met Jehonadab son of Recab. Jehonadab was on his way to meet Jehu. Jehu greeted Jehonadab and said to him, "Are you a faithful friend to me, as I am to you?*"

Jehonadab answered, "Yes, I am a faithful friend to you."

Jehu said, "If you are, then give me your hand."

Then Jehu reached out and pulled Jehonadab up into the chariot.*

<sup>16</sup>Jehu said, "Come with me. You can see how strong my feelings are for the Lord."

So Jehonadab rode in Jehu's chariot.* <sup>17</sup>Jehu came to Samaria and killed all Ahab's family that were still alive in Samaria. Jehu killed them all. Jehu did the things that the Lord had told Elijah.

Jehu Calls the Worshipers of Baal

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehu gathered all the people together. Jehu said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little. But Jehu will serve Baal much! <sup>19</sup>Now call together all the priests and prophets of Baal. And call together all the people that worship Baal. Don't let any person miss this meeting. I have a great sacrifice to give to Baal. I will kill any person that doesn't come to this meeting!"

But Jehu was tricking them. Jehu wanted to destroy the worshipers of Baal. <sup>20</sup>Jehu said, "Prepare a holy meeting for Baal." And the priests announced the meeting. <sup>21</sup>Then Jehu sent a message through all the land of Israel.

queen mother The mother of the king.
Are you a faithful friend ... you? Literally, "Is your heart true to me? My heart is true to your heart."
chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

All the worshipers of Baal came. There was not a person that stayed home. The Baal worshipers came into the temple* of Baal. The temple was filled with people.

<sup>22</sup>Jehu said to the man that kept the robes, "Bring out the robes for all the worshipers of Baal." So that man brought out the robes for the Baal worshipers.

<sup>23</sup>Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Recab went into the temple* of Baal. Jehu said to the worshipers of Baal, "Look around and be sure that there are no servants of the Lord with you. Be sure there are only people that worship Baal." <sup>24</sup>The worshipers of Baal went into the temple of Baal to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings.

But outside, Jehu had 80 men waiting. Jehu told them, "Don't let any of the people escape. If any man lets one person escape, then that man must pay with his own life.

<sup>25</sup>Quickly after Jehu had finished offering the burnt offering, he said to the guards and to the captains, "Go in and kill the worshipers of Baal! Don't let any person come out of the temple alive!"

So the captains used thin swords and killed the worshipers of Baal. The guards and the captains threw the bodies of the worshipers of Baal out. Then the guards and the captains went to the inner room* of the temple* of Baal. <sup>26</sup>They brought out the memorial stones* that were in the temple of Baal and burned the temple. <sup>27</sup>Then they smashed the memorial stones of Baal. They also smashed the temple of Baal. They made the temple of Baal into a cesspool. It is still used for that even today.

<sup>28</sup>So Jehu destroyed Baal worship in Israel. <sup>29</sup>But Jehu did not completely turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin. Jehu did not destroy the golden calves in Bethel and in Dan.

Jehu's Rule Over Israel

<sup>30</sup>The Lord said to Jehu, "You have done well. You have done the things that I say are good. You destroyed Ahab's family the way I wanted you to. So your descendants* will rule Israel for four generations."

<sup>31</sup>But Jehu was not careful to live in the law of the Lord with all his heart. Jehu did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam that caused Israel to sin.

Hazael Defeats Israel

<sup>32</sup>At that time, the Lord began to cut parts from Israel. Hazael king of Aram defeated the Israelites on every border of Israel. <sup>33</sup>Hazael won the land east of the Jordan River—all the land of Gilead, including the land that belonged to the family groups of Gad, Reuben, and Manasseh. Hazael won all the land from Aroer by the Arnon Valley to Gilead and Bashan.

The Death of Jehu

<sup>34</sup>All the other great things that Jehu did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. <sup>35</sup>Jehu died and was buried with his ancestors.* The people buried Jehu in Samaria. Jehu's son Jehoahaz became the new king of Israel after him. <sup>36</sup>Jehu ruled over Israel in Samaria for 28 years.

Athaliah Destroys All the King's Sons in Judah

11 Ahaziah's mother Athaliah saw that her son was dead. Then she got up and killed all the king's family.

<sup>2</sup>Jehosheba was King Joram's daughter and Ahaziah's sister. Joash was one of the king's sons. Jehosheba took Joash while the other children were being killed. Jehosheba hid Joash. She put Joash and his nurse in her bedroom. So Jehosheba and the nurse hid Joash from Athaliah. That way Joash was not killed.

*temple Here this means the building where people went to worship Baal.

*inner room Literally, "The city of the temple of Baal."

*memorial stones Stones that were set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.

*descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

*ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

<sup>3</sup>Then Joash and Jehosheba hid in the Lord's temple.* Joash hid there for six years. And Athaliah ruled over the land of Judah.

<sup>4</sup>In the seventh year, Jehoiada the high priest sent and got the captains of the Carites and guards.* Jehoiada brought them together in the Lord's temple.* Then Jehoiada made an agreement with them. In the temple Jehoiada forced them to make a promise. Then he showed the king's son (Joash) to them.

<sup>5</sup>Then Jehoiada gave them a command. He said, "This is the thing you must do. One-third of you must come in at the start of each Sabbath day. You men will protect the king at his house. <sup>6</sup>Another third of you will be at the Sur Gate. And another third will be at the gate behind the guard. This way you will be like a wall protecting Joash. <sup>7</sup>At the end of each Sabbath day, two-thirds of you will guard the Lord's temple and protect King Joash. <sup>8</sup>You must stay with King Joash any time he goes any place. The whole group must surround the king. Each guard must have his weapon in his hand. And you must kill any person that comes too close to you."

<sup>9</sup>The captains obeyed all the things that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each captain took his men. One group was to guard the king on Saturday. And the other groups were to guard the king during the rest of the week. All those men went to Jehoiada the priest. <sup>10</sup>And the priest gave spears and shields to the captains. These were the spears and shields David put in the Lord's temple.* <sup>11</sup>These guards* stood with their weapons in their hands from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple. They stood around the altar* and the temple and around the king when he went to the temple. <sup>12</sup>These men brought out Joash. They put the crown on Joash and give him the agreement between the king and God.*

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

guards Literally, "runners" or "messengers."

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.

agreement ... God This was probably the promise the king made to serve God. See verse 17 and 1 Sam. 10:25.

Then they anointed* him and made him the new king. They clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"

<sup>13</sup>Queen Athaliah heard the noise from the guards and the people. So she went to the people at the Lord's temple. <sup>14</sup>Athaliah saw the king by the column where the king usually stood. She also saw the leaders and men playing the trumpets for the king. She saw that all the people were very happy. She heard the trumpets, and she tore her clothes to show she was upset. Then Athaliah shouted, "Treason! Treason!"

<sup>15</sup>Jehoiada the priest gave a command to the captains that were in charge of the soldiers. Jehoiada told them, "Take Athaliah outside of the temple area. Kill any of her followers. But don't kill them in the Lord's temple."

<sup>16</sup>So the soldiers grabbed her and led her to the gate of the temple named "Horse Gate." The soldiers killed Athaliah there.

<sup>17</sup>Then Jehoiada made the agreement between the Lord and the king and the people. This agreement showed that the king and the people belonged to the Lord. Jehoiada also made the agreement between the king and the people. This agreement showed what the king would do for the people. And it showed that the people would obey and follow the king.

<sup>18</sup>Then all the people went to the temple of the false god, Baal. The people destroyed the statue of Baal, and they destroyed his altars.* They broke them into many, many pieces. The people also killed Baal's priest, Mattan, in front of the altars.

So Jehoiada, the priest put men in charge of the Lord's temple. <sup>19</sup>The priest led all the people. They went from the Lord's temple to the king's house. The king's special guards and the captains went with the king. And all the other people followed them. They went to the entrance to the king's house. Then King Joash sat on the throne. <sup>20</sup>All the people were happy. The city was peaceful. And Queen Athaliah was killed with a sword near the king's house.

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

<sup>21</sup>Joash* was seven years old when he became the king.

Joash Begins His Rule

12 Joash* began to rule during Jehu's seventh year as king of Israel. Joash ruled 40 years in Jerusalem. Joash's mother was named Zibiah of Beersheba. <sup>2</sup>Joash did the things that the Lord said were right. Joash obeyed the Lord all his life. He did the things that Jehoiada the priest taught him. <sup>3</sup>But he did not destroy the high places.* The people still made sacrifices and burned incense at those places of worship.

Joash Orders the Temple Repaired

<sup>4</sup>Joash* said to the priests, "There is much money in the Lord's temple. People have given things to the temple. People have paid the temple tax when they were counted. And people have given money simply because they wanted to. You priests should take that money and repair the Lord's temple. Each priest should use the money he gets from the people he serves. He should use that money to repair the damages to the Lord's temple."

<sup>6</sup>But the priests did not do the repairs. In the 23rd year that Joash* was king, the priests still had not repaired the temple. <sup>7</sup>So king Joash* called for Jehoiada the priest and the other priests. Joash said to Jehoiada and the other priests, "Why haven't you repaired the temple? Stop taking money from the people you serve. Stop using that money. That money must be used to repair the temple."

<sup>8</sup>The priests agreed to stop taking money from the people. But they also decided not to repair the temple. <sup>9</sup>So Jehoiada the priest took a box and made a hole in the top of it. Then Jehoiada put the box on the south side of the altar. This box was by the door where people came into the Lord's temple. Some of the priests guarded the doorway* of the temple.

Those priests took the money people had given to the Lord, and they put that money into that box.

<sup>10</sup>Then the people began putting money into that box when they went to the temple. Whenever the king's secretary and the high priest saw there was a lot of money in the box, they came and took the money from the box. They put the money in bags and counted it. <sup>11</sup>Then they paid the workers that worked on the Lord's temple. They paid the carpenters and other builders that worked on the Lord's temple. <sup>12</sup>They used that money to pay the stoneworkers and stonecutters. And they used that money to buy timber, cut stone, and everything else to repair the Lord's temple.

<sup>13-14</sup>People gave money for the Lord's temple. But the priests could not use that money to make silver cups, snuffers,* basins, trumpets, or any gold and silver dishes. That money was used to pay the workers. And those workers repaired the Lord's temple. <sup>15</sup>No one counted all the money or forced the workers to tell what happened to the money. Why? Because those workers could be trusted!

<sup>16</sup>People gave money at the times they offered guilt offerings and sin offerings. But that money was not used to pay the workers. That money belonged to the priests.

Joash Saves Jerusalem from Hazael

<sup>17</sup>Hazael was the king of Aram. Hazael went to fight against the city of Gath. Hazael defeated Gath. Then he made plans to go fight against Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup>Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah had been kings of Judah. They were Joash's* ancestors.* They had given many things to the Lord. Those things were kept in the temple. Joash also had given many things to the Lord. Joash took all those and all the gold that was in the temple and in his house. Then Joash sent all those expensive things to Hazael king of Aram.

Joash Or, "Jehoash," the long form of the name "Joash."

high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

doorway Literally, "threshold."

snuffers They were like small cups used to put out lamps.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

So they met at Jerusalem. Hazael did not fight against the city.

The Death of Joash

<sup>19</sup>All the great things that Joash did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah.

<sup>20</sup>Joash's officers made plans against him. They killed Joash at the house of Millo on the road that goes down to Silla. <sup>21</sup>Jozabad son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer were Joash's officers. Those men killed Joash.

The people buried Joash with his ancestors* in the City of David.* Joash's son Amaziah became the new king after him.

Jehoahaz Begins His Rule

13 Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria. This was during the 23rd year that Joash son of Ahaziah was king in Judah. Jehoahaz ruled 17 years.

<sup>2</sup>Jehoahaz did those things the Lord said were wrong. Jehoahaz followed the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin. Jehoahaz did not stop doing those things. <sup>3</sup>Then the Lord was angry against Israel. The Lord gave Israel into the power of Hazael king of Aram and Hazael's son Ben-Hadad.

The Lord Has Mercy on the People of Israel

<sup>4</sup>Then Jehoahaz begged the Lord to help them. And the Lord listened to him. The Lord had seen the troubles of Israel and how the king of Aram troubled the Israelites.

<sup>5</sup>So the Lord sent a man to save Israel. The Israelites were free from the Arameans. So the Israelites went to their own homes, like they did before.

<sup>6</sup>But the Israelites still did not stop doing the sins of the family of Jeroboam that caused Israel to sin. The Israelites continued doing the sins of Jeroboam. They also kept the Asherah poles* in Samaria.

<sup>7</sup>The king of Aram defeated Jehoahaz's army. The king of Aram destroyed most of the men in the army. He left only 50 horse soldiers, 10 chariots,* and 10,000 foot soldiers. Jehoahaz's soldiers were like chaff* blown away by the wind at the time of threshing.*

<sup>8</sup>All the great things that Jehoahaz did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. <sup>9</sup>Jehoahaz died, and was buried with his ancestors*. The people buried Jehoahaz in Samaria. Jehoahaz's son Jehoash* became the new king after him.

Jehoash's Rule Over Israel

<sup>10</sup>Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria. This was during the 37th year that Joash was king of Judah. Jehoash ruled Israel for 16 years. <sup>11</sup>Jehoash king of Israel did the things the Lord said were wrong. He did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin. Jehoash continued to do those sins. <sup>12</sup>All the great things that Jehoash did and his wars against Amaziah king of Judah are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. <sup>13</sup>Jehoash* died and, was buried with his ancestors.* Jeroboam became the new king and, sat on Jehoash's throne. Jehoash* was buried at Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Jehoash Visits Elisha

<sup>14</sup>Elisha became sick. Later, Elisha died from this sickness. Jehoash,* king of Israel, went to visit Elisha. Jehoash cried for Elisha. Jehoash said, "My father, my father! Is it time for the chariots of Israel and its horses*?"

Asherah poles These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshipped.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

chaff The seed coverings and stems separated from the seeds of plants like wheat or barley. Farmers saved the seeds but let the wind blow the useless chaff away.

threshing Beating or walking on grain to remove the hulls from the grain.

Jehoash Or, "Joash," the short form of the name "Jehoash."

chariots ... horses This means, "Is it time for God to come and take you? See 1 Kings 2:12.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

Jehoash took a bow and some arrows. <sup>16</sup>Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow." Jehoash put his hand on the bow. Then Elisha put his hands on the king's hands. <sup>17</sup>Elisha said, "Open the east window." Jehoash opened the window. Then Elisha said, "Shoot."

Jehoash shot. Then Elisha said, "That is the Lord's arrow of victory! The arrow of victory over Aram! You will defeat the Arameans at Aphek. And you will destroy them."

<sup>18</sup>Elisha said, "Take the arrows." Jehoash took the arrows. Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, "Hit on the ground."

Jehoash hit the ground three times. Then he stopped. <sup>19</sup>The man of God* (Elisha) was angry at Jehoash. Elisha said, "You should have hit five or six times! Then you would have defeated Aram until you destroyed it! But now, you will defeat Aram only three times!"

An Amazing Thing Happens at Elisha's Grave

<sup>20</sup>Elisha died, and the people buried him.

One time in the spring, a group of Moabite soldiers came to Israel. They came to take things in war. <sup>21</sup>Some Israelites were burying a dead man, and they saw that group of soldiers. The Israelites quickly threw the dead man into Elisha's grave and ran away. As soon as the dead man touched the bones of Elisha, the dead man came back to life and stood up on his feet!

Jehoash Wins Back Cities of Israel from the Arameans

<sup>22</sup>During all the days that Jehoahaz ruled, Hazael king of Aram caused trouble to Israel. <sup>23</sup>But the Lord was kind to the Israelites. The Lord had mercy and turned to the Israelites. Why? Because of his Agreement with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The Lord would not destroy the Israelites. He did not throw them away yet.

man of God Another name for a prophet.

<sup>24</sup>Hazael king of Aram died, and Ben-Hadad became the new king after him. <sup>25</sup>Before he died, Hazael had taken some cities in war from Jehoahaz, Jehoash's father. But now Jehoash took back these cities from Hazael's son Ben-Hadad. Jehoash* defeated Ben-Hadad three times and took back the cities of Israel.

Amaziah Begins His Rule in Judah

14 Amaziah son of Joash* king of Judah became king in the second year that Joash son of Jehoahaz was king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Amaziah was 25 years old when he began to rule. Amaziah ruled 29 years in Jerusalem. Amaziah's mother was Jehoaddin from Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>Amaziah did the things the Lord said were right. But he did not follow God completely like David his ancestor.* Amaziah did all the things that Joash his father had done. <sup>4</sup>He did not destroy the high places.* The people still sacrificed and burned incense* in those places of worship.

<sup>5</sup>At the time that Amaziah had strong control of the kingdom, he killed the officers that had killed his father. <sup>6</sup>But he did not kill the children of the murderers because of the rules written in the Book in the Law of Moses. The Lord gave this command in the Law of Moses: "Parents must not be put to death for something their children did. And children must not be put to death for something their parents did. A person should be put to death only for a bad thing that he himself did."*

<sup>7</sup>Amaziah killed 10,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. In war Amaziah took Sela and called it "Joktheel." That place is still called "Joktheel" today.

Jehoash Or, "Joash," the short form of the name "Jehoash."

Joash Or, "Jehoash," the long form of the name "Joash."

ancestor Literally, "father." This means a person that people are descended from.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

Parents ... did See Deut. 24:16.

Amaziah Wants War Against Jehoash

<sup>1</sup>Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu king of Israel. Amaziah's message said, "Come, let us meet to fight each other!"*

<sup>9</sup>Jehoash king of Israel sent an answer to Amaziah king of Judah. Jehoash said, "The thorn bush in Lebanon sent a message to the cedar tree in Lebanon. It said, 'Give your daughter for my son to marry.' But a wild animal from Lebanon passed by and walked on the thorn bush. <sup>10</sup>True, you have defeated Edom. But, you have become proud because of your victory over Edom. But stay at home and brag! Don't make trouble for yourself. If you do this, you will fall, and Judah will fall with you!"

<sup>11</sup>But Amaziah would not listen to Jehoash's warning. So Jehoash king of Israel went to fight against Amaziah king of Judah at Beth Shemesh in Judah.* <sup>12</sup>Israel defeated Judah. Every man of Judah ran home. <sup>13</sup>At Beth Shemesh, Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah. Jehoash took Amaziah to Jerusalem. Jehoash broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, about 600 feet.* <sup>14</sup>Then Jehoash took all the gold and silver and all the dishes in the Lord's temple and in the treasures of the king's house. Jehoash also took people to be his prisoners. Then he went back to Samaria.

<sup>15</sup>All the great things that Jehoash did, including how he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. <sup>16</sup>Jehoash died and, was buried with his ancestors.* Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. Jehoash's son Jeroboam became the new king after him.

Come ... other Literally, "Come, let us look at each other's face."

Jehoash ... Judah Literally, "He and Amaziah king of Judah looked at each other in the face at Beth Shemesh which is in Judah."

about 600 feet Literally, "400 cubits."

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

The Death of Amaziah

<sup>17</sup>Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived 15 years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel. <sup>18</sup>All the great things that Amaziah did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah. <sup>19</sup>The people made a plan against Amaziah in Jerusalem. Amaziah ran away to Lachish. But the people sent men after Amaziah to Lachish. And those men killed Amaziah in Lachish. <sup>20</sup>The people brought Amaziah's body back on horses. Amaziah was buried at Jerusalem with his ancestors* in the City of David.*

Azariah Begins His Rule Over Judah

<sup>21</sup>Then all the people of Judah made Azariah the new king. Azariah was 16 years old. <sup>22</sup>So King Amaziah died and was buried with his ancestors.* Then Azariah built Elath again and gave it back to Judah.

Jeroboam II Begins His Rule Over Israel

<sup>23</sup>Jeroboam son of Jehoash* king of Israel began to rule in Samaria during the 15th year that Amaziah son of Joash was king of Judah. Jeroboam ruled 41 years. <sup>24</sup>Jeroboam did the things the Lord said were wrong. Jeroboam did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin. <sup>25</sup>Jeroboam took back Israel's land which ran from the Lebo-Hamath to the Arabah Sea.* This happened like the Lord of Israel had told his servant Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath Hopher. <sup>26</sup>The Lord saw that all the Israelites had many troubles, slaves and free men. No person was left that could help Israel. <sup>27</sup>The Lord did not say that he would take away the name of Israel from the world. So the Lord used Jeroboam son of Jehoash* to save the people of Israel.

<sup>28</sup>All the great things that Jeroboam did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. This includes the story about

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

Jehoash Or, "Joash," the short form of the name "Jehoash."

Arabah Sea The Dead Sea.

Jeroboam winning back Damascus and Hamath for Israel. (These cities had belonged to Judah.)

<sup>29</sup>Jeroboam died and was buried with his ancestors*, the kings of Israel. Jeroboam's son Zechariah became the new king after him.

Azariah's Rule Over Judah

15 Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah became king in the 27th year of Jeroboam king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Azariah was 16 years old when he began to rule. He ruled 52 years in Jerusalem. Azariah's mother was named Jecoliah of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>Azariah did the things that the Lord said were right, just like his father Amaziah. Azariah followed all the things his father Amaziah did. <sup>4</sup>He did not destroy the high places.* People still made sacrifices and burned incense* in these places of worship.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord caused King Azariah to become sick with leprosy.* He was a leper until the day he died. Azariah lived in a separate house. Jotham, the king's son, took care of the king's house and judged the people.

<sup>6</sup>All the great things that Azariah did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah. <sup>7</sup>Azariah died and was buried with his ancestors* in the City of David.* Azariah's son Jotham became the new king after him.

Zechariah's Short Rule Over Israel

<sup>1</sup>Zechariah son of Jeroboam ruled over Samaria in Israel for six months. This was during the 38th year that Azariah was king of Judah. <sup>2</sup>Zechariah did the things the Lord said were wrong. He did the same things his ancestors* did. He did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

leprosy A very bad skin disease.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Shallum son of Jabesh made plans against Zechariah. Shallum killed Zechariah in Ibleam. Shallum became the new king after him. <sup>11</sup>All the other things that Zechariah did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. <sup>12</sup>In this way the Lord's word came true. The Lord had told Jehu that four generations of his descendants* would be kings of Israel.

Shallum's Short Rule Over Israel

<sup>13</sup>Shallum son of Jabesh became king of Israel, during the 39th year that Uzziah was king of Judah. Shallum ruled for one month in Samaria.

<sup>14</sup>Menahem son of Gad came up from Tirzah to Samaria. Menahem killed Shallum son of Jabesh. Then Menahem became the new king after him.

<sup>15</sup>All the things Shallum did, including his plans against Zechariah, are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel.

Menahem's Rule Over Israel

<sup>16</sup>After Shallum died, Menahem defeated Tiphshah and the area around it. The people refused to open the city gate, for him. So Menahem defeated them and ripped open all the pregnant women in that city.

<sup>17</sup>Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel during the 39th year that Azariah was king of Judah. Menahem ruled ten years in Samaria. <sup>18</sup>Menahem did the things the Lord said were wrong. Menahem did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin.

<sup>19</sup>Pul king of Assyria came to fight against Israel. Menahem gave Pul 75,000 pounds* of silver. He did this so Pul would support Menahem and make Menahem's kingdom stronger. <sup>20</sup>Menahem raised the money by making all the rich and powerful men pay taxes. Menahem taxed each man 20 ounces* of silver. Then Menahem gave the money to the

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

75,000 pounds Literally, "1,000 talents."

20 ounces Literally, "50 shekels."

king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria left, and did not stay there in Israel.

<sup>21</sup>All the great things that Menahem did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel. <sup>22</sup>Menahem died and was buried with his ancestors.* Menahem's son Pekahiah became the new king after him.

Pekahiah's Rule Over Israel

<sup>23</sup>Pekahiah son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria during the 50th year that Azariah was king of Judah. Pekahiah ruled two years. <sup>24</sup>Pekahiah did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Pekahiah did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin.

<sup>25</sup>The commander of Pekahiah's army was Pekah son of Remaliah. Pekah killed Pekahiah. He killed him in Samaria at the king's palace.* Pekah had 50 men from Gilead with him when he killed Pekahiah. Then Pekah became the new king after him.

<sup>26</sup>All the great things Pekahiah did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel.

Pekah's Rule Over Israel

<sup>27</sup>Pekah son of Remaliah began to rule over Israel in Samaria during the 52nd year that Azariah was king of Judah. Pekah ruled 20 years. <sup>28</sup>Pekah did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Pekah did not stop doing the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that caused Israel to sin.

<sup>29</sup>Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came to fight against Israel. This was during the time that Pekah was king of Israel. Tiglath-Pileser captured Ijon, Abel-Bethmaacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, Galilee, and all the area of Naphtali. Tiglath-Pileser took the people from these places as prisoners to Assyria.

<sup>30</sup>Hoshea son of Elah made plans against Pekah son of Remaliah. Hoshea killed Pekah.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

palace A large house for the king and his family.

Then Hoshea became the new king after Pekah. This was during the 20th year that Jotham son of Uzziah was king of Judah.

<sup>31</sup>All the great things that Pekah did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Israel.

Jotham Rules Over Judah

<sup>32</sup>Jotham son of Uzziah became king of Judah. This was during the second year that Pekah son of Remaliah was king of Israel.

<sup>33</sup>Jotham was 25 years old when he became king. Jotham ruled 16 years in Jerusalem. Jotham's mother was named Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok. <sup>34</sup>Jotham did the things the Lord said were right, just like his father Uzziah. <sup>35</sup>But he did not destroy the high places.* The people still made sacrifices and burned incense* at those places of worship. Jotham built the upper gate of the Lord's temple.* <sup>36</sup>All the great things that Jotham did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah.

<sup>38</sup>Jotham died and was buried with his ancestors.* Jotham was buried in the City of David* his ancestor.* Jotham's son Ahaz became the new king after him.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

ancestor Literally, "father." This means a person that people are descended from.

like the kings of Israel. He even sacrificed his son in fire.* He copied the terrible sins of the nations that the Lord forced to leave the country at the time the Israelites came. 'Ahaz made sacrifices and burned incense* at the high places* and on the hills and under every green tree.

<sup>5</sup>Rezin, king of Aram, and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came to fight against Jerusalem. Rezin and Pekah surrounded Ahaz, but could not defeat him. <sup>6</sup>At that time, Rezin king of Aram took back Elath for Aram. Rezin took all the people of Judah that were living in Elath. The Arameans settled in Elath, and they still live there today.

<sup>7</sup>Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. The message was: "I am your servant. I am like a son to you. Come and save me from the king of Aram and the king of Israel. They have come to fight me!" <sup>8</sup>Ahaz also took the silver and gold that was in the temple* of the Lord and in the treasuries of the king's house. Then Ahaz sent a gift to the king of Assyria. <sup>9</sup>The king of Assyria listened to Ahaz. The king of Assyria went to fight against Damascus. The king captured that city and took the people from Damascus as prisoners to Kir. He also killed Rezin.

<sup>10</sup>King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. Ahaz saw the altar* at Damascus. King Ahaz sent a model and pattern of this altar to Uriah the priest. <sup>11</sup>Then Uriah the priest built an altar just like the model King Ahaz had sent him from Damascus. Uriah the priest built the altar this way before King Ahaz came back from Damascus.

sacrificed ... fire Literally, "made his son to pass through the fire."

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.

<sup>12</sup>When the King arrived from Damascus, he saw the altar.* He offered sacrifices on the altar. <sup>13</sup>On the altar, Ahaz burned his burnt offerings and grain offerings. He poured his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his fellowship offerings on this altar.

<sup>14</sup>Ahaz took the bronze altar which was before the Lord from the front of the temple. This bronze altar was between Ahaz's altar and the temple of the Lord. Ahaz put the bronze altar on the north side of his own altar. <sup>15</sup>Ahaz gave a command to Uriah the priest. He said, "Use the large altar to burn the morning burnt offerings, the evening grain offerings, and drink offerings from all the people of this country. Sprinkle all the blood of the burnt offering and sacrifices on the large altar. But I will use the bronze altar to ask questions from God." <sup>16</sup>Uriah the priest did everything that King Ahaz commanded him to do.

<sup>17</sup>Then King Ahaz cut up the carts and took the panels from them. He took the washing bowls off the carts. He also took the large tank off the bronze cows that stood under it. He put the large tank on a stone pavement. <sup>18</sup>Ahaz took away the covered place for the Sabbath. The workers had built this inside the temple.* Ahaz also took away the outside entrance for the king. Ahaz took all of these from the Lord's temple, and gave them to, the king of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup>All the great things that Ahaz did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah. <sup>20</sup>Ahaz, died and, was buried with his ancestors* in the City of David.* Ahaz's son Hezekiah became the new king after him.

Hoshea Begins His Rule Over Israel

17 Hoshea son of Elah began to rule in Samaria over Israel. This was during the 12th year that Ahaz was king of Judah. Hoshea ruled nine years. <sup>2</sup>Hoshea did the things the Lord said were wrong. But Hoshea was not as bad as the kings of Israel that ruled before him.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

City of David A part of the city of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Shalmaneser king of Assyria came to fight against Hoshea. Hoshea became Shalmaneser servant. Hoshea paid tribute* to Shalmaneser.

<sup>4</sup>But the king of Assyria learned that Hoshea had made plans against him. Hoshea had sent messengers to the king of Egypt. The king of Egypt was named So. That year, Hoshea did not pay tribute* to the king of Assyria like he did every other year. So the king of Assyria arrested Hoshea and put him in jail.

<sup>5</sup>Then the king of Assyria traveled through Israel. He arrived at Samaria. He fought against Samaria for three years. <sup>6</sup>The king of Assyria took Samaria during the ninth year that Hoshea was king of Israel. The king of Assyria took the Israelites as prisoners to Assyria. He made them live in Halah, on the Habor (the river of Gozan), and in the cities of the Medes. <sup>7</sup>These things happened because the Israelites had sinned against the Lord their God.

The Lord had brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt from the rule of Pharaoh king of Egypt. But the Israelites began worshiping other gods. <sup>8</sup>They began doing the same things that other people did. And the Lord had forced those people to leave their land when the Israelites came. The Israelites also chose to be ruled by kings, (not by God). <sup>9</sup>The Israelites secretly did things against the Lord their God. And those things were wrong!

The Israelites built high places* in all their cities—from the smallest town to the largest city. <sup>10</sup>The Israelites put up memorial stones* and Asherah poles* on every high hill and under every green tree. <sup>11</sup>The Israelites burned incense* there in all those places of worship. They did these things like the nations that the Lord forced out of the land before them. The Israelites did evil things that made the Lord angry. <sup>12</sup>They served idols.* And the Lord had said to the Israelites, “You must not do this thing.”

<sup>13</sup>The Lord used every prophet and every seer* to warn Israel and Judah. The Lord said, “Turn away from the evil things you do! Obey my commands and laws. Follow all the Law that I gave to your ancestors.* I used my servants the prophets to give this law to you.”

<sup>14</sup>But the people would not listen. They were very stubborn like their ancestors.* Their ancestors did not believe the Lord their God. <sup>15</sup>The people refused the Lord’s laws and his Agreement that he made with their ancestors. They refused to listen to the Lord’s warnings. They followed worthless idols and became nothing. They followed the nations around them. These nations did the things that the Lord warned the people of Israel not to do.

<sup>16</sup>The people stopped following the commands of the Lord their God. They made two gold statues of calves. They made Asherah poles.* They worshiped all the stars of heaven and served Baal.* <sup>17</sup>They sacrificed their sons and daughters in the fire. They used magic and witchcraft* to try to learn the future. They sold themselves to do what the Lord said was evil to make the Lord angry. <sup>18</sup>So the Lord became very angry at Israel and took them out of his sight. There were no Israelites left, except the family group of Judah!

The People of Judah Are Also Guilty

<sup>19</sup>But even the people of Judah did not obey the commands of the Lord their God. The people of Judah lived just like the people of Israel.

tribute Money paid to a foreign king or nation to pay for being protected.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

memorial stones Stones that were set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.

Asherah poles These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshiped.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

seer A kind of prophet, a person that spoke for God. This word shows the prophet saw things in visions.

ancestors Literally, “fathers.” This means a person’s parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

witchcraft Using magic or the power of Satan to do things.

<sup>20</sup>The Lord rejected all the people of Israel. He brought them many troubles. He let people destroy them. And, finally, he threw them away and put them out of his sight. <sup>21</sup>The Lord tore Israel from the family of David, and the Israelites made Jeroboam son of Nebat their king. Jeroboam pulled the Israelites away from following the Lord. Jeroboam caused the Israelites to do a great sin. <sup>22</sup>So the Israelites followed all the sins that Jeroboam did. They did not stop doing these sins <sup>23</sup>until the Lord took Israel away from his sight. And the Lord said this would happen! He sent his prophets to tell the people this would happen. So the Israelites were taken out of their country into Assyria. And they have been there to this day.

The Beginning of the Samaritan People

<sup>24</sup>The king of Assyria took the Israelites out of Samaria. Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim. He put those people in Samaria. Those people took over Samaria and lived in the cities around it. <sup>25</sup>When these people began to live in Samaria, they did not honor the Lord. So the Lord sent lions to attack them. These lions killed some of those people. <sup>26</sup>Some people said to the king of Assyria, "Those people that you took away and put in the cities of Samaria do not know the law of the god of that country. So that god sent lions to attack those people. The lions killed those people because those people don't know the law of the god of that country."

<sup>27</sup>So the king of Assyria gave this command: "You took some priests from Samaria. Send one of those priests that I captured back to Samaria. Let that priest go and live there. Then that priest can teach the people the law of the god of that country."

<sup>28</sup>So one of the priests that the Assyrians had carried away from Samaria came to live in Bethel. This priest taught the people how they should honor the Lord.

<sup>29</sup>But all those people made gods of their own and put them in the temples at the high places* the Samaritans had made. Those people did this wherever they lived. <sup>30</sup>The people of Babylon made the false God, Succoth Benoth. The people of Cuthah made the false god, Nergal. The people of Hamath made the false god, Ashima. <sup>31</sup>The Avvites made the false gods, Nibhaz and Tartak. And the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to honor Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

<sup>32</sup>But those people also respected the Lord. They chose priests for the high places* from among the people. These priests made sacrifices for the people in the temples at those places of worship. <sup>33</sup>They respected the Lord, but they also served their own gods. Those people served their gods the same as they did in the countries they were taken from.

<sup>34</sup>Even today those people live like they did in the past. They do not honor the Lord. They do not obey the rules and commands of the Israelites. They do not obey the Law or the commands which the Lord gave to the children of Jacob (Israel). <sup>35</sup>The Lord made an Agreement with the people of Israel. The Lord commanded them, "You must not honor other gods. You must not worship them, or serve them, or offer sacrifices to them. <sup>36</sup>But you must follow the Lord. The Lord is the God that brought you out of Egypt. The Lord used his great power to save you. You must worship the Lord and make sacrifices to him. <sup>37</sup>You must obey the rules, laws, teachings, and commands that he wrote for you. You must obey these things all the time. You must not respect other gods. <sup>38</sup>You must not forget the Agreement that I made with you. You must not respect other gods. <sup>39</sup>No! You respect only the Lord your God! Then he will save you from all your enemies."

<sup>40</sup>But the Israelites did not listen. They kept on doing the same things they did before. <sup>41</sup>So now those other nations respect the Lord, but they also serve their own idols. Their children and grandchildren do the same thing their ancestors* did. They still do those things to this day.

Hezekiah Begins His Rule Over Judah

18 Hezekiah son of Ahaz was king of Judah. Hezekiah began to rule during the third year that Hoshea son of Elah was king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah was 25 years old when he began to rule. Hezekiah ruled 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi, the daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>3</sup>Hezekiah did the things the Lord said were right, just like David his ancestor.*

<sup>4</sup>Hezekiah destroyed the high places.* He broke the memorial stones* and cut down the Asherah poles.* At that time, the people of Israel burned incense* to the bronze snake made by Moses. This bronze snake was called "Nehushtan.*" Hezekiah broke this bronze snake into pieces because the people were worshipping that snake. .

<sup>5</sup>Hezekiah trusted in the Lord God of Israel. There was no person like Hezekiah among all the kings of Judah before him or after him. <sup>6</sup>Hezekiah was very faithful to the Lord. He did not stop following the Lord. He obeyed the commands which the Lord had given to Moses. <sup>7</sup>The Lord was with Hezekiah. Hezekiah was successful in everything he did.

Hezekiah broke away from the king of Assyria. Hezekiah stopped serving the king of Assyria. <sup>8</sup>Hezekiah defeated the Philistines all the way to Gaza and the area around it. He defeated all the Philistine cities—from the smallest town to the largest city.

ancestor(s) Literally, "father(s)." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

high places Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

memorial stones Stones that were set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.

Asherah poles These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshipped.

incense Special dried tree sap. Burned to make a sweet-smelling smoke, it was offered as a gift to God.

Nehushtan This Hebrew name is like the words meaning "bronze" and "snake."

The Assyrians Capture Samaria

<sup>9</sup>Shalmaneser king of Assyria went to fight against Samaria. His army surrounded the city. [This happened during the fourth year that Hezekiah was king of Judah. (This was also the seventh year that Hoshea son of Elah was king of Israel.)] <sup>10</sup>After three years, Shalmaneser captured Samaria. He took Samaria during the sixth year that Hezekiah was king of Judah. (This was also the ninth year that Hoshea was king of Israel.) <sup>11</sup>The king of Assyria took the Israelites as prisoners to Assyria. He made them live in Halah, on the Habor (the river of Gozan), and in the cities of the Medes. <sup>12</sup>This happened because the Israelites did not obey the Lord their God. They broke the Lord's Agreement. They did not obey all the things that Moses the Lord's servant commanded. The people of Israel would not listen to the Lord's Agreement, or do the things it taught them to do.

Assyria Gets Ready to Take Judah

<sup>13</sup>During the 14th year that Hezekiah was king, Sennacherib king of Assyria went to fight against all the strong cities of Judah. Sennacherib defeated all those cities. <sup>14</sup>Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent a message to the king of Assyria at Lachish. Hezekiah said, "I have done wrong. Leave me alone. Then I will pay anything you want.

Then the king of Assyria told Hezekiah king of Judah to pay over 11 tons* of silver and over 1 ton* of gold. <sup>15</sup>Hezekiah gave all the silver that was in the Lord's temple* and in the king's treasuries. <sup>16</sup>At this time, Hezekiah cut off the gold that covered the doors of the Lord's temple and the doorposts. King Hezekiah had put gold on these doors and doorposts. Hezekiah gave this gold to the king of Assyria.

11 tons Literally, "300 talents."

1 ton Literally, "30 talents."

temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

The King of Assyria Sends Men to Jerusalem

<sup>19</sup>One of the commanders said to them, "Tell Hezekiah this is what the great king, the king of Assyria says:

What do you trust in? <sup>20</sup>You only say words that are nothing.* You say, "I have enough advice and power to help me in war." But who do you trust since you have broken away from my rule?

<sup>21</sup>You are leaning on a walking stick made of broken reed! This walking stick is Egypt. If a man leans on this walking stick, it will break and, go through his hand and hurt him! The king of Egypt is like that to all people that trust in him. <sup>22</sup>Maybe you will say, "We trust the Lord our God." But I know that Hezekiah took away the Lord's high places* and altars* and told Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship only in front of the altar in Jerusalem."

<sup>23</sup>Now make this agreement with my master, the king of Assyria. I promise that I will give you 2,000 horses if you can find men to ride them. <sup>24</sup>You can't defeat one officer of the lowest of my master's officers! You depend on Egypt to give you chariots* and horse soldiers!

<sup>25</sup>I have not come against Jerusalem to destroy it without the Lord! The Lord said to me, "Go up against this country and destroy it!"

<sup>26</sup>Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah said to the commander, "Please speak to us in Aramaic. We understand that language. Do not speak with us in the language of Judah because the people on the wall can hear us!*" <sup>27</sup>But Rabshakeh said to them, "My lord did not send me to speak only to you and your king.* I also speak to the other people that sit on the wall! They will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you!*" <sup>28</sup>Then the commander shouted loudly in the Jewish language, "Hear this message from the great king, the king of Assyria! <sup>29</sup>The king says, 'Don't let Hezekiah fool you! He can't save you from my power!' <sup>30</sup>Don't let Hezekiah make you trust in the Lord! Hezekiah says, 'The Lord will save us! The king of Assyria will not defeat this city!' <sup>31</sup>But don't listen to Hezekiah!

"The king of Assyria says this: 'Make peace with me and come out to me. Then each of you can eat from his own grapes, his own fig tree, and drink water from his own well. <sup>32</sup>You can do this until I come and take you away to a land like your own land. It is a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and fields full of grapes, a land of olives and honey. Then you can live, and not die. But don't listen to Hezekiah! He is trying to change your mind. He is saying, 'The Lord will save us.' <sup>33</sup>Did any of the gods of the other nations save his land from the king of Assyria? No! <sup>34</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Did

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

because the people ... hear us They did not want the people of Jerusalem that sat on the city wall to understand the terrible things that the commander was saying.

king Literally, "master."

eat ... you The Assyrian army planned to surround Jerusalem and not let people bring any food or water into the city. He thought the people would become hungry enough to eat their own waste.

aquaduct A ditch or pipe that carries water from one place to another.

words ... nothing Literally, "a word of the lips."

they save Samaria from me? No! <sup>13</sup>Did any of the gods in the other countries save their land from me? No! Can the Lord save Jerusalem from me? No!"

<sup>14</sup>But the people were silent. They did not say a word to the commander because King Hezekiah had given them a command. He said, "Don't say anything to him."

<sup>15</sup>Eliakim son of Hilkiah (Eliakim was in charge of the king's house), Shebna (the secretary), and Joah son of Asaph (the record keeper) came to Hezekiah. Their clothes were torn to show they were upset. They told Hezekiah the things that the Assyrian commander had said.

Hezekiah Sends His Officers to Isaiah the Prophet

19 King Hezekiah heard those things, and he tore his clothes and put on the rough cloth that showed he was sad and upset. Then he went into the Lord's temple.*

<sup>1</sup>Hezekiah sent Eliakim (Eliakim was in charge of the king's house), Shebna (the secretary), and the elders of the priests to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. They wore the rough cloth that showed they were sad and upset. <sup>2</sup>They said to Isaiah, "Hezekiah says, 'This is a day of trouble, a day to show we are wrong. It is like the time for babies to be born, but there is no strength to give birth to them. The commander's master, the king of Assyria, has sent him to say bad things about the living God. Maybe the Lord your God will hear all those things. Maybe the Lord will prove the enemy is wrong! So pray for the people that are still left alive.'"

<sup>3</sup>King Hezekiah's officers went to Isaiah. <sup>4</sup>Isaiah said to them, "Give your master Hezekiah this message: 'The Lord says: Don't be afraid of the things that the officers of the king of Assyria have said to make fun of me. <sup>5</sup>I am putting a spirit in him. He will hear a rumor. Then he will run back to his own country. And I will cause him to be killed by a sword in his own country.'"

The King of Assyria Warns Hezekiah Again

<sup>7</sup>The king of Assyria heard a rumor about Tirhakah king of Ethiopia. The rumor said, "Tirhakah has come to fight against you!"

So the king of Assyria sent messengers to Hezekiah again. The king of Assyria gave a message to these messengers. He said these things: <sup>8</sup>Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah: "Don't let the God that you trust fool you. He says, 'The king of Assyria will not defeat Jerusalem!' <sup>9</sup>You have heard the things the kings of Assyria have done to all the other countries. We destroyed them completely! Will you be saved? No! <sup>10</sup>The gods of those nations did not save their people. My ancestors* destroyed them all. They destroyed Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Tel Assar! <sup>11</sup>Where is the king of Hamath? The king of Arpad? The king of the city of Sepharvaim? The kings of Hena and Ivvah? They are all finished!"

Hezekiah Prays to the Lord

<sup>12</sup>Hezekiah received the letters from the messengers and read them. Then Hezekiah went up to the Lord's temple* and laid the letters out in front of the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Hezekiah prayed before the Lord and said, "Lord, the God of Israel who sits as King above the Cherub angels.* You are the God—you alone—of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth! <sup>14</sup>Lord, please listen to me. Lord, open your eyes, and see this letter. Hear the words that Sennacherib sent to insult the living God! <sup>15</sup>It is true, Lord. The kings of

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

Cherub angels Special angels from God. Statues of these angels were on top of the Box of the Agreement.

temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Assyria did destroy all those nations! <sup>14</sup>They did throw the gods of the nations into the fire. But those were not real gods. They were only wood and stone—statues that men made. That is why the kings of Assyria could destroy them. <sup>15</sup>So now, Lord our God, save us from the king of Assyria. Then all the kingdoms on earth will know that you, Lord, are the only God.”

<sup>20</sup>Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah. He said, “The Lord God of Israel says this, ‘You have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria. I have heard you.’

The virgin daughter of Zion (Jerusalem) hates you;
She makes fun of you.

The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head behind your back.

<sup>22</sup> Who did you insult and make fun of?
Who did you speak against?

You acted like you were better than him!

You were against the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>23</sup> You used your messengers to insult the Lord.

You said,
“I came with my many chariots* to the high mountains.

I came deep inside Lebanon.

I cut down the tallest cedar <sup>1</sup>trees of Lebanon, and the best fir trees of Lebanon.

I entered into Lebanon’s highest, deepest forest.

<sup>24</sup> I dug <sup>1</sup>wells,<sup>2</sup> and drank water from new places.

I dried up the rivers of Egypt and walked on that country.”

<sup>25</sup> But haven’t you heard?

I (God) planned it long ago;
from very old times I planned it.
And now, I make it happen.

I let you change strong cities to piles of rocks.

<sup>26</sup> The people living in the cities had no power.

Those people were scared and confused.

The people were like the grass of the field;

Like the green plants;

Like the grass on the housetops that dies.

<sup>27</sup> You get up and sit down in front of me.
And I know when you come in and go out.

And I know when you make yourself turn against me.

<sup>28</sup> You turned against me.

I heard your proud insults.

So I will put my hook in your nose,

And I will put my bit* in your mouth.

Then I will turn you back and make you leave the way you came.”

The Lord’s Message for Hezekiah

<sup>29</sup>“This will be the sign to prove I will help you: This year you will eat <sup>1</sup>the grain<sup>2</sup> that grows by itself. Next year you will eat the grain that comes up from that seed. But in the third year you will gather the grain you planted. You will plant fields of grapes and eat the grapes from them. <sup>30</sup>The people that have escaped and are left in the family of Judah will again begin to grow. <sup>31</sup>Why? Because a few people will remain alive. They will go out from Jerusalem.
People that have escaped will go out from Mount Zion. The Lord’s strong feelings* will do this.

<sup>32</sup>So the Lord says this about the king of Assyria:

He will not come into this city.

He will not shoot an arrow in this city.

He will not come against this city with bit A piece of metal people put in a horse’s mouth to control the horse.

strong feelings Or, “zeal.” The Hebrew word means strong feelings like zeal, jealousy, and love.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

shields.

He will not build up a hill of dirt to attack this city.

<sup>33</sup> He will go back the same way he came.

He will not come into this city.

The Lord says this!

<sup>34</sup> I will protect this city and save it.

I will do this for myself and for my servant David.

The Assyrian Army Is Destroyed

<sup>35</sup>That night, the angel of the Lord went out and killed 185,000 people in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up in the morning, they saw all the dead bodies.

<sup>36</sup>So Sennacherib king of Assyria left and went back to Nineveh where he stayed. <sup>37</sup>One day Sennacherib was worshiping in the temple* of Nisroch, his god. His sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with a sword. Then Adrammelech and Sharezer escaped into the land of Ararat.* And Sennacherib's son Esarhaddon became the new king after him.

Hezekiah Is Sick and Near Death

20 At that time, Hezekiah became sick and almost died. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to Hezekiah. Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "The Lord says, 'Put your house in order, because you will die. You will not live!'"

<sup>1</sup>Hezekiah turned his face to the wall.* He prayed to the Lord and said, <sup>2</sup>"Lord, remember that I have truly served you with all my heart. I have done the things that you say are good." Then Hezekiah cried very hard.

<sup>3</sup>Before Isaiah had left the middle courtyard, the word of the Lord came to him. The Lord said, <sup>4</sup>"Go back and tell this to Hezekiah, the leader of my people: 'The Lord, the God of your ancestor* David says, "I have heard your prayer and I have seen your tears. So I will hear you. On the third day, you will go up to the temple* of the Lord. <sup>6</sup>And I will add 15 years to your life. I will save you and this city from the power of the king of Assyria. I will protect this city. I will do this for myself and because of the promise I made to my servant David.'"

<sup>7</sup>Then Isaiah said, "Make a mixture of figs* and put it on the sore place."

So they took the mixture of figs and put it on Hezekiah's, sore place. Then Hezekiah got well.

The Sign that Showed Hezekiah Would Get Well

<sup>8</sup>Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What will be the sign that the Lord will heal me, and that I will go up to the temple of the Lord on the third day?"

<sup>9</sup>Isaiah said, "Which do you want?, Should the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?*" This is the sign for you from the Lord to show that the Lord will do the thing he said he would do."

<sup>10</sup>Hezekiah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to go down ten steps. No, make the shadow go back ten steps."

<sup>11</sup>Then Isaiah prayed to the Lord, and the Lord made the shadow move back ten steps. It went back on the steps that it had already been on.

Hezekiah Shows His Treasures to the Men from Babylon

<sup>12</sup>At that time, Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan was king of Babylon. He sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah. Merodach-Baladan did this because he heard Hezekiah had been sick. <sup>13</sup>Hezekiah welcomed the men from Babylon, and showed them all the valuable things in his house. He showed him the silver, the gold, the spices, the expensive perfume, the weapons, mixture of figs This was used like medicine.

the ... steps This may mean the steps of a special building outside that Hezekiah used like a clock. When the sun shone on the steps, the shadows showed what time of the day it was.

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Ararat The ancient country of Urartu, an area in Eastern Turkey.

face ... wall This wall probably faced the temple.

ancestor Literally, "father." This means a person that people are descended from.

and everything in his treasuries. There was nothing in all Hezekiah's house and kingdom that he did not show them.

<sup>14</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say? Where did they come from?"

Hezekiah said, "They came from a faraway country, from Babylon."

<sup>15</sup>Isaiah said, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all the things in my house. There is nothing in all my treasuries that I did not show them."

<sup>16</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Listen to this message from the Lord. <sup>17</sup>The time is coming when all the things in your house and all the things your ancestors* have saved until today will be carried away to Babylon. Nothing will be left! The Lord says this. <sup>18</sup>The Babylonians will take your sons. And your sons will become eunuchs* in the palace of the king of Babylon."

<sup>19</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "This message from the Lord is good."

Hezekiah also said, "Fine, if there will be real peace during my lifetime!"

<sup>20</sup>All the great things that Hezekiah did, including his work on the pool and the aquaduct* to bring water into the city, are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah. <sup>21</sup>Hezekiah died and was buried with his ancestors.* And Hezekiah's son Manasseh became the new king after him.

Manasseh Begins His Evil Rule Over Judah

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to rule. He ruled 55 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah.

<sup>2</sup>Manasseh did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Manasseh did the terrible things the other nations did. (And the Lord forced those nations to leave their country when the Israelites came.) <sup>3</sup>Manasseh built again the high places* that his father Hezekiah had destroyed. Manasseh also built altars* for Baal* and made an Asherah pole,* just like Ahab king of Israel. Manasseh worshiped and served the stars of heaven. <sup>4</sup>Manasseh built altars to honor false gods, in the Lord's temple. (This is the place the Lord was talking about when he said, "I will put my name in Jerusalem.") <sup>5</sup>Manasseh built altars for the stars of heaven in the two courtyards of the Lord's temple. <sup>6</sup>Manasseh sacrificed his son and burned him on the altar.* Manasseh used different ways of trying to know the future. He visited mediums* and wizards.*

Manasseh did more and more things that the Lord said were wrong. This caused the Lord to be angry. <sup>7</sup>Manasseh made a carved statue of Asherah.* He put this statue in the temple. The Lord had said to David and to David's son Solomon about this temple: "I have chosen Jerusalem from all the cities in Israel. I will put my name in the temple in Jerusalem forever. <sup>8</sup>I will not cause the people of Israel to leave the land which I gave to their ancestors.* I will let the people stay in their land if they obey all the things I commanded them and all the teachings that my servant Moses gave them." <sup>9</sup>But the people did not listen to God. Manasseh did more evil things than all the nations that lived in Canaan before Israel came. And the Lord destroyed those nations when the people of Israel came to take their land.

high places Places for worshiping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

altar(s) A stone table used for burning sacrifices offered as gifts to God.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Asherah pole These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshiped.

sacrificed ... altar Literally, "Made his son pass through the fire.

medium(s) A person that tries to communicate with the spirits of dead people.

wizard(s) A person that tries to use evil spirits to do magic.

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

eunuchs Men that had their sexual organs removed. Often important officials of the king were eunuchs.

aquaduct A ditch or pipe that carries water from one place to another.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord used his servants the prophets to say these things: <sup>11</sup>"Manasseh king of Judah has done these hated things and has done more evil than the Amorites before him. Manasseh also has caused Judah to sin because of his idols.* <sup>12</sup>So the Lord of Israel says, 'Look! I will bring so much trouble on Jerusalem and Judah that any person who hears about it will be shocked.* <sup>13</sup>I will stretch the measuring line of Samaria* and the plumb bob* of Ahab's family over Jerusalem. A man wipes a dish, and then he turns it upside down. I will do that to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>There will still be a few of my people left. But I will leave those people. I will give them to their enemies. Their enemies will take them prisoners—they will be like the valuable things soldiers take in war. <sup>15</sup>Why? Because my people did the things that I said were wrong. They have made me angry with them since the day their ancestors* came up out of Egypt. <sup>16</sup>And Manasseh killed many innocent people. He filled Jerusalem from one end to another with blood. And all those sins are in addition to the sins that caused Judah to sin. Manasseh caused Judah to do the things that the Lord said were wrong.'"

<sup>17</sup>All the things that Manasseh did, including the sins that he did, are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah. <sup>18</sup>Manasseh died and was buried with his ancestors.* Manasseh was buried in the Garden of Uzza. This garden was at his own house. Amon son of Manasseh became the new king after him.

Amon's Short Rule

<sup>19</sup>Amon was 22 years old when he began to rule. He ruled two years in Jerusalem. His

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

will be shocked Literally, "both his ears will tingle."

measuring ... Samaria Workers used a string with a weight to mark a straight line at the end of a stone wall. The pieces of stone that were outside the line were chipped off and thrown away. This was like God "throwing away" Samaria and Ahab's family of kings.

plumb bob A weight, such as a piece of lead, used to keep a measuring line straight up.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz from Jotbah.

<sup>20</sup>Amon did the things the Lord said were wrong, just like his father Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>Amon lived just like his father. Amon worshiped and served the same idols* his father did. <sup>22</sup>Amon left the Lord, the God of his ancestors*, and did not live the way the Lord wanted.

<sup>23</sup>Amon's servants made plans against him, and killed him in his own house. <sup>24</sup>The common people killed all the officers that made plans against King Amon. Then the people made Amon's son Josiah the new king after him.

<sup>25</sup>The other things that Amon did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah. <sup>26</sup>Amon was buried in his grave at the Garden of Uzza. Amon's son Josiah became the new king.

Josiah Begins His Rule Over Judah

22 Josiah was eight years old when he began to rule. He ruled 31 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. <sup>2</sup>Josiah did the things that the Lord said were right. Josiah followed God like his ancestor* David. Josiah obeyed God's teachings—he didn't change any of them.*

Josiah Orders the Temple Repaired

<sup>3</sup>During the 18th year that Josiah was king, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah son of Meshullam, the secretary, to the Lord's temple.* Josiah said, <sup>4</sup>"Go up to Hilkiah the high priest. He must get the money which the gate-keepers have gathered from the people. This money was brought into the temple of the Lord. <sup>5</sup>Then the priests must give the money to the workers that supervise the work on the Lord's temple. The priests must use the money ancestor Literally, "father." This means a person that people are descended from.

Josiah obeyed ... them Literally, "Josiah did not turn to the right or to the left."

to pay the workers to repair the Lord's temple. "There are carpenters, stone masons, and stonecutters. Use the money to buy timber and cut stone to fix the temple. 'Don't count the money that you give to the workers. Those workers can be trusted.'"

The Book of the Law Is Found in the Temple

<sup>8</sup>Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law in the Lord's temple!"<sup>9</sup> Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and Shaphan read it.

<sup>9</sup>Shaphan the secretary came to King Josiah and told him. Shaphan said, "Your servants have emptied out the money that was in the temple. They gave it to the workers that supervise the work on the Lord's temple."

<sup>10</sup>Then Shaphan the secretary told the king, "Hilkiah the priest has also given a book to me." Then Shaphan read the book to the king.

<sup>11</sup>When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes to show he was upset.<sup>12</sup> Then the king gave a command to Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the secretary, and Asaiah the king's servant. <sup>13</sup>King Josiah said, "Go and ask the Lord what we should do. Ask the Lord for me, for the people, and for all Judah. Ask about the words of this book that was found. The Lord is angry at us. Why? Because our ancestors* did not listen to the words of this book. They did not do all the things written for us!"

Josiah Sends His Men to Huldah the Prophetess

<sup>14</sup>So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the woman prophet.* Huldah was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas. He took care of the priests' clothes. Huldah was living in Jerusalem in the second quarter. They went and talked with Huldah.

<sup>15</sup>Then Huldah said to them, "The Lord God of Israel says: Tell the man that sent you to me: <sup>16</sup>'The Lord says this: I am bringing trouble on this place and on the people that live here. These are the troubles that are mentioned in the book that the king of Judah read. <sup>17</sup>The people of Judah have left me and have burned incense* to other gods. They made me very angry. They made many idols.* That is why I will show my anger against this place. My anger will be like a fire that can't be stopped!'

<sup>18-19</sup>"Josiah, the king of Judah, sent you to ask advice from the Lord. Tell Josiah these things: 'The Lord God of Israel said the words that you heard. You heard the things I said about this place and the people that live here. Your heart was soft, and you felt sorry when you heard those things. I said that terrible things would happen to this place (Jerusalem). And you tore your clothes to show your sadness, and you began to cry. That is why I heard you.' The Lord says this. <sup>20</sup>'I will bring you to be with your ancestors.* You will die and go to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the trouble that I am bringing on this place (Jerusalem).'"

Then Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah told the king.

The People Hear the Law

23 King Josiah told all the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem to come and meet with him. <sup>2</sup>Then the king went up to the Lord's temple. All the people of Judah and the people that lived in Jerusalem went with him. The priests, the prophets, and all the people—from the least important to the most important—went with him. Then he read the Book of the Agreement. This was the Book of the Law that was found in the Lord's temple. Josiah read the book so all the people could hear it.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

idols Statues of false gods that people worshiped.

temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

prophet A person called by God to be a special servant. God used dreams and visions to show them things to teach to the people.

<sup>1</sup>The king stood by the column and made an agreement with the Lord. He agreed to follow the Lord and to obey his commands, the Agreement, and his rules. He agreed to do this with all his heart and soul. He agreed to obey the Agreement written in this book. All the people stood to show they supported the king's agreement.

<sup>4</sup>Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the other priests, and the gatekeepers, to bring out of the Lord's temple* all the dishes and things that were made to honor Baal,* Asherah,* and the stars of heaven. Then Josiah burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron. Then they carried the ashes to Bethel.

<sup>5</sup>The kings of Judah had chosen some ordinary men to serve as priests. These men were not from the family of Aaron! Those false priests were burning incense* at the high places* in every city of Judah and all the towns around Jerusalem. They burned incense to honor Baal,* the sun, the moon, the constellations, and all the stars in the sky. But Hezekiah stopped those false priests.

<sup>6</sup>Josiah removed the Asherah Pole* from the Lord's temple.* He took the Asherah pole outside the city to the Kidron Valley and burned it there. Then he beat the burnt pieces into dust and scattered the dust over the graves of the common people.*

<sup>7</sup>Then King Josiah broke down the houses of the male prostitutes* that were in the Lord's temple. Women also used those houses and made little tent covers to honor the false goddess Asherah.

<sup>8,9</sup>At that time, the priests did not bring the sacrifices to Jerusalem and offer them on the altar in the temple. The priests lived in cities all over Judah. And they burned incense* and offered sacrifices at the high places* in those cities. Those high places were everywhere, from Geba to Beersheba. And the priests ate their unleavened bread in those towns with the ordinary people—not at the special place for priests in the temple in Jerusalem. But King Josiah defiled (ruined) those high places and brought the priests to Jerusalem. Hezekiah also destroyed the high places that were on the left, by Joshua Gate. (Joshua was the ruler of the city.)

<sup>10</sup>Topheth was a place in the Valley of Hinnom's Son where people killed their children and burned them on an altar to honor the false god Molech.* Josiah defiled (ruined) that place so people could not use that place again. <sup>11</sup>In the past, the kings of Judah had put some horses and a chariot* near the entrance to the Lord's temple. This was near the room of an important official named Nathan-Melech. The horses and chariot were to honor the sun god.* Josiah removed the horses and burned the chariot.

<sup>12</sup>In the past, the kings of Judah had built altars on the roof of Ahab's building. King Manasseh had also built altars in the two courtyards of the Lord's temple. Josiah destroyed all those altars and threw the broken pieces into Kidron Valley.

<sup>13</sup>In the past, King Solomon built some high places* on Destroyer Hill near Jerusalem. The high places were on the south side of that hill. King Solomon built one of those places of

temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Baal The Canaanite people believed that this false god brought the rain and storms. They also thought that he made the land produce good crops.

Asherah An important Canaanite goddess. At this time, the people thought she was the wife of Baal.

incense A kind of spice that smells good when it is burned. It was burned as a gift to God.

high place(s) Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

Asherah Pole These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshipped.

scattered ... people This was a strong way of showing that the Asherah pole could never be used again.

male prostitutes Men who used their bodies for sexual sin.

people ... Molech Literally, "people made their son or daughter pass through fire to Molech."

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

horses ... sun god The people thought the sun was a god that drove his chariot (the sun) across the sky each day.

worship to honor Ashtoreth, that horrible thing the people of Sidon worship. King Solomon also built one to honor Chemosh, that horrible thing the people of Moab worship. And King Solomon built one high place to honor Milcom, that horrible thing the people of Ammon worship. But King Josiah defiled (ruined) all those places of worship. <sup>14</sup>King Josiah broke all the memorial stones* and Asherah poles.* Then he scattered dead men's bones over that place.*

<sup>15</sup>Josiah also broke down the altar and high place* at Bethel. Jeroboam son of Nebat had made this altar. Jeroboam caused Israel to sin.* Josiah broke down both that altar and the high place. Josiah broke the stones of the altar to pieces. Then he beat it into dust. And he burned the Asherah pole. <sup>16</sup>Josiah looked around and saw graves on the mountain. He sent men, and they took the bones from those graves. Then he burned the bones on the altar. In this way, Josiah defiled (ruined) the altar. This happened according to the message from the Lord that the man of God* announced.* The man of God announced these things when Jeroboam stood beside the altar.

Then Josiah looked around and say the grave of the man of God.*

<sup>17</sup>Josiah said, "What is that monument I see?"

The people of the city told him, "It is the grave of the man of God* that came from Judah. This man of God told about the things you have done to the altar at Bethel. He said those things a long time ago."

<sup>18</sup>Josiah said, "Leave the man of God* alone. Don't move his bones."

memorial stones Stones that were set up to help people remember something special. In ancient Israel, people often set up stones as special places to worship false gods.

Asherah poles These poles were used to honor the female god Asherah that the Canaanite people worshiped.

scattered ... place This was the way he defiled (ruined) those places so they could not be used for places of worship.

high place(s) Places for worshipping God or false gods. These places were often on the hills and mountains.

Jeroboam ... sin See 1 Kings 12:26-30.

man of God Another name for a prophet.

announced See 1 Kings 13:1-3.

<sup>19</sup>Josiah also destroyed all the temples at the high places* in the cities of Samaria. The kings of Israel had built those temples. And that made the Lord very angry. Josiah destroyed those temples, just like he destroyed the place of worship at Bethel.

<sup>20</sup>Josiah killed all the priests of the high places that were in Samaria. He killed the priests on those altars. He burned men's bones on the altars. In this way he ruined those places of worship. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

The People of Judah Celebrate Passover

<sup>21</sup>The King Josiah gave a command to all the people. He said, "Celebrate Passover for the Lord your God. Do this the same as it is written in this Book of the Agreement."

<sup>22</sup>The people had not celebrated a Passover like this since the days that the judges ruled Israel. None of the kings of Israel or the kings of Judah ever had such a big celebration for Passover. <sup>23</sup>They celebrated this Passover for the Lord in Jerusalem during Josiah's 18th year as king.

<sup>24</sup>Josiah destroyed the mediums,* wizards,* the house gods, the idols,* and all the horrible things people worshiped in Judah and Jerusalem. Josiah did this to obey the Law written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the Lord's temple.*

<sup>25</sup>There had never been a king like Josiah before. Josiah turned to the Lord with all his heart, with all his soul, and with all his strength.* No king had followed all the Law of Moses like Josiah. And there has never been another king like Josiah since that time.

<sup>26</sup>But the Lord did not stop being angry at the people of Judah. The Lord was still angry at them for all the things that Manasseh had done. <sup>27</sup>The Lord said, "I have taken Israel from their land. I will do the same to Judah. I will take Judah out of my sight. I will not accept Jerusalem. Yes, I chose that city, but I will destroy the temple* there. And that is the place I was talking about when I said, 'My name will be there.'"

<sup>20</sup>All the other things that Josiah did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah.

The Death of Josiah

<sup>21</sup>In Josiah's time, Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went to fight against the king of Assyria at the Euphrates River. King Josiah went to fight against Pharaoh Neco. But in Megiddo, Pharaoh Neco saw Josiah and then killed him. <sup>22</sup>Josiah's servants carried the dead Josiah in a chariot* from Megiddo and took him to Jerusalem. They buried Josiah in his own grave.

Then the common people took Josiah's son Jehoahaz and anointed* him. They made Jehoahaz the new king.

Jehoahaz Becomes King of Judah

<sup>1</sup>Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king. He ruled three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. <sup>2</sup>Jehoahaz did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Jehoahaz did all the same things that his ancestors* had done.

<sup>3</sup>Pharaoh Neco captured Jehoahaz at Riblah in the country of Hamath. So Jehoahaz could not rule in Jerusalem. Pharaoh Neco forced Judah to pay 7,500 pounds* of silver and 75 pounds* of gold.

temple A special building for worshiping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

chariot(s) A small wagon used in war.

anoint(ed) To pour olive oil on a person's head to show he was chosen by God to be a king, priest, or prophet.

ancestors Literally, "fathers." This means a person's parents, grandparents, and all the people they are descended from.

7,500 pounds Literally, "100 talents."

75 pounds Literally, "1 talent."

<sup>4</sup>Pharaoh Neco made Josiah's son Eliakim the new king. Eliakim took the place of Josiah his father. Pharaoh Neco changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. And Pharaoh Neco took Jehoahaz away to Egypt. Jehoahaz died in Egypt. <sup>5</sup>Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh. But Jehoiakim made the common people pay taxes and used that money to give to Pharaoh Neco. So each person paid his share of silver and gold. And King Jehoiakim gave the money to Pharaoh Neco.

<sup>6</sup>Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king. He ruled eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah from Rumah. <sup>7</sup>Jehoiakim did the things that the Lord said were wrong. Jehoiakim did all the same things his ancestors* had done.

King Nebuchadnezzar Comes to Judah

24 In the time of Jehoiakim, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the country of Judah. Jehoiakim served Nebuchadnezzar for three years. Then Jehoiakim turned against Nebuchadnezzar and broke away from his rule. <sup>2</sup>The Lord sent groups of Babylonians, Arameans, Moabites, and Ammonites to fight against Jehoiakim. The Lord sent those groups to destroy Judah. This happened just like the Lord said. The Lord used his servants the prophets to say those things.

<sup>3</sup>The Lord commanded those things to happen to Judah. In this way, he would take them out of his sight. He did this because of all the sins that Manasseh did. <sup>4</sup>The Lord did this because Manasseh killed many innocent people. Manasseh had filled Jerusalem with their blood. And the Lord would not forgive those sins.

<sup>5</sup>The other things that Jehoiakim did are written in the Book of History about the Kings of Judah. <sup>6</sup>Jehoiakim died and, was buried with his ancestors.* Jehoiakim's son Jehoiachin became the new king after him.

<sup>7</sup>The king of Egypt did not leave Egypt any more because the king of Babylon had captured all the land, from the brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

Nebuchadnezzar Captures Jerusalem

<sup>8</sup>Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he began to rule. He ruled three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan from Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin did the things that the Lord said were wrong. He did all the same things that his father had done.

<sup>10</sup>At that time, the officers of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and surrounded it. <sup>11</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the city. <sup>12</sup>Jehoiachin king of Judah went out to meet the king of Babylon. Jehoiachin's mother, his officers, leaders, and officials also went with him. Then the king of Babylon captured Jehoiachin. This was during the eighth year of Nebuchadnezzar's rule.

<sup>13</sup>Nebuchadnezzar took from Jerusalem all the treasures in the Lord's temple* and all the treasures in the king's house. Nebuchadnezzar cut up all the golden dishes that Solomon king of Israel had put in the Lord's temple. This happened just like the Lord said.

<sup>14</sup>Nebuchadnezzar captured all the people of Jerusalem. He captured all the leaders and other wealthy people. He took 10,000 people and made them prisoners. Nebuchadnezzar took all the skilled workers and craftsmen. No person was left, except the poorest of the common people. <sup>15</sup>Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin to Babylon as a prisoner. Nebuchadnezzar also took the king's mother, his wives, officers, and the leading men of the land. Nebuchadnezzar took them from Jerusalem to Babylon as prisoners. <sup>16</sup>The king of Babylon also took all 7,000 of the soldiers and 1,000 of the skilled workers and craftsmen. These men were all soldiers and able to fight in war. The king of Babylon took them to Babylon as prisoners.

Zedekiah Begins His Rule

<sup>18</sup>Zedekiah was 21 years old when he began to rule. He ruled 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. <sup>19</sup>Zedekiah did the things the Lord said were wrong. Zedekiah did all the same things that Jehoiachin did.

<sup>20</sup>These things happened to Jerusalem and Judah because of the Lord's anger. In the same way, the Lord threw them away from himself.

Nebuchadnezzar Ends Zedekiah's Rule

Zedekiah broke away from the rule of the king of Babylon.

25 So Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came with all his army to fight against Jerusalem. Nebuchadnezzar made a camp around Jerusalem. They built a wall of dirt around Jerusalem. He did this to keep people from going in or out of the city. This happened in the ninth year, tenth month, and tenth day of Nebuchadnezzar's rule.

<sup>2</sup>Nebuchadnezzar's army stayed around Jerusalem until the eleventh year that Zedekiah was king of Judah. <sup>3</sup>On the ninth day of the fourth month, the time of hunger was terrible in the city. There was no food for the common people.

<sup>4</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar's army made a hole in the city wall. That night King Zedekiah and all his soldiers ran away. They ran away through the gate between the two walls by the king's garden. The Babylonian army was around the city. But Zedekiah and his army escaped on the road to the desert. <sup>5</sup>The Babylonian army chased King Zedekiah and caught him near Jericho. All Zedekiah's army ran away and left him alone.

<sup>6</sup>The Babylonians took King Zedekiah to the king of Babylon at Riblah. The king of Babylon decided to punish Zedekiah. <sup>7</sup>They killed Zedekiah's sons in front of him. Then they put out Zedekiah's eyes. They put chains on him and took him to Babylon.

temple A special building for worshipping God. God commanded the Jews to worship him at the temple in Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is Destroyed

<sup>8</sup>Nebuchadnezzar came to Jerusalem on the seventh day of the fifth month of the 19th year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon. Nebuzaradan was the captain of Nebuchadnezzar's bodyguards. <sup>9</sup>Nebuzaradan burned the Lord's temple* and the king's house. Nebuzaradan also burned all the houses in Jerusalem. He destroyed even the largest houses.

<sup>10</sup>Then the Babylonian army that was with Nebuzaradan pulled down the walls around Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup>And Nebuzaradan captured all the people that were still left in the city. Some of the people had agreed to obey King Nebuchadnezzar. But Nebuzaradan captured all those people too! He took every person that was left in the city. <sup>12</sup>Nebuzaradan let only the poorest of the common people stay there. He let those poor people stay and grow grapes and become farmers.

<sup>13</sup>The Babylonian soldiers broke into pieces the bronze columns that were in the Lord's temple.* They also broke into pieces the bronze carts and the large bronze tank that were in the Lord's temple. Then the Babylonian soldiers took the bronze pieces to Babylon. <sup>14</sup>The Babylonians also took the pots, shovels, snuffers,* spoons, and all the bronze dishes that were used in the Lord's temple. <sup>15</sup>Nebuzaradan took all the firepans and bowls. All those made of gold he took for the gold and all those of silver he took for the silver. <sup>16</sup>This is a list of the things he took: two columns, one tank,* and the carts that Solomon made for the Lord's temple. The bronze of these things was too heavy to be weighed. <sup>17</sup>Each column was approximately 27 feet* tall. The capitals* on the columns were made from bronze. Each snuffers They were like small cups used to put out lamps.

tank A very large basin with water.

27 feet Literally, "18 cubits."

capital(s) The decorated caps of stone or wood on the top of columns.

capital was 4½ feet* tall. On each capital there was a design like a net and pomegranates.* All of this was made from bronze. Both columns had the same kind of design.

The People of Judah Taken as Prisoners

<sup>18</sup>Then Nebuzaradan took Seraiah the high priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three men that guarded the entrance. <sup>19</sup>Nebuzaradan took one Jewish officer. He was the commander of the army. Nebuzaradan also took five of the king's advisers* that were found in the city. And he took the army captain's secretary. The army captain's secretary was the person that gathered together the common people and chose them to be soldiers. Nebuzaradan also took 60 other men that were found in the city. These men were just ordinary men. <sup>20</sup>Then Nebuzaradan took all these people to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>21</sup>The king of Babylon killed them at Riblah in the country of Hamath. So the people of Judah were led away as prisoners from their land.

Nebuchadnezzar Makes Gedaliah Governor of Judah

<sup>22</sup>Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon left some people in the land of Judah. He made Gedaliah son of Ahikam governor over those people in Judah. (Ahikam was the son of Shaphan.)

<sup>23</sup>When all the army captains and their men heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. These army captains were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah son of the Maachathite. <sup>24</sup>Then Gedaliah made promises to these army captains and their men. Gedaliah said to them, "Don't be afraid of the Babylonian officers. Live in the country, and serve the king of Babylon. Then everything will be all right with you."

4½ feet Literally, "3 cubits."

pomegranate A red fruit with many tiny seeds inside it.

Each seed is covered with a soft, tasty part of the fruit.

king's advisers Literally, "men that saw the king's face."

<sup>25</sup>But in the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, from the king's family, came with ten men and killed Gedaliah. Ishmael and these ten men also killed the Jews and Babylonians that were with Gedaliah at Mizpah.

<sup>26</sup>Then all the people, from the least important to the most important, and the army leaders ran away to Egypt. They ran away because they were afraid of the Babylonians.

<sup>27</sup>Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, let* Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison. This happened in the 37th year after Jehoiachin king of Judah was captured. This was on the 27th day of the twelfth month from the time that Evil-Merodach began to rule. <sup>28</sup>Evil-Merodach spoke kindly to Jehoiachin. Evil-Merodach put Jehoiachin's throne above the thrones of the kings that were with him in Babylon. <sup>29</sup>Evil-Merodach took away Jehoiachin's prison clothes and gave him new clothes. Then Jehoiachin ate at the same table with Evil-Merodach. He did this every day for the rest of his life. <sup>30</sup>So King Evil-Merodach gave Jehoiachin every meal he ate for the rest of his life.

<sup>2</sup>Shobal's son was Reaiah. Reaiah was Jahath's father. Jahath was the father of Ahumai and Lahad. The Zorathite people are descendants* of Ahumai and Lahad.

<sup>3</sup>Etam's sons were Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash. And they had a sister named Hazzelponi.

Jehoiakim's sons ... son This can be interpreted in two ways: (1) "This Zedekiah was the son of Jehoiakim and the brother of Jehoiachin," (2) "This Zedekiah is the son of Jehoiachin and the grandson of Jehoiakim."

Jeshaiiah Or, "Isaiiah."

Verse 21 The Hebrew is hard to understand in this verse.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

These were Hur's sons. Hur was Ephrathah's first son. And Ephrathah was the founder* of Bethlehem.

<sup>4</sup>Tekoa's father was Ashhur. Tekoa had two wives. Their names were Helah and Naarah <sup>6</sup>Naarah had Ahuzzam, Hopher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons Naarah had with Ashhur. <sup>7</sup>The sons of Helah were Zereth Zohar, Ethnan, and Koz. <sup>8</sup>Koz was the father of Anub and Hazzobebah. Koz also was the father of the family groups of Aharhel. Aharhel was Harum's son.

<sup>9</sup>Jabez was a very good man. He was better than his brothers. His mother said, "I have named him Jabez* because I was in much pain when I had him." <sup>10</sup>Jabez prayed to the God of Israel. Jabez said, "I wish you would truly bless me. I wish you would give me more land. Be near me and don't let anyone hurt me. Then I won't have any pain." And God gave Jabez what he asked for.

<sup>11</sup>Kelub was Shuhah's brother. Kelub was Mehir's father. Mehir was Eshton's father <sup>12</sup>Eshton was the father of Beth Rapha, Paseah and Tehinnah. Tehinnah was the father of I Nahash.* Those men were from Rechah.

<sup>13</sup>The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah. Othniel's sons were Hathath and Meonothai. <sup>14</sup>Meonothai was Ophrah's father.

And Seraiah was Joab's father. Joab was the founder* of the Ge Harashim.* Those people used that name because they were skilled workers.

<sup>15</sup>Caleb was Jephunneh's son. Caleb's sons were Iru, Elah, and Naam. Elah's son was Kenaz.

<sup>17-18</sup>Ezrah's sons were Jether, Mered, Ephraim and Jalon. Mered was the father of Miriam Shammai, and Ishbah. Ishbah was the father of Eshtemoa. Mered had a wife from Egypt. She founder Literally, "father," the person that started the city.

Jabez This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "pain."

Tehinnah ... Nahash Or, "Tehinnah was the founder of the city of Nahash." It means "city."

Ge Harashim This name also means, "Valley of the Skilled Workers."

had Jered, Heber, and Jekuthiel. Jered was Gedor's father. Heber was Soco's father. And Jekuthiel was Zanoah's father. These were the sons of Bithiah. Bithiah was Pharaoh's daughter. She was Mered's wife from Egypt.

<sup>19</sup>Mered's wife was Naham's sister. Mered's wife was from Judah.* The sons of Mered's wife were the father of Keilah and Eshtemoa. Keilah was from the Garmite people. And Eshtemoa was from the Maacathite people. <sup>20</sup>Shimon's sons were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon.

Ishi's sons were Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

<sup>21-22</sup>Shelah was Judah's son. Shelah had Er, Laadah, Jokim, the men from Cozeba, Joash, and Saraph. Er was the father of Lecah. Laadah was the father of Maresah and the family groups of linen* workers at Beth Ashbea. Joash and Saraph married Moabite women. Then they went back to Bethlehem.* The writings about this family are very old. <sup>23</sup>Those sons of Shelah were workers that made things from clay. They lived in Netaim and Gederah. They lived in those towns and worked for the king.

Simeon's Children

<sup>24</sup>Simeon's sons were Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul. <sup>25</sup>Shaul's son was Shallum. Shallum's son was Mibsam. Mibsam's son was Mishma.

<sup>26</sup>Mishma's son was Hammuel. Hammuel's son was Zaccur. Zaccur's son was Shimei. <sup>27</sup>Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters. But Shimei's brothers did not have many children. Shimei's brothers did not have large families. Their families were not large like the other family groups in Judah.

Ain, Rimmon, Token, and Ashan. <sup>33</sup>There were also other villages as far away as Baalath. This is where they lived. And they also wrote the history about their family.

<sup>34-38</sup>This is the list of men who were leaders of their family groups. They were Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah (Amaziah's son), Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah, Joshibiah son of Seraiah, Seraiah son of Asiel, Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, and Ziza (Shiphi's son). Shiphi was Allon's son, and Allon was Jedaiah's son. Jedaiah was Shimri's son, and Shimri was Shemaiah's son.

These men's families grew to be very large. <sup>39</sup>They went to the area outside the town of Gedor to the east side of the valley. They went to that place to look for fields for their sheep and cows. <sup>40</sup>They found good fields with plenty of grass. They found plenty of good land there. The land was peaceful and quiet. Ham's descendants* lived there in the past. <sup>41</sup>This happened during the time that Hezekiah was king of Judah. Those men came to Gedor and fought against the Hamite people. They destroyed the Hamite peoples' tents. Those men also fought against the Meunite people that lived there. These men destroyed all the Meunite people. There are no Meunite people in this place even today. So those men began to live there. They lived there because the land had grass for their sheep.

<sup>42</sup>Five hundred Simeonite people went to the hill country of Seir. Ishi's sons led those men. Those sons were, Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel. The Simeonite men fought against the people living in that place. <sup>43</sup>There were only a few Amalekite people still living. And these Simeonite people killed them. Since that time until now those Simeonite people have lived in Seir.

Reuben's Descendants

5 <sup>13</sup>Reuben was Israel's first son. Reuben should have received the special privileges of the oldest son. But Reuben had sexual relations with his father's wife. So those privileges were given to Joseph's sons. In the family history, Reuben's name is not listed as the first son. Judah became stronger than his brothers, so the leaders came from his family. But Joseph's family got the other privileges that belong to the oldest son. Reuben's sons were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

<sup>4</sup>These are the names of Joel's descendants:* Shemaiah was Joel's son. Gog was Shemaiah's son. Shimei was Gog's son. <sup>5</sup>Micah was Shimei's son. Reaiah was Micah's son. Baal was Reaiah's son. <sup>6</sup>Beerah was Baal's son. Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, forced Beerah to leave his home. So Beerah became the king's prisoner. Beerah was a leader of the family group of Reuben.

<sup>7</sup>Joel's brothers and all his family groups are listed just as they are written in the family histories: Jeiel was the first son, then Zechariah, <sup>8</sup>and Bela. Bela was Azaz's son. Azaz was Shema's son. Shema was Joel's son. They lived in the area of Aroer all the way to Nebo and Baal Meon. <sup>9</sup>Bela's people lived to the east as far as the edge of the desert, near the Euphrates River. They lived in that place because they had many cows in the land of Gilead. <sup>10</sup>When Saul was king, Bela's people fought a war against the Hagarite people. They defeated the Hagarite people. Bela's people lived in the tents that had belonged to the Hagarite people. They lived in those tents and traveled throughout the area east of Gilead.

Gad's Descendants

<sup>11</sup>The people from the family group of Gad lived near the people from the family group of Reuben. The Gadite people lived in the area of Bashan, all the way to the town of Salecah. <sup>12</sup>Joel was the first leader in Bashan. Shapham was the second leader. Then Janai became the leader.* <sup>13</sup>The seven brothers in their families were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber. <sup>14</sup>Those men were descendants* of Abihail. Abihail was Huri's son. Huri was Jaroh's son. Jaroh was Gilead's son. Gilead was Michael's son. Michael was Jeshishai's son. Jeshishai was Jahdo's son. Jahdo was Buz's son. <sup>15</sup>Ahi was Abdiel's son. Abdiel was Guni's son. Ahi was the leader of their family.

<sup>16</sup>The people in the family group of Gad lived in the area of Gilead. They lived in the area of Bashan, in the small towns around Bashan, and in all the fields in the area of Sharon all the way to the borders.

<sup>17</sup>During the time of Jotham and Jeroboam all these people's names were written in the family history of Gad. Jotham was the king of Judah and Jeroboam was the king of Israel.

Some Soldiers Skilled In War

<sup>18</sup>From half of Manasseh's family group and from the family groups of Reuben and Gad there were 44,760 brave men ready for war. They were skilled in war. They carried shields and swords. And they were also good with bows and arrows. <sup>19</sup>They started a war against the Hagarite people and the people of Jett Naphish, and Nodab. <sup>20</sup>Those men from the family groups of Manasseh, Reuben, and Gad prayed to God in the war. They asked God to help them because they trusted him. So God helped them. God allowed them to defeat the Hagarite people. And they also defeated those other people who were with the Hagarite people. <sup>21</sup>They took the animals that belonged to the Hagarite people. They took 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, 2,000 donkeys, and 100,000 people. <sup>22</sup>Many Hagarite people were killed because God helped the people of Reuben in the war. Then those people from the family groups of Manasseh, Reuben, and Gad lived in the land of the Hagarite people. They lived there until the time when the army of Babylon took the people of Israel and made them prisoners in Babylon.

<sup>23</sup>Half of Manasseh's family group lived in the area of Bashan all the way to Baal Hermon Senior, and Mount Hermon. They became a very large group of people.

descendants A person's children and all of their future families.

Then ... leader Or, "Then there was Janai. And then Shaphat was in Bashan."

<sup>22</sup>These were the family leaders from half of Manasseh's family group: Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were all strong and brave men. They were famous men. And they were leaders in their families. <sup>23</sup>But those leaders sinned against the God that their ancestors* worshiped. They began worshiping the false gods of the people living there—and those were the people God destroyed.

<sup>24</sup>The God of Israel made Pul want to go to war. Pul was the king of Assyria. He was also named Tiglath-Pileser. He fought against the people from the family groups of Manasseh, Reuben, and Gad. He forced them to leave their homes and made them prisoners. Pul brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and near the Gozan River. Those family groups from Israel have lived in those places since that time until today.

The Descendants of Levi

6 Levi's sons were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
